THE READER SQUEAKS

Dear Mr. Osrie:

As one of your constant readers and admirers, let me take this opartunity to express my esteem for cur genius. As a columnist your doubtedly belong with Arthurishane and the late Bert Lesson Taylor, It is not inconceivable respect and the fact was mentioned that we ought to be away with all entries at your literary accomplishments and the late for them fore the term finishes.

In reality, the university has had a no corsage rule for at least three years and it is tremendously time in eight years, the Spartan thinclads are without a 13-foot pole vaulter... Don Bos, frosh shot putter, is the brother of Don Bos, who captained the 1929 State track forces... Mike Casteel predicts. 'Bill Greer will conquer them all' in the sprints this year.

State has placed three men on the 1938 All-American track team... Greer, Dick Frey and Harvey Woodstra... Frey, like Greer, will compete during the coming season... Woodstra sure will be missed in the hurdles.

Ben Von Alstyne and his varsity scouted the Michigan-Wisconsin basketball game at Ann Arbor last night... State plays both teams next month February 18 will be the busiest day on the winter athletic program.... Eight Spartan teams

Who's Who?—Twins Cause Sessions On 'Old' Man Big Headache

When Michigan State's thinclads invade South Bend, February 11, to take on the fighting Irish of Notre Dame in a dual meet, John Scales, Sr., of 605 Grove street, will be in sort of a quandry.

Because Scales, a former track ace for the Irish, is the father of the Scale twins, John and Wilson, who are bidding for positions on State's track squad.

John is one of the returning lettermen and specializes in hurdling.

Lacking the sprint speed usually characterized with hurdlers has he drove them throw workouts. He plans to this practice with the land work will make up seeming lack of material spring the timbers. So far his proudest achievement is heing a member of the 480 shuttle velay that set a new varsity record. The other hurdlers were Springer, Robinson, and Woodstra Wilson, or Willie as he is known, another sophor showing the way in the strick, were wone. Is if ying out in track.
