Marquette Quintet Plays Spartans Here Tonight

Spartans Break Even on Eastern Invasion With One Win and One Loss

State Opens With 37 to 30 Victory Over Buffalo Bulldogs, but Drops Hard Game to Syracuse Orangemen on Following Night, Marquette Regarded as Powerful Opponent

RETURNING to their own stronghold after the annual Eastern journey, Coach Ben VanAlstyne's Michigan State Spartans face another tough assignment tonight when the Marquette cagers come to East Lansing for an early battle.

Whether the State five maintains its enviable record in the mid-west this year or not will be at stake tonight in a game to make the game a hot one. Both teams have fought their way to the top of the Eastern and each are anxious to cop the "rubber" game.

Marquette comes here with a great record behind them, having lost a game with the State last week, but is expected to put up a stiff fight. The Marquette five, coached by Coach Chandler, is a heavy team averaging about 15 points a game.

They have already taken the University of Chicago, Northwestern and Nebraska. Marquette will probably start its lineup with the following: Moller, center; Moller and Moller, guards; Moller and Moller, forwards; Moller and Moller, guards; Moller and Moller, forwards.

Byusse Leads CAGERS WITH 47 POINTS

Maurence Byusse, lanky center, is still leading the Spartan cagers in individual scoring with a total of 47 points to his credit.

Bob Herrick, flashy guard, is behind Byusse with 35 points, followed by Van Alstyne and Vanderhoof, respectively.

Byusse picked up 12 points against the University of Buffalo five, and in the Syracuse game he counted twice from the floor and once from the foul stripe. Herrick earned the advantage on him in the Orange fray with ten points.

PLAN BILLIARD MATCH IN UNION

Meet Will be Intercollegiate, May Hold Bridge Tourney.

Activities of the Union during winter term include a billiard tournament and possibly a bridge tournament.

The billiard tournament will be held the latter part of March, the date to be set later. It will be a tournament of Union and open to all member Unions which include the Michigan State College Union.

Members are the majority of the big Ten universities, University of Kansas, Iowa State, Cornell, Dartmouth, Princeton, University of Wisconsin, University of Pennsylvania, University of Rochester, and University of Oklahoma.

Nothing definite has been decided about the bridge tournament. It may be intercollegiate, inter-union, or a tournament open to all M. S. C. students, depending upon the kind preferred by the majority of students. Either action or contract bridge could be played, depending upon the players. Anyone who wishes to express their choice should see H. H. Rogers, manager of the Union, William Macanley, or Lyle Robinson, Union Board members.

Jim Brakeman Isn't So Lucky

Jim Brakeman, a lanky junior from Highland Park, admits that he certainly picks tough competition when he turns out for athletic team at Michigan State college.

Jim weighs 225 pounds. He was a sensation in high school. The home boys really looked for him to go places when he started turning out for college games. They thought his name would be in the headlines. He hasn't been. And Jim can explain why.

In the first place, when considering a football career, Jim decided to play left tackle. Unfortunately for Jim, so did Arthur Ross. Ross, let it be known, was rated by several critics as an All-American tackle at Michigan State for two years.

Once last fall a newspaper article related the fact that Ross had played all but eight minutes of the total time for the season. Jim wrote a letter to the editor about that. "Why didn't you," he inquired, "tell who played those eight minutes?"

Jim had played those eight minutes and he thought he should be given credit for that much at least. Of course, he was good natured about it. Now Jim has reported for wrestling. And who does he find facing him? None other than Gordon Buck. Heavily the fellow who has won college and Michigan A. A. V. championships galore at State for two years.

"Yeh, you simply got to give me credit for picking tough competition," he opined as he crawled out on the mat for another tussle. "It's all-Americans or no count for me."

STATE MATMEN MEET U. OF M. THIS SATURDAY

Eight Bouts Scheduled for Meet in Main Gymnasium at 4:00 P. M.

MICHIGAN HAS EDGE

Capt. Austin and Reavely Only State Lettermen on Squad.

Saturday Jan. 20 the Spartan wrestling team opens its current season in a meet with Michigan at 4 p. m. in the main gymnasium. A lively group of bouts are expected. Michigan having a slight edge in veteran strength with four compared with State's two.

In the 118 pound class Lowell Jensen, a U. of M. wrestler, will meet Jim Brakeman, a Michigan letterman. Jensen, who is also a boxer, suffered a wrenched elbow in the recent Golden Gloves fight. In the 126 pound class Floyd Austin, captain of the State squad, will meet Joe Oakley, No. 2 of Michigan's team. Oakley is the man who went for the first round of overring against Captain Ball of State last year and this bout may prove to be the highlight of the card.

Harold Gates, State, will meet Clarence Freeman in the 145 pound class. While Walter Jacobs of State meets Jack Jensen in the 160 pound class. Either C. D. Lander or Charles Hodder will tackle Louis Parker in the 185 pound class.

Erny Cantel, State, will meet Capt. Al Miller in the 150 pound class. One of the most spectacular bouts of the season is expected to be in the 175 pound class. There, Fred Kopp, a Michigan letterman, will meet Milton Pinto of Michigan in the 175 pound class. Last week against Northwestern Pinto was placed in the heavyweight class in place of John Smith, but it is almost certain that Michigan will present its strongest lineup against State.

Back Reavely, heavyweight, and State's only letterman, will tangle with John Reiden, Michigan's senior heavyweight. Jensen, the best wrestler in the state, will be in the 126 pound class. The match will be played at 4 p. m. on Saturday, Jan. 20, and the time-fraternity award basketball trophy will be awarded the winner.

The first round game between the Spartans and the Wolverines in the 126 pound class will be played at 4 p. m. on Saturday, Jan. 20, and the time-fraternity award basketball trophy will be awarded the winner.

Willie Hoppe Gives Exhibition Here Tonight

Willie Hoppe, world's 181 ball line and cushion carrom champion, will appear at the Ransom bowling alley tonight, Jan. 18, in an exhibition match.

Hoppe, who is known as the "Wizard of the Pins," will play a match of 100 balls in one of seven players who are touring the country in the "Wizard of the Pins" exhibition.

The exhibition is free while the charge made for general seats may be played out in full.

Baseball Managers All freshmen who are interested in becoming candidates for positions on the Michigan baseball managers are requested to report to Coach Dandridge, varsity manager, in the main gymnasium, after 4 o'clock.

Each of these positions is still open, according to Dandridge. The men who work this year have an opportunity of becoming in line for the varsity manager position in their junior year. Following the rules of eligibility laid down by the athletic department and described in the Freshman Handbook issued by that department.
