Look, They're Human Too!

The hatchet is not exactly buried as yet, but it should be a little bit removed from too close proximity to anxious scalps as the result of a friendly gesture made yesterday.

The gesture was, of course, the coffee hour sponsored for Independent Students association by Interfraternity and PanHellenic councils. It is a fine thing for such official organizations to realize at last that there is no fence between Greeks and Independents.

Better acquaintance between the two groups should go far to settle many campus problems that will never be ironed out by partisan politics. A close examination would probably reveal that, up until election time at least, the two bodies are working for the same goals.

Further examination might disclose that even in the heat of a bitter campaign the objectives of both are nearly the same. The State News doesn't expect to see any coalition between Greeks and Independents in the near future, but it does hope to see continued willingness to mingle and talk things over.

No Time for Comedy

College students have long had an inalienable right to pranks and stunts. That is one of the reasons some of the more reactionary of the older generation look down their noses at Joe College and his activities.

Nevertheless, students are willing to stand a certain share of disapprobation, agreeing that the "screwball stuff" perpetrated by the more uninhibited undergraduates is definitely a part of college life.

Admitting this, it should still be pointed out that there are some seemingly harmless actions which can have violent repercussions. The recent case of two students parading in Lansing with a swastika flag might have been one of these.

Planned merely as a friendly bet, the "demonstration" was treated as a joke, fortunately for all concerned. The danger lay in the fact that the college was involved and since it is a state-supported institution a garbled account of the affair could well result in bad public relations.

Fun is fun, but in these days of propaganda and counter-propaganda there are some subjects which are not well-chosen for joking.

Unanswered Question

An interpretation of American attitude toward the war that should make one stop and think was given by Prof. M. M. Knappen in the first of a series of lectures on the war this week.

Knappen's idea is that while Americans are now aligned in sympathy with Britain, they are no longer the starry-eyed idealists of the days of World War I. Knappen sees signs that the United States is inclining toward imperialism and is taking over the place of Britain in maintaining "order" in the world.

It is true that America has benefited most from the war thus far. Yankee hardheadedness seems to be reappearing as citizens ask what security they have for money and arms given Britain. A question still remains: If the United States has finally assumed a practical viewpoint, why does it continue this steady slide toward the brink of war?

Parade of Opinion

By Associated Collegiate Press
What Other College Students Think on Timely Topics

CAA—
"It would be bad," quips the Daily Texan, "if some of these CAA boys flunked a test, especially at 10,000 feet." In more serious vein, there's a deal of pro-and-conning these days on American campus about the merits of the federal government's flight training program for college students. Some flight training program for college students. Some flight training program for college students. Some flight training program for college students.

The Tulane Hullabaloo does neither, but it raises some pertinent questions: "Are the institutions of higher learning serving their broad purposes in following the narrow aims of this enterprise? Or should they protect their supporters from such exploitation? And are they making their best contribution to peace by becoming cogs in the program to prepare youth for war?" Similar questions are raised by the Lenoir Rhyne college.

Say It's Military

Charging "they call it the CIVIL aeronautics authority," the Daily Northwestern advises undergraduates as follows: "We neither recommend that you sign up for the program nor that you shun it absolutely. We ask you only to recognize that you are, in effect, signing up for training in the military air force of the nation. Be under no delusion that this is simply an easy and cheap way to learn to fly with no strings attached. It isn't."

It would appear from an Associated Collegiate Press survey that the pros outnumber the cons. Here are typical arguments of the former:

Cornell Daily Sun: "Actually the CAA is not concerned with developing military pilots. It is training thousands of civilians who some day may want to own their own planes, or fly just for the pleasure and convenience of it. It is very likely that never again will students have an opportunity to learn to fly under such ideal conditions."

Will Arouse Interest

Michigan State News: "Turning out of crack pilots may have been the original purpose of the CAA courses. But it is in the sideline of arousing public interest that the program is really going to click. Enormous strengthening of the country's aerial defense is vital. Public understanding of the aims and realization of the needs for such a move will remove the biggest stumbling block that defense heads might encounter. CAA flying schools are already supplying much of that understanding and realization."

The Aquinas, University of Scranton, feels "that the benefits are obvious. For $25 the student is given training valued at well over $400. Fear that students would be edged into the army after completion of the course has been shown to be false by experience of the students who are now licensed pilots."

It Is Democratic

The Kentucky Kernel: "CAA is perhaps the best method available for building a sound foundation for the army's air men. There certainly is no method more democratic than that of CAA. With aviation apparently destined to play so large a role in the world's future, it is essential that some agency assume the responsibility of training youth for that future. And since aviation necessarily demands intelligence, and since intelligent youth are most highly concentrated on the campuses of the nation, it seems only just that the universities take the lead in schooling future pilots."

WASHINGTON
MERRY GO ROUND
(Trade Mark Reg.)
By
Drew Pearson and
Robert S. Allen

(Copyright, 1940, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON—When Margaret Russell was being escorted to the railroad station after rising in the gallery of the House of Representatives wearing a death mask, she suddenly confided to Capitol police that she had forgotten her coat.

The coat, it developed, had been left in the office of Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, vigorous opponent of the lend-lease bill. Miss Russell had gone to Wheeler's office, hung up her coat and then put on the black robe in which she gave her death chant against the lend-lease bill.

So police took her back to Wheeler's office, where she got her coat and then caught the train.

BRITAIN LACKS SHIPS

A few days ago the United States Lines announced that their Panamanian subsidiary was selling five small, slow, 20-year-old freighters to England for the purpose of carrying war supplies. To insiders this graphically illustrated the desperate predicament of British shipping.

The problem is particularly acute in the transport of planes—these five ships were especially chartered to carry.

Officials are not shouting it from the housetops, but the grim reality is that Britain today is not getting warplanes made in the U. S. but getting them in the hands of the heroic RAF in the face of heavy Nazi raids on British shipping.

Britain now has on order approximately 16,000 planes, with another 12,000 contemplated, nearly all medium and heavy bombers. Of the 16,000 ordered, only around 2,000 actually have left U. S. borders—and not all of them reached England. Many of the exact number is an official secret. They are still in Canada awaiting shipment.

WILL PRESENT PROBLEM

Which adds up to this: If Britain is to get the 14,000 planes

1941 ARMY IS DIFFERENT

In 1917 the U. S. army did not have one machine gun at the beginning of the war and did not have tanks until the war was almost over. So it looks as if the modern doughboy would be equipped to handle himself even more effectively than the doughboy of 1917-18.

LEAVES FOR DUTY

Jeff Gough, 40, Phi Tau, visited the home last week prior to his assignment to active duty with the armored corps at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Margaret Andre, Alpha Gamma, is not only the sweetheart of Blue Key, but also the daughter of the Delta Delta Sigma. The Delta Delta Sigma are tossing a novelty radio party at the house Friday evening.

LIST NEW PLEDGES

Henry Knapp, Buchanan, and Bill Mahoney, Grand Rapids, were pledged to Beta Zeta of Theta Chi. Betty Streeter, Middleville; Lois Quinn, Detroit; Jane Ann Sutherland, Detroit; Rae Annette Loeffler, Detroit; Virginia Moore, Detroit; Jean Stack, East Lansing; and Betty Lou Mitchell, Lapeer, are the Phi Kappa Tau and the Kappa Psi held an exchange dinner last night.

GUESTS TO BRING RECORDS

Something new in radio parties will be put into effect Friday night at the Zeta Tau Alpha house. Each couple will bring a new record for the vic. Chapters will be Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hampton. Four men were formally initiated into AEP recently. Adelaide Du Bois, Alpha Gamma, is wearing a FarmHouse pin from Lieut. James Kelly, who graduated from State last June.

Willkie Fights for Aid Bill; Europe Eyes Conference

As the Senate prepares to give the lend-lease bill, already approved by the House, a thorough working over, members of the Senate foreign affairs committee are mulling over testimony given Tuesday by Wendell Willkie.

The self-appointed Republican standard bearer, who went to London for first-hand investigation of the British war effort, told the committee that the United States would be at war within a month or two after a British defeat. Aid for Britain as proposed in the bill is necessary for a British victory, he said, but he also suggested limitations in the present scope of the measure.

All American bombing planes not needed for training should be sent to Britain, along with five to 10 destroyers a month, Willkie believes. Willkie showed flashes of campaign days fire in defending the lend bill against opponents at the hearing.

EUROPE WATCHES CONFAB

All Europe watched with anxiety a conference said to have taken place some time yesterday between Gen. Francisco Franco, Spanish dictator, and Benito Mussolini, Marshall Philippe Petain may have been a third party in such a conference or one with Franco, who was to have passed through France in the company of his brother-in-law, Ramon Suner, the Spanish foreign minister.

REPUBLICANS CAN'T AGREE

Republican Senator Bridges of New Hampshire has been opposed to Roosevelt on almost every New Deal measure before congress. But on the lend-lease bill, much to the consternation of certain GOP colleagues, he is not.

Hearing this, isolationist Senators Taft and Vandenberg dropped around to see Bridges and try to convert him.

"Why didn't you go with Willkie on his trip to London?" one of them jibed. "You're no good to us here."

'41 Catalogs Tried And Found Lasting Registrar Reveals

For the first time since 1933 the demand for college catalogues has failed to exceed the supply at the registrar's office.

In fact, it was revealed yesterday, there are so many 1940-'41 catalogues still on hand that the total number of '41-'42 catalogues, first proofs of which have just been received, is to be reduced from the usual 20,000 to 17,500.

The new catalogue, which was approved by the Board of Agriculture at its January meeting will contain minor changes in rules, regulations and curriculum. It is expected to be ready for publication by April 1.

COUNCIL

(Continued from Page 1) with a party being placed on the ballot by a petition signed by 300 students. John Lacey, Interfraternity council president, the moved an amendment which was passed, providing that the resolution if passed should not go into effect until spring elections. The whole resolution was then tabled for further consideration by a committee to be appointed by Council President Dick Greening.

Gourdie also reported on a third recommendation which was defeated by a 4-3 vote of his committee to set up voting booths in the dormitories and the Union. Student council made no final decision on location of the polling places, but plans are being worked out to have machines in Olds Hall, Vet clinic, Ag hall, Home Economics building, and the Union, as was done for the poll on the corgage amendment.

In an effort to bring out a higher vote from Liberal Arts and Applied Science students, arrangements are under way to secure a more conspicuous location in the Union building for the voting machines which these groups will use.

Further action on elections will be taken at next week's open council meeting Wednesday at 5 p. m. in the Spartan room of the Union.

Legion to Conduct Registration Day

The local post of the American Legion, in connection with the program of the National American Legion, has designated Saturday, Feb. 22 as National Defense Registration day. It was announced by Commander C. R. Crozier Tuesday.

This program may affect many faculty members since it is a voluntary registration for possible defense service in case of national emergency. A questionnaire will be sent to all members of the post and all non-affiliated ex-service men may get their questionnaire at the city hall.

This registration, being carried out throughout the United States, is for the purpose of making available an inventory of the manpower of the American Legion.

Library Ranks High In Book Circulation

Michigan State college placed second in competition with 50 other institutions in the number of library books circulated both for home use and for assigned reading. Miss Ruth McKinley, circulation librarian, announced yesterday.

According to a report for the year 1940 just released by the American Library association, M. S. C. stood well above the half-way mark for 50 college and university libraries in charging out 229,000 books last year. "This was an increase of 13 per cent over 1939," Miss McKinley said, "and 57 per cent more than in 1935."

Applied Science division students led all others by checking out 18,000 of the total of 68,000 volumes charged for use in the library. The largest number of books circulated for use at home, 12,759, was in the field of literature.

Poll Shows Students Want Data On Isms In Order to Preserve U. S. Democracy

American universities and colleges must teach the youth of the nation the facts and danger behind the current crop of "isms," if democracy is to survive in this country. Such is the opinion of a two-thirds majority of collegians polled by Student Opinion Surveys of America.

Demands have in past years often arisen to the effect that colleges should stop teaching governmental ideologies other than the democratic, but results of the survey show students to be in accord with prominent educators in agreeing that the facts should be presented.

Action! From the Women's Angle

With Tower Guard working on a wall plaque and Home Economics women planning their cherry tart sale, Michigan State women will not be bothered this week by a slackening in any of their usual activities.

Undefeated Matmen Leave On Southwestern Jaunt

Grapplers to Meet Nebraska Friday

Facing three crucial 1941 tests, Fendley Collins and his undefeated Michigan State college wrestlers will entrain for their western trip today at 4:20 p. m.

As they leave, the Spartans are carrying with them an undefeated record in five matches this season, but to maintain this mark, the Oklahoma-tainted grapplers will have to defeat the wrestling cream of the mid and southwest, Nebraska, Kansas State and, especially, Oklahoma A. and M.

Tomorrow night at Lincoln, Neb., the State matmen will open their seven-day personal appearance tour when they meet the University of Nebraska. Saturday, the wandering matmen clash with Kansas State university, at Manhattan, Kan., and Tuesday night they will close their tour with the all-important match with Oklahoma A. and M. at Stillwater.

SUBMIT NEBRASKA
Tomorrow's meeting with Nebraska will be the second time in history that the Spartans have tangled with the Cornhuskers. Collins' matmen defeated the midwesterners 26-6 in the Jensen fieldhouse without too much trouble last year and, although little is known of the 1941 Cornhusker mat edition, Friday's engagement is expected to be the easiest of the week's matches. The Cornhuskers were defeated 22-6 by Iowa in their only match of the season.

SPARTANS FORESEE TROUBLE
Saturday's clash with Kansas State is expected to provide more trouble for the Spartans, however, since the Manhattan force won the Big Six championship in 1940. Despite the fact that they got away to a bad start and held a split record of five wins as against as many defeats, the Kansas grapplers have grown stronger as the season has progressed.

Besides Collins and Manager William Freiburger, "Cut" Jennings, "Bo" Jennings, Leland Merrill, Bill Maxwell, Bennie Riggs, Dave Pletz, Charlie Hutson, Mike Dendinos and Bob Jacob will make the trip.

As a result of the tournament play Tuesday night, the standings are as follows:

	Won	Lost
Et Ceteras	4	0
Wild Cats	4	0
Slippery Slickers	3	1
Hoosier Hooties	3	1
Allice Cowles	2	2
South Williams	1	2
Team 1	1	2
44 Majors	1	3
East Mayo	0	3
G. & G.s	0	4

In the remaining game of the evening the 44 Majors won by default from East Mayo.

As a result of the tournament play Tuesday night, the standings are as follows:

	Won	Lost
Et Ceteras	4	0
Wild Cats	4	0
Slippery Slickers	3	1
Hoosier Hooties	3	1
Allice Cowles	2	2
South Williams	1	2
Team 1	1	2
44 Majors	1	3
East Mayo	0	3
G. & G.s	0	4

Women to Start Badminton Play

A badminton ladder tournament scheduled to run to March 1, was announced yesterday by manager Thelma Kleinhen. Fourteen coeds have been placed, but added entries may still be made.

In the following list, any entrant may challenge one of three names above her own. Contestants must make their own playing arrangements. In the order drawn are: Betty Walter, Dorothy Campbell, Margaret Broose, Madeline Whitmore, Betty Bushnell, Elinor Sims, Betty Vaughn, Eleanor Moser, Beth Hack, Peg Hazelton, Elaine Andros, Marian Amsbaugh, Annabelle Pink and Helen Waldron.

Experiments in the University of Illinois college of medicine may produce a means to combat severe gas pains that follow surgical operations.

Intramural FLASHES

By Hal Schram

Something new in the way of fraternity bowling is on deck at the Rainbow Recreation alley this afternoon at 4 o'clock. An all-star aggregation from Michigan State's fraternity bowling league will roll against Gonzaga university of Spokane, Wash., in a telegraphic meet.

A crack five-man team selected from the fraternity leagues of both schools will begin bowling 2,028 miles from one another at the same time, 4 p. m. CST or 1 p. m. PST. Directly upon the conclusion of the meet, both quintets will wire their results to their respective opponents.

Intramural Director L. L. Fridmold first inaugurated this interesting competition a year ago, scheduling three matches with Gonzaga and two with Syracuse. The Spartan platoon defeated the western school in two out of three matches last year, the first match being held here in East Lansing as Gonzaga traveled to Detroit to compete in the A.B.C.

Members of the Spartan contingent who will roll today are Bill Batchelor, Sigma Nu, George Foster, Delta Chi, Allen Yanz, Kappa Sigma, Don Rea, Delta Sigma Phi, and Capt. Don Kilbourne, Phi Chi Alpha. Kilbourne is the all-fraternity singles champion, compiling a season's average of 190.8 in 15 games.

Entrants in the intramural table tennis tournament are urged to post their first round results by Saturday, Feb. 15. This was the date formerly announced as the deadline for first round results and no contestants will be given additional time. The first round of the handball tourney has been completed with the second round already in full swing.

State's first winter term intramural track program, which will be open to non-lettermen only, has been delayed for a couple of weeks, according to director Karl Schladehman. Because of Farmers' Week program and other unforeseen interruptions, the indoor program has hit a momentary snag. However, additional information will be ready by the end of the week.

The fraternity basketball season will come to an official end Tuesday evening. Only play-off games for the league championship remain after these games.

State attempted 33 shots and connected on 11 while Michigan sunk 12 of 37. The Spartans specialized in the free throw department where they counted 13 of 17.

POLOISTS TO TANGLE WITH FLINT EAGLES

Capt. Gerald Peterson's polo squad will face its toughest competition of the current season when it faces the strong Flint Eagle team in Demonstration hall Friday at 8 p. m.

The Eagles were the Michigan state amateur champions last year and boast a powerful team of Don and Bert Beverage and Dick Boudrell.

WILDCATS TIE ET CETERAS

Undefeated Et Ceteras and Wild Cats retained their tie for first place as they edged out the previously undefeated Hoosier Hooties and Slippery Slickers respectively last Tuesday night in the women's athletic basketball intramurals.

The Et Ceteras, spark-plugged by Pat Stone and Ann Backstrom, were ahead at the end of the first half by a score of 14-13 despite the outstanding offensive play of Captain Beth Hack of the Hoosier Hooties. Holding the Hooties scoreless in the second half, the Et Ceteras added two more field goals to make the final tally 18-13 in their favor. Pat Stone was high scorer, dropping in 10 points for the Et Ceteras.

WILDCATS WIN

In the second crucial game of the evening, the Wild Cats clawed the Slippery Slickers to win, 12-9, in a fast scoring game. Wild Cats put on a characteristic scoring spurge in the second period to overcome the 7-6 first half lead of the Slippery Slickers and captured the game. High scoring honors of the game were divided between Dorothy Thompson of the Wild Cats and Ray Loeffler of the Slippery Slickers, each scoring 6 points.

TEAM 1 TOPS G AND GS

Loretta Urban of Team 1 set a new season high scoring record Tuesday night as she tallied 21 points to pace her team to a 27-12 victory over the G and Gs. At the end of the half, Team 1 led 15-4 and easily held the lead for the remainder of the game.

In the remaining game of the evening the 44 Majors won by default from East Mayo.

As a result of the tournament play Tuesday night, the standings are as follows:

	Won	Lost
Et Ceteras	4	0
Wild Cats	4	0
Slippery Slickers	3	1
Hoosier Hooties	3	1
Allice Cowles	2	2

BASKETBALL

tans came back into Michigan territory and stalled until the clock showed 50 seconds. At that point Burk was forced over the back line and Michigan took over. The Wolverines blew their chance, however, and State recovered.

BURK FOTS WINNER

Phillips was shoved by Sofiak as he dribbled over the back-line and drew a free throw. The Spartans elected to take the ball out instead of shooting, however, and with 35 seconds to go, Burk shot in under the basket and potted the winner.

The odds were 100-1 then, but Michigan zoomed down into Spartan territory once again. Bill Cartmill missed a long one and the two teams were still battling it out with the game over when Manager Jack Peterson finally brought an end to the melee by tearing out upon the court.

State was only behind in one period. That was from the start of the game until Mandler made it 8-6. Gerard's lay-up shot made it 8-8 with five minutes gone by and the Spartans were never headed again. Gerard led State with 10 points while Sofiak was high with 11.

PULLS AHEAD AT HALF

Matching shot for shot with the Wolverines, capitalizing on Mandler's long one-hand push shots and Phillips' accuracy, State pulled out to a 19-17 lead at halftime. As the second half started Burk's long shot made it 21-17 and Mandler's basket cut the lead to 21-19.

State attempted 33 shots and connected on 11 while Michigan sunk 12 of 37. The Spartans specialized in the free throw department where they counted 13 of 17.

Hungary Five Cagers Down Buffaloes; Olds Aggies Win

Hungary Five, led by "Pete" Panos and Edward Nowack with eight and 10 points respectively, defeated the Buffaloes 24-14 in the abbreviated independent schedule Tuesday. The Flit boys jumped into an early first quarter lead and held it the entire game. Art Maichos paced the Buffaloes with four baskets.

The Olds Hall Aggies eked out a hard-fought 15-11 victory in the second game. Paul Schneider, Olds Hall forward, tossed in three baskets and a free throw for the winners while Willard Lee garnered eight points for the Bronco. The Olds Hall victory placed the two teams in a tie for the bottom slot in Block 2.

Steinke's, by virtue of a 14-8 win, sank the Saints into the cellar of Block 1. Steinke's held a slim lead the whole game, having an 8-2 advantage at the midpoint. Coach Jim Steinke and Albert Weber each scored four points for the winners.

Fencers Seek First Win Against Bucks

Seeking its first dual meet victory of the year after three setbacks, Michigan State's fencers will take a two-meet road trip this week-end. Friday the Spartans tangle with Ohio State and on Saturday they move in on Case in Cleveland.

Coach Charles Schmitter is standing pat on his team lineup but may rearrange some of the positions.
