College "Y" Shows That It Functions in Many Fields

By M. AVERY

Michigan State College is fortunate in having an active Young Men's Christian Association for constructive "Y" work on the campus and in many fields.

In the near future the Y. M. C. A. will seek further co-operation of the students through an intensive drive for new members.

NOTED TENOR TO APPEAR FRIDAY

Tito Shipa Comes to Lansing As Second Number On Philharmonic Course.

Tito Shipa, Victor artist and premier tenor of the Chicago Opera company, will appear at the Pruden auditorium Friday night, Nov. 5, as the second number on the Lansing Philharmonic concert course.

Shipa entertained in Lansing last year so well that he was booked this year by popular request. He has sung his way to a tremendous fame and today he is known throughout America.

Born in Lecce, Italy, Shipa soon attracted notice in his native land in another phase of his genius by composing a Mass of such high order that the bishop commanded its performance in the cathedral.

Five years he studied with a famous teacher. Then after a year of preparation with Emilio Piccolli at Milan, Shipa made his triumphant debut at Trapatza.

Shipa is youthful, handsome, keen for athletics and a sportsman, a gifted linguist and a pianist; he is also a composer of high ability; his songs are favorites with his audience. Lately he has completed "Mimi," a light opera.

Tickets for the Philharmonic concert course may be obtained in East Lansing from Donald Kline, 644 Grove street, or from Prof. Taylor of the college music department.

Fifty girls accompanied by Misses Dorothy Supple and Ruth Fikes of the women's physical training department participated in the cross country hike sponsored by the Women's Athletic association Saturday.

WOLVERINE WORK FIRST LIBERAL IS UNDER WAY ARTS NUMBER STAFF COMPLETE SET FOR NOV. 17

Those Unable to Keep Picture Appointments Are Requested to Get Duplicates.

REQUEST JOKES AND SNAPS

Contributions to Humor and Feature Sections Should Be Handed In Soon.

Complete staff appointments for the 1927 Wolverine have been given out by Arthur J. Hannan, 27, editor in chief of the annual which is announced under the leadership of a publications committee.

Return Proofs to Editor's

All proofs must be returned to LeClair's studio during the same week they are received by the students, is a further announcement of the editor of the Wolverine.

This year's book will have a cover design which is expected to be the distinctive mark of the entire production. Designing will be apparent both on the outside and inside of the cover proper, which will add to the uniqueness of this phase of the book.

Students who have jokes or snap shots believed desirable for use in the 1927 book are requested to submit them at once or as soon as possible.

For the first time announcement is made of the entire staff of the 1927 Wolverine as submitted to President Butterfield.

ANNOUNCE MEMBERS OF GIRLS' QUARTET

Expect Organization to Appear At College Functions; Aspire to Vaudeville Roles.

Announcement was made this week by the music department of the college that the Michigan State Girls' quartet, a new innovation here this year, is to be composed of the following girls: First Soprano, Maxine Boone; Second Soprano, Boulah Watson; First Alto, Genevieve Love; Second Alto, Clara Wilson; Accompanist, Alice Olson.

At greater co-ordination, the music department will endeavor to train choirs who aspire to singing roles in the Union production this winter.

HOME COMING TO BE GALA DAY

Society Houses and Dormitories Are Urged To Have Special Decorations.

Michigan State society houses are requested by the committee on Home Coming Day preparations to make special efforts for more elaborate decorations for the event which is scheduled for Saturday.

George "Carp" Julian, who heads the Home Coming committee, points out that this year, more than ever, there will be many occasions for special decorations inasmuch as the seventieth anniversary of the founding of the college will be the occasion for events next spring that will be of more than the ordinary importance.

A pop meeting Friday night, with talks by coaches, players, and outside speakers, will mark the opening of the Home Coming activities.

On Saturday there will be meetings of almost all organizations, a football game, a band concert, and entertainment by the fraternities for their former members.

A. I. E. E. TO HOLD ELECTION AND PROGRAM TOMORROW

Michigan State college chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers will hold an election for president of the chapter and sponsor an evening program as well, Nov. 3.

CORNER STONE CEREMONY PLAN IS COMPLETED

Dean Kedzie to Officiate; Butterfield, McColl and Clark to Be Speakers.

NAMED AFTER KEDZIES

Dean F. S. Kedzie and His Father to Be Honored in Naming New Building.

Speakers have been named and final arrangements completed for the ceremony of laying the cornerstone of the new $600,000 chemistry building which is now under construction at Michigan State college.

Dean F. S. Kedzie, head of the department of applied science, will officiate in the ceremony of laying the cornerstone and in a short talk will give a statement of his services to the college and also tell of the work of his father, who was one of the first instructors of the institution.

The new structure is to be known as the Kedzie chemistry building in honor of Dean Kedzie and his father for their service to the college. Dean Kedzie's father moved to the campus when the dean was 5 years of age and he has spent practically his lifetime at Michigan State, first as a student and later as a member of the college staff.

The speakers for the occasion will be President Kenyon L. Butterfield, J. H. McColl, Detroit member of the state board of agriculture, Prof. A. J. Clark, head of the chemistry department, and Dean F. S. Kedzie.

A small box containing chemical and technical materials will be placed in the cornerstone for the purpose of a long-time experiment on the stability of such materials in the absence of light and air. Some of the materials will be sealed in a vacuum, others will be sealed in inert gases and others will not be sealed except for the exclusion of light.

Make Long-Time Experiments

The materials to be used in this long-time experiment and the men in charge of the various lines of work are as follows: Dr. R. C. Huston, organic and biological chemistry, crystals of newly discovered organic compounds; Prof. R. E. Hart.

REV. MC CUNE HOLDS FAITH IN GREAT MODERN AUTHOR

Rev. N. A. McCune varied from his usual Sunday evening custom and delivered an address on a book by a living author. "On the Side of the Angels" by Basil King, was the subject of the Sunday evening sermon.

OLD PEOPLE'S CHURCH MAKES WAY FOR MODERN BUILDING

The old People's church will soon be no more. The building is now being razed and excavation has started for the new structure which is to replace it.

The new building will be a two-story structure to be erected by T. H. Goodspeed, of Grand Rapids. Frontage will be 104 feet with a depth of 69 feet.

Seven stores are planned for the first floor, while the second floor will provide for 10 offices and a lodge room.

GREEN KEY MAKES PLANS FOR FUTURE

To Take Part in Homecoming Day Preparations; To Entertain Centre College Team.

Green Key is making plans for taking part in the preparations for Homecoming Day activities. When the Centre College football squad arrives in East Lansing they will be met by the Green Key and shown every form of hospitality possible.

Among other things planned by the organization for future development is the permanent arrangement of a block "S" in the cheering section at all games next year. The details of such a formation require considerable time so that it will be impossible to complete the idea before next season.

The organization is corresponding with several electric sign manufacturers with the idea in mind of erecting a large "S" sign on the roof of the Union building which would be visible for miles around.

The Green Key is also corresponding with several other similar groups throughout the country in the attempt to make their organization one of a national body. This has been carried on for some time and it is hoped that in the near future they will become a part of the national organization.

Letters are being mailed to the fraternities urging them to do special decorating for Homecoming Day.

H. E. WORKERS PLAN NEXT YEAR'S WORK

About 300 Attend Second Annual Rally Day Saturday.

Plans for the coming year in home economics extension work were outlined at the second annual Rally Day for local group project leaders at the Michigan State College Saturday.

The main speaker on the program was Miss Grace Freyberger, chief of home economics extension work, United States department of agriculture. Miss Freyberger spoke on "Homemaking Conditions Abroad" and results of her investigations in Europe last summer.

The visitors were greeted by R. J. Baldwin, director of extension and President Kenyon L. Butterfield gave an address of welcome. "Keeping Our Brains Alive" was the subject of an address by John W. Willard, director of continuing education at the college.

Mrs. Dora Stockman, member of the State Board of Agriculture, spoke to the group on "The Home-maker's Goal".

Dean Jean Krueger, head of the home economics department, conducted a tour of inspection through the home economics building showing the equipment and explaining its use. Miss Krueger gave an address on "Opportunities in Home Economics at Michigan State College".

Students Enact Dramatic Situations at Hospital

College students gain renown by virtue of their tireless energy, their ingenuity, and their ability to "play the part" or act when the occasion demands. The college student essentially is a sleepless sort of individual who lives on college activities, social studies and occasionally a bit of textbook basics.

Seldom are they all or seldom do they give in to their physical disorders. However, the least suspecting of this truth are the members of the hospital staff of the college. To them are revealed, innocently, the other two features of the college students' makeup.

Little would one suspect or even hazard the truth of the college man's energy, when through the door of the college hospital troops, or should one say, drags a woe-begone looking young man, a haggard look on his face, his hair disheveled, his eyes dull, and an impossible droop in his shoulders. Alarmed hospital officials seek to learn the state of his disorders, and with a feverish mutter he relates of a severe headache and a dizziness. The victim is troubled that way oftentimes. It is an ailment which dates back to a chronic holdover of agripet fever which he suffered from when he was a youngster.

He can't possibly attend classes in such a condition. "The doctor isn't in now." "He isn't. Well, I presume I can wait until 4 o'clock. Do I get ex-

WHY NOT A LITTLE SUPPORT FOR THE CROSS COUNTRY TEAM?

Timers and judges in addition to the coaches are about the only individuals who have been witnessing the efforts of one of the best cross country teams State has ever had.

Coach Mason and his men have spent weeks in preparation for what has proved to be some wonderful exhibitions and we have failed to support this field of sport.

Notre Dame always has a strong cross country team and boasted this year of one of their best teams, and yet we were beaten by them by only one point.

There we were leading 32 to 23 in the University of Michigan but we were in competition with one of the strongest teams in the middle west. In spite of Michigan's victory Michigan states captain, Roy Severance led both teams and finished third ahead of the fastest man on the Michigan team. Witnessing his performance alone was a treat that no State should have missed.

Some of us are inclined to think that a cross country race from the point of view of the spectator consists in watching the contestants make a long wait while the men run around out in the country somewhere and then the return where the runners struggle in one by one. But contrary to the general opinion a large part of the course can be seen from the stadium and often the race becomes as exciting as the sprint events in other track meets.

Good track deserves good support. We should come to the realization that we have an unusual cross country team and give them the support that we would give other athletic teams.

It took one of the professors to demonstrate sufficient interest in the campus Forum which is being started in this issue to write the first contribution. This is no compliment to the members of the student body who have been longing for an opportunity to express themselves on campus problems.

This is your column and open to everyone who is connected with the college. Who will be the next contributor? Has anyone a comeback for the first article? Has anyone another proposition that concerns the college to put forth in the next issue? Let's make this a real live feature of the paper. It is an opportunity for valuable and interesting discussion in which anyone may take part.

Movie colleges and professors on the silver screen is the development which is now being predicted. A machine for voice reproduction would add to the realism of the "movie" class.

A few educators have made them selves immortal but now it seems that all college professors will become immortal whether they deserve it or not. In some instances this should prove an inducement for a student to study hard enough to pass. We can think

Most students are altogether too shy with their ideas. In any class of 25 there may be one student who talks too much, but for second place as a talker there is altogether too little competition.

I suggest that in every class there be a determined race for second, third and fourth places as talkers.

As a matter of fact, irrespective of knowledge, can any student point to any man of achievement who did not take at least as good as fourth place as a talker in any group in which he figured?

As an outsider looking in, I would say that the great need of this or any other institution of learning was a body of students more given to discussion in the class room.

An ideal class would be one in which there were always at least three hands up demanding a chance to "tell the world" about it.

Let's discuss it!

PROF. A. C. BURNHAM

He wouldn't have missed it for worlds.

Such does fate treat the collegiate victim. The saddest truth, however, is the large number of brave young men who are kept from the ranks of the R. O. T. C. and deprived of the honors accompanying the wearing of the neat khaki uniforms in attractive drill formations. Would-be State college cadet officers must bow to the slightest physical disabilities. Never can they experience the thrill of sham battles and trice riding. Flat feet, near-sightedness, bad hearing and other like ailments shut off such opportunities forever for unfortunate college men.

However, there appears to be a silver lining in the cloud. The ill-fated victim appears on the occasion of parades to be reconciled to his predicament, and reaps his enjoyment by cheering his roommate, who is proudly marching up and down the field resplendent in his khaki uniform. His face lit with smiles, evidently satisfied with the work of his chum as a substitute in his disability. We admit, we hardly expected him to be so easily reconciled, but the fact lifts a big load from our hearts.

Announcement coming from the hospital officials indicates that student illness is likely to decrease decidedly in the future, however, with the discovery of a new relief. Stowed away in a corner of the medicine shelf is a little brown bottle. The ingredients of the bottle are beyond revelation, but hospital officials brand it as a universal remedy. They say it will cure headaches, heartburn, and a world of other things.

of only one thing worse than flunking and taking a class a second time from a prof. that is uninteresting, and that would be to have to watch reels of pictures of him a second time.

THE CAMPUS FORUM

The first snow storm usually arrives just after we have taken our last winter overcoat to the cleaners in preparation for colder weather.

PLAN TO PRODUCE THETA ALPHA PHI PLAYS IN CHURCH

The third play, "The Servant in the House," will be staged for the benefit of the Farmers' Week visitors. There is some possibility that it will be given for the student body some time previous to the Farmers' Week.

In the meantime, work on the three plays is advancing at a pleasing rate. Two acts in each production are being tapered off, and work on the third act of each play will soon be commenced. Individual studies occupy quite a bit of time, since some unusually clever characters portrayed exists in the productions.

"Well, here is the excuse. He back at 4."

This is enacted this little drama of the college man. This is only one of many scenes presented during the course of the day. We would not intimate for a minute that the young man was not seriously ill. Strange, though, the hospital atmosphere must have done wonders for him. He didn't need to return at 4. He felt so much better. It was too bad, though, that on that same morning the trig prof had to spring an exam.

And moreover, instant cures are effected. Students immediately begin to attend classes. Strange to say, it has a marked psychological effect. Mental worries are abandoned and the machine runs as smoothly as ever again. The exam which is scheduled for 10 o'clock is easily attended. One dose of the remedy is sufficient. In spite of the large number of cases to be dealt with, the hospital staff gives every student an opportunity to taste the remedy. And seldom is the remedy found wanting.

also maintained and kept in condition by the "Y."

Many of the best speakers who have appeared at the college this term, and in other years, have been secured through the efforts of the organization. The Y. M. C. A. cooperating with the Y. W. C. A. sends out deputation teams during the college year to many smaller towns in the vicinity of East Lansing, and favorable reports have been received covering the accomplishments of these teams.

These various activities of the "Y" are not, by any means, representative of the fullest extent to which the "Y" permeates affairs of the college man. Such an organization needs your support, if for no other reason than because of the fact that any of you may at some time become direct recipients of some phase of the "Y" work. Who knows but what the "Y" may help you out to-morrow? Fellows, is the "Y" really worth while, time and effort? It is an asset to our campus, and if so, are you behind it? Are you giving it, or will you give it, your support?

NO MORE EXTRAS

Cabs of this company no longer make the 20c each charge for extra passengers. Therefore, two, three, four or five passengers may now ride for the price of one.

This should appeal to students as groups of five may now use taxicabs at but slightly more than street car fare.

Tiered Effects Continue Good

Tiers, not new in themselves, but new in the various treatments of them, continue good. Present indications do not show that the tiered skirt will become cheapened, but because it presents such a varied means of development, it seems as though it cannot quickly become monotonous. Those shown by Dancer-Brogan's are only priced at $29.50. Other dresses at $16.50 and $19.50.

Plaided Fabrics

Plaids are given their share of the honors this season, especially are they represented in the new coat designs usually of the sports type. This plaid coat shown at the College Style Shoppe—Dancer-Brogan's—has a fur collar, in dyed fox. Priced at $75. There are others more moderately priced.

The Social Whirl

Edited by Dorothy Shoemath

More social activity was observed on the campus during the past week-end than on any previous week-end this term. The Women's Athletic association sponsored its first annual party in the Gymnasium Friday evening. The Union entertained with a special Hallowe'en dance the following night. Other parties were staged by the Delta Sigma Phi and Phi Chi Alpha fraternities, while Collingwood house and Elden Hall celebrated Hallowe'en with open houses.

College Residence

Margaret Dunning, Dona Dean Sherman and Dorothy French spent the week-end in Detroit, while Ruth Pender went to Coral, Adeline Redfield to Eaton Rapids, Marjorie Seaton and Dorothy Jandon to Battle Creek.

Collingwood

A Hallowe'en dance was held in the house Saturday evening, at which Prof. and Mrs. James T. Caswell and Mrs. E. H. Crane acted as patrons. Out of town guests were: Ruth Floyd of Ann Arbor, Hawley Cobb of Hillsdale, Reid Clark of Pontiac, and Oliver Brinkman and Lee Corliss of Chicago.

Evelyn Clark spent Sunday in St. Johns, while Vivian Bainbridge went to Howell, and Mae Brinkman to Coldwater.

Hermian

Ivan Collett and Leon Greene attended the homecoming at Hillsdale college Saturday.

Carl Baynes and Royce Drake spent the week-end hunting at Union City.

Fred Mare of Grand Rapids was a week-end guest at the house. The fraternity fall term party will be staged in the Armory Saturday night.

Kappa Delta

Mrs. L. Snedden and Mrs. C. Reynolds entertained the girls and their guests at a Hallowe'en dinner Sunday evening.

Lila Frost and Agnes Trumbull spent the week-end at their respective homes in Dansville and Jackson.

Themian

Elna Bowen visited her brother over the week-end at the Howe military academy in Indiana, while Marjorie Green spent the week-end in Walkerville, Ont., and Mary Ella Fahmy visited in Detroit.

Mrs. A. Bates, house matron, visited her daughter Alice in Detroit during the week-end.

Mrs. R. Massey of Jonesboro, Ind. visited her daughter Pauline, while Mrs. M. M. Bennett of Plymouth was the guest of her daughter Marjorie.

Alpha Gamma Rho

The fraternity initiated the following men last week: George Grimmer, Albert Oro, Arthur Knoblauch, Frank Williams and Claude Swartz.

Donald Schaal visited at Inlay City, Ivan Schroeder at Owosso, Alfred Perrin at Saginaw and Heath Holden at Millford.

Virgil Braun of Owosso and Roy Knops of Blissfield were house guests over the week-end.

Delphic

Frank Caswood of Mt. Clemens was a guest at the house over the week-end.

R. L. Bird of Ann Arbor, Ray Bower of Owosso, Maurice LaBarre of Detroit, Robert and Gale Hunt of St. Johns spent the week-end at their respective homes.

After two weeks' illness, Paul Piper has indefinitely returned to his home in New Troy.

Extensive plans for entertainment of the alumni on Homecoming day have been made by the society.

Allen Lake of Gunnison, Colo., and Clifford Denton of Caro have been added to the pledge list.

Alpha Chi

Lela Horning and Marjorie Atheling spent the week-end in Battle Creek, while all the seniors of the society visited Doris Chilton at her home in the same city.

Pledge services were held Monday evening for Margaret Wilson of East Lansing.

Ruth Lennox of Gladwin was a week-end guest at the house.

Abbott Hall

The following girls spent the week-end at their respective homes: Katherine Payne and Francis Greene of Goodrich, Katherine Ginsman and Ruth Banks of Detroit, Wilma Baker of Holland, Rita Mae Hamil and Thelma Gillett of Lapeer, Maxine Murch of Mattawan and Ruth Walstead, Oxford.

Dean Clara Powell spoke to the girls Wednesday evening.

Elden Hall

Linda Mooney, Jeanie Richardson and Muriel Johnston spent the week-end in Detroit, Evelyn White in Dexter, and Helen Goodar in Richmond.

A Hallowe'en party was held Thursday evening.

Ero Alphan

Eloise Cilloway and Bernice Suckow of Ann Arbor were guests of white Audrey Walker and Marie Ward were guests at the house Saturday.

Margaret Hubbard spent the week-end at her home in Detroit, while Buelah Watson was in Saginaw.

Union Literary

A. B. Cook spent the week-end at the house.

Practice House

Dinner was served Thursday evening to the Misses Bess Whitaker and Roberta Horshey of the home economics department.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Steward will be entertained at dinner Thursday.

Columbian

The fall term party will be held Nov. 20.

James Zellar, Vernon Donaldson, Kenneth Thompson and Elmer Fancher spent the week-end in Pontiac, while Harold Dozima and Cecil Walls were in Detroit.

Maxnard Hoffman of Flint, George Compton of Lapeer and Elvin Fitzworth of Flint were at their respective homes for the week-end.

Benjamin Baehler spent Friday and Saturday on a hunting trip near Mason, while LaVerne Snyder and Clayton VanSoyke spent the week-end in Grand Haven.

The fall term party will be held Nov. 20.

Phi Chi Alpha

An open house was held Saturday evening at which Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hart acted as patrons.

Emily Ray of Grand Rapids was a guest of Frances Gillett for the week-end.

W. A. A. Holds First Party

A truly Hallowe'en spirit prevailed at the party staged by the Women's Athletic association in the Gymnasium Friday evening. About 90 couples enjoyed the affair at which Dietrich's orchestra of Grand Rapids played. It is hoped that the affair will become an annual event.

Phi Delta

Tracy Maynard and J. A. Reading, both alumni of Saginaw, were guests at the house over the week-end.

Phyxian

William Woolfit and George Dirks attended the Albion college Homecoming Saturday.

A Hallowe'en party was held in the house Saturday evening.

Harold Falk and Bert Roberts visited in Ann Arbor last week-end, while Delbert Kimmerring and Alton Becker were in Monroe.

Co-ed Edna Says:

Well, children, I suppose you all went down to meet the train yesterday. It certainly is difficult to drag one's groaning self out of bed at 5:30 to meet a sleeper unless your best beloved is coming back to you on it.

No wonder that so many of our dear co-eds always attend this function. They have an excellent chance to see how their sweethearts look the first thing in the morning.

By the way, I suppose all of you who are taking this new course in life planning are already working on your articles for the American and other magazines on "How I Made My Big Success" and "Go Thou and Do Likewise."

We shall all be able to read them and say, "I knew him in college. One of the dumbest boys in my year, but look what he turned out to be, the best garbage collector in Detroit!"

Isn't it wonderful what a college education can do for you? And also what you can do to a college education! The best of educations can be absolutely ruined by the dumb egg to whom it is administered. And others turn out to be excellent plumbers.

I'm awfully glad they have decided to have commencement earlier this year. We won't have so long to be doing things for which we might lose our diplomas. Believe me, a few days more or less make a big difference in the history of a college graduate.

Alpha Phi

Dorothy Goodson spent the week-end in Detroit, while Dorothy Robinson went to her home in Manistee.

Alpha Gamma Delta

Victoria Eldridge of Grand Rapids spent the week-end at the house.

Initiation services were held Thursday evening at the home of Ruth Eldred for Carolyn Purdy, Mildred Marks and Virginia Chase, after which a banquet was served in the Green room of the Hotel Olds.

Olympic

The following men were away for the week-end: William McGuire, Douglas Watkins and Harold Douville to Toledo; John Kelly and Russell Davis to Grand Haven; Harold Eckerman and Nap Labret to Muskegon; and Maurice DeVries to Saginaw.

Phi Kappa Tau

Boscoe Terry returned from Greenville, Pa. Thursday.

Misses Tillison, Kandy and Felt went to Hamilton, N. Y., for the week-end.

George Matthews went to his home at Richmond.

Trimoira

J. Park Pinson went to Detroit over the week-end while Louis Bakn sent to Wayland.

STATE PREPARES FOR HOMECOMING GAME SATURDAY

Spartans to Meet a Fighting Team In the "Praying Colonels"; Expect Many Alumni.

Preparations for the Homecoming Game with Centre College of Danville, Kentucky, were begun Monday afternoon by the coaching staff of Michigan State College.

The team arrived home early Monday morning tired out from its long jaunt to the east. The heavy downpour of rain at Colgate made the game even more exhausting.

That state will meet a fighting team in an assured fact. Few who witnessed the tilt in the stadium here last year will ever forget the way the "Praying Colonels" fought to the last ditch.

Centre emerged a 6 to 0 winner over Louisville University last Saturday. Prior to this Centre has put up some good fights but has been a victim of tough luck.

State's team returned in fairly good shape. Because of the heavy strain of the last few games work of a lighter nature is expected during the week. A scrimmage against the tough freshman team will probably be held the men Wednesday night. Centre plays will undoubtedly be used by the husky "troop".

One of the largest crowds of the season is anticipated Saturday when the Spartans take the field against the Kentuckians. Alumni from all sections of the country have been sending in requests for tickets.

SCHEDULE FRESH FOOTBALL GAME

Ferris Institute Has Shown Power In Games Played This Season; To Be Morning Game.

Ferris Institute of the Rapids will oppose the Michigan State College freshmen in a game here Nov. 13, according to Ralph Young, athletic director.

The battle will take place in the stadium and is scheduled to get under way at 9:30 a. m. Ferris boasts a powerful team this season, having registered six wins over Mt. Pleasant Normal and others.

The State "troop" are exceedingly strong this season and will give any of the smaller colleges in the state a real battle.

Coach Kohn of the Fresh is expected to start his regular lineup. A number of men will undoubtedly see action before the game is over.

There will be no admission charge at the game. For several years State freshmen have not played football games. The boost in interest of athletics voted only recently to allow the freshmen to play one game this season.

PROF. DeCAMP ATTENDS HOO HOO CONVENTION

Professor J. C. DeCamp of the Forestry Department attended the International Convention of Hoo Hoo at which fifty-five clubs of the United States and Canada were represented in Kansas City recently. The Hoo Hoo is a lumbermen's fraternal organization which is interested in conservation. For the past year Professor DeCamp has been president of the Central Michigan Hoo Hoo Club, number 17, which club was awarded second place in competition for a loyale cup for the best work done during the past year. The cup was won by the St. Paul Minnesota Club.

The editor of an uptown newspaper solves our athletic difficulties for us in an issue of his paper Monday. He suggests that we lighten our schedule and take on such foes as Wabash University of Detroit, and the University of Kentucky until we build up a big reputation. Just how in the world we are going to build up a big reputation by defeating such teams as those mentioned is beyond the vision of the writer. Two of the schools mentioned are known widely for their disregard of eligibility rules in an effort to score football victories.

If we start playing schools of that calibre we might score easy victories over some of the eleven but no recognition would be gained from the wings. Schools of high standing, such as those we now engage, would say we want nothing to do with a school that plays those schools. It is true that State might not stoop to the tactics used by many win at any cost institutions, but our contact with the teams would blacklist us in the eyes of many.

At present we are going right along meeting high class teams. Against Cornell State made a wonderful showing this year and gained far more recognition than ten wins over Wabash would give us. Eastern papers acclaimed our team as a real Spartan eleven. Against Colgate our sophomore aggregation lost to a more powerful foe. The defeat was not so crushing when one considers that the Navy, conquerors of Michigan, beat Colgate by a 98 yard run in the closing minutes of play. State has a green team this year. Next season the men will have far more experience and should make a far better showing.

The writer believes the editor wrote his piece without making a survey of the situation. A study of the thing should make him agree with the above.

such, textile chemistry, samples of dyed and undyed artificial silks, pure dye and weighted silks, and samples of highly oxidized and hydrolyzed cotton. Prof. D. T. Ewing, electro and colloidal chemistry, a solution of colloidal gold protected from all atmospheric changes, a sample of chromium deposited on cadmium-covered steel and a sample of silica impregnated with colloidal iron. Prof. C. D. Hall, Jr., agricultural chemistry, samples of oil in contact with hydrogen and nitrogen, and samples of acidulated rock and lime stone thoroughly protected. Prof. H. L. Pahlow, metallurgy, samples and microphotographs of steel.

The date, Nov. 6, which has been set for the laying of the cornerstone is also the date of Homecoming and a great many alumni and other visitors are expected to be present for the cornerstone ceremony.

The Chemistry club and the local section of the American Chemical Society will take an active part in the program.

CROSS COUNTRY MEET GOES TO MICHIGAN 32 - 23

Roy Severance, State Captain, Is First Across Finish Line; Makes College Record for Course.

By TED SMITS

Despite the heroic running of Captain Roy Severance, who wore the Green for the last time against the University, the Michigan State cross country team went down to defeat Saturday over the East Lansing course to Michigan, 32 to 23.

For the first time in many years, a Green sweater flashed across the finish line ahead of the pack, much to the chagrin of the University. It was worn by the State captain, who finished the course in the fast time of 26:51.4, the fastest a State man has ever run it.

Wylie Sets Pace

Henry Wylie gave a good account of himself for State, setting a terrific pace at the start of the race, and finishing a close fourth.

In fact the fast start proved a little too much for the veteran Waterman, who gave such a good account of himself against Notre Dame, but who wilted despite every effort in Saturday's run.

Best Showing

The calibre of Saturday's running may be judged by the fact that Captain Briggs of Michigan, who finished 20 yards behind Captain Severance, was among the leaders in last year's Western Conference run. Saturday marked the best showing that State has made against the University in cross country in many years.

The men finished in the following order: Captain Severance, State; Captain Briggs, Michigan; Hornberger, Michigan; Wylie, State; Warrick, Michigan; Iskondarian, Michigan; Monroe, Michigan; Rikasko, State; Williams, State; Waterman, State.

LOST Pair of glasses in Towle optical case on campus. Call Mrs. W. Gilmer. Phone 2-2595.

There will be a meeting of all men interested in varsity or freshmen swimming in the lecture room of the gymnasium Tuesday evening, Nov. 2, at 7:15.

CORRECTION

Through an error in the last issue the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity was given credit for having the highest individual score in the interfraternity bowling league this season. Frapp, credited with a 211 score was listed as a Phi Kappa Tau man when he should have been listed as a member of the Pi Kappa Phi team. Both teams are undefeated in the championship race, but the Phi Tau's team is the potential champion.

BASEBALL GETS EARLY IMPETUS

Perry Fremont Handles Catchers While "Kayo" Tolles Works Pitchers.

Following in the wake of the earliest varsity basketball practice ever called here last month, comes the call for the varsity battery candidates for this year's baseball aggregation. Already the pitchers and catchers have been going through their drills daily, most of which have been staged out of doors. This practice will be continued until the weather will not permit, and then a room under the swimming pool in the gym will be utilized for the varsity batteries.

Perry Fremont, acclaimed one of the greatest backstops in the west last year, and certainly one of the best catchers to ever wear the Green and White is coaching the candidates for this position this year. Working under him at present in the race to succeed him as varsity receiver are Gordon Witter, of last year's freshman team, and Joe Katsumma, the sterling Hawaiian swimmer. Katsumma is expected to prove a real find next spring when actual activity gets under way.

Heading the pitching staff is Albert Timothy Tolles, better known in the baseball world as "Kayo" or "Lefty". Tolles was a star of last year's hurling staff and this year he will head the list. At present he is in charge of the candidates for mound duty. Working with him at this time are Bob Bremer, a reserve righthander from last year and Morgan, a freshman righthander on the 1929 outfit.

This year is the first that the bat-
