Community Bids Farewell To Father Schlinkert

Janet LaBeau Shurtliff

A solemn and respectful community gathered at St. Mary's last Monday to pay heartfelt tribute to Father Raymond Schlinkert whose passing was sadly announced last Friday.

Father Schlinkert had been Pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church on West Main Street since 1963.

He was involved in a car accident in mid-January and died from complications arising from injuries he sustained in that accident. He was 77.

The funeral was attended by the St. Mary's parishioners, friends in the community, Fr. Schlinkert's family, and the many, many priests, nuns, and other church officials who knew, loved and respected him.

The Funeral Mass began Monday morning at 11:00, but many people arrived early to pay their presided over the Mass. Bishop Walter J. Schoenherr from Detroit was the con-celebrant along with many of the numerous other priests in attendance.

While the occasion could not help but be sad, it was also full of joyful love as expressed through the many psalms and prayers which were sung by both the choir and the congregation.

Particularly moving was the 'Responsorial Psalm" which was sung by Fr. Schlinkert's sister, Sr. Jane Rose, SSJ, with those assembled joining her in the refrain, "Be with me, Lord, when I'm in trouble. Be with me, Lord, I pray."

In Bishop Povish's warm homily, he recalled that "a third to a half of the membership of St. Mary's has known no other pastor" than Fr. Schlinkert.

He described Fr. Schlinkert's profound impact on the parish, on the community, on the diocese, and also on the "wider church," that is, the whole United States, through his television show.

"This talented man moved in all these circles," Bishop Povish reminded those gathered.

For nearly thirty years, Father Schlinkert produced "With This Ring," an inspiring 15-minute program with a religious focus. It was broadcast in 45 markets across the country.

With the conclusion of the Mass, those gathered filed out into the brilliant noonday sun.

Manchester will miss a beloved and honored servant of God with the passing of Fr. Schlinkert.

As Bishop Povish said, "We are left with our memories of Ray Schlinkert - beautiful and precious memories of a good shepherd."

The Story Of A Boom

July 25, 1889

In 1871 there was an old worn out field in the central part of Alabama. It had been both corn field and cotton field alternately. and was not much good for either. The ground was broken into ridges and was difficult to cultivate. In digging and plowing up the ground a vein of very hard, dark metallic substance had been noticed. Somebody said it was iron ore, but no particular attention had been paid to it. A few more years passed over the shabby, neglected field. In 1877 Col. Sloss saw a man digging a Manchester Enterprise hole in the mountain side near the old field. The digger threw out lumps of coal with the clay. An idea struck Col. Sloss. Maybe there was a coal mine worth something there. In 1879 Henry deBardlaben visited the neighborhood of the old cotton field. The existence of both coal and iron were known now. Providence had put the two together on purpose for the convenience of man. Sloss just escaped being "dead broke" and Bardlaben was a clerk at very small wages. But the two joined hand and bought on credit large tracts of the new mineral lands.

Candidates Present Perceptions Of Village

What do you believe are the two biggest present challenges facing this community?

What three adjectives would you use to describe our Village?

Looking ahead to the turn of the century, what would you like Manchester to "look" like?

If you, as a Village official, were awarded a grant sufficient to make any one single improvement or change to the Village, what would you use the money

These are the four questions we asked the 8 candidates for Manchester Village Council and President to consider.

We hoped their answers would give the voters some insight into the candidates' "perception of the Village" and the path they might work to move the Village along.

The candidates were given these questions to answer in their own words. They were limited to 200 words minimum.

The election will be held on Monday, March 12. You may vote for one candidate for Village president and three candidates for Village council.

Mary Kallewaard - President

2 CHALLENGES

- 1. Keeping Village services at an acceptable level
- 2. Keeping Manchester affordable for all its citizens (especially seniors)

3 ADJECTIVES

growing. Productive, manding

MANCHESTER 2000

I'd like it to look like Manchester.

IF YOU HAD A GRANT

To pay off the debt of the new wastewater treatment plant and sewer work. That would reduce taxes by 27%.

Richard L. Boatwright - President

2 CHALLENGES

One is the separation of the storm drain and sanitary sewer. We have a fine modern facility with an archaic sewer system. This must be corrected for environmental impact and for no less reason that the State insists.

The second challenge is to increase the tax base by attracting Hi-Tech or non polluting enterprises. Our river is one of our assets and can become an ever increasing one.

3 ADJECTIVES

Friendly, picturesque, secure

MANCHESTER 2000

We are at the demographic out-reach of Ann Arbor. This cannot help but have an impact upon our village. I would like to see the village maintain its 19th century charm with carefully guarded development of single and multiple dwellings and clean industry. Manchester has the potential to rival the Village of Franklin set in the Rochester Hills rather than become a party to the strip malls and ultimate suburban blight snaking its way down Jackson Road out of Ann Arbor. Equally important is for Manchester to maintain its strong sense of community.

IF YOU HAD A GRANT

A house is no stronger than its foundation. I would separate the storm and sewer drains.

Bill Kwolek - Council

I believe in the 1990's we are poised to receive a larger portion of Washtenaw county's fast paced growth. This challenges us to attract a balance of industrial, commercial and residential development, preserve our historical character, and exercise stewardship over our natural resources. We must also comply with the state mandated completion of our stormwater and sanitary sewer separation program. Controlling taxes will require intelligence and hard work.

A birdseye view of Manchester in 2000 might reveal a completely restored Exchange Place district attracting business with both local and regional appeal. Further along M-52 both north and south of town, we might see expanded commercial and industrial districts offering convenience without congestion or strip develop-

If we received a grant, I would enjoy seeing a community center constructed near the water tower. The natural beauty of Chi-Bro Park would enhance the appeal of a central location with plenty of parking, close to downtown, Klager and the Athletic Complex.

Last June after the storm. many citizens demonstrated how worthwhile it is to live in Manchester. They volunteered time, equipment and material for the clean-up. When we work together in unity of purpose, our village becomes our hometown.

Deborah Havens - Council

2 CHALLENGES

Visionary Leadership/-Controlled Development: Look down Saline-Ann Arbor Road or M-52 North to see change coming. Saline is only ten minutes away from Ann Arbor, and it won't be long before people realize Manchester is only fifteen minutes farther.

Our village has already experienced friction as the needs and wants of business and area residents collide. What we all need is responsive effective government that can bring us together as good neighbors, everyone a winner.

Manchester faces choices as it develops a healthy economic base. Do we want a strip of neon-lit fast food restaurants? Will we look like every other small town overrun by urban expansion? Will we lose our historic identity? We're shaping the 21st century with the decisions we make now.

3 ADJECTIVES

Historic, unique, potential

MANCHESTER 2000

New homes nestle around the outskirts of the village in treelined neighborhoods. Main Street is completely restored and is bustling with retail activity. Walco has grown into a shopping plaza with a brick courtyard for summer sitting, an arcade, theatre, and recycling center.

IF YOU HAD A GRANT

A grant to separate our sewer systems and develop riverbank parks would allow us to both protect and enjoy the River Raisin, a most precious resource.

Michael Gordon - Council

2 CHALLENGES

Population growth predictions in the 90's for Washtenaw County will undeniably impact Manchester. Our first challenge as a community is to plan proactively to adapt to that growth on our terms. Secondly, we must plan for the future needs of our residents in terms of commerce, services, education and recreation. At the same time, it is essential that we strive to preserve the integrity of our small town environment - an asset we all cherish.

3 ADJECTIVES and MANCHESTER 2000

We have the ability to maintain that "quaint" and "unassuming" atmosphere while at the same time using our "common sense" approach to decide our future together. With this in mind, I visualize Manchester in the year 2000 as both a home and a haven - a home for residents who will enjoy an invigorating downtown business climate, continued ef-

...It costs $40,000 to rebuild a $13,000 car, part by part.

These three factors: skyrocketing cost of repairing cars. epairing people, and the use of attorneys to settle claims all contribute to the increasing cost of your auto insurance.

...Health care expenses rose 10% last year, double the general inflation rate.

That is why it's smart to shop around for the right coverage at the right price to fit your needs. You can avoid much of the legwork by using independent agents.

...Accident victims not only get a lower percentage of claim payments when they use lawyers, but must wait twice as long to receive their settlements.

Independent agents represent more than one company so they can get several quotes for you. Independent agents are also supporting insurance industry and legislative reforms that will benefit their customers. These include working towards ceilings on premium increases and urging manadatory seat belt laws, to name two. How many agents that sell for only one company can say that? After all, keeping customers happy keeps independent agents in business.

Town Meeting Follow-Up

The recent Town Meeting on recreation in the Manchester community had 70 people attend. About a third of that group is expected to return to the same auditorium this Saturday as members of the Recreation Action Committee.

The meeting will bring together those people who volunteered to attend a follow-up session in order to develop a plan for recreation in Manchester. The Recreation Action Committee meeting is sponsored by the Community Resource Center. Director Dianne Schwab says the meeting has three goals: 1. To address the organization of activities that will happen in the next few months. 2. To generate ideas and possibly make decisions on implementing a study of long term expectations.

3. To organize working groups to accomplish the tasks.

Manchester Daycare Provider's Meeting

A group of concerned Manchester Daycare providers would like to extend an invitation to all people who are doing child care in their homes and to anyone who might be interested in starting a home day care. The meeting will be held from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., Wednesday, February 21, at 610 Parr St., Manchester.

The meeting is to discuss general childcare concerns: bookkeeping, contracts, burnout, arts and craft ideas, federal tax laws, licensing requirements and benefits.

In addition we are interested in setting up a referral list to help parents find openings with currently established Daycare providers. A secondary goal is to discuss the viability of setting up a substitute referral list to enable current providers the opportunity to runerrands while providing part-time employment to qualified substitutes.

forts in upgrading utilities and dramatically impact the quality of excellent school system; a haven for visitors as THE spot to "relax in the past," enjoying parks, restaurants, and weekend celebrations.

IF YOU HAD A GRANT

The icing on the cake for our community would be the construction of a complete recreation center serving our youth and adults alike, with funds earmarked for additional programs. This is how I would use our grant.

Joseph J. Marshall - Council

The Village of Manchester is a unique and special community. The quality of life has always been important here. We moved to Manchester and made our home here because we felt that the community was progressive yet had a distinct sense of its own history. The village motto says it best: Manchester is "a progressive community that preserves its heritage with a turn of the century motif." I have always been concerned with public safety as a police officer. My feelings have not changed over the years. I continue to view Manchester as a progressive, historic and safe community. A community where residents are secure in their own homes and free to pursue their respective dreams and ambitions. My hope is that we may continue this way without major changes as we move forward into the twenty-first century.

Perhaps the two most important issues facing our community are those presented by solid waste disposal and land use planning. The decisions that we make in the near future will lationship between single and services, and the benefits of an our daily lives and those of our children well into the twenty first century. Lastly, the single most important improvement to our community, undoubtedly, would be the completion of our sanitary/storm water sewer system.

Raymond "Bink" Steele - Council 2 CHALLENGES

I believe Manchester community's two biggest challenges today are the residential/industrial growth and completion of the current sewer and water project.

3 ADJECTIVES

Travelers passing through Manchester notice our scenic, tree-lined streets, and the business district looking like a small town did many years ago; not like some shiny new city. They think to themselves "how quaint this village is". After all, how many towns do you pass through where there is still a drinking fountain on the main street corner and friendly folks everywhere ready to answer your endless questions. MANCHESTER 2000

The serenity of Manchester has always appealed to me and I do not wish to see any change that would adversely affect the harmony of the town.

IF YOU HAD A GRANT

I would apply the grant towards the construction of a community center. The center would be available to Manchester's community groups, i.e. senior citizens, boy and girl scouts, as well as being used for other civic and recreational functions.

Christopher Brooks - Council

multiple unit housing, merchants who furnish retail goods and services, and industries localized in the Village's zoned industrial park.

B. Preparing ourselves for the reality of inevitable residential and commercial expansion rolling across Washtenaw County like a tidal wave.

MANCHESTER 2000

Main Street will look the same except merchant and quality rental unit occupancy will be full. New businesses in the industrial park as well as existing businesses will be prospering, providing jobs and a good tax base which will be stimulating the Village's growth.

The feuding involving Plastics, residents, Stamping, and the Village that produced deep wounds in 1989 has been forgotten. Constructive negotiations with less finger pointing and more problem solving now results in win-win scenarios.

Parks continue to provide year round recreation to its residents. The community pool and resource center, funded by industry, residents, and the Village, will be readily available to all of us.

Senior citizen housing will be available, multiple family dwelling will be available in appropriately zoned areas, and single unit housing will have expanded throughout the Village.
