DISCOVERY

It is the week we definitely find out just what that title "The Twelve Mile Limit" signifies. We have heard a lot of subtle remarks in connection with the rum fleet and such things, but all feel we are in store for a surprise. No doubt the leads will have a time romping around on the high seas and the chorus must have found new legs by this time.

FORMAL

One night at the show will be an advance to get out the old tuxedo and the stiff shirt. Rumors in the past of a formal night for the Union Opera have always met with approval but never with much success. Year after year the more socially inclined men on the campus may feel that he will not be out of place in formal attire. One o'clock hours for a dance and a dance at the Union following the performance have nothing to do with social plans for evening.

ALL GONE

Understand that all the $1.00 seats for the night have been bought out. Make that as another indication the Opera will be a big success on the night.

SLOW

Some time ago Coach VanAlstyne shared his team to a lady's wrist. Van said in his comparison, "minute you look at it and it's the next it isn't." Last Saturday the watch hadn't exactly stopped but it was barely ticking. Maybe the team was tired after the Notre Dame battle or maybe they had orders.

MISSING

Two of the Union's stars were among the missing last Saturday night at the show and helped to make an already crowded evening more dead. The missing of the crowd had a big effect on the show. They were not by their absence.

STUNG

In spite of all we have just said regarding the slowness of the game and lack of enthusiasm among the spectators, there is one relieving factor. It is the Hornets who got stung.

YEAH

Yesterday evening while the cadet corps were still struggling into their uniforms for the military ball, the Freshmen basketball boys dragged down a Grand Rapids Junior team to a 28 defeat. Last week the Grand Rapids team defeated the Kalamazoo team that invaded our campus Saturday night.

J-HOP

There's just one day left for the young juniors to scrape together the necessary funds and invest in tickets for the Hop. Some boys wish they could buy their tickets on the installment plan, but cheer up boys it's the J-Hop and it's but once a year.

IN CLOSING

Now it comes time as we change our positions on this our colorful paper to bid a temporary goodbye to Blarney Stone. I take this opportunity to make a public farewell, much because it is the thing to do because it is necessary to fill this blank bit of space.

UNION OPERA TO OPEN AT GLADMER THEATER FRIDAY

Unusual Success Seen for "The Twelve Mile Limit," Annual Revue.

FINAL REHEARSALS HELD

Final rehearsals for "The Twelve Mile Limit" being stressed this week to add the final touches to the action of the show before the opening night performance at the Gladmer on Friday of this week, find the coordination and smoothness of the play to be in many respects superior to any previous performance. The scenery of the play is a bit unusual, representing the cabin and deck of the private yacht of Dick Morton, which is taken by Robert Graham, the leading masculine role. A large mast and part of the sail can be seen above the cabin. As the ship sails for the high seas and the twelve mile limit, the background is slowly seen to recede until nothing but blue water remains in sight.

The costumes for the play present a variety of color and a rather mixed selection of dress due to the various unusual situations of the characters. Some are in evening dress, some are in sport clothes, and still others are in sport clothes for the choruses are still more colorful and varied. Among the colorful choruses effects is a brilliant number in red and white costumes featuring a large checkered pattern and another in orange and black dress. The moonbeam chorus, a sailor chorus, and the cross word puzzle chorus are further song and dance numbers carried by the co-ed group.

The men's chorus appearing in white flannels and blue coats, make several appearances throughout the show. Besides the regular supporting choruses there are several feature numbers presenting both song and comedy. Perhaps one of the most outstanding of the latter kind is the calliope chorus of pleasantly plump girls.

Robert Graham as the leading man plays opposite Elizabeth Rarden who takes the part of Joyce Crosby, a wealthy heiress. These two leads have several solo numbers during the play and their duet in the singing of the song "Goodbye" is one of the high spots in the production. Their song is the theme song of the entire play and runs throughout the presentation.

Lyle Lyons, who has taken leading parts in several Union productions in the past, has a rich baritone voice which he uses in several unusual musical numbers. He takes the part of the father of Joyce Crosby, and the objecting parent to the match with young Morton. Further members of the cast include

Picture Taking, Dressmaking Precede Annual Union Revue

The Union this week is a place of sudden alarms and excursions. People dressed bizarrely, to say the least, or carrying huge and unwieldy bundles, stagger through the lobby at five-minute intervals, to disappear up back stairs. A truckman delivered a sewing machine there the other day, and was all for leaving it at the main desk. And every once in a while, upstairs, there's a huge flash and a boom, and another group of posing co-eds have had their pictures taken. Altogether, all the things that must go on before there can be a Union opera, are happening, as is, of course, right and proper. But it's unnerving for the spectators.

In fact, it's getting so one can't enjoy a quiet seat in the main lobby without being pressed into service to tear up the back stairs and bring down someone rehearsing up there, who is, inevitably, wanted on the telephone. And who is, just as inevitably, dressed in a sailor suit and a red striped hat, to the edification of the lobby loungers, when you trail her down.

Classes are all but deserted this week, while the youth and beauty of the campus, so to speak, has its picture taken, or tries on its costumes, which never fit, or learns new dance steps. This goes on most of the day in one room on the second floor. Across the hall, in the ballroom, every evening, the leads in the production rally round a convenient orchestra and sing at each other with appropriate gestures, while the producer, the consumer, and the publicity manager stand about and with deep expressions of gloom pick flaws in the action.

All this takes up about half of the Union second floor, and the rest is given over to the costume committee, who finally, salvaged their sewing machines from the bewildered main desk.

Play Lead Roles In Union Opera

Elizabeth Rarden

Robert Graham

Elizabeth Rarden of Greenville and Robert Graham of Harbor Springs will have the leading roles in "The Twelve Mile Limit" when it is presented this week-end. Both are talented vocalists, studying under scholarships from the University of Michigan. Both have had extensive experience on the stage previously.

Miss Rarden, who has appeared as a principal in two U. of M. operas, will play the part of Dick Morton in "The Twelve Mile Limit." Miss Rarden will enact the role of Joyce Crosby. It is around these two that the plot revolves.

The musical numbers, in which these two appear are expected to be among the features of the show. Especially notable among their songs is a duet at the end of the first act.

and bore it off in triumph for the belated manufacture of pink pleated skirts.

Here's where the Home Ec. girls come into their own, for pink pleated skirts aren't all that are being wrung out of that one hard-driven machine. There's a Spanish chorus, or something of other, that appears in tricky circumstances, and those have to be made. Likewise, a bridal gown and a veil are being manufactured, furnished perhaps the greatest joy of all when the lass who is being fitted to the veil is summoned to the telephone, for on these occasions the lobby goes particularly mad.

All in all, by indications seen in the lobby and on the second floor of the Union during the week, it'll be quite an opera—if the sewing machine manages to hold out till everyone is fitted to her own pink shirt and all necessary tucks have been taken in the wedding veil.

TICKET SALES FOR REVUE GOING FAST, SAYS RETTER

Tickets sales for the annual Union production to be staged at the Gladmer theatre, February 1 and 2, are exceeding all expectations, according to Joe Retter, chairman of the ticket committee. Opening night is expected to be a sell-out before the opening curtain Friday night, according to Retter.

All who have filed applications and have not received their tickets are advised to call at the Union desk before Thursday night at 8:00 and procure the same as the ticket sales will be confined exclusively to the box office at the Gladmer after that date. If your application has not been filed by that date, it will be necessary to call at the Gladmer for the reservations.

WIDELY KNOWN MUSICIANS ARE HERE THURSDAY

Victor Kolar Conducts Orchestra in Absence of Gabrielow.

PRESS MAKES DEBUT

The Detroit Symphony orchestra, Victor Kolar, conducted, will give a concert in the Prudden auditorium Thursday, Jan. 31, at 8:30 p. m. The orchestra, the youngest of the nation's great musical organizations, was founded 14 years ago. It has come into national prominence during the last nine years under the leadership of Oestp Gabrielowitch, who is on a leave of absence this season. The orchestra of 90 musicians plays 104 concerts from October to April. About 30 of these are given in cities

The Detroit Symphony orchestra concert Thursday, Jan. 31, at 8:30 p. m. will be given in the Prudden auditorium, Lansing, instead of the demonstration hall as previously announced.

Students will be admitted by presenting their green "Student course" tickets. Single admission tickets are $1, with the privilege of reservation for 50 cents additional.

The lecture by Low Saret, starting at 7:15 will be over in time to enable those who care to attend the concert to do so.

Conveniences are to be on hand at the church immediately at the close of the lecture to quickly transport those who desire it to the Prudden auditorium.

Various parts of the country. The demand for concerts by the Detroit Symphony is increasing each year. The 24 Sunday afternoon "popular" concerts given in Orchestra hall, admission being 25 cents to $1 are broadcast over the radio. The Detroit Symphony alone holds the distinction of giving 15 free concerts with a full orchestra to school children.

Victor Kolar, associate conductor, has worked his way up from the ranks. He began his career as a pupil of the great Bohemian violinist Kubelik who later sent him to the Prague conservatory to study with Dvorak.

In this country Kolar has played, with the Pittsburgh orchestra as violinist, in the same capacity in the New York symphony, under Walter Damrosch. With the Detroit Symphony as violinist assistant conductor and now associate conductor, Mr. Kolar has been in charge this season.

Michael Press, head of the violin department of the Michigan State College Institute of Music, will make his debut in Lansing as soloist. He has selected Tchaikowsky's Concerto in B minor.

The place held by the orchestra in the hearts of Detroit citizens is shown by the contributions received from thousands of public spirited persons.

DR. M'CUNE STARTS NEW STUDY CLASS AT CHURCH

Dr. M'Cune of the Peoples church has started a new study class which will meet every other Wednesday night at 7:30. The theme for study is "Finding God in the Beautiful." At different meetings the problem will be studied from the angles of poetry, music, drama, and art in painting and sculpture. This class has been organized by Dr. M'Cune and follows out a plan for the year made by the University of Chicago.

The class is open to men and women alike, but it is sponsored by the Women's Bible class, which consists of instructors, professors, and other employed women. Study outlines in which references are suggested are obtainable at the church. The first meeting Wednesday, Jan. 23, had an enthusiastic discussion in the group of 28 present.

Michael Press, Renowned Artist, to Appear With Detroit Symphony

Michael Press, Russian violinist, and head of the violin department of the music institute, appearing with the Detroit Symphony orchestra at the Prudden auditorium Thursday, will be heard for the first time by the local public as an artist. The concert will be the second on the artist series being given by the Institute in conjunction with the college.

The Tchaikowsky concerto (there is only one for violin in B minor) has been selected by Press for presentation here. The program follows: First the overture to the "Secrets" of Suzanne by Wolf-Perrai and the Sirens by Glielka by the orchestra; next Press and the orchestra, after which comes the intermission; the whole last half of the program is the Dvorak "New World Symphony," all of it this time—not just the usual "Largo."

Mr. Press has had a varied career as a teacher, being at one time head of the violin department of the Moscow Conservatory of Music, as a soloist, and even as a conductor. He should be at home with the orchestra, which

J-HOP TICKETS SELLING FAST

A Quarter of the Total Number Disposed of Yesterday—Sales Continue.

A quarter of the total number of tickets available for the J-Hop had been sold yesterday, according to the report of Ray Jennings, treasurer of the class, who has charge of the ticket sale. There are still a very limited number of tickets left for members of the Junior class. They will continue to be on sale today and tomorrow.

Following the close of the sale for juniors tomorrow night, the remaining tickets will be placed at the disposal of eligible seniors for purchase on Thursday and Friday of this week. With the tickets selling as they did on the opening day of the sale, it is very doubtful whether there will be many tickets left for seniors.

A change was necessitated in the selection of the patrons for the party last week, when Mr. and Mrs. Ray Riggs found that they would be unable to attend. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kipke have been chosen by the reception committee to serve with Mr. and Mrs. James B. Hasselman and Capt. and Mrs. (Continued on page 4)

VETERAN MEMBER OF FACULTY QUILTS

Prof. G. H. Coons, Plant Pathologist, Leaves for Washington, D. C.

Dr. G. H. Coons, professor of plant pathology, has resigned to accept a position in charge of sugar beet disease investigations in the U. S. department of agriculture, at Washington, D. C. He expects to leave for Washington about May 1.

Dr. Coons has been connected with the botany department at M. S. C. for 18 years, having been appointed in January, 1911. Not only has Dr. Coons been of great value to the state and college in plant pathology, but he has always had new ideas and plans which were of great value to the botany department as a whole.

A number of the more prominent younger plant pathologists in the country received part of their training under Dr. Coons, including among others, Dr. Elmer Brandes of the U. S. department of agriculture, Dr. Robert Goss of the University of Nebraska, and Dr. S. P. Doolittle of Madison, Wis.

Dr. Coons' successor has not been named.

FRENCHMAN WILL MAKE ADDRESS AT CONVOCATION

Pierre de Lanux, Official of the League of Nations in France, Is Speaker.

FIRST CONVO THIS YEAR

Pierre de Lanux, author, famed internationalist and director of the Paris office of the League of Nations, is to speak at a convocation on Wednesday morning through the courtesy of the Carnegie Endowment for Peace. The talk is being sponsored by the International Relations club of Michigan State college.

The convocation taking place at 11 a. m. in the gymnasium is the first one of the present school year and should arouse much interest.

Pierre de Lanux is a young man of his age, an editor, a writer of brilliant volumes, a practical organizer and executive, a linguist, a speaker and an internationalist of renown. And he makes claim to Paris as his original home. His accomplishments since then have been numerous.

The distinguished literary magazine "Nouvelle Revue Française" was his first big venture upon completion of his education, on which staff he was secretary. He was a war correspondent in the Balkans in 1912, 1913 and 1914; he volunteered in the French Ambulance corps in 1915, was sent on an official mission to the United States, later being made a member of the French High Commission in this country, in charge of liaison with Czechs, Poles, Yugoslavs and Rumanians. He was on the staff of Andre Tardieu during the Paris peace conference.

In 1921 M. de Lanux organized the French "Comité d'Action pour la Société des Nations" and never ceased to be a tireless worker for the French committee.

As a reward for his faithful work he was in 1924 appointed director of the Paris information office of the League of Nations.

M. de Lanux has won considerable praise as an author. His "Life of Henry IV" published in Paris in 1927 was hailed as one of the most brilliant biographies of the year. Other volumes are "Jugoslavia," "Young (Continued on page 4)

FARMERS WEEK TO BE UNIQUE EVENT

Mary Important Papers to Be Read by Eminent Authorities.

Subjects of unusual interest are to feature the annual conference of the Michigan Country Life association, to be held Feb. 4 and 5 in connection with other Farmers week activities, according to Professor Mumford of the sociology department.

Among the most important papers to be read before the association are those of three graduate students of the Michigan state college sociology department, who have been carrying on important studies in various parts of the state in connection with teaching work in the public schools, and are presenting the papers as their Master's theses at the Monday afternoon session of the conference.

"The Byron Community," by Glenn H. Burr, superintendent of schools at Byron, Mich., will be the first paper presented. This will be followed by "A Comparative Study of the Rural Life of Two Townships in Clinton County," by Theron Ingersoll of the Pottsville Junior high school, Lansing; and "The Relation of Community Activities to High School Achievements," by H. D. Douglass, superintendent of schools, Fowlerville, Mich. Following the reading of the theses a discussion period will be led by W. D. White, superintendent of schools, Hartland; Rev. Scott D. MacDonald, pastor of the Bath M. E. church; and Albert D. Arkley, teacher of agriculture, Hartland.

The Tuesday morning session of the conference will include talks by Professor Mumford and J. F. Thaden of the department, and a study of the Chicago's Michigan state college sociology milk situation by Dr. Arthur E. Holt of the Chicago Theological seminary, Chicago. The discussion will be led by Dr. Ernest Burnham of Western State Teachers college, Kalamazoo.

CHANGE OF SCENE

Change of scene of the concert of the Detroit Symphony orchestra from Demonstration hall to the Prudden auditorium Thursday evening is regrettable inasmuch as it takes the function from the campus and in a great measure removes from it the stamp of a Michigan State college affair.

Investigation, however, shows that this change was necessary because of the manifest unsuitableness of Demonstration hall for such functions. It was a mistake to originally arrange the concert there. This was realized at the recital of Madame Austral, when its huge bareness, its tanbark floor, the distance students were compelled to walk, demonstrated that it was hardly fitting as the locale of these concerts.

Decision to hold the remainder of the concerts either in the Peoples church or the Gymnasium was made. However, it is impossible to erect a stage with the required size to accommodate the many musicians with the Detroit Symphony. The only alternative was the Prudden auditorium.

It is to be hoped that it will not be necessary hereafter to go to Lansing for a place to hold the concerts for which the student body has subscribed en masse.

"VARSITY," PARAMOUNT
MOVIE, IS WITHDRAWN

Princeton, N. J.—(IP)—"Varsity," the moving picture made last summer on the Princeton campus in an effort to depict accurately the undergraduate life at this university, is to be withdrawn from the screen by its producers, The Paramount Famous-Lasky Company, at the request of President John Grier Hibben.

Both Princeton alumni and students opposed the showing of the film after it was completed, although the entire university cooperated in its production. "Try Harvard" was the suggestion made by the humorous columnist in the Princetonian Daily.

The study of forest taxation in Michigan, which the Forestry department has been carrying on in cooperation with the federal government, is about completed. According to Karl Dressel, who has charge of this study for the college, the final report will be sent to the government within a short time.

CAMPUS INTERESTED IN SUSPENDED OKLA. GOVERNOR

Much interest is found locally in the case of the impeachment proceedings being conducted in Oklahoma against Henry S. Johnston, suspended governor, because of his connections here. Johnston is a brother of Prof. W. W. Johnston, head of the English department and prominent in many movements on the campus. The Oklahoma house of representatives is investigating the regime of the suspended official who had been in office for three years.

TO SENIORS

Who are planning to enter the Business WorldWhat Other College Men Have Done
With Kresge

Graduating from Western Reserve University in 1921, I began business life with an idea that I was fitted for managerial work. I left my comfortable desk work and started in the stockroom. Then I worked successfully as floor manager, assistant manager and manager.

I then received my biggest promotion, and today I am happily located in an executive position, with increased responsibilities.

The financial return that has come to me exceeds all that I had expected.

Columbia S. S. 14—Western M. S. 1917—A Phi Beta Kappa man became an instructor until 1920, then assistant head chemist for an Eastern manufacturer until 1922 when he entered the Kresge organization to take the training course.

He is now a manager of a Kresge store and claims: "Today I find myself receiving a greater income than the teachers and industrial acquaintances who sought to discourage me for making such a radical change of occupation."

A Missouri University graduate enthusiastically relates the following:

"In June of 1923, just after I had been presented with my much-prized sheepskin, a gray-haired gentleman with years of experience said to me: 'Just what the future holds for you will depend largely on the steps you take during the next few years. Take my advice and enter a good company; begin at the bottom and work your way to the top.'

I followed his advice by starting in the stockroom of a Kresge store on December 8, 1923.

Today I am managing my first store, happy in the thought that I am on the road to success."

AFTER the years of college then there comes to many men the most trying period of their careers. What place does the world have for them? For what niche has their training best suited them? Where do they fit?

It is to these seniors who have not yet fully decided on their future that this advertisement is addressed.

The S. S. Kresge Company has an opportunity for college men who are ambitious enough and capable enough to reach the top—yet who are willing to start at the bottom. These men we train to be store managers and to occupy other executive positions—well paid positions involving a share in the Kresge profits. The men selected are given intensive preparation for their future executive positions, they are instructed in every detail of store management and they are advanced as rapidly as they become familiar with the Kresge policy and the Kresge methods of merchandising. The work is not easy but the reward is not small—an executive position in the Kresge organization which operates 510 stores with an annual volume of business close to $150,000,000.

If a career such as those described here appeals to you, write our Personnel Department and a Kresge representative will be sent to give you a personal interview.

What Others Have Done
You Can Do

A Bucknell College graduate writes:

"After graduating from college with the degree of B. S. and M. A. I accepted a position as Chemistry instructor in a small college. After two years as an instructor I became dissatisfied and decided to enter the business world.

I became acquainted with an enthusiastic Kresge manager who gladly explained their system of training men to become store managers. Shortly after that I started in the stockroom, received promotions according to my ability to earn them, and today although a successful store manager I am in line for still greater responsibility.

I know of no other organization where a man's efforts will be better repaid than with the Kresge Company."

An alumnus of the University of Michigan class of 1922 says: "The most important problem confronting me the last semester in school was choosing the job that would begin when college days were over. To make the right start in the business world was my aim. I turned down several soft snap jobs, the kind that paid fairly well to start but held no future for a stockroom job with the Kresge Company which paid little to start but offered a definite future. I combined my education with good common sense and after applying myself diligently I was rapidly promoted to greater responsibilities.

Today I am manager of a good sized store, and gladly recommend the Kresge Company as a means to a definite end, providing you possess the necessary qualifications and a whole hearted desire to succeed."

Military Ball Sets Social Season in Full Swing Here

The past week-end has indeed been a busy one on the campus. The social season was set in full swing when the Military ball, one of the most brilliant parties on the social calendar, was given in Demonstration hall. The scheme was carried out in black and gold, the hall being very effectively decorated with black and gold streamers. The programs also were very original in these colors. Favors were in the form of miniatures of cavalry regiments and scabbards which make striking letter openers. Satter's orchestra provided music for the dancing, with the excitement that preceded the beautiful decorations and the music, everyone who attended went away feeling that this was one of the most successful affairs of its kind that the local corps of the R. O. C. has yet sponsored.

P. W. Hardie was the regular officer in charge, while J. W. Putten served very efficiently as chairman of the decoration committee. The arrangements committee consisted of Cadet Major Losey, general chairman; Cadet Captain Leavitt, music; Cadet Col. Stevens, programs; Cadet Major Henderson, favors; Cadet Capt. Burris, invitations and eligibility.

The patrons for the evening were Col. and Mrs. T. L. Sherburne, Major and Mrs. C. Thomas Stahl, honor guests included Gov. and Mrs. Fred W. Green, President and Mrs. Robert S. Shaw, Secretary and Mrs. H. H. Halladay, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Thorsen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. C. Cool, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brody, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dowd and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stockman.

Kappa Alpha Theta held its winter formal party at Hotel Olds on Saturday evening. Their party was the form of a dinner-dance. Decorations were carried out in a color scheme of yellow, the tables being laid with yellow layers and flowers. Bonnet's "Cotton Pickers" from Detroit were for the dancing. The patrons included Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Kipke, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Casteel, Sec. and Mrs. H. H. Halladay were the hosts of honor for the evening.

The Aethon formal, which was held on Saturday evening, was held in the Wistaria room of the Hotel. Ronald Wilson's "Vagabonds" furnished music for about 40 couples. The decorative theme was blue and white. The decorations in the ballroom very effectively suggested the color scheme while the tables reflected these colors. Favors in the form of silver bedroom clocks decorated with the fraternity seal were given. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Caswell and Mrs. J. B. Haselmann acted as hosts, while among the guests were said Fleer and P. L. Lonsbury of Grand Rapids, Jerry Brabb of Port Huron, Lynn Workman of Grand Rapids, Robert Halloway of Detroit, Gold Delbert of Owosso, George Macintosh of Detroit, and P. L. Zwitchey of Detroit.

The Union Literary society held an open house Saturday evening for which

PLAY BOYS TO PLAY AT FORMAL AFTER REVUE

Following a popular demand for a formal dance after the Union opera, Phil Olin, chairman of the Union party committee, announces that a special party will be given in the Union ballroom immediately following the evening performance of "The Twelve Mile Limit" at the Gladmer theater Friday night.

The party will be strictly formal according to the committee in charge, and no stages will be allowed. The "Play Boys" have been engaged to furnish the music for the evening and dancing will continue until 1 o'clock with 130 privileges for co-eds. The admission to the dance is 50 cents.

CO-ED WHO STARRED IN UNION REVUE, ON STAGE

Mary Margaret Hillier of Detroit, former co-ed at Michigan State who was one of the stars of the Union Revue of 1926, appeared as a featured dancer at the Michigan theater in Detroit last week.

After leaving Michigan State, Miss Hillier started her stage career in the chorus of musical comedy productions, winning her way to solo parts, and she was signed to dance with her present company with a contract for 40 weeks. She first studied dancing in Detroit and then in New York studios.

W. A. A. SUCCESSFUL IN SPONSORING OF MOVIE

"A Lady of Choice," which was sponsored by the members of W. A. A. in the State theater on Thursday and Friday evenings netted that organization the sum of $30. The proceeds will be used for the W. A. A. cabin which is nearing completion in the woods near Farm Lane. Six girls were in charge of the sale of the tickets with Shirley Mixer acting as general chairman.

G. W. BRADT TO LECTURE ON BRITISH GUINEA

There will be an illustrated lecture on British Guinea Wednesday night by G. W. Bradt of the geology department. Mr. Bradt was in South America for three months and traveled extensively while there.

W. S. G. A. SPONSORS CO-ED MASS MEETING FOR NEXT WED.

A co-ed mass meeting sponsored by the Women's Self Government association will be held next Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the ballroom of the Union. Special announcements are to be made and roll taken. W. S. G. A. and Sphinx society have planned a social program for this term which will be announced at this time.

The Woman's Athletic association is planning to sponsor a concession booth in the Old Armory during Farmers' week, which is Feb. 4-8. All members who can help in the booth any time during the week are urged to either sign up on the chart in the gym or call Shirley Mixer.

Y. W. C. A. GIRLS NET LARGE AMOUNT IN CARNIVAL

Proceeds from the Y. W. C. A. carnival which was held last Wednesday night in the old armory reached the $100 mark, according to the announcement made Tuesday by Beatrice Comstock, president of the local Y. W. C. A. The money will be used to cover the general expenses of the organization and to send two delegates to the Lake Geneva conference this summer.

The Alpha Gamma Deltas were awarded the silver loving cup for having the best booth among the competing sororities. Their concession featured a mock police court where persons tagged in the audience were taken for trial and in most of the cases, heavily fined. The Kappa Deltas were adjudged to be the second best with a miniature golf course. The Theta Omicrons won third place with a mock-heroic act. The judges were Dean Elizabeth Conrad, Mrs. Robert S. Shaw and Miss Betty Humphrey.

The Playboys furnished the music for the jivey dance later in the evening. Jane Platt was the general chairman of arrangements, assisted by Gladys Morse.

MU ETA OMICRON TO GIVE INITIAL RECEPTION

A reception which will be the precedent for future receptions will be given by the members of Mu Eta Omicron, honorary music society in the Peoples church on Saturday afternoon. The guests will include members of the music department faculty, representatives from the other various departments of the college and several members from each society. Music during the afternoon will be furnished by the Colonial Trio, which is composed of Miss Frances Ayres, Mrs. Zona Marshall and Mrs. La Dine Allen.

PHILIPP ABBAS TO APPEAR SUNDAY

Philipp Abbas, instructor of cello at M. S. G. and world renowned musician, is appearing in concert at the Peoples church, Sunday, Feb. 10, at 7:15. He will play several numbers on the viola da gamba, which is an ancient instrument formerly used only in the king's chambers for his private concerts. It is the only instrument of its kind in this country and Mr. Abbas is the only musician with knowledge of its art.

The gamba differs from the cello in that it has sweeter and more pained notes, gotten from six rather than four strings, says Mr. Abbas. Mr. Abbas' gamba has a beautifully carved wooden head at the scroll. The tones of the gamba, unlike those of the cello, are so delicate that it can not be accompanied by the piano, but must have the softest organ tones as a background.

Mr. Abbas will also give several numbers on the cello, accompanied by his wife. Several of the numbers of the program for the evening are: For the viola da gamba and organ: Verdi's "Schumann."

SPARTANS EASILY DEFEAT KAZOO IN LISTLESS CONTEST SATURDAY

VanAlstyne Uses Many Substitutions in View of Coming Eastern Trip.

FELT STARTS GAME

Michigan State's basketball squad easily defeated Kalamazoo 30 to 22 here Saturday night in a slow and uninteresting game. Fourteen Spartans got into the contest while the Hornets made no substitutions. Perhaps the reason State's cagers did not extend themselves was that Coach VanAlstyne had in view the eastern trip the latter part of this week when his proteges will meet Colgate Friday night at Hamilton, N. Y., and Syracuse university the following evening at Syracuse.

Carl Felt started at center against the Hornets. It was his first appearance in the State uniform this season. Carl Nordberg and VanAntwerp, forwards and Russo and Prendergast were the others to start. This combination stayed in the game about nine minutes with only one substitution. Sheathelm for Nordberg. Coach VanAlstyne then sent in his regulars including Fred Den Herder who stayed in the fracas a few minutes. Totten took his place for the remainder of the first period. The score stood even at 12 points at the first gun.

Art Haga made two beautiful shots during the first period, but missed through the hoop without touching the ring. Burrows of Kalamazoo was high point man with 11 counters, three field goals and five free throws. Scott collected 8 points for State to be the Spartan high scorer, of which 4 were from the floor and 4 from the penalty stripe.

This Smoke Aids Artist To Nab Ideas

Independence, Mo. June 24, 1928.

Larus & Brother Co., Richmond, Va.

Dear Sirs:

Perhaps you would like to know in just a word or so how I am in partnership with Edgeworth in a business way.

By profession I am a cartoonist, who you probably know is called upon to create new ideas. While this is ranked as the hardest part of the profession, I have proved it may easily be mastered, if a person will but recline in any easy chair, light a pipe, and live with imaginative persons in the aromatic smoke clouds that will soon fill the room. Edgeworth has given me more ideas than any other brand of tobacco, so I "married" my pipe to it quite a while ago. The result has been wonderful. The more you use Edgeworth, the more you crave it—not as a drug, but as a wholesome pleasure.

Complimenting the standard quality (which means more than the words signify of Edgeworth), I am a devoted and profound user.

Yours very respectfully,
James W. Bright

Paris, London, Brussels, Geneva, New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Milwaukee and Cleveland are only a few of the cities in which Lanux has lectured besides hundreds of French villages.

The information office of the League of Nations in Paris is under the direction of M. de Lanux. The aim of the office is to form a liaison between the League and the French public keeping the French people informed regarding the activities of this international body.

Following is one of Lanux's characteristic quotations: "I believe that Europe which made war so long and therefore knows war so well, and therefore hates it so much may become the great laboratory of peace. This is no paradox. The mission of Europe is like the mission of Geneva, a formulation of peace laws, a forging of peace machinery, a readiness to settle peacefully the conflicts of the world. Then he goes on to say: 'Now the great thing to build in Europe is the basis for Europe's future, the most exciting object to work for is some kind of Anglo-Franco-German cooperation as never existed before.'

STATE FROSH WIN 30-28 OVER GRAND RAPIDS JR.

The State Frosh won their second victory this season in a closely contested battle, 30 to 28, over Grand Rapids Junior college at Grand Rapids.

Green and Purnoe, forwards, Boekel, center, and Guthbertson and Vanderploeg, guards, started for the freshmen. Green led the freshmen in scores with 9 points. Neither team could get much advantage on the other in scores. At the end of the half the score stood 14 to 13 with Grand Rapids in the lead.

MANY COMPETE FOR RIFLE TEAMS

Both Co-ed and Men's Teams Prepare for Season's Schedule.

With 25 men competing for positions on the rifle team, the prospects for a successful season are good, according to Captain Hinwood, coach of the team. The State team has a stiff schedule to face this season, but unusual interest has been taken in the teaching year and a good showing is expected.

Several medals and prizes are awarded to the best shooters, while service awards and class numbers are given to the highest scorers. The men competing the team are: J. Graman, K. Lang, Herbert Chickering, and Harold Sprague are on the 220-yard dash list. The candidates for the 440-yard dash are: Kroll, David Salmon, John West, Victor Rossman, Guilford Rothfus, Nathan Ellis, and Kenneth Plank. Clarence Passink, only veteran, Ferris Oswald, and Walter Russow will compete in the hurdle event. The promising sophomores are: Arthur Voelker, Robert Russell, and Kenneth Yager.

Louis Hackney, Elmer Roossien, and Nathan Brewer, all in their second year of varsity competition, lead the candidates for the 880-yard run. Merle Clark heads the list of mile candidates, he being the only veteran. The two-mile list includes: Lauren Brown, Theodore Willmarth, Floyd Roberts, and Leonard Dowd, a very promising sophomore who finished second and third consistently in the cross-country meets last fall. Besides the candidates mentioned before, the following sophomores and one junior, Richard Maples, are seeking a place in one of the distance events. Howard Balbach, Clark Chamberlain, Robert Deering, Stanley Frisbie, Loring Fullerton, Ralph Loomis, Donald Price, John Reid, and Harold Rinn.

PROF. HUTTON DISCOVERS NEW SPRAY METHOD

An important modification of spraying methods will be made as a result of the experiments carried on by Prof. W. C. Dutton, spraying specialist in the horticultural department of Michigan State college. In a paper delivered before the American Society of Horticulture meeting at New York, the latter part of December, he showed how the use of ferrous sulphate in the lime-sulphur preparation has reduced the amount of rusting of apples, reduced the burning of the leaves, and increased the finish of the fruit.

He has also found that the use of lime-sulphur sprays tend to deposit fruit bud formation even if the leaves are not injured. It is hoped that the use of ferrous sulphate will correct this.

This discovery is the result of experiments carried on for several years in orchards near Belding, Mich. It is necessary to try this out in other states before they recommend it to their growers. Probably a dozen states will try Professor Dutton's recommendations this year.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

All freshman baseball candidates will report at the lecture room in the gymnasium on Wednesday afternoon at 4 p. m. Jan. 30th. Coach Kobs will be present. The men and schedule cards will be arranged.

Shaw Meets Objections to Size of Appropriations in Alumni Talk

President R. S. Shaw, in a talk before the college congress of class secretaries and branch alumni officers Friday evening in the Union Memorial building, stated that during the 18 years between 1901 and 1919 appropriations amounting to $65,000 were set aside for the construction of buildings on the Michigan State college campus.

"When people object to the request of the college for further building appropriations, and suggest that Michigan State college has had its share and should hold off, they might be reminded of that fact," said President Shaw. Between 1901 and 1919 the college received $65,000 in appropriations for buildings and $55,000 of that was to replace the old Wells hall which was destroyed by fire.

During that period, the college completed a million-dollar building program—by saving the money from funds given for operating the institution. This was done at a sacrifice to the staff, because it was necessary to decrease the amount paid out in salaries.

President Shaw, in a concise statement of the financial plans of the college, said that a 10-year building plan was asked by the state administrative board last fall, and prepared by the college and the state board. This will include an average of $633,770 a year, or less than the equivalent of a building per year.

The annual budget this year totals about $2,769,000, of which 67.3 per cent of the total income is derived from state funds, he declared. The budget is for operating expenses. President Shaw further stated that by next June the deficit will be wiped out, and the college books will show a direct balance.

Reorganization of courses is being studied by the faculty at the present time, and will be effected by next fall, according to Shaw, who stated that by such a revision an economic saving of 18 to 20 per cent would be possible. He said the music school has been attacked, because of the supposed expenditure, but that as a matter of fact the college spends one-third as much on the music department as on athletics.

Dr. J. W. Crist of the horticultural department, described the work of a special faculty committee on the admission of students whose high school record is below the requirements.

E. E. Gallup, a graduate of the college and supervisor of vocational agricultural education in the state, was chairman at the informal dinner which constituted the second annual College Congress. T. Hawley Tapping, alumni field secretary of the University of Michigan, discussed "New Ideas in Organized Alumni Work."

STATE THINCLADS WORKING DAILY

Many Veterans and Promising Youngsters Greet Track Coaches.

The Spartan thinclads, directed by Coach Young Mason, and Casteele, are again in training for the indoor track season in which they hope to repeat the same series of victories that have marked the season for the last three years.

The Spartan team will compete in two dual meets, with Marquette on the home track, and with Ohio Wesleyan there. Last year State lost to Marquette by four points in the dual meet at Milwaukee, and won the Ohio Wesleyan contest with a margin of 30 points. Ohio Wesleyan has an outstanding team which is expected to furnish some of the stiffest competition of the season when State meets the Methodists on their own track. Besides the dual meets, the schedule includes the annual Michigan State College relay, the Central Intercollegiate relay most won by Notre Dame last year with Michigan State four points behind for second place, and the Illinois relays.

Captain Lyle Henson, Forrest Lang, and William Kroll will compete in the 40-yard dash, this being their third year of varsity competition. Henson, Lang, Herbert Chickering, and Harold Sprague are on the 220-yard dash list. The candidates for the 440-yard dash are: Kroll, David Salmon, John West, Victor Rossman, Guilford Rothfus, Nathan Ellis, and Kenneth Plank. Clarence Passink, only veteran, Ferris Oswald, and Walter Russow will compete in the hurdle event. The promising sophomores are: Arthur Voelker, Robert Russell, and Kenneth Yager.

Louis Hackney, Elmer Roossien, and Nathan Brewer, all in their second year of varsity competition, lead the candidates for the 880-yard run. Merle Clark heads the list of mile candidates, he being the only veteran. The two-mile list includes: Lauren Brown, Theodore Willmarth, Floyd Roberts, and Leonard Dowd, a very promising sophomore who finished second and third consistently in the cross-country meets last fall. Besides the candidates mentioned before, the following sophomores and one junior, Richard Maples, are seeking a place in one of the distance events. Howard Balbach, Clark Chamberlain, Robert Deering, Stanley Frisbie, Loring Fullerton, Ralph Loomis, Donald Price, John Reid, and Harold Rinn.

Dean Tilton, third-year letter man, and eligible only for the indoor season on account of having competed for three seasons in varsity outdoor track meets, leads the list of shot put candidates. Martin Joslin and Ruben Dill are also out for the shot event. Tilton has hit the shot 45.1-1.4 inches, the longest shot ever recorded at this institution. Deland Davis tops the list of candidates for the high jump, followed by Charles Lish, Robert Russell, and Fred Ludwig. Davis is the only veteran; the others are sophomores.

The outstanding pole vaulter is Harold McAtee, who has cleared 13 feet 3-8 inches higher than any other man in Michigan. The other candidates are Colburn Potter, Carl Nordberg, and Roger Grove. Nordberg and Grove are playing basketball now, but they are expected to add considerable strength to the pole-vault event. The lists of candidates for all events are headed by letter men.

Coach Young expresses considerable anxiety over the few freshmen track candidates. As a rule from 60 to 75 yearlings start the season, but as yet only about 25 have reported. Unless the frosh thinclads receive some reinforcement soon their representation in the inter-class and Fresh-Soph meets will be very poor and the enviable record State has made in track and field events during the last three or four years will be in danger.

KOBS ISSUES FIRST CALL FOR VARSITY BATTERIES

The first call for varsity baseball men was issued by Coach Kobs last week. The initial practices consist of "warming up" sessions for the batteries.

A large army of hurlers are out for the squad and will be in the best of condition for the annual southern trip which takes place during spring vacation. At the present time eight games have been scheduled for the southern trip.

The entire squad of players will report for practice within the next few weeks. The men who are reporting daily in the new armory are: Pitchers: G. Byrne, Brown, Kahl, Callahan, Langdon, Olson, Fox, and Bullock, catchers, Pevic, Barnard, Hayden, and K. Byrne.

OHIO WESLEYAN MAY BAN DATES AT CONTESTS

Delaware, Ohio—(IP)—Whether or not there should be dating at Ohio Wesleyan athletic contests is now a matter of moment on this campus. It is an age-old custom here that no dating is had at games. An article in the Transcript stirred up much sentiment on both sides of the question, and the battle rages, with women seemingly mostly in favor of no dates, and the men most in favor of them.

U. OF WASHINGTON PROF TO CONDUCT ART TOUR

Seattle, Wash.—(IP)—Rev. Dr. H. H. Gowan, University of Washington, professor and rector of the St. Barnabas Episcopal church on the campus, has left to conduct an Oriental art tour through Japan, China and the Philippines.

NOTICE

All freshmen who have not received picture appointments for the Wolverine please notify Mildred Everingham at the Alpha Chi Omega house this week. This is important as this will be the last week that freshmen appointments will be considered.

Proofs already taken must be turned in by Friday. Classes are to be exchanged for pictures, provided the exchanging officer is informed immediately afterwards.
