... Any Day Now

When Dame Duck struts down to the Red Cedar with her young ducklings within the next few weeks, they will owe a debt of gratitude to the lab students in room 14 of the Watch physics building. From their observation window beside the nest on the ground floor level, a sign has been posted reading, "Please do not open the window. Wait a few days, be a good sport. The duck is on the nest and can hardly afford to be disturbed."

... Big Stoop

Either trying to impress his buddies, or actually being interested, one aircrewman was seen checking out a book on Russian grammar from the library. Not that the curricula offered them is not versatile enough—maybe he was trying to find out what they say in White Russia.

Queen Candidate Picture Deadline Set for Today

Queen candidates for the Poinciana prom must have their pictures, accompanied by their name and group which they represent in at the Union desk by 5 p. m. today, Chairman Jack recent, in at the Union desk by Samuelson, Farmington freshman, said yesterday.

Primary voting will be conducted tomorrow and Friday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the lower deck of the Union. Voting will be limited to registered undergraduate students and will be done by ballots. Each student will be limited to one vote in both primary and final elections.

The seven women receiving the highest number of votes will go on to the finals which will be held Friday, May 12. At this time one candidate will be selected as queen and the other women will comprise the court.

The prom, which is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, is to be held Saturday, May 13, in the Union ballroom, from 9 to 12 p. m. Highlight of the evening's program will be the crowning of the "Poinciana queen". Gene Devine and his orchestra will play for the affair.

News in Brief

ALLIED HDQ., NAPLES, May 2 (AP)—Fighting on the Anzio beachhead south of Rome has increased in the past 24 hours, the Germans making small gains in an attack on Allied positions three miles southwest of Carroceto and Allied forces raiding enemy-held Carroceto Alto on the extreme right flank of the perimeter.

LONDON, Wednesday, May 3 (AP)—Masses of Soviet bombers attacking the big rail junction of Lwow in old Poland last night destroyed six troop and ammunition trains and a number of warehouses and left 30 fires whose smoke plumed more than a mile in the air, Moscow announced tonight.

Not a single Soviet plane was lost in the attack on Lwow, one of the largest rail hubs in Europe and the bastion of German defenses in lower Poland.

Truk Battered Again by U.S. Task Forces

American Losses Light As 1226 Enemy Craft Go Down in Raid

U.S. PACIFIC FLEET HDQ., PEARL HARBOR, May 2 (AP)—Truk, Japan's heaviest bombed bastion in all the Carolines, and its buttresses of Ponape and Satawan, were battered last weekend by mighty Pacific fleet carrier task forces that destroyed 126 enemy planes.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced today the blow was struck with but light American aircraft losses and no damage to a single United States warship.

Carrier Planes Bomb

Carrier-borne planes threw the weight of their attack against Truk itself Saturday and Sunday.

Carrier planes and battleships or cruisers bombed and shelled Ponape, 440 miles east of Truk, and Satawan, less than 200 miles southeast of Truk.

From Hollandia

The forces were under command of Vice Adm. Marc A. Mitscher and were turning from operations off Dutch New Guinea, where they supported the invasion at Hollandia, April 22, by ground forces under command of Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur.

Demonstrating the wallop packed by Pacific fleet task forces, the carrier planes smote Truk with 800 tons of bombs. Shore installations at that fortress, once considered impregnable, were reported heavily damaged.

Home Economics Club Will Portray Trials of Spartan Women

"Home Was Never Like This" is the theme of the open meeting of the Home Economics club to be held at 7 tonight in the Little Theater.

The meeting will be an informal affair put on by members of the sophomore Home Ec board, under the chairmanship of Betty Brown, Tiffin, Ohio.

Climax of the evening will be a skit, portraying the trials and tribulations of a freshman woman at MSC. Carolyn Tracy, St. Albans, N. Y., is in charge of the script which will be read by Pat Easley, Trenton.

Included in the evening's entertainment will be the presentation of next year's officers. Betty Trompkins, Detroit freshman, will play the piano and Mary Helen Chick, Detroit freshman will sing.

Panel Group Will Talk of Hatred in War

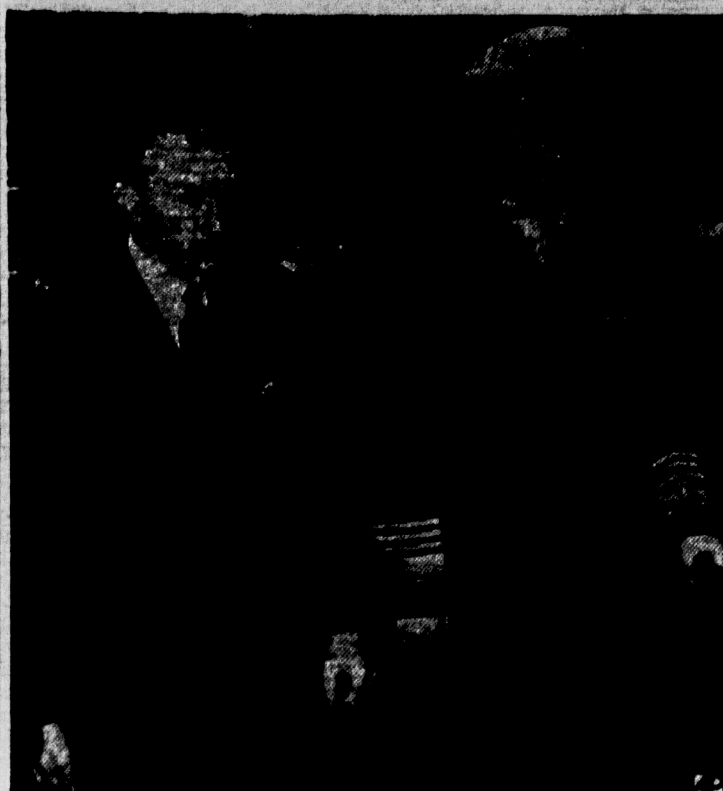

Continuing its series of broadcasted discussions on world affairs, the Liberal Arts division will present a panel on the topic, "Should We Hate Our Enemy?" over WKAR at 6:30 p. m. today, according to Director Joe Callaway.

Chairman of the discussion will be Prof. A. A. Applegate, head of the department of journalism. Also taking part will be John W. Price, instructor in religious education; Prof. L. C. Stevens, of the foreign language department; and Prof. E. B. Harper, head of the department of sociology.

The panel will center its discussion around the question of whether hatred of the enemy is necessary in the winning of the war.

Palel Target of Invasion Assault; Axis Claim Heavy Allied Losses

S.E. ASIA HDQ., KANDY, CEYLON, May 2 (AP)—Japanese invasion forces are attacking strongly in the Palel area, 28 miles south of Imphal in India, it was disclosed today amid indications that the enemy was about to launch his expected mass assault on the big Allied base from that direction.

A communique issued by Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's headquarters said a Japanese attack on Palel's defenses Sunday night was "heavily beaten off, but added that patrol clashes were raging in the hills north of Palel. A road runs from Palel to Imphal, passing east of Lake Loktak.

(A Tokyo dispatch broadcast by the Berlin radio declared Tuesday that 12,000 Allied troops had begun a "wholesale, confused retreat" from Palel and said the main fighting now centered around a point about nine miles north of Palel, or some 19 miles from Imphal.

The same broadcast claimed that 72 Allied planes, mostly transports, had been destroyed over the Imphal plain in the past two weeks.)

Allied leaders in this theater, including the Commander-in-Chief Mountbatten, have given repeated assurance that Imphal is in no danger of falling to the Japanese.

First All-College Convo Will Be Held Friday

Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard university, Washington, D. C., will speak at the first all-college convocation to be held this year Friday at 10 a. m., according to Pres. John A. Hannah.

All civilian classes will be excused for the convocation, which is to be held in College auditorium, but army training classes will meet as usual.

Johnson, on campus at the invitation of the college, will also speak at a meeting of the faculty Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the Music auditorium.

Movies in Fairchild Theater Will Close Saturday Programs

The Saturday entertainment programs will be moved to Fairchild theater for the remainder of the term, with feature length movies scheduled for three performances during May, according to S. E. Crowe, director of the series.

"Little Old New York", with Alice Faye, Fred MacMurray, and Richard Greene, will be presented Saturday at 7 and 9 p. m. The film, produced by Darryl Zanuck, tells the story of Robert Fulton's experiments with the steamboat.

In addition to the main feature, cartoons and shorts will also be shown. "Road to Singapore", is scheduled for May 20, and "I Met Him in Paris", May 27, will conclude the series.

Admission for all students will be, by treasurer's receipt. Servicemen will be admitted free.

Campus Air Base Unit Reinforced by 500; Unit Numbers 1,000

Over 500 air students arrived at State over the weekend to bring the unit up to what will be its maximum strength for the duration, Col. Paul Johnson announced.

Colonel Johnson said that the new men brought the number of men at State to over a thousand. He also said that so far as present orders informed him, no more men would be sent to State.

The newly arrived men will stay at the 2590 air base unit only until the end of June. The squadrons who will complete their training before that time will not be replaced, he said.

Effective yesterday, the designation of the unit was officially changed from the 310th CTD to the 2590 air base unit.

Allied Air Forces Hit Rail Centers, Coast Defenses

LONDON, Wednesday, May 3 (AP)—Sky-filling Allied armadas spearheaded by hundred of U.S. Liberator bombers hammered German invasion coast defenses and rail feeder lines from dawn to dusk yesterday.

Explosives were hurled at a two-ton-per-minute clip, smashing key junctions at the rate of one an hour in an unexampled display of aerial might which went almost unchallenged by the Germans.

Jittery German radio announcers predicting that the big Allied land invasion was "imminent" came on the air just before midnight to shout: "Attention! Attention! Enemy intruders entering western Germany." (This signified that giant RAF night bombers were carrying the pre-invasion onslaught into the 19th straight day.

19th Straight Day

The RAF, in a 1,000-plane attack Monday night, had showered more than 2,500 tons of explosives on targets in Belgium, France, Germany and Italy before the American daylight fleets took over yesterday in a grinding attrition preliminary to actual cross-channel troop smashes.

Allied sorties daily were running into the 2,000 and 3,000 brackets, and presumably yesterday's attacks would approximate those of the days before, but an official estimate was not available.

Laie yesterday U.S. Mustang and Thunderbolt fighter-bombers attacked rail yards at Charleval in Belgium, and Somain and Tourcoing in northern France, along with an airfield at Peronne without a single loss.

Concentrated Attacks

Most of these attacks were being concentrated in a circle around Lille, ranging 70 miles inland along vital traffic routes to the Calais coast, which was the main objective of the big bombers.

Since May day dawn American and Allied airmen have blasted more than 35 rail junctions and other key targets supplying the German Atlantic wall barricades just across the channel, and roared inland past the old Maginot fortifications along the German border.

Wanted: Spartan Literary Outlet

WITH our much-lamented Spartan definitely dissolved (we hope not forever) there arises a problem of outlet for student compositions. True, there are five advanced composition courses offered by the English department but the real reward for the student with a writing flair is to see his work in print. Actual publication is the incentive for students to write what they choose, when they choose.

Like most of our illustrious neighboring universities in the middle-west, Michigan State has no literary magazine. De Pauw's monthly Boulder, printed in Greencastle, Ind., and the Marquette University Journal, a quarterly printed in Milwaukee, Wis., are the two exceptions in this area.

State has the talent to fill such a magazine, if one should be started, and now it has the demand. It need not be limited to English and journalism students; it could combine the written works of philosophical abstractions as well as chemical surveys. And, most assuredly, art works would be included.

Now that State has begun to "grow up" under faculty supervision, it would be timely for students to aid a little, too, with the establishment of another college publication to replace the one we lost.

College literary magazines, unlike the humor magazines, are not overly prevalent in the United States. Some of the more successful ones are: Yale Literary Magazine, a monthly, Grinnell College's Tanager, a bi-monthly, Harvard Advocate, published six times a year, Columbia Review and Morningside, a quarterly, Duke University Arhive, a monthly and Vassar Brew, printed five times a year.

A literary magazine at State could be a great asset. Not only would it fill the gap left by the Spartan, afford incentive for student writing, and add to the prestige of State as an all-rounded school; it would also be hailed as the only existing college literary magazine in Michigan.

Spartans At War

By FEG DUBRY

WORD has been received that Capt. Pete Dal Ponto, '39, is somewhere in New Guinea beginning his third year in overseas duty. Captain Dal Ponto received the distinguished service cross in an earlier New Guinea campaign. While in school he was a star of varsity baseball in '37-'39.

Pfc. Robert Perry, '43, is attending the adjutant general's school at Fort Washington, Md., undergoing eight weeks of training in army administration procedures.

Dalt Ebbeson was commissioned a second lieutenant in the army air forces April 29, after completing bombardier training at the Carlisle, N. M., army air field.

Al Kawal, varsity football line coach and head coach of freshman and varsity boxing squads has been commissioned a lieutenant (j.g.) in the navy and was sworn into service March 30 in Detroit. Kawal, a former Northwestern university football and basketball star, left State April 15 to report for training at Hollywood, Fla.

In 1934 Kawal was chosen on the all-American football team and the following fall played with the College All-Stars against the Chicago Bears in the annual charity contest in Chicago. A year ago two of Kawal's Spartan boxers won intercollegiate championships, and the MSC squad placed second in the finals.

We regret to report the death of Bill Vogel, Jackson, who was killed in a mid-air crash of a B-25 and an A-12 in Georgia, April 12. He would have received his commission in June.

Former Student Given YWCA Appointment

Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, former State student and newly appointed temporary secretary of YWCA, will be presented at an open meeting tonight and at the cabinet meeting following.

Mrs. Jenkins, graduate of 1937, was active in YWCA during college and served as president her senior year. While on campus, she was also president of Mor State student and newly appointed temporary secretary of YWCA, will be presented at an open meeting tonight and at the cabinet meeting following.

The new secretary is replacing Miss Emma Sator, who has a temporary leave of absence because of ill health. She will serve as faculty director and advisor to the organization.

WILL YOU LEND A HAND
at this important war job?

If EVERY telephone user would look in the directory for the telephone numbers he wants, 3 out of every 5 "Information" operators could be working at other vital jobs in the war-busy telephone system.

Handling unnecessary calls to "Information"—the 3 out of every 5 calls that are for numbers listed in telephone directories—consumes 1,077 hours of operator and switchboard time in Michigan every day.

Here's how you can help to save this wasted effort—

1. Please look in your directory for the number you want.
2. If the number is not listed, and you must call "Information," jot it down so you'll have it the next time.

State to Play Coast Guard Tomorrow

Injuries Hamper Nine's Chances Against Sailors

By JOE HEAGAN

Michigan State will journey to Detroit tomorrow to take on the Detroit Coast Guard baseball nine in the second game of their schedule. The starting line-up will not be revealed till game time as injuries have hampered the progress of the team.

Coach John Kobs plans to take 20 men on the trip, but he has not revealed who. The Sailors were beaten by Wayne university, the team the Spartans shel-lacked last Saturday.

Injuries Worry Kobs

Although this fact should cast State in the favorite's role, Kobs has reasons to be pessimistic. Warren Hennessy, who has been plagued by bad luck all season, will probably not even make the trip. Hennessy aggravated the ankle injury he received earlier in the season, and is suffering from a severe case of blisters.

Howie Workman, Kobs' new first base find, also has been nursing a bad ankle and whether he will start or not is a question. Dana Costin, another leg casualty, pulled his other leg in the game Saturday, and his starting is also doubtful.

Kobs will probably insert Ed Cook in Hennessy's position, and if Workman sits the contest out Web McDonald will be moved from right field to the first base slot, and Mike Prashaw will handle right field duties. Lee Grunst in center will complete the outfield.

Infield Lineup Shifted

In case of Costin's absence Ronnie Reed will probably be shifted to short stop, and Jack Wint will handle second base. Kobs has given the nod to Jack Ashley for the starting pitching assignment, and Jack Breslin will handle his slants from behind the plate. Jack MacCris will round out the infield at third.

Summer School Schedule Books to Be Released

FRANK LEAHY, Notre Dame football coach (right), takes oath as lieutenant in the U.S. Naval Reserve from Lt. Comdr. WILLIAM O. ROBERTSON, of the naval officer procurement division, in Chicago. Leahy has been assigned to Princeton university and will report May 25 for a 60-day indoctrination course.

Spirituals, Folk Songs Will Be Featured in Glee Club Concert

MSC's Women's Glee club, under the direction of Prof. William R. Sur, will present a varied program of spirituals, folk songs, and classical music at a spring concert to be held in Fairchild theater Friday, at 8 p. m. Prof. Roy Underwood said yesterday.

Composed of 100 voices and constituting one of the largest women's glee clubs in the country, it is the second appearance of the group before a student body this season.

A feature of the program will be the presentation of "Softly Away", by Dr. J. Murray Barbour, of the music department. He will conduct his own number.

Music students who will present piano selections at the concert are Phyllis Lightfield, Minneapolis, Minn., senior; Dorothy Horn, East Lansing senior, and Mary Margaret Murphy, Mt. Clemens junior.

Tigers Take Measure of Brownies, Jump to Three-Way Tie for Fifth

ST. LOUIS, May 2 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers gathered 12 hits for 212 bases, their most robust attack of the season, to defeat the league leading St. Louis Browns, 4 to 3, today in the opener of a three-game series. Southpaw Hal Newhouser pitched a seven-hitter for his third 1944 victory.

Chuck Hostetler, the 38-year-old rookie outfielder whose timely single beat the Cleveland Indians Sunday, got three hits today as a replacement in center field for the injured Roger Cramer to lead the attack on three Brownie pitchers. Eddie Mayo, who homered in the fifth inning, and Rudy York each drove in two runs.

The victory, first for Detroit over the Browns, boosted the Tigers into a tie for the American League's fifth place with Cleveland and Boston. While enormously unsuccessful at home, the Tigers have won four of five starts on the road.

Paul Trout is manager Steve O'Neill's choice to face Jack Kramer, seeking his fourth straight victory, on the mound tomorrow.

Air Base Unit Officer Promoted to Major

Promotion of Capt. Kenyon Payne of the 2590 air base unit, to major, was announced yesterday by Col. Paul Johnson, commandant.

Major Payne, director of training for aircrewmen, was transferred to the new unit in February 1943. Prior to that he was stationed at the pre-glider detachment at Aberdeen, South Dakota. Major Payne went into active duty in August 1941 and was stationed at the Parks Air lege, in East St. Louis, Ill.

National Companies to Be Represented for Job Interviews

Representatives of four national companies will be on campus this week to interview students for jobs, according to Prof. Tom King of the Placement bureau. Any students interested should call the placement bureau for further details and appointments.

Women majoring in business administration will be sought by representatives of the Peoples Gas company of Chicago, Ill.

Tomorrow, Seagram and Sons of Louisville, Ky., will be on campus to interview either men or women in almost any major field. Friday will be devoted to interviews with engineers by Lockheed Aircraft of Burbank, California.

Other companies which will have student interviewers on campus will be announced from time to time. Information about summer jobs in camps, hotels, and offices can be obtained from the placement office.

Allied Submarines Bag 17 More Jap Ships in Pacific

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—Allied submarines hacking at harried Japanese shipping have cut a new gap of 17 ships, four of them war vessels, out of the Nipponese lifeline of conquest.

The total represent 12 American kills, including a light cruiser and two destroyers, and five British, including one destroyer, announced respectively by navy headquarters in Washington and the admiralty in London.

The American coupe brought to 695 the number of Japanese ships sunk, probably sunk or damaged by United States submarines alone, including 69 warships.

The U.S. navy, in line with long-established policy of keeping the enemy guessing, gave no details, but the British were more communicative.

The British-sunk destroyer went down south of the Andaman islands in the Indian ocean while escorting a supply ship, which also was torpedoed.

Promotion of James Flora to the rank of first lieutenant was announced at the headquarters of the 12th air force in Italy. Before beginning his overseas service in North Africa, Lieutenant Flora attended the army forces' radio school at Scott Field, Bellville, Ill.

A new radio testing device was developed by Lieutenant Flora while in Africa and he was sent back to Wright Field, Dayton, O.

Pfc. Dean Brunson, '43, is commander of three companies of V-12 marines at the University of Michigan. Upon completion of the program he will be sent to training school for marine officers. While in school, Private Brunson was a member of Alpha Gamma Rho.

That large "home at last" smile has also been shining on George Sangster's face for the past few days. Sangster, '43, has just returned from a long months as an air borne engineer in the Solomons and he is to leave before entering officer candidate school at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Phil Emmons, son of Dean C. Emmons, is home on leave from Fort Benning, Ga., where he has recently been commissioned a second lieutenant.

Bill Barclay, '44, was also commissioned a second lieutenant April 18 upon completion of the officer candidate course at the infantry school at Fort Benning. While in school Lieutenant Barclay was an associate editor of the State News.
