Maybe she wasn't the love of his life, but Jack Breslin blushed when he read the pudgy, passionate and typed petition to Union board which stated: "Working on Union board interests me because I am madly in love with president, Jacques Breslin, and want to be near him as much as possible." The petition was filed April 1.

Mrs. Makoski, Grand Rapids, was rushing to make it to church on time last Sunday. She pulled her white gloves out of her drawer and hurried out. On approaching the church she composed herself, started to pull on her gloves, and was amazed to find that they had changed shape. Her amazement was short lived, however, when she discovered that her hands were anklets.

Iran Insists Question Stay On Agenda

City Council To Consider Housing Plan

At an open meeting Friday of the East Lansing city council there will be discussions on the issuance of a building permit for a 15-family apartment house in the city, of great interest to faculty members on campus who are having to live here without their families.

With an eye toward relieving the veterans housing shortage in this area, plans have been submitted to the East Lansing zoning board for a multiple housing project to be erected in the Bailey school area, occupancy of which will be restricted to ex-servicemen by law.

City May Be Re-zoned

According to Harry G. Lott, East Lansing city clerk, families in the area have circulated petitions to prevent the issuance of a building permit for the apartment house, although the area was at the time of application for the permit within the multiple dwelling zone of the city.

Denial of the permit may be effected by a re-zoning of the city which is one of the questions to be decided at the Friday meeting, Lott revealed.

Cutting?
Cut Committee Refers Report To Administration

Meeting yesterday afternoon the faculty committee to study classroom attendance, sent its recommendations to the administrative group, Robert S. Linton, registrar, stated last night. The special committee was organized before the war, but discussion of the problem was dropped for the duration.

The administrative group will discuss the report and make recommendations to the faculty. Faculty members themselves will make the final decision on whether unlimited cuts will be allowed to students Linton said. Next scheduled meeting of the faculty is on April 22.

Professor Tells 'All' On Mahatma Gandhi

Dr. Karel Hujer, of the physics department, can speak with authority on the hopes and dreams of the little Mahatma—the Great Soul—of India, Mohandas Gandhi.

Explaining that he first met Gandhi in 1935 during a meeting of the Indian National Congress in Delhi, Hujer reminisced that the Indian leader refused to stay at the magnificent town house provided for delegates, preferring a small village nearby which satisfied his request for simplicity.

"Later that summer I spent some time as his personal guest in his native village," Hujer revealed, "and at our first meeting I was profoundly impressed by his utter honesty, his courage

BULLETIN

Two Michigan State college campus policemen took dairy truck driver Russell Swart, No. 1 Mason, into custody yesterday afternoon as the robber who burglarized women's dormitories and sorority houses during the past 10 days, according to Lt. Howard Simcox of the department.

Swart, who is being detained at the East Lansing police station, was arrested by Lt. Simcox and Officer Angelo Guerriero.

Merchandise found at the time of Swart's capture included 110 pairs of women's rubbers, a rug, and two pounds of butter, as well as a large assortment of women's lingerie.

News in Brief

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP)—The House Military committee today approved an extension of the draft for nine months instead of the full year which the army and navy asked.

Various proposals to suspend inductions temporarily to see how recruiting works out were rejected in the committee. But the committee members who sponsored them reserved the right to offer them as amendments when the bill comes up in the house. Probably on Friday.

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP)—The United States today rejected a Soviet Russian request that espionage charges be dropped in the case of Lt. Nicolai G. Redin, Soviet naval officer arrested at Portland, Ore.

LANSING, April 9 (AP)—Al Kurner, a witness in the Hooper conspiracy trial, testified today at the prison custer appeal hearing that he brought "about two dozen cases of whiskey" to the home of former warden Harry H. Jackson, and "eight or 10 cases" to the home identified as that of former deputy warden George I. Francis.

WASHINGTON, April 9 (AP)—Officials drafted an order tonight which would ration flour to bakers and grocers—but not to housewives—designed to cut consumption by one-fourth in order to send more abroad.

Iturbi Concert Receives Great Enthusiasm

Jose Iturbi received thunderous applause from the enormous audience in College auditorium last night, when he played popular and well-loved compositions by classical and modern composers.

Selections by Chopin were the highlights of the evening; Iturbi played the "Fantasy Impromptu," the Polonaise in A flat, and less familiar Scharzo in B flat minor. For encores, the very beautiful and intricate Waltz in C minor, and the short and light "Minute Waltz."

Despite the perfection of Chopin, the melodiousness of Beethoven was even more beautifully rendered by Iturbi. The "Moonlight Sonata" was the acme of soft, liquid sound; in the same vein, was "Clair de Lune," by Debussy.

The modern brilliance of Gershwin was played with equally modern ability, displayed in Iturbi's original arrangement of "Rhapsody in Blue."

But even greater applause greeted Iturbi's playing of "Etude in Boogy Woogy" style, by Morton Gould, and almost equally popular was Liszt's "Liebstraum." The present-day piano genius showed his remarkable talent for playing everything well in his rendering of the former composition.

Hussein Ala Asks Council To Reject Russia's Demand

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—Iran tonight asked the United Nations Security council to reject Russia's demand that the Iranian question be stricken from its agenda.

The Iranian position was set forth in a letter to Secretary General Trygve Lie which was circulated among the delegates of the Security council shortly after today's session which was adjourned to an indefinite date.

Receipt of the letter was disclosed by Dr. Quo Tanchi of China, council president, during a discussion of when the delegates should take up Russia's demand.

Iranian Letter

The letter, signed by Iranian ambassador Hussein Ala, said: "I am instructed to state that the position of the Iranian government remains the same as stated to the security council in the session of April 4, 1946. It is the desire of my government that the matters referred by Iran to the security council remain on its agenda as provided by the resolution adopted on April 4, 1946."

Iran Insists

Iran's move greatly strengthened the hand of the United States and Great Britain, who indicated they would oppose the Soviet proposal to close the Iranian question.

Afternoon Dance to Determine Future Of Matinee Dance

Union Board completed plans last night for a matinee dance to be held in the Union ballroom tomorrow from 3 to 5.

Co-chairmen, Bob Butler, Trenton junior, and Jane Walcott, Fenton junior, announced that the matinee dance to the tune of records is an experiment to see how students would support similar affairs.

Before the war such afternoon dances were held frequently, Butler added.

In addition to the Thursday afternoon dance, the board is sponsoring a Union board dance Saturday night. Jim Shaffer's orchestra will furnish music in the Union ballroom from 9 to 12 midnight.

Saturday afternoon Party will also be held from 3 to 5 p.m. in the ballroom of the Union. Dick Charles' newly re-organized band will play.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

TO the Editor:
"Ladies and Gentlemen," I present Michigan State college, the necking college west of Pacific. Its main asset is the coed whose specialty is encouraging a prolonged good-night by wholesale necking at the front door of the dormitory.

As an added attraction we guarantee you that the housemothers will not interfere with your porch holding contest, as the college officials will not permit them to do so.

Furthermore we can quote you gambler's odds; that there are times, especially after a formal dance, when it will require five minutes pushing to reach the front door of the dormitory, unless you rent the services of a football player to run interference.

In all seriousness why does this condition exist? Am I being old-fashioned when I say there is nothing that cheapens a couple more than to hold a necking party at the entrance of a dormitory? There is no harm in kissing goodnight, but why prolong it?

I openly challenge any person, who desires to put in writing, why this condition should exist.

State To Conduct Dairy Conference

Ralph W. Tenny, director of the short course institute, announced that the third annual Dairy Inspectors and Sanitarians school will be held this week, Monday through Friday.

The school, sponsored by the MSC schools of agriculture and veterinary medicine, the State departments of agriculture and health, the Michigan Association of Dairy and Milk Inspectors, and W. K. Kellogg Foundation, is planned to benefit sanitarians and inspectors directly in their work and to give them a background for better understanding and interpreting dairy practice.

Several others, in addition to Michigan State staff members, will serve on the faculty for the five-day school.

Prof. Lee To Lecture

Prof. Shao C. Lee, director of foreign studies, has been invited to speak at the opening of the Oriental room of public museum at Grand Rapids Friday evening. Prof. Lee will have as his topic, "China's Contribution to World Civilization."

That Does It

By MARION HECKEL

Oh, how the weight of the world rests . . . heavily on some of us, indeed, as witness the letter to the editor which hit the State News office yesterday. Seems that the writer is worried about the status quo as compared to the total number of canoes the college is investing in this month.

"Now my problem is this: how can some 8,000 odd fun-loving students get into 50 canoes?"

Let us consider the facts first which necessitate more canoes. Suppose each canoe had 160 people in it, 80 men and 80 coeds. The average weight of the healthy MSC male is about 160 pounds, while the well fed coed tips the scales at 110 pounds. Eighty males at 150 pounds is 12,000 pounds and 80 coeds at 110 pounds is 8,800 or a total of 20,800 pounds. This does not include such things as paddles, radios, pillows etc.

"Now the average cubic foot of clear water weighs almost 62.4 pounds, this means each canoe when loaded would displace 1,400 cubic feet of water, and 50 new canoes loaded would displace 70,000 cubic feet of water, or enough to wash the canoe shelter away.

"Let's be sensible. MAC has grown since 1855 when 50 canoes would have filled the needs of the 102 students. This problem could be relieved by suggesting the school buy several surplus navy LST's or LSC's. Boy wouldn't that be fun?"

The "loyal State News reader" who forwarded this worthy advice had some ideas there, although the time and energy spent in figuring out all those statistics is enough to overwhelm the ordinary reader into the state of submission for any suggestion.

Incidentally, these are the figures he gave, but he missed the boat—it should be 28,800 pounds for the displacement of weight per person. That extra might prove to be a threat to the thriving community of ducks floating the Red Cedar.

One thing, however, that the "loyal reader" failed to note was the condition of last year's equipment for the favorite Spartan sport. With over 6,000 students, war conditions allowed absolutely no college canoes available and by the time the campus population had hitched out past the city limits they weren't in the mood for a water ride.

Fifty canoes, my friend, is a See THAT DOES IT, Page 8

Art Department To Present Show

Charles M. Richards, assistant curator of the National Gallery of Art, Washington, D. C., is scheduled to show color slides on Jan Van Eyck's, "Annunciation" painting, tomorrow evening in the music building auditorium at 8:15.

This work is said to have been painted about 1425 by the Flemish master, and is one of the most distinguished acquisitions in the National Gallery.

The art lecture program scheduled by the art department is a special program, and not part of the Fine Art lecture series sponsored earlier this year. Tickets are available at the ticket office in advance, or at the door.

Chesterfield Agent To Make Awards

In conjunction with the Chesterfield cigarette advertising campaign on campus, Ken Schultz, Adrian Scher, and Tobacco company representative at MSC, will announce weekly the outstanding student for the week.

"Spartans of the Week" are chosen on the basis of campus achievement or effort, and presented with an award of Chesterfield cigarettes.

The winners will be additionally honored by window display on Grand River, Schultz included.

Soviet newspapers had expressed the belief that the Tehran government would instruct Ala to agree to the closing of the case. Such a move would have posed a delicate question for members of the council who desired to keep the case before them.

Another Question

Another question which arose at today's council session was Poland's proposal that the United Nations consider the question of breaking diplomatic relations with Franco Spain.

Amid considerable confusion, the council finally adjourned subject to the call of U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie.

department, and former servicemen, co-sponsor in the apartment house project with a Lansing contractor, asserted that the lot had been purchased, architect's plans drawn up and submitted, all necessary priorities obtained and full approval received from rent control and FHA authorities, with only a city building permit needed for the go ahead on the construction.

Objections to the project voiced in the petitions signed by householders in the area of the lot were to great depreciation in values of surrounding real estate and undesirable congestion of traffic and house services.

Out of Nowhere—

By DEE DEARING

UNDERSTAND that MSC is on the road to ruin. In other words, we of State are getting an awful rep on account of being the necking college. (See letter to ed., page two.)

When a few souls around the office read that letter they tucked their heads under their arms and cried desperately. It is a surprising thing that Michigan State was picked from all of the rest of the colleges in the U. S. as the Big Smooch school. Guess things like that don't happen in other colleges. It's probably the Basic college's fault. Nothing like that ever happened around here in the good old days.

As for the prolonged good-nights, I never was one to clock my friends, but I suppose if someone was to do that, they would get good results. Maybe the students are too lethargic and should take more of an interest in... well... such things.

Am glad that "Mr. Pen" brought up this matter or else it never would have occurred to me. And when I got to thinking about that, I also got to thinking about the scientific side of it. I read once that kissing spreads germs, but I never knew anyone who died from it.

About having to push your way into the dormitory, I'm really worried about you, Mr. Pen. Of course, it's a serious thing to block entrances. Maybe you could arrange to use another door. Or maybe you could scot in five or six minutes early.

I'm glad to see you challenging people to answer to this condition. The only good explanation I've heard was muttered by some passerby: "Oh, well, it's spring."

Probably the most exotic place on campus as far as the females are concerned is the Smoke Shop. During the winter they trudge through the snow past the sacred portals just to give a timid glance at the place, and during the spring they elbow their way through the crowds which congregate, for the same reason. Any woman who has dared venture in has become an individual.

If Charley would only someday throw an open house for women, he would become the most popular man on campus. And he would satisfy the great desires of many who would like just once, to invade the inner sanctum.

The entertainment committee is working hard on whipping together the Carousal for Friday night. And it's a fine idea because it gives the students and faculty an excuse to have a good time together. Would like to hear a good rendition of "Down By the Old Mill Stream" with a barbershop quartet made up of Pres. Hannah, tenor; Ben Erwin, baritone; C. C. Hamilton, alto; and A. A. Applegate, bass. Well, it was just a thought.

THE ODDS ARE ALL IN YOUR FAVOR

When you're not quite sure about a telephone number and you wonder whether to call "Information"—please remember: the odds are that the number you want is right there in the book.

In Michigan, 3 out of 5 calls to "Information" are for numbers listed in the Telephone Directory. There are so many of these unnecessary calls that answering them adds up to more than 1,000 wasted hours of operator and switchboard time every day.

You can help us to save that time and give better service on the necessary calls if you'll cooperate in these two simple ways:

1 Please look in the Directory before you call "Information."

2 If the number isn't listed and you must call "Information," write it down so you'll have it next time.

Spartan Coed Copy Coed Industrial Jobs End

Summer Camp Positions Increase For Michigan State Job Seekers

By NAN MORGAN

Summer job prospects for women are doing a right about face this year. The war's end and return of veterans seem to be one of the underlying causes of the swift change.

Gone are the jobs at Chard laboratories, General Motors, and other basic industries that have been plentiful in recent years. Summer clerical positions, too, are joining industrial work in its exit from the feminine scene. Calls for typists, stenographers, and filing clerks are nonexistent now, relates Prof. Tom King, of the placement bureau.

Resorts, however, will be doing a booming business this summer of '46. Estimates place attendance well above any peak year years. The end of travel restrictions as well as easy flow of money will be largely responsible for the boom.

Waitresses Needed

College women, particularly, are being sought as waitresses for resort work. Last year earnings of $25 to $40 weekly as well as board and room attracted many State women to resorts throughout Michigan and the mid-west. They went to Blaney Park, Hotel Belvedere at Charlevoix, Harbor Springs, Highland Hotel at Grand Haven and many other vacation areas.

While hours are kept and regulations followed, supervision at resorts is not unreasonable.

Hours off during the day provide time for swimming, tennis, and getting a tan away with the factory pallor, so common during the war.

Camps, too, will be filled to capacity this year and running full tilt.

Camps Employ Coeds

Both girl scout and private camps as well as religious organizations are employing MSC women as counselors. The work is varied and with a slow tempo and much good humor, can be successful and fun.

Resorts claim more women than does counseling, however. The reason being that pecuniary return for teaching handicrafts to eight-year old miniature buzz bombs is barely in the three digit figures for the entire summer. Earnings average in the $80 to $115 bracket for three months.

Stores Use Extra Help

Hudson's in Detroit, the May company in Cleveland, and many other department stores in the Michigan area will be employing women for retailing again this year. Average wages are from $22 to $30 weekly with some concerns working on a partial commission basis.

1 a.m. permission was granted to the women that attend the Mardi Gras dance May 18. The dance will end at 12 midnight.

At the meeting held last night both old and new representatives were in attendance. Margaret English, Dearborn junior, new president, presided at the meeting.

Plans for the AWS picnic were announced. The event will take place Saturday and both old and new members will be in attendance.

Phyllis Smith, Bellaire sophomore, was elected secretary-treasurer of the board.

Fencers, YWCA Elect Coed Johnson, Barnum To Office

Two campus women's organizations are announcing the results of recent elections. Delta Gamma Mu, fencing honorary, chose officers and chairmen, while the YWCA officers and member selected the senior cabinet.

Aims of Today's College Coeds Subject to Modernization

Popular literature, the radio and the movies all sustain the sorority model. Our writers and film producers are not entirely to blame, however. The educational system itself has presented them with the model.

Women Lead Campuses

Extra-Curricular
Extra-curricular activities often have been the most important educational factors experienced by the students.

Now the character of the college woman has altered. With the departure of the college men, and their slow return, college women have found themselves dominating campuses.

Women Aided War Work

They took an active part in community affairs where many of them had never done so before. They worked part time. They collected food, bandages and clothing. Some of them even left college to take on war jobs.

Young men who were their contemporaries were maturing with equal speed, but in different ways. Now that many of them are home again, their attitude toward higher education is one of respect and earnest participation. This attitude has its counterpart in college women.

A Set of Values Wanted

In general, these young people are searching for a set of values to believe in and live by. And they are looking to their teachers for help in finding it. This fact reveals itself in two ways—in their desire to study philosophical subjects and their requests for help in choosing a career.

Women in colleges are showing greater seriousness in two other ways: They are more politically conscious, and more critical of their own education. This is true also in the case of the men. The war speeded up these developments.

Dodger Catcher Changes Travel Plans

Former Brooklyn Dodger catcher MICKEY OWEN stopped short of the Mexican border on his way to play and manage the Torreon club of the Mexican league and now faces a suit for contract jumping. Here he poses with his wife and six-year old son at Springfield, Mo.

Pasquel to Sue Mickey Owen For Jumping Mexican Loop

MEXICO CITY, April 9.—(P)—Miguel Pasquel, angered over two years in the Mexican Baseball league and the loss of big leaguer Vernon Stephens and Mickey Owen, said today he would sue for $100,000 against Owen, Brooklyn catcher who changed his mind about going to the Mexican loop.

Pasquel already had announced he would file a $100,000 suit against Stephens, St. Louis Browns shortstop, who played two games in the Mexican league and then left to rejoin the Braves.

The suit against Owen will be filed in St. Louis, Pasquel said, because that was where he signed his contract with us and where he got $20,000 cash in advance. Yesterday in San Antonio Owen denied he signed a contract and said he would return any money advanced him.

In Lexington, Ky., Baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler said today that organized baseball would stand behind Owen and Stephens if they were sued by Mexican League interests, because "they are comrades in our call."

Pasquel, with his Mexican league partner crippled by injuries, has been at the telephone constantly seeking new players to replace Owen and Stephens. The Mexican loop still has much U. S. talent in uniform, however. Murray Franklin, infielder formerly with Detroit and Beaumont, left today to join the Torreon club.

Tom Gorman and Sam Maglie, former New York Giants pitchers, may make their debuts Thursday.

Danny Gardella, Vera Cruz first baseman, appears to be the same happy songster he was with the Giants. Rene Montenegro, ex-Philly, and George Hausmann, ex-Giant, said they're satisfied playing for Torreon. Roberto Ortiz, ex-Senator, is going great guns for Mexico City.

ATO Cindermen Hold Lead In IFC Contests

With Alpha Tau Omega holding a slim four point lead the fraternity track meet will go into its third day of competition this afternoon at 5 on the Jenison fieldhouse track. Events on tap today are the high jump, 440-yard dash and the mile run.

Pressing the ATO's with their 31 points are the tracksters of Sigma Nu, who picked up 14 tallies yesterday to rank second. Following are: Phi Delta Theta, 15; Lambda Chi Alpha, 9; Delta Sigma Phi, 6; and Sigma Chi, 2. Chuck Proctor was yesterday's high individual scorer giving the ATO's 9 points. Proctor took first in the low hurdles pacing the field with a time of 8.7 and finished second in the highs.

Paul Siebold put Lambda Chi in the running scoring six points for them. Siebold clocked 7.2 to snatch first honors in the high hurdles and fifth in the lows.

Donn Joyce of Sigma Nu heaved the shot 36.8 5/8 feet to take five first place points. The summaries are as follows: 50 yard low hurdles: Won by Proctor (ATO), second Smith (Sigma Nu); third Johnson (Phi Delta Theta); Gilpin (Sigma Nu); fifth Siebold (Lambda Chi). 50 yard high hurdles: Won by Siebold (Lambda Chi), second Proctor, ATO, third Smith (Sigma Nu), fourth Johnson (Phi Delta Theta), fifth Rouch (ATO). Shot Put: Won by Joyce (Sigma Nu); second, Elmer (ATO); third, Smart (Lambda Chi); fourth, Coleman (Delta Sig); fifth, Huber (ATO).

Bachman Knows Top Grid Talent When He Sees It

Charley Bachman is the sort of a football coach that likes to see all the husky talent on campus out for his team. So he wasn't too unusual that he should question a bystander at a recent workout.

"Say, fellow, how come you're not out?" Bach asked the strapping youth.

"Well, er, I'm used to reply, but Charley was right in telling him there was a chance to be had.

"But I'm not in school here. In fact I'm going to college," he had interjected.

Charley asked where he was going, and found the fellow student at the University of Michigan.

"What's your name?" he quizzed.

The reply, "Joe Bachman," sent Bachman and his staff into a fit of laughter at Charley's taken identity of the Western star quarterback and football captain.

Tigers Take Victory From Braves In Last Of Nine-Game Exhibition

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 9 (P)—Bunching four hits for three wins in the ninth inning, the Detroit Tigers spoiled a superlative pitching performance by rookie left-hander Jim Wallace and defeated the Boston Braves 4 to 3 in the last game of their nine-game exhibition baseball series.

The Tiger victory, highlighted by pinch-hitter Billy Hitchcock's ninth inning triple, was Detroit's seventh in the nine games with the Braves.

Tomorrow the Tigers move to Terre Haute, Ind., to open a four-game set with the Cincinnati Reds.

Wallace, who pitched all the way for the Braves, treated his home town Evansville fans to three-hit shutout pitching for seven innings, but couldn't hang on.

Detroit counted once in the eighth on Eddie Lake's walk and single by Eddie Mayo and Dick Wakeland and tucked away the verdict in the ninth.

Trailing 3 to 1 as a result of Boston's three runs in the first two innings off Hal Manders, the Tigers opened the important ninth inning rally with successive singles by Jim Outlaw and catcher Joe Erazz.

Billy Hitchcock then batted for pitcher Les Mueller and planted a mighty triple in right field, scoring Outlaw and Erazz to tie the count at 3-all. After Eddie Lake bounced out, Mayo singled to right to score Hitchcock with the winning run.

"The victory justly went to Mueller, who relieved Manders in the sixth and gave the Braves only one hit in four innings. Manders gave up nine hits and three runs in his five-inning turn.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 9.—(P)—Manager Steve O'Neil, of the Detroit Tigers, today made a shift in his probable opening day lineup, declaring that Paul Richards would catch instead of George (Burdie) Tebbetts, who rejoined the club here after a hospital examination had indicated that the pre-war Tiger backstop is suffering from stomach ulcers.

Tebbetts, who arrived from Detroit, declared that he was ready to catch, but that physicians had placed him on a strict diet.

Race For Outfield Positions Reveals Kobsmen's Talent

Competition for starting jobs in the outfield of the Michigan State varsity nine is getting keener as Coach John Kobs begins to round out the team for Saturday afternoon's tilt with the Jayvees.

Emphasis has been placed upon batting practice and the Spartan sluggers spent most of yesterday afternoon in the batting cage while each of the State hurlers took turns on the mound.

Good Outfielders

In the outfield Pat Peppler, the converted basketballer, and big, powerful Ed Sobczak have been powering the regulars a run for their money.

Peppler has shown considerable power at the plate and has proved to be a dangerous man on the base paths.

Sobczak's powerful throwing arm will give him an advantage in the outfield. He seems to have recovered from a knee injury which kept him from making the

Spartan Newcomer

A newcomer to the Spartan fold is first sacker Dick Yata. Yata hails from Detroit and has won quite a reputation there on the sandlots and at first base for Catholic Central high school. The young Detroit thrower and bats left handed.

A special visitor to Old College field yesterday was Ray Meyers, veteran baseball scout for the Chicago White Sox. Through his keen eyes Meyers watched the workout of the undefeated varsity nine and seemed to be interested in several of the Spartan hopefuls.

Anderson Leads State's Golfers In 4-Man Club

Because of bad weather and difficulties in arranging a practice schedule, Coach Ben Van Alstyne's golf team looms as a question mark this season.

After the Michigan meet on April 20, Van Alstyne believes that he will be better able to judge the squad's prospects. At present Jim Anderson, of Royal Oak, tops the list of probable starters, followed by Jim Funston, of Detroit. Filling out the team for four-man matches may be George Teale, also of Detroit, and Dale Ottmar, from Ann Arbor.

MSC Groundskeeper Resting This Week From Brief Illness

Albert Amoss, Michigan State head groundskeeper, recently hospitalized, has returned to his home and will be back on the job again Monday morning. Jack Hoppenfall, Spartan trainer, stated yesterday.

Amoss had a bad gall bladder, but after further diagnosis, it was determined that the trouble was stomach ulcers.

The doctors have ordered Amoss onto a special diet and stated after a week's rest he would be able to resume his work.

Hermie Says —

By TOM RIORDAN

MANY Michigan State athletes were killed while serving in the armed forces during the recent war and it is only fitting that a memorial be made to them somewhere on the Spartan sports grounds or buildings.

One idea might be to rename Old College field, which contains the MSC varsity and freshman baseball diamonds and the practice football fields, after one of the former Spartan athletes who paid the supreme sacrifice or simply "War Memorial field."

One suggestion comes from Pete Panos, a catcher on the 1942 baseball team and recently returned to school after serving as a captain with the infantry in the European theater.

Panos believes a field might be named in honor of Norm "Shorty" Duncan, shortstop on the Spartan nine in 1939, '40 and '41, captaining the team in his senior year.

During the war Duncan was a lieutenant in the navy and saw plenty of combat duty with the fleet up until the time he was killed.

Another means of paying homage to those Spartans who were killed, might be a series of plaques inside the fieldhouse. At present there is a temporary arrangement in the lobby of the fieldhouse with photographs of the men killed.

Seeing that Frank "Stubby" Overmire is making good with the world champion Detroit Tigers, brings to mind the time Stubby was pitching for Western Michigan against State on the Spartan diamond in 1941.

Going into the contest as underdogs, the Kobsmen were out to snap a 19-game winning streak the Broncos had run up this year. The presence of Overmire who had taken seven straight mound wins, made the job even tougher for MSC.

However, State rose to the occasion and nipped Western 3-2, with the back-breaking blow against Stubby being a home run over the right field screen by Bob Young, Spartan first baseman from Leslie.

Young, who got few hits all season, was a right handed batter. In his first appearance at the plate Overmire blazed two fast ones by Young without the Spartan taking the bat from his shoulder.

Stub tried another fast one but this time Young swung, a little late, and the ball went over the right field screen and into the Red Cedar. This was enough to give the Spartans needed confidence and break that of the Broncos.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

By BARBIE ALLEN

SPARTAN coed swimmers made a good show in the recent AAU meet at the Detroit Women's City club by placing second in the medley relay and third in both the free-style relay and the 220 freestyle race.

Facing stiff competition in the medley relay, the team members, Donna Maddock, Ruth Garret, and Doris Pick, pulled in behind the Kronk club of Detroit, who took first place.

The freestyle relay team was composed of Edna Hartman, Miss Pick, Jan Squires, and Miss Maddock.

In the 220 freestyle heat State's star swimmer, Miss Maddock, came in third, a Kronk member again took first place.

The organizations participating in the meet were Kalamazoo college, Kronk club, American Turner from Detroit, Detroit Golf club, and Women's City club.

Four Open Houses Take Top Place On Weekend Calendar

Carnival Theme Planned for North Hall Party

Men on campus will have ample opportunity to become acquainted with Spartan women book-toters this weekend for no less than four open house parties have been planned.

Hoping to snare the attentions of stag men Friday night from 9 to 12, East Mary*

Mayo women have chosen "Festival Time" as the theme of their informal affair. Dancing, original entertainment and refreshments will be on the house, according to Betty Rypsum, Detroit sophomore, social chairman.

Four Opportunities

A "Carnival" theme will be the drawing card for North hall's open house from 8 to 12 Friday evening. Dancing, refreshments, and card playing are the scheduled activities, according to Betty Jane Roe, Detroit freshman.

Men suffering from "spring fever" are invited to attend Mason hall's open house from 8 to 12 the same night. The grill will be open, and ping-pong, cards, dancing, and entertainment will make up the fun plans.

The final dorm open house will take place Saturday night from 8 to 12 when North and South Campbell open its doors to men. Dancing, entertainment, and refreshments will help fill the hours, according to Pat Delahunte, Grand Rapids junior.

Others Plan Parties

Other frivolous plans for Friday night include radio parties sponsored by Alpha Omicron Pi, Sigma Chi, and Abbot hall men.

Saturday's night's calendar indicates a majority of closed parties. Delta Zeta women and their dates will enjoy a radio party at the house from 9 to 12.

Theta Chis and their guests will dust off the new records for a three-hour period beginning at 9 p.m. Residents of precinct 3 of Mason hall have also planned a radio party from 9 to 12.

Student help of Williams dorm will "informalize" at a dance in the Forestry cabin Saturday night from 9 to 12, according to Barbara Valentine, Dearborn sophomore.

Radio Workshop To Present Play

"Honeymoon by Proxy," college workshop play is scheduled for this afternoon, Miss Maxine A. Eyestone, Lansing graduate student and writer of the play, has announced.

The program will be broadcast over station WKAR this afternoon from 4:15 to 4:45. Joe A. Calloway will supervise the program.

This is the second play by Miss Eyestone in the series of six she must write to obtain her master's degree.

bonanza... but you've got something these about the navy equipment. It would be quite a trip, and the campus police could have such fun organizing their water patrol.

Speaking of the campus police... the recent influx of reports they've been getting about prowlers and robberies have kept them going. One good idea, though, they might try would be the silent Scotland Yard technique of trailing their subject.

On a call from Williams dormitory, one of the CP's scout cars buzzed over and started giving the grounds a once over... what intrigued the occupants of the dormitory was their loud comments back and forth... "find anything yet?" "No, not yet. How about you?"... with a good 50 yards distance between the yellers. Keep trying, fellows.
