So Far

Hitler Carnage Has Cost World 400 Billions

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (AP)—Adolf Hitler's lust for conquest has already cost the world more than $400,000,000,000, the commerce department estimated today, and the cost may exceed $500,000,000,000 if the Führer is not brought to his knees for another year.

While most of the financial burden has fallen on the nations opposed to the Axis, the cost of Hitler has been shared by the Germans themselves and, more particularly, by the Italians, the department reported in its weekly publication, Foreign Commerce weekly.

German military expenditures since Hitler came to power were estimated in excess of $100,000,000,000, while Italy was said to have spent about $8,000,000,000 since June, 1940.

While a late entrant into the war against Nazism, the United States has already spent more than any other power fighting Germany, the article continued.

Taking only expenditures already used or appropriated for military purposes during the last three years, the cost of Hitlerism to the United States so far was placed at $112,300,000,000.

Expenditures by the United Kingdom since the rise of Hitlerism were estimated at $58,200,000,000 and of Russia at $96,000,000,000.

MOSCOW, Feb. 5 (AP)—Russian forces headed by dash-ing Cossacks advanced closer to Rostov and the Sea of Azov today, hacking at the split-up-German forces in the Caucasus, while the Soviet armies north of Rostov were reported threatening a vast new encirclement of the rich Donets basin.

Aviation General Named European Commander

LONDON, Feb. 5 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Frank M. Andrews, advocate of repeated use of the heavy bomber, succeeded Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today as commander of U. S. forces in the European theater and pledged an immediate intensification of the aerial onslaught on Germany.

General Eisenhower now is Allied commander in North Africa.

"We intend to go all out in intensifying the air warfare," the 60-year-old flying Tennessean declared. "My first job is to increase and intensify the bombing of the enemy."

Only yesterday, U. S. Flying Fortress bombed German soil for the second time in this war and the elevation of Andrews to the European command was interpreted as meaning a sharp upturn in the fight against Hitler from above.

Andrews said he would build up U. S. air forces in Britain in order to increase the aerial offensive against Germany. He said there would be no immediate night bombing of Germany by his forces, since big Flying Fortresses and Liberators are better adapted to precision daylight attacks.

Plain U. S. Insignia to Be Outstyled

ROTC cadets who have not been able to secure the "libel" "U. S." insignia with ROTC superimposed and are wearing just the plain "U. S." are violating regulations according to Lieut. Col. E. H. Sullivan, acting head of the Michigan State ROTC unit.

"Let's play the game the right way," Sullivan said. "They are not army officers yet. Until then they must follow regulations laid down for ROTC cadets."

However, ROTC cadets have been unable to buy the proper insignia for their uniforms at Demonstration Hall supply store.

To meet this menace, the Germans were declared rushing squadrons of tanks and reserves into the violent battle west and south of Krasny Leman. The Russians said they captured several towns, wiped out 500 Germans and 18 tanks, and burned the reinforced enemy tank.

The Russians were approaching the large enemy base of Kursk from the north, east and southeast, enveloping rich farm land.

Cut Orel Railroad

The nearest Russians were 22 miles north at Zdobychano and they had cut the trunk line to Orel, retaining territory that the Germans captured in the early phase of the Russian war.

A special communique heard tonight in London announced that the Red army has captured Stary Oskol, an important railway town 80 miles southeast of Kursk. It also said Izyum in the Ukraine, 70 miles southeast of Kharkov, and on the Kharkov-Voroshilovgrad railway, had been captured. The Red army thus had cut one of the main feeder lines into Rostov from the north-west.

Also Threaten Kharkov

Kharkov, too, was threatened from many directions. The nearest Russians were but 50 miles from the steel center and were 110 miles deep in the Ukraine. The whole German position in the eastern Ukraine grew more hazardous by the hour with the Russians astride the main lateral railways and roads and driving relentlessly forward with superior forces.

(The German communique admitted Russian battalions had landed at Novorossiisk, Black sea naval base south of Rostov, but said the Russians feared encirclement. By implication, Berlin acknowledged an advance on Rostov. Russian attacks were reported repulsed on the Kuban front of the West Caucasus, on the middle Don and north of Lake Ladoga near Leningrad.)

No College to Be Taken Over Complete

IT ISN'T likely that educational opportunity for women will be destroyed in co-educational colleges taken over for the military specialized training program, Paul V. McNutt told reporters recently. The chairman of the War Manpower commission explained that there was no intention, as he understood it, of taking over an entire plant for educating soldiers; the load would be distributed as fairly as possible.

WMC officials disclosed that names of the colleges would be released piecemeal, probably by notification directly to the institutions as they are chosen by the army-navy-WMC committee. If public announcements are made, it was said, they will be timed so that they will not precede receipt of word by the colleges affected.

Further details of the plan was described earlier by Brig. Gen. Joe N. Dalton, assistant chief of staff for personnel, services of supply. The army program will provide technical instruction for about 150,000 young soldiers each year, he said.

"These men . . . will spend from 12 to 48 weeks in classroom, laboratories and study halls preparing for special duties in such services as the air forces, corps of engineers, medical department, chemical warfare, signal corps and the adjutant general's division."

Of discipline, General Dalton said:

"Each unit of the army specialized training program will be under a commandant whose military authority will be final. He will have a small staff of officers and enlisted members of his unit when they are not engaged with their men who will assist him in directing the activities of all studies. He will establish a physical conditioning schedule which will include the many types of athletic games now so popular on the campus. Military subjects will be taught and the soldier-students will be organized into cadet corps."

The program is not designed to be a "nice soft spot for young men who have been inducted into the service," the general added. "In this program each trainee is a seventh-grade private, drawing $50 a month . . . He's not a college boy in uniform; he's a doughboy in a military unit located at a college."

Weekly Letter to Men in the Service

(This open letter to men in the service is a weekly feature of the Michigan State News, describing the outstanding events on campus. Clip it out and mail it to a friend in the service.)

DEAR Johnny:
If you were ever a politician at Michigan State college, you can be glad you're in the army now. Two of them resigned from Student council this week, charging that the organization is meaningless, and four more are feeling uncomfortable about the investigation Student council decided to make about Blue Key selection methods. Meanwhile, new Blue Key members with guilty consciences are busy getting into more activities.

Last night saw what will probably be the last big J-Hop for the duration, with Bob Chester's band supplying music. Decorations were based on a sweetheart Valentine theme, and Gov. and Mrs. Harry F. Kelly and Pres. and Mrs. John A. Hannah headed the guest list. More than 1,200 couples attended, and many of them had 8 o'clocks this morning.

Close to 17,000 farmers swarmed the campus Tuesday through Thursday for a three-day Farmers' week. Louis P. Lochner, former Associated Press head in Berlin, and Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota were chief speakers.

A new six-hour examination has been made compulsory for all Liberal Arts senior men with 180 credits or more, and seniors with at least 180 credits in other divisions may take the exam and receive a diploma if subject to call to military service. Michigan State won its second basketball game Thursday night when it took on Romulus air base and came out with a 69 to 27 score. Many of the team members, however, are still recuperating from illness and injuries.

Sting for now, Johnny; do drop us a line once in a while. Love to you and you and especially to YOU.

Mannix to Show Art of Falconry

Tonight at 8 p. m. in the College auditorium, Daniel Mannix will show the World Adventure series audience the art of falconing which he practiced in Mexico as a sport—the same art encouraged in Germany before the war.

Falconing was encouraged in Germany, Mannix explains, because a hawk flies much like a fighting plane. In the pre-war days two of the world's most enthusiastic falconers were Hermann Goering and Sir Charles Portal. Now one commands the German Luftwaffe, and the other the RAF.

Mannix will narrate his own color film, "Mexican Adventure." The movies will show Mannix and his wife practicing falconing by which they catch Mexican iguanas, known to the natives as Chinese dragons, with American eagles.

Mannix, a naturalist, furnishes his New York apartment with choice specimens: an eagle with a six foot wing spread in the living room and a brick-red corn snake curled up on the hearth.

Adventurer and sportsman Mannix is also the author of a number of books and magazine articles about falconry.

Notre Dame Center Gives Irish Cagers Favorite Spot

By Tom Riordan

Notre Dame will be a heavy favorite tonight when its basketball team plays host to the Michigan State cagers on the Irish hardwood and for a good reason. It's the presence of Bobbie Faught in the Notre Dame lineup at center.

For the past two seasons

Faught has been a big gun for the Irish five and last year he landed on the second team of Chuck Taylor's All-America squad. The 6 feet 5 pivot man topped his mates in scoring in 1942 and his 26 points in a game at New York still stand as the highest individual scoring record in Madison Square Garden.

When the Spartans and Irish met in two games last winter each won on its home floor, 52 to 46 for Notre Dame and 46 to 43 for State. In these two contests Faught pumped in 15 and 13 points respectively. Most of his field goals came on tip-ins or pivot shots.

Gerard Last Year

In contrast, Faught's scoring in the past, Coach Ben VanAlstyne had Joe Gerard, who could shoot in a few baskets on his own. In the six games with the Irish, Gerard outscored Faught and finished with 19 takes in both hits. Van hopes that

State Polo Team Meets OSU Today

Michigan State polo team will open its abbreviated season today at 2 p. m. in Dem hall against Ohio State university. Max Gerard Peterson said last night.

The Buckeyes will start a team with only one man missing from last year's line-up. But the entire State line has never seen varsity action. Major Peterson is planning to start Dave Lewis at No. 1, Hal Diegel at No. 2 and Jack Ballinger at No. 3.

Also slated to see action according to Major Peterson are Joe Nelson and Frank Winter. Ohio State has been the first team that the cavalry department had been able to schedule. Many of the other teams which State played in recent years are handicapped by transportation trouble. And State finished its moderate indoor season, undefeated last year.

Skiers Go Ski-joring, Weather Permitting

If weather conditions take a turn today about 2 p. m. the Spartan ski club will sponsor a ski-joring affair on the new (P) on front of Macklin Hall.

By the snowing, ski-joring is a winter sport for skiers that doesn't require hills. A horse furnishes the power with the enthusiasts being pulled by Dobson by means of a tow rope.

either Ollie White or Jack Cawood, who got 19 and 20, respectively, in the win from Romulus air base, can take over where Gerard left off and nullify Faught's scoring.

Ability to control the backboard is another ability of the big Irish center and this time Van has no ace up his sleeve to do anything about this.

Last winter Fred Stone, Spartan six foot six inch center, snatched as many rebounds as Faught did, but Stone, who has just recovered from a bad cold which kept him in College hospital for two weeks, won't even make the trip to South Bend.

Helped from Floor

Against Romulus Stone saw action for about five minutes in the first half and he was noticeably tired. With only several minutes in the last period to be played, Stone took the floor again. However, after several minutes he had to be helped from the floor and consequently Van doubts if he'll be able to use Stone at all against Notre Dame.

This will probably necessitate moving Cawood to center with White and Roy Deihl taking over the forward posts. Deihl will be playing with a heavy knee brace, but it isn't expected to bother the little front line man too much. The Spartan guards will probably be Pat Peppler and Dan Pjesky.

LaMotta Wins Over Robinson in 10 Rounds

DETROIT, Feb. 5 (AP)—Rugby Jacob LaMotta, belting his Joe through the ropes for a nine-count in the eighth round, handed Ray (Sugar) Robinson his first defeat in 130 fights by scoring a 10-round decision tonight before a record crowd of 18,939 spectators at Olympia stadium. Both are New Yorkers. LaMotta weighed 160½ for a 16-pound advantage.

In a little upset unequalled in many years, LaMotta, 33, 5 to 1 underdog just up from preliminary rounds, gained the unanimous decision of Referee Sam Hennessy and the two judges. Where other foes were flustered or driven back by Robinson's punching power, LaMotta kept working in scoring defense. Body blows that splashed up the Sugar Boy for a tremendous result in the late rounds.

Late in the eighth round, LaMotta hammered Robinson with a right to the body and followed with a left to the head that drove the apparently undefeated prize fighter through the ropes into the ring apron. The bell rang just as the knockdown timekeeper's gongmen were going down for 10.

Referee Hennessy, more card game LaMotta five rounds, Robinson four and called one even, letting Jumbo win the last round by this scoring.

'S' Boxers to Fight at Virginia Tonight

Michigan State's boxing team will be trying for its second win of its current road trip when the Spartans square off with Virginia university in Charlottesville, Va. tonight.

Thursday evening State scored its first win of the season by dropping Virginia Tech. Previously the Spartans had tied Penn State.

In tonight's affair, Capt. Bill Zurskowsky, who won by a forfeit in his Tech match will lead off in the Spartan card at 120 pounds. His twin brother, Walter, in the featherweight class and Eddie Wood at 135, both of whom won by technical knockouts in the first road meet, follow in that order.

Welterweight Charley Shimer will appear next on the program with Thane Bauman swinging in the 155 pound bout. Charley Calkins, winner of his matches against both Penn and Tech, is favored in his 165 pound fight.

Edo Menecotti, rugged footballer and light heavyweight should take his bout. Ward Fox, scheduled for the top weight mixup was forced to forfeit in that class Thursday because of an injury and he may not be able to compete again tonight.

Michigan Favored in Coming Meet With Spartan Cinder Squad

By PAT MCCARTHY

Michigan State's track team, having dropped the season's opener to Ohio State, travels to Ann Arbor Tuesday to meet the University of Michigan. The meet originally was scheduled as a triangular affair but Michigan Normal, the third team, will not be present.

The Wolverines are rated above the Spartans, being especially strong in the 440 and 880 runs, but not so powerful in the mile and two mile runs. They have good dash men and should be strong in the low hurdles. However, Michigan does not possess any high point man comparable to OSU's Dallas Dupre.

For State, Sid Brecher should make a good showing in the weight event, while Al Milne is expected to do a good deal better in the high jump than he showed in the Buckeye meet last Saturday. Captain Bill Scott can be expected to turn in his usual good performance in the mile.

Another important event coming up on the Spartan card is the Michigan State Twenty-third Annual track carnival to be held Saturday, February 19. The carnival is being opened this year to Michigan, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Indiana university. Biggest event of the affair will probably be the invitational 300 yards run in which some of the best runners in the country will compete.

Freshmen Cagers to Open Play With Outsiders Tonight

Joe Holsinger's Michigan State basketball team will get a taste of outside competition for the first time in three years tonight when the Spartan frosh play a double-header in the Jensen gym with two teams from the Lansing recreation league.

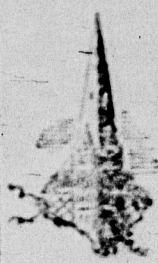

The first contest will start at 7 p. m. with the Spartan Blue five taking on the Vandervoort Hardward cagers. At 8 the Marine team from the Abrams aerial photography school will clash with the State Green squad.

Probable starters for the Blues will be Bob Stevens and Don Martee at forwards, George Francke at center, and Morris Tebb and Elmer Munkachy at guards.

This same Blue quintet dropped the Greens Thursday night in a Farmers' week program, 22 to 11. Munkachy poured through 13 points to pace scorers of both teams.

There is a chance that Munkachy might be moved up to the Green club to team with Earl Snelling, forward for the No. 1 frosh team. Snelling is the freshman standout. He and Munkachy played high school ball together at Newark, Ohio.

Besides Snelling at one of the forward posts, the Greens will put Tom King, "Big Joe" Hale, Sam Fortune and Dick Olsen on the floor for the opening tipoff.

RAF Bombers Hit Italian Naval Base

LONDON, Feb. 5 (AP)—The RAF bombed the Turin royal arsenal and the Spezia naval base in Italy, German industries in the Ruhr and Nazi submarine pens at Lorient on the French coast last night and bomber and fighter squadrons roared across the channel again today to keep the continent under aerial assault 'round the clock.

The new target of night attack was Spezia, below battered Genoa on the Ligurian seashore.

All the others have been hard hit before, but it was Turin's first bombing since last Dec. 11, when the first two-month phase of British attack on Italian industries ended.

Pilots reported the Turin defenses had been reinforced but had proved no more effective than on their previous forays across the Alps.

House Committee Ends Ruml Debate

BEARDSLEY RUML
pay-as-you-go

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5 (AP)—Members of the house ways and means committee appeared agreed tonight after four days' discussion of a pay-as-you-go tax plan that some portion of 1942 income taxes would be abated but many of them looked with disfavor on the Ruml plan.

Supporters of the proposal advocated by Beardsley Ruml, New York banker, to wipe out all 1942 income tax assessments conceded that they could not muster a majority in the committee but still hoped to win new followers.

Rep. Crawford (R-Mich.) appearing as a witness today, expressed the view that any tax cancellation, in view of the government's wartime needs, "is almost economic blasphemy."

Yank Airmen Win African Battles by 26 to 10 Ratio

ALLIED HDQ. IN NORTH AFRICA, Feb. 5 (AP)—A brilliant aerial victory in which American airmen destroyed 26 Axis planes and damaged 26 others, with a loss of 10 Allied craft, was announced today while land action remained minor and the British probed Field Marshal Rommel's defenses along the southern Tunisian frontier.

A headquarters spokesman announced that U. S. armored forces had withdrawn from the Sened railway station in central Tunisia, 65 miles northwest of the Axis-held port of Gabes, after "accomplishing the purpose of their mission."

Twenty-four of the 26 Axis planes shot down—this was yesterday in fights resulting from American raids on German air-dromes and auxiliary fields in the Gabes area—were torn apart by two formations of Flying Fortresses in a 50-mile running combat which cost but a single Fortress. The 25th Axis plane was downed by American Lightning fighters the 26th was destroyed in attempting to sweep in over the Allied forward area.

While this one-sided score was being run up over the Axis in the Tunisian area, the Allied middle east air force bombed Palermo in Italian Sicily and attacked enemy shipping off the Tunisian coast with undetermined results.

Former Students Cited for Bravery in New Guinea

Four former Michigan State college students are cited for bravery among the ranks of the "Lost Company" which held out for three weeks in a New Guinea jungle battle with Jap forces.

Spartans who saw action there were Capt. Roger Keast, of Lansing, a three-sport letterman who was killed in action while attacking a roadway position during the ambush; Capt. John Shirley of Grand Rapids; Capt. Peter Dalponte, of Three Rivers, baseball hurler in 1938-39; Sgt. Robert Devereaux of Grand Rapids, baseball and football numeral winner in 1939; and Lt. John J. Filarski, Coldwater.

Keast and Shirley led the infantry force across the roadway into Jap entrenchments where American bayonet fighting eliminated enemy resistance in the 15-day ambush. Keast was the only MSC student killed of the 367-man company of the 32nd infantry division.

Dalponte led a supply mission over the jungle trail to the isolated "island" of infantrymen during the hardest fighting days and was in charge of the ambushed garrison upon arrival, since Jap fire had thinned all ranking officers from the company.

Devereaux was cited as one of the bravest men in action. Although ill with malaria contracted in the hot, wet jungle, he continued action until his temperature reached 106 degrees and he was evacuated back to the main lines.

The American-endowed Yen-ching university, which the Japanese believed they destroyed at Peiping, has been reopened thousands of miles from the old campus, in the city of Chengu.
