Michigan State News

Published twice weekly during the college year by the students of Michigan State College. Entered as second class matter at the postoffice, East Lansing, Michigan.

Congratulations

Michigan State College students deserve to be complimented on the splendid manner in which they entertained the alumni over the past weekend. The "glad hand" was extended in reality and every alumnus returned home with the feeling that he was appreciated and that the old alma mater had not deteriorated, since his time. Smokers, parties, luncheons, teas, and dances were given in honor of the alumnus by the various fraternities and the Union. Fraternity house decorations were elaborate and greeted the returning alumnus as soon as he reached East Lansing.

The only fly in the alumnus ointment was the football game. It would have been a perfect day for the old grads had State been able to down the Titans, but fate willed otherwise. The Spartans put up a gallant fight against a superior team and went down with colors flying. Although many of the old-timers expected State to beat Detroit they were not downcast, because Captain Smith and his battlers contested every inch of ground. The team tried hard to make the day complete for the alumnus but they were playing a better team.

Although State lost the Detroit game, Homecoming day was still a grand success. A hitherto unknown spirit of cooperation between students and alumnus was manifest. A better feeling between the undergraduates and the alumnus is bound to be a result of Saturday's effort, and it is hoped that in years to come the same good feeling will still be prevalent.

show. We then drift into the habit of going to classes in a subconscious mood, with no real interest in the many things, both good and bad, which are always about us on the campus. Alumni many times show more interest in college issues than do students.

This is quite a detrimental state of affairs, because the progress of a college or university is largely dependent on the alertness of student opinion. Every man on the campus owes to his Alma Mater above all else his interest and thought on college problems.

Let's notice the things about our campus, let's think about them and express our opinions. Constructive criticism is a wonderful thing in any place, and it is needed especially on our campus. We surely should be learning to think and to back up our thoughts, so let's get interested in college issues and do our part toward the betterment of State.

The freshman class especially must realize that the opinions and thought of every last student are due the college, and that everyone is duty bound to become interested in campus issues.

Social Events Crowd Week-end as Old Grads Return to Campus

Alumni returning for Homecoming found many entertainments planned in their honor. Most of the fraternities held their open houses and fall term parties Saturday evening, while the sororities gave dinners or teas after the game. Besides these society affairs, the Union was the scene of the senior ball Friday night and an open party Saturday. Even the Y. W. C. A. came in for its share of entertaining with a waffle breakfast Saturday morning at the Peacock church.

Hallowe'en decorations of cornstalks and pumpkins were used for both the parties at the Union. Jean Goldkette's Ramblers proved exceptionally popular in their playing at the senior party, and "Sport" Mayette's Music Masters and the Jackson Rockers took charge the following night. Many returning alumni attended the party, as well as Detroit seniors staying over from the game.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Epsilonianum freshmen had their open houses Saturday night and Phi Delta Sunday afternoon. Alpha Gamma Delta was the only sorority holding a party during the weekend. Among the fraternities, Delphic, Eclectic, Ulyssian, Triumphant, Phi Delta, Delta Sigma, Phi Acteon, Alpha Gamma Rho, Irenian, Phi Kappa Tau, Union Litterae, and Phi Kappa Phi entertained. A great many of the parties were held downtown because all the available facilities on the campus and East Lansing had been engaged some time before Homecoming.

A buffet luncheon for the alumni guests of the Alpha Phi fraternity was held after Saturday's game.

The following alumni were bucked at the weekend at the Olympic house: a luncheon was served in their honor by John Carnuso, who acted as master of ceremonies. Whitney Watt, Walter Stevens, William Woll, Harry Matson, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Frauds of Ontonagon, Mr. and Mrs. William Layton of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Farnham, and Prof. J. F. Cox.

SPARTANS FALL BEFORE TITANS AS U. OF D OVERSHADOWS STATE

Running and Passing by Detroit Assures Easy Victory Early in Game.

DREW CROSSES GOAL

Score Stands 24-7 After Visitors Bewilder Home Gridders.

A much inferior Spartan team fell to the University of Detroit grid warriors in the Spartan stadium Saturday, day 24-7. Having the advantage in almost every department of the game, the Titans scored two touchdowns in the first ten minutes of play and were never headed. Displaying a hard running attack mixed with deception and an accurate passing game which demoralized the Spartan backfield, the Detroiters stood head and shoulders above State.

Captain Connell and Herm Young both crossed the State goal line early in the first period. Connell running 50 yards through the entire State team for his marker, and Young snaring a long pass from Lloyd Brazil for the other counter. State held Detroit clear of the goal line the remainder of the first half, but played a purely defensive game and never threatened the Red and White goal. On both jumps for touchdowns, the Titans blocked superbly and mixed with the poor tackling of the Spartans, found little trouble in making their way to the final chalk line.

State made its first threat in the third quarter when long passes and slants off tackle carried the ball far into Detroit territory, but the punch was lacking and the attack was halted by the Titan forwards.

Pot Ross played another whale of a game at center. He tackled well and intercepted several Titan heaves. Bob Eldred, starting his first game, proved to be fast and elusive in a broken field but a poor defense man. Vern Dickerson carried the ball for several long gains, reeling off 10 yards once when he was apparently downed for a 15 yard loss. Bill Hitchings and Ferrari in the line played well.

Probably the best end play that has been turned in by a Spartan duo this year was that of Hornbeck and Christensen. Besides playing a good defensive game, they gained much yardage on end-around plays and on the receiving end of Smith's passes.

Almost perfect interference marked the way for Connell, Brazil, Vachon and Maloney in their onslaught to the Spartan goal line.

Another quest for modern Balboas

COLUMBUS made possible Balboa, and just so Bell has made possible the pathfinders in telephony who are now turning his vision into reality.

They are pioneering at the drafting board, in the manufacturing departments, in the field and in the work which underlies all activity—management.

In executive and administrative control, in the supervisor's opportunity to guide and inspire, there is no limit to the possibilities of the progressive idea.

The questing spirit into new fields has achieved much, but the way remains open for men of the coming generation to carry the telephone industry to still greater heights of service.
