No War—No Bugle

Small bands may some times play a few non-bugle instruments, but with both a 100-piece band and a military department at M. S. C., it seems that there should be a bugle somewhere in the campus.

However, Wolverine says not. The bugle is to be used for the purpose of a one could be found on the campus, so they had to borrow one from the Boy Scouts.

Come In

H. B. Fields didn't mind it when a stranger looked into the room where he was teaching his Latin-American history class Wednesday. He didn't mind it when a second stranger started into the room a few minutes later.

But when the third interruption of the hour came, he voiced, "Well, I think I'll have to put sentries out into the hall to inform people what class this is."

Thumbing Good For Publicity. Grads Find

From East Lansing to Lansing or 50 miles home for the weekend isn't so bad for thumbing, but when a hitchhiking jaunt is from East Lansing to Denver, Colorado, it probably tends to get a bit wearisome.

Regardless, it's a good way to get publicity, so Grant Nichol and Richard Bird, graduate students, have discovered. They went to Denver by thumb to attend the meeting of the American Society of Sugar Beet Technologists, held January 4 to 6.

Because of their mode of travel and unusual sacrifices, they were made the highlights of the convention. H. C. Rader, H. L. Kohl, and Ray Cook attended the meeting also, but not by thumb.

A Worthy Change

Action taken by Interfraternity council abolishing party assessments upon the fraternities has evoked favorable comment.

In the past this has been a source of great annoyance to many fraternities who for some reason or other could not sell all of the tickets for the annual formal party during winter term.

But under the direction of Jim Thorburn, IFC president, this practice of assessing each house a certain sum for tickets regardless of whether or not the fraternities sold their tickets has been changed.

The plan of this year's council calls for no definite number of tickets to be allotted to each fraternity but purely voluntary sales. Each house, to be sure, will be given duets to be sold, but if not sold, will be given back to the council without any assessment or penalty.

Contrast this with the compulsory policy of previous years when every house was allotted a definite number of tickets, if they were sold, all was well, but if not, the fraternity had to take out of its treasury to make up the difference. Connected closely with this evil was the defensive policy of fraternities in order to protect themselves.

During the first few days that the house had tickets to sell, the price of duets remained normal. Fraternities sold as many as they could at that price but if ticket sales in the house was dragging down would come the price as the formal date approached.

And in many cases the price would continue to drop until a ticket could be bought for as low as a dollar. Those who had fraternal spirit to buy early were unjustly penalized. This situation caused more ill feeling than the party was worth. One fraternity man last year was heard to say, "Why buy a ticket for three dollars when one can secure it for less. It pays to wait."

But no longer is this true. No longer will the person who buys early be penalized. Nothing compulsory about any feature of ticket sales, either with fraternities or individual members. To fully demonstrate the enthusiastic response of fraternities toward this change, a glance at ticket sales for IFC's formal January 19 shows a decided increase over last year.

Finding 'Lost' Articles

Something should be done to prevent picking up of articles which basketball spectators drop under the temporary bleachers.

It seems that a considerable number of gloves, scarfs, and small personal articles are stolen every basketball game or lecture by persons who walk about under the bleachers solely for that reason.

Not so strangely, either, few of these articles are turned into the lost and found department.

The solution to this should be comparatively simple. Why cannot a half dozen men students be hired to patrol the section under the bleachers to keep others out and to pick up items that are dropped by spectators? A temporary lost and found department could function after the game, and losers could get back their lost articles. Anyone except officials, who would be found under the bleachers could be ejected from the field house.

Quotable Quotes

"Democracy will not be saved by sending the cream of our present generations to Europe to fight. To save democracy we must clean house in the United States. We must gain unity of purpose and solve our pressing problems. All the slogans in the world will not help a useless democracy." Dr. C. A. Dykstra, University of Wisconsin president, votes against participation in a foreign war.

"College tries to educate all sides of our personalities, the mind, body, spirit and a social sense which is a duty to the community. There should be four years of happy life, and when the student is through college, ways of serving her country will open up through music, medicine, housing and politics." Barnard college's Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve urges today's undergraduates to prepare themselves for service to the nation.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Tipoff to the much discussed ousting of Leslie Rose Belsham, Britain's Minister of War is the fact that his successor, Oliver Stanley, is one of the most pro-German members of the Cabinet.

Stanley is the son of Lord Londonderry, educated in Germany and a member of the Gladstone act which was responsible for the Munich pact and encouraged a rapprochement with Hitler before war broke. Oliver Stanley, now 41 years old, has been promoted to high position solely through the influence of his father.

Add to this the fact that Rose Belsham is Jewish and was the most active member of the British Cabinet in opposing the war, and you get the main reason why Chamberlain ousting him.

That reason is CHAMBERLAIN AND THE OVERWEIGHING MAJORITY OF THE CABINET WANT TO MAKE AN EARLY PEACE WITH GERMANY. THEN TURN AGAINST RUSSIA, and Hitler will not talk while a Jew is heading the British army's drive against Germany. With a pro-German Minister of War, the chances for peace are better.

POPULAR BELIEFS

Also, and this much has been a contributing factor, Rose Belsham was the most unpopular member of the young cabinet, and the most popular cabinet member in Britain. As such, he constituted the chief political threat to Chamberlain. He had greater popularity than any other man for leading an effective opposition to Chamberlain. Many people predicted that he would be the next Prime Minister.

Therefore, it was better for Chamberlain to get rid of him and place him on the sidelines, rather than after he got his popularity.

It is worthwhile to remember that the Chamberlain Cabinet is composed largely of men old in years and even older in mind. Anthony Eden, now Minister of Colonies, is young, but has not been a cabinet member of the Chamberlain Cabinet. A spirit of conservatism has been in vogue since then, and it has been a matter of fact that the Chamberlain Cabinet is a conservative one.

Manly, MacDonald, now Labor Prime Minister, Boyce MacDonald, also a young man, has been a long disapprover. As Secretary for the Dominion, he is a member of the Chamberlain Cabinet.

THE OLD ORDER

When David Lloyd George, Lord of the Admiralty, died, Rose Belsham made a strong bid to be appointed to replace him. But the old order was too strong. The new generation, represented by Stanley, stepped into the vacuum which was making itself manifest.

The old order was a conservative one. Rose Belsham was a young man, and his appointment would have been a signal for the new order. The new order was a more progressive one, and it was a matter of fact that the Chamberlain Cabinet was a conservative one.

1939 Important Year For MSC, News Files Show

By Jerry Dewar
Old Man 1939 has faded out of the picture in favor of his younger protégé, 1940, but he has left memories in collegiate circles that have been preserved in the files of the Michigan State News. Some of the biggest stories ever to appear in the News have broken this year.

Headlining the news of 1939 was the epidemic of influenza which was contracted by a quarter of a hundred students early in February and which at Arthur Goldberg, secretary student body, and Mike Carlet.

Secretary of State Elucidates On License-Plate Gibberish

What does G.R. mean on my license plate? Why are these letters assigned to my county? Why do they differ from letters on the license plates in the next county? These and a dozen similar questions have been recently directed to Harry T. Kelly, secretary of state.

To remove any doubt regarding letters appearing on license plates, Kelly recently went to some length to explain reasons behind adoption of the new 1938 plate.

Records Show War Was Very Real Thing to Class of '18

By Peggy Trout
Members of the class of 1918 were thinking about war, too.

Holmes, student publication at M. S. U. for that year says, "This year we have a graduating class which has for every member who is to receive a diploma, more than one man wearing a uniform. Nearly every man wearing a cap and gown is enlisted in some branch of the service and will be called very soon after graduation."

Thinking through the pages of these early issues one comes to understand student attitudes during the first World War, and sees an accurate advancement of war-time activities and problems in the campus.

On October 26, 1917, comes the first war-time note in the Holmes. It is a notice of the fact that the war has been declared, and that the United States has entered the war.

The notice is a notice of the fact that the war has been declared, and that the United States has entered the war. It is a notice of the fact that the war has been declared, and that the United States has entered the war.

Intramural Basketball Opens Warfare With Activity on Three Fronts

An intramural athletic program which will draw some 2,500 participants before the term is completed, opened Tuesday with the Independent and Dormitory basketball teams drawing first blood, followed by action in the Fraternity league last night. It is estimated that basketball alone will attract nearly 1,000 of this number during the course of the term.

Four Games Open Dorm Festivities

Dormitory quintets opened their basketball season with four fast games in Demonstration hall Tuesday night.

In the opener, Wells D swamped Mason 5 with an 18-8 score. Tipmaster with 8 points and Verberg with 6 paced the Wells team. Applegate led the Mason five with two field goals.

Abbot 10 emerged victorious over Wells A, as Roberts and Schoof collectively accounted for 9 of Abbot's 15 points. The Wells A aggregation was able to penetrate the Abbot defense for only 8 points.

Wells B, aided by the sharp shooting of Andrews, Craig and Kieppe, triumphed in its battle with Abbot 15 by scoring 16 points to Abbot's 8. Bush, with 3 field goals, seemed to be the only Abbot player capable of finding the basket.

Mason 4 edged out Wells F by the narrow margin of 10-9 in the final game of the evening. Lee and Pellerin sank two field goals each to account for eight of Mason's points. Page with 6 points was high scorer for Wells.

Ralph Vaughan, Southern California forward, is being hailed as successor to Hank Lanetta's crown as the country's greatest cager. Vaughan racked up 180 points in 12 Pacific Coast conference games last season.

Phi Beta Kappa has started a drive to raise a scholarship fund of $300,000 for "the defense of freedom of speech and the humanities."

Low Scores Hold Sway in Frat Openers

Low scores featured the opening of the inter-fraternity basketball league last night as Phi Kappa Tau beat Phi Delta Theta, 20-12, Lambda Chi Alpha edged out the FarmHouse, 10-8, and Sigma Nu trounced Beta Kappa, 19-5.

Mauman with 5 points and Smith with 4 led the Phi Taus, while the Phi Delt scoring was divided among Karlson with 4 points, and Galda and Harris with 3 each.

Tompsett and Ken Ellison combined to beat the FarmHouse as each dropped in 3 points. For the losers, Dick Christian made 4 points, and Stan McEae 3 in addition to playing a good floor game.

Sigma Nu made a runaway of their game with Beta Kappa as Bob Ballard with 6 points and Mann and Twist with 4 each led the winners. For Beta Kappa, George Stelfjes and Will Seales combined to score 5 points.

Trojans Gird For Eaton Rapids

With three victories in four games racked up this season, East Lansing high school's cagers were preparing today to plunge into the heavy part of their 1940 schedule.

The Trojan basketball squad will meet Eaton Rapids on the road Tuesday night, seeking its fourth win. The Cardinals are undefeated thus far this season.

Coach, Curdy Shaver's, East Lansing five opened its 1940 campaign Tuesday night at Mason with an easy 22 to 9 victory. Starters for the Trojans were Roy Dyer, Jim Crozier, Tom King, Don Smith, and Ron Jean.

Former Spartan Stars at Wayne

Don Robb, who won his freshman numerals as a member of Michigan State's 1937-38 freshman basketball team, is doing nicely these days as a forward on the Wayne university quintet.

It will be interesting to observe what might happen when Don bumps up against some of his former teammates next month when the Spartans entertain the Tartars in Jensen field house.

Chet Aubuchon, Max Hindman, Bob Phillips, Bob Morris and Mel Peterson were also members of that undefeated yearling quintet.

Independents Play Tonight

Play in Michigan State's Independent men's basketball league will continue tonight with four games on the card in the gymnasium.

The card will get under way with Y.M.C.A. and U.P. Team at 7:15; Mary Mayo vs. Campbell, 7:55; Buffalo Bison vs. Black Hawks, 8:35; and Newman Club vs. Alpha Chi Sigma at 9:15.

The Independent league will play four games every Tuesday and Thursday with Monday games listed for January 22, February 5, and February 12.

OPEN PLAY
Opening play in the Independent circuit Tuesday night saw DZV establish itself as an early time favorite by trouncing the strong Volunteers, 17 to 7. Using a consistent attack throughout, the DZV five had no great difficulty with the Vols. Wyman Davis led the athletic organization with 6 points.

Wood Ticks piled up the most convincing margin of the evening by drubbing Bealton, 23 to 1. Every one of the Wood Tick cagers entered the scoring column.

The two other games on the program saw Evergreen Manor top the Eagles, 20 to 4, and Bakerboro turn back Langdon, 14 to 4. In the latter contest Jim Polvin and Harold Sampson each caged 6 points.

Fifty-six games are listed for the Independent cagers, with the playoffs slated to start February 27. Twenty-four teams are in the fold.

BOXING COACH BRICK BURHANS
wants to see any students interested in boxing in the 119 or 127-pound class.

Members of block 1 are Evergreen Manor, Eagle, Y.M.C.A., U.P. Team, Hamilton House, and Soomers; block 2, Bakerboro, Langdon Mary Mayo, Campbell, Abbot Manor, and Wildcat; block 3, DZV, Volunteers, Buffalo Bison, Black Hawks, Tigers and Carr's Kid; block 4, Bealton, Hillmen, Wood Ticks, Newman Club, Old Hall Aggies, and Alpha Chi Sigma.

According to latest reports Bob Phillips, dependable forward who was called home because of the death of his father, will rejoin the squad late this week, and will be on hand for the Marquette tie. Van Alstyne's chief worry is still over the condition of Max Hindman and Bob Morris, his two hospital cases.

Hindman was forced into action against Syracuse, and played a great game. However his leg has not come along as fast as desired and he is still limping. Hindman's arrival at top form is necessary if the Spartan machine is to be geared at high speed, both offensively and defensively.

In drafting any lineup in the future, an added factor that must be taken into consideration is the rapid rise of young Joe Gerard.

Gerard has topped the team in scoring the last two games, and his winning basket with seven seconds to play in the Syracuse game will be one of the individual high lights of the season. Even more important is his spirited driving.

Due to the lack of adequate time in which to whip his charges into condition, Coach King is not forecasting the outcome of tonight's game, nor is he attempting to pick in advance a starting lineup from the 50 candidates with which he has been working.

The fresh mentor plans to use from 15 to 25 players against the motor city quintet, in an attempt to get a look at a majority of his promising yearlings.

State Cagers Reach Half Way Mark

Spartan Face Marquette "5" Monday

By MARSHALL DANN

Wary and crippled from a seige of nine games in slightly more than three weeks, and still panting from that hair-raising fray with Syracuse Monday night, Michigan State's basketballers are paused at the halfway mark of their schedule for a comparatively long rest of seven days from collegiate cage wars.

The Spartans are not scheduled to go back into action until Marquette comes here next Monday at 7:15. Marquette, which has been a red hot rivalry that has consistently provided top-notch, furious battles for several years. On the following Saturday home fans will see vengeful State quintet gun against a top-flight Michigan team.

STILL PROBLEM
Although his injury problem is far from solved at the present, Coach Ben Van Alstyne can look back with considerable satisfaction upon a very respectable record registered by his crippled charges. The team has not been at full strength since Max Hindman was injured in the California game, but since that time State has won six and lost two.

Right now with a 7-27 average of eight triumphs in 11 starts, the cagers have one of the best mid-season marks a State team has ever possessed. However there are still nine games left to play, and every one of those games will be a major test. There is nothing of a set-up in such outfits as Marquette, Michigan, Long Island, Temple, Baltimore, Wisconsin, or Wayne.

According to latest reports Bob Phillips, dependable forward who was called home because of the death of his father, will rejoin the squad late this week, and will be on hand for the Marquette tie.

Van Alstyne's chief worry is still over the condition of Max Hindman and Bob Morris, his two hospital cases.

Hot Stove Confab Reveals Dizzy's Diamond Dope

By Bob Hatton

It may seem a bit early to bring baseball into the spotlight, but to the perennial Hot Stove league, chatter about the national pastime is never out of season. Being one of the hardest bench-warmers in the Hot Stove circuit, a second-guesser always welcomes an opportunity to dig in his spikes and hash over the diamond.

The other evening Paul "Dizzy" Trout, the enigma of the Detroit Tigers mound staff, arrived in town. "Dizzy" in the off-season a goodwill man for a Detroit firm, was only too glad to discuss the Tigers, the upcoming season, baseball in general, and of course—"Dizzy" Trout.

DISCUSS TIGERS
With the baseball world quivering at the threats of Judge Keneaw Mountain Leland to destroy the major-league relationship, talk easily drifted to the Tiger aspect of the affair.

Trout emphatically pointed out that had Leland intended to release a free agent declaration he would have done so before this Forty-five players holding Detroit contracts would have been released. The Colman-McCoy trade to Philadelphia for Wally Moses called back and the Detroit ball club wrecked. The decision, in the talkative pitcher's opinion, would have destroyed professional baseball.

Conversation then shifted into high gear and the Tiger prospects for the 1940 season got the once-over. A much stronger Tiger club will represent the Motor City this year, according to Trout.

The loose-armed flinger, who has become chief Yankee batter for DeBaker, says the Tiger will sprout new claws this spring that will put them in the thick of the pennant fight. A trade yet in the offing is one reason "Dizzy" claims his club will be on top once more. This swap would bring Cecil Travis and Kendall Chase from Washington in exchange for "Rapun Rudolph" York.

DEAL ON FIRE
Chase, an effective southpaw, would greatly strengthen the mound corps, and Travis would hold down the shortstop position. In the Dizzy one's opinion. The deal definitely will be completed before the campaign opens, he contends. Dick Bartell, recently obtained from the Cubs for Bill Rogell, will fill a utility role, Trout said.

The hard Indian also looks to Barney McCoskey for an even better year than he had in 1939, a return to form of Hank Greenberg, and heavier hitting by Percy Fox and Pinky Higgins. To bolster the Tiger power front and counts on a general improvement among the mound men.

Individual scoring summary for the first 11 games:

Abbot 10, Wells D 5, Tipmaster 8, Verberg 6, Applegate 2, Mason 4, Wells A 9, Wells B 15, Wells F 9, Lee 2, Pellerin 2, Vaughan 180, Shaver 22, Dyer 9, Crozier 9, King 9, Smith 9, Jean 9.

FLINT MEN'S CLUB HONORS
Pearce and Trosko

Flint, Jan. 11—Two senior grid-iron stars, Eddie Pearce of Michigan State and Fred Trosko of Michigan, were the honored guests at the Flint Men's club annual father and son banquet.

Both Pearce and Trosko were outstanding prep football players at Flint Northern before entering college. Clarence Munn of the Michigan football staff lauded Trosko, while showers of praise were heaped upon the diminutive Pearce by Joe Helsing, assistant Spartan coach.

Boxers Look Ahead to Tourne

The All-College boxing tournament is weeks away, the first dual meet of the year is even farther away, but the old Varsity club-room, converted into a ring, is filled nightly with boxers, getting into shape for the forthcoming fights.

Coach Brick Burhans has announced that the entry sheet for the All-College tournament has been posted in the gym, and will remain up until January 20, when pairings will be made. Although the preliminary bouts will not start until January 22 or 23, more than 20 aspiring champs have already signed up.

Along with the tournament men, the varsity squad is working out regularly, and with the exception of some of the lighter weights there is plenty of competition. Captain Clint Broadwood leads off at 135 pounds although he will have to account for Harvey Trombley who showed up well in some exhibition fights and in the tournament last year.

Ernie Dunn, with a year's experience behind him, is the standing candidate at heavyweight. Bill Johnson, 240-pounder, won the tournament last year also fighting in the preliminary vision. Howard Fritz, light flyweight, will probably fight at the 175-pound spot although it is a possibility that former Don Rossi may participate.

Joe Cestowski, 140-pounder, is all by himself at spot. Carl Thompson, who is undefeated throughout the season has the inside track at middleweight division.

Tony Itzardi has been negotiating between the 145 and 145-pound divisions. This season starts he will probably settle down at one weight or the other and concentrate on the competition which ever he chooses. Herb Sayers, who has "quarred" his eligibility by standing a good chance of being out Don Wagner for the weight slot.
