MSU Extension Publication Archive

Archive copy of publication, do not use for current recommendations. Up-to-date information about many topics can be obtained from your local Extension office.

A Score Card for Organization Secretaries Michigan State University Extension Service Don Phillips, Adult Education Issued November 1945 8 pages

The PDF file was provided courtesy of the Michigan State University Library

Scroll down to view the publication.

Extension Bulletin 275

November, 1945

SCORE CARD

ORGANIZATION SECRETARIES

Don Phillips

"O wad some Powr the giftie gie us To see oursels as others see us!" - Robert Burns

MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE Extension Service: Adult Education Program EAST LANSING

and U. S. Dept. of Agriculture cooperating, R. J. Baldwin, DIRECTOR, Michigan State College, East Lansing. Printed and distributed under acts of Congress May 8 and June 30, 1914.

PURPOSE

This score card has been provided to help secretaries understand their responsibilities and evaluate their efficiency.

Chairman of organizations may encourage the use of this device, modified as they wish, to help define the duties of the secretary. Those responsible for officer training programs may find the score card helpful.

Groups in the community who are sponsoring leadership training programs may wish to invite secretaries of various organizations to meet with them. The cards might be scored, collected unsigned, shuffled, redistributed, and the answers for each question compiled. A discussion period of the tabulated results for each question should prove interesting and beneficial.

I. ON TAKING OFFICE, DID I

1.	Discuss my responsibilities with the chairman?
2.	Bring to the attention of the chairman or group any unclear or incomplete statements in the by-laws concerning the duties of the secretary?
3.	Check the by-laws of the organization to determine my specific duties?
4.	Request the chairman to announce these responsibilities to the group? (Purpose: To acquaint members, especially with responsibilities outlined in statements 6, 7, 21, 22, 24, appearing elsewhere in this bulletin.)

MEETINGS, DO I

A	Execute the following responsibilities:
5.	Send out meeting notices in sufficient time to allow members to plan attendance?]
6.	Use the telephone as a follow-up of the notices so that I am prepared to report the anticipated attendance?]
7.]
8. 9.	Have all correspondence arranged in a convenient and logical order? Keep my books up-to-date?
10.	Train and keep someone informed to act efficiently in my absence?
11.	Have some records available to visitors (speakers, especially) to inform them of the purpose, activities, and progress of our organization?
in,	B— Have the following materials and formation ready for immediate reference:	7
12.	An up-to-date membership roll prepared for convenient roll call marking?	1
13.	A list of all "standing" and "special" committees, with duties of each?
14.	A record of the progress of each committee?	1
15.	A copy of the constitution and by-laws?
16.	A reference for settling questions on Parliamentary Procedure?
17.	The record of previous minutes?
18.	Correspondence received since the last regular meeting?
19.	An "order of business" to be used by the chairman which includes all "unfinished" business, noting especially the committees: (1) which are scheduled to report, (2) from which no report has recently been heard?	308

III. DURING THE MEETING, DO I

	ver interface polyment graphent in the control of t	or No
20.	Take a seat convenient to the chairman?
21.	Discuss the "order of business" with the chairman before the "call to order"
22.	Stand ready, in the absence of the chairman and vice-chairman, to call the meeting to order, and preside during the election of a temporary chairman?
23.	Carefully record:
	a. Whether this is a "regular" or "special" meeting?
	b. The name of the organization?
	c. The date and place of the meeting?
	d. The number in attendance? (youth and adults, members and non-members)
	e. The names of guests, or visitors, and the organizations which they represent?
	f. The name of the chairman and secretary — or substitutes?
	g. The disposition of the minutes of the previous meeting?
	h. The important facts about announcements made?
	i. All motions, the names of persons making them and seconding them, the disposition of the motions, including the number of votes for and against each question?
	j. The minority attitudes and opinions as well as those of the majority?
	k. Kind of recreation program presented?
	1. Persons appointed to new committees, and their assignments?
	m. The time of starting and adjourning the meeting?

24.	Actively assist the chairman during the meeting by:
	a. Encouraging — for the record — the reaching of conclusions on the subject under discussion?	Check Yes or No
	b. Requesting a restatement of motions, amendments, and conclusions when they are not clear and concise?
	c. Helping to keep discussion on the subject — for the sake of the record?
	d. Helping to maintain parliamentary procedures so that the intent of those present can be properly recorded?
25.	Periodically request the organization to criticise the manner in which I carry out my resonsibilities?
	Line of the street of the stre	-
a die NO	IV. AFTER THE MEETING, DO I	U.S. MAIL
	Promptly forward copies of the record of all business, motions ap-	Check es or No proved, discussion, conclusions, etc., to the area, state or national office?
27.	Send the local editor a report of the meeting and an announcement of the next one?
28.	Have the president or chairman add his name to my own as co-signer when minutes are to be published?
29.	Notify — in writing — all officers, committeemen, and delegates of their appointment, and file copies of such notifications?
30.	Prepare for my unexpected absence by keeping all records in a place known by, and convenient to, other officers?
31.	Encourage inspection of records by members and committeemen?
32.	Compare my records with those of other secretaries in order to benefit from their methods, etc.?
33.	Keep a "clipping" file of our organization's activities?

V. FOR MY SUCCESSOR, WILL J

	Cheel	No
34.	Deliver all of the organization's supplies?
35.	Deliver all records, complete, and in good order?
36.	Discuss my responsibilities, as well as my methods of keeping records?
	TOTAL SCORE, Yes No

NOTE TO SECRETARIES RESPONSIBLE FOR PUBLICITY

In the final analysis, the purpose of publicity is to make the presence of the organization felt and accepted by the community. Thus, progress, achievements, and contributions to community betterment will always make good news items. Of course, announcements are always justified. However, editors are busy, space is limited, and rewrite time is precious.

Any announcement should tell, briefly and concisely: Who is involved? When? Where? Purpose? and Program? Any story should add: "With what results? and how results were achieved?"

One editor told his reporters to prepare their stories as though they were telegrams, costing ten dollars for every word over fifty. Write your news story with this in mind. Then take it to the editor, ask him for criticism so that your next story will be prepared as he would like it.

When you indicate to the editor that you desire to serve him, as well as your organization, you will get cooperation.

Compute in carrier and those of other conversals on overer to break

