

Seniors to Hold Primaries Today for Class Officers

15 Candidates Enter Race for Positions

With 15 students competing for the four senior offices, primary elections will be held today in the lower deck of the Union lounge, according to Pat Stone, Chicago, and Vera Gardner, Albion, co-chairmen of the elections.

The polls will open at 9 a.m. instead of 8 a.m. as previously announced. Since no extra petitions were handed in with signatures of 5 per cent of the class, the original slate of officers will be used.

No Withdrawals

The qualifications of the 15 candidates have been certified by the points supervisory committee and the faculty committee on eligibility.

There have been no withdrawals so all candidates will be listed, including ROTCs. In the event that an elected person leaves the campus, the next in line will automatically take office.

Two voting tables will be placed on the lower deck. Students with names beginning with letters between A and M will vote at one, and those between N and Z at the other.

Printed Ballots

Seniors must present their identification cards, but need not have proof of their senior status because there will be lists of names at the voting tables.

Voting will be by printed ballot. See SENIORS—Page 4

House Anticipates Presidential Veto

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (AP)—With the possibility of a presidential veto in the offing, the house turned over to conferees today the job of polishing up legislation outlawing the administration's program of subsidy payments to hold down food prices for consumers.

Senate conferees have not as yet been named, but little delay is anticipated once the conference gets to work. Both senate and house have voted to halt the subsidies, differing only when it should be done. The house has voted for a ban effective Thursday while the senate backhead bill outlaws them after June 30.

The real showdown will come in overruling an expected presidential veto. President Roosevelt last year vetoed a measure killing subsidies.

Today's Campus

... All Tied Up

Seeing is believing, but seeing isn't doing, as the pianist for Mrs. Wanda Wesslund's modern dancing classes found out the other day. Since the beginning of the term she has played appropriate rhythms while the class twisted, turned, pivoted, and stretched. Last week she decided that it looked easy enough to try herself, so she bared her feet and escorted with the others. Yesterday she came to class with knotted muscles and aching joints, hardly able to sit upright and play the piano. In the future she will stick to finger exercises on the keyboard.

... Quiet, Please

Above the din of pre-class discussion, Instructor Chester Egner made futile attempts to get his economics 209b group in a listening mood. The noise rather momentum until far from the rear of the room a voice asked, "What did you say?" Egner organized himself and answered, "I haven't said anything yet."

Thesis Play, 'Then it Was Summer' to be Presented Tomorrow Night

By BERNICE SHUPE

Backstage at Fairchild theater sets are lined up as Marie J. Robinson, Lockport, N. Y., graduate student, directs her master thesis production play, "Then it Was Summer" in final rehearsal. The play will be produced tomorrow at 8 p. m. in the theater.

An up-to-date story centering around Lt. Glenn Craig, USMC who returns from active duty in the Pacific, the play shows his problem of realizing the changes war brings to ordinary living. Cyril Jones, Detroit junior, will play Lieutenant Craig, who returns to the girl he left behind, Fay Fairchild. Playing the female lead, will be Margaret Mosher, Lansing sophomore.

Cast Named

The Fairchild home is presided over by Mrs. Fairchild, played by Annette Saravits, Lansing sophomore. Two pieces, Peg Bradshaw and Grace Bradshaw, will be played by Betty Wright, Detroit sophomore, and Harriet Wilcox, Houston, Texas, sophomore, respectively.

The difficulty of adjustment for those whose lives are devoted to peace is illustrated by the divinity student, Guy Walker, played by John McCaughy, St. Charles senior. Others affected by the war include a neighbor, See PLAY—Page 4

Ground Forces Seize Rooke Island, Extend Leatherneck Gains

ALLIED HDQ. IN S. W. PACIFIC, Tuesday, Feb. 15, (AP)

The Allies have occupied Rooke island in Bittaz strait, between New Britain and New Guinea, the high command announced today.

Ground forces also seized Goriss village on New Britain, 21 miles east of Cape Gloucester where the marines landed Dec. 26.

A communique two days ago announced that the marines had extended their holdings east of Borgen bay in the Cape Gloucester sector. The occupation of Goriss village evidently was a further extension of the leathernecks' territory.

The move onto Rooke island Saturday was not opposed by the Japanese and no contact with the enemy was reported.

Allied aircraft continued their pounding on Rabaul, at the northeastern tip of New Britain, and Kavieng on the northwestern tip of New Ireland, with 325 tons of bombs. Nine Japanese planes were destroyed in the raids. The Allies lost three.

Fifth Army Tells Italians to Leave Abbey Stronghold

ALLIED HDQ., Algiers, Feb. 14 (AP)—British Wellington night bombers capable of packing huge "block-buster" missiles have joined American warplanes in a devastating "round the clock" assault against German forces threatening the Allied beachhead near Rome, it was disclosed today.

Stalled for two weeks by the Germans' use of the Abbey Monte Cassino overlooking the Cassino battle front, the fifth army notified the monks and any other Italians in refuge there yesterday to get out as "the time has come when we must train our guns on the monastery."

Leaflets Carry Warning

Leaflets fired on Abbey hill by Allied artillery carried the warning.

The Germans have mined the slopes leading to the abbey with machinegun nests and snipers and have been reported using the monastery as an observation post and as a machine-gun stronghold.

Battle line reports said there was little activity in the Cassino area during the day because of a truce requested by the Germans to bury their dead. In the town, the Germans still held firmly to the southern part.

Court Finds AST Student Guilty

A special courts martial case held Friday found an AST area and language student of company B guilty on the charge of violating the 96th article of war, and fined him $10 on the specification of creating a disturbance by entering a classroom and by use of improper language.

Charges were preferred against the student for striking a professor teaching AST classes and for creating a disturbance prejudicial to the military service.

The court found him not guilty on the first specification, but amended the second specification to read "creating a disturbance by entering a classroom and by use of improper language."

The court consisted of Maj. Joseph P. Thompson, president of the court, Maj. James Speckman, Capt. Harry Whirl, Capt. Robert E. Smeltzer, Lt. Albert Miller and Lt. J. P. Choplin.

Counsel for defense was Lt. Joseph Cullum, and prosecuting attorney was Lt. Milton Aronson. Both were professional attorneys before entering the army.

AAF Beats Down Nazi Air Power at Gilze-Rijen

LONDON, Feb. 14 (AP)—American Thunderbolt fighter-bombers took over the offensive to whittle down German air strength today with a smash at the Gilze-Rijen airdrome, one of the Nazis' main fighter bases in Holland, executing the swift attack without loss.

The almost daily bombardment of Nazi installations in northern France continued meanwhile without let-up, with RAF and Allied bombers, Mitchells and Mosquito bombers under Spitfire escort giving emphatic poundings there the 42nd day-light pounding in 56 days.

RAF Typhoons joined the cross-channel offensive, striking an enemy airfield and other military targets in northern France.

All bombers returned from the attacks on northern France, but the RAF lost four fighters in the day's operations.

The Thunderbolt fighters escorted the P-47s carrying bombs instead of reserve fuel tanks to the usually heavily defended Gilze-Rijen, 65 miles inland from the Dutch coast, but the assault was carried out so rapidly that not a single German plane took to the sky in challenge.

This base is used by the Germans to launch interceptors against Allied fleets bound for Germany, a task for which Hitler is apparently saving his lighter force.

Five Staff Members to Hold Open Houses at Faculty Fireside

Five faculty members will be hosts at the second Faculty Fireside, traveling meeting of the YWCA, tomorrow from 7 to 8 p. m. Pres. Jean Barnum, Williamsburg, N. Y., senior, announced. The meeting will be open to all students desiring to attend.

Members of the faculty who will act as hosts are Prof. and Mrs. Ben Ewema, Prof. and Mrs. Hans Leonhardt, and Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Menchofer.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sheeran, and Prof. and Mrs. Thomas Good will also be at home to students.

Co-chairman Gene Dennison, Vernon junior, said that all those planning to attend should meet in the church parlors at Peoples church. She stressed promptness. Mary Lou Beard, Detroit junior, is working with Miss Dennison.

Home Ecs Will Work for Student Fund

By MARION HECKEL

Working from scaffolding built for their special use, the entire Home Economics division will participate in B and G assignments Friday, Feb. 25, for donating "Funds for Foreign Fellows," according to Co-chairmen Mary Gorsline, Battle Creek junior, and Marge Graff, Detroit junior.

The program, whose purpose is the collection of $275 toward a foreign fellowship scholarship, will be carried out in two shifts, the first from 5 to 6:30 p. m. and the later group taking over from 6:30 to 8 p. m.

Time or Money

Washing walls and transoms, waxing furniture and filing will make up part of the original program. The women will donate either their time or money.

The National Home Ec club will, Miss Graff said, make up the deficit between this drive's collection and the $500 goal.

The fund was started 10 years ago by Home Ec clubs all over Michigan, and has brought five graduate students from abroad to study advanced methods for use in their homelands. Although none of the students is at State, the $500 scholarship which is the goal of this present drive will result in a fellowship student here.

Speaking of the drive, Dean Marie Dye, head of the Home Ec division, pointed out that "we are buying bonds to make a better world—and we can build for it through understanding and by promoting friendship between foreign nations."

The drive will begin today at 7 p. m. with an open meeting for all Home Ec women in the Little theater of the Home Ec building, the co-chairmen said.

Prof. Luis-Alberto Sanchez, of the foreign institute program, will be the guest of honor and will speak on customs, traditions and lives of South American neighbors.

The freshman board plans to have a desk in the lobby of the Home Ec building this week from 1 to 5 p. m. to enable prospective B and G workers to sign up for their jobs.

SPEAKING FOR MYSELF

By Barbara Dennison

THE USUAL ads, bills, checks and general fan mail which daily enters the State News office, has never brought such an interesting note as was directed to our attention yesterday by Prof. Paul Bagwell, head of the speech and dramatics department.

Bagwell was the recipient of a letter shortly after the holidays which presented quite a problem and which he has not yet been able to solve. The letter stated in part:

"Will you please help me find my Valentine? I'm a soldier on maneuvers in Tennessee who was the victim of love at first sight on my last furlough. I forgot to get the address of the Michigan State college coed whom I met on a train from Saginaw to Detroit.

"She is five feet four inches tall, has reddish brown hair and really is cute. I think her name is Nan, but I'm not sure. She is taking speech, and we spent the whole morning in Detroit looking for a bank. That was last December."

So goes the letter. Bagwell has followed the proffered clues as closely as possible and has searched the speech department diligently. The result... no Nan. After this he wrote for more particulars and the only one forthcoming was that she graduated from Saginaw Arthur Hill high school.

With the foregoing circumstantial evidence, at least the young lady in question should recognize both herself and the soldier and Bagwell would appreciate it if she would contact the latter immediately, since he is very anxious to hear from her.

It isn't very often that a department head gets the chance to play Sherlock Holmes and Cupid all at the same time but it must be interesting to say the least.

WITH the primaries for the senior election being held today, the absence of politics is more than obvious. The old timers of the junior and senior classes can remember the era of dirty politics which has only recently been changed.

The political face-washing has not been a result of reformed political views, but merely another thing which can be blamed on the war... and the decrease of men and the dissolution of the fraternity bloc.

The bloc came in for more criticism than the majority of other political deals on campus. It functioned mainly as a group of students representing the fraternities and sororities on campus and worked as a coordinated whole.

The main complaint came from the independents who were not sufficiently organized to guarantee the election of their candidates because there was no way of checking up on those who didn't vote.

Fraternity and sorority members were required to vote and sign off on their house list or else they were fined, a practice which many opponents thought too undemocratic. Such, in brief, has been the former practice during political campaigns at State.

No doubt a similar plan will grow up again after the war when fraternities are politically strong and well organized again, and then the same complaints will start over again.

But, in the meantime, class elections are being carried on with little campaigning, little enthusiasm and a definite lack of "dirty politics." The little campaigning that is going on is mainly word to mouth and there is little enough of that.

Today is the day for primaries and soon will come the final elections and then the senior class will have officers. They were a long time in the process of being chosen, but there seems to be no backing out now.

And may the best man win... or should I say "woman?"

Saturday Tea Dance Will Honor Williams

Union board tea dances will be resumed this Saturday afternoon, according to Betty Simpson, Grand Rapids senior and president of the board. Sarah Williams dormitory will be featured this week, with the dormitory responsible for intermission entertainment.

Gene DeVine's band will furnish music for dancing from 3 to 5:30 p.m. in the Union ballroom. Dates are not necessary for the tea dances and all servicemen are invited to attend, Miss Simpson stated.

In Campus Quarters

By SCOTTIE McNEAL and RO HOWLAND

BRILLIANCE of the snow drifts lying around campus these days is somewhat dimmed by the diamonds sparkling on numerous feminine fingers. One of the new engagers is Marge Zimmerman, Sigma Kappa. She just received her ring from Norman Glavin who is a naval air cadet stationed at Ohmwa, (of all places) Iowa.

Nancy Mundy, Alpha Phi, '43, buzzed in from Mason where she is working now, to display her new diamond. It's from Capt. Charles Suratt, former Spartan stationed in England.

Cpl. Bill Brewster, Farmhouse, is leaving a shiny token on the finger of Edythe Wixson, Alpena freshman.

News from Detroit has it that Betty Procter, Chi O, is pretty excited about the extra weight on her left hand. It's there since just recently, when Jim Hough, Kappa Sig, '43, took charge of the presentation.

Another long distance dispatch concerns Connie Marcus, Kappa and former State student, who has a ring from Maj. James Taylor.

Pinnings are rare in times like these, but there is one to report. Bob Brezsky, SAE, has given his to Felice Dembrowski, Detroit freshman.

Weather report for last week end includes scattered showers. One of these showers was held at Cassia house, off-campus, for Kathryn Elliot, Colon senior. Kathryn was married in Lansing Friday to Pte. Kenneth Darmon of Detroit. Ken has just returned from Guadalcanal, where he served with the marine air corps.

The other shower was also of the bridal variety and was hosted by Evelyn Malicki and Vera Filler, both Alpha Gams. Guest of honor was Doris Johnson, Alpha Phi, whose wedding to Hal Neumann, ATO, is slated for early March.

Finnish Leaders Confer on Russian Peace Amid Dubious Indications

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 14 (AP)—Finnish government leaders held long conferences throughout yesterday on the question of peace with Russia and plain indications that the government might fall on the issue, delayed dispatches from Helsinki said today.

The dispatches, passed through Finnish censorship, said there was no official indication the government had asked for Russia's terms, or even was ready to ask for terms.

But Finland's majority party, the Social Democratic party, was putting strong pressure on the government to act.

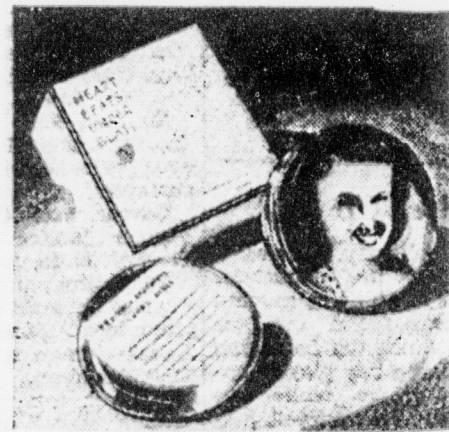

Earlier, the Finnish capital was reported expecting concrete developments—perhaps an open bid by the government for Moscow's proposals—in the next two or three days.

(A Reuters dispatch from Stockholm said it was believed Finland's aging negotiator, Paasikivi, already had sent Finnish peace plans to Moscow and was waiting in Helsinki for a reply.)

(The dispatch quoted official reports that Russia was likely to accept anything less than a return to the 1941 lines agreed upon at the end of the Russian-Finnish winter war, together with slight modifications in Moscow's favor, and would give the Finnish cabinet a Russian tone, and Russian occupation of Finland's defense which would remain under Finnish civil administration.)

Jap Bombers Raid Marshalls for First Time Since Invasion

Americans Avenge Attack by New Atoll Offensive

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HQ., Pearl Harbor, Feb. 14 (AP)—Japanese planes raided United States positions in the Marshall islands last week for the first time since the invasion of Jan. 31 as American aircraft reached out almost to the Caroline islands in extending their attacks on new Marshall atolls.

The enemy raid, announced today by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, along with the American attacks, was made Friday night against Roi island of Kwajalein atoll. Damage and casualties were reported as "moderate."

No Opposition

Most significant of the American attacks, which carried the daily time table of raids forward for another three days, probably was the three-day hammering of Eniwetok atoll, principal enemy staging base from Truk, west carrier-based planes made the assault. There was no light or opposition and no ground fire.

The airfield on Engebii islet, and the hangar area on Parry islet, were heavily bombed, as well as other installations. The airfield recently was reported to have a 1,000-foot runway. Carrier planes heavily attacked Eniwetok previously on Jan. 30 and Feb. 5.

Severe Damage

A Pacific fleet spokesman, speaking of the extended attacks on Eniwetok, said they were made "in considerable force" and "severe damage was inflicted on the airfield and adjacent installations." One plane was forced down but the crew was rescued by a destroyer.

The enemy raid on Roi, which was captured by American marines in the recent Marshalls offensive, probably was sprung from Kusaie or Ponape, in the Carolines. None of the atolls still held by the Nipponese in the Marshalls is believed able to mount an air attack.

Frimodig Honored at Alumni Smoker on Anniversary

With more than 200 classmates, team mates and friends present, Lyman L. Frimodig, assistant director of athletics, celebrated the silver anniversary of his position on the athletic staff of MSC at a smoker in the Hotel Olds last Saturday.

Frimodig received a number of gifts from the central Michigan alumni club, which sponsored the smoker, and alumni.

The presents included a wrist watch, an ornamental scroll, signed by those present, and a green and white varsity blanket.

The committee in charge of the party also gave him a book of letters from friends all over the country written to congratulate him on the 25th anniversary of his services to State. Over 100 of the letters have been collected by Glen O. Stewart, alumni director, who plans to have them permanently bound as a remembrance.

ATTACK

With the return of fair flying weather after 36 hours of storm, the Allied air force smashed at the enemy in more than 800 sorties yesterday and last night, the two-engined Wellingtons concentrating on Nazi reinforcement columns and supply lines around Campoleone and Cechina, near where the fighting of the past week was hottest.

The Allied line defending the beachhead was firmly held and remained substantially unchanged over the weekend, a headquarters spokesman said. The ground was spongy from many inches of rain, impeding the use of armor by both sides.

Such ground fighting as was reported yesterday raged around the battered village of Carroceto, 10 miles north of the Allied supply port of Anzio.

2,000 Captured

An official announcement said American and British troops had captured well over 2,000 German prisoners in the beachhead fighting since the landings on Jan. 22.

An official announcement said the Germans again bombed an Allied field hospital within the beachhead Saturday night and caused casualties. This was the third hospital in the area to be bombed or shelled by the enemy. All were plainly marked with Red Cross insignia.

Enemy air activity over the beachhead diminished greatly. Only about 30 German planes four were shot down.

A Swedish photo agency describes the above scene as a "typical street scene" in Helsinki after a raid by the Russians on northern frontier, and as the prelude to the crisis for Finland.

Women's Sports

AS THE WAA round robin badminton tournament goes into the final week of play, four players are striving to maintain their places at the head of their ladders. Jeanne Barton, Birmingham junior, Barbara Bennett, Detroit freshman, Mary Kay Babcock, Detroit sophomore, and Marie Stone, Jackson junior, hold undisputed leads at present.

The first inter-class swimming meet will be held Wednesday night in the women's gym. Any woman who has been in two intramural swimming meets this year may swim for her class in the meets. A large entry list has already been turned in. The freshman class has an unusually large number of entries, including Edna Hartman and Jean Proctor, both of Detroit, who were outstanding in previous meets this year.

Results of Friday's bowling games failed to make any great changes in team standings. South Campbell still holds its undefeated position in its block by defeating Zone 4 by a score of 637 to 550. The Thetas still have to be defeated as they won their game with Potter house by the score 543 to 428. The Sigma Kappas rolled up a good score in defeating Alice Cowles house, 619 to 568.

The Sigma Kappas rolled the high scores for the day. Marge Smith, Durand sophomore, bowled 164, while Eleanor Wichka, Detroit freshman, bowled 161.

The Alpha Gams defeated Alpha Xi Delta by a score of 584 to 473 in the WAA bowling tournament last night.

North Williams led Kappa Sigma by scoring 512 to the Kappas' 466. Kappa Delta won by a default over West Mayo.

Reds Take Korsun, Ukraine Rail Hub, After 11-Day Siege

Relief Forces Drive Wedge in Soviet Lines

LONDON, Feb. 14 (AP)—The Red army today captured the Ukraine railway village of Korsun, the core of resistance for the remnants of 10 trapped German divisions of perhaps 100,000 men who have fought with the ferocity of wounded beasts for 11 days.

In announcing the fall of Korsun—on the Ross river 25 miles south of the middle Dnieper—Moscow's bulletin said, however, that large German relief forces attacking outside the annihilation ring west of Korsun had succeeded in driving "a small wedge" into Soviet lines at the cost of heavy manpower and material losses.

On the northern front Russian troops captured several more localities on a 70-mile front between Luga and Lake Peipus in their drive southward toward Pskov, less than 40 miles beyond Soviet spearheads.

In the vicious Ukraine fighting the Russians gave no indication that German tank and infantry forces outside the Korsun annihilation ring would succeed in reaching their trapped companions.

The Germans trapped in the Korsun sector, 80 miles southeast of Kiev, apparently now hold a strip of territory only four miles deep on either side of the Ross river between Korsun and Steblev, eight miles west of Korsun.

The exact position of the German relief army attacking outside the Soviet encirclement ring was not disclosed. The broadcast-communication recorded by the Soviet monitor said the slight wedge in Russian lines occurred northwest of Zvenigorodka, which is 25 miles southwest of Korsun.

HERMIE SAYS—

By PVT. TOM RIORDAN

SATURDAY I sat in on the usual editorial meetings at which the week's papers are hashed over. It seemed pretty tame to me, after being a victim of baritone profanity in other years.

Enjoyed visiting old Spartan haunts again, especially one that the "Astonisher" indefinitely dubs "U. S. 16." I was somewhat shocked to learn that one of the older hangouts was converted a while back to a soda shoppe for the prep school set. Might have known it wouldn't last.

Being rushed a bit in a former attempt at journalism fame, I completely forgot to say hello to old friends—mostly ROTCers still patiently awaiting "orders"—so, "Hi, fellows."

Be seeing you kids in a while when I get that 30-day furlough our company commander is promising us if we'll get up every morning for reveille and make our beds before noon.

Well... Hermie had himself quite a time on his visit to MSC. He'll remember for a long while the hospitality of the Alpha Phi... the staff of the State News... dancing in the auditorium again... talking with the old gang... seeing the campus in white... collecting lots of memories to hold over till the next trip "back home."

Ellington to Play for CAP Dance in Auditorium

With a big-name band appearing at State for the second time in a month, the Exchange club of Lansing will feature Duke Ellington at an informal dance in College auditorium Friday, Feb. 25, from 8:30 p. m. to 12:30 a. m. The proceeds of the dance will be added to the funds of the local wing of the Civil Air Patrol.

The CAP is a voluntary civilian organization that has now been incorporated into the army air forces. Its members are the only civilian group entitled to wear the uniform of the armed forces and to receive or render salutes.

Chief CAP activities are in the recruiting of air cadets of high school age to prepare them for future air force duty, and in the training of pilots.

Tickets for the dance are on sale at the Union desk and at the administration building.

No business experience is required to join the WAVES. The navy trains young women in this branch of service and pays them well at the same time.
