Allied Target Blasted Deep in Sixth Raid

Dive Bomber Attack Raps Messerschmitt Base at Regensburg

LONDON, Feb. 25 (AP)—American Flying Fortresses and Liberators made an unprecedented dive-bombing attack from both Britain and the United States upon the strategic Messerschmitt aircraft works at Regensburg, Germany, carrying the heaviest sustained aerial assault on the city through its sixth day.

Regensburg, Berlin's long-wave radio transmitter went off the air, indicating that the RAF had again taken the baton for another of its night assaults, rounding out the Americans a 24-hour period of destruction by relays of bombers at the Nazi airplane production machine.

The assault on Regensburg was the first ever made on a single target from the two theaters in the same cycle of operations. The Britain-based planes flew a long 550 miles to dump their load on this plane center, while the Italian-based planes pressed a few about the same distance. Regensburg is 350 miles from Foggia, big Allied base in Italy.

In addition to Regensburg airplane plants, the American bombers from Britain bombarded the Messerschmitt works at Stuttgart and a third force hit undiscovered targets in southwestern Germany in resounding attacks.

These daylight blows followed the night assaults in which some 1,000 bombers were sent over Germany from Britain, most of them concentrating on the Messerschmitt factories at Regensburg.

Out of This World

A certain senior who should know better is blushing madly these days in memory of a military faux pas she committed last weekend. For some unknown reason which she can't quite explain, she was over in the region of Mason-Abbott waiting for her date to appear when a mysterious voice addressed her in the dark: "Advance and be recognized." In equally playful tones she replied, "Oh, you come over here." When the command was repeated she blushed over muttering "Have it your own way." After a flash-light was lit in her face and when she had gotten a coy "Now aren't you disappointed?" half-way articulated, she realized that she was conversing with a disguised military guard.

Quiet, Please

Instructors are getting more considerate every day, as one male sleeping beauty can testify. Noticing a student happily snoring during his class, the benevolent professor instructed his class to tiptoe quietly out of the room. The same orders were given to an incoming aircrew class. Upon awakening a half hour later, the sleepy gentleman was nudged by an aircrewman with "Hey, bud, you've been drafted."

Charles McNary, Republican Boss in Senate, Dies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Charles L. McNary of Oregon, the 69-year-old leader of senate Republicans, died today in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he had gone several months ago to rest after an operation to remove a brain tumor.

The death of McNary, who had been reported to be recovering, came as a shock to many of his colleagues and apparently left wide open the choice of a successor in the leadership post.

Senate Republicans only yesterday completed a reorganization in which they re-elected McNary chairman of their conference and minority floor leader but provided for a full setup of officers for the first time since 1936.

At that meeting, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) was elected vice-chairman of the conference and Senator White (R-Me.) was chosen assistant leader and acting leader during McNary's illness. White has served in that post since McNary was stricken. Vandenberg, White, and Senator Taft (R-Ohio) were most prominently mentioned as a possible permanent successor.

McNary had guided the senate Republican organization almost single handed for nearly 10 years.

World Adventure Series Speaker to Show Movies on Life in India

"Footsteps to Benares," a motion picture depicting life in India, will be presented by Ace Williams, world traveler, author and lecturer, tonight at 8:15 in College auditorium.

This is part of the World Adventure series. S. E. Crowe, director of the series, announced. The movie is a feature length picture portraying the Indian way of life inseparably fused with their religious faith.

Entire villages, from infants to octogenarians, are recorded crossing the land barefooted to bathe in the Ganges river for purification.

He took the picture before America's entry into the war while on a motor trip through the country. His only assistant was his Indian servant, Abdul.

Students Take Part in Program of Early Symphonic Works

Three early symphonic works have been selected for tomorrow's concert at 4 p. m. in the music auditorium, which will be played by a chamber orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Alexander Schuster.

The program will open with Sonata "Piano e forte" by Giovanni Gabrieli for double instrumental choir followed by Sonata sopra Sancta Maria by Claudio Monteverdi. One of the first symphonies ever written, Johann Stamitz's Symphony in D Major (La Melodia Germanica No. 1), will conclude the recital. Assisting in one of the sonatas will be four sopranos: Linda Weber, Buffalo, N. Y., senior; Elsie Luke, East Lansing junior; Norma Lou Gregg, Lansing sophomore, and June Carpp, Lawrence sophomore.

Sponsored by Collegium Musicum, the program will deal with the development of early works in the symphonic medium, with Dr. J. Murray Barbour as commentator.

Having recently celebrated its fourth birthday, the Town Girls club, whose membership list now includes 105 active members, is rapidly expanding and becoming one of the strongest organizations in campus activities.

Town Girls club was created by the AWS council in the fall of 1939, with Francis Street serving as its first president. At that time membership was limited to local women, residing either in Lansing or East Lansing with their families, relatives or friends.

Purpose of Club
The club has since extended its facilities to the Kellogg short course women and the off-campus women's organization. The purpose of the club is two-fold: To bind town girls closer together through frequent contact, and to encourage their participation in campus doings.

A lounge on the fourth floor of the Union building serves as a study hall by members. Dorothy Marsh and Helen Horn collaborated with Miss Orletta M. Hansen, then in the dean of women's office, in selecting the furnishings and getting the lounge in order. Mrs. Leone Warren has been club adviser since the club's origin, and is assisted by Betty Corbushly.

Club Leaders
Town Girls' constitution was ratified by the Student council in the fall of 1942. Helen Horn succeeded Francis Street as the second president. Other presidents include Ruth Gregory and Doris Harford.

The president administrative head, Doris Bennett, is assisted by Betty Corbushly.

Jap Cabinet Meets to Pass Strict New Regulations

NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—In an unusual procedure, reserved only for the gravest crisis in Japanese events, the cabinet of premier Hideki Tojo met at the imperial palace to pass stringent new regulations designed to strengthen the war effort, Tokyo radio announced today.

The Japanese also announced that 6,500 of their men were killed in the American capture of Kwajalein and Roi islands in the Marshalls.

Loeffler, Rockwell Morrison Named to Other Offices

Gaining a total of 144 votes, Larry Frymire, Chicago, Ill., swept over his opponent, Peter Butth, Comstock Park to win the senior class presidency. Butth received 100 votes. Frymire is senior announcer of WKAR, and a member of Alpha Epsilon Rho, Studio theater, Victory Speakers bureau, and Newman club.

In the race for vice-president, Rae Annette Loeffler, Detroit, garnered 168 votes to defeat Nancy Grayson, Detroit, who received 75 votes. Miss Loeffler is a member of Chi Omega society, co-chairman of Big Sisters, and is a member of PanHellenic council and WAA board.

Cordie Morrison from Dearborn piled up more votes than any other candidate to push over Shirley Martinson, Suttons Bay, by a 173 to 70 margin. Miss Morrison is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega society, is a member of Union board and is treasurer of Pi Alpha, sociology club.

Harold Rockwell, Grand Rapids, won over Bob Cardinell, East Lansing, 134 to 104, to clinch the position of treasurer. Rockwell is president of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, and a member of Blue Key.

Voting at the polls was light, according to Co-chairmen Pat Stone, Chicago, Ill., and Vera Gardner, Albion, with 244 votes cast out of a possible 600 seniors. Officers will assume their duties immediately.

Nazis Try to Plug Gap in Minsk Line

LONDON, Saturday, Feb. 26 (AP)—German commanders hurled fresh reinforcements into 14 counter-attacks north of Rzachev in White Russia yesterday but their effort to repair the gap torn in their lines guarding the upper Dnieper river and Minsk failed with a loss of 2,500 men, Moscow announced today.

At the same time advancing Russian forces in the north rolled the Germans back on Pskov in a great are reaching points 20 miles on the northwest, 23 miles on the northeast and 50 miles on the east.

One Berlin radio report that Germans had evacuated the White Russian citadel of Vitebsk was apparently premature for neither the subsequent German and Russian communiques made any mention of the area.

In the fighting for Rzachev, captured by the Russians Thursday, Moscow announced that 6,000 Germans were killed, and 26 of their tanks and self-propelled guns, 85 field guns, and 140 trucks destroyed. The Russians said they captured 68 guns, more than 2,000 rifles, 880 trucks, eight tanks and many stores of munitions and food.

Weekly Letter to Men in the Service

(This open letter to men in the service is a weekly feature of the Michigan State News, describing the outstanding events on campus. Clip it out and mail it to a friend in the service.)

Feb. 26, 1944

DEAREST Johnny,

Our own uncle John Hannah has been awarded another honor—this time a doctor of laws degree from the University of Michigan, where he spoke at commencement exercises last week. I must say that our two institutions are throwing roses at each other like mad lately. Must be those loudin days are fading out for sure.

The AST outfit is currently biting its nails and tearing its hair on account of the news from Washington that all but engineers will probably be shipped out soon. Nothing definite has been heard but the suspense is like waiting for final grades. The "genius of jazz" Duke Ellington was here last night for the CAF dance. He was strictly on the solid side—at least that's what the big kids say. "I was being true to you." Remember how we used to dance over "Mood Indigo"?

Luna Weber, Buffalo, N. Y. senior, has been chosen as one of 12 finalists in the House of Chaucer contest. You always said she was a fine canary back in the Duck Quayle days. Maybe you can write her her letter before long.

Something new along the entertainment line has been dreamed up by Green Spanish women's swimming honorary. Strictly a non-organization, the bathing beauties are sponsoring a not-quash party tonight in the pool of the women's gym. It's worth a look to see if something besides those sacko kazo tank suits.

Good news, Johnny. Maybe I've got more appeal than you think you do. I had a marvelous time last weekend—even went on my first sleigh ride and the payoff is that my date was sick all day Tuesday with a temperature of 104. Isn't that wonderful? Wonder what you have to do to get it up to 106?

Until the next time.

Yours for bigger and better fevers,

PEG

Ramirez Loses Argentine Presidency

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, Feb. 25 (AP)—Argentina's new anti-axis policy was suddenly thrown into doubt today as the reactionary "colones lodge" led by Col. Juan Domingo Peron, forced out President Gen. Pedro Ramirez and replaced him with vicepresident Gen. Edelmiro Farrell.

(Serious concern over the coup a few weeks after Ramirez broke relations with the Axis.)

was taken in Washington, acting Secretary of State Stettin said questions "affecting security of the hemisphere might arise."

(John Lloyd, president of Prensa Asociada, Latin American affiliate of the Associated Press, said Ramirez had been regarded as perhaps the most democratic influence in the tory coup that came last June.)

Mac Arthur's Bombers Strike Rabaul Without Interruption

Ground Forces Capture Two Villages

ALLIED HDQ. IN THE S. W. PACIFIC, Saturday, Feb. 26 (AP)—Rabaul's daily pounded network of air defenses failed Wednesday for the fourth straight day to stand up a single interceptor. Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported today, as Solomons bombers smashed it with 53 heavy bombers.

Working over the Bismarck archipelago, where Allied bombers are steadily driving all Japanese bases, the bombers also hit Hansa bay, New Guinea, and Admiralty islands in New Ireland.

In northeast New Guinea, American ground forces moved toward the enemy coast near Madang and captured several villages northwest of Salamaua.

Wewak Target

New Guinea was an important target of Allied bombers, with bombs from escorted fighters.

Presently, airforce Mitchells, with a fighter escort, poured incendiaries at Rabaul on the main island of New Guinea, and on the airbases at Veraval, Vunak, and Vunakope airdromes. In the last 24 hours this month, 1,529 bombs have been dropped on Rabaul. In that same period, 233 planes definitely had been shot down, 87 probably destroyed in the air and 42 on the ground at a cost of 100 planes.

As Japanese planes have been less willing to oppose the term "temerarious" has appeared in reports in describing the airmen of that New Guinea fortress.

Supply Base Avoided

New Ireland, Kavieng, a supply base for Rabaul on the New Hebrides, has been a target of destroyers and today's reports told of planes being diverted elsewhere. Katherine bay, about 100 miles along the south coast, was the seaward approach to Rabaul, the bombers hit Cape St. George and at New York island, shelled on the bay by destroyers.

New Guinea, the Wewak, attacked anti-aircraft positions and divebombers went to the positions at Hansa bay, between Wewak and Salamaua.

American Planes Strengthen Hold on Marianas

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HQ, PEARL HARBOR, Feb. 25 (AP)—

American carrier planes which attacked islands in the southern Marianas pushed home their assault despite early detection by the enemy and fierce aerial and anti-aircraft opposition. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz disclosed today.

The attack concentrated on Saipan and Tinian islands, principal enemy bases in the Marianas, with a lighter strike at Guam. A total of 133 Japanese planes were destroyed in aerial combat and on the ground, Nimitz said. Only six American planes were lost. No United States ship was sunk or damaged.

Raiders seaplane bombers and other airborne facilities, fuel dumps and buildings were heavily bombed and strafed.

Admiral Nimitz said "a smaller raid was made at Guam which the Japanese had seized in December, 1941, from the United States."

Simultaneously Admiral Nimitz reported seventh AAF Liberator bombers whirled radio facilities and the cantonment area on Kusaie in the eastern Carolines Feb. 25.

The same day navy search Liberator sank one ship and damaged another in an attack on the Kusaie dock areas. Navy planes also exploded one ammunition dump with bombs.

Groups to Meet in Joint Program

Fellowship week will be observed this Sunday by the Student Christian union of Peoples church when it plays host to the various campus religious organizations. Interfaith council, Southern Christian fellowship, Lutheran club, Newman club and Hillel are the organizations included in the program according to Ruth Kistler, Muncie sophomore and president of SCU.

In an attempt to create better understanding among the various religions, its members of the group and any one else interested, will visit the St. Thomas Aquinas church for an explanation of the mass at 6:30 p. m.

The mass will be read by Rev. M. J. Mecke, assistant pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas, and will be interpreted by Rev. J. V. MacEachin of that church. Later there will be a discussion period when the audience may ask questions.

'Guest in the House' to Feature New Props, New Talent, New Sarongs

An artist's ideal, an old New England barn remodeled, is the set for "Guest in the House," winter term play now in production for its March 2 and 3 showings in Fauchard theater. There will be little borrowing from previous plays, props in this new set, calling for a multi-roomed scene.

People pop in and out of clapboard doors, run up barn-like stairs to the made-over hayloft, and lean against a wide-mouthed fireplace. In order to construct these, Prof. C. H. Nickle of the speech department directs a force of 17 student construction assistants in the auditorium basement workshop. Student chairman of the committee helping with the carpentry and painting is Barbara Lipton, New York city junior.

Sports to Sarongs

Heading the costume committee will be Martha Vargha, Detroit sophomore, and working with her will be Sally Genung, Birmingham sophomore, Joyce VanSickle, Lansing freshman, and Joyce Jorae, Dearborn freshman. Imagination will run rampant with this group as they design everything from sports dresses to splashy sarongs.

Production manager is Gloria Bell, Detroit senior, and stage manager is Eleanor Koch, Detroit sophomore. Props will be managed by Mildred Van Westrienen, Lansing sophomore, working with Doreen Koebel, Detroit sophomore, John Chase, Lansing graduate student, and John McLaughlin, St. Charles freshman.

Noise Department

Manipulating sound equipment will be John McCartney, East Lansing graduate student, with assistance from Frances Joyner, Battle Creek freshman, Betty Butler, Buffalo, N. Y. sophomore, is directing ticket sales.

First Peace Panel Meets Tomorrow to Discuss 'Preparing For Peace'

A series of five Sunday-evening forums on the subject "Facing War and Peace" will be presented on five successive Sundays, beginning tomorrow, at the Plymouth Congregational church, Townsend and Allegan streets in Lansing, at 8:30 p. m.

Dr. Eugene Kevies will act as chairman of a panel discussion on "Preparing for Peace" for the first program tomorrow night. Four of the six remaining members of the panel will be Michigan State college professors.

Professors Speak

Dean E. L. Anthony, of the division of Agriculture will speak on "Preparing for Peace in State Planning"; Prof. Hans L. Lebnhardt of the history department will discuss "World Organization in Preparing for Peace"; and Orion Urey, professor of agricultural economics, will present his views on "Peace Planning in Community Life."

"Peace in Relation to Education" will be the topic of L. C. Emmons, dean of Liberal Arts; C. C. Carlton, Lansing industrial leader, will discuss the effect of peace plans on industry and "Preparing for Peace in Religion" will be presented by Dr. Robert M. Bartlett, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church.

Public Invited

The public is invited to attend these community forums sponsored by the Lansing council of churches and various labor, civic and educational organizations.

Next Sunday's forum will feature a talk on "Race and the Post-War World" by Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard university in Washington, and one of America's greatest Negro leaders.

Former Faculty Folk President, Wife of MSC Professor, Dies

Mrs. W. O. Hedrick, wife of Dr. Wilbur O. Hedrick, retired professor of economics, died Thursday at her home in East Lansing.

Mrs. Hedrick was attending Michigan State in 1898 when she met her husband and married him. Since then she has maintained an active interest in the art department of the college, enrolling as a student of modeling again in 1933. During the succeeding seven years she modeled heads of a number of fellow students.

Mrs. Hedrick was the second president of Faculty Folk club and a member of the board of directors of the Lansing Women's club. She was the sister of the late Luther Baker, who died three weeks ago.

Forty eight hours of machine shop work were included in an economics seminar on production problems at Mt. Holyoke college.

Allies Repulse Light German Attacks on Both Italian Fronts

ALLIED HDQ. NAPLES, Feb. 25 (AP)—Allied troops steadily improved their positions on both fronts in Italy yesterday and threw back several German attacks in company strength, headquarters announced today.

It was disclosed that German forces ringing the Allied beachhead near Rome had been swollen by another infantry division brought down from northern Italy, bringing the total Nazi strength in that sector to 13 divisions.

Both sides sensitive to the prospect of another big German attempt to drive the American and British off the beachhead, engaged in active combat patrolling all around the 30-mile perimeter of the battleground.

Indications were that both sides were awaiting only a let up in the miserable weather conditions to renew their respective assaults.

Congressional Action Overrides Tax Veto

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The senate set the capstone of the great congressional tax rebellion into place today with a 72 to 14 vote enacting into law the revenue measure which President Roosevelt rejected with scornful language.

An anti-climactic close of the dramatic revolt found only 13 Democrats and one Republican—Senator Langer of North Dakota—voting to sustain the president's veto.

The outcome had been a foregone conclusion since the house voted 299 to 95 yesterday to override, and with completion of the senate vote at 12:48 p. m. (EWT), the tax bill became law. The legislation boosts the income tax taken from individuals and business firms, raises some postal rates, and increases taxes on liquor, runs, cosmetics, and many other items, effective April 1.
