

Philippine Assault Continues With Two New Air Blows

Carrier Planes Destroy 100 Jap Aircraft

U.S. PACIFIC FLEET HDQ., PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 16 (AP)—The carrier planes of the third fleet sweeping across Luzon in two new raids a day apart, shot down or destroyed on the ground more than 100 Japanese aircraft as the great aerial assault upon the Philippines and islands to the north went into its seventh day.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, Pacific fleet commander, announced in a noon communique (Honolulu time) that fighter aircraft raided Aparri, on the north coast of Luzon, Friday and on Sunday attacked airfields in the Manila bay area, 200 miles southward.

The Japanese air force, stung into desperate action, attacked with the greatest vigor it has shown in many months, but at terrible cost.

There was no announcement of American air losses, Nimitz said "only superficial damage was done to our surface ships" in the Manila bay area raids Sunday.

There still was no word here that any unit of the Japanese fleet had put in appearance as had been indicated in the Nippon radio reports.

Meanwhile the carriers and their escorting ships have been busily occupied fighting off the unusually strong and determined Japanese air attacks.

Carrier fighters raiding Aparri Friday found no enemy planes in the air. Five parked planes were destroyed by strafing.

Nimitz previously announced that other carrier units, in fighting off Japanese air attacks Thursday night during raids upon Formosa, and on Luzon Friday, destroyed at least 91 Japanese planes.

—Delta Zetas are perturbed by "Jeep," the ancient car of sister Phyll Hamborsky. Detroit sophomore, "Jeep's" reactions to the elements are unknown but always present. In fact, all term would-be riders to the converted Phi-Delt house have had to wait until 5 a.m. or p.m., as the case may be, for temperamental "Jeep" to weave his weary way out of the local garage.

... A Football Hero?

Dale Stafford, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, who predicted a Kentucky victory over the Spartans, received a letter from Jim Tweebils, Oke-Ask mus special student, questioning the Stafford pre-team dictation. Yesterday Tweebils received a gratifying answer acknowledging receipt of his letter. Tweebils (a figure of the football team's imagination) has at last received his first gleam of recognition as an athlete.

'Gypsy Baron' Features Performers Of International Operatic Repute

The New York Opera company will present Johann Strauss' operetta, "The Gypsy Baron," in College auditorium tomorrow evening at 8:15. Heard in the leading roles will be Brenda Lewis as Saffi and Richard Tyrol as Barinkay.

Mrs. Lewis made her opera debut with the Philadelphia Opera company in a minor role, and quickly rose to such parts as the Princess in "Der Rosenkavalier," the Contessa of "Marriage of Figaro," and Giulietta in "Tales of Hoffman." She now has a repertoire of 20 roles.

The past season she has played the title role in the New York Opera company's Broadway production of "The Merry Widow" and in the leading role of the same company's "Secret of Sidi Hane." Richard Tyrol, who plays the part of Barinkay in the operetta, is an athlete with a collection of championships to his credit. He has captured several tennis championships in the Swiss Alps and Austria and was a football player of international repute.

He made his debut in opera in "Le Trouvère" and was acclaimed for his robust voice, later singing a command performance of Noel Coward's "Bitter Sweet" for the Silver Jubilee of King George V.

Also heard in the operetta will be Grant Garnell as Count Homonay, Helen George as Arsenia, Norman Roland as Zsupan, Brooks McCormack as Ottokar, Hubert Norville as Count Cernero, and Teresa Gerson as Zaira.

Tickets may now be obtained at the accounting office. Students must present their student receipts.

BULLETIN

U.S. PACIFIC FLEET HDQ., PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 16 (AP)—There is growing suspicion among many naval officers here that the Japanese Imperial fleet has no intention of meeting Adm. William F. Halsey's powerful armada unless trapped.

Despite Tokyo radio reports that the Imperial fleet sank up to 52 of Halsey's ships, there is no indication the Japanese have dared emerge from hiding.

Professors Practice Pushing the Pedals

"East side, west side," from all around the town Michigan State's campus is invaded each day, rain or shine, by an enthusiastic group of bike peddlers intent upon saving gas coupons, time, shoe leather, or for just plain fun.

The bicycles, estimated by Chief of Police Richard Rogers to number from 250 to 300—are ridden not only by very practical-minded Lansing students and sorority women, but also a large number of well-known and popular members of the teaching staff.

Prof. A. A. Applegate, head of the journalism department, has confessed that the mile from home to campus is "just too far to walk" and since he's had only a few "spills" he okays bike riding as a great sport.

Americans Capture Aachen; Nazi Citadel Lies in Flame

Yanks Continue Assault on Aachen

The U.S. first army continued its assault on Aachen, while the British second army moved forward in the Netherlands south of Overloon. The Germans were reported to be shifting forces from the Arnhem area toward Aachen. Heavy line is battlefront.

Nazis Evacuate Greece as British Naval Reinforcements Arrive

ROME, Oct. 16 (AP)—A German withdrawal from Greece was indicated by Berlin today as a strong British naval force reached Piraeus, port of Athens, carrying troops to reinforce Allied and Greek patriot units liberating that country.

A Berlin broadcast quoted a German military spokesman as saying that "because of the German evacuation of Greece the Balkan front will assume a different aspect. Events there are still very fluid. The decision in this sector will fall later."

There has been no direct word on Athens from Allied headquarters since Saturday's announcement of its liberation, but field dispatches indicated the Germans engaged in considerable demolition before withdrawing.

British troops who reached Athens late Saturday were met by wildly cheering crowds, and a British pilot flying over the center of the city at a low height said he could hardly see the soldiers for the civilians.

Arrival of the British naval forces was accomplished after enemy minefields were removed—an indication that sea lanes would be safe for transportation of food and other supplies for Greek civilians.

Stephen Barber, Associated Press correspondent, in a field dispatch said Greece is not starving, but that disastrous inflation has set in.

Germans Throw Tank Forces Into Battle Against Yanks

LONDON, Oct. 16 (AP)—The flaming city of Aachen was sealed off from the rest of Germany tonight after American troops cleaned out the village of Wufsel, two miles northeast of the Nazi citadel, and completed their ring of steel around its last-ditch enemy garrison.

Another convulsive German counterattack was shattered by Yank artillery near Weiden, just east of Wufsel, before the infantry and armor of two converging first army columns finally formed a puncture and cut off Aachen's last, thin contact with the outside. Tonight Nazi planes sped across the city, lighted by many fires, and parachuted supplies to the trapped garrison.

Bitter Counterattacks
Apart from today's main German counterassault against Crucifix hill, which dominates Aachen from the northeast, a lesser but bitter one was sent against American troops within the rubble streets of the city. Members of the garrison threw themselves against the American lines shouting "Heil Hitler," and were repulsed only after savage, bloody fighting. Three-hundred Nazis were taken prisoner.

Canadian troops made steady progress in their crucial battle in Holland to clear the approaches to Antwerp so that great port might be opened to Allied traffic, and supreme headquarters reported that the Allied sixth army group had "gained momentum" in its advance north of the Belfort gap, advancing within two miles of La Bresse, 24 miles north of Belfort and 32 miles from the Rhine.

Yanks Withdraw

Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's third army troops were disclosed to have abandoned their 10-day battle of fort Driant, medieval bastion guarding the French city of Metz. The doughboys withdrew before dawn Friday from tunnels inside the fortress after wrecking all installations they had held through days of hard, close-quarter fighting.

The Paris radio reported, without Allied confirmation, that German resistance along the Schelde estuary in Holland had suddenly collapsed and that the entrance to Antwerp harbor is now clear. Field dispatches indicated on the other hand, that the Nazis were holding out along the estuary as long as possible.

Student Forum Disciplines Minds

One of the objectives of a college education is to train the student to think accurately and logically on pertinent topics of the day. Disciplining the mind is an important aspect of college training.

The inauguration of a student forum by the "Y" groups and the speech department is a step forward in this direction. It is never too early to begin formulating ideas, to begin setting the machinery of the mind to work. Too many college graduates are as sloppy and haphazard in their thinking when they leave college as when they enter.

When a student is ostensibly spending the greater part of his day attending classes, studying, learning, accumulating knowledge, it seems only sensible that he should at the same time strive to use that knowledge in his thinking so that the opinions and conclusions he may arrive at are much more worth while.

It is pitiable that too few persons with B.A. degrees have taken even a single course in logic, that so many of us are unable to detect the most obvious discrepancies of logical reasoning in the daily newspapers. Our newly instituted basic education program may materially help to alleviate this education defect. At least, let us hope so. — M.D.S.

THE WOMAN'S WORLD

By MAY ANN MAJOR

YWCA

YWCA will hold its fall picnic in place of the regular meeting tomorrow evening. All women who have signed up will meet at the People's Church at 5:30.

Last minute reservations for the picnic will be accepted by Barbara Alexander, Detroit junior. She may be reached by calling ext. 83.

Plans have been made to terminate the picnic by 7:15 in order that the those who wish to attend the operetta may do so.

Ballard, state agricultural agent; V. R. Gardner, experiment station director; R. C. Huston, dean of the school of graduate studies; and R. W. Tenny, director of the short courses.

Focal point of Wednesday's conference will be President Hannah's speech, "The Place of the Land-Grant College in the Public Educational System."

In Campus Quarters

By LEONE SEASTROM and DOROTHY LA MONT

INDIAN summer and spring have more in common than bright sunshine and sleepy students, so we're off again.

Over in the Pi Phi Gamma house the women are munching on chocolates and best wishing Chris Ives, who received Dave Cole's Sigma Chi pin Saturday night. Chris surprised her sorority sisters by presenting them with a five pound box of candy and displaying the new pin at Sunday dinner.

Comfortable in their borrowed house, the Gamma Phis haven't forgotten its owners, and to show their appreciation have invited the Psi Us en masse over to dinner Sunday noon. Among the guests will be new Psi U pledge Donald Raubar, Detroit freshman.

Twelve AOP's journeyed to Detroit last weekend to see sorority sister Doris "Debbie" Boyd married to Pvt. Jim Hodges, Sigma Chi and former AST student on campus. Before she left school, Debbie was given a shower by her maid-of-honor, Mary Lou Dewey.

From the looks of things new pledges are being royally treated these days with cleaning duties taking a back seat. Last week the Zeta Tau Alpha's gave a wienie roast for their pledges followed by bridge and singing at the house.

KD youngsters are getting a real inside view of life in the house on the hill since they were all invited to spend the night Friday. Adding the romantic touch, Pres. Mary Lou Beard surprised her sorority sisters by displaying her new FarmHouse pin. Former owner is L. L. Allyn Van Dyke, '43.

Via the mailman comes the news that Kappa Delta Mary Jane Ulbright will take the final step Oct. 28. Bob Shaffstahl, '43 is the lucky man.

Last weekend developed into an especially exciting time for the Delta Zetas. Several dressed-up sorority sisters explained that the occasion concerned the marriage of Elaine Zeerip to Frank Foster, Sigma Nu, and varsity wrestler, who is now in the merchant marines. The wedding took place in Peoples Church on Friday, (the 13th too).

More founder's day news among the Greeks. Last Friday Delta Chi actives and alums got together for dinner in the Union to celebrate their "birthday".

Lts. Ken Tyson, Bill Melhorn and Leo Bourdon, Delta Chi alums, were present to join in the celebration, which carried over to Saturday's game when the Delta Chis went en masse.

Music Majors Elect Officers to Organize New Recital Series

The music majors recently elected officers for the following school year.

Elected as president was Elsie Luke, East Lansing senior. Clifford Claycomb, a junior from East Lansing, was elected vice-president. Phyllis Collins, a sophomore from Spring Lake, fills the office of secretary-treasurer.

The officers have charge of the student recitals which are held weekly in the music auditorium. Recitals that are held for visiting artists are also planned and conducted by the organization.

State Clashes With Kansas For 45-6 Win

Spartans Serve Notice On Future Opponents In Third Victory

By JOE HEAGANY
Serving notice on their future opponents and everyone in general that they have one of the high-powered civilian elevens in the country, Michigan State hopped through Kansas State Saturday 45-6. Thirty seconds after the Spartans had possession of the ball they had six points, and the game continued at unabated pace for the rest of the afternoon.

Wide open football prevailed throughout the contest, and many passes and laterals made the game an interesting one to watch. Jack Breslin, stellar fullback for the Spartans, and the origin of their offense had to be assisted from the field with a ankle, but should be in line next Friday night when the green and white juggernaut of the University of Maryland at College Park, Md., reaches the Spartans.

Bruegger Makes Touchdown
First Quarter: Frank Bruegger, at the bottom of the heap, made a fumble in the first minute of the game. After a line by Bob Bruegger went off the line, and scampered, Bruegger, unopposed, with the first of Dick Massuch's kick was good.

Second Quarter: Breslin continued a second drive to the end zone where the Spartans broke through for a second score. This time Breslin's kick was good. State led Kansas deep in their own half, and got possession of the ball at the gun.

Third Quarter: On a simple play, Breslin broke through the line and a score. The contest was now a second string game. Breslin moved to the Wildcat yard stripe. Ben Johnson and Herb Speerstra were the main groundsmen. Fred Aronson continued the drive by scoring a reverse. Massuch's kick was good.

Fourth Quarter: Bruegger faded.

Hungary Rejects Armistice Plan, To Continue Fight Against Reds

LONDON, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Budapest radio announced tonight that a new government, headed by the pro-Nazi leader, Ferenc Szalasi as acting regent and prime minister, had taken over chaotic Hungary.

The broadcast announced the "retirement" of Regent Admiral Nicholas Horthy and the resignation of his government, which yesterday broadcast a petition for an armistice with the Allies.

Also announced was the appointment by Szalasi of a regency council composed of Col. Gen. Harold Bereczky, who also was named chief of staff and minister of defense; Dr. Ferenc Ranniss, known as the "Hungarian Goebbels," who was named minister of public worship and education; and Dr. Sandor Ostia.

The Budapest radio also broadcast a proclamation which it said Horthy had issued "revoking" his proclamation seeking an armistice and "confirming" an order to the Hungarian army to continue its fight against the Russian and Romanian troops advancing into the country.

From German, Hungarian and neutral reports it appeared that German troops still were fighting the Russians on Hungarian soil, that some Hungarian troops loyal to Admiral Horthy had turned against the Germans; that some Hungarians were battling Partisan bands operating on a large scale behind the lines while others were joining the Partisans.

Moscow continued to maintain official silence of several days on the Hungarian operations of the Red army, whose armored columns were last reported less than 50 miles from Budapest.

Freshmen to See College Fashions

The freshman orientation class will meet today from 2 to 3 p.m. in Fairchild theater. In place of the usual lecture the women will be educated as to what to wear where. The home's entertainment, Fannie Freshie Finds Out, features Jean Colingwood, Washington, D. C. junior.

The entire wardrobe of the college woman will be modeled by Gayle Oviatt, Washington, D. C. sophomore; Ruth Haufler, Saginaw junior; Betty Middleton and Jackie Potter, Birmingham sophomores and Doris Canfield, Grosse Pointe junior.

Other models are: Scottie McNeal, Grand Rapids senior; Eleanor Koch, Detroit junior; Jane Merz, Binghamton, N. Y. junior and Connie Helmer, Lansing junior.

The show will be directed by Sue Averill, Birmingham junior. Ed Darr, Detroit junior, will be Miss Upperclassman, the commentator.

PanHellenic Alumnae to Hold First Dance in Union Ballroom

The Lansing-East Lansing PanHellenic alumnae are sponsoring a dance in the Union ballroom this Friday evening from 9:30 to 12:30 with Ed Berry and his orchestra furnishing the music.

Decorations will carry out the fall harvest theme, and individual sororities will meet for refreshments before the dance.

The first alumnae PanHellenic dance in the history of the association, the affair will be open to members of PanHellenic and their friends, according to Mrs. William H. Burlingame, chairman of the dance.

Tickets are now on sale at the Union desk.

Student Forum Holds Regular Discussion At Weekly Meeting

Student Forum will hold its weekly meeting tonight at 7:30 in room 103 Union annex.

Students are invited to bring current editorials, provocative news and magazine articles, or books on timely problems for group discussion. Because of the large size of the forum, plans for dividing the meeting may be voted on this evening, according to Joseph D. Menchofer, director representing the speech department.

Student Forum meetings, sponsored by the college YMCA, YWCA, and the speech department, are held each Tuesday at this time.

State's Thinelads Lose First Meet With Ohio State

After suffering a severe defeat at the hands of Ohio State Saturday in Columbus, the Spartan cross country team will get several more chances to redeem itself. Athletic Director Ralph N. Young announced today. Three more dual meets, the NCAAAA, and the National Collegiate Athletic association meetings are all on the calendar for the harriers.

Coach Lauren Brower's squad will go to Des Moines, 6 run Drake University in a four mile cross country meet on Saturday, Oct. 28. They will entertain the Wayne University team here Thursday, Nov. 2 and will go to Detroit, Thursday, Nov. 16. Both will be over a four mile course.

The five-mile NC-4A meet will be held Saturday, Nov. 18 in New York and the NC-2A meet will be here over a four mile course, Saturday, Nov. 25.

Handicapped by a short practice period, the Spartans placed only two men among the first 10 in the meet with the Buckeyes. The Spartan's top man, Bob Price, Belding junior, took fifth.

Russians, Partisans Smash Through Part of Belgrade

Forces Capture Nis, Communications Center

LONDON, Oct. 16 (AP)—The Red army, aided by Marshal Tito's Partisans, struck two strong blows for the liberation of Serbia today, smashing into Belgrade and capturing the key communications center of Nis, 125 miles southeast of the capital.

The Algiers radio said two thirds of Belgrade was already liberated. The Germans admitted that Russian tanks broke into the city.

The twin accomplishments were proclaimed in a communique from Marshal Tito's headquarters. His Yugoslav Partisans played a large part in the hard fought operations.

In addition the Germans seemed to be losing their grip on Hungary as certainly as they have lost it in southeastern Yugoslavia. With Regent Nicholas Horthy suing for peace and Hungarian soldiers reportedly warring with Nazi garrison troops, any effective defense of Hungary appeared impossible.

Moscow Silent

Moscow has remained silent on the battle of the Hungarian plain for several days, but the Germans reported a massive tank encounter still in progress south of Debrecen, 115 miles east of Budapest, and near Oradea, across the Romania border 40 miles southeast of Debrecen.

Soviet columns southwest of Debrecen were last reported fighting within 50 miles of Budapest on the approaches to Szolnok and Kecskemet.

The Russians pushed tanks into Belgrade from the southeast in the widespread battles to drive the Germans out of southeastern Yugoslavia. The German agency Transocean reported bitter street fighting in the capital, with Nazi troops contending for every house.

Trap Ready to Spring

While the Russian forces drive deep into Hungary from the southeast and Russian and Romanian forces squeeze the Germans westward from Romania, Col. Gen Ivan Petrov's fourth Ukrainian army fighting southwest through the Carpathians from Poland may spring the trap shut.

The Germans admitted that Petrov's armies were smashing powerfully into Slovakia through the Carpathian passes and pressing hard on the retreating Nazi troops.

In northern Finland, where the Russians won Petsamo yesterday, pursuit of the Germans began in below zero weather. The German radio indicated the Nazis were fleeing into Norway with strong Soviet forces close behind.

Adventure Series To Feature 'Chile'

Julien Bryan, noted cameraman who has produced documentary film studies of all sections of the world, will lecture in College auditorium Saturday evening at 8:15 p. m. on the subject, "Chile."

Unlike most cameramen who seek 'spot' news pictures or single out bizarre elements in the folkways of other lands, Bryan films a country in its entirety. Before leaving on his expeditions, he familiarizes himself with the problems of the society he will visit, and sets as his goal the complete camera documentation of the nation as it is today.

His first documentary pictures were taken in Soviet Russia. Since that time he has filmed every section of the Soviet, Japan, China, Poland, Finland, Manchukuo, Turkey, Mexico, and Nazi Germany.

During the past two summers, he has filmed the countries of South America, and his film, "Chile", is one of this series. It is a concentrated study of the most advanced country of South America in social legislation, and is filmed in technicolor.

Speakers' Bureau Desires Students For Membership

Since the Student Speakers' bureau is searching for talent, every student who is interested should plan to attend the general meeting tonight at 7:30 in organization room 1 of the Union.

Students who have interesting experiences, hobbies or talents, or feel that they have a story to tell are desired by the Speakers' bureau. Those who cannot attend the meeting are urged to call the bureau manager, B. J. Knittel, at extension 397 or to stop at the speech office, 143 auditorium.

Foreign students are particularly urged to affiliate themselves with the bureau, since it offers many opportunities for experience and practice. The Student Speakers' bureau, supervised by the speech department and aided by other departments in the school of science and arts, is designed to serve school groups, women's societies, men's organizations, school assemblies, civic clubs, church groups, and others.

More than 20 requests for programs have already been received this fall and, although many have been filled, the demand is consistently increasing, according to Mr. Knittel. Later in the term, a bulletin containing the names of those who have been chosen for membership and a brief description of their qualifications will be printed.

and hit Brogger with a perfect spot pass, Brogger took a few steps and as he was being tackled flipped a neat lateral to Don Grondzik who was finally knocked out of bounds on the 25. Bruegger faded again and hit Grondzik with a nice pitch. The big end bulled his way through three men to score standing up. Brogger's kick was blocked at the three quarter pole. A host of substitutions came into the game, and the first eleven trotted to the field house.

Fourth Quarter: A fourth down fumble on some wide-open football that backfired gave State another chance on the prairie men's 15. Bill Maskill punched over from a yard out. Pete Dendrino's kick was blocked. The final score came when Speetra clamped on to a Wildcat aerial and loped 27 yards down the sidelines to score. Dick Mineweaser's conversion split the uptights.

Kansas Scores Once

Kansas tallied mid-way in the last stanza for their lonely looking score. A deluge of Spartan substitutions flowed constantly. As the game ended a fourth team had surged to the visitor's one yard marker only to have the game end as they were about to resume play.

Chief interest of the game was the way the reserves showed up. Speetra, Mineweaser, Johnson, and Art Artz all looked good. As did Rex Moore, Glenn Hatfield, Bob Schroeder, and Bill Maskill. No man on the first eleven can claim outstanding honors as everyone looked like world beaters. State was forced to kick only once.
