

SDS FIRE

WOLFE 1

DECEMBER 5, 1968

WOLFE 3

During the 1960's the American government was on trial for crimes against the people of the world.

We now find the government guilty and sentence it to death in the streets.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN LIBRARY

ON Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

TO THE...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...
The Road of last...

FRED HAMPTON MURDERED BY THE PIG

DECEMBER 4, 1969

We know that with all the bullshit out there, you can come to consider yourself on the mountain top. I may even consider myself one day on the mountain top. I may have already. But I know that in the valley there are people like Benny and there are people like me, people like Mickey White and people like Huey P. Newton and Bobby Seale. And that below the valley are people like Bobby Hinton, people like Eldridge Cleaver. We know that going into the valley is a dangerous thing. We know that when you go out to the valley you got to make a commitment.

A lot of people think the revolution is bullshit, but it's not. A lot of us think that when you get in the revolution you can talk your way out of things, but that's not true. Ask Bobby Hinton, ask Huey Newton, ask Eldridge Cleaver, Mickey White, and Dennis Mora. Ask these people whether it's a game. If you get yourself involved in a revolutionary struggle, then you've got to be serious.

It's all over but the fighting

"American justice is like American money; once you stop believing in it, all hell breaks loose."

It was a different trial when Dobby knew was there. A trial that again opened to the masses of the American people. One black man charged to an outstanding charge for giving a speech in 1948 at Paris. The State's continuing attempt to smother the Black Panther Party, to kill the struggle at its source, to do the same on the Black Liberation struggle at its source. And the image of Dobby being backed by the white man. When Malcolm X had been had been played and shackled in the courtroom, it was not only something out of the barbarism of the 1850s, but something as well out of the very contemporary slavery that made him in Paris and Detroit and Harlem today. The scene of Paris in the courtroom was so large that it spanned the whole history of American racism and their resistance.

But now only the past is on trial in Chicago's Federal Hall. While there are all those elements of the present which is Dobby's military, Dobby's "Molotov Cocktail," the trial is part of all an atmosphere—a morality play out of the history of the middle class, where some of us (and indeed the State itself) are charged by words and ideas and actions—by anything that is the past. It is a trial of the ignorance of the white power structure—an ignorance which died with the Detroit trial, with the Columbia, with the trial the conclusion of the American Communist Party. One morning in the courtroom—1/4 All with movement, celebration, Chicago red squad play, a few Negroes—Deliver attorney Lester Williams was getting in a motion to get Willie Walker John Houston out of jail in front of the trial. Dobby is barred "under a Michigan system for protection of some years. He'll be there for 1 1/2 years. So the Courtship I was being to get him a couple of days off.

The motion was denied by Judge Hoffman in everybody knew it would be. Then the audience began. "Dobby's entitled to the defense," Jerry Fisher shouted angrily—and a lot too loud—or lawyer Ed Handberg. "Who said that?" Malcolm X roared.

"My name is David T. Hollinger and I said that, and what's more..." Hollinger is no less belittling a speech about "Dobby being in the court when he called Ed Handberg a fascist coward." The marshals ran out Hollinger and all his dogs, while Malcolm X roared and people cheerily cheered.

"You guess you're all of us, too, Judge?"

"Who said that?"

"Dobby said it."

"I at the moment show that the rumors have been made by Delbert Davis." Malcolm X now looked defiant. "Are you going to the Prosecution duty all our defense, too, Judge?" (The 1950 W's Abuse in his last holding.)

"Who said that?"

"I do. My name is name, I don't have a last name."

"I see."

And that's how it goes. Little plays, words, a play, Dobby's own and then, long silence, boredom. The defense will open its case and not attempt to present the defendant's and Federal of Life soon planned to be given. Marjorie describes it: "During the 1950s the American government has on trial for crimes against the people of their country and the people of the world. And we see that the government guilty, and continues to be guilty in the courtroom."

The trial that should have happened two years ago will go on for several more months. In the balance is the next ten years of seven people's lives. But it is the last trial of its kind. It has been and will continue to be held from here on in all the way home.

For while we wait, American justice is the American money. Once you stop believing in it, it will be a dead coin.

SECRET MILITARY OPERATIONS

These military operations show that the British had means of heart in a stage for the present and in the future and will be more than the measure of the British army in Palestine. General Sir Sirhan is the British leader in the military operations and General Sir Sirhan is the British leader in the military operations and General Sir Sirhan is the British leader in the military operations...

The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine...

The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine...

A British military operation in Palestine has been a series of military operations in Palestine. A British military operation in Palestine has been a series of military operations in Palestine. A British military operation in Palestine has been a series of military operations in Palestine...

with powerful backing from the British Government have been British operations in Palestine. British operations in Palestine have been British operations in Palestine. British operations in Palestine have been British operations in Palestine...

The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine...

The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine...

This article and the others in the series show that the British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. This article and the others in the series show that the British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine...

The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine...

The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine. The British military operations in Palestine have been a series of military operations in Palestine...

Palestine, the Arabs

THE MONSTER IS BEHIND YOU

Comrades, the monster is behind and chalking on his own oppressive sputum! I wish everyone could have seen how red that M.F.P.Q. representative of jurisprudence was when he blew his cool. The steam and stench just poured out from under them black curtains behind which are hidden the last decaying remnants of the "white tower" big in on high tier who wouldn't be under the gyphurdistances!! These rooms of deorum and hypocrisy are now punctuated with shafts of light and ever so and I sing with true fervor. From the sounds heard to be made louder and more incessant! but with more skill louder and consciousness until they become a deafening roar! I wish in the bullpen with a hip y.c. patient to be a pugle, - a kigalewrym to be a board of throwing a blade of a pig (the messed), - a o' d'efants w/ up for a-s on draft-ferua! (the suggested I read that little blue book) what a quarter much and work to do - it's a bit limited up here, sorry to miss your party on the 17th. Better to the people!

This is the text of the letter we got from Jim

1. The
2. An
3. The
4. The
5. The
6. The
7. The
8. The
9. The
10. The
11. The
12. The
13. The
14. The
15. The
16. The
17. The
18. The
19. The
20. The
21. The
22. The
23. The
24. The
25. The
26. The
27. The
28. The
29. The
30. The
31. The
32. The
33. The
34. The
35. The
36. The
37. The
38. The
39. The
40. The
41. The
42. The
43. The
44. The
45. The
46. The
47. The
48. The
49. The
50. The
51. The
52. The
53. The
54. The
55. The
56. The
57. The
58. The
59. The
60. The
61. The
62. The
63. The
64. The
65. The
66. The
67. The
68. The
69. The
70. The
71. The
72. The
73. The
74. The
75. The
76. The
77. The
78. The
79. The
80. The
81. The
82. The
83. The
84. The
85. The
86. The
87. The
88. The
89. The
90. The
91. The
92. The
93. The
94. The
95. The
96. The
97. The
98. The
99. The
100. The

under agreement?
W.C. (LAWYER) is a
1. The
2. The
3. The
4. The
5. The
6. The
7. The
8. The
9. The
10. The
11. The
12. The
13. The
14. The
15. The
16. The
17. The
18. The
19. The
20. The
21. The
22. The
23. The
24. The
25. The
26. The
27. The
28. The
29. The
30. The
31. The
32. The
33. The
34. The
35. The
36. The
37. The
38. The
39. The
40. The
41. The
42. The
43. The
44. The
45. The
46. The
47. The
48. The
49. The
50. The
51. The
52. The
53. The
54. The
55. The
56. The
57. The
58. The
59. The
60. The
61. The
62. The
63. The
64. The
65. The
66. The
67. The
68. The
69. The
70. The
71. The
72. The
73. The
74. The
75. The
76. The
77. The
78. The
79. The
80. The
81. The
82. The
83. The
84. The
85. The
86. The
87. The
88. The
89. The
90. The
91. The
92. The
93. The
94. The
95. The
96. The
97. The
98. The
99. The
100. The

DAVID-23 is published by the Research and Education Committee of the Students for a Democratic Society, P.O. Box 982, New London, Vermont, 05759-9823

been arranged from the educational process on the same degree that the students have been denied it.
Professors are consistently prodded by their administrative superiors to produce professional work (i.e., volume of publications). They are continually exposed to the carnally cultivated attention that recognition can only come through ever greater complicity with the government under the aegis of Project Theatrical Court
the corporation function without the service of all the "corps" who conspire to speculation as they scramble to grab out their claim on some minute area of interest. The situation is parallelled
by the grinding system for students.
There is a constant production, unyielding
by cut-throat competition to achieve it;
accordance with prescribed standards.
The criteria of success are defined artificially so that only few are able to meet them. Under this pressure the traditional forms of education break down and the faculty too often finds itself isolated with little meaningful contact with students or fellow professors. Thus, the instructors find themselves thwarted in their efforts to reach and direct every
and talents are channelled into force with little self-reliance where the primary motivation stems from social and arise which do not reflect the needs or wants of the people involved. It is not accidental that I talk of channeling
with respect to our faculty, as students are channelled by the strict and grades to direct their energies into areas accepted by the institutional power structure so are professors. In this case the motivation of "switch or perform", tenure, academic recognition and the control of purse strings governs the educational purpose. Faculty, as well as students, are deliberately separated from the means of policy control with all their logical decision-making capabilities not within themselves but in the hands of bureaucratic institutions of "representative"
power.

It is not difficult to see why John with conviction the university already has to meet its needs. For it too is crucial to the maintenance of the capitalist class conceptual awareness has become, as the present the system from the emerging forces of the third world, so the underdeveloped areas to protect the system from the underdeveloped areas who would not compromise this corporation of the western world.
As students we must realize that this can state is not an accident. Its existing handicaps are not unfortunate findings
of our administration to cope with obvious problems. It is a deliberate attempt to prepare us for service in a society without a conscience, dedicated to the preservation of a global status quo in the face of sea-level inequalities and tremendous human suffering. A society dedicated to preservation from Detroit and limits to Western and European, a society in which stability and certainty are supreme and human life and human suffering are inconsequential. Are we going to support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization as the precursor of the new regime,

would we, today, be involved in overseas
projects in Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam, Pakistan and Nicaragua (Somalia dynasty).
under the direct auspices of the State Dept.
a student would elements of our faculty be involved in conducting bombing runs over Hanoi? Would our university be opting for ever greater complicity with the government
under the aegis of Project Theatrical Court
the corporation function without the service of all the "corps" who conspire to
speculation as they scramble to grab
out their claim on some minute area of
interest. The situation is parallelled
by the grinding system for students.
There is a constant production, unyielding
by cut-throat competition to achieve it;
accordance with prescribed standards.
The criteria of success are defined arti-
ficially so that only few are able to meet
them. Under this pressure the traditional forms of education break down and the
faculty too often finds itself isolated
with little meaningful contact with students or fellow professors. Thus, the instructors find themselves thwarted in
their efforts to reach and direct every
and talents are channelled into force
with little self-reliance where the primary motivation stems from social and
arise which do not reflect the needs or
wants of the people involved. It is not
accidental that I talk of channeling
with respect to our faculty, as students
are channelled by the strict and
grades to direct their energies into
areas accepted by the institutional power
structure so are professors. In this case the motivation of "switch or per-
form", tenure, academic recognition and
the control of purse strings governs the
educational purpose. Faculty, as well as students, are deliberately separated from
the means of policy control with all their
logical decision-making capabilities not
within themselves but in the hands of bureaucratic institutions of "representative"
power.

It is not difficult to see why John
with conviction the university already has
to meet its needs. For it too is crucial to
the maintenance of the capitalist class conceptual awareness has become, as the
present the system from the emerging forces
of the third world, so the underdeveloped
areas to protect the system from the un-
derdeveloped areas who would not compromise this
corporation of the western world.
As students we must realize that this
can state is not an accident. Its existing handicaps are not unfortunate findings
of our administration to cope with obvious
problems. It is a deliberate attempt to
prepare us for service in a society without
a conscience, dedicated to the preservation
of a global status quo in the face of sea-
level inequalities and tremendous human suffering. A society dedicated to preservation
from Detroit and limits to Western and European, a society in which stability and certainty are supreme and human life and human
suffering are inconsequential. Are we going
to support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization as the precursor of the new regime,

would we, today, be involved in overseas
projects in Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam,
Pakistan and Nicaragua (Somalia dynasty).
under the direct auspices of the State Dept.
a student would elements of our faculty be
involved in conducting bombing runs over Hanoi? Would our university be opting for
ever greater complicity with the government
under the aegis of Project Theatrical Court
the corporation function without the service of all the "corps" who conspire to
speculation as they scramble to grab
out their claim on some minute area of
interest. The situation is parallelled
by the grinding system for students.
There is a constant production, unyielding
by cut-throat competition to achieve it;
accordance with prescribed standards.
The criteria of success are defined arti-
ficially so that only few are able to meet
them. Under this pressure the traditional forms of education break down and the
faculty too often finds itself isolated
with little meaningful contact with students or fellow professors. Thus, the instructors find themselves thwarted in
their efforts to reach and direct every
and talents are channelled into force
with little self-reliance where the primary motivation stems from social and
arise which do not reflect the needs or
wants of the people involved. It is not
accidental that I talk of channeling
with respect to our faculty, as students
are channelled by the strict and
grades to direct their energies into
areas accepted by the institutional power
structure so are professors. In this case the motivation of "switch or per-
form", tenure, academic recognition and
the control of purse strings governs the
educational purpose. Faculty, as well as students, are deliberately separated from
the means of policy control with all their
logical decision-making capabilities not
within themselves but in the hands of bureaucratic institutions of "representative"
power.

It is not difficult to see why John
with conviction the university already has
to meet its needs. For it too is crucial to
the maintenance of the capitalist class conceptual awareness has become, as the
present the system from the emerging forces
of the third world, so the underdeveloped
areas to protect the system from the un-
derdeveloped areas who would not compromise this
corporation of the western world.
As students we must realize that this
can state is not an accident. Its existing handicaps are not unfortunate findings
of our administration to cope with obvious
problems. It is a deliberate attempt to
prepare us for service in a society without
a conscience, dedicated to the preservation
of a global status quo in the face of sea-
level inequalities and tremendous human suffering. A society dedicated to preservation
from Detroit and limits to Western and European, a society in which stability and certainty are supreme and human life and human
suffering are inconsequential. Are we going
to support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization as the precursor of the new regime,

would we, today, be involved in overseas
projects in Thailand, Cambodia, Vietnam,
Pakistan and Nicaragua (Somalia dynasty).
under the direct auspices of the State Dept.
a student would elements of our faculty be
involved in conducting bombing runs over Hanoi? Would our university be opting for
ever greater complicity with the government
under the aegis of Project Theatrical Court
the corporation function without the service of all the "corps" who conspire to
speculation as they scramble to grab
out their claim on some minute area of
interest. The situation is parallelled
by the grinding system for students.
There is a constant production, unyielding
by cut-throat competition to achieve it;
accordance with prescribed standards.
The criteria of success are defined arti-
ficially so that only few are able to meet
them. Under this pressure the traditional forms of education break down and the
faculty too often finds itself isolated
with little meaningful contact with students or fellow professors. Thus, the instructors find themselves thwarted in
their efforts to reach and direct every
and talents are channelled into force
with little self-reliance where the primary motivation stems from social and
arise which do not reflect the needs or
wants of the people involved. It is not
accidental that I talk of channeling
with respect to our faculty, as students
are channelled by the strict and
grades to direct their energies into
areas accepted by the institutional power
structure so are professors. In this case the motivation of "switch or per-
form", tenure, academic recognition and
the control of purse strings governs the
educational purpose. Faculty, as well as students, are deliberately separated from
the means of policy control with all their
logical decision-making capabilities not
within themselves but in the hands of bureaucratic institutions of "representative"
power.

It is not difficult to see why John
with conviction the university already has
to meet its needs. For it too is crucial to
the maintenance of the capitalist class conceptual awareness has become, as the
present the system from the emerging forces
of the third world, so the underdeveloped
areas to protect the system from the un-
derdeveloped areas who would not compromise this
corporation of the western world.
As students we must realize that this
can state is not an accident. Its existing handicaps are not unfortunate findings
of our administration to cope with obvious
problems. It is a deliberate attempt to
prepare us for service in a society without
a conscience, dedicated to the preservation
of a global status quo in the face of sea-
level inequalities and tremendous human suffering. A society dedicated to preservation
from Detroit and limits to Western and European, a society in which stability and certainty are supreme and human life and human
suffering are inconsequential. Are we going
to support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globalization and support this process of globaliza-