Tea Dancing

Hear ye! Hear ye! Another tea dance will be held in the Union ballroom Wednesday afternoon 3 to 5 p. m., according to the Union Church, president of Union.

Let 'Em Wholesale

Wholesale salesladies are going to offer a preview of the 1941-42 yearbook in their subscription sales tables on the lower deck of the Union and the Engineering building will depict the yearbook in the making, according to Betty Bryan, sales manager.

Lead! for Proof

Student directory proofreaders are anything but idle in the proofreading room. They are busy producing an accurate directory for 1941-42. They demonstrated this Sunday morning at 10 a. m.

What Time

Two proofreaders, Joe Charlotte and Ella Brandt, Wayne junior, and business manager of the directory name a name with no home town just after 1:30 a. m. they had no time in going to the directory to dial the number listed. Joseph Krook, Detroit freshman, answered sleepily "Uh," and added "Detroit."

Don't Burn 'Pots'

A special plea from Alumni Secretary Glen O. Stewart asks freshmen desist from the pot-burning today. Stewart is of the opinion that the pot will lead color to a snake scheduled between halves of the Missouri-Michigan State game Saturday.

Is Proclaimed

The following written communication was delivered in Mason and at halls by sophomores last night.

You have contaminated the Lansing sewers. Your thick skulls and ignorant faces are destroying the beauty of our city. Go back to your dorms or crawl out of your holes like the yellow-bellied rats you are, and face your peers, the class of '44.

Keep out of our way or a dead end will hang from every tree on campus.

As to the brawl and the filthy graves, doesn't it?

LATE FLASHES FROM WJW NEWS ROOM

Under the Wire

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—President Roosevelt in his Navy and Defense day speech to the nation tonight quoted the immortal words of Admiral Farragut as a challenge to the Nazis: "Damn the torpedoes, full speed ahead." The march of Hitlerism can and will be stopped, the President said, in one of the most vigorously anti-Nazi pronouncements he has yet made. He described the Kearny as "a deliberate attack on all America," and said the American navy would defend this country's merchant ships anywhere provided Congress removes Neutrality Act restrictions.

OSKOW, Oct. 27.—Soviet sources admitted today that continued advances toward the Caucasus region were "alarming." He claimed their forces were "more than holding their own" in the new and Leningrad sectors.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Movements of the Japanese navy hinted at a new against outlying Russian territory in Siberia, naval experts conjectured. More clashes along the Siberian border were reported, but the Far East question mark was extended as threatening gestures toward the Netherlands Indies were reported.

UISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 27.—A wave of disasters swept the south, including an explosion in the Daniel Boone mine at Norton, which killed 15 and wounded several others, while 17 deaths and 17 injured were reported in a bus accident, while the 66-day the Senate passed and sent to the White House the $6,000,000 appropriation for further lend-lease aid to nations resisting Hitlerism.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan announced administration-sponsored Neutrality act changes a "pre-emptive full-dugout shooting war" as the senate began debate today on the measure. From administration leaders, however, came the prediction that 19 days would see the revision enacted. Earlier the day the Senate passed and sent to the White House the $6,000,000 appropriation for further lend-lease aid to nations resisting Hitlerism.

Holsinger Will Show Santa Clara Films

Pictures of the Michigan State Santa Clara game will be shown in the Union ballroom Wednesday at 8 p. m.

These pictures were taken by a San Francisco firm and flown here by plane, but missed the "Quarterback" last week.

Joe Holsinger will explain the game and also run outstanding plays in slow motion to indicate the finer points. Pictures of the Wayne game also will be shown.

Ex-President Shaw Keeps Busy

Misses Students, But Finds Pleasure in Orchard

By JANETTE TAYLOR

The orchard of Michigan State's ex-president, Robert S. Shaw, expresses in many ways his philosophy of life. When interviewed recently Pres. Shaw was working in his orchard, which lies back of his new home on Harrison road.

No one but Pres. Shaw has ever touched the trees.

"Most men wait too long to do the things that they want to, and then they are too old to enjoy them," he said. "That is why I planted this orchard in 1917, because I am getting the most enjoyment out of it now."

HIS PHILOSOPHY

Pres. Shaw pointed out that the trees were pruned down so that they are very low, and also that there were no props in the orchard to hold up the branches of the trees under their heavy load of apples.

"I pruned the trees down real low because I don't think the top of a ten-foot ladder is any place for an old man. This way I can bring out a stool from the house and sit under the tree and pick up

Frosh-Soph Brawl Is Steeped In Tradition of Old Hatchet

By Ken Kuhn

The hatchet shall be buried. So goes the unwritten tradition so closely connected with freshman-sophomore feuding activities which find their final expression in the 33rd annual "brawl" this afternoon.

Of course, a hatchet cannot talk, but if it could, this one, which has been the object of the "brawl" since its inception, would tell an interesting story, according to Glen O. Stewart, director of alumni relations.

It could relate that theoretically it was buried at the ceremony held in conjunction with the barbecue and dance following the annual frosh-soph "brawl." But really it finds its ultimate resting place in the alumni office.

OLD BOWIE KNIFE

The hatchet, which is in reality only an old bowie knife decorated with green and white ribbons appropriated by Stewart, from his wife's mum, could tell that it is probably older than most of those who will participate in the hatchet-burying ceremony tonight. This is because it was originated to symbolize the spirit of rivalry between freshmen and sophomores when the "brawl" was inaugurated Oct. 14, 1908.

HELD IN HOLLOW

It would be able to tell that the first ceremonies climaxing "brawl" activities were held in the hollow in front of Wells Hall. Everybody and his brother in East Lansing participated then and enjoyed the sand seasoning with

Extension Group Honors Memory Of Mrs. Campbell

Anchored framed portrait of Mrs. Louise Hathaway Campbell will be presented in her memory by the Alpha Psi chapter of Epsilon Sigma Phi tonight at the annual extension conference dinner.

Representing the honorary extension fraternity, R. J. Baldwin, director of extension, will give the portrait to Pres. John A. Hannah at the banquet.

The 16 by 20 inch photograph was taken by the photographic studio of J. L. Hudson in Detroit and is surrounded by a gold leaf frame.

Mrs. Campbell did outstanding service in Michigan as state home demonstration leader from 1920 to 1930. Part of this period in the years 1923 and 1924 she also served as acting Dean of Home Economics and Dean of women at Michigan State college.

Earlier in her life, Mrs. Campbell received honors at North Dakota State college where she had membership in both Phi Kappa Phi and Omicron Nu.

Walter Hastings, of the education division in the state department of conservation, will be guest speaker at the banquet, R. E. Decker, chairman of the banquet, announced yesterday.

Prominent members of the faculty invited to the banquet include Pres. and Mrs. J. A. Hannah, Sec. and Mrs. Karl McDowell, Dean and Mrs. E. L. Anthony, Dean Marie Dye, Dean Elisabeth Conrad and all members of extension.

The extension conference dinner will be held in the Union ballroom at 6:30 p. m.

Brawl Today Will Settle Frosh-Soph Grievances

Games to Start Across River; Classes to be Out At 4 p. m.

By Jack Walsh

Despite sloppy weather, the annual soph-frosh "brawl," beginning at 4 p. m. today on the old parade ground, promises to be the usual lively affair.

At the conclusion of the games the old Indian tradition of burying the hatchet will take place, marking the end of freshman hazing.

Funeral Today For Prof. Field

Funeral services for Prof. Lawrence N. Field, 33, of the Michigan State college faculty will be held from the Gossline-Rundman funeral home at 10:30 a. m. today with Rev. A. D. Stauffer at the Plymouth Congregational church officiating. Interment will be held in the Maple Grove cemetery, Mason.

Prof. Field died suddenly of a heart attack early Saturday while visiting at Evanston, Ill.

He had been a member of the Michigan State college faculty since 1916 when he came here as an assistant professor of mechanical engineering. Prof. Field was born in Danville, on June 26, 1898. He was a graduate of the University of Michigan.

Prof. Field was affiliated with several fraternities and scientific societies, having membership in the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Tau Beta Pi, Sigma Xi, Lansing Engineers' club, and Phi Kappa Phi.

Active pall bearers will be S. V. Klein, Ronald Heath, L. B. Sholl, Guy Hill, Joseph Stack and Dr. H. J. Maher.

Honorary pall bearers will be John A. Hannah, Henry B. Dirks, Lloyd C. Emmons, Ward Gilmer, Fred T. Mitchell, Ralph C. Huston, Ralph H. Young, Tom King, Lorin G. Miller, Chester Allen, Fred W. Fabian, Harold White, Stuart Morgan, W. J. Buchanan, W. L. Mallmann, Stanley Gralak, John McClellan, J. E. Garland, J. A. Watson, R. J. Baldwin, R. E. Loree, M. C. Loree, R. H. Holbrook, Glen O. Stewart, E. E. Hochen, Merton M. Cory, and Wilbur O. Hedrick.

Following a short program at 2 p. m. the barbecue will begin. Three hundred and fifty gallons of coffee and 7,500 hotcakes will be served. Immediately after the barbecue a dance will be held with Tommy Tabor's orchestra playing for dancing.

FROSH CONFIDENT

Voicing the sentiments of freshmen from Abbott hall, Larry Burke, Detroit, declared, "We're quite positive of victory. We hope freshmen women will be there to give freshmen men moral support. That's important." Telford sought to brush up on swimming lessons.

Mervyn David, Birmingham, freshman representative from Mason hall, stated, "As far as Mason hall is concerned, the sophs ought to lose. We have lots of spirit."

Police Investigate Seven Robberies

Since last Thursday seven robberies have been committed on the Michigan State college campus, according to Albert Daniels, campus police chief.

Values amounting to approximately $500 were stolen from lockers and rooms in Wells Hall, Home Economics building, Jensen Fieldhouse, the music building and private rooming houses.

Investigation revealed a $187 cornet and a $50 violin were the most costly items taken from the music building. This robbery which occurred between 12 noon and 5 p. m. last Thursday was done "professionally," said Daniels.

According to Daniels, failure on the part of students to lock their lockers is the cause for the robberies.

"Open lockers will in the future be emptied by the authorities," Daniels stated.

Mine workers may or may not have a problem that should be settled, but taking advantage of the need for defense products is no way to arbitrate matters. And from a standpoint of politics alone, this just isn't the time for monkey business.

A democracy is based on the theory of equal sharing; when everyone else makes sacrifices, there is no reason that one person or one group should do otherwise.

Prowlers who raided a bookstore at Drew university limited their haul to a few dishes of ice cream and several pencils. Maybe they wanted to figure out their calory intake.

For a Gleaning Smile—
Okay, give 'em the teeth, kids.
Start practicing on that friendly smile now; this is Homecoming week.

You'll want to make a special effort to make it a real homecoming. Those middle-aged and old alums who will arrive here looking hesitantly at the new buildings are members of this school too.

Just treat them the way you'll want to be treated when you come back here . . . 25 years from now.

Bachman Schedules Hold That Tiger For Grid Practice

Scouts Rate Missouri As Strong Team

Ed Kitchen

Although nobody has thought to suggest it to him yet, Harley Bachman probably wouldn't think it a bad idea at all to equip all members of his Michigan State varsity football squad with recordings of that once-popular song, the "Tiger Rag" this week.

For it's the "Hold that Tiger" line in there around the third stanza that Mr. Bachman and his aides want very much for the Spartans gridders to use in the next few days. The Tiger that they have in mind, however, is not the original one of the song but rather the Michigan State varsity football Tigers whom the Spartans must stalk across the Macklin field come Saturday.

VE GOOD RECORD

And if you're going by past performance, which Dr. Littenberger and Parliamentary Rules Procedure, 1941, say is o. k., Missouri is going to be tough for State's Homecoming. What's more, you don't want to look any farther than the Tigers' 6-0 victory over Nebraska's mighty Cornhuskers Saturday in Columbia, Mo., for the Spartans' record. The Tigers, who are a Kansas and more than passing interest in the eyes of their former Big Six coach, will vouch for Missouri grid prowess.

ST FAST HALFBACKS

Well, to start with, quoth Mr. Littenberger, "they have two halfbacks who are fast as lightning. They weigh about 198 pounds and are sprinters on the track. They are called 'Slip' and 'Pass' and punts, too, oh Steuber placekicks, too. They're not short on reserves."

Guess You'll Have to Stop, Pete

Pete Fornari, former all-state back from Detroit Southeastern, found his forward progress about to be stymied by these two Wayne stalwarts after a wide end sweep in the second quarter of Saturday's contest.

Harriers Seek Revenge On Indiana In AAU Meet

Their dual meet season ended, the Michigan State dalters enter the tougher part of their 1941 campaign with the 62-mile National Junior A.A.U. championships at Detroit this Saturday.

An easy revenge for their 27-24 defeat by Indiana last Saturday should be forthcoming for the Spartans, as the Hoosiers will also be running at Detroit minus the services of their ace, Fred Wilt. Without Wilt, who is ineligible to run because he is a holder of a national championship, the Bloomington boys should be a pushover.

SOPHOMORES UNTRIED

As a team, State should be near the top in the coming national classic, but the individual Spartans should find the going rough against the numerous postulates. Also to be taken into consideration must be the fact that State's sophomores are untried over such a long and hilly route.

Indiana's Wilt lived up to his reputation by winning Saturday's 42-mile race in 23:29.5, a full minute ahead of his second place teammate Paul Kendall. Third place went to reliable Spartan Capt. Ralph Monroe, who stuck with Kendall till they were half a mile from the finish.

Daubert Reminds Turkey Trot Entrants of Trial Runs

According to Russell Daubert, Assistant Director of Intramural Athletics, those students who are planning on entering the all-college Turkey Trot to be held Nov. 17 should remember that they are required to run the two-mile course four times before the actual race.

Beginning on November 1, checkers will be at the new college track, south of Macklin field, where entrants will start their trial runs. These checkers will punch each entrant's card once for each trial run he completes.

Re-outlining entrance requirements for the race, Daubert stressed the fact that, contrary to the case in most athletic events, pledges will be allowed to run with their fraternity in the Turkey Trot.

He also stated that the only college students who are not eligible for the race are freshman or varsity cross country or track men.

With a large turnout this season, freshmen football is away to an excellent start. Out of the 78 players who comprise the squad, Coach John Kobs was highly pleased with the work of nearly two dozen players. At present, they are the leading candidates for positions on the first string team.

Weighting 180 pounds, Edo Menchole from Detroit is a ball carrier with speed and power. However, he has a worthy rival for the fullback spot in Bill Gaylord from Pontiac who has shown the best defensive play so far against running plays.

Candidates for the quarterback position are Lury Reid, a hefty 182-pounder from Ferndale, and Maurice McConnell from Detroit. Their chief rival, Russ Gilpin, an excellent punter from Detroit, sustained an injured knee which puts him out for the season.

OTHER INJURIES
The best left end to make an appearance so far is Paige Christensen from Santa Fe, New Mexico. The other leader, Vin Mroz from East Chicago, Ind., is out with injuries. Left tackle possibilities are Kenna Grob from Chicago and Jack McClain from Danville.

Fencers Discover New Prescription For Toughening

Delta Mu, women's fencing honorary, and Scimitar, men's fencing honorary, got together for a party Saturday night, but the outcome wasn't confined to crossing swords. Instead, the combined winner roared resulted in a pair of dunked dancels.

In a setting of Pinetum, hot dogs, and cider, it all happened when the girls led in a game. However, the game didn't end in the prescribed manner, and instead the Scimitar members topped things off by pitching the unfortunate maidens into the Red Cedar.

Quoth Fencing Coach Charles Schmitter to his wife between mouthfuls of dog, bun, mustard and relish: "Nothing like toughening 'em up in the cold of the night. Mayhaps I'll get some fencing this year."

Mason 5 Plays Leading Role In Dorm Loop

Undeclared Mason 5, with three impressive victories behind them, will tackle Mason 2 tonight in the feature game of the team touch football league. The Wells Hall teams opened the play for the week with three games last night.

Wells C took undisputed lead in their division by chalking up their third straight win as they edged out a 6-0 victory over Wells F. It took two overtime after regulation play was over in the bitter end before Bill Fedar could connect on one of his long passes.

Fedar heaved a 30-yard aerial to Bernie Sliger who made a leaping catch in the end zone, stealing the ball from three opponents. This took place after four periods and one overtime had been completed and each club had racked up two first downs.

An alert play on the part of Jackie Foster gave his Wells D team a 7-2 win over Wells B. On the opening kickoff, Foster raced down the field and recovered the ball over the goal line for the only touchdown of the game. John Kaiser dragged in a pass from John Carrier for the extra point.

Wells B kept it from being a shut-out by blocking one of Foster's kicks in the end zone for a safety. In the other game Wells E won a forfeit from Wells A, as the latter didn't show up.

Mason 5 will go into their battles tonight as heavy favorites after taking their last game 29-0, which was the highest score ever rolled up by a dorm team. Ed Lord, Mason 5 halfback, who crossed the goal line three times last week, is leading the league in scoring. Lord is also an excellent passer and has thrown three touchdown passes.

Dr. George D. Stoddard, dean of the graduate school of the University of Iowa, will succeed Dr. Ernest E. Cole as New York state education commissioner on June 30, 1942.

Stars Sprinkle Frosh Football Squad

from Cape May, New Jersey, while the pace-setting aspirants for right end are Barney Roskopp from Mt. Clemens and Norm Pennells from Parchment.

Coach Kobs stressed that, although these players have so far shown the most ability, other members of the squad have very good chances of displacing them in the battle for first string positions. Daily scrummages are held with the teams alternating on defense and offense.

Persons named Leavenworth are eligible to benefit under a $12,000 scholarship fund at Hamilton College.

Angling With Astley

Where Are the Cops?
They'll All be Needed
For Saturday's Game

By Bob Astley

Somebody better call out the gendarmes, policia, cossacks and any assorted officers of the law in this vicinity. They're really going to be needed after the game next Saturday to direct traffic.

We're predicting that if about 500 extra boys-in-blue aren't drafted into service or the building and grounds doesn't construct a series of super highways quick like a rabbit, the after-game traffic around here is going to make Broadway and 42nd street look like the main street of Okeanos on a Sunday afternoon.

Caused by Wayne

Now don't get the situation wrong. All this sudden congestion isn't going to be the result of any record crowd at the Missouri game. The forbidding outlook is all being caused by the tactics Wayne university employed here last Saturday.

You'd think those Tartars would have been satisfied to lose peaceably 26-0, but no, they've got to try and get revenge. So what happens?

With only five minutes left to play, they start polluting the ozone around and about Macklin stadium with passes, with the result that no less than three touchdowns are scored quicker than you can say, "Down in front, you drunk!"

Smiley Scores

First of all, a misdirected Tartar pass gives the ball to the Spartans in such a position that it is only a matter of a slight flick of the wrist for Wy Davis to toss a touchdown pass to End Lew Smiley.

Then, one of those Wayne aerials lands in George "P. A." Daniels' arms and the scoring is on again. The mighty mile of the Spartan line, who is about as high as his voice, runs like a bunny on a greyhound track for 80 yards and another touchdown.

Of course, being extremely tender hearted, the Spartans must have felt that Wayne deserved at least one touchdown this season. Anyway, State brethren Lew Smiley and Wy and Hughie Davis managed to connect a freak formula to allow Nick Cherup, Tartar back, to take a pass off "Bill" Fuglie's heel and run for a touchdown.

No One Knew

Of course, no one knew it until they read it in the sports pages Sunday morning, but that's the way it's supposed to have happened.

Which gets us back to this coming traffic situation. It looks like a time-honored tradition is going to be broken. People used to begin leaving football stadiums with the beginning of the fourth quarter with the result that the outgoing traffic dwindled on to Grand River bit by bit.

Frosh Daler Loses Path, But Wins Race Anyway

Running 200 yards out of his way when he got lost, Roy Neimeyer, Arlington, Ill., freshman won a 4-mile frosh cross country time trial recently.

After taking the wrong path, Neimeyer, winner of a previous novice run, got back on the right course and won by 25 yards over Al Sullen in 23:48.

Scattered and some distance behind the first two men came Bill Fritz, Roy Benfer, Jim Dunbar, and Richard Booth, in that order.

Durako Defeats McCarthy AC

By Al BERGLUND

In contrast to last week's scoreless evenings, the Independent touch football league provided more action last night as five touchdowns and a safety were rolled up.

In the Durako-McCarthy-AC game, Bruce Drynan scored two touchdowns while his teammates held the McCarthy boys scoreless. The game ended 12-0. All the scoring was in the second period.

The second game, Mustangs vs. Cookie Pushers, really provided the thrills. An 80-yard march was climaxed by a Mustang touchdown provided by Ed Brandle. Bob Rendall gave the Cookie Pushers an extra nudge by running over for the extra point. Then came the Cookie Pushers' turn. Dick Sherman rushed in and blocked a kick to give the CP's two points, making the final score 7-2.

The Invaders took Easy Aces, 12-0, on Clint Ballard's two scores.

Homecoming To Attract Old Timers

Alumni Due Back This Week-End For Big Program

Thousands of alumni from throughout the state and nation will gather on the Michigan State college campus this week-end to take part in the annual homecoming program which will be highlighted by the Spartan-Missouri football game Saturday.

The annual alumni smoker, at Hotel Olds, Friday evening will begin the homecoming activities. Glen O. Stewart, director of alumni relations, announced yesterday. Chester L. Brewer, former Spartan coach and athletic director, now on the physical education staff of the University of Missouri, will be the honored guest.

ANTHONY TO PRESIDE

A banquet is planned for the University of Missouri alumni Saturday noon in the Union Ballroom. Dean E. L. Anthony, graduate of University of Missouri, now Dean of Agriculture at Michigan State College, is chairman of the banquet committee.

Robert Hill, director of alumni relations at Missouri, and Stewart, will be the principal speakers. Brewer will represent the Missouri faculty. Approximately 100 Missouri alumni are expected to attend.

The annual Varsity club luncheon and business meeting also will be held on Saturday noon in the Forestry cabin on the campus. Following the luncheon the Varsity club will march in a group to the varsity memorial at the Macklin Field entrance, where a wreath will be placed at the base of the memorial stone by Johnny Pingel, Varsity club president.

Banners of the various classes will be placed on the football field immediately after the game so that visiting alumni will have a chance to meet old classmates and friends.

FRIENDS WILL MEET

Tickets for the homecoming dance, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national honorary service fraternity, were on sale in the Union starting yesterday. The dance will be held in the college auditorium beginning at 9 p. m. Saturday. Bud Bell's band has been signed for the dance, according to Charles Hubbard, Fairport, N. Y., who is general chairman of the dance.

Fraternity and sorority houses in East Lansing will be decorated for the occasion, and both fraternities and sororities as well as the dormitories will hold open house immediately after the game.

Freshman Copper Captures Thief On MSC Campus

As the result of a state-wide call issued Sunday by the Michigan State Police, Officer Leo Senack, freshman police administration student and campus policeman, was able to apprehend Miss Doris Strobel, 16, of Saginaw, for grand larceny.

Miss Strobel, who had $412.58 of the $500 taken from friends, was taken into custody near Olin Memorial hospital on East Grand River avenue. Russell Stringer, a Midland taxi driver, hired by Miss Strobel in her attempted escape was released after questioning. Miss Strobel was turned over to Michigan State Police, and is being held pending trial.

Emmons to Attend Education Meeting

Dean Lloyd C. Emmons, a member of the state advisory committee for public instruction, will attend the committee meeting at Hotel Porter Thursday to help formulate plans for citizenship education of aliens. Dr. Eugene Elliott, head of the department of public instruction, will meet with the group.

Spartan Women Offer Art Shop to Everyone: Check On 'Big Sisters'

Spartan Women's league is offering an art shop to men, women, and faculty today. Those climbing to the third floor of the Union at 7:30 p. m. today may participate in several types of activity—painting, weaving, carving, or pottery and jewelry making. An art instructor will be present to help any who need it.

First general meeting of Spartan Women's League will be held Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. in room 130 of Morrill hall. All S. W. L. members are to bring their "Little Sisters" to the meeting introducing them to the various interest groups.

Freshman Counselor System

A "Big Sister" survey to determine how many "big sisters" have contacted their little sisters will be completed by the end of this week, according to Carolyn Tustall and Mary Jane Renwick, co-chairman of the freshman counselor system. Participating in the survey are the eleven members of the freshman counselor committee.

Katharine Welch, Dorothy Weed, Cecelia Schroeder, Betty Jane Wilson, Norman Henningsen, Eleanor Sims, Betty Jo Driver, Betty Fryer, Ruth Sears, Mary Clark and Nancy Blue.

North Hall

North Hall will entertain Mr. and Mrs. F. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Underwood, and Mrs. Grace Field of the music department for dinner Wednesday night, according to Martha Kotila, publicity agent of North Hall.

P. E. M. Club

Physical education majors will hold their second open meeting of the term tomorrow night, according to President Barbara Scarlett. Admission requirement of the meeting will be an individual snap-shot, so that each member's picture can be put in the P. E. M. club scrapbook.

French Art on Exhibit In Music Building

Art of the French renaissance is now being featured in the exhibit room of the music building, the art department announced yesterday.

Photographs and color plates of the great chateaux, examples of the painting, sculpture and art, and pictured personalities of the period will be included in the exhibit.

was the boy who picked the fourth quarter fight in the east grandstands as outstanding. He didn't know what it was all about, but it was new and different to him.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

"I thought the assortment of players interesting. The constant changing of players helped to break the monotony of a pretty one-sided game," thought John Babula, Greenwich, Conn.

LIKES MARCHING

One Dick Kieppe, admiral would not be quoted unless somebody contacted his lawyer, but he did express pleasure at Kieppe's punt on the one yard line in the first quarter.

"Beer advertising by airplane to the tune of the Alma Mater showed some rather incongruent timing," remarked Lola Welsh, Vassar fan.

Bruce May, Schenectady, said, I met a cute blond on the way over. It's sort of sad, too—'cause I guess she goes pretty strong for one of those players out there."

'BRAWL'

Sophs had better be on their toes. The sophomores, too, have very definite ideas. As Gus Higgins, Pleasant Ridge, pointed out, "Fresh ought to pay for not wearing their pots around campus lately. I suggest that they all wear their swimming suits."

Fred Sames, Ferndale sophomore, predicted, "A lot of freshmen will take a beating, but we hope that there will be no hard feelings."

All freshmen are reminded to have "45" painted on their foreheads in mercurochrome, and are advised to wear their oldest clothes by class officials. They will meet in front of Wells hall at 4 p. m. and will go in a body to the parade ground.

From there, they are on their own.

stock, who remarked that Harold Nielsen, another fan one could get her attention at game.

Florence Wright, Dowling, remarked, "I don't notice things in the game. Confidentially, I am most thrilled by the game. I date gave me." And from Bill De Cou, Hastings, "I am pleased, 'cause the fresh have to get out on the field at half."

WHAT WAS SCORE?

Bob Young, Grosse Ile, and En Funk, Chassell, agreed that the Wayne band was the specified their friendliness. Bob admitted though he noticed there were girls in the crowd.

Ed Wallace, Hartford, concisely with "The score."

While homebound bound apparently blissfully unaware Wayne's touchdown on the field started just before the final. That surprise came later in the and in newspaper.

Dirks Will Address Next 'Y' Meeting

"You and the Draft" was discussed by Dean H. H. Dirks, the second general Y. M. C. A. meeting of the term, according to Jack Hill, general chairman. The meeting will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the student union of Peoples church.

Dean Dirks is vitally interested in the draft issue as it affects college men, and according to numerous expressions of college men find this one of their most perplexing problems.

A new type soybean developed by the extension division of Louisiana State University, which answers the problem of farmers whose lands now lie idle because of reduction in acreage.
