SWINGOUT

Senior Swingout tonight at 7:15 in Forest of Arden

SENIORS WILL PRESENT PLAY WED. EVENING

Forest of Arden to Be Scene for Enacting 'Little Women'

TICKETS AT GATE

Cast Includes Veterans of Previous Campus Dramatic Programs

"Little Women" will be presented at the annual senior play in the Forest of Arden under the auspices of Theta Alpha Phi next Wednesday, June 7, at 8:15. The late starting is due to the fact that the play can not begin until dusk. Tickets are limited and will be available at the gate only the night of the production for the price of 25 cents.

The play "Little Women" is a very well known one, having been written by Louisa May Alcott in story form and adapted for stage presentation by Marian DeForest. It is a four-act comedy and was first presented at the Playhouse New York city, in October, 1912. The setting of the play is in Concord, Mass., in December, 1863, and extends over a period of five years.

The play has been adapted to an outdoor garden scene, and appropriate scenery will be furnished for the occasion. Costumes have been ordered from a Chicago firm. They will be old-fashioned and very elaborate, in keeping with the 19th century setting.

All members of the cast for this play are veteran actors, having had some experience in former college productions. Although none of the leads is definitely prominent, the parts are Mrs. March, Jo and Laurie, taken by Miriam Ryan, Mary Price, and Paul Jewell, respectively, all of whom have had parts in at least two former Theta Alpha Phi plays and lead parts in at least one of these. The play is being directed by Prof. E. S. King of the speech department.

Characters in the play are: Mr. March—Miriam Farley; Mrs. March—Miriam Farley; Amy—Glenn O. Stewart; Jo—Mary Price; Beth—Maurine King; Aunt March—Dorothy Tomer; Mr. Laurence—R. A. McComber; Laurie—Paul Jewell; Professor Bhaer—Marvin Kline; John Brooke—Philip Schwartz; Hannah—Elizabeth Baker.

BINGAY TO TALK ON ALUMNI DAY

Free Press Man Replaces Battle Creek Pastor; Grads From Far Away Returning

Malcolm W. Bingay, editorial director and columnist on the editorial page of the Detroit Free Press, has been secured as chief speaker for Alumni Day, June 10, to be announced today by Alumni Secretary Glen O. Stewart.

Journalist Bingay will replace the Rev. Carleton Brooks Miller, lecturer and speaker and minister of the Congregational church of Battle Creek previously engaged whose pastoral duties will keep him from the old grads celebration. Mr. Bingay will address the returning alumni at the Sunset Supper in the Union at 5:45. Alumni President L. T. Clark '04 will preside at this supper, which is one of the most important functions of Alumni Day and which it is expected, will be one of the best attended.

Mr. Bingay spoke on the campus as recently as April 22, when he addressed the men and women assembled here for the annual hotel short course. Through his daily signed column, he has become well known to many in this part of the country. He has earned for himself a creditable reputation as a speaker as well.

An interesting feature of the annual gathering of alumni is the return to the campus of graduates who have lived in distant places since leaving their alma mater. This year, Burr Wheeler, class of 1903, now general manager of the Chile Exploration company, an engineering concern interested principally in copper, has come from Chuquibambilla, Chile to New York on business, and while up north is taking advantage of the opportunity to attend this home coming at Michigan State.

Donald W. Francisco, class of 1916 and a native of Lansing, is now vice-president of the big advertising agency of Lord and Thomas, and lives in Los Angeles. As an advertising man, Mr. Francisco has to his credit the creation of the name of "Smash" for California fruit. In a letter to Alumni Secretary Stewart, Mr. Francisco said that this was the first reunion since his graduation 19 years ago that he has been able to attend. He plans to be in Lansing last evening, June 10, 11, and 12 to visit his friends.

Spike Rumors of No Summer Camp

Latest reports released this afternoon conflict with rumors being circulated about the campus that there will be no summer training camp for advanced R. O. T. C. students this year.

According to Lt. Col. Dorsey R. Rodney, the corps area headquarters in Chicago has already received its summer camp allotment, and there is no reason to believe that summer camps will not be held as usual this year.

The training camps will probably be at Camp Cluster or Fort Sheridan as in previous years, although nothing definite has been decided in this regard.

Chosen to Head National Group

Herman H. Halladay

SEC. HALLADAY HAS NEW HONOR

Convention Names M. S. C. Official to Head National College Group

Herman H. Halladay, college secretary, has been named president of the Association of University and College Business Officers. Officers for the coming year were elected at the twenty-third annual convention of the association, held May 25, 26, and 27 in Lafayette, Indiana. Officials of Purdue university had charge of the meeting.

Mr. Halladay's election to office of president of this organization is indicative of the high place he holds in the estimation of his fellow college officials. The secretary was unable to attend the meeting this year due to illness. In the past he has occupied a prominent place in the association. He has served on numerous committees and last year held the office of vice-president for 1933.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR SENIOR PARTY

Final Event to Serve as Pep Meet for Baseball Game With Notre Dame

Plans have been completed for "senior blinger" to be held in the Union Friday night by the members of the Excalibur committee in charge. Besides being the last open party given by the graduating seniors, the "blinger" will serve as a pep meeting for the baseball game which will journey to South Bend Saturday to play the powerful Notre Dame team.

This outstanding event on the week's social calendar is under the direction of the following members: general chairman, Bob Monnett; tickets, Milton Dickman; patrona and guests, William Vandette; floor, Dick MacDonald; publicity, Clarence MacDonal; and refreshments, Red Drennan. M. S. C. College, a ten-piece orchestra, will furnish the music. Tickets can be purchased for 50c at the Union desk, the Smoke Shop or from any Excalibur member.

TO ISSUE FIRST OF WOLVERINES NEXT SAT'DAY

Limited Number Will Be Available for Distribution Before Monday

ART WORK IS PRAISED

Unique Design in Black and Silver Lends Distinction to 1933 Yearbook

Deliveries of the 1933 Wolverine will begin Saturday, June 3; according to announcement made this week. Copies will not be available for everyone on Saturday, but by the first of next week sufficient volumes will be on hand that each student may obtain his copy. Delivery will be made from the window at the east end of the Union from nine to six o'clock.

This early delivery of the yearbook is regarded as a very creditable accomplishment because of financial difficulties encountered by the staff at the first of the year making a late start unavoidable. Work could not be begun in earnest until after Christmas because a certain quota of books had to be sold before contracts could be let. The extraordinary success of this publication in the limited time which was available to the staff was possible only through the wholehearted cooperation of all the members. Ronald McDonald, yearbook editor, made the following statement: "I wish to express my appreciation to all the members who enabled the 1933 Wolverine to be delivered on time regardless of the unusually late start."

Its Modernistic Design

This year's Wolverine is an unusual production from every point of view. The engravers, printers and binders agree that the layout, modernistic treatment and striking combination of black and silver are unequalled in any similar publication. The cover is black embossed with silver and white lines, lettering on the backboard is in futuristic style. A monogram M. S. C. appears at the base of the cover. The monogram is repeated on borders throughout the book making a very unified whole.

The division pages are especially striking. Authorities have stated:

7-ARTS DRAMAS PROVE POPULAR

Group of Three Plays Are Presented Before Large Crowd Monday

A very large attentive audience jammed the Little Theatre Monday night for the Seven Arts studies evening of plays. All productions were under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Farwell.

Students and townspeople were given an opportunity to witness the first local appearance of Prof. Fred Patton of the music department in a dramatic role as Giovanni in Stephen Phillips' play "Pavane" and Francesca. Patton has had considerable experience in dramatic work, having acted with the Metropolitan opera in New York for several seasons. He was supported in the cast by Mrs. Arthur Farwell, who has also had many years of acting experience, and association with dramatic work. Mrs. Farwell played the part of Lucretia. The role of Paolo was taken by Robert Miller, a pupil of Prof. Patton's and also a seasoned actor. Twyla Stewart played the part of Francesca and Myrtle Munger that of Nita. Minor parts were taken by Jack Jones and William Munger.

M. S. C. Tutelage Boon to Rural School Songsters

Children in Ann Arbor Festival Trained Under State Organization

By DAVID CLEARY

Last week one thousand singers congregated at the Hill auditorium on the University of Michigan campus to hold four thousand letters in an unaffiliated attention for an entire evening with their music. The players were children from 14 one-room schools in Washtenaw county; the songs were such pieces as "Who is Sylvia" by Schubert, "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn, and "Lullaby" by Brahms. Under a banner headline the Ann Arbor Tribune praised the ability of the country youngsters in singing such powerful songs as well as their city brothers and attributed a large part of the success of the singing to the tutelage of the M. S. C. which has made such rural festivals possible.

And this, we suggested, "was the culmination of your season's work."

"Oh no," said Professor Kackley.

ANNOUNCE PLAN OF HORSE SHOW

Thirty Classes Are Listed for Premiums in Event of June 23 and 24

Sponsored by a group of horse enthusiasts from Lansing, Jackson, Saginaw and Flint a horse show will be held at Michigan State college Friday and Saturday, June 23 and 24. It will be staged at the horse show ring. In case of rain, the show will be moved into the armory indoor hall.

Box seats and parking spaces have been greatly reduced from last year's prices. The subscription for the entire show of three performances is $2.00 for a box commencing at $1.00 for each seat including admission for five spectators. A single box seat for the entire show can be purchased at $1.50. There will be 100 boxes and 77 parking places. Bleacher seats will be sold at 50c for a single seat.

The ticket price for the first night will be 50c, 75c and 1.00. The ticket price for the second night will be 75c, 1.00 and 1.50. The ticket price for the third night will be 1.00, 1.50 and 2.00.

There will be 30 classes in the show. Fourteen of these classes will be open to the public and will include a minimum for five spectators. "This was just a part of it." She offered newspaper clippings. A similar festival had been held a few days previous in Jackson and with equal success. To add to the importance of the affairs was the fact that this was the first year both counties have participated in the scheme.

A Recent Development. Comparatively recent the idea of disseminating musical training through rural schools and coordinating them in annual festivals was instituted in 1929 by the National "Daybreak" Recreational association. In 1930 the Michigan college music department and under the competent guidance of Misses Ann Collinge and Mable Miles has been undertaken in fourteen counties. According to Miss Kackley, the two instructors from the college music department and under the competent guidance of Misses Ann Collinge and Mable Miles has been undertaken in fourteen counties.

Miss Kackley opened a scrap-book handed in pictures of some of the festivals. All were alike crowded with participants, some of which numbered close to two thousand. She read letters and clippings. According to the commissioner of education, the annual festival was the most extensive attempted during the fourteen years of his service. Band Presents FINAL CONCERT

Falcone Brothers Are Featured in Performance Wednesday Evening

The largest crowd of the season, between 3,000 and 4,000 spectators, witnessed the final band concert of the term given in the Forest of Arden last night with Leonard Falcone as featured soloist and his brother Nicholas, director of the University of Michigan band, as guest conductor.

This performance closed the concert season for the band, it has been very fortunate this year in having good weather for all of the concerts. Of the six numbers played by the organization, three numbers were directed by Nicholas Falcone: The Symphonic March, Fantasia of Concerto, and Leonard Falcone's encore, the ever popular "O Sole Mio" by DiCapua. The complete program follows:

1. Overture, "Marriage of Figaro" Mozart
2. Suite de Ballet from "Coppelia" Delibes
March of the Bell
Valse of the Hours
Dance of the Automaton
Hungarian Dance
3. Isolde's Lament from "Tristan and Isolde" Wagner
4. Symphonic March Bonelli
5. Fantasia of Concerto for Baritone Boccalini
Andante Moderato—Tempo di Bolero
Encores: "O Sole Mio" DiCapua
Leonard Falcone, Baritone Soloist
Nicholas Falcone, Conducting
2. Two Excerpts from "Pathetic Symphony" Tchaikowsky

ARMY OFFICERS WILL EXAMINE COLLEGE CORPS

Annual Inspection of All Units Scheduled for Tuesday

PARADE AT 8:00 A. M.

Lt. Col. Hall, Lt. Col. Boyd and Major Hawkins Are Visiting Officers

The annual inspection of units of the local R. O. T. C. corps will take place beginning at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Lt. Col. D. R. Rodney and the other officers of the local staff are optimistic concerning the rating that the corps will take place beginning at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The various divisions will be thoroughly inspected in all branches of the corps taken up this year. The officers sent here to examine the divisions are: Lieutenant Colonel Henry W. Hall who will have charge of the cavalry; Lieutenant Colonel Jesse W. Boyd, infantry and Major L. F. Hawkins, coast artillery inspector.

The R. O. T. C. students will be excused from their classes during the inspection. Freshmen and sophomores are to be excused from all their morning classes on that day. Juniors and seniors are also to be excused from their morning classes on that day.

A parade will be given at 8 a. m. This will be a combination review and parade and will be presented in the regular drill field north of the armory. After the review, the corps will be inspected by the visiting officers. The three units will then divide. The infantry will be taken to the stadium, the cavalry will be on the parade grounds and the coast artillery will be on the football practice field.

An hour of drill and command and other outdoor practical work will be given by the visiting officers. At 11 o'clock the freshmen will meet in the armory and an examination on the theoretical instruction will be given by the unit inspector on all subjects covered during the year. In the afternoon the corps will be inspected by the visiting officers. The three units will then divide. Glancing Back In Spartan Annals

Michigan State News, June 1, 1933
 Cap night, one of the oldest traditions on the campus, will be held, rain or shine, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Fresh pots and senior boys will rest in the ashes of the bonfire.

The annual army inspection of the R. O. T. C. will begin Monday morning.

The football, June 1, 1933
 The first annual R. O. T. C. horse show, staged on the cavalry drill field at M. A. C. Memorial day afternoon, drew thousands of people from Lansing and vicinity.

Stomping among the crowds of this institution has increased to quite an extent and is at present one of the biggest problems confronting the school as far as the women students are concerned.

In the water carnival this year one of the main features will be a dance given by some co-eds on a raft.

The football, May 30, 1933
 The Spartans and the Spartans united into one society last night, the former taking the pin and name of the latter, and giving up their roots in the Spartans, had they been occupying for the last few years.

The football, June 2, 1933
 There is a faculty rule that co-eds are not allowed across the Red Cedars with a man.

An editorial pleads with the school to uphold the tradition of no smoking on the campus by including in this no smoking on the athletic fields.

GUNN MAKES TRIP TO NORTH TOWN

Will Assist Raspberry Growers to Form Raspberry Cooperative Ass'n.

Prof. R. V. Gunn, extension worker in the economics department, journeyed to Wolverine on Friday, May 19, to assist raspberry growers of the southern section of Cheboygan county and the northern part of Ogemaw county in organizing a cooperative marketing association for their product.

At the time of the first meeting, contracts were signed by individual growers, articles of incorporation were adopted, and papers for formal incorporation were sent to the secretary of state. Professor Gunn was aided in the assembling of the 15 growers that joined by the agricultural agents of the two counties. Although the total of 15 growers appears rather small, it is considered that approximately 175 acres of raspberries will be affected. The aim of the organization will be to expand the market outlet, increase the quality of the berry and secure better market prices.

A similar work will be undertaken this week-end when Prof. O. Urey of the economics department and Mr. Nash of the extension division of the same group travel to Port Huron to confer with a committee regarding the feasibility of organizing a cooperative farmers market for that district. The plan followed would be along the same lines as that used in a cooperative farmers market established by members of the economics department at Jackson last year.

Alumni Secretary Speaks to the Seniors

"Seniors, you can hardly be blamed for some of the impressions that many of you will have during the next two weeks. There will be farewell banquets on all sides, good wishes from old friends, innumerable chores incident to the closing up of your college career—everything tending to intensify the thought, 'Well, it's all over.'"

"Perhaps this state of mind will go on all summer, perhaps it will last even longer. For some there are new jobs to start on, for others a long vacation—in all there are things which will lead away from the 'Winding Cedar.' But about the last week of next September when Coach Bachman's Spartans begin to make newspaper stories interesting, you'll begin to feel lost. You will find yourself out in the big business world, while many of your friends will be coming back to this fine old campus. You will pause—registration must be starting, the matinee dances are on again, just about now I'd be having that one o'clock, and sleeping—wonder what—and about that time you really begin to think of Michigan State.

"Common sense would say to hang on to, cherish, and make the most of every possible contact with the College because of its profound influence upon your life, but it is more than cold, common sense that binds each of the Spartans to his Alma Mater.

"It is this which makes the M. S. C. Alumni Association important to each of its members. The Record, alumni magazine, carries news of the College and its worthwhile achievements, of its graduates and former students, and through it all, the spirit with which Michigan State men and women graduates and undergraduates do things.

"The Alumni Association offices have no function but to be of use to all Spartans. Step in and get your share of the service."

GLEN O. STEWART, '17,
 Alumni Secretary.

SPARTANS LEAVE FOR CENTRAL COLLEGIATES

MARQUETTE, MICHIGAN NORMAL AND STATE WILL BATTLE FOR COVETED TRACK CHAMPIONSHIP

Full Olympic Rites Will Inaugurate Meet Friday Night in Milwaukee; Some Fifteen Midwestern Schools Will Send Best of Talent for Annual Central Intercollegiate.

By TOM O'DAY

The pick of Michigan State's track talent, 22 strong, will leave here today for a 210 mile trip to the Central Intercollegiate meet in Milwaukee Friday night.

This meet is one of the outstanding outdoor sports of the country and one which the trackmen of this section annually look forward to with pleasure.

The meet will take place in the Marquette university stadium under floodlights on Friday night. Every effort is being made to make this a spectacular affair. The contests will be preceded by a parade of officials and athletes very similar to the parade of nations which always opens the Olympic games. An elaborate opening ceremony has been planned.

Debutants, entrants, have already been filed in the first heat of Wisconsin Western State, Teachers College, Marquette, Notre Dame, Michigan State, University of Chicago, Northwestern, Grinnell, North Dakota, Kansas, Kansas Teachers, and Michigan Normal.

Marquette Holds Title

TICS, S. A. E.'S IN NET FINALS

Defeat Eunomians and Phi Dels to Qualify; Play Title Match Next Week

The inter-fraternity tennis tournament has now rolled along to its final stages. The Tics with plenty of confidence now find themselves pitted against the S. A. E.'s in the final round. This will be played in the near future and is expected to bring out the best tennis of the entire tournament.

The Tics will be fighting with their fingers crossed when they vie with the formidable S. A. E.'s for if they win, it will be the first time that the team has won the title in two consecutive years. However, the Tics with their unbeatable combination of Barum and Walker are apt to accomplish the feat if for no other reason than the fact that they have had more experience in the game.

On the other hand, the S. A. E.'s appear to be in a fighting mood and it will be no surprise to many if they score a victory over their colorful rivals. The S. A. E. pair which has been going through their paces of late with unflinching regularity is determined to win this match at all costs. Quella and Manning are the determined stars who are defending the colors of the S. A. E. in the title match.

The S. A. E.'s and the Tics fought their way to the final with courage and tenacity. The Tics found their barrier, the fighting Eunomians, the highest barrier to hurdle. Playing better tennis when in hot water, the Tics forced the Eunomians to succumb 6-4, 6-4 after a hard battle. The S. A. E.'s in the other bracket had an easy time with the Phi Dels. The Phi Dels went out of the tournament picture to the tune of straight sets 6-2, 6-3. The title match between the Tics and S. A. E.'s which is expected to attract a large crowd will be played this coming week.

Golfing Tips

By RUSS TURKILL

Editor's Note: This is the first of two articles which will appear in the Michigan State News for college golf fans. The articles are being prepared with the help of Russ Turkill, State's golf team captain, who gives the No. 1 position in the State with the preliminary, stance, grip, swing and using for the most club. We next week for an article on putting, bunker play and putting.

Fencing Book Being Written

Students Writing Book Under Supervision of Coach Bauer.

The fencing book which the Michigan State Fencing Club is writing under the supervision of Mr. Bauer, will be used by State graduates who wish to teach the Spartan style of fencing when they graduate. The club's styles of fencing are shown and explained in the book and the various styles of fencing are given.

A lot of students have taken place in the club and have been in the correct definition of different movements, especially the thrust and lunge. A great deal of discussion and disagreement took place when counter attacks were mentioned but that has been worked out by the club. The State system of fencing is being taught by Coach Bauer and the club's styles of fencing are shown and explained in the book and the various styles of fencing are given.

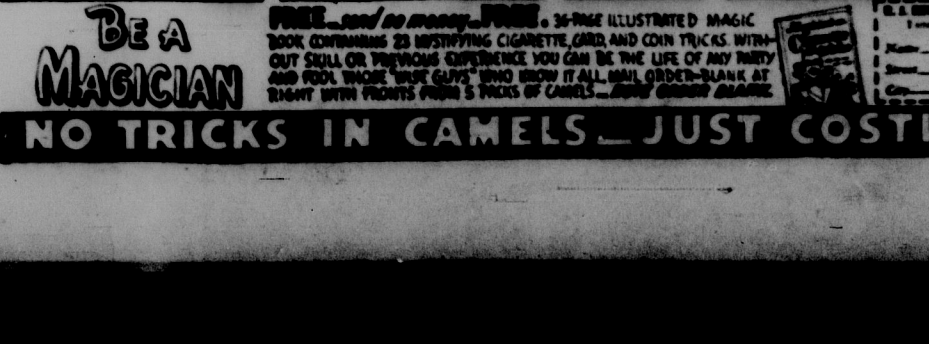

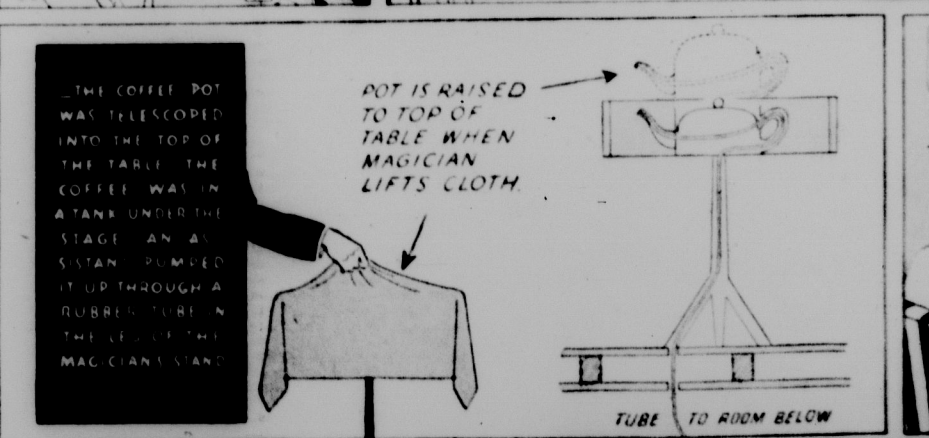

The book will have illustrations showing the different men using their weapons in both the State and the Italian and French positions. Kate M. Kitchner, Harry Lutz, Ben Lutz, Jack Murray, Ken Stoney, and Capt. John Stoney are the authors of the book which is being written by Coach Bauer and the club's styles of fencing are shown and explained in the book and the various styles of fencing are given.

It is hoped that this book will remove some of the confusion now existing around this section as to the correct positions and tactics of the various forms. The State system of fencing is being taught by Coach Bauer and the club's styles of fencing are shown and explained in the book and the various styles of fencing are given.

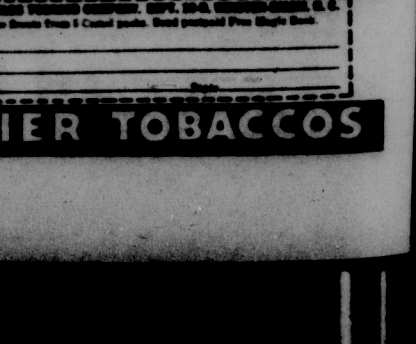

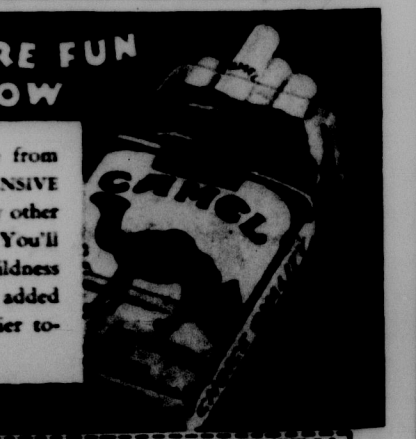

Two final events of the year will be that of Coach Bauer's team playing on June 6, and that of Coach Bauer's team playing on June 6. Both will be held in the Little Theater at 8:00 p. m. and will be the last of the year.
