LETTERS . . . to the Editor

Dear sir:
 I wish to submit to you several statements on the attitude of the American people. Then I shall justify what I have stated with a conclusive proof of one of our shortcomings.

This is a country of tremendous natural resources, we have an abundance of materials and metals, we have vast forests and great expanses of fertile soil. With all these natural resources plus the ingenuity, skill and initiative of our people we have skillfully and effectively moulded and cast the greatest industrial nation in the world.

We know wages are highest here, we own the greatest percentages of the world's automobiles, telephones, radios and bathtubs. This is a country where you can be a Protestant, a Catholic, a Jew; you can belong to the Masons or Elks; you can organize or join a labor union; you can pick your own church and run your own business.

Up to now the American state of mind is not something which any American can be proud of. For the first time in the history of our nation have Americans, fighting men excepted, failed to act like Americans. We have spent the previous years trying to tell ourselves that "we" could stay out. We never made more than a gesture to stop any member of the Axis. And now . . . when we are in this war, we are going at it with the attitude that we WISH to win, we aren't showing the will necessary to win.

American soil has been invaded; captured and successfully held. American boys have died, and American boys have been mangled and crippled. Yet we lack the nerve to control prices and wages. Labor hasn't lived up to its self-proclaimed standards. Labor at this time has been the greatest failure of the American nation. There is private and commercial bootlegging and hoarding. There are people who are "hate" experts, hate Roosevelt, hate Catholics, hate Jews, hate Negroes . . .

Let's play our petty ambitions and hatreds and greeds against American unity. Let's speak softly of the Axis so that when they win that we can "make a deal" and save our skins.

If we do that we must forget that invasion has always meant starvation, rape and total destruction to the ultimate of the enemies' satisfaction.

So instead let's be the old type American . . . you know the type I mean, like the guys who crossed the Delaware with Washington, the Rough Riders of Teddy, the boys with Dewey at Manila, with "Black Jack" in France.

Let's be proud of freedom that we shall have the guts to do the things that are right rather than the things that are easy.

Let us remember that if any evil comes to America . . . it comes to all of us, if any shame comes to an American it comes to all of us. Let's all become real Americans and the merit of such a decision will result in an absolute defeat of Hitler, Mussi and Hirohito.

And if the superintendent of Bailey public school should read this, I hope that from now on that the American flag at that school will be lowered and removed from the flagpole during the night.

In step for victory, I remain
 Sincerely,
JOHN R. LEE.

CLOTHING CLASSICS

By Barbara Hafford

Party party dresses and rain-clothes. Peculiar combination, but there are plenty of parties and there is plenty of rain, so we mix the two for the order of the day.

Jean Critchfield has a cactus-green silk crepe dress with gold kid running down and around the neck and trimming the narrow belt. Forgot to notice the details because the gold kid is so outstanding.

And for formals, Mary Ellen Tappan dolls up in a powder-blue and black jersey. The long fitted blue top has long sleeves and a high round neck.

Pat Johnson's "WAAC-y" looking headgear conceals flaps which drop down to cover curls. Barbara Glass posted round State stickers on the large buttons of her reversible to make it interesting.

CLAPS—to those 10-cent earrings with plastic fasteners. At least they don't hurt even after an hour of wear. And SLAPS for anorexia sweaters . . . they're pretty, but you can't get a man within 10 feet of one. As for other sweaters:

- New ideas for converting clothes include such ideas as braiding kerchiefs to make a novelty belt; and sewing on pretty patches just for the heck of it—needed or not.
- White sweater

Grapple Team Has Former Spartan Stars

Two new and two old faces will be added to the list of grapplers on Coach Fendley Collins' squad this winter if the present plans work out.

Homer Higbee, captain of the 1940 freshman wrestling team that went undefeated in six matches against free-lance competition that year has plans of returning to school winter term and competing with the varsity before induction into the army air forces in the spring.

The other old face on the Spartan mat is Herb Thompson who dislocated an elbow early in the 1942 season and was forced to the sidelines. Both boys come from Bristow, Okla.

Added Soph Aid

The new men expected to give the national runner-ups of last year added power this year are Iggy Konrad of Cleveland, Ohio, and Pat Sullivan another Bristow lad. Konrad is gunning for the 138-pound spot left vacant by Bo Jennings while Sullivan may take over the tights of last year's captain, Leland Merrill. Both boys have given varsity opponents trouble all through their freshman year while serving as sparring partners in workout matches.

Three Frosh Eligible

Three freshmen, Wesley Gougler, Don Rippberger, and Leger Stecker are showing great promise in early fall workouts. Gougler will be eligible for varsity competition with the opening of the wrestling season in January.

Both he and Stecker are Oklahomans, who have dominated State's mat teams for the last three years. Rippberger wrestled for Kent State in Ohio last year but transferred here to enter the engineering division at the beginning of fall term.

Four Letter-Winners

With these new men added to the four returning major letter winners of the year, the Spartan matmen again look like prospective national championship material. Captain "Cut" Jennings, Bill Maxwell, John Spalink, and John Marrs are the veterans back this year. Mike Dendinos, heavyweight and minor letter winner, will also return.

Before the war, China had 108 colleges.

FOOTBALL

by coaches showed lines Saturday will be about equal in weight but with the heavyweight WSC backfield carrying approximately 15 pounds to a man more beef than the visitors.

And with the extra weight carried by such backs as Kennedy, Akin, Stoves and Renfro, all very fast, the pounds spell "sock" hitting against anybody's line. Coach Dechman said the squad generally, besides Ripmaster and Pawlowski, is in fair shape and that Kieppe is in top form and "ready to go."

Grid Predictions

By Associated Press

Notre Dame over Army—The lines are about on a par but Bertelli's passes should be the difference. But Army is better than the 19 to 0 loss to Penn last week indicates.

Boston College over Temple—One of the nation's best elevens meets a sub-par Temple outfit.

Michigan over Harvard—The Wolverines would have won this even if Harvard's Swede Anderson, Harlow's best blocking back, was in the lineup.

Minnesota over Indiana—That long Gopher losing streak of two games has been ended.

Washington State over Michigan State—The junket to the west coast plus the Cougars will prove too much for Michigan State.

Wisconsin over Iowa—Another spot for an upset. It is the Hawkeye h-mecoming, they have the heaviest line in the Big Ten, also one of the better passers.

State Runners to Defend Title in Kalamazoo

Coach Lauren P. Brown will enter seven men in the 27th annual State Intercollegiate Cross Country meet at Kalamazoo today. Running for M. S. C. will be Capt. Ralph Monroe, Bill Scott, Jerry Page, Maurice Horki, Roy Niemeyer, Bill Herzhiser, and Marvin Fraser. Fraser, a sophomore, displaced Bill Fritz after last week's meet with Penn State for turning in considerably better time.

Teams expected to enter besides State, the defending champion, are Western Michigan college, Michigan Normal, Wayne U. and Central State Teachers college of Mt. Pleasant.

The first Michigan Intercollegiate cross country meet was held in 1910. At that time the University of Michigan, M. A. C. and Kalamazoo were counted as "the Big Three."

In 1923, Michigan dropped out of the meet entirely, and the Spartans started entering only the "B" team. After the "B" team had received several setbacks, the Spartan first team was again entered in 1933 and hasn't dropped a decision in this meet since.

Following the meet today, M. S. C. will go to Ypsilanti next Saturday for the 20th annual Michigan A. A. U. meet. On Nov. 16th the Spartans will journey to Van Cortlandt Park, New York City, for the 34th annual I. C. A. A. A. A. run.

Fowl and Pumpkin Pies to Be Given Winners of Second Turkey Trot

By BILL ADAMS

Plans are virtually completed for the 2nd annual M. S. C. Men's Turkey Trot," according to R. B. "Jake" Daubert, assistant intramural director.

The "Trot," to be run at 4:30 p. m. Thursday, November 19, isn't just another item in the round of social events, as a newcomer on campus might presume, but a gruelling athletic event. The race, which will be run over a course from Macklin field to Mason and Abbot halls and back, derives its name from the nature of the prizes awarded.

Four Men on a Team

First team prize in the "Trot" will be a turkey; 2nd, a goose; 3rd, a duck; 4th, a chicken; and the appropriate "booby" prize—a goose egg. The prizes will be awarded on a team basis, and any group winning poultry and not having cooking facilities is assured the alternate choice of a pumpkin pie per man (up to four men).

"Any organization on campus may enter a team, but there must be at least four men representing the group. No maximum number is placed upon team entrants, and we urge each team to enter as many as possible as it will tend to cut down the effectiveness of the other teams. The organization placing four men first will be the winner," Daubert said.

Conditioning Necessary

It has been decided to make it compulsory for each entrant to run the course four times prior to the race to condition him for the ordeal.

The "Trot" is one event in the All-College Track and Field Meet to be held the following week. The winner of the race will receive 1,000 points toward the annual College Track cup, and other men and organizations placing will receive corresponding points.

A larger turnout than last year's 103 entrants is expected as classes aren't excused following Thanksgiving Day.

Last year's winner was varsity wrestler, Bill Maxwell, and the SAE fraternity carried off the team award.

Weekly Letter to Men in the Service

(This open letter to men in the service is a weekly feature of the Michigan State News, describing the outstanding events on campus. Clip it out and mail it to a friend in the service.)

November 7, 1942

Dear Johnny:

There are more rumors than raindrops around here lately and that's really something. Everyone seems to be competing to think of a bigger and better future for the college. The latest one is that the students will be sent home so that the campus can be used as a training ground for war dogs and carrier pigeons.

Perhaps that's the influence of the dog show that is scheduled for tomorrow in Demonstration hall. With all the State students going, someone is bound to win a prize—door prize, of course.

The football team has left for Spokane, Wash., after just returning from Temple. Seems like they haven't been in class for weeks. Join the team and see the country!

This week hit a new low in social activities. Even exchange dinners were at a minimum. It's hard to serve a dinner without milk, cream, tea, coffee, cocoa, etc. Maybe that's the reason. However, next week swings back into the old stride with a lecture program on Tuesday by Ilka Chase, radio and stage star, and a home football game on Saturday with Purdue.

Goodbye now,

DASH.

Exam Board Here

The Aviation Cadet Examining Board No. 2 will be in Lansing Monday through Thursday to conduct mental and physical tests for army air corps applicants between the ages of 18 and 26, inclusive. Lieut. Harold C. Foland, board president, announced Thursday.

Army Gives the O. K. for Rose Bowl Game

PASADENA, Calif., Nov. 6 (AP)—The guessing can start, folks. They're going to play the Rose Bowl game here again next New Year's day, all things being equal.

The Associated Press learned from an unimpeachable source today that while formal application for permission to play has not yet been acted on by the building, the guest speaker will be the 29th renewal of the classic, oldest and most famous of the post-season bowl games.

The source cannot be named, and there was no comment from the Army.

Collegiate Registrars to Meet Here Monday

Dr. John L. Seaton, president of Albion college, will open the meeting of Michigan Association of Collegiate Registrars here, Monday at 10:30 a. m. when he talks on "American Colleges and the War."

Included in the day's activities for the expected 30 to 35 representatives of Michigan colleges are addresses by Ira Smith, registrar of the University of Michigan; Dean Emil Leffler, Albion college; and Lawrence J. Tidrick, assistant superintendent of public instruction, Lansing.

Honorary Cadet Installation Slated for Thursday Evening

By BILL JOHNSTON

An honorary cadet colonel and eight honorary cadet lieutenant colonels of the ROTC unit of Michigan State college, recently elected for the 1942-43 season, formally will be installed into their official positions Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in Jensen fieldhouse.

Approximately 600 students in advanced military science will take part in the mass ceremony, which promises to be as impressive a military show as any given previously. Majel Wheeler, H. E. '43, of Mishawaka, Ind., will assume the rank of honorary cadet colonel.

Miss Wheeler, who replaces June Esslinger, Alpha Chi Omega, last year's honorary cadet colonel, is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and a former vice president of South Williams dormitory.

The installation program which is being sponsored by Officers' club, is open to the public and will last about an hour and a half, Larry Hardy, publicity chairman said yesterday. All advanced officers, with the exception of those who have been excused by their unit commanders, are expected to participate in the program, Capt. G. H. Branch, adjutant, stated yesterday.

The installation dance will not take place until Saturday evening, Hardy explained. The dance will be similar to those of previous years, with only students in advanced military science and their dates eligible to attend.

U. of M. Men to Pick Beets

ANN ARBOR, Nov. 6 (AP)—Marvin Borman, head of the student war manpower corps at the University of Michigan, said today 200 students had been released from their classes for three days next week starting Monday to help harvest the sugar beet crop at Sandusky, Mich.

THE ROBE

By Lloyd C. Douglas

For thirty years the author of "Magnificent Obsession," "Disputed Passage," and other widely known novels has been preparing to write this book. It is now complete, and a lifetime of thought, research, and planning has made of it the author's longest and by far his most important book. It is a distinguished, disturbing, and exciting novel about another terrible era in our history not unlike our own.

Yanks Repulse Jap Counter-Attacks

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6. (AP)—American forces, taking a heavy toll of enemy troops, have repulsed several strong Japanese counter-attacks in the land battle for Guadalcanal island in the Solomons, the navy announced today.

The Japs struck against advanced army-marine positions to the west of the American-held airfield Wednesday night and early Thursday, Guadalcanal time.

But not one of their several attempts to drive the Americans back upon the airfield was successful and presumably they left the American forces in position to continue the offensive begun last Sunday.

The Japs were subjected not only to withering fire from U. S. ground forces but also, a navy communique reported, to strafing from American planes which maintained "continuous air patrols" over the enemy lines.

In a press conference just before the communique was issued, Secretary Knox said that Japanese casualties in the three-month-old Solomons campaign were more than four or five times as great as American losses and that this ratio was continuing.

CAIRO

79 enemy tanks, 20 were German and 59 Italian.

Three entire Italian divisions, the Trente, Bresioia, and Felgare, have been trapped by the British far south of the Mediterranean coastal road at the Axis anchor positions near the Qattara depression.

These troops were abandoned as the German African corps scurried westward. But another reason for their encirclement was effective Allied aerial blows that wrecked most of the Fascist transport.

These U. S., British, and South African airmen still were hacking constantly at the fleeing Axis columns packed tight in four lanes west and south of Matruh. The entire Mediterranean coastal road by which Rommel's troops hope to escape into Libya has become "a ribbon of fire and death," AP Correspondent Frank L. Martin, said in a dispatch from the front in the western desert.

A U. S. army air forces communique issued tonight said the American fliers destroyed many of the fleeing vehicles and started fires among others. American fighters also shot down at least one Messerschmitt during the day, but the communique said aerial encounters are becoming rare.

Woman of 'Past Imperfect' to Tell Her 'Philosophy of Being a Woman'

By JOAN MEYERS

"The Philosophy of Being a Woman" is the topic of the talk which Ilka Chase, actress, comedienne, radio star and heroine of "Past Imperfect," will present to the M. S. C. audience when she appears Tuesday at 8 p. m. in College auditorium.

All her life Ilka Chase seems to have pursued a philosophy of keeping extremely busy. Beginning acting at the age of 7, she portrayed all four roles in the convent school production of "Puss in Boots."

Her formal stage debut was made in the Portmanteau theater in Baltimore in "The Proud Princess." Her first New York stage appearance was made in "Red Falcon." Since that time her acting career has been marked by a series of successful sophisticated comedies including "The Grand Duchess and the Waiter" and "Antonia."

She left the stage temporarily to act as correspondent for Vogue, the editor of which is her mother, Edna Woolman Chase. Returning to the stage in 1932 as Mrs. Martin Johnson in "The Animal Kingdom," she has since been continually active in stage and screen, her most popular movie role being Sylvia Fowler in "The Women."

Reds Continue to Repel Nazis in Stalingrad

MOSCOW, Saturday, Nov. 7 (AP)—The Russians announced today that repeated assaults by large forces of German tanks, infantry and planes upon a factory district in Stalingrad have been thrown back with heavy losses for the Germans, and indicated they were holding firm in the Nalchik and Tuapse areas of the Caucasus.

The Soviet midnight communique reported that the Germans were thrown back to their original positions in the fierce fighting for the Stalingrad factory area. Further, the Soviets said, the Nazis lost about 1,000 men killed, 11 tanks, 20 trucks, and a large number of blockhouses there.
