

HAMLET ON J-HOP BANQUET

Apologies to Willy Shakespeare;

Is it not to eat;

Does the question;

Whether it is nobler in the mind to sacrifice one's soul,

or to be a j-hopper;

Or to be a j-hopper;

To eat, perchance to j-hop;

Or to j-hop, perchance to eat;

And who would bear the disowning

of his kindred?

Or to be a j-hopper;

State Set for Hardest Game of the Year

"Canticles of Praise" Will Be Feature of Armistice Program

The "Canticle of Praise," which will be the central feature of the mammoth memorial service to be held in the Auditorium hall Sunday afternoon, Nov. 13, was a product of the overwhelming emotions of the World war, culminating in the historic Armistice, according to Arthur Farwell, the music director.

Mr. Farwell was associated with the music department of the University of California at Berkeley in November, 1918, as was the author, Witter Bynner, one of America's leading modern poets.

When the news of the Armistice reached Berkeley, the wildest confusion and enthusiasm reigned, with students and townspeople everywhere shouting and cheering. By nightfall and campus were in an uproar.

DAVIES CHOSEN REVUE MANAGER

Musical Comedy Planned for 1928 Union Production.

Appointment of Karl Davies of Lansing, a senior as student manager of the 1928 Union production was made at the Union board meeting Monday evening.

The board approved the recommendation of the executive committee, and Davies was officially selected as this year's manager. Last year the position was occupied by Norval Tayell.

Davies has lived in Lansing for several years and is a graduate of the Lansing High school. Among activities on the campus he acted as treasurer of his freshman class and has taken part in many of the Union dances and events. He is a member of the Hesperion society.

Choice of a student manager is the first move on the part of the Union board in preparing for this year's Union production which is expected to be the most carefully planned and finished theatrical presentation of any staged in the past few years. Within a short time, the manuscript will be selected. This will probably be written in a student, several having been received for consideration by the board.

According to present plans, choice of principals for the cast and of several choruses will be made during this term in order to give sufficient time for practice before the production which will probably be a musical comedy. Committees will be appointed soon by Davies to assist in the work.

Glee Club Starts Year at Extension Conference

The glee club under the direction of Prof. J. S. Taylor made its initial appearance this year at the Little theater in the Home Economics building Wednesday noon.

Members of the club presented several numbers before those who were attending the State Extension conference this week.

Saturday at the Homecoming game Prof. Taylor's Varsity song will be sung between halves by the glee club in collaboration with the band.

FORM ALUMNI CONGRESS

Decoration of Society Houses Will Add Holiday Spirit to Occasion.

Bymer was profoundly influenced, and going to his room, sat down and wrote the "Canticle of Praise," at a single sitting.

Within a few days it was presented at the Greek theater as a "Thanksgiving Canticle," with Bymer himself, and Sam Hume dramatic director at the university, as "cantors," and Mr. Farwell as musical director.

"The Canticle," said Mr. Farwell, in describing the proposed services, "undoubtedly embodies the emotions that accompanied the armistice in a manner vivid beyond any other poetic or literary expression to which America gave birth out of those scenes."

The presentation will include numerous choruses, responses by the audience, and orchestral effects which, according to Farwell, add extremely to the effectiveness of the production.

PREXY SAYS

I wonder if the undergraduates have tried to imagine what Homecoming means to an alumnus. He comes back to the place where he spent four glorious years. Perhaps he hasn't been back for a year, perhaps five years, maybe more. He sees changes even within a year, new faces and if he has been away several years he sees new buildings. Things look different.

These changes bring a certain pang or sense of loss, but let us hope that he feels the same atmosphere, senses the same spirit, has the same thrill that he did "in the days of yore."

So here's a hearty welcome to the old grads! here's a pledge to them to keep alive the M. S. C. tradition here to the team, and another pledge that all of us, alumnus and students alike, are back of them every minute of the play.

ABBOTT BLOCK TO BE OPENED

Formal Occasion as Owners Are Hosts Nov. 3; Theater to Open.

East Lansing's newest business block, the Abbott, in which are housed the city's first theater, the headquarters of the East Lansing State bank and a number of business offices and stores, will be formally opened with a reception to the general public Thursday, Nov. 3.

This decision, made by the East Lansing Development company, owners of the building and property, at a meeting Monday evening, was announced officially Tuesday morning.

The opening will mark not only the opening of the building, but also the opening of the bank and State theater.

There will be a special luncheon at the Union Saturday noon for the convenience of the members of the alumni, but no attempt has been made for any official luncheon or banquet.

This year, by having the organization of the alumni association in the local clubs, with delegates from each in the college congress, the association will not be as unwieldy and at the same time it will be run more satisfactorily, resulting in a stronger organization of the alumni body.

This decision, made by the East Lansing Development company, owners of the building and property, at a meeting Monday evening, was announced officially Tuesday morning.

The opening will mark not only the opening of the building, but also the opening of the bank and State theater.

Twelve men remained in the running for the debate squad after the first eliminations, which were held last Tuesday evening. It was announced Friday morning by Coach Menchhofer.

Last tryouts will take place Thursday, Nov. 1, when ten men will be selected to compose the squad for the remainder of the season. Thomas Ramsdell and Lee Miller, veterans of the last two years, will receive positions without tryouts.

Final eliminations are to consist of three debates, with two men on a team.

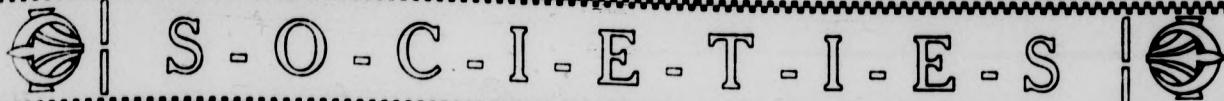

Those surviving the first tryouts are Armon Arnold, Howard Carroll, Donald Houghton, Arthur Knoblauch, Carlyle Lovewell, Donald McPherson, Rollie May, Laverne Roberts, W. N. Scott, Harry Smith, Alton J. Stroud, Mason Ward.

We wonder how the faculty stands on this question of depriving the freshmen of their Bibles?

The present practice house is being transferred from the present offices to the main floor of the new building, offices and store spaces occupied will be open to the visitors.

Mr. Faunce said the venture will be concerned especially with the bank and building as a whole, but the theater opening will be a separate enterprise, though it comes on the same night.

Miss Gross, supervisor at the practice house, is planning a tea for all the girls who have ever lived at the practice house. It is

Homecoming Paramount Event of Week End; Plan Many Parties

With Homecoming the paramount event of this weekend, the Union and all of the fraternities are planning their parties and open houses for to-night. Tonight the Senior ball is held in the Union. Most interest centered in the University of Detroit game tomorrow afternoon at which a good crowd of returning alumni will be present. The old grads and for students will be entertained at many affairs given in their honor.

To-night the seniors sponsor their party in the Union ballroom and the Delta's Ramblers will turn the music and many unique novelties will add interest to the affair and Mrs. J. B. Hasselman and Mrs. J. W. Stuck are acting chairmen.

The Delphic Eleventh and Clysian groups hold their parties at their Triumvir Phylem, Phi Delta Sigma, Phi Alpha Theta, Alpha Beta, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Alpha Gamma, Delta, Sorority, Alpha Gamma and Pi Kappa Phi.

The members are holding their parties along or down town. Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Epsilon Tau have open houses tomorrow night, also Sunday.

Phi Delta holds an open house "Spot" Mayette's Masters from Jackson to play the party. Since this party is to benefit the alumni effort is being made to have it attractive.

The Union has "Spot" Mayette's Masters from Jackson to play the party. Since this party is to benefit the alumni effort is being made to have it attractive.

A. B. Lowe of Saginaw was a guest at the Actheon house last Wednesday.
