

Curtain rises tonight on
"Hedda Gabler" at 7:15.
Little Theatre. Admission 50c. Next issue of State News April 3.

Michigan State News

EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1934

Number 25

Volume 26

PALMER NAMED EDITOR IN RECORD VOTE

NOTED BRITON ARGUES ON U. S. PRICE BALANCE

Balance Price Level With Production Costs, Says Lees-Smith.

URGES BANK CHANGES

Approves of A. A. A., C. W.
A.; Attacks Soundness of N. R. A. Code.

By DAVE CLEARY

Price levels must be balanced with production costs to prevent disastrous boom-and-slump, and banking, with uniform credit, is the institution which must maintain these levels, the Right Honorable H. B. Lees-Smith told his audience last night at Peoples church.

Speaking on the "Problems of 1934," Mr. Lees-Smith considered his lecture to one subject the depression, "for if we overcome that one, we can overcome all others," he said.

"The English view," he declared "that in the ordinary working of economic forces, a great trade crisis occurs every 10 or 15 years. Instead, throughout the world is moving in trade cycles. The trade depression of 1929 is of the historic type and is accentuated by the agricultural slump coming on top of the trade slump. The English believe that in the first dealing with the monetary slump, in that situation we strongly approve of the A.
A. A."

Explains Trade Principles
The speaker explained the trade balance as a theory that the output of one industry must balance the input of the others, with supply and demand equal to the year's production.

"What is the reason for a slump?" he asked. "It is because a blow to one phase of production reverberates to other phases, and when one phase falls, others fall with it, increasing the level of prices, because the cost of production, the output of an industry will decline when the price is above the level of production cost, the output is increased. The price level is determined by banking."

Banking declines, he explained, because it is the agent which determines the amount of credit available to industry. If credit is cheap, output increases; when credit is high, output declines because of loss of credit.

Urges Banking Reform
Coming to the heart of the subject, Lees-Smith declared that the best policy for banks to follow is to set a level of prices which just covers the cost of production.

JOHNSON WINS AS W. A. A. PRESIDENT

Co-ed Athletes Also Choose Committee Heads.

With a total of 55 votes cast, and members of W. A. A. and co-ed athletes of the group and heads of its various committees for the coming year.

In a three-way race for the two titles of president and vice-president, the co-ed athletic organization, Elizabeth Johnson was named for the former office with 30 ballots for her favor. Marian Tobey with 22 votes will be vice-president. Following closely as the third candidate, Helen Sutton was eliminated.
The total count was 12 votes.

For the office of treasurer Marian Sutton defeated Ruby Burrier, 46 to 30. Bonnie Cronshaw won the race for secretary over Harriet Kurtz, 33 to 22.

Results of the balloting for chairmen show the following committee heads for the coming year: Conservation, Fredrick Morse; social and athletics, Hazel Weaver; cabining and canoeing, Isabel Byrbe; rock-ing and tennis, Lorraine Rauls; basketball and golf, Janet Elliot; swimming and hiking, Lucille Huston; archery and rifle, Gibbet; track and bowling, Lorraine; fencing and volleyball, Virginia; soccer, Betty Shipman.

Women Eat Less

A survey at the University of Michigan shows the women to be eaters than the men. The average cost of meals at fraternities is 15 cents per head, while the women get by with an average of 10 cents.

Mystery of Name Plates Uncovered by Reporter

By WILLIAM KIRKPATRICK

Naturally when you wonder how enough about something, the first question comes, "Where are all your wondering names, mostly because you had out what you wanted to know about the thing you were wondering about. We wonder right now if you know what the above means. Anyhow, what we were wondering about for almost two years were the name plates, and all along the halls in the Hart building, and all of this worry came to a sudden end yesterday when we dropped in on Prof. F. C.
Elliott and his pipe and learned all about such men and names as Therese, Lyon, Du Hamel, du Mouveau, etc.

The three main hallways in the Hart building are studded on either side with bronze nameplates, each bearing the name of a man who has achieved fame in the horticultural field either through his work along practical lines or because his writings have popularized this science.
The plaques have been there since the building was built in 1925.

When the idea for this commemorative work originated, letters were sent to prominent horticulturists throughout the country asking for their suggestions. A list of the honored men should be. Aided by

ALBERT H. NELSON

AG BOARD HAS MARCH SESSION

Business Includes Appointment of Officials and Action On Recommendations.

Highlights of the Board of Agriculture's March meeting include the addition of a game in December at with Texas A. and M. at San Antonio to State's gridiron schedule for next fall, appointment of A. H.
Nelson as head of the department of publications and journalism, approval of a recommendation from the faculty that out-of-state tuition be reduced from fifteen dollars to ten dollars per term and the authorization of Secretary H. H. Halladay to make a complete survey of Michigan State college properties including buildings, outlying stations and farm.

Further action included the approval of several leaves of absence by the board. Among these were requests from W. C. Dutton, research associate in Horticulture, effective April 1, 1934. He will take up research work with the Dow Chemical company for the next seven months. Elizabeth Whittaker, associate professor of Home Economics, was also granted a leave of absence for the period from April 1 to September 1.

Make Appointments
The following appointments were approved: Howard Abbott as graduate assistant in Botany; Robert Hartman as part-time assistant in Bacteriology; Sylvia Hartt as halftime assistant in Home Economics; L. R. Ferrish as temporary assistant in the department of Horticulture; Herbert Waisort as full-time assistant in the department of Chemical Engineering. A request for the extension of the appointment of Julia Pond until June 30 as Home Economics specialist was granted.

A recommendation of Director Gardner that the Bacteriology department be authorized to manufacture and sell "Bacillol" was approved until the project can be commercialized.

Display Wood Block Cuts in Library Cases

A beautiful display of Japanese wood block prints in all possible of a Japanese scene, exhibited in the show room in the first floor of the library. There are many different subjects for the pictures but they all have the same delicate and exquisite coloring.

The prints were sent for display by an art collector in New York and although they are primarily placed here for artistic purposes, they may be bought at varying prices which may be found on them.

In one of the cases may be found the process of Japanese wood block printing, a reproduction from the book "Chrysomelids on Japanese Prints" by Davidson Fiske. This explains how the prints are made and what makes differences in them. The most wonderful prints are made by rubbing ink on the wood blocks. The artist having drawn the design with the point of a brush in outline on the paper, it is handed over to the engraver who begins his part of the work by pasting the design into dean on a flat block of wood, and the engraver, using a special tool, sally chisel, carved the block. The paper is then carefully scraped and handed to the artist to fill in with color.

ALPHA ZETA ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Election of officers for the coming year was a main item of business at Tuesday's meeting of Alpha Zeta, honorary fraternity of Phi Kappa Theta. The following officers were elected: President, Walter Hertler; treasurer, Harry Lutz; secretary, Richard Foster; scribe, Allen Mick; censor, Edwin James. The retiring officers are: Lyle Simpson, Keith Acker, Cloyce Hankinson and Ira Rowman.

At this same time the membership of Alpha Zeta went on record formally as sponsoring a movement to enlist student support in a campaign to keep off the grass on campus. Other organizations are invited to follow suit in this movement and may express their interests by getting in touch with Alpha Zeta and the Michigan State News.

Chosen As Publications Heads

RICHARD O'DELL
Editor of Wolverine

Financial Reports Show Success Of Parties

Reports from the office of the college controller show that all school parties held this winter term have been the best attended, have received the best student support, and have been the most successful financially of all previous seasons.

Complete figures giving the compiled information on these parties are not yet ready for release, but all available information points to the most successful party season that State has seen in years.

An approximate account shows the annual J-Hop, sponsored by the class of 1935 on Feb. 2 with Ted Worms playing, shows a net loss of about $40. The Senior Ball of Feb.
16 with music by Art Kassel reports a loss of less than $1 in total of accounts to date. Earlier statements on the Engineers' ball of Jan. 19 listed a profit of $25.35 as the final figure.

ALPHA LITS TO CHANGE MAY 18

Will Receive Charter From Alpha Epsilon Pi; Will Occupy Old U. Lit House.

The formal constitution of Alpha Literary Fraternity, a local Jewish social organization, into Alpha Epsilon Pi, national Jewish fraternity, will be held April 8. It was announced today by Morris Gross, president of the Alpha L. group.

The formal election will be held in the Chisler Club with a stag dinner followed by a formal banquet. The organization will be the University of Detroit chapter of Alpha Epsilon Pi, while many members of the national fraternity from all over the country are expected to attend.
The speakers for the banquet will be L. C. Emmons, H. H. Halladay and L. L. Friedman. The guest of honor will be Prof. Robert S. Shaw.
Further announcements as to parameters will be made later.

ANNOUNCE DATES FOR MICHIGAN CHICK SHOW

On the dates of May 15 to 18, the seventh annual Michigan Chick Show will be held at Michigan State college. Classes are to be formed for chicks, turkeys, ducks, geese, and pheasants, of all varieties, with each entry being limited to 25 birds. Entries close before May 12.
The judging is to be carried out by G. S. Vickers, field manager of the Ohio Poultry Improvement association, and J. A. Drayman, field manager of the Michigan Poultry Improvement association. All entries are to be sold at auction.

CHARLES PALMER
Editor of State News

4-ACT DRAMA IS LAST FOR TERM

Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" Will End Successful Season for Theta Alpha Phi.

Theta Alpha Phi tonight culminates one of its most successful seasons when it presents Henrik Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" in the Little Theater at 7:45 p. m. This four-act play, directed by Prof. E. M. King, and having a cast of seven actors, promises to be the high-point of two terms of plays which included "The Makropoulos Secret" and "A Doll's House."

"Hedda Gabler" is a play of the last and character part in the play is played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of devoted nervous organism, and capable of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the social order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to the outer a woman's doom. Her character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play
and character part in the play is
played by Lorraine Rauls. Hedda
is by nature strong and self-centered,
of brilliant personality, of de-
voted nervous organism, and cap-
able of a high degree of development.
Her dominant trait is a desire for
power to mold a human destiny.
Her chief trouble is that in the so-
cial order in which she is placed
she is given no opportunity to exercise this power. She is drawn to
the outer a woman's doom. Her
character is already perverted, and
she needs only the final touch to
each into disaster. Then, however,
she has a new wife to a great, but
weak and uneducated man, whom
she despises. The rest of the play and character part in the

Close Competition For Jobs on Baseball Team; Weather Hampers Kobs

Spartan Mentor Undecided as to Personnel of Southern Trip; Outfield Still Perplexing Problem; Pitching Staff Shaping Up Well With Allman and Berg Showing Promise.

By TOM O'BRIEN

Unless the Spartan diamond candidates are favored with a few balmy days within the next week, Coach John Kobs will be faced with somewhat of a dilemma when it comes time to pick a squad for the annual spring training jaunt into Dixieland which is scheduled to start next Friday.

Out of a sound containing a wealth of promising material only the outfielders have emerged from the cramped quarters of the fieldhouse for out-of-door practice sessions, but their activities have been confined solely to chugging fly balls on the soggy turf of Old College field.

Gridmen to Invade Southwest in December

State's football team will meet Texas A and M as an additional away from home game next year. The date heard of agriculture Wednesday night approved a game scheduled for Dec. 8 at San Antonio. This game will mark the opening of athletic relations with a school in the Southwest conference. Texas A and M is one of the toughest teams now in the Texas-Texas and leaves and yearly furnishes its share of star for the football world. The game will be played in the new Municipal stadium.

State will have plenty of strength behind the bat this season. Captain "Chuck" Morse, who packs plenty of dynamite in his bat, heads the array of receivers. Ed Kiewicki has recovered sufficiently from his appendicitis operation to participate in night workouts and will undoubtedly see a lot of service behind the plate this season. In the event that the outfield problem fails to solve itself, Kiewicki will be shifted into the outfield where he saw some service last year for the Detroit Stars hitting strength may be sorely needed.

The pitching staff is the big question mark in the Spartan line-up. If the galaxy of sophomore flingers measure up to expectations, Coach Kobs will have a well-balanced staff from which to make his pitching selection. Arnold Parker named in the leading curve ball pitcher on the squad. Johnny Berg, six feet two inch Detroit boy, has shown a good fast and slow ball, but his control is still somewhat shaky. Roy Allman, sophomore, bids fair to be at least one capable northrup early on state's tradition for boys on the team. Allman has a puzzling forkball that breaks sharply and as soon as he masters control Kobs expects that the blond-haired Red City boy will be a very effective relief pitcher. Allan Kronbach and George Herkin are two other promising sophomore hurlers. Kronbach has control and a fast ball with plenty of hop on it. Watson Conner is another pitcher who is rapidly developing into a first class measure up to expectations. Fiedler

After taking a perfect inventory of his material, Coach Kobs believes the chief problem centers in the outfield. Graduation has left the Spartan outer garden without a veteran. "Red" Norton who saw considerable service as a fly chaser last season and was counted on to fill one of the gaps has dropped out of school. So Kobs is confronted with the not so relishing task of rebuilding the entire outfield. Several likely looking aspirants have bobbed up who may shape up to give State a formidable outfield. Sam Carp, a reserve outfielder last season, is in the thick of the fight for one of the jobs. "Chuck" Brown, catcher on the freshman nine, has been converted into an outfielder and has shown definite promise at his new position. Harold Welch, whose speed and ability to shut flies reminds Kobs of Don Flanagan, a garden patroler of several years back, is very much in the running. And then there is Nick Vanderhoof and W. C. Clark who are tried for berths in the outfield.

At first base, Bill McMahon, a veteran shifted from second base, and Irving Hartline are waiting a real battle. Hartline has a great throwing arm but McMahon counters fairness by his experience. So it all depends on who yields to the veteran, his plenty of competition most noted. Then there is a fight for the second base job, although his experience gives him the edge. Candidates who are pushing hard for the job are Dave Giam and Vic Turpin.

Rouse Impressive
The shortstop position is a wide open field. Elmer Fiedler, veteran, is receiving stern competition from Fred Ziegler, star swimmer, and Johnny Geimmi. But in case the staff of sophomore hurlers fail to measure up to expectations, Fiedler

HERMIANS ARE TRACK CHAMPS

Winners Roll up 40 Points to Win Championship; 13 Frats Enter But Only 8 Place.

The inter-fraternity track meet, which started Monday, March 12, came to an end last night with the Hermians winning first place with a total of 40 points.

There seems to be a direct relationship between the amount of training one puts in, preparing for these events and the success attained at the finish. Evidently the Hermians realized this, because they had their men working out in the gymnasium for a considerable time prior to the meet getting in condition and adjusting themselves to the various things such as the handling of the baton in the relays, coming off the banks, etc., without falling proper coordination for shot put and many others.

Eight Frats Place
It was a very easy problem to pick those men who had failed to get themselves in condition before the meet. Even though the Hermians went up to bat with some of the others, a great many had the infuriating fortitude to keep going in order that they might be able to at least place to their particular organization.

There were 13 fraternities entered in the meet to begin with, but only eight of these were able to finish in the first four places.
The summary:
40 yard dash—Garlock (Phi Delta Theta) first; Henkel (Hermians) second; Johnson (Hermians) third; Moore (Sigma Nu) fourth. Time—5 seconds.
220 yard dash—Won by Headman (Hermians); Garlock (Phi Delta Theta) second; Bryant (Epsilon) third; Moore (Sigma Nu) and Williams (Phi Delta Theta) tied for fourth. Time—26 seconds.
Pole vault—Lahnwever (Epsilon); Federly (Sigma Nu) and Buzoleta (AcTheon) tied for first; Spolestra (Epsilon) and McLean (Sigma Alpha Epsilon) tied for fourth. Height—9 feet 6 inches.
440 yard relay—Won by Headman (Hermians); Garlock (Phi Delta Theta) second; Henkel (Hermians) third; Terry (Sigma Nu) fourth. Time—55 seconds.
40 yard high hurdles—Won by Garlock (Phi Delta Theta); Henkel (Hermians) second; Terry (Sigma Nu) third; Allen (Delphic) fourth. Time—55 seconds.
Shot put—Won by Henkel (Hermians); Kramer (Epsilon) second; Leonard (Phi Delta Theta) third; Byrnes (Sigma Alpha Epsilon) fourth. Distance—36 feet 6 inches.
Javelin—Won by Henkel (Hermians); Federly (Sigma Nu) second; Buzoleta (AcTheon) third; Meaders (Sigma Nu) fourth. Height—5 feet 5 inches.
440 yard relay—Won by Headman (Hermians); Federly (Sigma Nu) second; Henkel (Hermians) third; Moore (Sigma Nu) fourth. Time—54 seconds.
1 mile run—Won by Hurchett (Sigma Nu); Williams (Phi Delta Theta) second; Martin (Sigma Alpha Epsilon) third; Bryant (Epsilon) fourth. Time—3:1.
Half mile run—Won by Headman (Hermians); Bryant (Epsilon) second; Hurchett (Sigma Nu) third; Henkel (Hermians) fourth. Time—2:16.
440 yard relay—Won by Hermians; Sigma Nu second; PhiPylean third; Epsilon fourth. Time—52.5 seconds.

Co-ed Honor Team Defeats Faculty Cagers 40 to 22

W. A. A. Group Stages Last Half Rally to Take Lopsided Game.

By ANGELICA ROSELEY

The W. A. A. honor basketball team handed out a smashing defeat to the picked team of alumni and faculty by the lopsided score of 40 to 22. Neither team had had any previous practice so it was a matter of who got together first. The Alumni started fast and held an apparent advantage until the half when the Honor team overtook them and went on to take the game.

The game saw-sawed during the first half with the score knotted at 13 all as the period closed. In the last quarter the Honor team found a combination which clicked and pushed the score on to 40 and 22. Helen Abbott, Dorothy Damm and Lorraine Hauk turned in fine games for the Honor team while Dorothy Parker stood out for the Alumni.

The alumni and faculty team was composed of Dorothy Parker, Francis Lamb, Dorothy Kerth, Alma Weinger, Helen LaMonte, Donna Weiback, Eugene Barnagel and Genevieve Fox. The honor team was made up of the following: Forework, Margaret Dodge, Lorraine Hauk, Dorothy Damm, Marie Paul, Helen Sutton, guards, Helen Abbott, Bonita Crosshaw, Ruth Chamblain, Marjorie McLean and Mary Huston.

NATIONAL SPORT SUMMARY

By TOM O'BRIEN

NEW YORK—The showing of three of his hopefuls in the United States indoor championships held here this week has buoyed Uncle Sam's hopes of recapturing the Davis cup this summer. Thursday saw at least three tennis artists who are considered potential Davis cup material starting in the semifinals of the indoor tournament. They are Frank Shields top-ranking in the nation; Lester Stiefen ranked at No. 3, and Sidney H. Wood Jr. The other survivor is Gregory S. Mangan, defending champion and veteran campaigner. Stiefen, the towering Los Angeles boy is aiming for a berth on this year's cup team, battered down George M. Lott in straight sets 6-1 6-4 6-4.

HANOVER, N. H.—Robert Henry Mitchell, student and athlete, and one of the outstanding figures on the Dartmouth campus, died Wednesday of pneumonia and complications. Mitchell started on the Dartmouth eleven last year and was captain of the varsity track team. Besides his versatile athletic ability, Mitchell was one of the four recently chosen Rhodes scholars from New England and was one of six Senior Fellows, chosen yearly for exceptional scholastic and athletic attainments. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholar, fraternity and as a freshman won the William S. Churchill prize as the outstanding member of his class.

LAKELAND—Marvin Owen, the big question mark in the Detroit Tigers lineup, arrived in camp Wednesday but his appearance failed to allay Mickey Cichra's fears that the former Newark star may not be physically able to hold down third base for the Tigers this season. Owen has been under the care of a physician all winter after suffering from complicated ailments all last season. Owen was unable to participate in infield practice last season because of trouble with his respiratory system.

Plans for the prize fight everyone is clamoring for—a battle between Primo Carnera and Max Baer—are nearer consummation than they have ever been. Barriers that have blocked the fight ever since Baer knocked out Max Schmeling and Carnera dropped Jack Sharkey have been leveled, it is believed.

NEW HAVEN—Yale's crack relay team set a mark of 8 minutes and 38 4-5 seconds yesterday for the 800-yard relay in a 50-yard pool and claimed it as a world's record. The record-breaking team composed of Hoyt, Carron, Wilson, and Livingston swam against a freshman array in a race sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union.

Spring Suits and Topcoats

Showing the new Bi Swing Back in Sport Suits

$29.50 up

ST. PATRICK TIES

$1.00

HURD'S

LANSING AND EAST LANSING

YOU GET THE BEST

THINCLADS GO TO TECH MEET

Chicago Scene of Armour Tech Relays; State Will Enter Two Relay Teams.

The Spartan indoor track squad will attempt to add to their list of victories when they travel to the University of Chicago field house for the Armour Tech Relays on Saturday March 17. Sixteen men have been named to Coach Ralph Young to make the trip. They are Warren, Jackson, Steele, Collins, McNutt, Pongrace, Warren, Hurd, Otley, Bechtold, Hammer, Dennis, Edgerton, Cobb, Hoff and Wilson.

Michigan State will be the defending champions in the two mile relay. In 1933 the State relay team composed of Keast, Hovey, Warren and Pongrace won this event and set the record at 7:52.2. This year Bechtold and Hurd will take the places of Keast and Hovey, the other two positions remaining the same as before. In 1933 State placed second in the one mile relay and Hurd, of the team, placed first in the one mile run. This year Otley will run the one mile event.

Inasmuch as the team is making the trip, Coach Young will enter two relay teams in the two open events of the Central A. A. U. meet held on March 16. The teams to run are the one mile relay team composed of Cobb, Dennis, Warren, Hoff, and Edgerton, and the two mile relay team composed of Wilson, Hurd, Otley, Hammer and Pongrace.

The entries for State are as follows:

70 yard high hurdles—Warren, Jackson, Steele, Collins.
75 yard low hurdles—Warren, Jackson, Steele, Collins.
High jump—Jackson.
Shot put—McNutt.
One mile run—Otley, Hammer.
Two mile relay—Pongrace, Warren, Hurd, Bechtold.
880 yard relay—Warren, Collins, McNutt, Jackson.
440 yard run—Dennis, Edgerton, Cobb.
800 yard run—Hurd, Bechtold, Otley, Hammer.
One mile relay—Pongrace, Warren, Cobb, Hoff, Dennis.

NEW YORK—Equipment will attempt to shatter Sam Beus's world's money winning record this spring. If nothing unforeseen happens, he will return to the track April 21 in the $7500 Philadelphia handicap at Haver de Grace.

Baker Brothers Cleaners

Ladies' Plain Dresses and Coats Cleaned and Pressed 50c Men's Suits and Overcoats Cleaned and Pressed 50c

Or Any Two Garments 75c

"Cash and Carry—All Garments Insured"

Baker Brothers Cleaners

"WE ORIGINATE. OTHERS FOLLOW"

East Lansing, Mich. Across from State Theater

WE'LL COLLECT YOUR BAGGAGE

—take it home...and bring it back again

Here is a simple time saving suggestion that will eliminate a lot of unnecessary trouble and worry for you. Send all your baggage, trunks and personal belongings home by Railway Express.

Wherever you may live, if it is within regular vehicle limits, Railway Express will call for your trunks and bags and speed them away on fast passenger trains through to destination. You'll be surprised how easy it is and how quickly your trunks will be home. Thousands of fellows—boys and girls, too—have found Railway Express service an economy not to be sneezed at.

Then, after the holidays, send your baggage back the same way and Railway Express will handle it swiftly, safely and promptly direct to your fraternity house or other residence.

Railway Express has served your Alma Mater for many years. It provides fast, dependable service everywhere. For rates and all necessary labels, merely telephone the local Railway Express office.

SERVING THE NATION FOR 94 YEARS

RAILWAY EXPRESS

AGENCY, Inc.

NATION-WIDE SERVICE

WARD B WINNERS OF WARD LEAGUE

Down Ward C to Win Cage Championship; C and E Tied.

Ward B captured first place in the inter-ward basketball tournament Wednesday night by defeating Ward C 24-9. This was their fifth straight victory out of five starts, thus making a perfect season for themselves.

Wards C and E have one more game to play yet to determine the winners of second place, because each of them has three wins and one loss to their credit.
The outcome for last Wednesday night resulted in no game between Wards D and F while Ward E defeated Ward A 21-10 and Ward B defeated C 24-9.

STATE TO MEET CULVER

State's polo team will play Culver here next Friday evening and the following Saturday afternoon. Dave Meininger 34 will play No. 1 position. Jake Scherer 34 will be at No. 2, and Ralph Dickie 34 at No. 3.

SECOND DRAFT HORSE SALE ATTRACTS CROWD

The second draft horse consignment sale to be held at Michigan State this year took place at the judging pavilion in an hall Wednesday March 14. Forty-eight animals were disposed of during the course of the auction, all of which belonged to members of the Michigan Horse Breeders' association.
A capacity audience witnessed a fine group of horses fall under the hammer of Andy Adams, acting auctioneer, and excellent prices were realized on the animals.

SHOW HORSESHOEING

John MacAllen and Harry Moxley of the animal husbandry department will be in Shawansee county March 28 and 29 where they will hold horse shoeing demonstrations at different farms.

Your satisfaction is our success
Campus Barber Shop
by Spotlight

STATE

THEATRE
"THE HOUSE OF PRE-VIEWS"
TODAY AND SATURDAY

A GREAT ACTRESS SOARS TO STARDOM!

THE SCREEN ELECTRIFIED by the brilliant, breathless, blazing performance of a great actress in her first sensational starring role! You'll love her even more than before in Warner Bros.' dramatic thunderbolt—

ALINE MACMAHON
"HEAT LIGHTNING" WITH ANN DVOORAK
PRESTON FOSTER

SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY

3 Big Days

Our Own M. S. C. Student Returns In His Latest Musical Hit!

"One of the Best Musical Films to Come Out of Hollywood!"

N. Y. Evening Journal

The whole country is joining in the chorus of praise of a great musical romance! Packed with youth, gaiety, laughs, great Jerome Kern-Otto Harbach songs—it is the season's finest entertainment!

Ramon NOVARRO
Jeanette MACDONALD
in
The CAT and the FIDDLE

From the great musical romance by Jerome Kern and Otto Harbach Music by JEROME KERN Lyrics by OTTO HARBACH
A William S. Howard Production
A M-G-M-GOLDEN EYE PICTURE

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

SENSATION OF SENSATIONS!

TO HAVE YOUR HAIRDRESSING done in the most perfect manner possible for you!

Then, after the holidays, send your baggage back the same way and Railway Express will handle it swiftly, safely and promptly direct to your fraternity house or other residence.

Railway Express has served your Alma Mater for many years. It provides fast, dependable service everywhere. For rates and all necessary labels, merely telephone the local Railway Express office.

SERVING THE NATION FOR 94 YEARS

RAILWAY EXPRESS

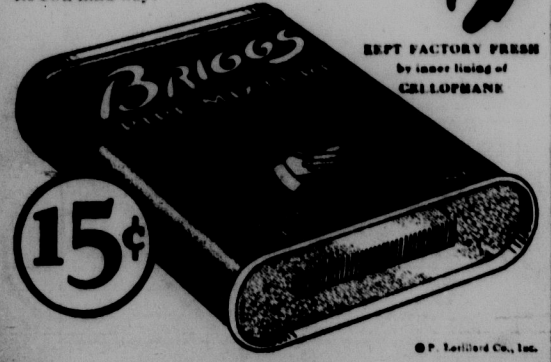

AGENCY, Inc.

NATION-WIDE SERVICE

"WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND"

When you can't draw a pair . . . you can draw pleasure from a pipeful of BRIGGS. Aged in wood for years . . . BRIGGS is mellow, fragrant, bite-free. You can pay twice as much for tobacco . . . not half so good. Won't you let BRIGGS win you in its own mild way?

REPT FACTORY FRESH
By inner lining of CELLULOSE

© P. Lorillard Co., Inc.

Glancing Back In Spartan Annals

ONE YEAR AGO

Student Opera Attracts 2500
First presentation of grand opera by students in the vicinity was concluded with the final lowering of the curtain on the stage of "Orpheus" in Lansing Eastern auditorium, Friday night, March 10.

Calamity Ball
More than 130 couples, at 50 cents a couple, enjoyed themselves Saturday night in the Union ballroom at a "Calamity ball" dedicated "in honor of the late national catastrophe." Coming at a time when major campus parties were canceled because of the banking situation, the Union party, at an economical price, proved popular.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Waldo Heads European Tour
With the rather unique purpose of studying the drama in addition to sight-seeing, the party of 15 will be conducted on a tour of England and the continent this summer by Prof. L. P. Waldo.

TEN YEARS AGO

Union to Have Cafeteria
The kitchen, cafeteria, and dining facilities to be installed in the Union building are the results of tireless study of the most modern and practicable equipments.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Ex-President Taft to Speak Here
Ex-President Taft will address the student body Wednesday, April 2, in the gymnasium. His subject will be "League of Nations." A block of seats will be reserved for the students as well as the state legislature.

Model of Honor

Lieut. Harold A. Purkiss, M. company, 383d Infantry, who became an alumnus of M. A. C. in 1918, has just been awarded the congressional Medal of Honor for heroism in action on Nov. 1, 1918. Only 44 men have been thus decorated with the congressional medal for gallantry in the war.

PROF. TO ADDRESS CLUB

Prof. H. C. Rafter of the college farm crops department will address the Lansing Club Bureau Wednesday, March 14, at the Hotel Old. The address will cover recent developments in farm crops.