... Army, Navy Clash

A coed was lugging half of her wardrobe and assorted books and papers out of West Mayo when a student passing offered to help her.

She was bound for North Campbell and on the way mentioned that this was the third time she had moved in two days.

Her little helper remarked rather superiorly that it was like the army ... to which she said, "I know ... I spent 22 months in the navy."

... Well? ?

Paul Carter, Marquette senior, recently returned from army duty with the 10th mountain division, has enrolled in physical education course 110h, golf, and wonders if he will be able to get a set of clubs through the GI bill.

New Building Shows Progress

Government restrictions on non-home building throughout the United States were announced Tuesday from Washington. These bans cover restrictions on construction and curtailments on repairs. As yet the official restrictions and rules have not been received by the college and their effect on the constructions now in progress cannot be determined, Karl McDowell, secretary, announced.

Work is in progress on two men's dormitories, three women's dormitories, a classroom building, a home management building, an addition to the administration building, a six-apartment building to house veterans and their families, and a project of 52 quonset huts.

Building Continues

Excavating is almost completed on the home management project and has begun on the science building.

The science building is east of the dairy building and faces south into the campus. Home management houses will be east of the new classroom building.

Excavating is almost finished on the classroom building and most of the fittings are in. The classroom building is being built east of the college hospital.

Huts Near Completion

Of the 52 huts under construction 15 have been completed and will be filled with men in the next 10 days. The men waiting to move in are now being housed in the Union and in Jenison gym. As the remainder of the project is completed the men will be moved in. The entire project will be completed before the end of the term.

Approximately 70 veterans and their families are being housed in trailers just off the campus on Harrison road. More families are moving in each day and when the project is completed 400 families will occupy the trailers.

Steffee Stars In 8th Win

DURHAM, N. C., Mar. 27 (AP)—Michigan State's high-flying Spartans posed themselves for a clean sweep of their nine-game southern tour after squeezing a pair of runs in the 10th inning to defeat powerful Duke 5 to 3, here today.

The Spartans wind up their junket Thursday in a single game with nearby North Carolina State at Raleigh, which is coached by Vic Sorrell, the one-time Detroit Tiger pitcher.

Michigan State's eighth consecutive triumph was gained as Keith Steffee, Sturgis sophomore, outpitched three Duke hurlers to hold the Blue Devils scoreless after the third inning. The victory was won at the expense of Lefty Lee Griffith, Duke's leading pitcher. Steffee was nipped for 10 hits, but fan-

Talks to Begin On Marriage For Students

"What Are My Beliefs About Marriage?", the first in a series of five marriage lectures, will be presented Monday evening by Dr. Ralph Higgins, of St. Marks' church, Grand Rapids.

Mortar Board, national women's honorary, sponsors the annual talks, which will be given in the Music building auditorium at 7:15 p.m., according to Pres. Peggy Fox, Detroit senior.

Tickets Given

Miss Fox stated that 554 tickets were given to seniors and engaged students during registration.

"Choosing a Life Partner" will be discussed Wednesday night by Dr. Robert Foster, from the Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit.

The following night women members of the class will attend a lecture in Music auditorium by Dr. Lydia Lightening of the MSC physical education department. Men will meet with Dr. C. F. Holland, college health director, in room 130 Morrill hall. Topic for both talks will be the "Biological Aspects of Marriage."

Talks Continue

This topic will be resumed on April 8, when Dr. Carl Morrison, of the Lansing Children's center, will appear.

Dr. Foster of the Merrill-Palmer school, Detroit, will return to campus to speak on "Adjustments After Marriage." Factors for a successful marriage will be discussed in this final marriage lecture of the year.

Surpassing the all-time enrollment of Michigan State college, tentative figures show that for spring term 7,938 students have registered during the last three days, R. S. Linton announced last night.

Of the above there are 4,374 men and 3,406 women permanent students. Also enrolled are 121 short course men and 37 short course women.

3,555 Last Spring

Last year at this time enrollment figures showed 3,555 students. (This figure does not include the army stationed on campus at that time.)

Previous records were broken last term when the registrar's figures showed an enrollment of 7,223 students. At that time figures showed a close tie between men and women students.

3,486 Veterans at State

Returned veterans have comprised most of the increase in enrollment during the last few terms. At the present time there are 3,486 veterans on the campus.

These men, some of whom are former State students, are assisted by the servicemen's institute, headed by Tom King. The institute helps the students plan their work, obtain their benefits and gives them tests to show their proper college standing.

Preliminary try-outs will be held Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in room 112, Union annex from 7:15 to 10 p.m., Buell said.

Anyone who is eligible may come out for the play, the director stated, but those who have more than one evening class a week this term, cannot be used.

Union Grill—Mecca of College Life

By TOM NORTHWAY

"Meetcha in the grill" are words that have struck a familiar note with MSC students for 22 years. Thousands gather daily to quench their thirst and meet friends in the swarm of humanity that resembles Grand Central Station.

"This seems to be their home," said Mrs. Licinda Kelly, manager of the Union grill. "We try to have it as homey for students as we can."

Manager Since '36

Mrs. Kelly has been in charge of the grill since Sept., 1936, when it was moved from the men's lounge to its present location. She is assisted by the supervisor, Miss Betty Sheathelm.

Customers lining the counter are served by seven fulltime employees and ten students, who report in shifts throughout the day. Nearly eighteen hundred sales are made during this time.

Doors to the grill swing open as Beaumont chimes 7:15, and approximately 400 breakfasts are sold during the morning. Menus open the early bird's eyes with an array of fruit and chilled juices, beverages, cereals, eggs, and meat, toast, sweet rolls, and cakes.

Preparation Begins

At about 11 a.m. preparation is begun on sandwiches of seven varieties. Hamburgs rate high in popularity, Mrs. Kelly stated, and about 200 leave the frying pan every noon.

During winter term, bowls of steaming chili are on the luncheon menu, and salads might be served this term.

All food served by the grill is prepared downstairs in the large kitchen of the cafeteria. From the Union bakery comes the day's allotment of six cherry and apple pies.

The grill hasn't reinstated its policy of serving Sunday waffles and steak lunches, but it will be open Friday and Saturday nights from 8 to midnight.

Open from 7:15 a.m. till 5 p.m. on week days, the grill closes at noon on Saturdays.

Juke Box Entered

Back in 1939 the juke box made its entry into this popular spot. Frequent need of new records proved bothersome, however, and the Automatic Hostess has been asking, "Your selection, please?" ever since.

A waitress said, "It's all jazz," when asked what type of music was played most. Last term "Caledonia" had employees and steady customers reeling after hearing it played all morning — let alone during the afternoon session.

The current favorites are "Oh, What It Seemed To Be" and "Slowly," at last report. The entire staff, though, fears the birth of another "Chickery Chick!"

'Look Before You Leap'

Aimed primarily at graduating seniors and engaged couples anticipating marriage, Mortar Board once more sponsors the annual marriage lecture series starting Monday.

Rising divorce rates indicate that too many people are tying the connubial bond these days with little forethought to the problems that marriage predicates.

Selecting a suitable mate, adjusting one's self to living with another, supporting a family, rearing children and marital relationships are some of the important problems the lecturers will consider.

In this all-important enterprise, success or failure depends largely upon the 'know-how' of the parties involved. The marriage lectures are designed to give some 'look' before the 'leap' into the high seas of matrimony.

Prospective brides and grooms should be able to profit much from the marriage lectures series, which will run until April 10.

Out Of Nowhere

By DEE DEARING

ALWAYS nice to get back after the spring vacation and rest. Had a hard time this vacation. After the letter from the college marked marks arrived, Pa shoved a mop in my hands and after five grueling days of housework he decided to send the misfit back. Also after five days of looking at the dirty brother, decided to put 493c in effect (the care and feeding of infants), and gave the boy a oath. He is as unaccustomed to bathing as most of us are to public speaking. It was a battle of the soap and washcloth against scratches, sores, and cuts which usually are found on the body of an 11-year old. Yes. It's nice to get back.

Lying out under old Sol today when a young man approached and timidly inquired for me. Leaped to my feet clutching my red flannels and fur coat around me and owned up to my identity. He turned out to be the young man whose boat I threatened to steal some dark night. He offered it to me free of charge and with oars too. All that is needed now is a good looking, husky, 6-foot male to carry the boat down to the Red Cedar. Unmarried. Several of my sunning buddies were awed by the power of the press and suggested that it might be mentioned that it would be a good idea to steal a red convertible which is parked out in front of the Union some dark night. Well!

State News office is beginning to look like a replacement center. With all the returned vets around business is beginning to boom and the days of lace curtains at the window have disappeared. Instead of a lone and lonely male pounding furiously at the typewriter, with the female bosses beating him regularly with a long black whip, the males have invaded and it's almost equal suffrage again.

Back last term Uncle Sam let the Snews Uncle Hermie out and he entered with a roar and a nicely-sized sports staff. The ladies were brusquely told to get the . . . out of the sports department, and since then the ladies of the press approach the sports department with fear and timidity.

Along with Hermie came Bill Sonneborn, State News '42; Pat McCarthy, besides flying Irishman Peter LePoop, also of sports fame. Just yesterday Al Berglund, who once patrolled the administration beat, walked in to resume a top billing on the assignment sheet, and Herbie Hoover, also of spring term, has parked his GI boots on the business manager's desk.

So the men are back and repercussions will be loud and long as the battle of the sexes will start. Whatever the outcome, the State News will come out regularly unless some of the reporters get flashy and don't turn in stories.

Wish some of the brass hats around here would give out with whether there will be a water carnival or not this year. Never having seen a water carnival myself, I'm a bit skeptical of all the rumors of such. Seems that they're saying that each organization gets a few barrels and a few planks of lumber and from that is built a raft upon which a scene is depicted. Of course, I've heard of the ingenuity of the Yanks but I know that if matters come to such drastic ends, I would not be the best on hammering a floating object together.

College In Greece Appeals For Funds

Athens college, one of the few schools in Greece which was able to continue operating during enemy occupation, is making an appeal for funds to be used in the rehabilitation of the college, damaged by five years of war.

Funds are needed for the rehabilitation of buildings and equipment, scholarships, the construction of new buildings, endowment, and the emergency operation fund. They are needed now if the college is to open in autumn.

All those interested in contributing should contact Dr. George Bouyoucos, research professor of soils science, ext. 423, or come to his office in room 203 Agricultural hall.

Many Oppose Government Housing Plans

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27 (AP)—Industry spokesmen and Republican senators made new attacks today on the administration's planning for veterans' houses.

At the same time the civilian production administration said its new construction controls must slash more than $2,600,000,000 worth of other building to attain a goal of $3,800,000,000 in new residences this year.

Herbert U. Nelson, executive vice president of the National Association of Real Estate boards, followed up the United States chamber of commerce in opposing the renewed plea of Housing Administrator Wilson W. Wyatt for subsidies to encourage the output of scarce building materials.

Nelson said builders are applying for priorities for housing construction at a rate exceeding Wyatt's own goal of 1,200,000 houses this year. "Home building industries can go ahead with full capacity production of building materials if they are allowed to do so," he said, adding:

Coal Grows Close to Settle Wages

WASHINGTON, Mar. 27 (AP)—L. Lewis doggedly insisted on a health and welfare fund for miners today, with four days left to negotiate a bituminous wage contract and avoid a work stoppage.

United Mine workers declined to discuss any proposal to set up a fund which the coal operators might give the union more than $50,000,000 a year—another day went by without progress in negotiating a contract.

A three-hour session today between miners and operators agreed to keep the nation's soft coal mines manned week by week by maintenance men.

Lewis has served notice that if a new contract, the 400,000 bituminous coal miners will walk out after Sunday.

Comprehensive government officials watched the negotiations with a ray of hope, but found some producers asserted they were puzzled by Lewis' attitude. He said there was no more negotiating on a contract today in the preceding 15 days.

Lewis' main demands are for a health and welfare fund, increased wages and shorter working hours, and advancement of the controversy over unionization of supervisory

Student Supply Shop to Move Location

The Inkpot, well-known center for the purchase of student supplies, will be moving from its present site on Grand River to a new building under construction by the A. J. Corr company, and will probably be completed by the middle of next summer. It will be a two-story building about the same size of the Inkpot's present location with apartments overhead, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas S. Brown, owners and managers, announce.

The committee in charge of sales concluded the list. On it are Marty Moon, Lansing sophomore, chairman; Paul Cormier, Bud Doan, sophomore; and Bob, Detroit freshman.

Auto Workers Elect Reuther

ATLANTIC CITY, Mar. 27 (AP)—Walter P. Reuther was elected president of the United Auto Workers (CIO) at a boisterous climax of the union's convention today.

The 38-year-old laborleader, whose role in the national labor scene may be a vital one, defeated R. J. Thomas, incumbent UAW president, in a roll call ballot marked by fights and melees among delegates.

Vote Shows

An unofficial count gave:

Reuther 4,266.

Thomas 4,108.

This was a margin of only 156 votes. Convention officials said the official totals might not be announced until tomorrow.

The total vote possible was 8,830. A simple majority of 4,416 would have been necessary to win, had all the delegates voted.

Reuther's election after a neck and neck race was formally announced by secretary-treasurer George F. Addes, who presided over the roll call of the nearly 2,000 delegates.

Shake Hands

A moment later Reuther and Thomas shook hands as delegates set up a bedlam.

"It was a good race," said Thomas, tears in his eyes.

"We'll work together, Tommy," replied Reuther, nodding his red head vigorously.

Wellwishers crowded around Reuther, pumping his hand and slapping his back.

The decision climaxed a battle in which Reuther and Thomas frequently had resorted to personalities and now and then to invective.

They will be directed by Giuseppe Bamboschek.

Saturday night at 8:15 the group will present a varied program of music from such operas as "Madame Butterfly," "Rigoletto," "Faust" and "Boris Gudunov."

Eight Straight 'S' Ball Wins So Far Spartans Boast Great Diamond Club

Going out for their ninth straight win and a clean-sweep of the southern trip, Michigan State's Spartans will take on North Carolina State at Raleigh this afternoon in the last pre-season contest before heading back to East Lansing tonight.

The club will arrive back sometime Saturday after completing one of the best spring vacation records ever made by a State diamond team.

Boasting twin victories over Georgia, South Carolina, and North Carolina, and single wins over Fort Jackson and Duke, the Spartans have a really fine ball club and will be a decided favorite in their home debut against the University of Wisconsin Friday, April 19.

Will Play Seven Here

All told State will put in seven appearances on Old College field this spring against such teams as Michigan, Detroit, Western Michigan, Ohio State, Great Lakes and Wayne. They will also meet these same clubs on their opponents' home fields.

During the Dixie series so far Pitcher Joe Skrockie, back in school after three years of army duty, counted for a trio of MSC's wins with Keith Steffee, last season's leading chucker, grabbing a pair of mound victories.

But Page, another letterman from the 1945 squad, also accounted for two wins setting down both Carolina teams. In the Georgia contest Steffee allowed three hits and Skrockie Switched to the outfield from first base which he played last season JACK BRESLIN has proved a big asset in the Spartan hitting attack during the current southern trip.

Thinclads Begin Outdoor Drills: Call For Recruits

Spartan cindermen officially started practice this week for the coming outdoor track and field season. State goes into action April 20 when it will journey to Columbus, Ohio, for a joint meet with Michigan, Notre Dame, Purdue, and Penn State, which should prove a real test for the Spartan thinclads.

Coach Karl Schladehan last night announced that there are vacancies on his squad and is in hopes of uncovering some new talent among the new and returning students. Schladehan said that he is particularly short on men in the distance and sprint events, along with weight men and broad jumpers, and that anyone interested should contact him or one of his assistants.

Michigan State will be represented in the coming Texas Relays, April 6, when Ted Wonch, State's number one pole vaulter, and Leonard Naab, javelin thrower, travel to Austin, Texas for the affair.

Holds Record
Naab, who holds the present school record of 202 feet 1 inch, returns to State this year after three years' service with the marine corps, to bolster the team. In 1942 Naab won the outdoor Central Collegiate Conference and at that time established the present record.

The State tracksters rounded out the indoor season last week by taking part in two outstanding meets on two consecutive nights. Last Friday at the Knights of Columbus meet in Cleveland Hal Mayhew and Jack Dodge took a third and a fourth respectively in the high hurdles, while Ted Wonch captured fourth place in the pole vault with a leap of 13 feet 6 inches.

Relay Team Finished Third
The Spartan one mile relay team of Ray Beckerd, Wayne Finkbeiner, Al Lagrou, and Jim Fraser took third place behind the powerful University of Illinois and Colgate teams.

The following night at the Purdue Relays Wonch won the pole vault, while the relay team finished fourth. Illinois, Michigan, Purdue, and Michigan State crossed the finish line in that order. Mason Kelley, a Spartan sprinter, took a fifth place in the 60 yard dash.

gave up six blows against North Carolina.

Stallings Wins One

Against the GIs from Fort Jackson, John Stallings was nicked for eight bingos and had to get relief from Steffee in the ninth inning, but Stallings received credit for the win.

Timely hitting has been proving a big part in the parade of Spartan victories with gridiron star, Jack Breslin, proving a big gun. Twice he paced the State attack getting three hits against South Carolina in the first Gamecock contest and two the following day.

Walsh Got Four-For-Five

Bucky Walsh, Buffalo veteran who was wounded while an infantryman in Europe with the 44th division, split the catching duties with Capt. Bud Hudenko. In the 16-1 shellacking of the Bulldogs from Georgia, Walsh banged out four-for-five.

Robin Roberts Tops

FP All-Star Team:

Fortino Also Chosen

Post season laurels were heaped upon Robin Roberts, Spartan basketball sparkplug, during the spring vacation when the Detroit Free Press named Roberts the most valuable player in the state.

Roberts was also named on the all-opponent team picked by the University of Detroit players. Running-mate of Robin's at forward on the Spartan five, Sam Fortino, was named on the Free Press' all-state team also.

Tennis Squad Prepares For Heavy Road Schedule

Michigan State's tennis team will carry Spartan rels into matches with eleven high ranking universities of the south and midwest on their opponents. Three additional matches, against strong sextets Michigan, Notre Dame, and Wayne will be the only opportunities for MSC's tennis fans to watch their netters in action.

To give the students a look at their tennis team and to allow Coach Charles Ball to scout his abundant array of talent under competitive conditions, the annual pre-season round robin tournament will start Thursday afternoon at 4 on the concrete courts near Demonstration hall.

Holding the tournament on concrete tends to stress aggressiveness with the player having the best forcing shots, serve, and volleys having the edge over the steady backcourt worker.

Four on Seeded List

Coach Ball will have at least four of his players on the seeded list, thus preventing their meeting until the initial semi-finals. Top ranking men will be Bob Malaga, Herb Hoover, Dave Phillips, and Roger Cessna.

With a good chance to upset the early leaders are Jack McGrath, Dick Young, Carl Frans.

There will be a meeting of all sports writers and those interested in joining the staff this afternoon at 4:30 in the State News office.

Bob Ballard, Ben Porter, and Harold Gladstone. Other participants will be announced later. Coach Ball is limiting the starting field only to those players who definitely have a chance to make the team.

Practicing for Some Time

Although the netmen are practicing on hardwood courts for weeks, Coach Ball would like anyone wishing out for the team to report at the college courts after 4. He also urged enrolling at State for time and having tennis licence to contact him as possible.

Bachman Calls Grid Prospects For Spring Drills

It may be spring, but never the less football will be filling the air starting Monday when the Michigan State spring grid drills begin in preparation for the coming 1946 season. Coach Charley Bachman announced yesterday.

This afternoon at 5 Bachman will hold a meeting for all prospective candidates in the Jenison fieldhouse and also another at the same time and place Friday. Players are requested to get a physical exam at the college hospital before attending the meetings.

Monday things will get under way with light workouts scheduled the first week, but after that it will be real football with plenty of blocking, tackling and scrambles. There will probably be inter-squad games at the Saturday morning workouts.

Coach Bachman makes no predictions as to the number of men coming out, but it is pretty safe to say that there will be at least 100 candidates, judging from the number of men on campus and the interest returned servicemen have been showing in collegiate sports.

J. A. Hannah To Speak Before Alumni Club In Traverse City

President John Hannah will be a guest Monday and Tuesday in Traverse City of an alumni club of MSC. The club has members in Grand Traverse, Benzie, Antrim, Kalamazoo, and Leelanau counties.

LONG DISTANCE, TOO,
SUFFERS TRAFFIC JAMS

THE Bell System serves over a million more telephones now than it did a year ago. That's one big reason why Long Distance calling has continued heavy even though the war is over. Sometimes traffic jams occur on certain circuits and calls are delayed. In Michigan, delays are more likely to be encountered on calls to other states. When the operator requests it, you can help tremendously by limiting your call to five minutes.

We're working hard to speed the day when all your calls will go through promptly. This year the Bell System is adding over 2,000,000 miles of Long Distance circuits, carloads of new switchboards, and training thousands of new operators. Yes, we're making progress. But we still need your continued help and understanding.

Not wanting to drop the subject without a bit of that well-liked Heppenstall humor, Jack concluded: "The only fellows that got tired out when the jump was abolished were the officials."

THERE are some familiar faces back on campus from among the ranks of former Spartan sport greats. Once more in the role of a student is Joey Gerard, one of the best scorers ever to be a member of a Michigan State basketball team, who was a naval flyer during the war.

Up until this past season Gerard held both the high scoring records for an individual season and also for a collegiate career. Both of these marks were shattered by Sam Fortino in State's 21 game schedule. During Gerard's career the team only carded 17 contests.

Another one-time Spartan hoopster also back is Pete Bashish, who was a guard during the 1939-'41 era of the "Gary Gang."

Visiting was Leland "Tuffy" Merrill, who says he is heading for Rutgers University on a fellowship. The rugged Tuffy was State's 145-pound wrestler before the war and was twice crowned intercollegiate mat champion.

The Reds took an early two-run lead in the third inning when Pitcher Frank Dasso singled, Outfielder Myron (Mike) McCormick walked and Dasso came home on a double by Leftfielder Dain Clay. Lonnie Frey flied out, scoring McCormick.

Soviet Delegate Leaves Council After Defeat

NEW YORK, Mar. 27 (AP) — A spokesman for the Soviet delegation to the United Nations Security council said tonight the Russians would attend an executive session called for tomorrow afternoon on the understanding that "only procedural matters and not the Iranian question will be discussed."

NEW YORK, Mar. 27 (AP) — The Russian delegation to the United Nations Security council picked up its papers and walked out of the council chambers today after being beaten in its fight to prevent consideration of the Iranian-Russian case before April 10.

The council then almost immediately proceeded to invite the Iranian delegate, Hussein Ala, to make a statement to the council.

It was after two hours of heated discussion that the Russian proposal to postpone the case until April 10 came to a vote. Only Russia and Poland voted for the motion and no negative vote was taken.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate who had announced yesterday that he was not prepared to enter any discussion of the substance of the Iranian case before April 10, sat calmly in his seat as the council turned to an Egyptian proposal to have the Iranian delegate make his statement.
