

Announce 'Heavy' Schedule For Spartan Athletic Squads

State Teams Face Record Winter Cards

Spartans Will Engage in 17 Events During Next Two Months

There will be no letup along athletic row at Michigan State this year.

According to approved schedules released Wednesday, Spartan winter sports teams will engage in 17 events during the next two months. This includes the five games remaining on the basketball schedule.

It is the most elaborate program in local history. In all, nine teams—representatives of five sports—will take to the Michigan State arena and engage in the regular athletic season.

Trackmen to Work
Basketball games will be the trackmen who are slated to participate in at least six winter meets. There also is a possibility the Spartans could win a championship in the midwestern part of the United States during winter vacation.

The trackmen spent their season in a dual meet with Michigan Normal, held Jan. 22-23. Then, during the Michigan meet at Ann Arbor, February 20 and 21, they will battle with Michigan Normal, Eastern Michigan and Wayne State.

State will play host to some of the best of the midwestern college track meets in March. A dual meet will take place on the 10th and 11th, followed by the Spartans' own meet on the 12th. The Central Intercollegiate meet and other duals will be held on the 13th and 14th.

Football Meets Set

According to Athletic Director Ralph H. Young, football games already have been booked with St. Louis University, and North Texas. State's football team will engage in nine games, starting with the struggle with Wayne State on Wednesday. Scheduled to oppose the Spartans are Wisconsin, Case Western Reserve, Cincinnati and DePaul, all of whom boast football squads strong enough to give the Spartans a close battle.

"M" Manages Coming

The wrestling schedule calls for home meets against Eastern Michigan and Kent State, the latter coming here tomorrow.

Home and away meets are on tap for State's boxing team against Toledo University. The Ohio team comes here in February 20.

Other scheduled contests are for the wrestling and basketball teams, basketball, and track.

Tiger Manager Visits Campus CLASSIFIED To Attend State's Farm Show

Cochrane Enters Angus Steer in Grand National Contest; Cites Need of Another Mountsman.

"If we can manage to obtain a pitcher who can win 14 or 15 games we will be getting pretty good," smiled Mickey Cochrane, who coached State's campus baseball team. Manager K. W. Cochrane, the grand national steer contest held in Demonstration Hall.

Mike's Angus steer which was given to him at North field last summer was entered in the latter contest but failed to place. V. E. Cochrane of the Detroit News owned the winning steer.

The Detroit manager wanted the perfect picture of Spauld, he pointed out that he will be ready to catch 100 games this year. His team turned from the "Lumberman" to the "Tiger" in about two weeks.

When asked about Hank Greenberg's wrist, Mike pointed out that Hank's arm is in good shape, and that it should not bother him this year. "If we can manage to secure up another pitcher we have a good chance for the pennant." Some pretty good fellows showing up at training camp should cause the veterans to step along. Rudy York and Chet Laake pack a punch in their mighty bats and undoubtedly will help the Tiger cause. On about Bob Garlock, head coach of the VanAlstyne players, has an ardent desire to see the Spartans win two kinds of championships. One is the college athletic trophy. And the other, when combined with the college championship, is the national championship. To get about this, Coach Garlock has the Spartans in a position of a young man going to work in a factory.

State Coach Also Suggests to Limit Substitutions and Bar Many Running Out of Bounds

By George Maskin

Coach Charles Bachman again is talking football, or should we say, he still is talking the sport.

State's veteran grid mentor has proposed three suggestions which will come up for consideration at a meeting of football coaches from all sections of the country when they convene in Detroit tomorrow morning.

Bachman will do the suggesting, providing he gets away from the J-Hop in time to make the Detroit meeting.

Chief of Bach's proposals is to force all players to wear numbers on both the front and back of their jerseys.

It makes things easy for the spectators and fans," states the State coach. Several others agree with Bachman on this point.

However, it will be recalled, Temple university players only sport numbers on their backs and the Owls gave State a little trouble on the gridiron both in 1935 and 1936.

Bachman pulled a fast one in 1936 by equipping his boys with black chalk so that they could mark up the white shirts of the Owls. "Wise old Pop" Warner took no chances last season when he dressed his team in red shirts.

At the meeting Bachman also will suggest a rule whereby a player becomes ineligible to make a block or tackle after he has run out of bounds and a rule limiting the number of times a team can substitute during a game.

Games With Wisconsin and Butler Occupy Rostered Spartans

By George Maskin

Refreshed by a week's rest, Michigan State basketball team today embarked on a four-day trip which will send the Spartans into action against Universities of Wisconsin and Butler.

State will oppose the Badgers in Madison tomorrow night, and then, after spending Sunday about a train will do battle with Butler of Indianapolis Monday night.

The Spartans lost to both teams in close margins a year ago. State never has defeated Butler, dropping three straight starts to the Indiana club.

Coach Ben Van Alstyne named a 4-man team to make the trip. They are Len Osterink, Edna Rosten, Howard Kraft, and Harold Scholtz, forwardly, Doran Wilkins.

Brackner reached East Lansing 10 minutes ahead of King and neither passed each other on the road. So close it out, for yourselves.

Claudette Colbert says: "My throat is safest with a light smoke"

"An actress' throat is naturally very important to her. After experimenting, I'm convinced my throat is safest with a light smoke and that's why you'll find Luckies always on hand both in my home and in my dressing room. I like the flavor of other cigarettes also, but frankly, Luckies appeal most to my taste."

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Colbert verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen, and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat!
