... Sweet Adeline

A room in Mason hall was damaged this week when a huge jar, full of sweet pickles, fell on to the floor and broke. The occupants say the floor got pickled so as to keep the plastered walls company.

... Lighter Than Air

Bonnie Jean McKay, Pigeon junior, was so exhilarated from the beautiful spring evening last Wednesday that she was walking on air. Suddenly it collapsed and she found herself in the bottom of a deep hole that will soon be the basement of one of the practice houses being erected on the east end of campus.

Talks to Begin On Marriage

Mortar Board, national women's honorary, will again sponsor the annual senior marriage lecture series during spring term. Jo Johnson, Pleasant Ridge senior and president of the organization has said that five talks will be given in the series at 7:15 p.m. in the Music auditorium.

The first speaker, Dr. Ralph Higgins, of St. Mark's church in Grand Rapids, will discuss "What Are My Beliefs About Marriage?" Monday, April 1.

On April 3, Dr. Robert Foster, from the Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit, will speak on "Choosing A Life Partner," and the following night Dr. Lydia Lightfoot of the MSC physical education department, will discuss "The Biological Aspects of Marriage" for the women members of the class. At the same time a separate lecture will be arranged for men.

Dr. Carl Morrison, from the Lansing Children's center, will talk on Monday, April 8. His lecture will continue the "Biological Aspects of Marriage."

The concluding talk of the series will be Wednesday, April 10 with Dr. Foster speaking again, this time on "Adjustments After Marriage."

Degrees To Be Awarded To Students

Concert To Be Presented By Michigan State Band

A diversified program has been planned for the winter term concert which the MSC band will present, under the direction of Leonard Falcone, at 4 tomorrow afternoon in College auditorium.

Roy Underwood, head of the music department, announced yesterday that John Shelby Richardson, pianist and instructor in the department, will be featured in

... concert star ...

George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."

Selections Vary

Selections will vary from Bach's "Arioso from Cantata No. 156" to an overture composed of "Annie Rooney," "The Band Plays On," "Silver Threads

Among the Gold," "Comrades," and "The Man on the Flying Trapeze" skillfully interwoven to present a melody at once lilt-ing and bittersweet. David Rose will be represented by his popular semi-classic, "Holiday for Strings."

A gavotte, "Grace and Charm" written by Nahán Franko, will add contrast when compared to the modern theme of "The Golden Age," a polka by Dmitri Schostakowitch. The former is exactly what its title implies, both graceful and charming, while the latter presents a slightly discordant tone when first heard and leaves the audience perplexed as to whether the music is serious or joyful.

Wagner Featured

Wagner is the only composer featured twice on the program. Besides his "Rienzi Overture," "Album Leaf," one of the few piano selections he composed, will also be presented.

The concert will be concluded with two numbers from a suite of ten entitled "Pictures at an Exhibition" written by Modeste Moussorgsky. The theme of these was drawn from Russian architecture as shown by the titles of the two numbers, "Hut of the Baba Yaga," and "The Great Gate of Kiev."

This concert will be the first chance that many of the students have had to hear their band, and a large audience is anticipated. The concert will be free to the general public.

Ex-Department Head A. R. Sawyer Dies

A. R. Sawyer, 77, former head of the Chemical Engineering department at MSC and veteran of 25 years' service to the college, died Wednesday night at his home.

The funeral took place at 3 p.m. yesterday at Gorsline-Ruicman funeral home in Lansing. Rev. N. A. McCune officiating. The body will be cremated at White Chapel Crematory, Birmingham.

Surviving are his daughter and three grandchildren.

*Requirements Have Been Completed By 79 Seniors And Nine Graduates

Eighty-eight students, including 79 seniors and nine graduates, will be eligible for degrees from Michigan State college at the end of this term, according to Robert S. Linton, registrar.

During fall and winter term no commencement exercises are held for the graduates, but these students may return to State for the senior week activities in June, Linton said.

Union Board To Sponsor Two Dances

For a final fling before exams Union board is sponsoring two dances this weekend. Jimmie Shafer's orchestra, featuring vocalist Margie Wilkins will furnish dance music for the all-college dance tonight from 9-12 midnight in the Union ballroom.

Spartan Varieties will again broadcast during Party-Party this afternoon from 4-4:30. Alpha Chi sorority and Sigma Chi fraternity will take the spotlight.

Sigma Chi sweetheart Marion Cannon, Toledo, Ohio, sophomore, will represent Alpha Chi singing "Oh What It Seemed to Be." Paul Hellenga, Three Oaks sophomore, representing Sigma Chi, will play the piano. Spartan Song of the Week will be featured on the program.

Dick Snook's orchestra will play for dancing during Party-Party from 3 to 5 p.m.

Iturbi to Appear At MSC, April 9

Four programs, including two special features, have been planned for the lecture-concert series spring term. Selections from opera, the dance team Veloz and Yolanda, pianist Jose Iturbi, and the Philadelphia symphony orchestra are to appear.

"A Night in Old Vienna," selections from various operas, will be presented March 29 and 30 in place of the operas "Barber of Seville" and "Martha."

Two special programs, one featuring the noted dance team of Veloz and Yolanda and their company, the other a concert by Jose Iturbi, well-known concert pianist, conductor, and screen and radio star, will appear April 2 and 9, respectively.

May 7 the Philadelphia Symphony orchestra will be presented in a concert in College auditorium.

Soviet Accuses U.S. of Violating Moscow Pact

LONDON, Mar. 8 (AP) — The Moscow radio said tonight the Soviet government had formally charged the United States with "violation of the Moscow decision" in suggesting "new conditions" for representation of opposition parties in the Bulgarian government.

The broadcast, recorded here by the Soviet monitor, said Soviet charge d'affaires Novikov handed the U.S. State department a note on March 7 alleging that a message Washington sent to Bulgaria this week urged Bulgarian opposition leaders to seek "disruption" of the Moscow agreement by which Russia, Great Britain and the United States agreed to seek broader representation in governments of the Balkan states.

Comprehensives Cast Shadow On Campus

By DON BALL

Basic college comprehensives are now in session. Basic college comprehensives are roughly similar to the old Spanish Inquisition, only more so. The Spaniards in their spare time tore arms and legs off, gouged out eyes, seared and deluged their victims, but never reduced their torture to the finesse now shown in tests conducted by college professors. Remember, however, the Spaniards did not have the advantages of a modern education.

It would be easy to visualize a group of professors huddled around a table piled high with papers, the scene illuminated by several 100 watt lamps.

Sneering laughter greets proposed questions such as "In ten words give the definition of the English language and its origin," or "Give the relative merits of the Neolithic and Cromagnon civilizations from an eyewitness viewpoint." When they burst into huzzas and diabolic giggles over a suitable question for the test, human minds shudder at the mere thought of it.

The test itself drains the student of every fragment of intellect he possesses and for days after, 2x2 is a mathematical prodigy. At intervals during the test a proctor mounts the stage and gloatingly reminds the students that time is short, " . . . but don't rush . . . fill in only those questions that are understandable, remember, errors are subtracted from the number right."

The final phase is the critical determinant. The student wavers up the aisle toward the door and freedom. His eyes are glazed and his body sags, nevertheless at the door he must produce more identification to leave than is needed to get a passport to go abroad. Nope, the old Spaniards had nothing on the modern college faculty.

Bachelor's Degrees

Students who are candidates for bachelor degrees, and their home towns, are listed as following: Robert Azelton, East Lansing; Betty Baltzer, East Lansing; John Bardens, Lowell, Ind.; Ralph Bigelow, East Lansing; Harry Blair, Dansville, Ind.; Barbara Brisbin, Monroe; Ross Brown, East Lansing; Dorothy Bull, Birmingham, and Sherman Byrd, Francesville, Ind.

Wesley Carlosh, Remsen, N. Y.; Jean Carr, Grosse Pointe; Phyllis Ann Chevie, Armada; Thomas Chlebina, Alma; Mary E. Clark, East Lansing; Marian Clover, East Lansing; Raymond Costello, Clouchest, N. J.; Helen Cropsey, Suttons Bay, and Alice

MSC Housing Stays Acute

Spring term will find another increase in enrollment at Michigan State college. Registrar R. S. Linton has announced that there would be approximately 1,000 new students on campus at that time.

Of the 52 quonset huts that are under construction, 13 will be ready for occupation when the new term starts March 25. The remainder of the huts will be completed during spring term.

Part of the housing conditions will be reduced by housing the women in the Union and the new men will live in Jensen gym until the remainder of the quonset huts are finished.

Each of the huts is built to house 14 men. One of them will be used as a reception room and another will house a counselor for the project. A total of 700 men will be housed in the project.

Dormitories now under construction are progressing and will continue so if the weather permits. While it is doubtful if they are all entirely completed for fall term, Karl McDonel, secretary, announces they are coming along on schedule.

Women and men will continue to have three in a room spring term. Pres. J. A. Hannah announced this week the price of the rooms will remain the same as it was this term.

Let's Get Together More Often

Last night the Senior ball entertained MSC students. This afternoon Party-Party will welcome all Spartans. Tonight Union board is sponsoring an all-college dance in the Union ballroom.

These three dances offer to the Michigan State college students a full social weekend, but a weekend such as this is an exception when it should be the rule.

With cars banned for the majority of students, most of them find it necessary to seek their Friday and Saturday night fun on campus, in East Lansing or Lansing. The latter two offer movies, which at the best fill up only two hours of the evening.

Bowling and roller skating grow tiresome to even the more athletic minded. The only places that offer dancing demand an identification card for admittance.

Each weekend there are dances scheduled on the social roster and they look imposing upon first glance. A second glance will show you, however, that the greatest number of them are closed parties, sponsored by sororities, fraternities, and other campus organizations. Attendance at these is restricted to members and guests.

Students living at home, or in small off-campus houses who are not affiliated with any such group do not have the opportunity to enjoy functions of this type. Every weekend they lose contact with the campus and with their fellow Spartans.

This term there was an open dance sponsored by the administration which proved to be a success. The students were assured that if they did respond favorably to such an event, that there would be more such affairs forthcoming.

Students enjoyed this dance, not only because it gave the opportunity to become acquainted, but because it was no drain on their rather empty billfolds. Rather a mercenary reason, but entirely valid for the men who are getting through on the proverbial shoestring.

MSC is enlarging, it is becoming an outstanding university, but what are fine buildings and advanced courses if the student spirit isn't visible. Our student body needs more things to bind it together, social gatherings and informal get-togethers, where they can enjoy themselves as a group.

It can't be said that the responsibility for providing these affairs rests in the administration. State students don't need someone to entertain them. They just need to stand unitedly behind the campus groups that are authorized to plan and carry out these social events.

Darden To Give Lecture On Alaska

"Eskimo" will be the subject of the illustrated lecture to be presented by William L. Darden, well-known naturalist and photographer, in College auditorium tonight at 8:15, as part of the world adventure series, according to Dean S. E. Crowe, director of the series.

Darden, who has lived and traveled in Alaska for 12 years and who is known as an outstanding authority on Alaska, spent more than a year on the Arctic coast filming the all-color pictures of the way of life and the customs of the Eskimo.

With a thorough knowledge of the territory, industries, people, and wild life of Alaska, gained through thousands of miles of travel by airplane, dog team, and boat from Ketchikan in the south to Point Barrow inside the Arctic circle, Darden is well-qualified to speak on Alaskan topics.

Also included in the film are sequences depicting the excitement and dangers of white whale and walrus hunting.

Constitutional committee is headed by Barbara Quayle, Oxford senior. Committee members include Gayle Oviatt, Washington, D. C., junior, and newly elected vice president of AWS activities board, and Marilyn Madsen, Highland Park freshman.

Appointments made this week were Iva Jo Rabold, Armada sophomore, chairman of spring term dorm elections; and Peg Primodig, East Lansing junior, chairman of AWS handbook committee.

Louise Campbell

State's Newest Coed Dorm Houses Over Four Hundred

By MARYLOU HERNDEN

This fall Louise Campbell dormitory opened for the sixth year. Its grand opening in the fall of '39 barely came in time for the beginning of the new term.

Three hundred coeds moving into the new dorm just pushed aside the sawdust and extra nails, and thought it a good joke that carpenters had to spend the next couple of weeks putting the finishing touches on the "Oh, so new!" dormitory.

Campbell hall shared the excitement of her opening, since that fall marked the ending of a large building program which included College auditorium, the WKAR studios, Fred C. Jenison memorial fieldhouse and men's gym, the Olin memorial hospital, new music building and the veterinary science clinic and the livestock judging pavilion.

Mrs. E. V. Muir came in to serve as housemother in North Campbell, a position she still holds. However, South Campbell has had six housemothers, the present being Mrs. D. B. Meyer, who has served one year. Mrs. M. C. Daner holds the position of house night hostess in both North and South Campbell.

Dramatics Honorary To Sponsor Comedy As Spring Term Play

"You Can't Take It With You" has been chosen to be presented by college dramatic talent spring term, Don Buell, professor of speech and dramatics announced yesterday.

The play, written by Kaufman and Hart, has nearly 20 in the east with a strong lead for the men.

Tryouts will be held in room 1 of the Home Ec building April 1, 2, and 3, with Theta Alpha Phi, dramatics honorary sponsoring.

Copies of the play will be placed in the assigned reading room of the library the day of registration and those interested should read them as soon as possible, Buell concluded.

Coeds From Nine Colleges Will Confer On Athletics

Federation of College Women to Meet Today

The first postwar conference of the Athletic Federation of College Women will be held today on campus.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. in the Women's gym. Dr. Lydia L. Lightring, head of women's physical education at State, will give the welcoming talk.

Disney Fashions

Bright spots for darkling hours! The famous Disney family on a neat fitting cotton or duck swagger coat. Tailored to perfection and designed by Simplicity to be worn with everything.

Other speakers during the day will be Miss Marie Hartwig and Miss Gertrude Moulton, both from the University of Michigan.

Miss Hartwig will lead a discussion on the American Federation of College Women, while Miss Moulton will discuss standards of women's athletics.

At 3:45 p.m. the participants in the conference will hold their business meeting.

Nine Schools Represented

Colleges represented in this conference will be Adrian, Albion, Central Michigan of Education, Kalamazoo, University of Detroit, University of Michigan and Wayne. Two junior colleges will be represented in the group. They are Flint and Port Huron junior colleges.

The conference committee from MSC includes WAA president, Isabel Firth, Jackson senior, Betty Marshall, East Lansing senior; Virginia Boehler, Lansing senior; and Mary K. Babcock, Detroit senior.

Union Board Plans Dance

Chairmen Reveal Six Closed Events

Although final week is practically here, MSC students are allowing themselves one last fling by centering their attention on tonight's seven parties.

Tonight's prominent all-college dance will take place in the Union ballroom from 9 to 12. Union board is sponsoring this affair and it is under the direction of Jack Breslin, Battle Creek senior.

New Group
Music for dancing will be rendered by Jimmie Shafer and his band, and Marg Wilkins will be the featured vocalist. Shafer's band is a newly organized group, which has previously played for Party-Party.

The Delta Gammas have selected tonight as the date for their semi-formal term party. The dance will be given in the American room of the Hotel Olds from 9 to 12, and Dick Snook and his orchestra will furnish music.

St. Patrick Theme

A St. Patrick theme has been chosen by the members of Student club for their final party of the term.

It will take place tonight in the social hall of P. Peoples church from 8:30 to 11:30, according to party chairmen Max Ploughman, Boyne City sophomore, and Carry Eastman, Pleasant Mount, Pa., sophomore. The evening's program will consist of games, singing, and refreshments. Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Reuling, "Mac" McCullough, and Lexie Ferrell will act as patrons.

The Alpha Tau Omega pledges are giving a radio party tonight in honor of the actives. Doug Fritz, Grosse Pointe freshman, is in charge of the affair, and Herb Roxie and Oliver Lien will serve as chaperons.

Forestry Cabin

Wolverine staff members are holding a closed radio party tonight which will take place in the Forestry cabin. Prof. and Mrs. A. A. Applegate and Prof. and Mrs. Allen Scott will be patrons, according to Margo Green, East Lansing sophomore.

Coads of precinct 6, Mason hall, have a hayride planned for tonight. Following the ride, the women and their dates will return to the dorm for dancing and refreshments. Phyllis Becker, Birmingham senior, has stated. Chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Knittel and Prof. and Mrs. D. F. Sheehan.

Hillel members will hold their final delta of the term tonight at Shaarey Zedek in Lansing. It will be a non-date affair and will begin at 8. Ralph Pliskin, Flushing, N. Y., freshman, is party chairman.

Military Course

Will Be Repeated

The military department at State will again offer the advanced course in ROTC spring term, according to Col. G. B. Egger, commanding officer. It is expected that next term the quartermaster and field artillery branches will be reopened, in addition to the infantry and cavalry courses which are already established.

The course is open to all veterans on campus who are between the ages of 19 and 27 and have completed at least one year of military service. At the completion of the course, the graduates will be commissioned second lieutenants in the reserve army.

Those who enroll in the course will be furnished the complete officer's uniform and text books. In addition, they will receive a monthly allotment which is in addition to the GI allotment.

All men who are interested are asked to contact Lt. Col. Gerald Peterson at the military department in Demonstration hall.

Concluding the list of graduating seniors who have been identified on the basis of their hometowns as listed in the MSC student directory, are John Titus, Traverse City; Bette Vallett, Detroit; and Joann Wilkin, Highland Park.

The nine persons eligible for advanced degrees this term include: master of arts degree, Fred R. Hubeston, Cadillac, education; William McIntire, East Lansing, education, and Pauline Sitter, Detroit, speech.

Master of science degree, Bir Singh Bhandall, East Lansing, horticulture; Selena A. Joseph, Baton Rouge, La., foods and nutrition; Charles B. Kelly, Guelph, Ontario, horticulture; Anita H. Leavitt, Lansing, bacteriology; Norval R. Richard, Guelph, Ontario, soil science, and Jack D. Tinter, San Antonio, Tex., animal pathology.

Affairs of State

LIFE has its little problems. Finals are looming over the horizon and already the eager beavers have gone to work. Others things of greater importance are causing us sleepless nights and hours of anxiety. What will happen to poor little friendless B. O. Plenty and will Diet Smith ever be the same again?

In spite of the great unsolved puzzles there are a multitude of happy individuals on campus. Helen Bohler, La Grange, Ill., freshman, has a diamond on her left hand that was donated by Herb Brough, a freshman at the University of Illinois. Helen is an AOPi pledge and her fiancé is pledged to Phi Kappa Psi.

At the Theta house on the top of the hill there was a surprise candlelight party to announce a pinning. Barb Glass, Detroit junior, is wearing an ATO badge that once belonged to Bill Cosgrove, Highland Park sophomore.

Catching up on a wedding that happened several weeks ago concerns Jacque Quick, Mt. Morris freshman, and Erwen Feltz, Monroe freshman.

Pin passings have been on the increase and are getting more numerous as time goes by. William Colman, Detroit freshman vet, passed his AEPi pin to Ann Dater, Lansing freshman. His fraternity brother, Leonard Schreiber, New York freshman vet, followed suite with Pauline Smolinsky, of Detroit.

Two other AEPis have turned over their fraternity badges to the more feminine elements. Ralph Pliskin, New York freshman vet, has given his to Jean Cahn, of New York, N. Y., and Tobi Goldoftas, Detroit junior, is pinned to Ann Aishiskin, Detroit senior.

The last week is all over as far as classes are concerned. Sororities are still busy finishing up the final business of winter term. Delta Gamma has a slate with five new pledges listed. They are Marilyn Haan, Grand Rapids freshman; Margo Green, East Lansing sophomore; Ruby Anne Allen, Lansing freshman; Carolyn Goodrien, Albion freshman, and Honor Stuckney, Clarkston sophomore.

New slates for fraternities and sororities are being turned in as elections take place. The Psi U's have a new president, Bill Morris, Goddells senior, vice-president is Bill Looley, Lowell senior, corresponding secretary, Dick Smith, Detroit junior, and recording secretary, Carroll Chapman, Rochester freshman.

Continuing the list of new officers we find the Delta Sig's have voted the following men into positions. Harold Sessions, Lansing junior, will preside with the gavel. Assisting will be Chuck Monahan as the vice-president, Dick Henderson, Detroit junior, second vice-president; Bob Burns, Marine City sophomore, Treasurer will be Ken Schultz, Hillsdale junior, and Ham Hurst, Downers Grove, Ill., freshman, is the new sergeant at arms.

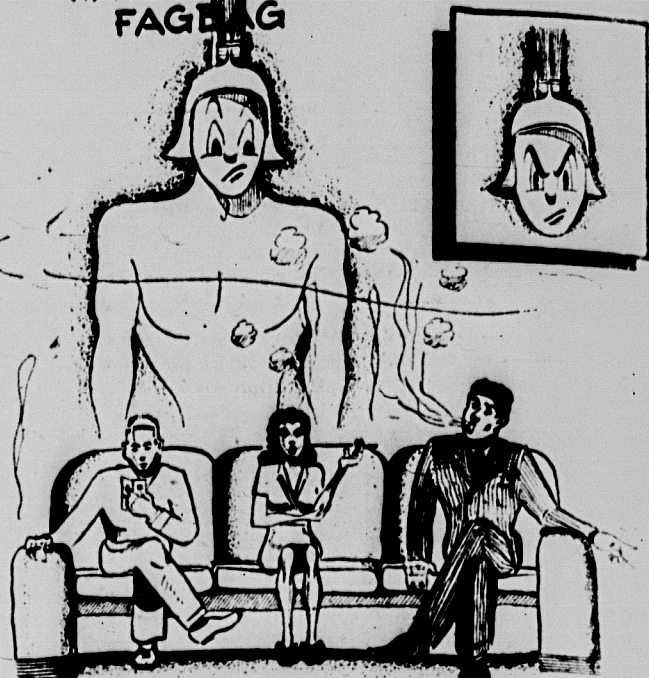

Again on the list of pledges we find that activity has been going on at Farmhouse. They have recently pledged five men. They are Robert Dewey, Bellaire freshman; Robert Cetas, Harbor Springs junior; Elmer Fuhr, Roseville senior; George Greenleaf, Ionia senior, and Donald Hakala, Ironwood junior.

Truman Hits Labor Trouble

WASHINGTON, Mar. 8 (AP)—President Truman lashed out today at what he called ballyhoo by both sides in some of the continuing labor disputes.

His comment was the more emphatic in that it came in a volunteer statement at his news conference rather than in response to questioning.

Mr. Truman named no names, but reporters thought it obvious that he referred to the General Motors strike, for one, for the first question asked him was whether he would intervene in that dispute. The chief executive said firmly that he will not intervene.

The president began by announcing a fact-finding board for the railroad wage dispute—former associate justice Leif Erickson of the Montana supreme court, Frank M. Swacker, New York lawyer, and Gordon S. Watkins of the economics department of the University of California. This will put off for 30 to 60 days the walkout called for Monday by the Brotherhoods of Engineers and Trainmen.

Wells Hall Elects Six Counselors

The representatives to Wells hall council elected from each precinct by the men themselves are as follows: Precinct A, John A. Wirth, East Lansing freshman; Erwin Gondek, Dargatz freshman; Precinct B, Mason Keller, Battle Creek freshman; William J. Shell, Brooklyn junior; Precinct C, George E. Wells, Hillsdale freshman, and Robert C. Long, Dearborn freshman.

Others are: Precinct D, Owen Armitage, Coral Gables, Fla., freshman; Precinct E, Peter H. Gert, Canton, Ohio, sophomore; and Precinct F, Bert West, Lincoln Park freshman. The towns, Battle Creek freshman.

I'm even jealous of the school. His odor I'm forgetting. I'd gladly smell that way. I could dig a place to live. —The Cotation, Cotation, Cotation.

Sayao, Martini To Give Joint Concert At MSC

Selections From Verdi, Haydn, Donizetti, Listed on Lecture-Concert Program

The sparkling Bidu Sayao and the popular tenor Nino Martini, stars of the Metropolitan opera, will be presented in joint concert at 8:15 p.m. Monday, in College auditorium, as announced by Dean S. E. Crowe, director of the lecture-concert series. Martini replaces Charles Kull, originally scheduled to appear with Miss Sayao.

Sayao, a native of Brazil, made her concert debut at the principal theater of Rio de Janeiro after her great triumph in conquered audiences in all great music capitals of Europe—Rome, Milan, Paris, among others. She then returned home to appear at the Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires. Soon after this the Brazilian came to the United States as a tourist; but when she sang at Milan's La Scala opera house, she was asked to appear in Debussy's "Pelleas and Melisande." It was thus that she made her American debut, and after she was offered a contract with the Metropolitan

Spartan Track, Swim Teams Face Big Fields In CCC Meet

Top Mid-West Colleges Entered In Cinder Meet

By JIM CARR

Close to 200 athletes, representing some 15 mid-western colleges and universities, will assemble this afternoon for the preliminary event of the 19th annual running of the Central Collegiate conference track and field meet which is scheduled to get under way at 3 o'clock.

The finals in these events start at 7:30 with the field trials, while the track events commence a half an hour later. The CCC meet is not sanctioned by Michigan State college and therefore student books will not be accepted. Price of admission 60c for adults and 30c for servicemen and children.

Spartans Enter 27
Coach Karl Schlademan announced last night that 27 Spartans will be entered in the 13 different events and is looking for his power in the dash and hurdle events.

Jack Dodge will carry State's hopes in the high hurdles while Harold Mayhew, a constant point after, footballer Russ Reader and Amen Carter round out the Spartan's entries.

In the low hurdles Bob Carter will be depended on to carry the team for the Green and White. He will go to the blocks with Mayhew, Reader and Dave Jensen.

Outstanding Relay Team

State's outstanding one mile relay team of Jim Fraser, Ray Eckord, Al Lagrou, and Mildred Jones will find most of their competition coming from Notre Dame.

MSC's highly favored Ted Vossburg should not have too much trouble in taking the pole vault, it may be pressed for the title by his team mate Bob Vossburg. Vossburg took second place in last year's CCC meet when attending Notre Dame, where he is enrolled as a naval trainee.

Drake university of Des Moines, Iowa, is the defending champion and should they remain in their championship it will be in the nature of an upset and great tribute to the Drake team. But experts pick the pre-selected favorites to be Notre Dame and Michigan State.

MSC Rifle Team Scores 27th Win

The Spartan rifle team added four victories to their growing ring in a telegraphic meet, March 2, according to Captain James H. Atchison, officer in charge of the team. This makes the team's record against individual schools, 27 won and one loss.

Shooting a five-man team, State's varsity defeated the University of Maryland and West Virginia university. The top five Spartan marksmen were Erwin Anderson, Floyd Lutz, Richard McNeil, Bob Habermehl, and Charles Swanson.

The ten-man team shooting in four positions, scored 3699 to defeat the University of Arizona, which made 3535. This squad also made a 3731 series to top university of Kentucky's 3727. The ten-man team consists of the top five, plus J. Baker, G. Evans, E. Weaver, R. Pritchard, and T. Palmer.

The top ten men of the eighteen man squad each week are chosen to fire in the following week's match.

Will H. Hefty and Dick Hollingsworth please call at the State News office in the Union basement today, in order to pick up their awards from the bowling tourney.

MISCELLANY

MSC Varsity Sport Shorts

Former Spartan all-American football star, Johnny Pingel, now working with Veterans' administration, still is in excellent condition, taking daily workouts in Jenison fieldhouse. Currently, basketball is Pingel's favorite sport and his constant companion on the hardwood is Bob "Ace" Friedlund, one-time State end and teammate of Pingel's.

State high school basketball finals will be played on the Jenison fieldhouse court the 22 and 23 of this month. Students who will be around campus would be wise to attend, because no few of these prep eagles will develop into collegiate stars, probably some here at State.

Softball will be the big thing on the intramural front come spring term and prospective players are urged to organize their clubs and start to practice early. Lyman L. Frimodig, the man who operates the "mural loops, states that the old setup of fraternity, dormitory and independent leagues will prevail with the usual trophies and individual medals going to the championship club and its members.

With his team's final victory over Wisconsin, Coach Ben Van Alstyne chalked up his 200th basketball win for MSC. In his tenure at State, Van Alstyne has lost only 131 of 331 games.

The major basketball award winners have been announced by Ralph Young, athletic director. Letter winners were Sam Fortino, Robin Roberts, Bill Krall, Ollie White, Don Waldron, John Granack, Dud Jones, Matt Mazza, Pat Peppier, and Dan Pjesky.

Spartan Wrestlers Return To National Collegiates

By KEN CLARK

In preparation for the coming National Collegiate wrestling tournament to be held at Oklahoma A & M March 22 and 23, the Michigan State matmen are running through stiff workouts in an effort to add a bit of extra condition and smooth out a few of the season's shortcomings.

For the first time since 1942 the NCC will be entered by MSC matmen. In the tournament of 1941 and '42, State placed second only to the nationally prominent Oklahoma A&M mat squad.

Following the Collinsmen in the 1942 classic was Penn State, with the University of Michigan fourth, Purdue fifth, and Navy sixth.

Prewar Quality

It is not known at present, just how many teams will be entered in the national meet or who they will be. One thing is almost certain, the number of schools entered will probably be surprisingly large and of pre-war quality.

State's ablest entry is national AAU champ, Gale Mikles. He will be out for his second national crown. Burl Boring, 165 pound veteran, is undefeated this season and should bring points to the Spartan camp.

Third State matmen sure of making the trip is Iggy Konrad, 145 pound returned veteran.

State's Natators Poised To Break CCC Records

By BILL SONNEBORN

Spartan swimming Coach Charles McCaffree announced yesterday that there is a very good chance that Central Collegiate conference pool records will be broken when they go on the block in the this afternoon at Jenison house pool.

State's ace freestyler, Gilbert, is expected to break both varsity marks in the 100 and 440-yard freestyle, having paddled the distance two minutes, 14.3 seconds five minutes, 11.5 seconds respectively.

McCaffree's medley relay of Howard Patterson, Paul bold, and James Quigley, set a new NCAA freshman record of two minutes, 59.3 seconds, in the Great Lakes week ago, is in good shape to attempt to break that mark.

Competition For Spartans

There is plenty of competition for Spartan swimmers. Z Indyke, Captain of the team and John DeMond, in the yard contest. Heading the list of opponents are William of Wayne, Clarence Parker of University of Detroit, Keating of the University of Cincinnati, and Illinois Tech, trant, Whitney Pearson.

Natators for State's part, 100-yard sprint will be Quigley, DeMond and Paul Allen. Allwardt established the record for the century event in 1943 at 55.3 seconds.

Dunbar in Diving

Maintaining two tries in every event, even diving in which Don Dunbar is MSC's lone contestant. McCaffree said that he will assign Seibold, Dean Waters, H. Ellison, and Tom Dunbar to the 200-yard breaststroke.

The eight school teams are entering the largest of swimmers ever listed in CCC classic. State has made a perfect record, taking previous meets and holding of the eight records set in meets.

There are still reserved tickets available for the meet at the Jenison fieldhouse office, for 60 cents each.

Chicago U. Quits Big Ten

'State Is Interested'—Young Says

"We would be very happy to accept an invitation to join the Big Ten if one were offered," Athletic Director Ralph Young stated last night in regard to what Michigan State might do if asked to become a member of the Western conference now that Chicago university has dropped out.

Young said that as far as he knew the attitude of State toward an offer would remain as it has for some time.

The athletic policy and eligibility of Michigan State has been operating on Big Ten rules for years and certainly will be one of the schools considered when the conference decides who shall replace the Maroons.

Maroons Drop League Sports; SC Has Hope

CHICAGO, March 8 (AP)—University of Chicago, a member and once a leading power under Alonzo Stagg, today withdrew from the 50-year-old Big Ten conference because of athletic incompetency.

As expected, the withdrawal of the faded Maroons, whose past held seven undisputed conference football championships, equalled only by Minnesota's modern Gophers, paved the way for a possible new member.

Finish Out Year

The withdrawal was announced at a meeting of conference directors by T. Nelson, Chicago athletic director, at final action on the move to the spring meeting of the conference faculty representatives at Champaign, Ill., May 30. The Maroons will compete to the end of the school year, at that time, also, formal decisions are expected on possible replacement of the Maroons. Athletic directors shied away from the subject after expressing "sincere" regrets at Chicago's departure.

A Prospect

Named frequently as conference prospects ever since Maroon hit the skids after its departure in 1933, were schools as Pittsburgh, Nebraska, Michigan State, Marquette, Notre Dame, and Iowa.

Young said Chicago was "in a decision" in its withdrawal by the recent conference football season in which the Maroons ran up their 60th straight Western conference defeat.

Maroons, he explained, will continue intercollegiate football in all sports except basketball which was formally dropped in 1939.

Boxers Enter Finale at Cincinnati Afternoon

Charles Schmitter's fencing team will close its season here this afternoon at 2 in Jenison fieldhouse against the University of Cincinnati.

State swordsmen have won two of their seven meets so far this season. Last week, in a meet with Ohio State, all three teams were up, the Buckeyes, 17-12-9-12, splitting the year's record between the two squads.

Schmitter said that the team is regarded as "indefatigable" since the Bearcats last reformed their squad.

McSpaden Pro Golf Field

AMU, Fla., Mar. 8 (AP)—Nelson "found" his golf today and with partner (Jug) McSpaden the famous duo entered the semi-final of Miami's $7,500 intercollegiate four-ball tournament. Turned back Lawson Little, Lloyd Mangrum, 4 and 3. "Little Atom," Benny Hoyer, Pa., turned in a strong afternoon round as he outstroked the "dark" team of Chandler Harper, South, Va., and Herman Akron, Ohio, 4 and 3.

Skate Winners Get Awards

By CHARLES GABEL

The Spartan basketball team got organized after a slow start and came to be recognized as one of the leading quintets in the midwest, with no little thanks due to Coach Van Alstyne.

MSC's new boxing coach, Lou Zarza, had a crop of inexperienced sluggers, and all things considered, the boys did a lot better than that one-tie, three-loss record shows.

Coach Fendley Collins came up with another fine wrestling team. The boys lost only to Purdue and Michigan, and were tied by Iowa Teachers in their eight meet schedule.

The natators lost to OSU,

Michigan and Great Lakes, but nobody else even came close. The boys face another meet today, and are favored to win. The first women's swimming team took its initial meet, with thanks mostly to Sunny Maddock.

The track team found the going a bit tough in the MSC relays, and against U. of M. and Notre Dame, but Ohio State and Wayne tell a different story.

The hard-working, seldom publicized fencing team, under Coach Charles Schmitter, has won two of seven meets so far, and will close their dual meet season today.

Hermie Says —

By TOM RIORDAN

IN another week John Kobs and his Spartan baseball team will start its journey through the sunny southlands playing some of Dixie's leading clubs. College baseball among the schools below the Mason-Dixie line is usually considered just a bit better than that played among the northern schools.

The main theory behind this statement is that the weather down south is more conducive to the diamond sport much earlier in the year and players can move into mid-season action along in March when most northern schools can't even get onto their diamonds because of snow or heavy rains.

Thus if the Spartans should fare pretty well against such clubs as the University of Georgia, North and South Carolina, and others, we can feel certain that Kobs will have a plenty good ball team this spring.

As is usually the case, "Smiling John" is worried about his pitching staff. Kobs has only two moundsmen of really prewar caliber. Keith Steffee and Joe Skrocki, and then he's not certain both of these boys will be in action this spring because of some scholastic troubles.

On the other side of the ledger Kobs has a pretty impressive list of hitters, several of whom could no doubt catch on with fast minor league clubs.

Back from the service and giving Capt. Ben Hudenke a tough fight for the catching job is hard-hitting Eugene "Bucky" Walsh, Buffalo junior, who won his numerals back in 1942. Walsh was recently released from the army after being wounded in action while a bazooka man in the 44th infantry division.

State will open its home schedule the 18th and 19th of April in a two-game series against the University of Wisconsin.

THERE will be rumors and more rumors floating all over the midwest now that Chicago university finally has relinquished its place in the Western conference. Probably every school will have its day as the rumor mill turns out its stuff.

It has been fondly hoped by alumni and students that Michigan State college would get a bid should the Maroon's quit — and there's a pretty good chance of it. State's athletic department has been operating under Big Ten rules for some time. Spartan teams have met conference clubs in all sports and have shown equal ability in all fields.

The past basketball season against West conference competition, the Spartans took five out of seven contests.

Facilities and athletic plant, important factors in being a Big Ten member, will certainly pass any inspection at State. Jenison fieldhouse is one of the biggest and best in the nation.

Macklin field, although much smaller than the average Big Ten football setup, could easily be enlarged to accommodate from 40,000 to 50,000 fans. It is easily conceivable that should this many spectators would pour into East Lansing on autumn Saturdays to watch conference games.

The Spartan baseball diamond is easily as good as any in the collegiate world. Concrete grandstands could be added to the setup, similar to those at the University of Michigan, although the seating facilities are very adequate at present.

Churchill Appeals for Unity

RICHMOND, Va., March 8 (AP) — Winston Churchill cautioned today that peace cannot be preserved by casting aside "the panoply of warlike strength."

He appealed anew for a "union of hearts" among the English-speaking peoples based upon conviction and common ideals.

Here, in a state rich in the history of the nation since the years before the American rebellion against England's rule, Britain's wartime prime minister cried out:

We should stand together in malice to none, in greed for nothing, but in defense of those causes which we hold dear—not only for our own benefit, but because we believe they mean the honor and the happiness of long generations of men."

At a cheering joint session of the Virginia legislature, Churchill reminded the lawmakers of Britain's tenacity in the dark days when she stood alone against Axis aggression, and stressed the potency of the American arsenal "for the friends of freedom."

He linked these two factors in a tribute to the wartime fighting unity of Anglo-American troops, and, upon that base, asserted that "we must find the means and the method of working together not only in time of war and mortal anguish, but in times of peace with all of its bewilderment and clamor of tongue."
