WELCOME ALUMNI!

Another year has rolled by and tomorrow Michigan State will play host to thousands of returning alumni. Coming from nearly every state in the Union, the former students will again visit the scenes of their college days, renew old friendships, and make new acquaintances. The Michigan State News staff in behalf of the entire student body wishes to extend a cordial word of greeting to the many visitors to the campus.

WELCOME COLGATE!

Five years of athletic relations with Colgate university have been unmarred by any ill-feeling between either the teams or the student bodies. Ever since the beginning of competition between the eastern school and Michigan State college the spirit of friendliness has been paramount.

No matter what the outcome of the game is tomorrow, every State student has the primary desire to welcome the fighting Colgate delegation in every manner of friendliness and to leave an association of most pleasant thoughts.

DAIRY EXPERTS LEAVE FOR OHIO

Judging Team to See Action on Saturday in Cleveland; Many Awards Offered.

Michigan State's judging experts left today at noon for the Students' National contest in Judging Dairy Products in Cleveland, Ohio. Coach G. Malcolm accompanied the team.

Coach Trout has not yet decided who will make up the trio which will vie for honors with teams from fifteen of the leading dairy schools, but Leonard Dowd, Henry Gleason, Burrell Henry and Donald Keppel are making the trip.

The contest will be held on Saturday in the Cleveland public auditorium. Each contestant will judge seven samples each of butter, cheese, ice cream, and milk.

The Dairy and Ice Cream Machinery and Supply association, Inc., offers six scholarships of $750 each to the six eligible students who stand highest in the contest. There is a cup for the highest team in all products, besides cups for the teams making the best showing in each product.

The student standing highest in all products will be awarded a gold medal, second and third ratings will receive silver and bronze medals. Further awards include gold, silver and bronze medals for first, second and third place winners in each of the butter, cheese, and milk events.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners Monday evening, October 20, in conjunction with a banquet in honor of the visiting teams. The program will be broadcast from the Cleveland Public Auditorium.

Large Turnout For Dramatic Trials

About 90 students evidenced interest in the Theta Alpha Phi play tryouts held Tuesday night in the Little Theatre. Selections for minor parts in the coming stage productions to be presented in the State Theatre this term will be made from the group.

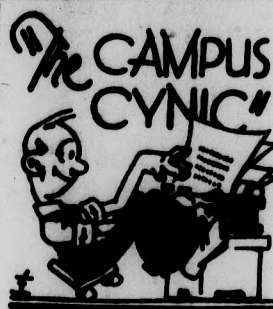

Much promising material reported for the dramatic trials as well as students with technical ability. These included costuming, stage management, and property.

Homecoming

Homecoming—a reminder to the returning old grad of the beloved scenes of his youthful defections—his old society with its joys and sorrows—of faded romances—of hectic parties—of rotten liquor—four years of careless pleasure (result of a defective memory) To the senior—soon to depart these care-free days—a vista, a prophesy of impending disaster—going to work. To the junior and sophomore—an annual affair and a lot of work. To the still dazed freshman—a bigger confusion—trying to get a date for a party in an unfriendly world (so he thinks).

The imposing Maroon of Colgate invades East Lansing this week-end with a powerful, fast and aggressive team. The highest scoring squad in the country, with a versatile and hard-hitting attack. Unscored on, untied and unbeaten. Confident of victory. The Spartan line has yet to be crossed this season. State has a strong defense, and the Crowleymen have worked strenuously far into the twilight each day this week in order to perfect that defense. Only a varied, powerful and sustained attack will cross the Spartan goal line. Apparently Colgate has it. But appearances are sometimes deceitful.

A burlesque on the social activities of the sophomore class, the most deadly of insults, to a second-year man is occurring on the campus. A freshman has an embryonic date exchange in operation. At present his main business is getting dates for sophomores for homecoming parties. The most astounding part of this bizarre arrangement (we'll make that concession to the afflicted class, at least is that this enterprising newcomer is not confining his exchange to freshman co-eds. Some of the more sedate upperclass members of imposing societies are on his calling list. Oh! most holy of helms, this is something that in the wildest flights of our imagination we have never till now encountered! A pernicious travesty on the dignity of the appointed guardians of our sacred traditions! But take heed, O zealous one, the way of the transgressor is hard!

TALENT IN A FROSH!

The sunken gardens by the Cedar Hardens in the sunlight's gleam
Stalk with ghosts of past romances
In the moon's bizarre regime.

For life, pool and beer and pathos
Have their tale of secret love
Of rings and pins and quarrels and kisses—
Promises and something more.

If you would feel the spell of romance
Walk beneath the moonlit sky
Where the Cedar speaks the language
Of the loves of days gone by
D. L. L. 34

And Conversely—
Who among us with heart so calm
Has not wondered 'T the moon
With some winsome lovely maiden
And pledged a troth to end so soon?
And with heart securely captured
Gazed moon-struck and enraptured
At the love that lies in her lovely eyes
And lies and lies and lies!

Thank God there is no state tax on this thing called poetic license!

College Authorities Give Last Warning

Every new student on the campus, whether he be freshman, transfer or graduate, must report to the Health Service for a physical examination if he expects to remain in school. Many students have failed to give any thought to the serious consequences that continued neglect on their part may call forth.

Students are urged for their own benefit to comply with this regulation without further delay.

eties Don Homecoming Regalia as Plans are Made to Give Alumni Royal Welcoming During Week-End

Fraternities Schedule Parties and Dinners for Guests; Tea Dance Is Well Attended Wednesday With Affairs To Be Continued.

MICHIGAN STATE'S ALUMNI return for Homecoming to their fraternities and sororities to find them transformed in green, maroon and white streamers, which herald the approach of one of the fall's most attractive week-ends. The fraternities have out-done themselves this year, in a rush of homecoming eagerness to entertain their alumni. Eighteen fraternities are having parties this week-end, many of these are preparing them with dinners for guests. The matinee dance Saturday afternoon had a good turnout. Similar will be held every Wednesday, with the regular tea-orchestra furnishing the music.

Union party tonight will doubtless draw an unusually large crowd. It is the only open party of the week. Carlisle's orchestra will play.

AeTheons are the only frat to hold a dance tonight. It is in the Little Theatre, with Carlisle's orchestra furnishing the music. Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Cason and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Warren are the patrons.

The "Truth Detector" gives Duofold 50-Years' Test

Bonus Point Writes 200 Miles Without a Skip or Blot
PEN GUARANTEED FOR LIFE

The "Lie Detector" used by police, now has a counterpart in the Parker "Truth Detector"—a testing machine on which every make of pen writes its own ticket for quality.

Recently on this endless sheet of paper, the Parker Duofold point wrote—without skip or blot—for 200 miles, equal to 50 years of average writing!

Parker's written record of this gruelling test shows Pressureless Writing throughout. And at the end, only the microscope could find the slightest wear. Not so with other makes of pens also tested by this unflinching method.

We Pay a Bonus for Every Point

We pay our post-graduate point-smiths a reward or bonus for every point that successfully passes 11 merciless tests. Fail ONE—and the point is rejected; its maker pays a forfeit.

Yet 7 out of 8 are bonus points because we limit the number per day a man may make, and he has time to make each one as good as his best.

Parker Duofold Pens are Guaranteed for Life. They hold 17.4% more ink than average, size for size. Their beautiful streamlined Permaline barrels are non-breakable.

Junior or Lady Duofold in colors, $5; Senior, $7. Black-and-Pearl or Green-and-Pearl, Lady, $7.50; Junior, $8.50; Senior, $10.

The Sigma Kappa will entertain their alumnae parents and guests at an open house and lunch tea after the game Saturday afternoon. They will hold their annual alumnae breakfast at the house Sunday morning, with the house decorated in green and white.

Pres. and Mrs. Shaw Entertain Faculty and Guests Tuesday

500 People Attend Elaborate Formal Event in Union Ballroom.

Over five hundred guests including the members of the State Board of Agriculture were present at the annual President's reception held Tuesday night, October 14. The affair given each year by President and Mrs. Robert S. Shaw for the faculty and their guests, is easily the largest and most outstanding faculty party of the year.

Using the Union ballroom as its setting, the party had as decorations a beautiful display of bouquets of autumn leaves, small fir trees, and large baskets of fall flowers, which gave an elaborate interpretation of the fall season. The reception was held from eight o'clock until nine-thirty with the following persons in the receiving line: President and Mrs. Robert S. Shaw, Colonel and Mrs. Dorsey L. Rodney, Secretary and Mrs. H. H. Halladay, Dean and Mrs. Ward Giller, Dean and Mrs. E. H. Pryder, Dean Elisabeth Conrad, Dean Marie Dye, Dean and Mrs. Joseph P. Cox, Dean and Mrs. Ernst Bessey, Dean and Mrs. Henry B. Dicks, Dean and Mrs. Ralph Huston, Director and Mrs. Victor H. Gardner, Director and Mrs. Robert B. Robinson and Director and Mrs. Ralph Young.

The guests were met at the door and escorted to the receiving line by Elton Hill, A. G. Scheele, Clifford Duncan, G. G. Specker, Dr. W. S. Kimball, G. T. Stennett and Geo. Barr. Those who assisted in the dining room were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hootman, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Fabian. The dining room from which the refreshments were served was filled with small tables with baskets of fall flowers as centerpieces.

Following the reception, the guests enjoyed dancing with Satterly's orchestra furnishing the music.

Co-eds to Stage Special Matches for Homecoming

The annual hockey game of the alumnae and faculty against the "S" club members will be played Saturday morning at 10 o'clock on the field across from the Gym.

Alumnae members will be furnished with tickets at the Gym on the morning before the game, and friends of both teams are urged to attend and help with the cheering.

Season will be "Bagging One's Time" Professor Arthur Farwell of the Music department will address the 6:00 gathering of the Student Christian union Sunday evening on "The Song in Religion." Student director, Norman Kenkel, will also speak on "The Religious Path of Great Musicians," using songs and other music selections to illustrate various points.

The Sunday evening program will feature the Friendly Indians in full regalia. Motion pictures for the occasion will be "The Cliff Dwellers" and "The Land of the Lemmings."

Plans Rapidly Being Perfected
For Selection of Flower Queen

Plans are rapidly being perfected for the contest to be conducted at the State theater in East Lansing to select a queen to rule over the Michigan Florists' association flower show at Demonstration hall on the Michigan State college campus, November 7, 8 and 9.

The first preliminary in the contest will be held at the State theater November 2, and the second on November 4. At each of these contests five young women will be selected to enter the final contest at the theater November 6, when the queen will be chosen. The other nine girls will constitute her court of honor at the flower show.

Already several merchants in Lansing have agreed to donate prizes for the queen. Among these gifts will be a $100 diamond ring, a hat from Fletcher's hat shop, photographs from Vershul studios, and dresses, shoes and hose from other merchants.

Because the decoration of the houses adds so much to the spirit of the occasion this plan has been an integral part of the Homecoming day for many years. Last year the Delphes won the cup, and the season before that the Eumoniads. Judges for the contest were named yesterday by Stan Oswald, council president, to be Dean Elizabeth Conrad, Prof. Halligan, Prof. Jener, and B. R. Prosser. They will meet Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the Union to pick the winner.

Between 12,000 and 15,000 students and returned alumni will rivet their attention on the annual football clash tomorrow afternoon between Colgate University and Michigan State. With the Maroon team rated as the highest scoring unit in the country to date, having a total of 178 points to date, opponents 0 and the State outfit beating a 0-0 tie with the powerful Washington eleven, the battle tomorrow as-

Frosh Will Play First Game At Ypsilanti Saturday

WILL TAKE 68 YEARLINGS ON INITIAL JAUNT

Coach Kobs to Use Six Teams, Including Every Man On Squad.

Coach John H. Kobs will lead his Michigan State freshmen gridgers, 68 strong, into Ypsilanti Saturday morning for a game with the Michigan Normal frosh. It will be their first game of the season. Six Spartan yearling teams are certain to play at Ypsilanti. Coach Kobs promises to use every man on the squad and has them arranged into six combinations, each one of which will see action no matter how the game goes. A new system is being tried with the frosh gridgers this season and the strongest players are not being teamed together so that new material may be developed.

The frosh grid mentor maintains firmly that he has no first team and ranks his combinations numerically from one to six. Either team No. 1 or No. 2 is likely to start the game, with the string of substitutes rivaling that sent in by Knute Rockne at Notre Dame last week.

There are several players who have been showing more promise than the majority of freshman gridgers. They are the following: Troy, Ferrari, Gates, Jones, McNutt, Lay, Pigorch, Van Hoesen, Hodges, Hultman, Japanga, Ryan, Novakoski, Newberg, Russo and Traut.

List Men to Go

The men who will make the trip, and the manner in which they are teamed, follows:

Team No. 2, with the positions in the order above—Keast, Pigorch, Van Hoesen, Hodges, Lay, Hultman, Young, Japanga, Tolley, Sager and Ryan.

Team No. 3—Hauser, Novakoski, Charles Harris, Madorsky, Jacobs, Sappola, Warren, Newberg, Russo, Traut and Schiller.

Team No. 4—Hortsmann, Pray, Drake, Dekker, Bolter, Bittner, Slavin or Stone, Bishop, Burkholder, Gilliland and Schwartz.

Team No. 5—Hartford, Griffin, Day, Pruss, Wallace, John Elliott, Harold Elliott, Damoth, Kelch, Kekkula and Hupp.
Team No. 6—Newel, Easton, Kluecht, McCannemy, Sternberg, Hurst, Dammen or Wacker, Gould, Bartman, Kibby and Pierce.

BASKETBALL DRILLS START

Nineteen Candidates for '30-'31
Spartan Cage Team; Haga, Grove, Scott Return.

Nineteen candidates for the Michigan State varsity basketball team are practicing four times weekly under the careful direction of Coach Ben F. Van Alstyne. Extensive drills in fundamentals and conditioning work constitute the majority of the early drills. The cagers practice Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 until 9 o'clock, and Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, under the present plan.

Only two regulars from last year's far-famed Spartan court combination are now working out. A third is busy with football and will report at the close of the grid season. Several reserves from last season, a number of sophomores and a few promising new men are taking four workouts a week.

Three basketball captains were elected at the close of last season. Roger Grove, Art Haga and Ed Wayne Scott, Centerville, is a member of the varsity football team and will not report for cage practice for a few weeks. These are the three regulars from last year. Don Grove, diminutive but speedy forward, and Fred Den Herder, center, having been lost by graduation.

Reserves Back

Randy Booskoff is probably the leading candidate for the pivot position, although Harold Haun, who shared with Booskoff in relieving Den Herder last year, is expected to be out for basketball at the close of the football season. Dee Pinneo, "Jab" Barnard and "Chum" Cuthbertson, reserves last season, are in the race for the forward position left vacant by Don Grove. All three are short of stature and speedy.

Wojtylo, who did not go out for the freshman team last year, is figured upon to provide plenty of competition for the regulars this season.

Vondette, McCaslin, Wykes, Freebold and Holcomb are among members of the 1929-30 frosh quintet who are bidding for places on the varsity team this year.

The following men are out for practice now: Haga, Scott, Booskoff, Pinneo, Holcomb, Wojtylo, McCaslin, Barnard, Duffield, McAfee, Kircher, Vondette, Bredin, Wykes, Cuthbertson, Cook, Stein, Kleinhense and Freebold.

ALL-COLLEGE RUN NEXT SATURDAY

Mason's Protoges to Show Worth Tomorrow in Five-Mile Grind.

Coach Morton P. Mason will have a chance Saturday morning to find out just what his untied cross-country team is capable of, when the last man has crossed the tape in the annual All-College run. At 11:30 Saturday, about twenty men will take their marks at the beginning of the five-mile grind, with the prize before each man on the varsity of competing against Butler university next Saturday between the halves of the Case game, providing he finishes among the first six.

Captain Clark Chamberlain will start sixty seconds behind his teammates, according to Mason, who wants to give his star runner a bit of suffer workout than the rest. He expects Chamberlain to close up the gap and finish well in front, despite the minute handicap.

Don Conrad, a sophomore, judging by his showing during the past week, seems a good bet for second honors, but he will be pushed to the utmost by Wally Bryant and Pongrace, two freshmen luminaries who have thrived under Mason's instructions.

Steime and Pullerton, two seniors, will make their bids for inclusion among the first six, along with Galehouse, Elliott, Wysser, and Tryon, all sophomores. Other men competing will be Price, Doud, Frisbie, Wilson, Grandy, Russell, Seton, Zimmermann, Stickler, Rholt, Watson, and Burgess.

Crowley Plans Smead Benefit Grid Game Scheduled for Nov. 8

Further arrangements for the Smead benefit football game, which will take place at the stadium Saturday morning, Nov. 8, are being engineered by Coach Jimmy Crowley. Grand Rapids Junior college will furnish the opposition for the State freshmen in this contest.

Other officers of the committee, the exact personnel of which will be announced later, will include members of the coaching staff and faculty, representatives from the Varsity club, members of the football team, and representatives from Associated Women Students.

YOU may call it toe itch, golf itch—the "doc" may call it ringworm—millions of people who catch it, call it "Athlete's Foot"—but all of them are the same. A ringworm parasite, trichophyton by name, causes that redness between the toes with i-t-c-h-i-n-g. Tiny blisters or a thick, moist skin condition may be another symptom. Again dryness, with little scales, is a signal.

"At least half of all adults suffer from it at some time," says the U. S. Public Health Service. In universities as far apart as Pennsylvania and California 50% of the men have it. And the co-eds are not immune either.

State Plays Colgate Here Tomorrow

SPARTAN ELEVEN FACES SECOND REAL TEST OF SEASON AGAINST STRONG MAROON COMBINATION

Green and White Gridders Have Yet to Beat Eastern Team; Breen and Streb Likely to Be Lost Through Injuries; Nordberg in Condition.

BACKED BY THOUSANDS of loyal Spartan alumni and facing their stiffest test of the year, Coach Jimmy (Sleepy) Crowley's gallant band of Spartan grid warriors Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock will attempt to stem the rush of a powerful Maroon avalanche from Hamilton, N. Y.

Colgate in its four years of competition with State has yet to receive its first gridiron setback. The eastern school to date has been amassing impressive scores, but the game tomorrow afternoon will be the first real test of the season. Coach Crowley's men will be facing one of the outstanding teams of the east this year for the Maroons have shown All-American material in piling up 178 points to none for their opponents. If the Crowleymen can hold the fast stepping Colgate team in check tomorrow afternoon they are in for national recognition after many years of more or less obscure playing.

Last week the Maroon team overwhelmed Lafayette to the tune of 41 to 6 and was greatly impressed by the power of the Maroon avalanche. Coach Andy Kerr has without a doubt the bravest team in the east this year and they are worthy opponents for any team. In Leonard Macdonald Colgate has a 200-pound fullback who can be depended on for yardage when given the ball. Les Hart is their versatile halfback who has been creating a sensation this season with his brilliant ball carrying ability and who is slated for All-American consideration.

Players on Edge

Coach Crowley has been putting his men to the limit this week in order to have them in the pink of condition for tomorrow's game. Strenuous scrimmages against the freshman team have been in order all week and the varsity should be on edge for the invaders at the opening whistle. Several new plays were handed out the first part of the week and Spartan fans are anticipating an impressive offensive in the Colgate game.

Coach Glenn Judger-Carberry has been giving his freshmen strenuous personal workouts this week in order that the highly touted Maroon line will be extended to the utmost if they expect to outplay the Spartan forward wall. Practices this week have been marred

His Return Cheers

by injuries that at a time promised to disrupt the Spartan lineup. Red Grove, stellar Spartan quarterback, suffered a slight paralysis of his arm early in the week, but the arm was restored to its former usefulness by Thursday night. Tom Ridler, game Spartan tackle, received a deep cut wound in the neck Tuesday afternoon which has been slow in mending and may necessitate the star lineman's absence from the game tomorrow. Others to receive injuries this week were Claude Streb, veteran guard, who was hurt in the side, but his injuries were not of a serious nature and he should be an important cog in the Spartan machine. Bob Monahan, the Powerback, injured his back but the injury was of an insignificant nature.

Nordberg in Shape

Jerry Breen, after an extended layoff due to injuries, should be in first class condition unless the old injuries recur. The former Holland flash has been a consistent ground player in every encounter he has engaged in this year and should be an important part in Coach Crowley's grid machine tomorrow. Carl Nordberg, veteran Maroon backfield at right half in scrimmages this week and his back, knee and the strain of the shoulder seem in good shape. If Breen and Nordberg keep their feet from the game, Nordberg will be in perfect condition and the team's backfield will be in excellent shape.

Crowley's starting lineup tomorrow will most likely consist of Cecil Fung and Jack Pace at the ends. Fung gave an outstanding exhibition of back blocking in the Cincinnati game and his defensive ability was given a big boost when the fast traveling Maroon backfield Ralph Brunette and Don Ridler will be at their respective tackles. If Ridler's injury keeps him from the game, Lloyd Egan will probably start. Claude Streb and Milt Green will be at their accustomed guard positions with Buddy Moore at center.

The backfield will find Al Elsworth, Wilbur, Bob Monahan and Jerry Breen possibly Carl Nordberg at the halves. Roger Grove will call signals.

The Colgate team was due to arrive Friday morning about ten o'clock and was to have a workout in the stadium this afternoon as a final warming up exercise before tomorrow's battle.

SPORT
BY HARRIS/COATES

SPARTAN SPORT SHOTS

Welcome Colgate

The Michigan State News, through its pages, wishes to extend a most cordial and sincere welcome to members of the Colgate university football squad, the coaching staff and followers. We appreciate the "good story" about our gridiron and fans in Hamilton, N. Y. and full and the welcome given them has not been forgotten. The Maroon contingent is urged to feel at home on our campus after the long tiring trip west and to feel free to ask any favors desired. We are glad to have you as our guests, Colgate, and trust that favorable athletic relations between the two institutions may continue.

Respected Strength

Coach Andy Kerr's Maroon eleven is probably the most feared opponent to appear here this season. Utmost respect for the Colgate attack is felt by every member of the Spartan grid camp, and especially by Coach Jimmy Crowley.

This is aptly illustrated in a statement made by the state grid mentor in which he said "Beat Colgate and we won't lose a game on the schedule." He believes that a triumph over the gigantic Maroon football machine would fill his charges with such confidence that they would roll through the balance of the playing season without a loss.

Coach Crowley fully appreciates the potency of the Colgate attack, as shown by this terse statement which he made at the close of one practice session during the week. "There is no question as to where eastern football strength lies this fall. It resides in Hamilton, N. Y. and I know my boys have a full day's work set out for them tomorrow."

The usual Spartan spirit of determination to win prevails this week and this, combined with some of Crowley's pep plays, which he gave out earlier in the week, but has not failed to flash in competition, are Michigan State's forte against Colgate. The former Notre Dame star who has done such a creditable job in developing our football team, left little doubt as to his intentions the other afternoon when he said, "We haven't given up the idea of beating Colgate, are making full preparations to play the Maroons to standstill and have a few youngsters up our sleeves that we think will help us bring about their downfall."

Even in One Knap

Michigan State and Colgate football teams have one thing in common. Neither aggression has been defeated or scored upon this season, although the Maroons have by far the most impressive record to date.

Speed Signally Honored

Harold Stenard, injured Spartan grid captain who was lost to his team through injuries received in a traffic accident during the summer, benefited by a power of five sportsmanship which dominated inter-collegiate athletics made his return to Michigan State and the University of Michigan teams. The Wolverine's latest fine feature of friendliness to the Spartans can be seen up as a genuine compliment to our injured grid leader.

When Captain Stenard was on the sidelines for the annual game between the Wolverine and a Spartan football team at Ann Arbor two weeks ago, he was presented with one of Michigan's famous blankets. Let it be understood that these trophies are given to only those Wolverine seniors who have completed their period of competition in an honorable and commendable fashion. It was probably the first time that an athlete from a rival institution has ever received such an honor. State alumni, students and faculty will not forget this gesture for a long time.

Spartan Strength Respected

The high respect in which Coach Andy Kerr of Colgate holds Michigan State's gridiron strength is aptly shown in the following statement which he recently issued to the press in Hamilton, N. Y. "We will encounter stiff opposition from Michigan State at East Lansing Saturday than I expect in any other game on our schedule." Having said this, he immediately plunged into an hour of defensive scrimmage football. Notre Dame plays and shifts expected to be used by the Spartans.

SPARTAN MATMEN SHOWING PROMISE

Prospects for Winning Outfit Considered Good; Held Early Workouts.

Prospects for a strong Spartan wrestling team which will cause considerable consternation in Western conference ranks are excellent this year.

Fifteen men are wrestling two or three times a week under Coach P. A. Collins in pre-season work. There are four men who have won major letters drafts last year.

In wrestling, two juniors and two. Two football men R. C. Warner and Werner. Most of the other men are likely heavyweight candidates who won freshman num-back, is a freshman numeral winner in the 165 pound class.

The schedule will not be made out until the Western conference dates are fixed on the first of December.
