

Osric, Tongue in Cheek, Longs for Old-Time Thanksgiving Dinners

By Earl Brigham (Osric)

Who among us doesn't remember those old-fashioned Thanksgivings with a touch of nostalgia?

You know the ones I mean. When we got up at six o'clock on a frosty morning so as to be up and away bright and early at half past twelve. When in unexpected sub-zero snap cracks the cylinder block, or split the head, or made its freeze up four times between home and Smiley's Corners. When we all piled into the old seven passenger and before we were out 15 minutes, Junior had frozen an' ear. Mary had snatched her best stockings, and mother had just remembered that the gas heater had been on just about long enough to blow up the place.

But the scenery at least was authentic. The corn shocks drooping bravely under the bright November sun! The golden pumpkins with their three-foot crowns of dirty gray-white snow! And the brown-leaved trees standing like so many telegraph poles on a barren knoll! Yes, truly, we don't have weather now like we used to have on those Thanksgiving Days!

Then remember at last we turned up the old familiar lane, with the snow-capped rail fence stretching out on both sides of us? And father tore the devil out of his hands trying to open the old wire gate. And mother wouldn't speak to him because of the language he used.

Then at last the house. About as unpainted a habitation that ever stood in a frozen farmyard. And there was old Aunt Della busting out the car, waving to everyone. And of course we had to kiss Uncle Cyrus, although he tasted of unshaved whiskers and cut-plug.

Yes, the old homestead was a little desolate. But inside loving labor made it a place of old-fashioned cheer and welcome. Cousin Harold had just started to re-paper the house the day before Thanksgiving, and mother tripped over his paste-bucket.

And then dear old Aunt Della came in to tell us that dinner wasn't ready, because while she was waiting for us she let the turkey burn to a cinder, and would we mind eating ham and eggs for dinner.

Junior began to cry, and father said of course not. Although whatever he said under his breath made mother mad again. Then to touch everything off, Mary spilled cranberry sauce all over herself.

Then remember after traveling 150 miles in the cold, we didn't get turkey after all. And we had to put up with Uncle Cyrus chewing tobacco at the table. And finally father said he guessed we'd better start home because we had a long trip back.

Yes, they were really fine, those old-fashioned Thanksgivings. And remember what father said when we got home at last? After car trouble, and Junior freezing the other ear?

"The only things we had to be thankful for was that we didn't stay all night at Aunt Della's on those corncockle mattresses, and that we were finally home and Sunday dinner was only two days off."

Turkey Is Object Of Exodus

Students to Leave Campus Wednesday For Three Days

Turkey dinners, a three-day rest, and perhaps some studying will be goals of most of the college's 6,600 students when they leave campus Wednesday for the annual Thanksgiving vacation. Although dated for a week later on the college calendar, officials conformed to presidential proclamation advancing the date.

All men's and women's dormitories will remain open, it was announced yesterday, but only a handful of students will be living in each one.

UNION STAYS OPEN

The Union building will be kept open during vacation, and several meetings are scheduled for the holidays. The cafeteria will observe Sunday serving hours Thursday noon, being open for only one meal. Regular hours will be followed for the remainder of vacation.

A dance has been scheduled for Saturday night in the Union for the week-end's only social activity on campus. It has been planned for entertainment of students returning for the Spartan-Temple football game Saturday afternoon.

BAND MEMBERS GO

Band members will get their vacation along with other students and will not appear at the Temple game. Cheerleaders, however, will be on hand for the contest. Sam Yenter, head yell man, said ye ferdy.

This marks the third year that Michigan State students have had a three-day holiday for Thanksgiving.

See—TURKEY—page 3

Michigan State News

COMBINED WITH THE EAST LANSING PRESS

Volume 32 Z 329

MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE, EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1939

No. 26

State is Second in IC-4A Run Monday

Three Groups Initiate Pledges

Sigma Epsilon, Tau Beta, APO Hold Ceremonies

Three honorary fraternities at Michigan State college have added new members to their ranks in current pledging and initiation ceremonies.

SIGMA EPSILON

C. C. Carleton of the Motor Wheel corporation, Lansing, will be guest speaker at the initiation banquet of Sigma Epsilon, honorary business administration and economics fraternity, scheduled for 6 p.m. Tuesday at Hunt's Food shop.

Candidates for initiation are Gleeson Baldwin, William Bergin, Keith Bishop, Laverne Burrows, John Curran, Albert Dutch, Richard Greening, George Gustafson, George Harris, Gordon Hage, Eugene Haughtaling, Fred Jang, Charles Kennedy, Lawrence Marion, Bernard Parkes, William Pearce, John Powers, Robert Root, Anton Rundquist, Donald Soper, Harry Sowton and Wendell Street. All are juniors.

Walter Feltre is in charge of the banquet and initiation.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Initiation of 50 pledges to Alpha Phi Omega, Boy Scout service fraternity, will be held December 5, it was announced yesterday.

New members are William Kuder, Leonard White, Harry Beagle, Louis Ingerson, Bill Bell,

Judges were Miss Elizabeth Conrad, dean of women; Dr. W. F. Thompson of the speech department, and V. J. Garrison of the art department.

Among the qualities on which decisions were based were activity, originality, performance of service, character and conduct. An display had to be made $10 in value to qualify.

USE FIGURE OF COACH

The Lambda Chi front yard display will be a large board figure of Coach Asaley Beckman, fastened to the front of the house. In his hand were colored streamers, with which he was holding figures of Michigan State and Illinois football players.

Judges were Miss Elizabeth Conrad, dean of women; Dr. W. F. Thompson of the speech department, and V. J. Garrison of the art department.

Among the qualities on which decisions were based were activity, originality, performance of service, character and conduct. An display had to be made $10 in value to qualify.

Club Starts Grad Party

M.S.C. Dairy club inaugurated its annual alumni breakfast Saturday at 9 a.m.

Arrangements for the breakfast were in charge of Carl Weaver, club president, and speakers were Glen Stewart, G. M. Trout, Carl Weaver, and J. G. Hayes. All are members of the dairy department.

Fifty graduates from the dairy school were back for the breakfast, including A. C. Anderson, first M.S.C. dairy professor, and R. F. Beach, 14, secretary of the Michigan Milk Producers association.

Oratory Contest Dates Scheduled

Women's local oratorical contest will be held December 7 and men's local oratorical contest on December 8, according to announcement from the speech department.

Any student eligible to try out. Registrations may be made at the speech department before December 2.

Winners of the local contest will receive $10 first prize and $5 second prize and also participate in the state oratorical contest at Central State Teachers college the first Friday in March.

VanDusen Heads New Speech Club

D. C. VanDusen, director of speech clinic at Michigan State college, was elected president of the Michigan Speech Correction association at its first meeting on Lansing Saturday.

There are now 125 members, 56 of which attended the meeting. A constitution was adopted and a directory of Michigan persons working in speech was published.

Lambda Chis Card Collectors Win Display Trophy

Alpha Phis Take Sorority Contest For Homecoming

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity won permanent possession of a traveling trophy by winning, for the third successive year, first place in fraternity homecoming decorations competition Saturday. Alpha Phiaternity placed first in the women's group.

THIRD PLACE TIED

Psi Upsilon Chi took second place in the fraternity group, and Sigma Nu and Delta Sigma Phi were tied for third position. Second spot winner among sororities was Alpha Chi Omega, with Alpha Gamma Delta and Chi Omega tied for third.

Judges were Miss Elizabeth Conrad, dean of women; Dr. W. F. Thompson of the speech department, and V. J. Garrison of the art department.

Among the qualities on which decisions were based were activity, originality, performance of service, character and conduct. An display had to be made $10 in value to qualify.

USE FIGURE OF COACH

The Lambda Chi front yard display will be a large board figure of Coach Asaley Beckman, fastened to the front of the house. In his hand were colored streamers, with which he was holding figures of Michigan State and Illinois football players.

Judges were Miss Elizabeth Conrad, dean of women; Dr. W. F. Thompson of the speech department, and V. J. Garrison of the art department.

Among the qualities on which decisions were based were activity, originality, performance of service, character and conduct. An display had to be made $10 in value to qualify.

Club Starts Grad Party

M.S.C. Dairy club inaugurated its annual alumni breakfast Saturday at 9 a.m.

Arrangements for the breakfast were in charge of Carl Weaver, club president, and speakers were Glen Stewart, G. M. Trout, Carl Weaver, and J. G. Hayes. All are members of the dairy department.

Fifty graduates from the dairy school were back for the breakfast, including A. C. Anderson, first M.S.C. dairy professor, and R. F. Beach, 14, secretary of the Michigan Milk Producers association.

Oratory Contest Dates Scheduled

Women's local oratorical contest will be held December 7 and men's local oratorical contest on December 8, according to announcement from the speech department.

Any student eligible to try out. Registrations may be made at the speech department before December 2.

Winners of the local contest will receive $10 first prize and $5 second prize and also participate in the state oratorical contest at Central State Teachers college the first Friday in March.

VanDusen Heads New Speech Club

D. C. VanDusen, director of speech clinic at Michigan State college, was elected president of the Michigan Speech Correction association at its first meeting on Lansing Saturday.

There are now 125 members, 56 of which attended the meeting. A constitution was adopted and a directory of Michigan persons working in speech was published.

Two new student loan funds were inaugurated at M.S.C. this week, one by the State Board of Agriculture and the other by Alpha Phi Omega, national Boy Scout service fraternity.

APC fund was begun with proceeds from the Homecoming dance the organization sponsored Saturday night, totaling $140. It is to be used for needy students, and will be administered by the faculty student loan committee.

The club plans to add to the fund, and other organizations have the same privilege. It will be used especially for underclassmen.

The State Board fund will be made up of fines resulting from student traffic violations. The board made this decision at its regular November meeting yesterday.

SEE—TRACK—page 3

Begin Two New Loan Funds

Two new student loan funds were inaugurated at M.S.C. this week, one by the State Board of Agriculture and the other by Alpha Phi Omega, national Boy Scout service fraternity.

APC fund was begun with proceeds from the Homecoming dance the organization sponsored Saturday night, totaling $140. It is to be used for needy students, and will be administered by the faculty student loan committee.

The club plans to add to the fund, and other organizations have the same privilege. It will be used especially for underclassmen.

The State Board fund will be made up of fines resulting from student traffic violations. The board made this decision at its regular November meeting yesterday.

Pick Riflemen Next Week

Tryouts for the Michigan State college rifle team will be held during the week of November 27, it was announced yesterday by Major W. R. Bent. The present team will comprise between 14 and 20 men.

About 100 persons are expected to attend.

See—TRACK—page 3

Change of Date Creates Observance Problems

By Jerry Dewar

Christmas comes but once a year and so does the Fourth of July but Thanksgiving comes whenever it seems most convenient and you never can tell how many there are going to be, but who cares as long as there is plenty to eat and the car doesn't break down on the way home.

It's a lot of trouble, though, for out-of-state students who are like men without a country. Some of their folks will be killing the fatted turkey on the 28th day of the month.

Iowa State college officials, although proving to be rather rebellious in observing the 30th, struck upon a bright idea that probably would meet with the approval of M.S.C. student body. They have cut Wednesday morning classes to 35 minutes and have done away with afternoon sessions.

Auburn is setting its holidays on the new date while many other colleges are presenting parties and football games for frustrated students. Manhattan university is one of these celebrators.

Indiana, Pennsylvania and Illinois are definitely celebrating the traditional day on the new date while Wisconsin and Minnesota are maintaining the old one.

See—CHANGE—page 3

TODAY on the CAMPUS

Rest for Wicked

Because of closing of the college as Thanksgiving vacation, there will be no Michigan State News published November 23 and November 25. Publication will be resumed with the issue of November 26.

Helpful Soul

Miss Wade, when was the first National Bank chartered? asked R. W. Watts, economics instructor, promptly at 8:10 a.m. Monday.

Clare Wade, the victim, started to leaf frantically through her notes, mumbling during the process that she didn't seem to be able to find it. With a flashy demonstration of helpfulness Watts gathered up his own collection of notes and proffered them to her. "Here try mine," he said.

It was a mistake for Sammy Teller to dash out on the field last Saturday. He was hit in the eye by a ball.

So because of the Smokey Stover stuff, but because of vigorous cheer leading, but because he was wearing red socks—and red is the color Indiana was supposed to have in edge on.

Greetings!

"Hi son, did you come back to see some GOOD cows?"

"How would you feel if you were bellied at you by five varieties of cows?" Well, that was the way dairy alumnae felt when they buzzed gaily up to the dairy building expecting to be greeted with open arms by former classmates, and to find themselves faced with the calves in a pen outside at their door. Soon, however, the visitors discovered it was all done by a public address system hooked up to the dairy building with a speaker under a straw pile.

Under the Wire

LONDON, Nov. 26—Five more ships were sunk today, the latest a British ship sunk off the Irish coast. Officials are undecided as to method of sinking. A magnetic mine developed by the German government has been suggested as a possible solution. Two Nazi planes appeared over the British Isles today, one above London and the other over northern Scotland. Both were driven off.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 26—A German plane crashed today on Dutch soil. Though it was fired on by Dutch planes and anti-aircraft guns, the government declined to comment on the cause of the crash.

LANSING, Nov. 26—United States is more in danger from forces within than from foreign invasion, according to Rep. Martin Dies, chairman of the House committee on un-American activities, who spoke in Prudden auditorium tonight. He is to conduct committee hearings in Chicago Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 26—It was suggested by Mrs. Frank Roosevelt today that former president Herbert Hoover head a special refugee board as he, according to Mrs. Roosevelt, is greatly experienced in this field. Hoover, a spokesman says, makes "no comment."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 26—Government's plan for sending women thrown out of work by the Neutrality act to special training schools has struck a severe snag. Union officials have refused to back the plan. Union war-cry is "Maritime commission says go to concentration camp or starve."

Michigan State News

Bureau of Second-class matter at Post Office, East Lansing, Mich. Office located on ground floor of east wing of Union Building, Room 8. Published weekly. Subscriptions during college year by the state department of Michigan State College, Price $2 per year.

Telephone—College Phone 3-4112. Editorial—Ext. 115. Business—Ext. 210.

Member

Associated Collegiate Press

Distributor of

College-Sole Digest

Graduate Manager

Victor G. E. Spaniolo

EDITORIAL STAFF

Walt Rummel

Managing Editor

Jack Sinclair, Leonard Westrate, Dave Teft

Associate Editors

Robert Applegate

Woman's Editor

Don Anderson

SACR

BUSINESS STAFF

William Collings

Business Manager

Alton Kurtz

Circulation Manager

John Carman, Robert Davis

Assistant Business Managers

John Carman, Robert Davis

COLUMNISTS

East Brighton, Linda Hartshorn, Fred Main, Jerry Dewar, Charlotte Whiteman, Elmer White, Paul Jones, Mary Lee & Nedra

SPORTS STAFF

Mark Bachman, Bob Harton, Jim Johnson, Wayne Johnson, Sheldon Miller, Bill Schram

Pedestrians Share the Blame

Efforts by the East Lansing police department under the leadership of Chief Harold Haan to alleviate the traffic problem have met with approval from townspeople and students.

The traffic survey recently taken by the highway department has shown that 88 per cent of pedestrian crossings are improper in execution. Coupled with this fact is the observation that drivers passing through East Lansing maintain a 40 or even 50-mile clip.

Usually when traffic problems are discussed, too many are likely to blame the drivers for everything, maintaining that nothing the pedestrian can do is wrong. Needless to say this attitude is wholly fallacious.

Pedestrians, like drivers, can be at fault according to circumstances. Students and faculty alike have a bad habit of crossing in the middle of a block or else dashing between cars that have stopped for a red light. Likewise there can be little excuse for motorists who take Grand River avenue for a speedway.

It seems that after a thorough analysis of the traffic situation, the necessity of posting signs on Grand River, both east and west of the campus, to warn drivers of a speed limit is apparent. Have enough signs posted so that no driver could fail to notice the speed limit. Too, additional stop lights at East Lansing are necessary to slow up traffic.

But advising students to cross only at the corners would be a difficult matter. It is doubtful that they would obey advice on this matter. It is too handy to cross between corners. Someone has suggested a fence in the solid part of the boulevard. This seems impractical. What can be done to solve this angle of the problem remains an unanswered question.

Suggestions on a solution for this problem will be appreciated by Chief Haan. It is certain that cooperation of students, faculty and townspeople is needed if Grand River avenue is to be made safer for all concerned.

With the Modern Greeks
By MARY LEE SCHOOLEYALPHA PHI

Among alums back for the weekend were Betty Peabody, Charlotte Mason, Patty Simpson and Ursula Emery.

The missing house numbers have been bought back.

Playoff for the tie for second place in the volleyball tournament will be held November 28.

ALPHA CHI SIGMA

For the first time in history, the house put up decorations for Homecoming. The display featured a destroyer "Ship of State" chasing a "U-Boat Hoosier."

Robert Smith, George Kunkle, Gordon Lewis, Eugene McCleary and Norman Cleal, recently became actives. Recent pledges were Herb Stine, David Brown, Richard Franks, Stanley Allen and Alan Chapman.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Open house for everyone was held after the game Saturday. Kathryn Miller, Althea Tindall and Dorothy Smith were back for the weekend.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

Alumnae were entertained with a luncheon after the game Saturday.

ALPHA OMICRON PI

Pepe and Mrs. E. E. Kinney were dinner guests Sunday.

Volleyball team is tied for second place.

Anrapete Pink was in charge of Homecoming chocolate after the same Saturday. Single Orr is now living in the house.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

New pledges are Helen Long, Jean McCormick and Betty Frank.

A radio party was held at the house Friday night. Patrons were Col. and Mrs. F. D. Griffith, Prof. and Mrs. J. A. McMonagle and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Millard.

Many alums were present at the open house after the Indiana game. Weekend guests were Mary Lee Baumhamer, Margaret Braemer and Sylvia White.

THETA CHI

A fall dinner was held Sunday with Prof. and Mrs. H. J. Wynn as patrons. Several Michigan members were also present.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

Theta Chi alumni visited the house for Homecoming and attended annual meeting for alums and actives Saturday evening.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND
TRADE MARK REGISTERED

Washington, Nov. 21.—There was a lot more to that Roosevelt-McNutt conference than the handsome Indianan naively admitted when he emerged from the White House.

What is secretly in the works is a drastic shake-up of Social Security board, wiping out the present bureaucratic three-man agency and either replacing it with a single director or putting the agency directly under the control of McNutt as Federal Security administrator.

Father is possible under the act passed by Congress last spring that the President the power of extensive government reorganization. The S.S. board has been under fire from two powerful groups for some time. They are:

(1) New Deal insiders and congressional leaders, who are sore at Chairman Arthur Altmeyer for his diehard opposition to liberalizing old-age pension payments. Although vast sums in social security taxes are piling up in the treasury, Altmeyer has grimly fought against amendments to increase monthly checks to oldsters. Thus, of course, has added fuel to the agitation of Townsendites and other "funny money" schemers.

(2) Administration executives who are up in arms over the high-handed bureaucracy which dominates the Social Security board, and concerned over the discovery of millions of unidentified "John Doe" records in the S.S. Bureau.

JOHN DOE CARDS

With pension payments due to start January 1, these unidentified records are loaded with political dynamite, especially for McNutt, who is a red-hot presidential write-hope. And no one knows it better than he.

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Note—In naming battleships for states, the navy takes each state in turn, according to the dates of decommissioning old battleships formerly bearing state names.

The question will be: Resolved, that the Federal government should own and operate the railroads.

Kenneth Hance of Albion will judge the debate.

Latest honor to be received by Miss Taylor's dramatic work at Michigan State, aside from playing Emily in "Our Town," included a part in last winter's play, "Spring Dance," and costume committee head in "The Taming of the Shrew."

Dear Mr. President: I had my heart set on having one of the battleships constructed during my term of duty named New Jersey. Some real part of me would have been built into it. I can't help a feeling of keen disappointment.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as the date allows it.... I am glad you are sentimentally attached."

Behind-the-scenes, McNutt had been vigorously prodding Altmeyer and his crew to clean up the chaotic records. Considerable progress has been made, but millions of cards—exactly how many is a matter of controversy—still are unidentified and will require many months and considerable expense to straighten out.

And he signed himself, "Sentimental Charlie."

To this the president replied with a memo which said: "The noble state of Woodrow Wilson, Charles Edison and Frank Hague will get a battleship just as soon as

Board Cuts Fee Schedule, Advances Field House Opening

500 Attend Panhell Party

CHANGE

(Continued from page 1)
But with all the hollering about changing the date, this is not the first time that it has been found necessary to change Thanksgiving. The day seems to have begun back in the days of Greek prehistory when people worshipped Demeter, harvest goddess. Pilgrims were influenced by the customs which had made its way to England and was also being used by the Dutch to celebrate the fact that the Spaniards had not cut off all their heads.

George Washington was the first president to introduce the custom in 1789 and again in 1793. Other presidents followed, but only intermittently. Governors took it up about 1830, but southern states rejected it because it was said to be of northern origin. During the Civil war, Lincoln proclaimed the first in a long series of last of November holidays which lasted until the present day.

Milton Horn, noted sculptor, is a resident instructor at Olivet college this year.

INITIATION

(Continued from page 1)
Sisters—See Dean Anthony, 118 Ag hall; December 7, 8 at 8:00 to 5:00; December 8, 8:00 to 12:00 p.m.; December 9, Professor Lucas, Dairy building; December 8, 8:00 to 5:00, and December 9, 8:00 to 12:00.

Freshmen—See Professor Miller, 206 Ag hall; December 7 and 8, 3:00 to 6:00 only, and December 9, 8:00 to 12:00.

Registration Notice

Every student should see his adviser or class officer according to the schedule below to obtain his registration envelope and plan his course for the winter term. Reservation of sections will take place in the Gymnasium on Tuesday, January 2, and Wednesday, January 3. The alphabetical schedule will be printed at a later date.

The schedule for seeing advisers and class officers follows:

Agriculture and Forestry Students

Seniors—See Dean Anthony, 118 Ag hall; December 7, 8 at 8:00 to 5:00; December 8, 8:00 to 12:00 p.m.

Juniors—See Professor Lucas, Dairy building; December 8, 8:00 to 5:00, and December 9, 8:00 to 12:00.

Freshmen—See Professor Miller, 206 Ag hall; December 7 and 8, 3:00 to 6:00 only, and December 9, 8:00 to 12:00.

Applied Science Students

All students see advisers between December 4 and 9.

Engineering Students

Report to 109 Olds hall as follows:

Seniors

Wednesday, November 29—Monday, November 30
A to D inclusives—8:30-11:30 a.m. L to Q inclusive—8:30-11:30 a.m.
E to K inclusives—1:30-4:30 p.m. R to S inclusive—1:30-4:30 p.m.
T to Z inclusives—7:30-8:30 p.m.

Juniors

Friday, December 1—Monday, December 4
A to C inclusives—8:30-11:30 a.m. G to J inclusive—8:30-11:30 a.m.
D to F inclusives—1:30-4:30 p.m. P to R inclusive—7:30-8:30 p.m.
Saturday—No classification

Freshmen

Tuesday, December 5—Monday, December 8
S to V inclusive—8:30-11:30 a.m.

Sophomores

Wednesday, December 6—Thursday, December 7
A to E inclusives—8:30-11:30 a.m. M to P inclusive—8:30-11:30 a.m.
F to J inclusives—1:30-4:30 p.m. Q to S inclusive—1:30-4:30 p.m.
K to L inclusive—7:30-8:30 p.m. T to Z inclusive—7:30-8:30 p.m.

Freshmen

Friday, December 8—Monday, December 11
A to B inclusives—8:30-4:30 p.m. M to H inclusive—8:30-11:30 a.m.
C only—7:30 to 8:30 p.m. N to T inclusive—1:30-4:30 p.m.
Saturday, December 9—Sunday, December 10
U to Z inclusive—7:30-8:30 p.m.
D to G inclusive—8:30-11:30 a.m.
H to L inclusive—1:30-4:30 p.m.

Home Economics Students

See Advisers

Seniors—November 14 to 17, inclusive
Juniors—November 17 to 21, inclusive
Sophomores—November 27 to 30, inclusive
Freshmen—November 30 to December 4, inclusive

Liberal Arts Students

All students see advisers between November 30 and December 9.

Veterinary and Medical Biology Students

All students see advisers between November 27 and December 2.

Graduate Students

See major professor between November 29 and December 5.

All Students

A student classifying to make credits or less and expecting to pay $2.50 per credit hour must obtain from his dean before seeing his adviser, a statement of the amount of work to be carried. This must be presented at the time of presentation of actions.

The ticket office in the gymnasium will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday (Thanksgiving) for sale of tickets to the Michigan State-Temple game.

With new curly looks permanent—pin at night, moderate curl in the morning and you are well groomed for the day.

FREE!
ONE HOUR A DAY
EXTRA—FOR FUN!

With new curly looks permanent—pin at night, moderate curl in the morning and you are well groomed for the day.

SPECIAL PERMANENT WAVE
Machineless $2.50 and up
Machine $2.00 and up
Oil Shampoo 65c Plain Shampoo 50c

POLLY PRIM BEAUTY SHOP

218 ARBOT BUILDING PHONE 4-1714
OPEN EVENINGS BY APPOINTMENT

TURKEY

(Continued from Page 1)
giving. For several years previous to that time, only one day was granted. In those years, Spartans took the Monday following the State-U. of M. game as a holiday.

In October, 1937, however, State students went to classes after the Michigan game and presented this along with other arguments to the State Board of Agriculture in a petition for a longer Thanksgiving holiday.

Carried out by Student council and the State News, the plea was successful, the present length vacation was granted that year, and has continued since.

Holiday Won't Stop Quarterback

In spite of the fact that the campus will be practically deserted by Wednesday evening, Wednesday Evening Quarterback, a regular feature of that day, will meet as usual to view motion pictures of the Indiana game at 7:30 p.m.

Milton Horn, noted sculptor, is a resident instructor at Olivet college this year.

Power House Bond Issue Plans Set

Education to Have Placement Man; Gifts Accepted

Beginning with summer school, 1940, M. S. C. students carrying undergraduate work not at the college will pay reduced fees, the State Board of Agriculture decided at its November meeting yesterday. Such students will pay $3 per term, plus any fee the instructing agency may charge instead of the $8.60 now paid.

This revision in fee schedule will particularly affect Home Economics students studying at Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit, and police administration students taking instruction at the state police barracks.

ADVANCE OPENING DATE

Staff changes made by the board included authorization of appointment of a new member of the education department faculty, who will have charge of student placement.

Stage equipment purchases for the auditorium were approved by the board, a Detroit firm having the low bid of $13,945.

Official completion date of the Fred C. Jenison men's gymnasium and field house has been advanced to April 1, 1940, Secretary John A. Hanrahan announced. Officials anticipate, however, that the field house portion of the building will be available for basketball in January.

TO ISSUE BONDS

The board also approved a financing arrangement with the Ann Arbor Trust company to make possible a power plant addition through the trust company. $160,000 in bonds to pay 3% interest to be sold at par and to be repaid by segregation of income from student fees, will be issued. Bonds will be retired over a 15-year period.

GIFTS ACCEPTED

Three gifts to the college were accepted. W. K. Kellogg gave $100 for use in the Kellogg music sanctuary, and a gift of $425 from the American Philosophical Society was accepted for study of the inheritance factor of dental caries.

The board also accepted the gift of a collection of Indian baskets from R. E. Olds, retired Lansing manufacturer. The collection will be housed in the new museum in the auditorium after its completion.

Involved in Auto Crash: Pays Fine

John Robens, 382 Regent street, was arraigned before Judge Whittemore Monday evening following an accident in which Robens' automobile collided with another on the corner of Meridian and Grand River avenue. He was fined $30 and $3.45 in costs.

Women's Club Plans Meeting

East Lansing Women's club will meet next Monday at 2 p.m. The discussion will be on "History of Weaving," by Miss Crocker.

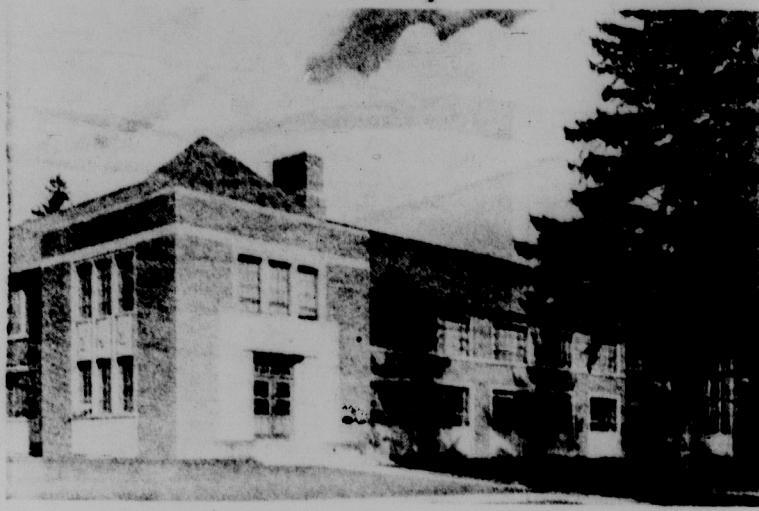

Program chairman will be Mrs. P. E. Hibbard. Music will be furnished by the Central school glee club under the direction of Virginia Weisinger.

The hostess committee includes Mrs. O. L. Snow, Mrs. F. W. Sutcliffe, Mrs. J. M. Teiford, Mrs. G. A. Naftall, Mrs. William Sage, Mrs. C. B. McGregor, Mrs. Peter Thompson and Mrs. Earl E. Hicks.

AND

In the same issue MacKinlay Kantor brings you an emotional short story of the War through the eyes of a boy being evacuated from London, How Happy We Could Be. . . . A prohibition article, The Dry Return to the Wines, by Stanley Hugh. . . . A timely radio drama patch from Shanghai from Halsted Ahrend, Japan Peeks on Uncle Sam. . . . PLUS serials by Nordhoff and Hall, and William Brent, editorials, poems, Post Scripts and 16 swell cartoons... all in this week's Post.

Music Building to be Opened December 3

Michigan State college's new music building will be officially opened with a concert and open house Sunday afternoon Dec. 3. Prof. Lewis I. Richards, department head, has announced. The concert will begin at 3 p.m., and the building will be open for inspection from 4:30 to 7 p.m.

All studios and other rooms used for teaching or practice are soundproof. A suspension construction was used throughout to lessen vibration.

Total cost of the building was $227,288.

TRACK

(Continued from page 1)
Monday at 12 noon, was the individual hero as he won the traditional run in 26.263, followed by Majority of Manhattan, "Wild Willie" Smith of Penn State, the defending champ and a former Spartan freshman star, Cavalier of Syracuse, and Don Smith of Maine.

"Rumbling" Roy Feeny paced Michigan State's entries in 8th place in 27.20, followed in order by Ted Mills 13th with 27.23; Captain Dick Frey, 14th with 27.27; 27 schools and 164 men.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

With the exception of the winning Manhattan squad, the first five teams in this eastern classic and other strong eastern schools are beginning the trek to meet

the best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

With the exception of the winning Manhattan squad, the first five teams in this eastern classic and other strong eastern schools are beginning the trek to meet

the best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

The best in the middle west and outstanding entries from the south, and as far west as Drake and Iowa State in the Nationals here Monday.

Ralph Schwarzkopf, Michigan's great two-miler, John Munk of Missouri, and Charles Chamberlain of Virginia, brother of Clark Chamberlain, a former Spartan great, top the single entries.

Spartans Aim For .500 Mark In Last Game With Temple

Holsinger Impressed With Strength Of Owls After Villanova Clash

Faced with the eventuality of closing their 1939 season with less than a .500 average for the first time in eleven years, the Michigan State grididers today began pointed for a much-needed triumph over Temple university which invades Mackin field next Saturday.

Up to date the Spartans have a record of three wins, four losses and one tie, the best they can hope for is a .500 average provided they register a triumph over the Owls.

Not since 1928 when Harry Kaps was head football coach have the Spartans met with more disastrous results. In that year three games were won, four lost and one tied. Only 11 times in 43 years of intercollegiate football has failed to finish a season with State failed to finish a season with a winning percentage.

State teams coached by Charley Bachman since 1933 never lost more than two games per season until last fall. In 1938, however, the Spartans slipped and finished with six wins and three loss.

The Spartans will be slight favorites to conquer the Temple Owls in view of their gradual improvement which has been evident in the last few games. While the Temple eleven, now being coached by Fred Swan following Cap Warner's retirement last year, has an unimpressive record for the season, it will be seeking revenge for a 1930 defeat at the hands of the State grididers last fall.

Assistant Coach Joe Holsinger returned from Philadelphia where he witnessed Temple's downfall to Villanova last Saturday with a report that will throw plenty of action into the Spartan camp. According to Holsinger, the Owls have been the victims of bad breaks and are one of the most powerful teams he has watched this fall.

The Spartans came out of last Saturday's 7-7 tie with Indiana in excellent physical condition, but Beutman gave his regulars a day off yesterday. The remainder of the squad held a light workload.

Frogs Playoff

Frogs' championship hopes in the Inter-Fraternity touch football league will go on the block at Rockwood tonight at Old College field when Sigma Nu meets Gamma Delta Alpha in defense of its title.

You have Arrow to be thankful for!

5. Receiving a letter from your mother, but Arrow is the only shirt you can afford.

6. Spent a week in the mountains.

7. Thank Arrow for the shirt.

8. Spent a week in the mountains.

9. Anchored, but Arrow is the only shirt you can afford.

10. Anchored, but Arrow is the only shirt you can afford.

ARROW SHIRTS
COLLARS TIES HANDKERCHIEFS UNDERWEAR

BUY YOUR
ARROW SHIRTS
AT

H. KOSITCHEK AND BROS.
111 NORTH WASHINGTON AVE.
LANSING, MICHIGAN

A Familiar Sight... Eddie Pearce in Action

Photo by Ted Cross

State's sticky right halfback has a worried look on his face as he ponders on a way to escape Arch Harris, Indiana's big negro left end. Harris was on the alert for trickery, however, and made the tackle to hold Pearce to a short gain around left end.

13 Senior Gridmen Play Last Game Saturday

By Bob Hatton

Swan songs in gridiron tempos will swing the football recreational of thirteen Michigan State seniors who play their final game of college football when the Spartans tackle Temple Saturday on Mackin field.

After three years of valiant service these State warriors bow out before what promises to be one of the smallest of the season. The Thanksgiving vacation moved up to conform to the Nov. 23 date set by President Roosevelt will probably be well-earned fare from being accorded these men by State students and their band.

For three years a sparkling of Spartan eleven, Lyle "Rocky" Rockenbach, Crystal Falls, Mich., has been one of the leading linemen in college football. Yet in all these three years, the sticky guard has never received recognition for his great work in the forward wall. With his senior year coming to a close, Rocky has been playing even harder than before and it is but fitting tribute that this guard should be nationally recognized this season.

INJURIES HALT PEARCE

Eddie Pearce, a prime favorite with Spartan fans since he first made his appearances in State's football camp in 1936, also graduated.

The diminutive Flint halfback who was forced to give the spotlight to Johnny Pongratz for two years was due to be the No. 1 gun in State's backfield this season. Injuries early in the season handicapped Pearce to the sometimes and not until the Syracuse game did the likeable gridiron return to lead State on its football comeback.

Ron Alling, one of State's best pivot men in recent years, was cut down by the injury bug in the opening contest with Wayne and has seen only intermittent service since. Ralph Bennett, Michigan end, was lost in the same game and did not return to action until last Saturday's contest with Indiana.

Three Spartan tackles will play the last time Saturday when Alex Bush, Ketkeo, Lee Bruckner and George Gargett call it a football season.

Abbot 15, Mason 8 Meet for Title

Four dorm rooms filled the air with passes last night in the residencies of the dormitory touch football league and when the lights dimmed Abbot 15 and Mason 8 were paired in tonight's final contest.

With sparkling Jack Halop playing a lot of football, Abbot 15's small but fast aggregation made light work of Mason 8 in the curtain raiser, 20-0. The opening quarter had scarcely got underway before Halop took George Bush's flat pass on his own 45 yard line and raced 55 yards to score.

The winners struck again in the second stanza when Bill Lynn walloped around right end to the Mason 8. Halop at this point heaved a short pass over the goal line to Jim Stover for the second tally. This time the extra attempt clicked with Halop passing to Bush.

In the second game, Mason 8 waited until the final period and then counted a single touchdown to drop Abbot 12-7-6. Paul Stark gathered a Nelson Bryant toss in the end zone to strike the damaging blow. The Mason squad scored the extra point via another Bryant pass, this time to Bob Young.

Four dorm rooms filled the air with passes last night in the residencies of the dormitory touch football league and when the lights dimmed Abbot 15 and Mason 8 were paired in tonight's final contest.

With sparkling Jack Halop playing a lot of football, Abbot 15's small but fast aggregation made light work of Mason 8 in the curtain raiser, 20-0. The opening quarter had scarcely got underway before Halop took George Bush's flat pass on his own 45 yard line and raced 55 yards to score.

The winners struck again in the second stanza when Bill Lynn walloped around right end to the Mason 8. Halop at this point heaved a short pass over the goal line to Jim Stover for the second tally. This time the extra attempt clicked with Halop passing to Bush.

In the second game, Mason 8 waited until the final period and then counted a single touchdown to drop Abbot 12-7-6. Paul Stark gathered a Nelson Bryant toss in the end zone to strike the damaging blow. The Mason squad scored the extra point via another Bryant pass, this time to Bob Young.

Four dorm rooms filled the air with passes last night in the residencies of the dormitory touch football league and when the lights dimmed Abbot 15 and Mason 8 were paired in tonight's final contest.

With sparkling Jack Halop playing a lot of football, Abbot 15's small but fast aggregation made light work of Mason 8 in the curtain raiser, 20-0. The opening quarter had scarcely got underway before Halop took George Bush's flat pass on his own 45 yard line and raced 55 yards to score.

The winners struck again in the second stanza when Bill Lynn walloped around right end to the Mason 8. Halop at this point heaved a short pass over the goal line to Jim Stover for the second tally. This time the extra attempt clicked with Halop passing to Bush.

In the second game, Mason 8 waited until the final period and then counted a single touchdown to drop Abbot 12-7-6. Paul Stark gathered a Nelson Bryant toss in the end zone to strike the damaging blow. The Mason squad scored the extra point via another Bryant pass, this time to Bob Young.

Four dorm rooms filled the air with passes last night in the residencies of the dormitory touch football league and when the lights dimmed Abbot 15 and Mason 8 were paired in tonight's final contest.

With sparkling Jack Halop playing a lot of football, Abbot 15's small but fast aggregation made light work of Mason 8 in the curtain raiser, 20-0. The opening quarter had scarcely got underway before Halop took George Bush's flat pass on his own 45 yard line and raced 55 yards to score.

The winners struck again in the second stanza when Bill Lynn walloped around right end to the Mason 8. Halop at this point heaved a short pass over the goal line to Jim Stover for the second tally. This time the extra attempt clicked with Halop passing to Bush.

Four dorm rooms filled the air with passes last night in the residencies of the dormitory touch football league and when the lights dimmed Abbot 15 and Mason 8 were paired in tonight's final contest.

With sparkling Jack Halop playing a lot of football, Abbot 15's small but fast aggregation made light work of Mason 8 in the curtain raiser, 20-0. The opening quarter had scarcely got underway before Halop took George Bush's flat pass on his own 45 yard line and raced 55 yards to score.

The winners struck again in the second stanza when Bill Lynn walloped around right end to the Mason 8. Halop at this point heaved a short pass over the goal line to Jim Stover for the second tally. This time the extra attempt clicked with Halop passing to Bush.

Spartan Sportfolio

Coach Bachman's recommendation that Wayne university be dropped from Michigan State's grid schedule next fall has aroused more than a little comment on and off the campus.

With all due respect to the opinion of Charley Bachman, we rather favor the retention of Wayne on the schedule. For four seasons the Detroit school has afforded clean, interesting competition benefited to both schools. As Wayne official put it, "Both State and Wayne made money on the game."

Admittedly, Michigan scouts do have the chance to take voluminous notes on State's offense and defense a week before the Ann Arbor classic. But just how much do they learn? Scarcely anything, that they didn't already know.

The Spartans play under wraps in the Wayne game, using only a handful of plays. These plays are strictly of the "Till-give-you-run" variety. Michigan scouts have diagrammed them hundreds of times before.

The objections to the further scheduling of Wayne are based mainly on the assumption that nine games are too many and that by opening the season a week earlier than Michigan, the opportunity is afforded for Wolverine scouts to get the lowdown on State.

Bares Weaknesses

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.

That one game goes a long way toward bringing out weaknesses and faults that appear only in regular competition. The fact that Wayne opened the schedule this year certainly was beneficial to a young State team very uncertain of its own ability.

The game undoubtedly is of great benefit to both Spartan coaches and players for it allows the Spartans to have one game under their belt before meeting Michigan, while the Wolverines must meet State cold, so to speak.