State Will Be Site of 'Vox Pop' Show

Program to Be Broadcast Here Monday; Will Interview Six

By LOUISE ROTH

Featuring six or seven students of Michigan State college, the weekly coast to coast broadcast, Vox Pop, will originate from College auditorium Monday, Oct. 12, at 8 p. m.

In order to obtain a cross section of the student body, 250 questionnaires will be distributed today through dormitories, cooperatives, off-campus organizations, sororities, and fraternities on a numerical ratio according to the number of students in each organization.

State students to be interviewed in this C. B. S. program will appear with Parks Johnson and Warren Hull, regular Vox Pop conductors.

Among the places from which Vox Pop has broadcast are United States Military Academy at West Point, Sweet Briar college, Randolph Field, Duke university, and Pensacola Naval Air Base.

From the 250 questionnaires, Vox Pop representatives John Cole and David Grant will select a large number, perhaps half, for personal interviews. — See VOX XPOP—Page 4

Greeks Help Solve Housing Problem

At least 60 available vacancies for men students, still without permanent rooms have been located through the cooperation of the 17 campus fraternities and the office of the Dean of Men, it was announced yesterday by Housing Director Ron Heath.

The influx of defense workers into East Lansing and the use of Wells hall by the army has forced the college to use the NYA barracks as a temporary home for 130 men students, Heath stated.

The vacancies turned up by the canvas will take care of about half the stranded students, and every fraternity house has taken in more than its capacity to release rooms for use by other students who lack permanent quarters.

There is still a critical shortage of rooms, however, according to Heath, and anyone knowing of rooms not in use should immediately notify the Dean of Men's office.

Seniors Will Choose Officer Candidates

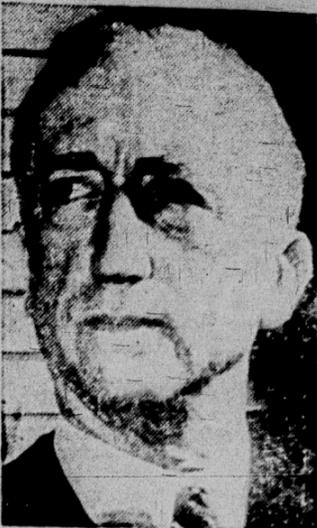

Nominations for senior class president will be held at 5 p. m. Thursday in room 130 Morrill hall, Frank Izzo, student council elections chairman, announced yesterday. Max Dillingham, president of last year's junior class, will be in charge.

Shortly before last spring's elections, both candidates for the senior class presidency were found ineligible. Student council in a heated session voted to postpone elections for that office until this fall.

Roosevelt Launches 1942 Drive for War Chests

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — Urging his fellow Americans to transform some of their "new buying power into giving power," President Roosevelt declared tonight that donations to community and war chests would "affirm before the world our nation's faith in the inalienable right of every man to a life of freedom, justice and decent security."

Byrnes Begins War on Prices

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — With a call for unity in the fight against inflation, James F. Byrnes took over the post of Economic Stabilization Director today and pledged support from leaders of labor, industry and agriculture.

At the same time the Office of Price Administration moved swiftly to stabilize rents at March 1 levels in areas where they were not already controlled and to freeze retail food prices pending the imposition of permanent ceilings.

Still awaited was its action to control the price of livestock, grains and other farm commodities. — See BYRNES—Page 2

War Classes Start With First Aid

First classes in this year's campus war training program will begin today and Wednesday when 85 students begin elementary first aid instruction under three Red Cross teachers, it was revealed by Manne Mullen, chairman of the Office of Student Defense at its second council meeting yesterday afternoon.

All students who have changed their address since registration are urged to list their new addresses at the Registrar's office in the Administration building, according to Kermit Smith, assistant registrar. This will cut down mistakes in the new college directory.

Although more than 150 persons had registered for first aid courses, only 85 can be accommodated because of lack of sufficient instructors, according to Virginia Laycock, first aid committee head. For the same reason, the advanced first aid course and the instructors course will not be taught this term, she said.

Meanwhile, Prof. Tom King, faculty adviser for OSD and CDC, reported that the air raid warden and auxiliary police courses have been set up. These courses, which proved so popular last year with Spartan students, will begin this week, King said.

Musical Interlude

A program of recordings, sponsored by the Union and Town Girls, is being presented every noon from 12:00 to 1:00 on the fourth floor of the Union. The program for today includes: Romeo and Juliet Overture, Tschalkowsky None But the Lonely Heart, Tschalkowsky Hora Staccato, Dimeu-Heifetz

German Army Begins New Attempt at Stalingrad

Soviet Industrial City Begins Seventh Week of Siege with Russians Still in Command of Nazi Objective

By Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, Tuesday, Oct. 6 (AP)—The Germans have begun another huge drive in the northwestern suburbs of Stalingrad, hurling three infantry divisions, 100 tanks, and many dive-bombers against Soviet troops who "repulsed numerous enemy attacks," the Red high command reported today at the beginning of the seventh week of siege.

Half of Michigan Drivers Exceed 35

LANSING, Oct. 5 (AP)—The state highway department reported today more than half of Michigan's motorists are determined in a statewide week-end survey to violate the 35-mile-an-hour speed limit imposed on state highways by proclamation of Governor Murray Van Wageningen.

Enforcement of the speed limit has been placed largely on an "honor system" through appeal to motorists' patriotism, pending issuance of an order declaring the entire state highway network a speed control zone. State police reported 23 drivers driving faster than 35 miles were arrested Saturday and Sunday for a variety of offenses against the traffic laws.

The highway department summary said 51.3 percent of the automobiles which passed counting stations exceeded 35 miles an hour, 86 percent of them traveling faster than 45, and one-tenth of one percent of them exceeding 60.

The statement, released by Commissioner G. Donald Kennedy, said the average speed of passenger cars had dropped from 42.9 miles an hour in September to 36.5 miles since the proclamation.

Spanish Language Is Most Popular Here, Late Totals Show

Spanish is far and away the most popular language course at Michigan State, says Prof. L. C. Hughes, head of the foreign language department. Enrollment in the 23 first and second year sections totals almost 600.

French, once the favorite, and German, also popular, have 300 enrollees each. There are about a dozen students taking Italian, a few in Greek and Latin.

Three new courses were inaugurated in the department this year. Russian and Portuguese have about 15 students apiece, while Dr. Grace Song Line's Japanese course has 48 persons enrolled, Hughes said.

SSO Will Entertain Service Men Again

The Spartan Service organization again will make plans to furnish organized recreation for service men in its first general meeting of the year at 7 p. m. today in the Union ballroom.

This year the S. S. O. has arranged for free dance tickets, lecture and concert passes, and a lowered football game admission for service men in East Lansing and Lansing.

Student Speakers Bureau to Interview Prospects

Student Speakers bureau, to be headed by Prof. Paul E. Geisenhof this year, will hold interviews for all those interested, in room 143 auditorium today from 1 to 6 p. m. Any student with interesting or unusual experiences or specialized training, is eligible to join Speakers bureau.

The Germans were acknowledged yesterday to have advanced slightly in this heavy fight raging in a workers' settlement, but the midnight bulletin did not concede any fresh German gains.

Above Stalingrad the Red army was reported officially to have improved its positions in a relief offensive against the extended Nazi flank.

The swaying battle in the northwestern suburbs of the Volga river city was said to have cost the Germans another 1,500 men and 14 tanks, but the Russians continued to emphasize Nazi strength in the penetrated area.

The Nazi siege army, estimated at 400,000 men, had turned much of its thwarted fury toward the northwestern section apparently. There were no fresh reports of heavy action elsewhere in the city's streets.

Solomons, Alaska Scene of Fighting

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — The battle for the Solomons continues with savage ground clashes and mounting destruction of enemy planes, the navy reported today, while army bombers, operating from new bases in the Aleutians and favored by good weather, have stepped-up their hammering attacks on the Japs at Kiska.

American fighter pilots destroyed 10 Japanese planes, damaged two others and damaged a destroyer in four days action in the Solomon islands area last week, the navy report stated, but despite determined air attacks the enemy succeeded in landing small reinforcements on Guadalcanal under cover of darkness.

In the drive aimed at dislodging the Japanese from their western Aleutian footholds, raids against the enemy have occurred almost daily, with five enemy seaplanes shot down last Friday.

Frosh 'Spirit' Lacking in Judgment

WHAT Emily Post would have said about the freshman brawl that occurred during the half-time intermission of the Michigan State-Michigan football game last Saturday would be rather hard to foretell. But one thing is certain—if she had considered it on a guest-host basis, Miss Post would have thought Michigan State college freshmen very impolite.

The whole affair was a disgraceful and ugly blot on the good relations that have existed between the two schools. Michigan State frosh had no more right snake-dancing on the Michigan field than has Hirohito offering President Roosevelt a note of apology. The fine performance of the Michigan State band went almost unnoticed, except when charging freshmen bowled into several bandsmen, knocking them to the ground.

But Michigan State frosh cannot be held entirely responsible for the affair. Some State upperclassmen urged them onto the field. University of Michigan students (many of them not freshmen) brought their good manners to the fore by streaming out of the stands and attacking State frosh. Numerous fist fights occurred, many students received cuts and bruises, some of them serious, and even the playing of the Star-Spangled Banner and our own Alma Mater failed to stop the melee. The fray reached a new low in rottenness when Michigan state police had to intercede and break up the fighting.

The only way future outbursts of that sort can be eliminated, outbursts that may lead to strained relations between the two schools, is to ban any further freshman demonstrations and snake-dances on our opponent's field. This will do away with any opportunity for shameful conflicts such as that in future years.

Fire Prevention Week is Every Week

THIS is Fire Prevention week, and it would not be unwise to heed a few words of wisdom from M. V. Croy, East Lansing fire chief.

"With fire inspections, and the splendid cooperation of the owners and operators of the houses in which you live, everything possible has been done to make them safe from fire. So do your part to assist in making this week and every week a record of which you can be proud.

"Fires caused by our war enemies are bad enough. Let's not assist them with carelessness.

"Check on your electrical appliances; keep them in good order. Protect your own property. It is of much more value to you than the money you would receive on an insurance adjustment. Carefulness on your part will be greatly appreciated by the people with whom you live."

Appendix Cases Mark Hospital Week-end

 ties and Byrnes' directives, presumably through the War Labor board, for enforcement of the wage and salary stabilization which the act and President Roosevelt's order directed.
 Byrnes, who had resigned from the Supreme Court Saturday, moved out of his office there during the forenoon and took over his new desk in the "left wing," as he called it, of the White House.

Four students are resting at the Olin Memorial Health center today, after undergoing emergency operations for acute cases of appendicitis.
 What might be termed an "epidemic" was handled at the hospital over the week-end, Dr. C. F. Holland, director, reported. Clare Rawson, Charles Roberts, Vet. '45, Bob Bush, and Harry Colstock, Ag. '45, are the invalids, all having been operated on Saturday and Sunday.

Embryo Dramatists Asked to Try Out for Radio Work

Auditions for this year's series of broadcasts to be presented by the Dramatic Workshop of the Air will be held Oct. 8 and 9, in room 246 of the auditorium. Appointments for these can be arranged by calling Joseph Callaway, speech instructor in charge of radio work, on extension 396.

SPARTAN STAFF—
 All students interested in joining the business, editorial or art staffs of the Spartan magazine should attend a Spartan staff meeting scheduled for 7:30 p. m. today in room 14, Union annex.

between 1 and 2 p. m.
 People who are capable of doing a characterization, or presenting a dialect or a mood are especially urged by Callaway to try out, and have an excellent chance to present their specialty on a Workshop broadcast, first of which is scheduled for Oct. 15. Previous radio work is not necessary, nor does one have to be a Speech and Dramatics student.

Several short selections are preferable for the auditions, which are scheduled to last four or five minutes each. Applicants will be supplied with scripts if they have none available.

Tryouts for 'Hay Fever,' Fall Term Play, Begin Today
 Try-outs for Noel Coward's comedy "Hay Fever," all-college play this term, will begin at 7:15 tonight and continue each night this week through Friday.

Try-outs will be held at 130 Morrill hall, beginning at 7:15 p. m. and continuing until 10 p. m. except on Wednesday when they will begin at 8:15 p. m. Books are in the assigned reading room of the library, Buell stated.

All persons who are non-professional, and carrying at least 12 credits at the college are eligible, and may attend try-outs as many nights as they care to.

THE SKETCHBOOK . . . by Sid Len

IT TURNS out that a Mrs. Crandall, a senior at Albion and editor of the college paper, the Pleiad, was once a freswoman at State. She was a member of the Wolverine staff in 1939 and '40, when her name was Maurine Sharpe. . . . We suppose discipline is a great thing, what with the air charged with military spirit. But it's still a little hard to figure out the stiff-necked routine that women have to follow in some of the college dorms. Over at Alice Cowles house they must wait for the second of two warning bells before they may march demurely into the dining room—single file. A few days ago some of the gals let their appetites get the better of them and dashed vulgarly in without waiting for the second bell. So the house-mother made them march out and back in again when the second bell was ceremoniously rung.

Most of the taverns in and around Lansing that use little orchestras are having a tough time finding musicians. So hard a time, in fact, that the owners are planning a meeting soon and may agree among themselves to give up orchestras for the duration and use juke boxes. A few of the local musicians are hoping to prevent their jobs from disappearing by setting up a pool of cats from which the tavern keepers may draw when they need music.

Wolverines Rest After Tough Saturday

By TOM RIORDAN
The Wolverine football team got off to rest after a grueling Saturday workout. The team's injuries were reported but there were no serious ones. The team worked on so as to be in top form for the game this Saturday.

Wolverines
Charles Bachman and the rest of the Wolverine line held the Spartan offense for 42 minutes. The "M" line held the Spartan offense for 42 minutes. The "M" line held the Spartan offense for 42 minutes.

Plays Well
The Wolverine offensive punch, the outstanding feats were by the defense, with the Wolverine line held the Spartan offense for 42 minutes.

Large home burns
The Wolverine line held the Spartan offense for 42 minutes.

Rugged Lineman

AL WISTERT, rugged U. of M. tackle, was one of the mainstays of the Wolverine line which held the Spartan offensive from passing the mid-field stripe into the Malze and Blue's territory. Of that line, Coach Charlie Bachman said that it may be one of the best in the country.

Tennis Meet Set for Tomorrow

The first of a series of All-College intramural tournaments, the tennis tournament, sponsored every fall term, will take place, if weather permits, on the Michigan State courts Wednesday, Oct. 7. The deadline for all entries is this evening at 5. Entries may be filed with Russell Daubert, assistant director of intramurals, in Room 230, Jenison gymnasium, or with Earl May, 59453.

Mason 8, 5; Abbot 18 Victorious in First Dorm Football Tilt

The Dormitory Touch Football League got under way last night with Mason 8, Mason 5 and Abbot 18 registering impressive victories in the initial contests.

Mason 8 was victorious over Abbot 14 in the opening contest, 12-0. Tom Riordan's 70 yard return of a punt, for a touchdown, featured this game. Ed Lord, Fred Stone, Morris Shepard and Dick Merrill led Mason 5 to an 18-0 victory over Abbot 15 in the second contest.

Monday night's games bring together Mason 6 and Mason 7 at 7 p. m., Mason 1 tangle with Mason 9 at 8 p. m. and Abbot 17 takes on Abbot 12 at 9 p. m. The games will be played on the baseball field. At 7 p. m. on the football practice field Abbot 13 plays Abbot 16. Abbot 10 will tangle with Abbot 11 at 8 p. m. and Mason 4 will engage Mason 2 at 9 p. m.

Cardinals Upset Favored Yanks, 4-2 in Ninth to Clinch Championship

YANKEE STADIUM, NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—The unconquerable St. Louis Cardinals swept over the New York Yankees, 4 to 2, today and into the world's championship of baseball as George (Whitey) Kurawski capitalized their indomitable spirit with a two-run ninth inning homer for their fourth straight victory in the five-game 1942 World Series.

It took a mighty battle to make the renowned Yankee drop their first World Series since another Cardinal club turned the trick in 1925, but the ripping, roaring Redbirds convinced a great crowd of 69,052 fans that they were made of the stuff of champions.

After winning three consecutive games with a show of dazzling speed, the Cardinals crushed the Bronx Bombers today at their own game—home hitting—although they also continued their reckless running and received a wonderfully patched seven-inning game from Jean and confident Johnny Beazley, the 23-year-old rookie who also won the second game of the series at St. Louis. Red Huffing was the loser.

The Sporting Scene
By BRUCE MONKS
We have no regrets over the result of Saturday's game with the University of Michigan Saturday. It was plainly visible that the Wolverines possessed a superior team and that they should go places this year. In fact, we predict that if Crisler's crew gets past the rugged Iowa pre-flight team next week without losing, Michigan will go through its schedule undefeated and win the Western Conference championship.

We were quite proud of the fighting Spartans all through the first half, in fact, throughout the game. Michigan State held its own against the Wolverines until after Dick Kieppe's long kick midway in the third quarter. Standing on his own 20-yard line, Kieppe punted the football 79 yards to the Michigan 10-yard line. This was the longest kick of the afternoon but it was nullified by an off-side penalty. From that point, the heavier Wolverine 11 started down the field for its first touchdown.

The only unhappy part of the game was the thoughtlessness of the freshmen in running around the field when the Michigan State band was going through its formations. Naturally, the Michigan frosh swarmed onto the gridiron with fists clenched. Not a few came off the grass with bruises and black eyes. Not even the State's Alma Mater or the national anthem could stop some. Maybe they were thinking of future scraps with the Japs or nasty Nazis.

One of the members of Uncle Sam's army that was helping to recruit boys for the armed services in order to slap the Japs was George "Birdie" Tebbetts. The former Tiger backstop sat right in back of us in the press box throughout the game.

John F. Macklin, after whom Macklin field was named, was coach of all sports at Michigan State from 1911-1916.

Heroes to Visit State Campus for Meetings

World War II will be brought first hand to Michigan State students when a delegation of five United Nations heroes visit the campus Friday, Oct. 16, under the direction of Student Council.

Included in this United Nations group will be British Representative Capt. Peter Cochran of the Camgron Highlanders, D. S. O.; Miss Yung Wang, famous Chinese actress and personal representative of Madame Chiang Kai-shek; and Raden A. Kadir, native of the Netherlands East Indies, who fought against the Japanese in Java.

Representing Russia will be Lt. Vladimir Pchelintsev who wears the Order of Lenin; and Nikolai Krshtchenko who is in charge of supplying the city of Moscow with fuel.

All members of this group came to the United States to attend the International Student assembly in Washington, Sept. 2 to 5.

In order that the visiting group and State students may become acquainted, Student Council is arranging a luncheon, discussion groups, and an evening program.

Art Exhibition Slated

The Art department opened its regular schedule of exhibitions with the Annual Faculty Show held in the gallery of the Music building beginning Sunday, according to E. B. Brauner, acting head of the department. The show, usually held during spring term, will continue through October 15.

Oils, watercolors, drawings, ceramics, sculpture and examples of silk screen weaving process will be displayed.
