

1, 1939
Anderson
t that the correction
Michigan
other con-such as the confidence are lower,
with their
taken back summer game has taining ten-dash. We il of more at some pays W
ANCE
Y
-1-5-20
vout of hankings
ERVICE
Ave
Mich
S ards
on
A
Michigan
Ave
S f the ccos
elds
her rice
def-
our an't and
al
he
CY
d
d

Weather
Fair and Probably Warmer

Michigan State News

Editorials
The Show Must Go On
Why Not Show Now?

Volume 32 Z 329 MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE, EAST LANSING, MICHIGAN, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1939 No. 27

State Harriers Top 21 Teams For National Title

Propless Drama Makes Debut; Stage Crew Head is Actor

Fall Term Play Opens Wednesday

Campus dramatists will stage a departure from the usual Wednesday and Thursday evenings when they present the fall term all-college play, "Our Town," under the direction of Dr. W. Fawcett Thompson, in the Union ballroom. They will be making the first attempt to put on a play with scenery and carrying very

14 to Attend Inter-Frat Convo

Fourteen delegates have been chosen from the M.S.C. Interfraternity council to represent the college at the thirty-first annual session of National Interfraternity conference to be held at Hotel Baltimore, New York City, December 1 and 2.

Delegates are Arthur Thompson, Lambda Chi, Fred Backstrom, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, James Thorburn, Eclectic, Arthur Howland, Theta Chi, James Kelly, FarmHouse, Arthur Armon, Alpha Epsilon Pi, Ted MacKrell, Kappa Sigma, John Torbet, Hesperian, John Lisey, Delta Sigma Phi, Paul Gage, Sigma Nu, Donald Kilbourne, Phi Chi Alpha, Robert Baldwin, Phi Delta Theta, Donald Brandow, Beta Kappa, and George Wahl, Pi Kappa Phi. Dean F. T. Mitchell and G. R. Heath, housing director, will also attend the convention.

DR. W. F. THOMPSON

Dr. W. F. Thompson, Chairman of the Pulitzer prize-winning play of 1938, is the story of a young New Hampshire hamlet

The group is leaving tomorrow for New York City and will attend the convention Friday and Saturday. Delegates will hear speakers discuss relationship of fraternities to the college and national questions and will take part in forum discussions with delegates from other colleges on fraternity programs and problems.

Green Helmet To Initiate Nineteen

Women pledges will be initiated into the Green Helmet, sophomore honorary, tonight in the dining room. Initiates were selected on the basis of their scholastic records and participation in college activities during their freshman year.

MSC to Exhibit At Stock Show

Plans are being made for entering several animals belonging to Michigan State college at the International Live Stock show starting December 2 in Chicago.

Initiates will follow a banquet at the Union main dining room at 7 p. m. Faculty advisers, Don Ross, assembly instructor, and T. L. Smith of the chemistry department will be present, with guest speakers Dr. F. T. Mitchell, dean of men.

Among the group will be four Pepperton horses, a two-year-old stallion, Agno, and three mares, Claude Laeter, Reno, and Media Colene. The college will be one of 47 exhibitors of Percherons. This year marks the hundredth anniversary of the first shipment of Percherons from their native France. Jack Carter is in charge of preparing horses for the show. Also to be exhibited are college steers and breeding stock in charge of Charles Walker, lambs and ewes in charge of Lloyd Schmege, and swine in charge of Don Kaufman.

These seven men brought glory to Michigan State yesterday when they won both National Collegiate and Central Collegiate cross country meets on the home course. Members of the Spartan championship team, above, are left to right: Captain Dick Frey, Roy Fehr, George Keller, Bill Mansfield, Al Mangan, Ed Mills, and Warren Anderson. Captain Frey paced his teammates to victory. As jubilant as any man on the team after the meet was Coach Lauren P. Brown.

Frey Leads Spartans To Double Victory; Win Central Meet

Mehl, Wisconsin Runner, Is Star

By Joe Simcik
Led by Capt. Dick Frey, Michigan State's cross country team bounded back into the national limelight with an upset victory over Wisconsin for National Collegiate and Central Collegiate conference crowns in the combined meet here yesterday noon. The extravaganza attracted 79 harrier stars from 22 scattered schools.

Art Gallery Is Begun in New Music Hall

Opening of a new art gallery for Michigan State college in the new music building has been announced for Sunday, December 3, from 4:30 to 7 p. m. in collaboration with the building dedication.

At this time and continuing for one week through December 10, the art department will display an exhibition of contemporary art from the permanent collection of the Detroit Institute of Arts, loaned for the occasion.

The exhibit, consisting of 29 pieces, will include original oils, water colors and drawings, with works of Robert Henri, Maurice Sterne, Thomas Eakins, Diego Rivera, John Carroll, Maurice Vlaminck, George (Pop) Hart, Camille Pissaro, Carl Hofer and others represented.

Hours of exhibition are: Sunday, December 3, 4:30 to 7 p. m.; Monday through Friday, 4 to 5 p. m.; Saturday, December 9, and Sunday, December 10, 2 to 5 p. m.

Among exhibits, scheduled for this season are a display of small sculpture from Robinson Galleries, New York City, etchings and lithographs by Associated American Artists, paintings by William Gropper, an architectural exhibit of modern American houses, a student show, and the annual faculty show. These and other exhibits, not yet scheduled, will be announced as they arrive.

Ballet Russe To Play Here December 5

Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo brings three of its most successful ballets to the State campus this evening of Tuesday, December 5. With Leonide Massine as artistic director, the company comes here from its regular fall season in New York, where it presented Saturday, Daily's successful ballet set to music from Wagner's "Tannhauser."

Home Ecs to Aid Santa With Own Gift Shop

Print cakes, poster dishes and ash trays, costume jewelry and frivolous smocks are a few of the articles which the Home Economics gift shop will show this year, according to Frances Bates, chairman of the project. Sales will be held from December 4 to December 11, from 2 to 6 p. m. in the apartment on the third floor of the Home Economics building.

Sigma Kappa Starts Work On New Chapter House

Excavation was begun last week for a new Sigma Kappa sorority chapter house, located in the 500 block on M. A. C. avenue, which will be completed some time during spring term.

The house, built on Georgian colonial lines with red brick veneer and tall white pillars, will house 30 women. Other features of the house include a first floor dining room opening onto a terrace, a closet for every resident of the house, a chapter room with storage closet in the basement, a town girl's room with built-in cabinet for private storage.

Start Pistol Team Tryouts

Initial elimination practices for Michigan State's R.O.T.C. pistol team will be held yesterday for a group of 20 aspirants. It was announced by Captain C. E. Hixon, infantry. These shooters are to be seeded out over a two-week period, when a final team of 20 men will be picked.

Opinions, Gripes to Be Aired At Student-Faculty Coffee

By Virginia Robertson
Wednesday afternoon at Mortar Board coffee is your chance to find out what is going on in minds of students and faculty on the campus of Michigan State college, when George Owen conducts an interview over the public address system in the Union from 4:20 to 5 p. m. Tomorrow's host is Blue Key.

Campus Calendar

- Sociology Club—Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. Organization room 1, Union
- Senior Class Meeting—Wednesday, 5 p. m. Room 111, Olds hall
- ASME—Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Music building auditorium
- Newman Club—Tuesday, Room 103, Union annex
- NWS Meeting—Tuesday, 12 noon, Union sunporch
- Forestry Club—Wednesday, Forestry cabin
- AIEE—Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Organization room 1, Union
- ASME—Tuesday, 8 p. m. Room 29, Ag hall
- Pershing Rifles—Wednesday, 7 p. m. Demonstration hall
- Institutional Administration Organization—Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Room 102, Home Ec
- Matrix Active Members—Tuesday, 12 noon, Hunt Food shop
- Orchestra—Tuesday, 5 p. m. Dance studio, gym
- SWI Interest Groups—Wednesday, 5 p. m. Union annex
- Business Staff, State News—Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. News office

Officers Seek Air Cadets

Candidates for U. S. army air corps training at Randolph Field, Texas, army air base, are being examined at M.S.C. this week by a three-man board.

Rivalry Ends At Banquet

Rivalry between alumni of Michigan State college and the University of Chicago was settled for this year at the annual Commencement Dinner company banquet in Jackson last night.

Club Will Hear Aerial Surveyor

Talbert G. Abrams of Abrams Aerial Survey Company, Lansing, will speak at an open meeting of the M.S.C. branch of American Society of Mechanical Engineers Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the new music building auditorium.

Dean Dye to Attend AAUW Meeting

Miss Marie Dye, Dean of Home Economics, will be in Washington, D. C. Friday, Saturday and Sunday to attend a meeting on membership and standards of the American Association of University Women.

Under the Wire

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau said today that United States debt limit would have to be raised above 45 billion dollars or new tax measures must be passed by next congress to meet government expenses. A new half-billion dollar bond issue is being launched to replenish the government's bill.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Nov. 27.—Tension in the Russo-Finnish dispute soared the breaking point today as Moscow demanded withdrawal of Finnish troops from the border. Soviet radio is broadcast warnings to Finnish people and urging them to revolt against their government's premier, Elias Erkko, now in Moscow. Observers say Erkko's actions parallel Germany's in its campaign against Poland. No possibility of a peaceful settlement of the difficulty is foreseen.

ROME, Nov. 27.—Premier Mussolini today issued a warning to all Americans to leave the country as soon as possible.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt today volunteered to appear as a witness before the Dies committee in behalf of American Youth Congress, said to have Communist leanings. Chairman Martin Dies is taking her offer under advisement.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Fleets of ships and planes are searching North sea for the German pocket battleship Deutschland which it was discovered today, sank a British warship late last week, bringing to 148 the number of ships sunk since beginning of the war. Of this number, 72 were British.

PRINCETON, Nov. 27.—Adolph Hitler was voted the world's greatest man today by freshmen at Princeton university. Albert Einstein placed second.

25 Attend Smith-Hughes Meet

About 25 Smith-Hughes leaders from throughout Michigan are attending a vocational leadership conference, including the two-day meeting, which ends today at Michigan State college.

IML Plans Final Show Tryouts

Final auditions for the IML radio show, "Frolic of the Air," will be held Thursday at 7 p. m. in the wood shop.

Marvin and Lee Osborne, who are writing scripts for the series which begins winter term, are in charge of the auditions. Besides survivors from previous auditions, persons who have not had earlier trials will be heard Thursday.

Although sponsored by Independent Men's league, "Frolic of the Air" is open to all students.

Council Orders Revision Of City Bus Ordinance

State's Oldest Alum Dies

Daniel Strange, '67, to Be Buried Today

Funeral services will be held today in Grand Ledge for Daniel Strange, member of the class of 1867, who was the oldest living graduate of Michigan State college. He died yesterday afternoon at his home at the age of 94.

Strange was a member of the fifth graduating class of M. A. C., which consisted of five members. While in school he was a pitcher for the Eagles baseball team, and a member of the only literary society here at that time.

One of the founders of the Michigan State Alumni association, he was its president at one time. Strange was also assistant secretary of the college, a position he described as being private secretary to Pres. T. C. Abbot, for whom Abbot hall is named.

Last alumni day that Strange missed was in 1929. He was in St. Ignace, Fla., at the time. He attended alumni day in 1937.

After his graduation from M. A. C., Strange was superintendent of schools in Portland and Mason. He developed a farm near Grand Rapids where he lived until his death in 1917. He then returned to an internal revenue office in Grand Rapids.

Strange wrote a history of the Michigan State College and its graduates. He also wrote a history of the city of Grand Rapids.

Strange was recognized as one of the great graduates of the college. It was his habit to bring back to the college a number of books and papers. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Strange was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Faculty Will See Western Pictures

R. A. Kirkpatrick, lecturer and representative of the Union Pacific railroad, will speak before the college club at noon December 6 on "Sun Valley and the Salmon River Country."

The lecture will be illustrated by colored slides, made from films photographed in color by Kirkpatrick during his trips while gathering lecture material.

Kirkpatrick was for many years president of the National American congress and is associated with organizations promoting recreational and conservation areas.

AWS Talks Hay Rides, Dinners

Pros and cons for continuance of hay rides and dancing at exchange dinners were main topics for discussion at a recent meeting of the A. W. S. council. The group also discussed possibility of substituting for fraternity and sorority exchange dinners.

Jean B. Wilson, chairman of arrangements for furniture in the A. W. S. office, announced that it would consist of walnut-finished pieces styled on modernistic lines.

D. Edward Benes, former president of Czechoslovakia, has accepted a permanent place on the University of Chicago faculty.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Mayor Card denied that the city of East Lansing had any definite policy to follow in the bus affair and that it was not favoring any one of the bus companies.

High School Seniors Oppose Intervention in Europe's War

German propaganda is not sweeping East Lansing high school seniors off their feet, recently in three senior social science classes revealed a 69 to 17 vote against American entry into the war.

Questions answerable by "yes" or "no" showed seniors strongly in favor of American neutrality even if England and France seem about to lose the war. Results of the poll tallied closely with results of a poll conducted at Michigan State college in which colleagues overwhelmingly voted against American participation in the present conflict.

A smaller majority, 38 to 22, declared its intention of openly opposing the government's action should United States send troops abroad.

The question "If Germany should win this war, do you believe Germany would invade the western hemisphere?" brought 66 negative responses and 11 positive ones. Civilization on the western hemisphere will not fall if Germany wins the war, poll results showed. Seventy voted yes while only 13 indicated that American democracy might go the way of European democracies.

Skepticism as to the average American's ability to distinguish propaganda from true facts was overwhelmingly indicated in a 79 to 8 vote.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Results of the poll, questions of which were answered anonymously, tabulated and discussed in senior government and economics classes, showed fallacious the belief that the present generation who cannot remember the last war is anxious to participate in the present conflict.

Court Ruling Is Cause Of Action

Mayor Says City Has No Definite Bus Policy

By JERRY DEWAR
Mayor Carl G. Card of East Lansing authorized City Attorney Harry Hubbard last night to revise the city bus ordinance and to present the revision for approval at the next meeting of the council two weeks from last night.

Action was deemed necessary when Ingham county's circuit court ruled the existing ordinance which gave the city council the right to control routing of buses "between points within boundaries of East Lansing or between a point or points within the city and contiguous, adjacent or surrounding localities," could not be interpreted as to apply to inter-urban buses.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Mayor Card denied that the city of East Lansing had any definite policy to follow in the bus affair and that it was not favoring any one of the bus companies.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Alums of Three Schools Meet

Grand Rapids Alumni club of Michigan State college held a joint smoker with Purdue and Indiana Alumni clubs of that territory in the Hotel Morton last night.

Tom King, assistant football coach, was main speaker and showed motion pictures. Representatives of Purdue alumni from this campus who attended were Dr. J. H. Martin, director of regional poultry research laboratory, and Paul Lucas, dairy department.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Women Hear Artist Talk On Weaving

Miss Nina Crocker, teacher of creative craft in a private school at Howell, summarized history of weaving at East Lansing Women's club meeting yesterday afternoon.

"To grow naturally, art must grow from the people and not from experts," Miss Crocker emphasized. Weaving in America was revived after the last war following a 60-year period of decadence, according to the speaker. In the north weaving is an art and a hobby, while women in the south use it for commercial purposes, she continued. Following the talk, club members viewed an exhibit of weaving.

The Central grade school gym club, directed by Miss Virginia Wessinger, sang four numbers, "Sweet Summer, Gone Away," "The Sailor Song," "Geography Song," and "Robin Hood."

Miss R. P. Hubbard was program chairman. Hostess committee consisted of Mrs. O. L. Snow, Mrs. E. W. Sutterby, Mrs. J. M. Telford, Mrs. G. A. Nantall, Mrs. William Sags, Mrs. C. B. McGeevie, Mrs. Peter Plambeck, and Mrs. Earl E. Hicke.

Physics Club Plans Talk on Planets

Is there life on other planets besides our own? That is the topic of a lecture to be given by Paul H. D. Curtis, a University of Michigan astronomer, Wednesday in Kodzie lecture room at 8 p. m.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Nye Spurred Munitions Queries

Senator to Talk To Spartans On Foreign Affairs

By GORDON DARRAH
Senator Gerald P. Nye, who is scheduled to speak at 8 p. m. Monday, December 4, at Peoples church, first came into international prominence when in 1934 he introduced a Senate bill designed to investigate the munitions industry in America.

This was in complete accord with his political life, which has been devoted to promotion of peace and elimination of naval expansion and other armaments proposals.

Nye himself headed the munitions inquiry, and although he met much opposition and incurred unpopularity along the way, he kept at his job and even provoked similar investigations in Canada and Great Britain. His work here went so far as to help the French government under Leon Blum to rationalize armament-making in that country.

In addition to his munitions query, Nye has been instrumental in exposing several illegal deals of great importance. During the oil scandals of a few years back, it was Nye who put an end to activities of the Continental Trading company and who caused removal of Robert Stewart as president of Standard Oil of Indiana.

Always a liberal and a progressive, Nye voted for many New Deal measures, in spite of the fact that he is in the Senate as a Republican. He does not let this prevent him from being independent.

In line with this independent spirit, Nye has criticized the NLRB, the NRA and any other measure, New Deal or not, as his conscience saw fit.

Nye will speak on "Neutrality and Foreign Propaganda."

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night in an interview that he thought it the best policy to support Inter-City bus lines since Lansing was supporting it. He emphasized the point that students would have to pay for transfers if the Lansing City line were given the right to operate. More than 200 students attending college, he pointed out, must make this trip at least twice daily.

Hubbard intimated last night

SPARTAN SPORTFOLIO

(Marshall Dann, member of the State News sports staff, is guest columnist for this issue.)

At this stage of the game, we imagine that Ralph Young, State's portly athletic director, has just about run out of superlatives. With athletic directors and coaches from 22 colleges on hand for the National Collegiate cross country classic, Mr. Young had a field day with his favorite pastime—pointing out and proudly boasting of the many new features and improvements on the Spartan outfit program.

YOUNG

College notes scribbled during the race. Today's hero—George Gibson of Oklahoma—A. & M. Although finishing far back in 46th place, Gibson won top honors for sheer courage and determination. At the three and one-half mile post Gibson was running in sixth position. Rounding a curve, he stumbled and "sprained" an ankle. Falling head, Gibson fell farther and farther behind in that last half mile. After the race Gibson went to the college gymnasium, where he asked Fendley Collins, wrestling coach and former Oklahoma athlete, to check him out. Collins said that he had seen him in the college hospital for treatment, and there Dr. Charles Holland discovered that Gibson had run that last half mile on a broken leg. The small bone (fibula) to some in his right leg was fractured three inches above the ankle.

Frey Comes Back

Today's surprise—Dick Frey, Michigan State's captain. Last summer Dick had an operation on an injured ankle tendon. As a result he was slow rounding into shape when the harrier season opened, and up to today had failed to flash his old-time speed. Before Monday afternoon's race he remarked that he was really ready. Frey finished fifth for his best race in over a year.

Today's disappointment—Freddy Erwin, Oklahoma's great long-distance runner. Erwin had three miles and was leading in the 10-mile race. He had already won more individual titles than any other runner in the country. He was leading in the 10-mile race when he was overtaken by a Michigan runner. Erwin's fall was a surprise, as he had been leading in the race. He was overtaken by a Michigan runner. Erwin's fall was a surprise, as he had been leading in the race.

... a true story book ending to Walt Mehl's collegiate career. The blond Wisconsin star, who will graduate in February, was running his last college race.

State Host in '10

Happy Thought—The way is paved for the running of the National Collegiate here again next year. The coaches recommended that State be awarded the meet at their annual banquet Sunday night. After watching the smooth manner in which the event was run off today, there is no doubt now on the final decision.

It wasn't only the cross country meet that provided the campus athletic heroes of the past week-end. After watching a Michigan State football team that could boast only of its line all season, it was a pleasant relief to find that we also had some grade A-1 backs.

PEARCE

Mike Scheib stamped himself as a man to watch for the next two years. Herm Kiewacki came off the bench that he had graded ever since the Michigan game to provide the best quarterback done by a Spartan this year. Jack Amon's driving play at fullback was one of the main reasons for those 430 yards accumulated against Temple.

Unhappy Sight—seeing Eddie Pearce close his fine gridiron career on the bench—shelved with injuries.

Bad News—Discovering that Bill Beheler, best of the non-graduate linemen, had received a torn collar bone in the fray.

Oddity—Ed Cochrane, sports director for the Hearst chain, who was head linesman at the game, has officiated at 826 games in 26 years, and has viewed but two contests from the stands.

Present sports editor of the Chicago American, he covered a football game this year for the first time in his career.

It may be the end of the football season for most of us, but not for State coaches. Young, Bachman, King, Holsinger, et al., are looking for six weeks solid in the well-known lettuce league.

Sigma Nus Win in Frat Crown

Displaying the same brand of sportsmanship characterized its play last year, Sigma Nu, completed an undefeated season by defeating Lambda Chi, 12-0 Tuesday night. The inter-fraternity football game was the second straight win for the second straight year.

The Lambda Chi defense held the Sigma Nu offense in check for the full duration of two periods. The defense was the "third barrier" the winners, undefeated Sigma Nu, knew that would stand in their way.

The Sigma Nu offense was held back for the first time in the game. The Sigma Nu offense was held back for the first time in the game. The Sigma Nu offense was held back for the first time in the game.

M. Kiewacki, tossed to Tacket who made an almost unbelievable catch for the conversion, making the score 7-0.

The new team followed the lead of the Sigma Nu offense, which intercepted one of Dick Hoover's aerials and laid out the way 22 yards to another touchdown. The try for the extra point failed, leaving the score 12-0.

Spartan Cage Skel

- Mich. State vs. Kalamazoo
- Mich. State vs. Michigan State

Today's classic lost much of its national flavoring as such highly touted teams as New York University, Maryland, Penn State, and Pittsburgh failed to make their appearance.

State Cagers Prime for Stiff 20-Game Card

Football: Here Today And Still Here Tomorrow

"If Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?" The football fathers of Michigan State aren't asking the same question as Percy Shelley did many years ago, but to listen to them talk, one might think that Spring football practice was right around the corner.

It was only last Saturday that a small crowd of spectators bid adieu to Spartan football for 1939 as the State eleven trampled over Temple, 18-7. And already they're talking about the prospects for a great team next year.

Perhaps the spectacle witnessed by the 8,000-gush customers last Saturday was indicative of a much improved team. In 1940, what they actually saw was the Spartan backfield come to life with diminutive Mike Scheib, Allegat sophomore, sparking the way. Scheib danced, skipped and ran through Temple's 200-pound line.

15 YARD AVERAGE

The burly 162-pound Scheib, who lined the bench during the earlier part of the season because of leg injuries, was given his first opportunity to start in a game and to show what he could really do. His performance was fully convincing as he carried the ball 12 times for 180 yards, or 15 yards per carry.

So right now in the talkative tenth game of State's nine-game schedule for 1939, Spartans are boosting Scheib for president in 1940 and his running mate, Jack Amon, for vice president.

Amon also turned in the most creditable performance of his college football career last week. Like Scheib, the junior fullback from Grant Rapids, rapped the line at his will and was a constant menace to Temple during the entire afternoon.

It is also understood that if anyone was being publicized for secretary of the gentlemen, who would probably be named for his position is Herman Kiewacki. Herman got the starting job at quarterback Saturday and really proved that he knows his numbers. Herman finished his football career as they'll have to find another candidate.

And down where they use the paper with words of football wisdom, they're still boosting Bachman. Ed Cochrane, Boston, Even though 1939 was his worst season (nine games were lost, and one he lost), he at least knew what was going on. Right now the Spartan mentor is happy about the team's gradual improvement, as he predicted, and the promising sign of freshness, which he is awaiting to appear next spring.

So there you are. How can Roosevelt have a chance for the presidency next fall when Scheib and his cohorts are going to start running in the spring?

Touch Football Title Goes To Abbot 15

Displaying a well-learned touch football strategy, Abbot 15 won the 1939 touch football championship Wednesday night by defeating a 9-0 team in a well-fought game. The team gave a really believeable performance, and the game was held by Mason K. last year, the winning Abbot 15 also had the honor of being the first team to bring home championship honors to Abbot 15 which is in its first year of inter-collegiate competition.

The play that brought victory and the sought-after title to the Abbot aggregation came early in the second quarter after a well-timed march had placed the ball on the opponents' 25 yard mark.

Bill Lynn, rapped and passed to speedster George Bush, who grabbed the gunkin, reversed his feet and led a head-of-steam offensive across the double stripes for the touchdown.

With defeat staring them in the face, Mason K. made their only offensive thrust in the final quarter when Lynn attempted to punt deep.

The ball went over to the Masonites on the Abbot 30 but the losers could advance the ball but ten yards in four downs and the Abbot squad took over on their own 20 to end the goalward march.

In the early days of the University of Arkansas, carrying combat weapons was such a common practice that the faculty found it necessary to make a ruling to force the students to leave their shootin' irons at home.

Northwestern university has banned the use of portable radios in the stands during football games.

Sharpshooter

Marty Hutt, State's ace forward, has the surest shooting eye on the Spartan cage squad. Possessor of height and speed, Hutt goes into action against Kalamazoo next Monday.

Cornell university has launched a project to determine whether critical thinking about social problems can be developed in high school pupils.

Emory university has recently received $1,000,000 to aid in the development of a great unit in the center in the Atlanta area.

It isn't just the usual story

VanAlstyne Polishes Attack in Drills

Open With Kalamazoo Next Monday

By Marshall Dann

Faced with a stiff 20-game schedule that would tire even the old New York Celtics, Michigan State's cage team is due for its final buffing and polishing this week by Coach Ben Van Alstyne, and then, with all the rough edges smoothed off, will be sent against Kalamazoo in the opener of this suicide card next Monday.

In addition to learning the popular fast-break style of offense that they will employ this year, the Spartans might as well become accustomed to upper berths and dinner meals for their newly-announced schedule lists them to spend 27 days on the road. Eleven of the 20 games will be played on foreign hard-wood.

HOP ROCKIES

Included among their jaunts this winter is a 17-day trip to the west coast during Christmas vacation. This will mark the first time a State basketball team has appeared west of the Rockies. They are scheduled to play two games each with Creighton and Oregon State, and single games with California and Loyola (Chicago).

Their second journey comes late in January when they trek to New York city for their debut in Madison Square Garden. While east, they will also clash with Temple and Baltimore university. Besides the annual trek to Ann Arbor a week from Saturday, they will also make a week-end hop to Milwaukee for a tilt with Marquette there.

It isn't just the usual story

DZV Wins Final In Football

DZV emerged champions in the Independent football league after the Bealtown gridder were defeated in the final game Tuesday night by a 2-0 score.

Bealtown started the game with a vengeance and after receiving the kickoff on its own 20, the plays surged to the DZV 20 yard line.

After the first splurge of action, the game settled into a hard fought affair with both teams gaining little advantage.

At the half DZV led by the score of 4-1 in first downs. The second half continued the same hotly contested nature until, with only three minutes to play in the last quarter, Bealtown was set back in the score of its goal as Burrows of DZV got off a beautiful punt.

The second half continued the same hotly contested nature until, with only three minutes to play in the last quarter, Bealtown was set back in the score of its goal as Burrows of DZV got off a beautiful punt.

By winning the final, the players came through their ordeal unscathed upon.

(Jenison field house will be available until the first game January.)

With the first team just set with Marty Hutt and Phillips or Bob Morris at forward, Max Hindman at guard, and Chet Aubachon and Max G. rymple at guard, close battles being waged for the alternate berths. The choice trips of year's card are an added incentive to the sophomores seeking job among the first ten.

Mel Peterson, a junior guard will probably get one reserve while sophomores White, Lutz, center, Pete Basich, guard, and Ray Polagar, guard, are the ranking alternates.

ENJOY THE POST THIS WEEK...

Isn't "Rush Week" Exciting? Yes, being "rushed" by the big sororities was to be Judith's most thrilling experience. She was young. She was beautiful. And definitely eligible. But who was to know she was bucking a business, highly organized and heartless? A poignant short story that may be resented by the few who are chosen... Turn to page 12 of this week's Post and read Many Are Called.

"Music is a brutal business!" says ARTIE SHAW

Why did Artie Shaw quit last week? "Politics, corruption and a system of patronage aren't the only things a musician has to fight," says the King of the Clarinet. "What's worse are one-night stands and long, brutal jumps that wreck a man's health." Here's his fantastic rags-to-riches climb... from 47¢ cash a year ago to $6,000 an afternoon, and what it did to him!

AND... in the same issue—George Halas, coach of the Chicago Bears, tells you what makes pro football faster than college football in Hold What Line!... Booth Tarkington brings you a hilarious new short story, The Jabjam Motor Trip... Demaree Bess shoots a timely radiogram, Why Hitler Wanted Peace... ALSO short stories, articles, poems, editorials, cartoons—all in this week's issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST 5¢

ROLLER SKATING
NIGHTLY EXCEPT MONDAY
For private or special parties call
4-6545
LANSING
ROLLER DROME
429 River St.

Bowling
RAINBOW RECREATION
Billiards