Pedagogues Loose Again

The shoe is on a different foot today, but still pinches.
During Farmers' Week it was officially requested that no tests be given. A checkup showed that there were many instructors so, monarchs of all they surveyed once in their classrooms, issued their ultimatums with majestic authority and gave their mid-terms during Farmers' Week.
This morning there are also professors giving announced tests, and there may even be a few who would stoop as low as to call a "pop quiz" out of the bag.

The J-Hop is a vastly different matter than Farmers' Week. It is just another student activity, as far as the college is concerned, and probably rightly so. No one has yet suggested that the college curriculum be scrapped in favor of social activities, but the fact remains that about 1,500 students attended the J-Hop last night, getting to bed at 3:30 a. m. or even later.

Figures aren't available on how many of them will cut their classes this morning, but many have been saying up cuts just for that purpose. Some classes are being dismissed this morning, although it is plain that the college as a whole cannot adopt that policy for just one party. Classes still must be held, but it is not necessary to schedule tests today.

Only a pedagogue could argue that such a test would give an accurate report of the work being done by all the members of the class.

The general level of American culture must be improving. It's been almost a week now since anyone wise-cracked about Tehod.

FDR Answers Japs With Plane Move; British Mass for Action In Balkans

Ordering squadrons of army and navy fighting planes to the Pacific fleet was President Roosevelt's answer yesterday to Japan's demand for a commercial understanding with the United States. The move was reportedly to be considered upon Roosevelt's acceptance of Japanese domination in the Dutch East Indies.

NEW ULTIMATUM

Roosevelt is said to have told Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, new Japanese ambassador, that any Japanese movement south of the equator will mean trouble from the United States. The Dutch East Indies, which furnishes 87 per cent of the supply of raw rubber used by the United States, have been assured by the United States that protection against any aggression is reported to have said.

BRITISH MASS IN BALKANS

British naval and air forces were marshalled yesterday in the Hellenic region, and prepared for a showdown with Germany in the Balkans.

At the same time Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Gen. Sir John Dill, chief of Britain's Imperial General staff, went by plane to Egypt to plan military and diplomatic action in the Mediterranean area, including the Balkans.

In Washington John D. Higgins, defense production administrator, announced appointment of a nine-man production planning board to advise the defense commission office on industrial planning. Among the members are Harry L. Hopkins, who recently completed a mission to England for President Roosevelt, and Samuel R. Biddle, president of the National American Rayon Corp., who will chair the board.

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE

Nine nominees to represent the Democratic party in the biennial spring state election April 7 were selected by the Democratic state convention in Grand Rapids Thursday night.

Completely controlled by Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner's men, eight of the nominations were by acclamation. Nominations for State Ag Board included Dr. Charles F. Klump of East Tawas and Benjamin H. Halsted, of Petoskey, a former member.

Repercussions of the Motor Wheel Corp. strike in Lansing, when 2,500 employees walked out last Thursday, were felt by the Packard Motor Car company of Detroit yesterday when it closed down its plants engaged in automotive production. Portions of the plant engaged in national defense work were not affected.

GOVERNOR ASKS PEACE

Negotiations bogged down in the Motor Wheel strike yesterday with Governor Van Wagoner in Grand Rapids for the Democratic convention. Before leaving Lansing, Van Wagoner appealed to the national conciliation service to take steps to terminate the strike.

Hank Greenberg, Detroit Tiger outfielder, asked for deferment as a "necessary man" in his draft questionnaire which he returned to a Detroit draft board Feb. 14. Detroit sources report, Greenberg, vacationing in Hawaii, drew number 621 in the national draft lottery and will be subject to call in 30 days, unless given an occupational deferment until the baseball season is over.

WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

(Trade Mark Reg.)

By Drew Pearson and
Robert H. Allen

(Copyright, 1940, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)
WASHINGTON—Only insiders know it, but the Government is preparing drastic price controls if the present upward trend continues.

They fear a runaway price situation which would hit the pocketbooks of the great mass of consumers. And the last thing the Administration wants right now is a hot cost-of-living potato on its hands.

So far there have been marked price advances only in a few commodities—lumber, scrap iron, and other basic raw materials. But recently there have been telltale signs of a general upward movement, and some of those mysterious late-afternoon White House conferences have been over this problem. Three plans of attack are under consideration:

1. Use of the priorities control now vested in the office of production management, under the supervision of ex-U. S. Steel man Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., to deprive price gougers of their supplies, thus forcing them either to go out of business or to bring their prices in line.

2. Use of the "draft industry" law to compel price governing concerns to sell to the government at a fixed price; also to "freeze" prices in industries where quotations persist in getting out of line with what are considered fair levels.

3. Imposition of a price ceiling on all commodities and on every step in the industrial process from raw materials to retailer.

KNUDSEN BANK RED TAPE

Despite the importance of his position in the office of production management, William S. Knudsen remains as unassuming as the Bill Knudsen who arrived as an immigrant lad from Denmark 40 years ago. So one thing in Washington gets under his skin—the bureaucrats who barter themselves behind a maze of officious secretaries, red tape and push buttons.

Knudsen himself is the opposite. He likes people. Also, he likes the "feel" of the place he works in. It is not unusual to see him strolling through the corridors of the new Social Security building, where OPM offices are now located, somewhat as he once strolled through the General Motors plant in Detroit hailing veteran employees.

HE GOES HIMSELF
Instead of summoning a defense associate to his office, Knudsen frequently drops around to the other man's office. One of these errands recently took him past the office of OPM press chief Robert Horton, a red tape past master, where he encountered a young reporter.

"Good morning," greeted Knudsen. "Can I help you?"
"Why—yes, sir," replied the newsmen. "I was sent over here to get a story about the layout of your new office. But I have to

John Burhans, president of the Officers' club and Chet Kennedy, general chairman for the Military Ball, sponsored by the club, announced yesterday that Ted Weems and his orchestra will play for the party, to be held Feb. 28 in the Masonic temple, Lansing.

Perry Como, baritone; Elmo Tanner, whistler; Red Ingles, comedian; and Marilyn Thorne, vocalist, are featured artists with the band.

Weems, who has had an orchestra since 1923, organized his first one in a Pittsburgh high school. He rose to fame on his arrangement of "Somebody Stole My Gal," and his theme song, "Out of the Night."

Elmo Tanner, with a canary-like warble, is so valuable to the band that Weems has had him insured for $10,000 with Lloyd's of London. Tanner also plays the guitar.

Storing the dance, and Coy Schindler's orchestra will play for dancing.
GUESTS PLAN FORMALS
Epsilon Chi society will hold its winter term formal dinner dance in the Aquarian room of the Hotel Olds tonight. Miss Margaret Adler, president, will be escorted by Victor Merdler, and will wear a teal blue corded taffeta formal.

Tonight at the Hotel Porter, the Kappa Sigma fraternity will hold its formal dinner dance with John Coffman as general chairman. He will have as his guest Miss Jane Sales. Art Howland will play for dancing.

An informal, closed party will be held in the Forestry cabin by Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, tonight. Shuman Clark is in charge.

RADIO PARTIES SCHEDULED
Radio parties tonight will be given by Psi Kappa Phi fraternity in the chapter house, and by Mason and Abbot halls.

Tomorrow the Kappa Sigma fraternity will entertain guests at a date dinner at the chapter house. John Coffman is general chairman. Hedrick house will also hold a date dinner tomorrow with Alfred Menzer in charge.

U.S. Faces Two Alternatives, Kimber Says

America must either choose to assist Great Britain in the Atlantic ocean and oppose increasing Japanese power in the Pacific or face the alternative of becoming a lesser power in international affairs through the purchase of an appeasement policy.

This is the view of Prof. H. H. Kimber of the history department, expressed to an audience of about 150 persons, in an address Thursday evening on the subject "Anglo-American Relations." His was the second in a series of lectures on "United States and the War," sponsored by the Liberal Arts division.

"Anglo-American relations are based primarily on the fact that England and the United States hold jointly the command of the seas," Dr. Kimber said. "The old order of sea force, the global supremacy of England, was destroyed by the emergence of Japan and the United States as sea powers," he explained. "Since the Washington conference of 1921-22 and the abrogation of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, Great Britain has controlled the Atlantic, and America the Pacific, in a virtual naval alliance."

"The maintenance of this control is essential to American security," Professor Kimber warned his audience in closing. Dr. H. S. Patton will deliver the next lecture in the series Wednesday, Feb. 26, at 7:30 p. m. in the Music auditorium. His subject will be "The War and America's Place in World Economy."

Best Geophyte Will Get Spurs

The best geophyte initiated into Geogangue, local geology society, this year will receive a pair of silver-inlaid Mexican spurs, with the compliments of Franklin G. Pardee, Michigan State geological survey mining engineer.

Pardee donated to the geology department a wooden balsa, which is a receptacle used for panning gold in South America, and a metal candle holder, formerly worn by miners, which he acquired some years ago in southern Mexico.

Ball in Auditorium To Aid Refugees

A Refugee Relief ball sponsored by the French and Allied relief committees of Lansing, will be held in the college auditorium Tuesday at 9 p. m., according to Barbara Tranter, East Lansing, ticket chairman.

The French and British consular offices in Detroit will be represented by the consuls and their wives. Paul Pendarvis and his orchestra will play for the formal party.

Two new overpasses mean safety for students having to cross busy Washington avenue on the University of Minnesota campus.

On The I.S.A. Front

BY MARVIN OSBORNE

Special elections to fill three vacancies on the I.S.A. central council will be held Wednesday, according to organization chairman William Bonner.

Two vacancies were created at end of last term when Simon Minick, off-campus representative to the council, was elected chairman, and James Cutler, an off-campus representative, stepped out of school. The third vacancy is that of dormitory representative from North Campus hall, which was held last year by Bette Doolittle. Petitions for these posts are available from Bonner and Pres. Louis Reed and must be filled in and received by Monday noon.

When the I. S. A. constitution was originally framed, provisions were made for four secondary councils, one each for dormitory, off-campus men, dormitory women, and off-campus women. A subsidiary council for off-campus women has been functioning for some time, but the others are still in the process of organization. Ralph Clark, chairman of men's secondary council organization, states that off-campus men are now actively organizing under the direction of E. J. Myers, while Joseph Borowski is overseeing the organization of the men's dormitory

Accidents Hurt Boy, Damage Two Cars

Two accidents, involving injury of a ten-year-old boy and damage to two cars, were reported by East Lansing police yesterday.

The child, Edwin Kohls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Kohls, 133 Beal street, ran out into the street ahead of a group of other children Tuesday morning, according to police. He was hit by a car driven by Robert Ford, Grand Lodge junior.

The Kohls boy, son of a member of the farm crops department, was taken to college hospital for first aid and later transferred to Sparrow hospital.

The second accident was a collision at the corner of Albert and Haslett streets Wednesday afternoon.

The women's dormitory council, which will be composed of two representatives from each wing of the large dorms, and two from North Hall, is being organized under the guidance of Marjorie Quick, who states that the group will be ready to go to work shortly.

At the last meeting of the Men's council, an amendment was made to the constitution providing for a representative to be sent from the I.S.A. to that organization. The delegate will be selected at the next meeting of the I.S.A. council, which will be held Thursday night, Feb. 27.

Off-campus women are sponsoring a dancing demonstration to be given by Orchestra, Monday night at 7:30 in the Spartan room of the Union. All independent women are invited to the demonstration, which will be followed by a talk on the Modern Dance to be given by President Sarah Azlin.

PAI TAUS ENTERTAIN

Horace Heidt, J-Hop maestro, was guest of honor at the Phi Tau house last night at their pre-J-Hop dinner. Phi Tau alumni who came back for the social week-end are Jack Gendler, Dale Cropper, and Ray Buller. Jim Thorburn, ATO, and former IFC president, also came back for the weekend.

Two Alpha Chi Sigma lads lost their pins last week-end to two AOP's. Ivan Rice pinned Kay Meehan, and Fred Carter gave his to Betty Vaughan.

AOP'S PLEDGE THREE

Lafayette Hamilton of Detroit was pledged to Alpha Tau Omega. The AOP's held initiation last week-end for Jean Hilgery, Jeanne Catlin, and Margaret Ann Kriebach. The Theta and Phi Taus had an exchange dinner Tuesday night. Jack Wolfram, S.A.E., may be seen in the steady company of Bonnie Redmond who is now wearing his pin. Doris Sharpe, AOP, is spending the week-end at the AOP's chapter house at the University of Indiana in Bloomington.

W.A.A.

Plans are under way to obtain a speaker from the recreation department of Detroit for the winter term Women's Athletic association formal banquet to be held in the Union dining room, March 15.

Boxing, Wrestling Headline Jenison Doubleheader Tonight

Kent State, Bucknell Send National Stars

Ohio Matmen Open KO Artists to Clash In Heavy Windup

Boxing will make its 1941 bow at Michigan State tonight in Jenison fieldhouse as the second half of a doubleheader program when Coach Buck Buchanan's undefeated leatherstocking meet Bucknell university of Lewisburg, Pa. The first bout will start immediately after the wrestling meet with Kent State at approximately 9 o'clock.

Comparison of scores against a mutual opponent, Temple, gives the edge to the Spartans to score their third straight victory. On the eastern trip two weeks ago State pounded out a 6½-1½ win over the Owls, against whom the Rams had to rally to earn a 4-4 draw.

CLARK FACES VETERAN
State's other victory came over West Virginia, 4½-3½, while the Bucknellians have yet to win a meet, having lost to Army 6-2 and tying with City College of New York.

The feature bout of the 16-event card promises to be the heavy-weight class between two knock-out specialists, George Baker, Ham senior, and State's rapidly rising sophomore find, Charlie Clark. Both are undefeated and have each stopped one opponent.

The 165-pound go will bring together two sluggers who also pack sleeping powder in their mitts. Spartan Captain Joe Costowski has hammered out two TKOs, as has hard hitting Mary Gerla.

Another fast bout should come when Spartan Everett Davidson squares off against Frank Garro at 145 pounds. Both are newcomers but have come up fast in their last two starts.

OLYMPIC COACH TO COUNT
Starting off for State will be senior featherweight Clyde Marshall, a former cheerleader. Bill Zurkowski, rugged sophomore with two decisions to his credit, will get the 127-pound assignment. Harvey Trombley, up from the reserves, will answer the bell at 135 pounds.

Senior Carl Thompson will get the nod from Buchanan for the 155-pound post, and Glenn Menter will fight the light heavyweight contest. The third man in the ring will be John Behr, of the Illinois Athletic club and coach of the 1936 Olympic boxers. He will be the only judge.

The Vatican has charged that Germany is violating the 1933 concordat by discouraging Catholic colleges.

Pickups Win From DZV Five 19-14

Will Davis Spralls Ankle, May Miss Baseball Season

Pulling one of the biggest upsets of the intramural season, the Pickups, an unheralded and unknown independent basketball team, rose to the heights to down the DZV quintet, 19-14.

The upset also brought with it an unfortunate result. Willie Davis, star DZV basketball player and member of the varsity football and baseball squads, suffered a severe sprain and will probably be lost to Coach John Kohn for the early part of the 1941 baseball campaign, according to Dr. Charles Holland, head of the Spartan health center.

SCORE AFTER HALF
The victory was achieved by Coach Ed Hildebrand's quintet only after a hard last half surge which saw them score 11 points while holding the athletic brethren to 5. DZV led at the intermission 9-8.

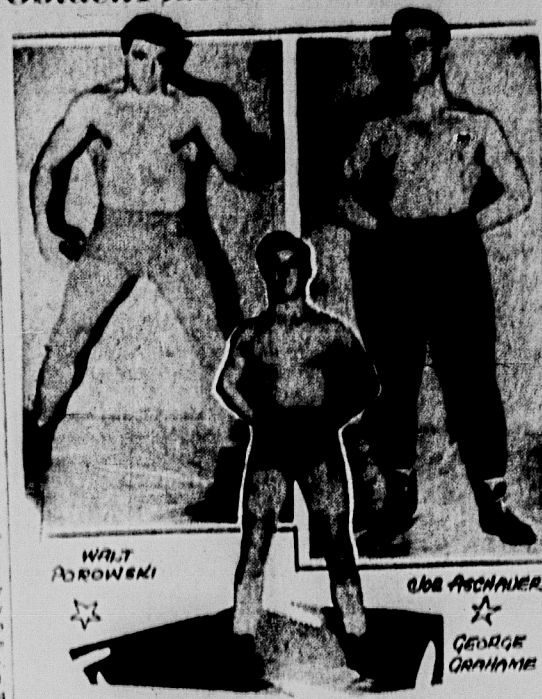

The winner's attack was paced by forward Ed Randall, who garnered 10 points. The unexpected outcome threw three teams into a three-way tie for first place in the Black standings, necessitating a playoff before the league championship title is decided.

EVERGREEN WINS TITLE
Coach Marty Cohn and his Evergreen Maroon outfit won the Black 2 title, defeating the Kewpie Wolves 34 to 8. Ray Penninger and Barney Neubert led Evergreen to victory, setting 10 and 9 points, respectively.

Mustangs defeated the Merry Maes in a closely fought contest last night to go into a three-way tie with the East Lansing Independents and Alpha Chi Sigma for the Black 3 lead.

With John Kane pacing the attack to the tune of nine points, the Mustangs jumped into an early lead and held it throughout the entire game. The Mustangs were out in front eight to four at the mid-point.

Golden Flashes Hurl Challenge

Three reasons why the Kent State Golden Flashes reign as interstate wrestling champions are these three hunkies who will grapple here tonight. Heavyweight Walt Porowski ranks fourth in the nation. Joe Aschauer is the interstate 175-pound king, and George Graham is Ohio State A.A.U. title holder at 155 pounds.

State Cagers Weigh Bid To Tournament

Date With Exams May Keep Team Here at Home

Michigan State's basketball team was paid a tribute yesterday when the selection committee of the annual National Intercollegiate Invitation tournament issued a bid for the Spartans to play in Madison Square Garden, March 18-25.

Only eight teams in the nation are selected, two from New York city, two from the east and one each from four other sections of the country.

NIGHT FACE L.I.U.
Undoubtedly, a rubber game between Michigan State and Long Island university would be a feature attraction of the tournament.

Last month the Spartans spilled Long Island, 31-26, before 14,000 spectators in the Garden and Wednesday night the Blackbirds avenged this setback with a 24-23 triumph in Jenison fieldhouse.

Whether or not the invitation could be accepted is a matter of speculation. The preliminaries which will be held March 18-19 fall on the same dates as winter term examinations. At the present time, however, State officials are investigating the possibilities of having the Spartan five seeded so it may play at a later date.

Hilltoppers Drop State In Track Opener, 68 1/2-49 1/2

U. of M., Ypsi to Run Here Tuesday

Three meet and one Michigan State varsity records by the boards as Marquette's powerful Central College conference champions defeated the Spartan track team 68 1/2-49 1/2 in Jenison fieldhouse last night.

Coach Karl Schladerman's charges, who two weeks ago bowed 84-20 to Notre Dame, came through with surprising power to give the Hilltoppers a battle up to the final four events. Tuesday evening the Spartans engaged Michigan and Michigan Maroon in a triangular meet in Jenison fieldhouse. Starting time is 8 o'clock.

MONROE PACE STATE
Marquette had two double winners who shared in top scoring honors. Art Schwoppe, veteran hurdler, won both of the 75-yard-dash events, establishing a meet record of 9.4 seconds in the high hurdles. Art Miller won both dashes for a total of 10 points.

Michigan State's best showing was turned in by sophomore Ralph Monroe, who jumped to an early lead in the mile run and then turned back a challenge by Dick Wickersham to win the race. Monroe came back 45 minutes later to nip teammate Al Mangan for a second place in the ten-mile run.

The Spartans' best showing came in the broad jump which was swept by Starr Keesler, Bob Webster and Mike Scheib.

Sprinter George Doran, who had placed in both dashes, ran one of the best races of the evening as he made up ten yards on the anchor leg of the half-mile relay to hang up a Spartan varsity record in 1:33.0. Other members of the record breaking quartet were Bob McCarthy, Danny Rosenbaum, and Kurt Mader.

GRIDER WINS TWO
Marquette's star end, Don Voeberg, won the quarter mile easily in 51 seconds flat for a new meet record and also gave the Golden Avalanche a victory in the mile relay as he fought off two challenges by Glenn Smith. Miller set the third meet mark as he won the 75-yard dash.

Other teams regarded as possible recipients of invitations are Long Island, Rhode Island State, Temple, Baltimore, Duquesne, Seton Hall, Stanford, Toledo, and Arkansas.

THEY WIN IN STREAKS
Athletic officials at Long Island university call their varsity basketball team the most powerful in the country, but the Brooklyn school can also boast of one of the strongest freshman squads in the east. The Blackbird yearlings have chalked up 21 consecutive victories.

HOW THE TELEPHONE SERVES NATIONAL DEFENSE INDUSTRIES

"FASTER . . . FASTER . . . FASTER", echoes the cry for greater armament production. And, because speed is so important, telephone services play a vital part, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, in serving the defense industries.

Defense production activities involve government agencies, major contractors and sub-contractors. Each is linked to the other through telephone or teletypewriter, or both. Army and navy procurement offices in Washington and elsewhere use the telephone and "teletype" to help maintain control and coordination of production. Major contractors keep in touch with the government and with sub-contractors by the same Bell System services.

Production of armaments is nation-wide in scope. Plants in many sections of the country are engaged in making or fabricating parts and sub-assemblies. To help control the production of that material, and to help assure its arrival at distant assembly plants exactly on schedule, telephone and teletypewriter service is relied on extensively. Engineering and production problems, and changes in specifications, are handled similarly, in many instances.

The Bell System is proud that its unified, nation-wide facilities and services, together with those of connecting telephone companies, are contributing so ably to the country's defense efforts.
