

The MASSES

JANUARY, 1914

10 CENTS

Drawn by George Bellows.

THE MASSES

Designed by Charles A. Winter.

THE OLD RIDDLE AND THE NEW

The MASSES

FEBRUARY, 1914

19 CENTS

Drawn by Cornelia Burns.

Where Ignorance Is Bliss

THE MASSES

Drawn by Glen Coleman

"Oh give me back my place agin—
T'row Lincoln off de cent!"

The MASSES

MARCH, 1914

10 CENTS

FRANK WALTERS 13

Drawn by Frank Walts

— GlintenKamp —

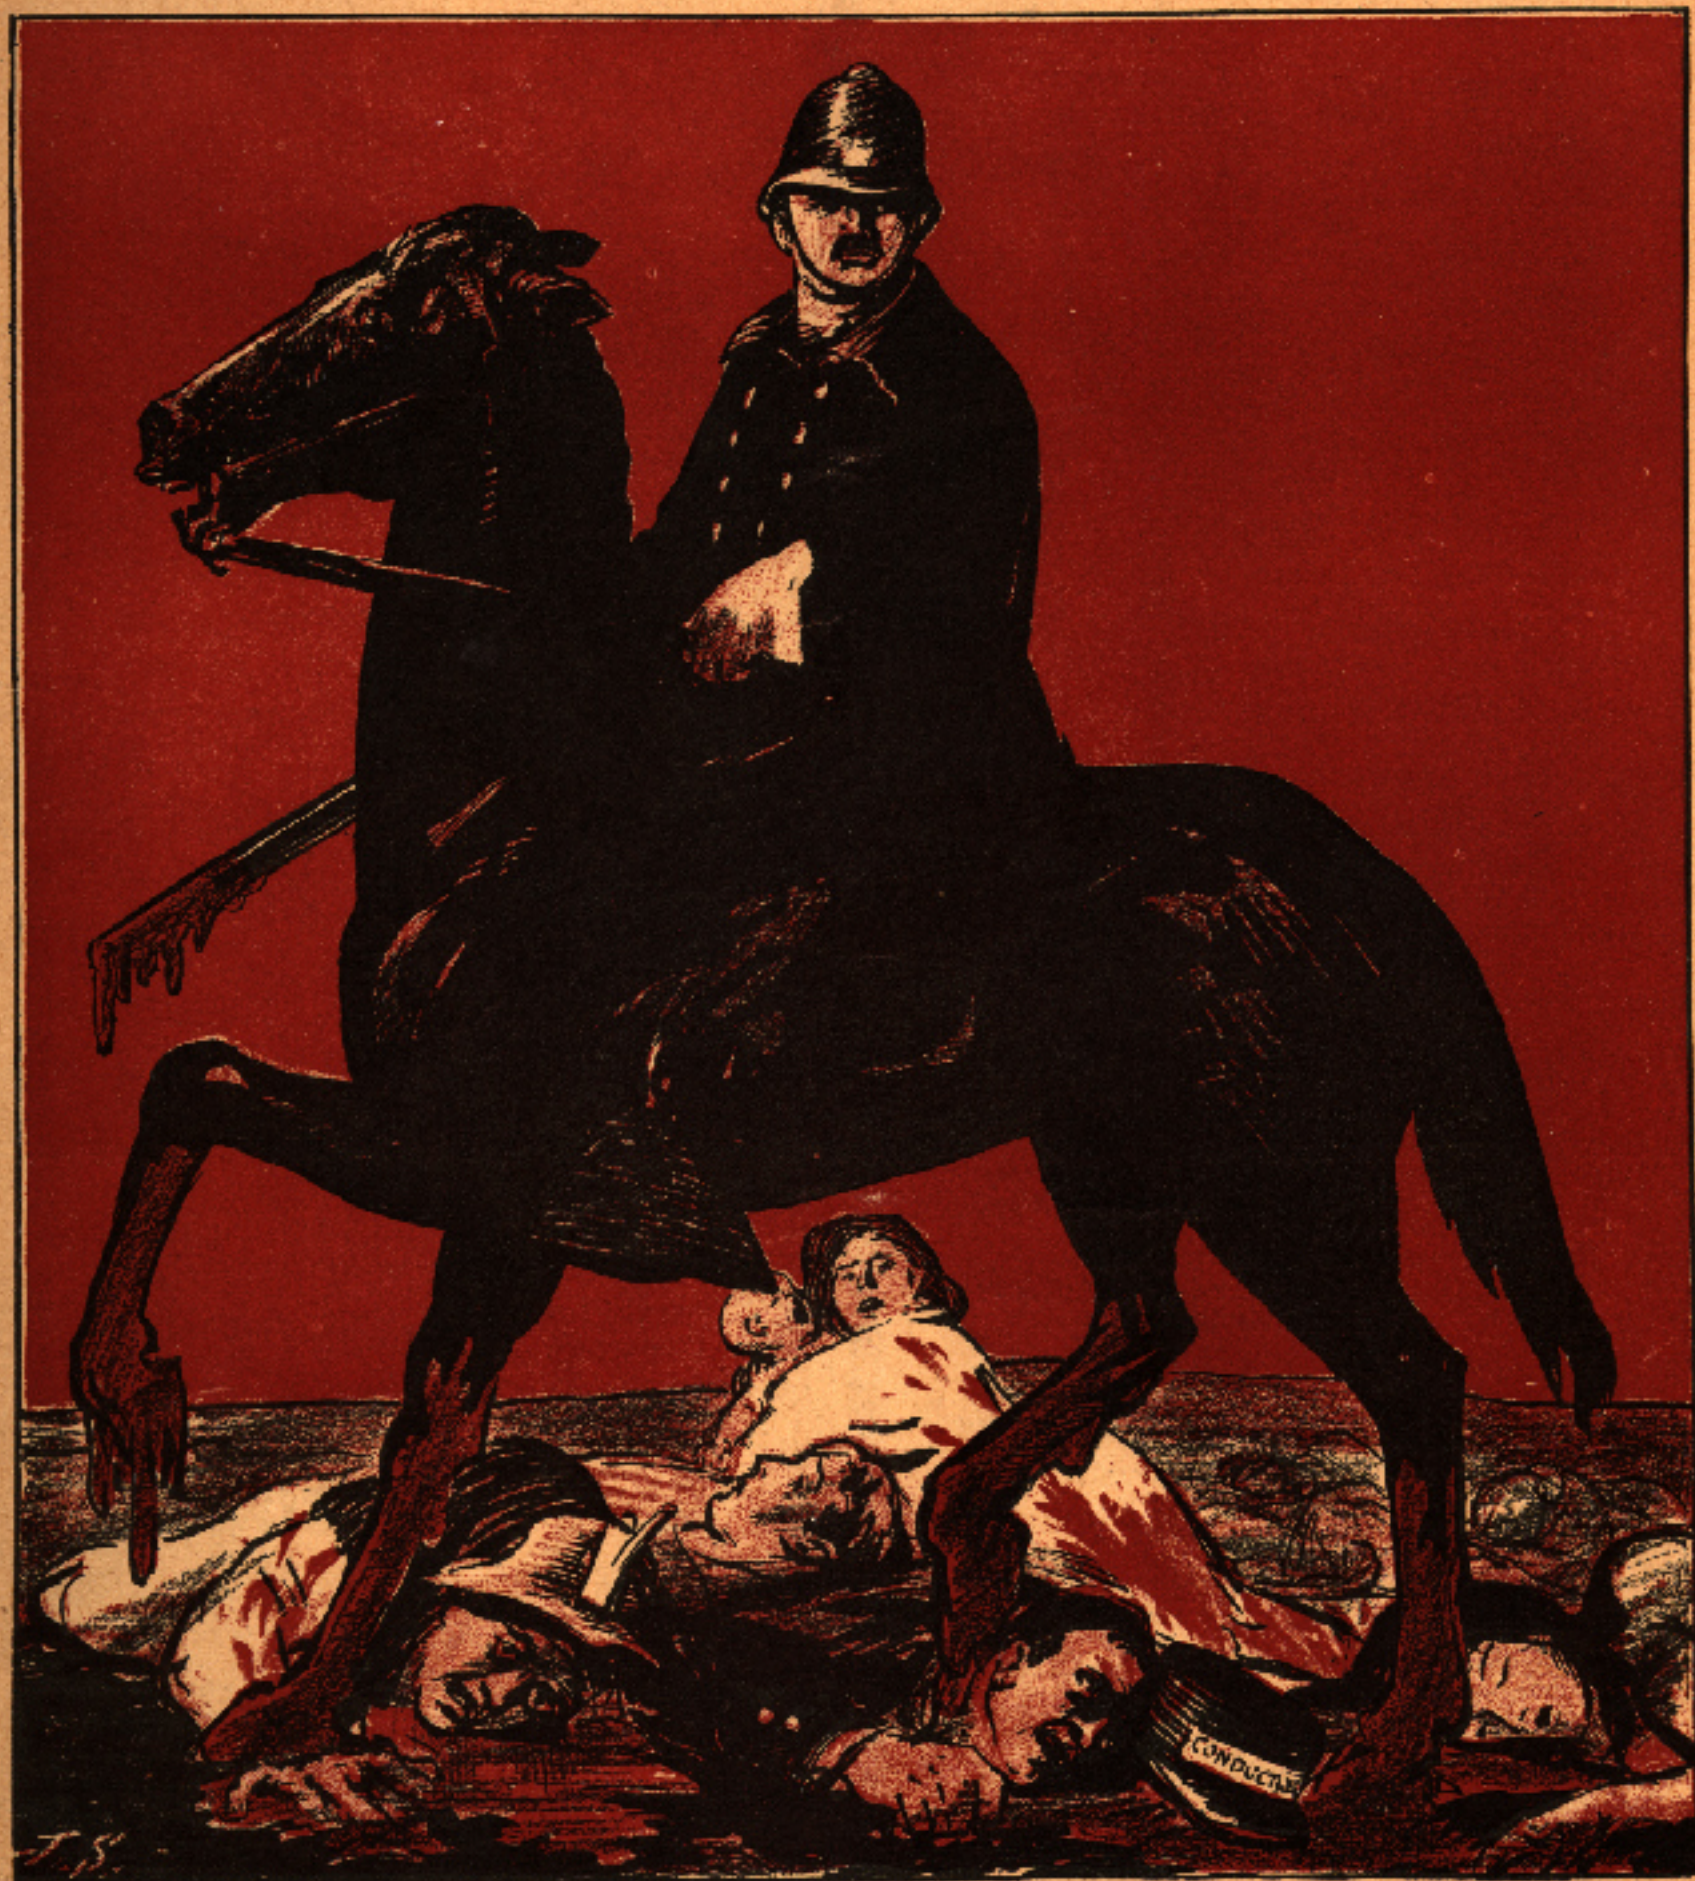

"Your wife's better, I hear."
"No--not a bit."
"I heard she was improvin'."
"She ain't to work yet."

The MASSES

APRIL, 1914

10 CENTS

Drawn by John Sloan

Shall We Have A State Constabulary In New York?

Drawn by Stuart Davis.

"Did You Find It?"
"Find What?"
"Spring!"

The MASSES

MAY, 1914

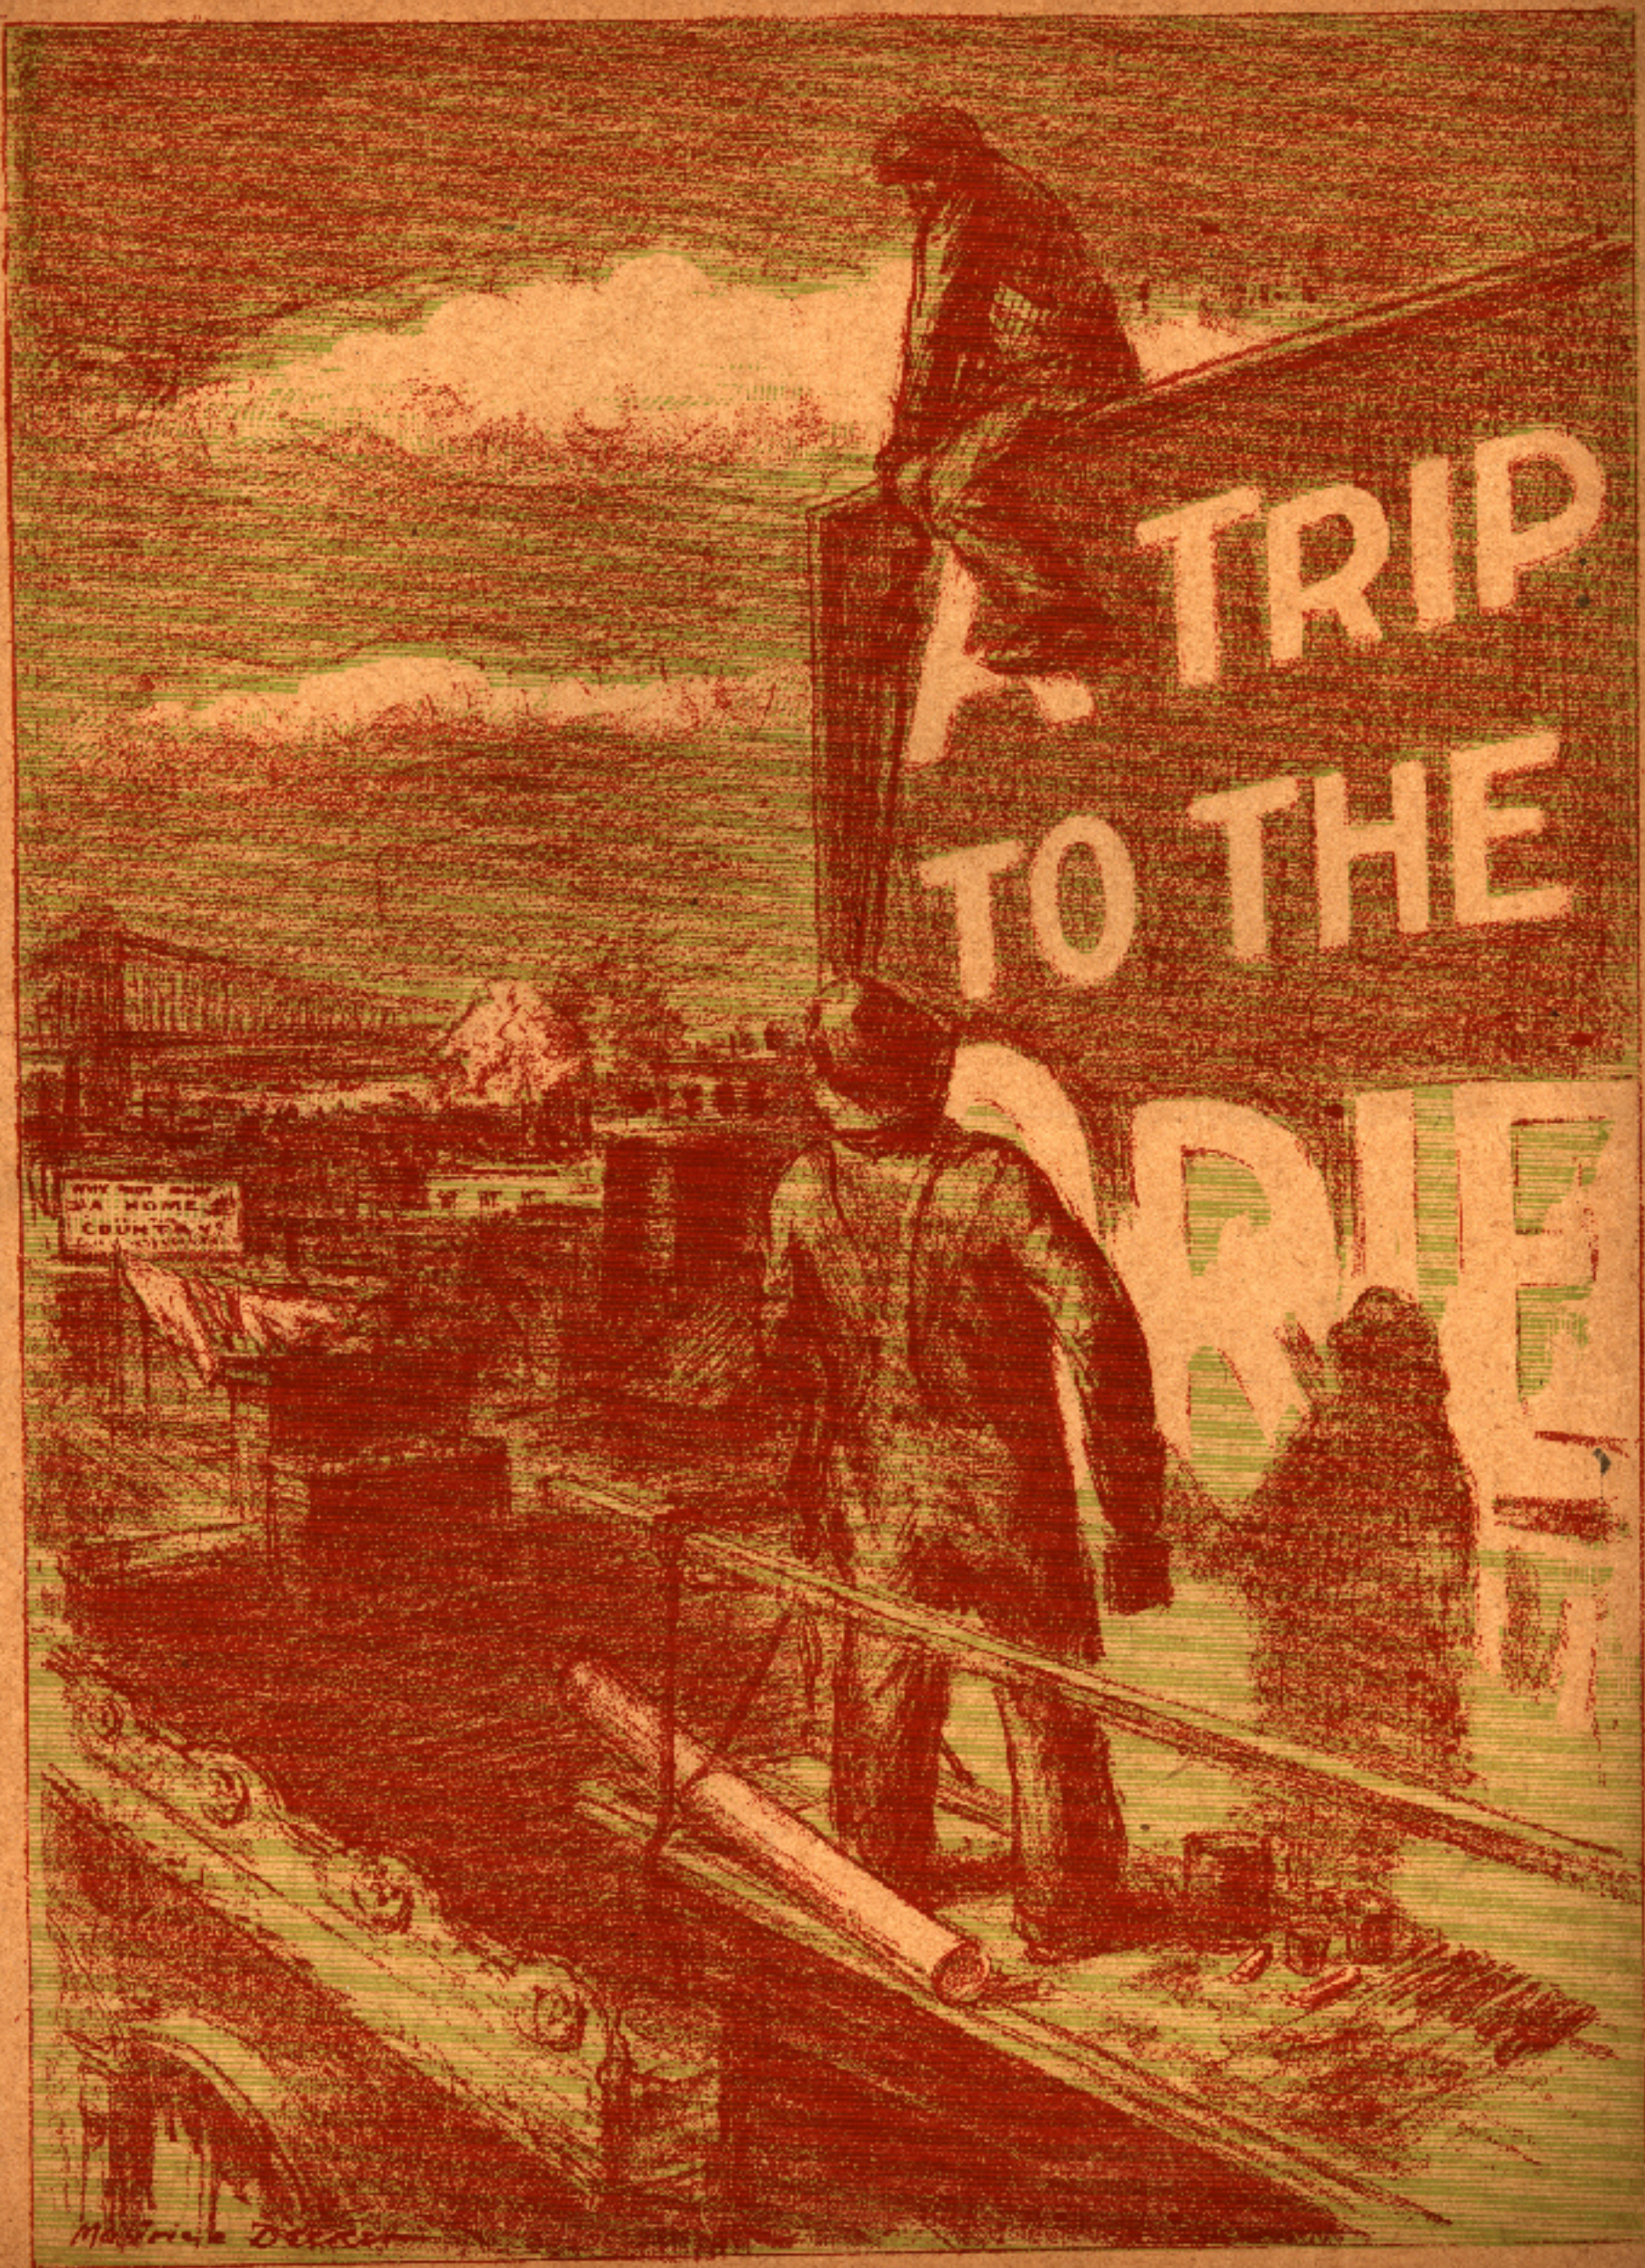

10 CENTS

Drawn by Stuart Davis

In This Issue: THE TANENBAUM CRIME
AN UNPATRIOTIC STORY

A TRIP TO THE COUNTRY

Maxwell Decker

The MASSES

JUNE, 1914

10 CENTS

Drawn by John Sloan.

IN THIS ISSUE
CLASS WAR IN COLORADO—Max Eastman
WHAT ABOUT MEXICO?—John Reed

Drawn by K. R. Chamberlain.

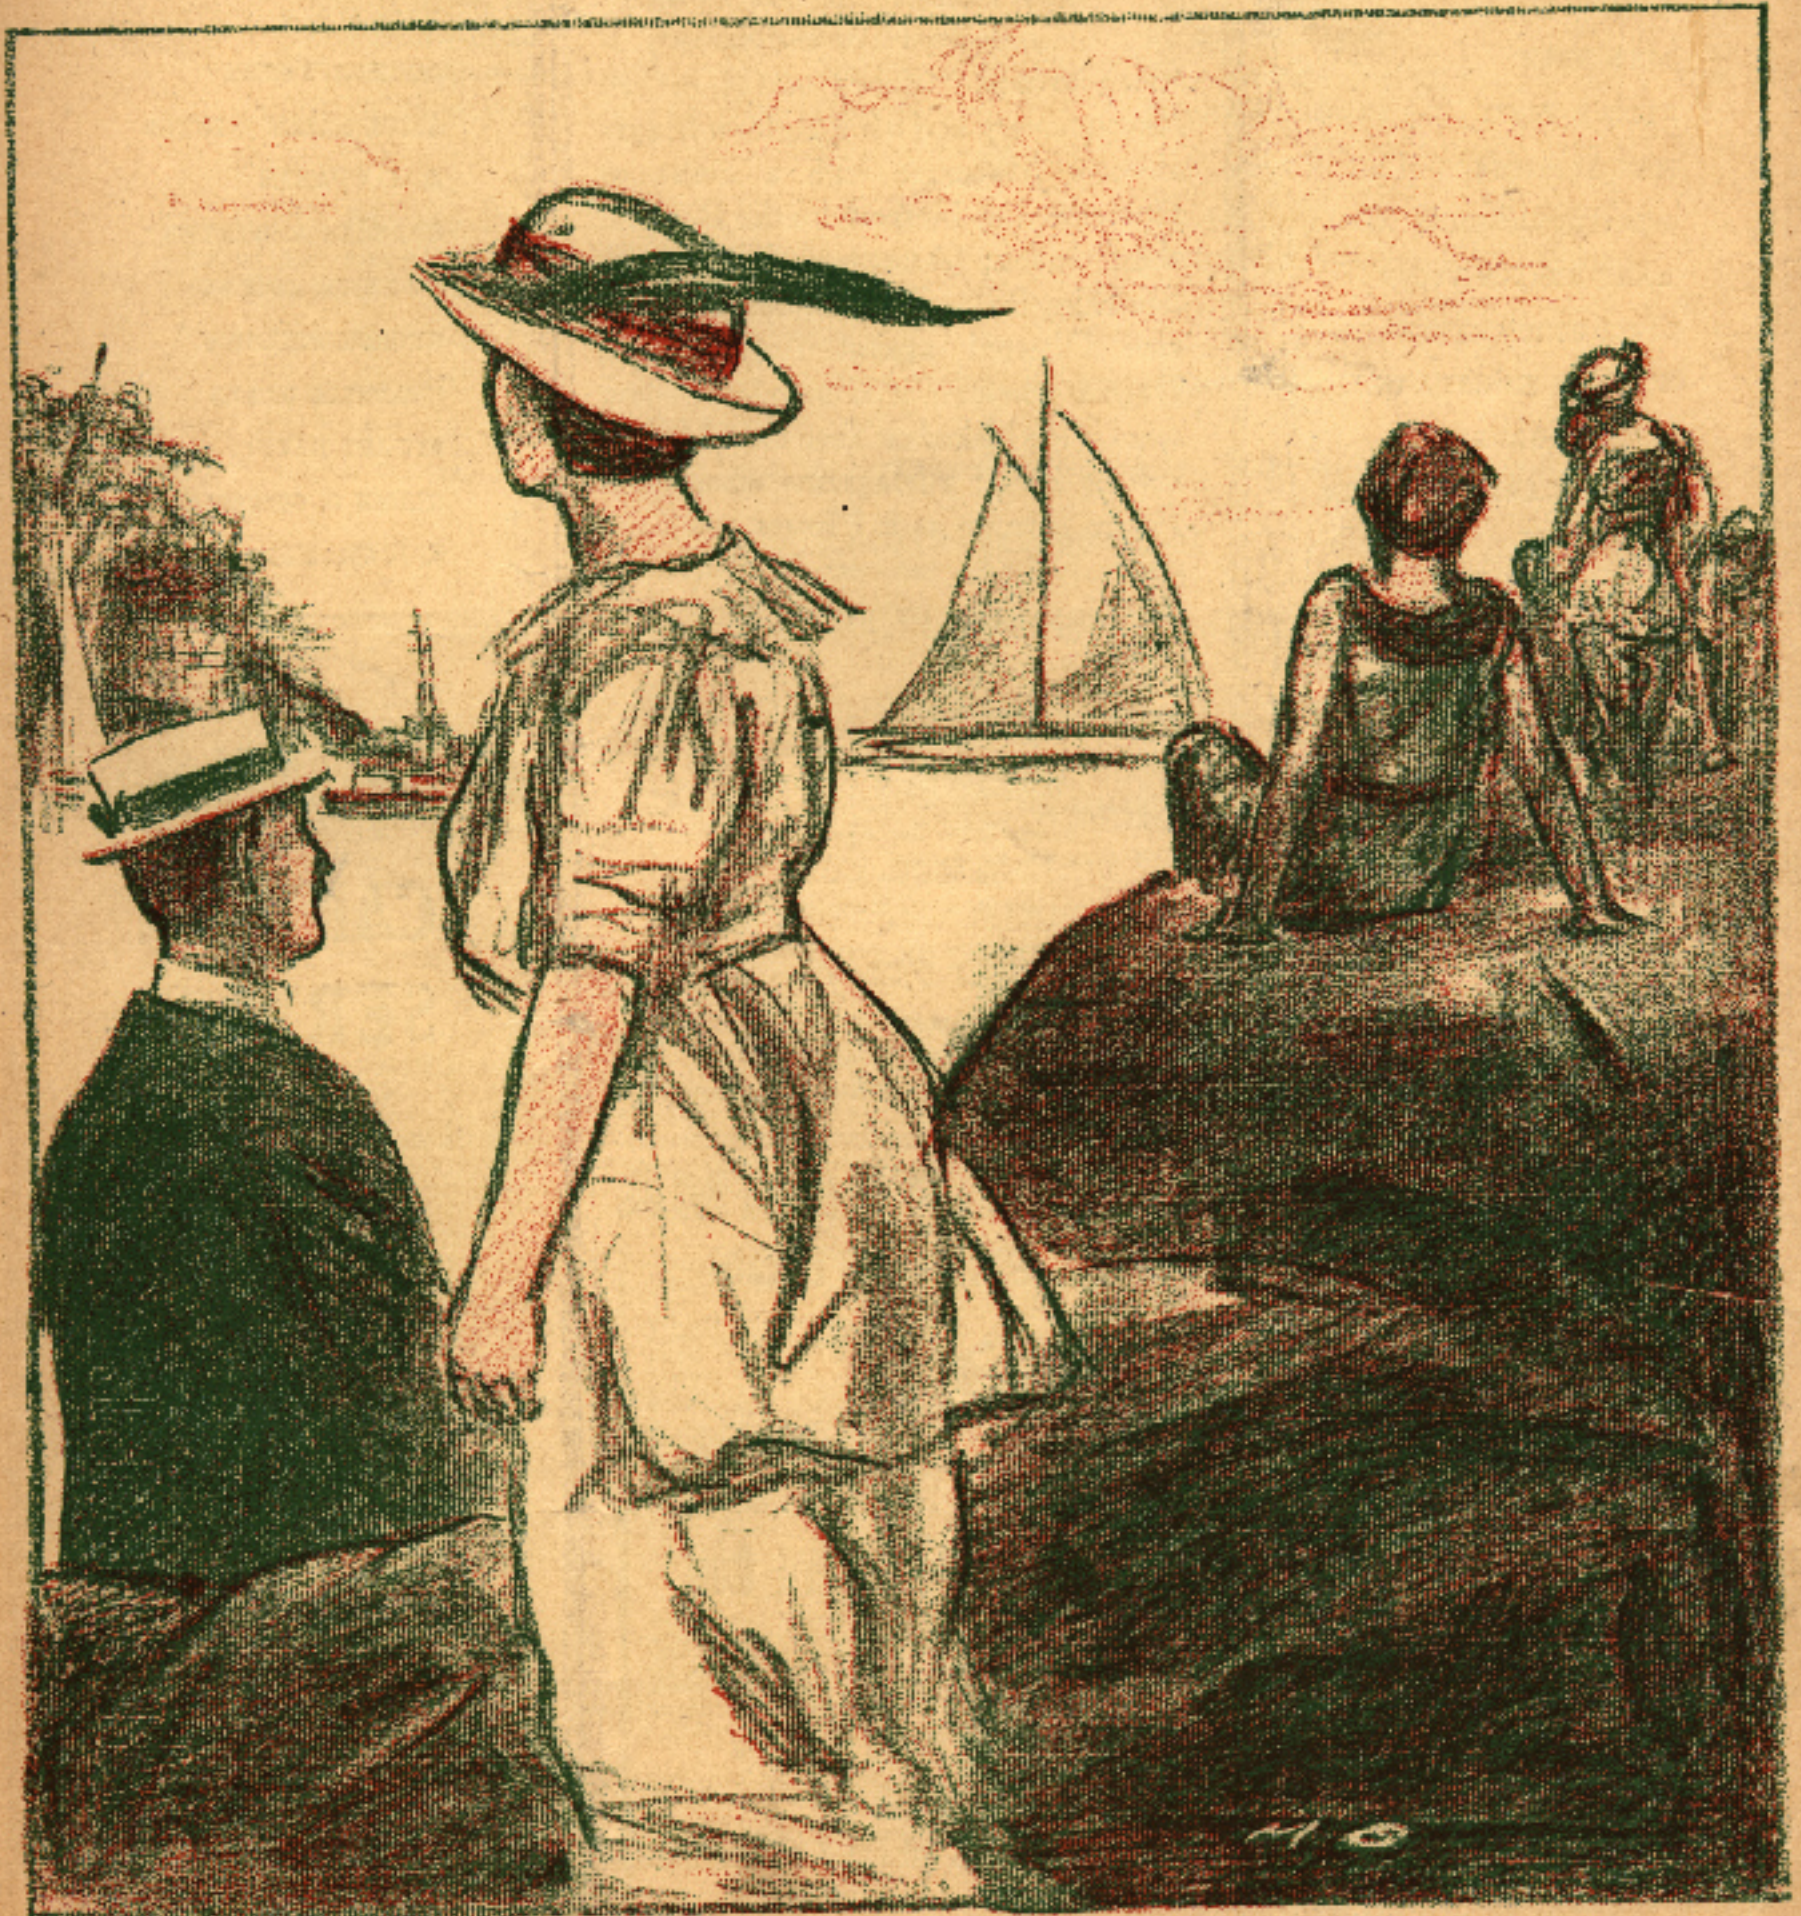

War?—Not On Your Life!

AUGUST, 1914

10 CENTS

The MASSES

Drawn by Maurice Becker.

MIDSUMMER FACTS NUMBER

ALICE BEACH WINTER

Drawn by Alice Beach Winter.

Country Life in America

SEPTEMBER, 1914

10 CENTS

The MASSES

Drawn by Maurice Becker.

Whom the Gods Would Destroy They First Make Mad

- Glittenkamp -
W.
P.

Drawn by H. G. Glittenkamp.

Wars May Come and Wars May Go—

OCTOBER, 1914 10 CENTS

The MASSES

Drawn by H. J. Glittenkamp

The Girl He Left Behind Him

THE MASSES

Drawn by Maurice Hecker.

NOVEMBER, 1914 10 CENTS

The MASSES

Drawn by Arthur Young.

"Mother, never let me hear you tell the children that these humans are descendants of ours."

Drawn by Cornelius Hertz

"Mrs. Callahan, the Irish seem to have forgotten the Home Rule trouble since the war began."
"I guess they don't mind, so they do be fighting."

DECEMBER, 1914

10 CENTS

THE M A R S F S

• STUART DAVIS •

Drawn by Glenn O. Coleman.

Jefferson Market Jail

