

Cossacks to Recreate Russia Program for Tonight

Serge Jaroff, director of the Don Cossacks, will lead his 34 giant singers from the steppes in 13 numbers reflecting the vigorous life of the hard riding Cossacks in the days of the Czar when they appear today at 8 p. m. in College auditorium.

The first of the three groups of songs will include four religious numbers one of which is the traditional Russian chant, "O, God Save Thy People," by Tchesnokoff. Activity books will admit students to the performance.

"Three Moments from the Don Cossack's Life," by Shvedoff will be a commemoration of the 20th concert season and is based upon Don Cossack and Russian folk songs. Also in this group will be presented "Song of an Apple," which will tell allegorically the story of the gradual weakening and disintegration of the Russian empire prior to the revolution.

The chorus will sing "Cradle Song of an Old Don Cossack," and "Don Cossacks on the Attack," and will finish this group with "Lezginka," a song which begins with a prayer and ends with a rousing dance.

In their final group which will include five numbers, the Cossacks will sing the praises of Stenka Razin, the Russian Robin Hood, and they will finish their program with a group of three Cossack songs all arranged by their leader, Serge Jaroff.

Accident Results in Death for MSC Freshman

Funeral services were being arranged today for Lynn W. Blackmon, 18-year old applied science freshman from Richmond, who died early yesterday morning in the college health center from complications which set in after incurring a leg fracture during a safety skills class Friday afternoon.

Dr. Charles F. Holland, director of the college health center, said that Blackmon apparently was recovering when his condition suddenly changed for the worse. A blood clot in the lung, described as pulmonary embolism, was given as the cause of death.

Blackmon suffered the injury in the 3-4 p. m. safety skills class, just five minutes before the hour was up. Witnesses of the accident said that Blackmon was carrying another student, "pickaback," when he stumbled and fell, suffering a simple leg fracture.

An ambulance was called, physical education department officials said, and he was removed to the college health center within 15 minutes. Saturday morning Blackmon was reported as having a slight fever. However, he apparently was making a satisfactory recovery until Monday when his condition became serious. Death followed shortly before 6 a. m. Tuesday.

Surviving the safety skills victim are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Blackmon of 2090 Omo road, Richmond; a brother, Stuart W., a sophomore at Michigan State college, and another brother at home.

CDC Slogan Winner Speaks for War Heroes

By DAVE EAST
A sober, thought-provoking question from Michigan State's war dead was chosen yesterday as the most effective slogan to promote War stamp sales and campus defense activity, in CDC's defense slogan contest.

"MSC's Honor Roll speaks: 'We were willing to die; are you willing to buy?'" Submitted by Kathryn Claire Sprague, L. A. '44, this is the J-Hop ticket-winning slogan which will be displayed at the top of the Pan-Hel-DZV defense booth to be installed soon in the Union.

Also selected from the 1942 slogan entries were five honorable mention winners, who will be presented tickets to the State theater. These slogans will be displayed on the booth below the winner.

"Be a Bond-bardier," was the honorable mention slogan entered by Sid Salsburg, L. A. '44. Wayne Edwards, Eng. '45, employed the CDC initials in his slogan, "Civilian Dollars and Cents will aid our country's defense."

"State your pledge in Stamps and Bonds," was the contribution of Rutledge Parker, Eng. '43. Rutledge Kowalsky, A. S. '44, entered the slogan, "Buy Adolph a tombstone—$18.75."

Using Michigan State's letters as a basis, Gene Enos, Eng. '43, submitted the following slogan, "M means Morale; S signifies Security; C certifies Courage. Promote these! Buy War Stamps!"

The defense booth, serving primarily as the campus center of War stamp sales, will also include a rumor clinic, a dispensary for tickets to all college functions for Wells hall service men and a general defense information center.

Judges for the contest were Patricia Reddy, PanHellenic council; John Schlueter, DZV, and Manny Mullen, CDC.

Temperature Falls, Blizzard Hits State

By BARBARA HAFFORD

Temperature in and near East Lansing was expected to reach 5 below zero this morning, and as low as 10 to 15 degrees below in upstate regions, H. W. Wills, meteorologist, U. S. weather bureau, revealed yesterday, as blizzard conditions swept the state.

In 19 days, January snowfall has already broken all previous records for the entire month, and the accumulated fall is almost three times the normal 10.8 inches. At 7:30 a. m. yesterday, it had already reached 27.8 inches, according to Wills' records.

He said that if this rate of fall continues, a new record will be set this winter. In the past 55 years, Michigan had averaged 46.0 inches per winter, and the greatest was 84.1 inches in 1925-26. At 7:30 a. m. Tuesday, this year's snow measured 46.8 inches, 0.8 inches above normal for the year.

Because of the rapidly declining temperature, two weather warnings were broadcast yesterday afternoon. Strong winds are causing snowbanks to fall back into the roads and block traffic. Fatalities can easily occur, Wills said, when motorists are stranded in sub-zero weather.

At noon yesterday, the thermometer read 17 degrees above zero, and by 4 p. m. it had already dropped to 8 above, he disclosed.

LANSING, Jan. 19 (AP)—The State Highway department warned motorists that travel was extremely hazardous and that shifting winds, reaching a velocity of between 50 and 60 miles an hour, threatened to clog Michigan trunk lines. Swirling snow in many sections

Army to Give ROTC Juniors Special Training—McLeod

Delay in Program May Extend Induction Date

Juniors in advanced ROTC will be given a special three-months' training course preparatory to officers' training school upon call to active duty by the ERC, according to a statement made yesterday by Col. Stuart M. McLeod, head of the college ROTC.

There is a possibility, however, that this program won't be ready at the end of winter term," McLeod said. In this case, ROTC juniors would not be subject to the April 4 call, he stated.

Upon successful completion of the prescribed training course, these men who are now juniors will be sent to a "service school," the kind to which graduating seniors will be sent upon completion of their course here, McLeod said.

No other plans have been made for members of the ERC who are not in enrolled advanced military. After they have taken three months of basic training, they may apply for officers' candidate school, but are not assured preference nor acceptance because of their ERC status, McLeod said.

The induction date for members of the army enlisted reserve is now set at April 4. Up to that time students will be called to active duty only because of low marks, decision to leave school, or their own request for active duty.

High Schoolers Strike

DETROIT, Jan. 19 (AP)—Approximately 2,500 students at Hamtramck high school and Co-pernick junior high school enjoyed a one day vacation today when an estimated 40 teachers walked out this morning in protest against the Board of Education's refusal to grant a 30 percent pay raise.

House Approves Bill to Drop War Time

LANSING, Jan. 19 (AP)—The house of representatives today adopted and sent to the senate for its concurrence a bill designed to exempt Michigan from daylight saving "war time."

The bill would turn back the hands of Michigan clocks an hour at 2 a. m. on Monday, Feb. 15, but would allow the boards of supervisors of Wayne and Oakland counties, by majority vote, to retain war time.

Attorney General Herbert J. Rughton had earlier cautioned the lawmakers war time was an exercise of congressional war powers, and that state legislatures have no authority to change it.

UNDER THE WIRE

SANTIAGO, Chile, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Chilean senate in a private session approved Pres. Juan Antonio Rios' decision to break relations with the Axis, informed political sources reported tonight.

LONDON, Jan. 19 (AP)—A Berlin broadcast said tonight that Robert Taylor, American film actor, had been interned by Spanish authorities after a U. S. bomber in which he was flying had been forced down in Spanish Morocco.

Cawood, Deihl Star in Team's First Victory

By TOM RIORDAN

Using a torrid fast-break offense, the Michigan State basketball team finally broke its seven-game losing streak by overwhelming the Dearborn naval training school, 55 to 24, on the Jenison fieldhouse court before a slim crowd of 2,100 fans last night.

Taking a first period lead in the opening minutes of play, the State eagles were never behind. At the half they led 22 to 11 and during the last 20 minutes they piled up 33 tallies, mostly on their fast-break.

Plans Changed

It was originally planned that the Spartans would employ a double pivot offensive system, but when the small, speedy crew of Roy Deihl, Dan Pjesky, Jack Cawood, Ollie White and Pat Peppier were teamed together, they started clicking on the race horse game.

Cawood paced the individual scorers of both clubs with a 15 point total on six field goals and three free throws—Pjesky wasn't far behind with his six baskets and two charity tosses, and Deihl hit his scoring stride by cutting the meshes for H.

Deihl Stars

The most outstanding floor game was turned in by Deihl. The little forward pulled several "Chet Aubuchon" passes under the hoop that resulted in scores, besides hitting four times on longs.

The losers were outclassed all the way and were only within striking distance of the Spartans in the very early stages of the game. Bob Anet paced the Dearborn scorers, netting 8 points on three baskets and two foul shots.

The Spartans will be gunning for victory No. 2 Saturday eve. See BASKETBALL—Page 3

She's 'Desperate'

Her appeal in behalf of dates was received by the men of Abbot hall this week as herself as "Desperate." Claiming about the lack of ambitions on the part of the residents, the correspondent said that "lots of girls" would be willing to have blind dates with "almost anybody."

The postcard was somewhat of a surprise to Mrs. Marshall Goodwin, who has three years as social secretary for the hall has arranged for a thousand blind dates for men, including mass dating for exchange dining parties.

Another Wait

Ready about 40 per cent of ROTC juniors are sporting officers' uniforms around campus, but their less fortunate brothers who found waistcoats too large or pants too short have another two weeks to wait for the Pettibone company, contractors for the uniforms, said yesterday that a large number of necessary alterations might take them even longer. But the quantity of uniforms needed was not abnormal, the company reported, concluding that measurements for uniforms were made almost a month ago.

With Army Tries Cut Off Nazis

ERO, Egypt, Jan. 19 (AP)—The left wing of the British army had swept across Tripoli in a dash of less than 50 miles or less of an island dash apparently intended to cut in ahead of the Rommel's fleeing Axis along the coast. The advance had covered more than 40 miles within 24 hours.

The Cairo radio, in a broadcast heard in London by Reuters, reported the British within 10 miles of Tripoli.

The British right, driving along the coastal road, reached Tripoli in an area 80-odd miles from the city. The British announced the extraordinary rapid movement of the British army, said Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, commander in chief of the British army, said his southern army was in contact as early as last night with the Axis "to Tarhuna," a town only 40 miles southeast of Tripoli.

Attack in Tunisia, in French Sector

LIED HQ, North Africa, Jan. 19 (AP)—Enemy tanks and heavy armor in sharp actions behind the front lines, according to the headlong attack of Marshal Erwin Rommel's Tripolitanians, have repulsed their attacks in the general area 40 to 45 miles south of the Tunisian coast and have made a penetration of the French front line at one place, an Allied communiqué reported today.

The air forces, however, continued their operations on a considerable scale. Flying Fortresses delivered a destructive attack on the Tripoli area in co-operation with two other attacks by the Libyans of the northern sector, active operations were still limited by weather conditions.

An Effort in Behalf of the Students

ONCE in every blue moon that reflects across the Red Cedar river, somebody comes across with a constructive idea. This time it's the Union board, headed by Pres. Philip C. Althen and Union Manager Emory Foster.

They have put their heads together to provide Michigan State students with a unique form of late-evening entertainment on week-ends. Beginning next Friday night the mixed lounge of the Union will be converted into a ballroom where students may come and go at their leisure. Music will emanate from the nickelodeon in the Union grill through a special loudspeaker.

The cost to students will be practically nothing—just enough to keep the music going. Dress will be quite informal. Whether you've been ice skating, to the movies, to an athletic event or just walking, you'll always be able to drop into the Union lounge after 10:30 p. m., and fill out the rest of your evening.

With limited transportation and traditional parties being minimized due to the war, this nominal and timely entertainment should be heartily received by Michigan State students.

Hats off to you, Mr. Althen, for the idea, and to you, Mr. Foster, for the excellent cooperation.

Anniversary of United Nations Pact

JANUARY, 1943, marks the first anniversary of the signing of the United Nations Declaration. Twenty-six nations signed this agreement in Washington last January. Since then three other nations have joined.

This anniversary focuses attention on these facts:

The United States is part of the world. We cannot live isolated and remain unmolested no matter how much we want to. We tried it once. It didn't work. War came anyhow.

Now that we are in the fight, we can't do the job alone either. We need the United Nations and the United Nations need us. We have to fight as a team. Only teamwork will win.

Every country made the same mistake we did. Every country tried to conduct its foreign policy according to what it thought was its own self-interest. This selfish, narrow, yes, isolated viewpoint turned out to be the worst possible way to serve our own interests. We almost all went under.

Only a coalition forced upon us by great common danger has turned the tide. The United Nations together can do and are now beginning to do what no country could do alone. Lick the Axis!

It took the killing of millions of boys, the spending of hundreds of billions of dollars to teach us we're part of the world, that what happens in China, and Russia and England, and Czechoslovakia and Poland is important to us.

Spartans at War

By AL BERGLUND

FORMERLY a varsity athlete at East Chicago, Ind., and Michigan State college, once a coach at St. Viator college, Ill., and recently at the University of Arizona, Spartan Lieut. Lou Zarza, USNR, is conditioning aviation cadets at the Athens, Ga., navy pre-flight school. Zarza is one of four boxing instructors at the base, capitalizing on the experience he had at State as a varsity boxer as well as a football player.

Spartan Ken Dunn, Farm House man from Hastings, is taking pilot training at Maxwell field, Ala. Dunn was graduated last spring.

Ensign Bob Sterling, '39, Pontiac, was given navy wings recently and is now on active duty at one of the navy's air operational training centers before being assigned to combat duty.

Two former Spartans have become "West Texas Bombardiers." Second Lieut. Ira H. Blanchard went to State for a year, as did Second Lieut. Marshall E. Hanson, ATO who schooled here and at Cornell "U." Both are now on active duty as bombardiers with the AAF.

The Gulf Coast Air Training center has announced that wings have just been given to two Spartans with the beginning of the new year. Lieut. Glenn F. Squiers, Dowagiac, got his flight training at Lake Charles field, Texas, and Lieut. D. Wayne Weber, Lansing, won his wings at Moore field, also in Texas.

THINKIN' OUT LOUD

By Sheldon Moyer

DEAN W. KUYKENDALL, journalism instructor and head of the college job placement bureau, presented us with some very interesting information recently.

Kuykendall, who will be moving into the new journalism department offices, room 3 of Union annex, sometime soon, already is beginning to place students—mostly women these days—with jobs for next June.

In establishing his contacts, he has discovered it wise to be familiar with the ranking of Michigan State in relation with other colleges and universities in the nation.

Digs Up Figures

One of the most revealing manners by which schools are ranked is by comparative enrollment. So Kuykendall dug up the latest figures for 1942-43 enrollment from the Dec. 19 issue of School and Society, and then passed them on to us.

On the basis of full time resident students, the University of California leads all other schools with an enrollment of 18,364. Minnesota is second in the nation and tops in the middlewest with 11,859. In all, there are six schools with enrollments over 10,000.

Michigan State was ranked 21st with an enrollment of 6,100. Like all the other schools, this was the initial figure released at the opening of fall term in 1942. Actually, the registration at Michigan State passed 6,300 before registration closed, but it is likely that enrollment at other schools also had a slight increase, so there would be no sharp change in the rankings.

Drops Proportionate

On the other hand, enrollment figures in all colleges and universities have dropped on an average of 10 to 15 per cent since last fall, the reason, of course, being the inroads made by the armed forces.

It is interesting to note how the rankings change when extension, evening school and other part time students are taken into consideration. On this basis, New York university is at the top and California is second. Columbia, sixth among full time students, jumps to third place, and Minnesota drops to fourth.

The following is a list of the nations first 25 schools and their rank according to the enrollment of full time students:

Institution	Rank	Full-Time Resident Students
California	1	18,364
Minnesota	2	11,859
Illinois	3	11,704
Ohio State	4	11,152

In Campus Quarters

By Helen Schmidt and Scottie McNeal

NOW that things have calmed down as far as the love life of M.S.C. students is concerned, people are beginning to think about parties and the like. Pins and rings are stepping into the background to give such things as sleigh rides and radio parties the limelight.

The bells are ringing not for me and my gal, but in preparation for the sleigh ride that the Phi Taus are going to give Friday night. It's good to know that all of this lovely snow isn't going to go to waste. Bill Barr and Ed Morrison, who say they know horses inside and out, are in charge of the arrangements. The pledges of S.A.E. and Alpha Phi are planning to exchange menus tonight and Lambda Chi and Alpha Chi are doing likewise. There is to be a radio party at the Delta Chi house Friday night and the boys specified that the girls wear skirts and sweaters. . . . a very good idea.

One of the most unique parties of the term took place last Saturday. . . . eleven couples started out in three cars at 4 p. m. and their first stop was at the bowling alleys. . . . after bowling only one line—there's no sense in getting worn out at the very beginning—they indulged in a bit of barbarism at the Famous, and followed with a movie and a radio party.

The Sigma Kappas will give a tea on Friday, Jan. 22, honoring Mrs. Majel Schneider who was recently elected as grand secretary of the national office of Sigma Kappa. Congratulations to you—that's quite an honor.

Now that we have broken the ice with the news of the various shindigs, the time has come for the inevitable romance items. . . . you didn't really believe that there weren't going to be any, did you?

Tomorrow is the wedding day of Charles Uber, '41, and Helen Marie Beetwall. . . . Barney Schultz, Delta Chi, has been engaged to Midge Snyder, '42, who is now living in Ann Arbor, but he was too shy to tell anyone. . . . one of his fraternity brothers dragged it out of him. . . . Ann Smith, Delta Zeta, rated a pin from Dick Marland and a serenade from his Kappa Sig brothers. . . . Jean Oviatt has the Delta Sig pin of Jack Draper of Albion. . . . Phi Tau Ed Morrison tried to buy "passing out" cigars (take it any way you want to) Monday after he announced his pinning Inez Madden, student at New Rochelle College for Women, but couldn't find a town. More ratcheting at Pi Kappa Phi Wes Ratchford, Alice Hamacher, Ag D Ita pledge Friday night.

The S.A.E.'s now have new officers. . . . President, Faulman; vice-president, Canham; recording secretary, William A. Peterson; corresponding secretary, Carl Hagen; treasurer, Howard Graham.

For many years Einstein had the place of importance in the field of relativity. . . . one of M.S.C.'s own sons developed a new slant on the thing. Donald Monroe, Sigma Nu, has announced there is something new in relativity activity which is all previous theories—Einstein's. Just ask him at any time. . . . he can be found in the at any time.

Bombardiers Top Sigma Kappas

Fast and exciting ball was played last night when the "Bombardiers" won a 33-7 victory over the Sigma Kappas.

Although the Bombardiers won with a large margin, the Sigma Kappa's offered plenty of competition with their fast defense work. Blond Billie Morley gained eight points for the winners with her speedy ability.

Very close was the game between West Mayo, and the "Clinkers," which West Mayo took by a 27-23 decision. This tilt was more evenly matched in ability, and high scorer of the West Mayo, who netted 15 evening was Barbara Lovejoy of points for her team. High-score woman on the "Clinkers" was Kay Videk, who chalked up 12 points.

Scores from Monday night's game are: East Mayo 17, Holy Terrors 15; Campbell 16 and "Williams Wizards" 16. Horse-shoe Gang defeated the "Fighting Six" with a 22 to 10 score, and the "Lone Rangers" were victorious over the "Sharpies" with a 29-11 decision.

Tomorrow night, East Mayo and West Mayo will battle it out, and the "G. G.'s" will play the "Holy Terrors."

ALPHA PHI BOWLERS are leading with a total 532 pin score over Sigma Kappa's 515 score. Closely following in third place is South Campbell with a 511 score, and Kappa Alpha Theta falls into fourth place with 502.

High bowlers from the Friday tournament are Beth Hollard, Alpha Phi, with a score of 122; Betty Herman, independent, and Elizabeth Ann Murphey of West Mayo team, both scoring 180.

Today, at 5:30 p. m. in the Rainbow allies, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Omicron Pi, North Campbell, Ewing House, and Epsilon Chi, will bowl it out.

AAU Names All-America Track Stars

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—Lieut. (J. G.) Joe McCluskey, winner of 23 national senior titles, today was named for the 12th time on the all-America track and field team selected by Secretary-Treasurer Dan Ferris of the A. A. U. for the 1943 athletic almanac and track and field guide.

Lieut. McCluskey, the Manchester, Conn. athlete who did his college running for Fordham and now is an instructor at the navy's North Carolina pre-flight school, was named as the outstanding performer at 10,000 and 15,000 meters—events in which he won national titles last year. But for the fact he missed out in 1936, Shufflin' Joe would have had a string of 13 straight years on Ferris' team.

On the team for the tenth time is Lon Gregory, distance star of the Millrose A. A. of New York and school principal at Cleveland N. Y. Two men are on the squad for the fifth successive year—Cornelius Warmerdam, the world's only 15-foot pole vaulter, and Ensign Fred Wolcott, hurdling ace from Georgia pre-flight. Wolcott was named for the 70-yard hurdles.

Greg Rice, New York A. C.'s great two and three miler, and the late John Dorian who died last month, are four-year men. On for the third consecutive year are Harold Davis, San Francisco Olympic club sprinter, Chief Specialist Billy Brown, the jumper from Norfolk training station, and Al Blozis, shot putter.

The team:

66 yards—Barney Ewell, Penn State.
100 and 220 yards—Harold Davis, San Francisco Olympic club.
440 yards—Cliff Bourland, Southern Calif. A. A. Los Angeles.
660 yards—Roy Cochran, Great Lakes N. T. S.
880 and 1,000 yards—John Borland, Ashbury Park, N. J. A. C.
1,500 meters—Gilbert Dodds, Boston A. A.
5,000 meters—J. Gregory Rice, New York A. C.

20 kilometers—Lon Gregory, Millrose A. A.
25 kilometers—Johnny Kelley, Boston Edison E. C.
30 kilometers—Don Heinicke, Baltimore White Horse society.

Freshman Basketball Team Boasts Several Outstanding Cage Prospects

By JOHN PICHURSKI
Outstanding speed, good ball handling ability, and a scoring ability better than average are the qualities of the Michigan State freshman basketball team, claims Coach Joe Holsinger.

Actual practice started last Wednesday, and many promising players have turned up. In the forward position, Earl Snelling of Newark, Ohio, has shown the most promise. Competitors for the same position that are following closely behind him are Tom King, East Lansing lad, Sam Fortino of Alma, Robert Stevens, Claypool, Indiana, and Don Morfee of Gary, Ind.

Competing for the center post are "Big Joe" Bale of Detroit, Dick Nametz of Benton Harbor, and George Francke of Saginaw. All are tall and have shown themselves well so far.

There are many competitors for the guard spots with Dick Olsen, Ben Sierra, and Robert Wolkovich of Gary, Ind., Elmer Munkachy of Newark, O., "Little Joe" Bale of Detroit, Mich., and Frank Smith of Cadillac, all seeing action on the first club.

In the two-game-in-one-evening affair, separate Spartan teams will see action, permitting more boys to play.

An intersquad game for the visitors on campus during Farmers' Week will be played on Feb. 4.

Other games, opposition yet unnamed, will be played on Feb. 12, 16, 19, and 25. All games will be played in the Jenison fieldhouse, and the games will start at 7 o'clock.

Assisting Coach Holsinger are two student tutors, Bob Sherman, former varsity football player and one-time all-state cage star from Lansing Eastern, and Ira Aubuchon, brother of last year's hardwood captain, Chet.

Braves Drop Pair of Loop's Oldest

BOSTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—Intimating that they had about reached the end of their playing days, the Boston Braves today unconditionally released two of the National league's oldest players, Outfielders Johnny Cooney, who will be 42 in March, and the 40-in-April Paul (Big Poison) Waner.

Waner, one of baseball's greatest hitters, along with his brother Lloyd, came to the Braves in 1941, after being shunted to Brooklyn by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Cooney, still a dependable hitter when he reached 40, was one of the most versatile players in the majors. When the Braves cut him adrift in 1930 because of a bone trouble in his pitching arm, he became a first baseman and outfielder and, after spending six years in the minors, was brought back to the National league by Brooklyn in 1935.

Reds 79 Miles from Kharkov in Big Sweep

52,000 Prisoners Taken in Week's Fighting; Kamensk Also Falls

By The Associated Press
MOSCOW, Jan. 19.—The Red army has reached a point only 79 miles from Kharkov, big Ukraine industrial city, in a continuing westward sweep that has resulted in the capture of 52,000 Axis prisoners in one week, it was announced officially tonight in a special communique circulated by the Soviet news agency Tass.

Kamensk, 85 miles north of Rostov, strategic Nazi base at the northwestern corner of the Caucasus, also fell to the advancing Russians, the special communique said, and field reports placed the Russian vanguards of this drive within 75 miles of that vital enemy communications hub.

Valuiki and Urazovo fell to the Russians driving on Kharkov, and the Red army now has hurled back the Germans to their 1941 invasion mark.

Valuiki, an important railway junction for three lines, is 82 miles east of Kharkov, and Urazovo is 79 miles from the steel city.

The capture of Valuiki and Urazovo apparently was made by the Red army that two days ago took Aleksyevka, 40 miles to the northeast on the railway leading back to Voronezh. Aleksyevka was reported captured Sunday.

'Marsh' Goodwin, Abbot Hall Adviser, Leaves for Navy

After acting as Abbot hall resident adviser for three years, Lieut. (JG) Marshall Goodwin left Michigan State college last night to take up duties with the navy at Coral Springs, Fla.

Goodwin, known as "Marsh" or "Mr. G" to the hundreds of Abbot hall residents for whom he had been "house father," had been with the dorm since its opening. He spent one year as assistant before he and Mrs. Goodwin assumed their positions as adviser and social hostess.

Before leaving, Goodwin was presented by dorm residents with a stainless steel officers' travelling case at a surprise farewell party. Joined by several recent dorm alumni, including serenaders from Sigma Chi fraternity, dorm men sang farewells late Monday night.

Goodwin was also known around the campus for his work with the college accounting office.

A program which will place thousands of Michigan's youth from 14 to 17 on farms in 1943, is being organized by the Michigan Manpower commission, according to B. D. Kuhn of the extension department.

The commission has set up a special State Youth Farm Labor committee which will correlate all the organizations in the state dealing with the farm youth labor problem. A chairman who will be in charge of the entire program has been appointed by R. J. Baldwin, of the college extension department. He is C. B. Dibble, extension specialist in entomology.

No Action Planned On Party Ruling, Emmons Says

The student-faculty social committee does not plan any change in its previous stand of allowing formal parties to continue, although there has been considerable comment against it, Dean L. C. Emmons, committee chairman, said yesterday.

The committee feels, however, that these parties are inappropriate, and if students are earnestly against the parties, a petition can be submitted to Student council, Dean Emmons stated. Only by such action will the matter be referred to the party committee, he added.

Commenting on recent letters to the State News opposing formal parties, the dean said he did not know how representative such feeling was.

FDR Orders UMW Back to Work

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—As commander-in-chief of the armed forces, President Roosevelt served notice on striking anthracite miners today that they must return to work within 48 hours or he would take the "necessary steps" to protect the nation against "serious injury to the war effort."

The chief executive's warning, possibly implying that troops would be dispatched to the mines, was telegraphed to local and national officers of the United Mine workers. The War Labor board had advised him that the strikers had not complied with two requests from it for a return to work.

Although 6,000 of the strikers returned to the jobs today, UMW locals at two large collieries voted to continue the three-weeks old walkout, and the meeting of a third broke up in confusion before balloting was completed. Altogether more than 12,000 still are idle.

Japs Lose Last Major Positions on Papua

ALLIED HDQ. IN AUSTRALIA, Jan. 19 (AP)—American and Australian infantrymen have stormed and taken the last two important Japanese positions on the Papuan peninsula of New Guinea, Sanananda Point and Sanananda village, and the surviving enemy is now holed up in three small pockets just inland from the coast, the Allied command announced today.

This successful conclusion of the next-to-last phase in the campaign to drive the Japanese off the peninsula, left General MacArthur's troops with only a mopping-up operation to be undertaken.

Farmers' Week Slate to Feature Stassen, Lochner, Winkler

A program featuring foreign affairs at the 26th annual Michigan State college Farmers' week will hear Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota and Louis P. Lochner, former Associated Press bureau chief in Berlin.

Ernest Winkler, refugee from a German concentration camp, and Aloha Baker, woman traveler, also will address the program.

Farmers' Week this year is February 2, 3 and 4.

Lochner, who returned to the United States last year after spending years in Berlin, will discuss "What About Germany." Lochner, winner of a Pulitzer prize for journalistic work, scored news beats on the German invasion of Poland and the attack on Russia.

Stassen, who recently proposed a world parliament, will speak on the "Farmer and Our War Effort."

Winkler is a former German army officer and Catholic youth leader.

The Share-the-Meat-for-tory committee of Michigan State college is inaugurating intensive campaign in an effort to cut down meat consumption of M. S. C. students, in view of a serious shortage predicted for the coming months.

According to a report by Prof. G. A. Brown, head of animal husbandry department, the meat supply has been reduced to 70 per cent for the quarter of 1943 over what it was a year ago, and at the present rate of consumption, a serious meat shortage is predicted for the coming months.

"Every student eating meals regularly at one of the dormitories is consuming his allotted share of meat, and every time he goes out for a hamburger or eats a lunch with meat, he is consuming more than his share," Brown stated. Professor Brown is chairman of the committee.

With this situation in mind, the committee held its meeting Thursday, at which suggestion was made that posters and cartoons be placed in dormitories, calling the student attention to the necessity of reducing civilian consumption of vital war foods.

The committee was approved by Pres. John A. Hannah at request of the State Nutrition committee and consists of the following members: Dean Grant, foods and nutrition department; Prof. C. A. Hoppert, of chemistry; William Carl Eng, '44, representing men's dormitories; Katharine Simon, L. A. '43, and Shirley Rech, H. E. '45, representing women dormitories.

reduced visibility to the point, the department said.

Although maintenance men were working on a 24-hour basis, the department said, efforts to clear roads in the northern peninsula were confined to US-27 and US-23. Snow moving equipment at Alpena was urged down late this afternoon as that sector felt the fury of a wind-sweeping snow east from Houghton and Ontonagon counties.

Southwestern Michigan was hard hit this afternoon as drifts blocking M-49 from Alpena south to the Allegan line and from DeWitt to Niles; M-43 from Kalamazoo northeast to Richland and 131 from Kalamazoo south to Plainwell.
