President's Wife Is Also Writer

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, described as leading lady in national affairs, will speak to students and townspeople Tuesday at 8 p. m. in college auditorium.

Called by some persons "most influential of first ladies," Mrs. Roosevelt will discuss "Relation of the Individual to the Community." Her investigations of social conditions have equipped Mrs. Roosevelt with material to discuss the individual's capacity as a member of his community and his responsibility to society.

MAN PRESS CONFERENCE

Mrs. Roosevelt will be met at the Grand Trunk station in Lansing at 7:17 p. m. today by Pres. and Mrs. R. S. Shaw, Secretary and Mrs. J. A. Hannah, Prof. and Mrs. C. P. Halligan, and Prof. S. C. Crowe. They will escort her to the Olds hotel.

Varsity Ball Tickets Will Go on Sale

Tickets for the Varsity ball, semi-formal dance slated for April 5, will go on sale Thursday from Varsity club members, George Owen, club secretary, announced yesterday.

Featuring Joe Sanders, "the Old Left-hander," the dance will be held in the new Jensen gymnasium. Sanders, who was here last year for the senior ball, comes from the Blackhawk restaurant in Chicago, where he plays nightly over a nation-wide radio network.

ACTIVE WRITER

Besides presiding at traditional social functions as hostess of the White House, Mrs. Roosevelt has written her autobiography, "This My Story," and writes "My Day," a daily syndicated newspaper column.

Writing her views on international and national affairs as well as her home life, she has caught to her readers a picture of America as seen through the eyes of an American woman.

SECOND ROOSEVELT HERE

Mrs. Roosevelt will be the second Roosevelt to visit Michigan college campus. Theodore Roosevelt, then president of the United States, came here in 1907 to the 50th anniversary of the opening of the college.

Her lecture engagements, her visits to homes of her children and other varied interests take her all parts of the country where she has personal contact, study and inspiration, she keeps her hand on the pulse of national affairs.

PRACTICES CONCENTRATION

Mrs. Roosevelt's ability to lead a life is explained by her saying that she is able to be able to concentrate on one thing at a time when she goes on to the next.

She has the habit of standing alone sitting, whenever feasible, since this tends to induce vitality and leave her when her business is over, in stead of remaining aimless.

Mrs. Roosevelt fills between 30 and 40 lecture engagements each week, often speaking as many as five or six times in one week. Her talk here concludes winter lecture course activity.

Laundry or formal shirts is no matter of expense to Sammy Ytter, no matter how many formals he attends. He solves the problem by not laundering them. Fortunately, his fraternity brothers have enough shirts that his party attendance is not restricted.

During the J.H.P. and again during the Soph. picnic, Sammy boldly trotted up to the stage and stood on top while the songstress penciled her signature across the starched front of Sammy's buttoned shirt.

After the party, each shirt took its place with other relics on the wall of Sammy's room.

Right Number

Glenn Lewis, Esplanade sophomore, came home one night last week-end and found a note containing a telephone number and directions to "ask for Bob."

Somewhat puzzled when a woman answered his call, Glenn "asked for Bob" and got him. It was Pres. Robert S. Shaw.

Emergency

Found! A new use for the emergency bell at the hospital. The other night, a charitable friend of Midge Pyper decided to take pity on her plight of being confined to the hospital for two weeks. The only trouble was that the good impulse came quite late in the evening.

This was a small obstacle soon overcome by going around to the back, dyed a matching blue, and the emergency bell. When the attendant answered the door ready for a broken neck case, she was greeted by an outburst and "Would you give this ice cream to Midge Pyper, please?" It's melting.

Rings Bell

Posted on the bulletin board of South Campbell hall is a notice that in case Mrs. Roosevelt pays a visit to the dorm, rooms should be in order and doors left partly open to reflect the friendly attitude of the campus. Commented one dorm resident: "Exactly how wide open is a friendly open door?"

Gunny Gunther wanted new blue slippers to match her formal, but her pocketbook said no. So she decided the solution was to dye the old dancing slippers the desired color. Each saving would result, she thought, by having the work done "at home" and they do repair work dirt cheap.

The slippers came back, dyed a matching blue, and Gunny went to the party. But when she came home at 1 a. m. and removed her shoes, she was just as surprised as her roommates to find that her feet were colored not blue, but a lurid green.

Surprise!

Secret inhibitions of a Spartan footballer were revealed when Jerry Drake put on a Tarzan act at the Blue Key old clothes party at the forestry cabin Saturday night. Spraying a mouse in a corner, Drake grabbed a piece of firewood and dashed in hot pursuit. After bumping into several pieces of furniture, Drake's club finally brought the little animal to rest. Then followed a plovering jungle cry of victory, as Drake announced his conquest.

Direct Facts

Have you any idea what names starting with the same letter appear the greatest number of times in the student directory?

According to a recent count the letter "B" appears 700 times and the letter "S" runs second with 679 names.

Can Add Seats For Talks; Cut Outside Sales

If the new college auditorium's present seating capacity of 5,000 proves insufficient, 500 to 700 chairs can be added for Mrs. Roosevelt's lecture tonight, Secretary J. A. Hannah announced yesterday.

Sale of tickets to outsiders has been limited to 1,000, with the rest reserved for student admission. Should student attendance at the lecture be low, outside sales for future events will probably be unlimited, Hannah said.

A limited number of general admission tickets to Mrs. Roosevelt's lecture will be on sale at the auditorium box office tonight, it was announced yesterday.

Peace Speech Winners Are Selected

Larry Ball, Al Mangan, and Ralph Nash won first, second, and third places in a peace oratorical contest held Monday night in Little Theatre.

In the order of their ranking, titles of their talks were: "Pre-lude to War," "No Foreign Entanglements," and "Let Us Prepare for Peace."

Judges were R. V. Holland, W. F. Luck, J. D. Menchofer, and P. D. Bagwell, all members of speech department.

Winner of these three will represent Michigan State at Albion in the state peace oratorical contest to be held April 15.

At the national Pi Kappa Delta oratorical meet, March 22-April 1, Michigan State will be represented by Larry Ball.

The city of Chicago, regularly furnishes a boat on which the students travel along the Chicago river in order to study the many bridges, pointing the river more closely. Main water supply intake for the city will also be studied, says Allan.

L. A. Smith, assistant professor of civil engineering, will be in charge of the trip, which is to last one week.

Prof. L. S. Feltz, head of the electrical engineering department, will represent M. S. C. at the conference, and will serve as a section chairman.

Police Search For MSC Student's Rare Violin

A 100-year-old Guarneri violin, estimated by the owner to be worth $225, was stolen from the office of the music practice building between the hours of 10 p. m. Thursday evening, when the building doors and 4 p. m. Friday, at which time Rachel Friedlund, owner of the instrument, discovered its loss.

According to Miss Friedlund, a Liberal Arts sophomore, search parties in other states as well as Michigan are being watched by police in case the thief attempts to dispose of the violin in that manner.

A Distinguished Visitor Is Here

Tonight the most popular woman of the nation will be the guest of Michigan State college.

In past years Mrs. Roosevelt has appeared before groups from every rank. She has met rulers from various nations, she has journeyed through mines, she has spoken to thousands.

According to plans, her talk is not to be political, and those attending her lecture tonight should not expect to hear propaganda for the president's party hidden among the lines. The message she will bring to the college will be one above politics. It should not be regarded as political.

At this college she will go to address other institutions. The respect and good fellowship shown here will be transmitted to other ears. It will be to the advantage of Michigan State college to show itself as the friendly college it professes to be. If it shows that friendly, hospitable feeling to the First Lady of the Land, it will be indirectly showing it to thousands of others.

Students at Fault... Coons

In a recent discussion with the East Lansing City council, Harry C. Coons, deputy state highway commissioner, compared student pedestrians with chickens.

"Even chickens of the 1940 generation have learned not to get in the path of automobiles on highways," Coons asserted.

Accordingly students here in East Lansing have not learned the lesson of the common chick—to stay out of the way of a speeding automobile.

Mr. Coons, in respect to the traffic tangle on Grand River avenue, seems to be inclined toward "wishful thinking." To him, students are responsible for traffic conditions. Automobiles which speed through East Lansing are minor factors.

One thing can be said in defense of students: How can students cross properly at Grand River at Abbot road, if automobiles are allowed to park beyond the proper point?

Regardless whether or not Mr. Coons is correct in his chicken analogy—the situation has to be considered as it is. Six thousand students are crossing the streets several times each day, creating an unusual problem. Automobile drivers must take added precaution in proceeding through East Lansing.

Too, students can be educated as to how to cross the streets, and if given the proper cooperation by traffic lights and signs, they should alleviate traffic conditions.

Some Non-Seniors May Attend

Next term, during the marriage lectures, some students other than seniors will be allowed to attend if they apply for special permission.

Limitation for seniors was made because of space shortage. Because seniors are nearest graduation and assumedly nearest marriage, it was only natural that they be given first choice.

However, it was realized that others may have legitimate reasons for wishing to attend. Those may apply in writing to the marriage lecture board, in care of Becky Lord, 548 M. A. C.

The application system is used mostly as a check to keep down too large a group of non-seniors from possibly crowding out seniors.

The board will not be over-stringent or unfair in granting permission, and non-seniors who would do better by attending this year than next, will be allowed to go.

WASHINGTON, March 11—Friends of Dapper Stewart McDonald are wondering just how long he can continue as head of the Federal Housing Administration and, simultaneously, chairman of the board of the Maryland Casualty company.

He was given the latter job by his close friend, Jesse Jones, after the RFC bailed out the Maryland Casualty company.

This Collegiate World

by Associated Collegiate Press

This is not a trend-of-the-times note, but we believe you should keep informed on such matters just the same. Five students of Young Harris college have been expelled for leading a strike to have a no-hand-tolding ruling rescinded by the faculty.

Said college's president after the action: "This is one institution where the faculty will not brook Bolshevism."

Times have changed note: Back in the 1899 rules of Hampden-Sydney college, we find "the students of the college prohibited from attending, or by any means being seen at any dives, saloons or any other place where sporting or games are carried on."

Wonder if Chicago's President Hutchins has the same idea?

For him simultaneously to hold the major job of Federal Housing Administrator snacks of the Republican practice so frequently and loudly denounced by the Democrats—namely, putting big business moguls in key government jobs.

Note: Stewart McDonald also was boosted by Jesse Jones as emergency executive of Associated Gas and Electric just before it went into bankruptcy. Now he's an ardent booster of Jones for president.

VANDENBERG'S JAPS

Senator Vandenberg privately is so uneasy over the unfavorable effect upon his presidential campaign of his clamor for aggressive action against Japan that he summoned his regional managers to Washington for a secret pow-wow. Their advice was that he should soft pedal the issue for two reasons:

1. The inconsistency, to the public, of his denouncing Roosevelt's repeal of the arms embargo as a war move, and at the same time demanding a war-like policy toward Japan; and (2) complaints by GOP leaders that Vandenberg played into the hands of the Democrats by diverting public attention away from domestic affairs and focusing it on international problems.

Republican strategists have pointed out that the one thing the Democrats want is to wage the campaign on the administration's international policies. Many prominent Republicans and big contributors have publicly supported New Deal foreign measures.

The managers also reported that in the coastal states, where Vandenberg is weakest, there is much public opposition to his "Let's get 'em" stand on the Japanese. No final conclusion was reached at the conference, but Vandenberg has since been silent about Far Eastern affairs.

Note: The consensus of opinion at the meeting was in favor of entering Vandenberg in more state primaries in opposition to Dewey. Most of the managers reported that the New Yorker, despite his lead in popular polls, was losing ground with local GOP leaders and newspapermen.

This Is Yours—

From Elizabeth Yeager

Hello again... Our thanks to Dave Tefft for covering the entertainment front for us during the past few weeks.

Two speakers of note will be in town this week, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who will speak to State students this evening in the college auditorium, thus concluding this term's lecture course, and H. V. Kaltenborn, radio commentator on world affairs, who will talk Thursday evening in West junior auditorium on the Town Hall series.

When you come back next term you can look forward to an eventful first and second week if you try to take in everything that comes along. Opening March 25 in Demonstration Hall for a six-day run is the annual Hospitaler circus, and we know from other years that that means fun. Then during the same week, on March 28, 29, and 30, the Lansing Civic Guild will present "Outward Bound." It's a good play, and one which has had a successful revival on Broadway this past season; we'll venture that the Guild's production of it will likewise be a success.

Remember our mention some time ago of the Paul Muni show, "Key Largo," coming to the Cass in Detroit for a week beginning March 25? Well, this is just a reminder, because it'll be worth taking in.

But for the event of events, watch for the opening of Michigan State's own legitimate theater the second week of spring term when the Maxwell Anderson show, "High Tor," goes on the boards with an all-college cast.

Until then, here's a little questionable advice that came our way recently... you might take it for what it's worth... "Remember to work real hard, take on more than you can handle, and you only have to hang on half as long..." (Cherio...)

Jerry-meandering

with Jerry Dewar

A slightly confused columnist on the Auburn Plainsman from the college with the name of the first part of the previous named (do ya follow me) misinterpreted a cartoon in Esquire referring to Auburn. A slightly irritated student wrote the editor a letter and this is what he said:

"Dear editor: Please have Dr. Martin (the columnist) read his directory of prisons and penal institutions. When he peruses this publication he will find that 'Auburn' referred to in the Esquire cartoon as State Prison of New York."

The Auburn boys shouldn't feel so bad about that after all. Look at all the adverse publicity we receive here at State when some crack-pot journalist from some other publication calls us the Michigan university, or when the fans stand up in the stadium and salute the State football team with "Hail to the Victors."

I a little bit INDEPENDENT

By TOM GREENE

After being presented to students free of charge for eleven weeks through the auspices of the Independent Men's league, Kam-pus Kapers joins the ranks of professional shows when the troupe journeys to Marshall, March 27, for a one-night appearance at the Garden theater. The entire cast will make the trip and entirely different shows will be put on at two evening performances.

Choosing the most successful scenes to the history of Kam-pus Kapers, Director L. B. Barnhart hopes to back road appearances for the show every Saturday night spring term.

Another overflow audience was on hand for the final show Saturday and witnessed one of the best of the good programs which have been responsible for the success of the venture. Among the regular performers who turned in their usually superlative jobs were: M. C. Jon Rovick, Vocalists Marty Vin and Bill Sydenstricker, and Announcer Jack Callaghan.

Specialties were by the trio of Alfreeda McKansie, Janet Miller, and Marie Ben, who have finally been named the "Melody Girls," and by Ari Howland and his men, especially an "Yankee Special" with Vince Nauve at the piano.

Last I. M. L. council meeting of the term will be tonight at 7 p. m. in Organization room 2 of the Union.

Louisiana State university authorities recently had to publish the names of 35 students who had neglected to collect wages due them for NYA work.

No Single Squad Places More Than One Player On Either Honor Five

Team Balance Is Feature Of Frat League

By BOB MCKELLAR

With intramural basketball all but completed on Michigan State's campus, the State News today releases its annual Fraternity league all-star team. Exceptional team balance, especially among the four block winners, prevented more than one player from a single aggregation gaining a place on the honor team.

From the champion Delta Sigma Phi team Harry Gardner has been chosen to play a forward on the mythical team. Gardner was the spark of the scrappy Delta Sigs, both on offense and defense. It was he who intercepted a Sigma Nu pass in the last 30 seconds of the semi-final game to score the winning point and send the Delta Sigs into the finals.

Christy Blough of Lambda Chi Alpha, a center in league play, has been shifted to forward on the honorary five. Blough, a three-

Dormitory Quintet Shows Versatile Cage Stars

By WARDE BOWER

With another dormitory basketball season closed, the State News sports staff, with the aid of intramural officials, chooses the outstanding performers in presenting an all-star basketball team.

One of the closest competitive seasons on record, running into two nights of extra games, found members of the first team well distributed among various precincts.

Dormitory champion, Mason 1, only managed to place one man on the first string. Players from two block championship teams from Wells hall also rated an all-star position. Remaining basketballers came from teams which rated high in block competition, although lacking team play of champions.

Forward positions are filled by Les VonEberstein and Don Pedgine. VonEberstein holds his place by virtue of his sparkling play under all conditions. Pedgine has an accurate eye for the basket which, coupled with his speed, accounted for his season's record.

KERR ACCURATE

Tail, veritable Bob Kerr of Wells E is given the position as center and honorary captain because of his superior basketball strategy. Kerr is practically "dead" on his shots and keeps opponents constantly off balance with his deceptive ball handling.

Located at guards are "Back" Crothwaite, of the Mason 1 championship team, and Dick Kieppe, who played for Wells E. On many occasions Crothwaite proved himself to be the power which provided the extra margin and eventually the championship.

He possesses remarkable ability to sense an ideal "set up" from which to start a scoring play. Kieppe, although in guard position, consistently found the hoop for points, while on defense he provided a steadfast barrier to opponents.

Members of the second team were kept from first string recognition only by repeated spectacular play of all-star men.

Fraternity Tank Tournament Opens With Eclectic Ahead

Michigan State's annual interfraternity swimming meet was to continue at 5:15 in college pool today with the entire program devoted to diving. The intramural tank affair will finish with three final events starting at 5:15 Wednesday afternoon.

Contestants in the diving events today will be required to execute four dives. These are the front dive, back dive, front jack-knife, and one choice of all optionals. Wednesday's card will be composed of the 60-yard backstroke, 90 yard free style, and 180-yard medley relay events.

The end of opening day competition Monday saw Eclectic on top with 13 points while Hesperian trailed closely with 11. Further back of the leaders, in third place, was Alpha Gamma Rho with 5 1/2 points.

ELECTIC WINS TWO

Three events comprised Monday afternoon's bill and Eclectic triumphed in two of these, the 50 yard free style and 120-yard free style relay. Bill Moon won the first event for the Ties with a 2:11 mark. The Eclectic relay quartet of Doug Sutherland, Jim Thorburn, Bill Meyers, and Moon took that event in 1:02.3.

Bill Weir gained Hesperian's first in the 60 yard breast stroke when he swam the distance in 1:40 even. Hesperian's quartet also gained a second in the 120-yard free style relay. Following are summaries and team totals:

50 yard free style: First, Moon, Eclectic; second, Thorburn, Delta Sigma Phi; third, Sutherland, Alpha Epsilon Pi; fourth, Jackson, Sigma Nu; fifth, Gamma Rho; sixth, Sigma Nu; seventh, Time 2:11.

Mason One Blocks Way To Crown

Independents Win Tenth by Outlasting Frat Title Quintet

By MARSHALL DANN

Only a victory over Mason 1 Wednesday night stands between DZV and the all-college basketball crown, its fourth straight college title in all sports and the completion of an undefeated year in campus intramural competition.

The DZV's advanced into the finals of the 1940 playoffs by handily trimming Sigma Delta Phi, in interfraternity champions, 31 to 14 Monday night on the gymnasium floor. It was the tenth consecutive intramural basketball victory for DZV, and the first setback in seven starts for the Delta Sigs.

The tourney final between DZV, independent league champs, and Mason, inter-dorm winner, which drew a first round bye, is carded for 8:30 p. m. Wednesday on the gym floor. By winning that game, DZV can complete a round of victories that started with the softball championship last spring. Since then, DZV has won the summer school softball tourney and the fall term touch football title.

DZV GETS SCARE

In spite of the one-sided score registered over the Delta Sigs last night, the DZV's were given a scare during the first half. Baskets by George Schieve and Keith Morley gave the frat lads a 4-1 lead in the first quarter. However, DZV, on a pair of goals by Frank Burrows and one by Les Bruckner, pulled ahead 8-7 as the half ended.

From the start of the second half DZV hit the form that has made it the most feared outfit in intramural play, and an 11-field goal spurge that was sparked by Willie Davis and Ernie Bremer pulled them far out in front. Thirteen points in the third quarter sewed up the decision.

Willie Davis collected 10 points, all in the second half, to win top scoring honors, while Bremer and Burrows of DZV and Morley of the Delta Sigs each gathered six tallies. Harry Gardner's floor play was outstanding for the frat five.

inches with Leonas of Notre Dame and McDowell of Pitt.

The Spartan relay of Warren Corley, Connie Macon, Cleon Smith, and Danny Rosenbaum came in for a point and pole vaulters Pete Hawley, Starr Kessler and Bruce Dryden were in a tie for fifth with Gaynier of Michigan Normal.

Ring Team Eyes National Meet

With a none too successful season of intercollegiate boxing behind them, Michigan State's boxing squad is taking light workouts this week to keep in trim for the National Collegiate matches in April.

The Spartans failed in their final quest for victory Saturday when a strong West Virginia team handed them a 6-2 setback in Morgantown, West Virginia.

Only State winners in the 165-pounder were Herbie Zander, 120-pounder, who scored a technical knockout when his opponent failed to return for the second round, and reliable Joe Cestowski, who battered out another win in the 165-pound class.
