President Hands Ultimatum To Railroad Workers

Spartans Meet Notre Dame Today

Kobsmen To Play Great Lakes Nine in Sunday Game

Facing power-laden Notre Dame in South Bend, this afternoon will find Michigan State's Spartans trying for its second consecutive weekend play after whipping Michigan Normal yesterday at College Field. (See sports page for complete story.)

Against the Irish, Coach John J. O'Connell will probably have Robin Roberts, his speed-ball artist, on the mound, and if all goes according to plan, Kobs will then face Joe Skrocki against Great Lakes Sunday afternoon in the final and final weekend contest of the Spartans.

The club will leave this morning at 9 for South Bend and will return late Sunday evening.

Notre Dame holds one decision over the Spartans this season, having beaten MSC in East Lansing, 5-4, two weeks ago. Jack Barrett, who worked the last two innings in the tilt for the Irish, will probably get the starting call from Coach Jake O'Connell.

Sunday's meeting between the Spartans and Sailors will be the final of 1946. The earlier scheduled contest was rained out.

Whitelaw to Preside at Group Discussion of Germany's Plight

J. L. Whitelaw, MSC consultant of ROTC will lead an informal discussion of present German International Relations conditions in Germany at an informal meeting at International Center Sunday evening at 8.

Former deputy commander of U.S. occupation forces in Germany, Colonel Whitelaw is known on the political situation in Germany and will be able to throw upon his own observations for the discussion.

Students are invited to attend and a special invitation has been extended to the members of the International Relations Club.

Orchesis Members To Give Two Original Ballets Tonight

Group to Interpret 'Nutteracker Suite,' 'Peter and The Wolf,' Orchestra to Play

"Peter and the Wolf" and the "Nutteracker Suite" will be produced by Orchesis, women's dance honorary, in cooperation with the music and drama departments, tonight at 7:45 in College auditorium. No admission will be charged.

Both of the suites to be performed by the women have been produced successfully by the Russian Ballet. The dances to be interpreted have been composed by the women of Orchesis, under the supervision of Miss Anne Kuehl, and Mrs. Margaret McKeane, both of the physical education department.

The story of "Peter and the Wolf" centers around the attempt to capture the big black wolf, tempts of Peter and his friends. The cast will consist of eight women. Don Buell, of the speech and dramatics department has supervised all of the drama in the production.

Tchaikowsky's familiar "Nutteracker Suite", is a dream fantasy, based on little Marie's dreams that her toys come to life and perform for her. This suite consists of seven dances.

TODAY'S CAMPUS

... Always Two Angles

Trying to demonstrate various tenets to his Spanish class, the professor recently gave a running story, stopping occasionally to ask the tense of the verb used. After telling of someone jumping from behind a building at another, he asked, "What is that?"

Came the reply from a back row pre-legal student, "Assault with intent to do bodily harm."

... New Low in Music

Hoover's bureau of missing persons must have flashed into Orchestra Director Alexander Schuster's mind Thursday night when, looking up from Tchaikowsky's "Nutteracker Suite" score, he discovered his entire horn, tympany, and reed sections had mysteriously disappeared. Schuster's sad "good bye, dear friends" was happily changed when it was found that the hydraulic orchestra pit was making an unscheduled trip into the auditorium basement.

... Heed the Seed

Spartans! Hail! and as you pass, Stay on the walks and not on the grass, So that when we look we may know for true Which are the cows and which are you.

Truman Gives Men Until 4 p.m. Today To Get Back To Work

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP) — President Truman tonight called upon railroad workers to return to work and operate the nation's trains. He said that if they were not back on the job by 4 p.m. tomorrow he would call upon the armed forces to help run the railroads and furnish protection for those willing to work.

Dr. Kimmel To Lead Choir In Program

Under the direction of Dr. William Kimmel, the A Cappella choir will sing the works of several famous contemporary composers tomorrow night at 7:30 in Peoples church.

A composition by Doctor Kimmel, professor of music, entitled "Introu", taken from the Jewish Liturgy, will begin the four-part program. Three works by Alexander Grechaninoff, great Russian composer known for his fine church music, will be sung by the choir.

Great Vespers

Two of these, Nine Ditties and Lord, Have Mercy On Us, are from the Great Vespers. O God, Hear My Prayer is taken from the 18th Psalm.

The choir will sing two compositions by two brilliant modern musicians, the Mass in G Minor, written from Roman liturgical music, by Ralph Vaughan Williams, and Six Chancons by Paul Hindemith.

The former is known for the melodious "Greensleeves", the latter, particularly for his Quar-

Greeks To Vie For APO Cup

Six fraternities will compete Monday night in the seventh annual interfraternity sing for the three-year traveling trophy offered by Alpha Phi Omega, service group.

The sing will take place at 7:30 in College band shell or in College auditorium if the weather is unfavorable. Brew Broder, Detroit sophomore, chairman of the sing, stated,

Greeks Enter 12 Men Each

Each group is allowed a maximum of 12 voices and will sing three songs apiece. They will appear in alphabetical order and will be announced by Tom Walker, WKAR newscaster and life member of Alpha Phi Omega.

Led by Bob Stevens, Jackson freshman, the Alpha Tau Omega will sing "Home on the Range," "On the Lone Prairie" and "Jewels of APO." The Kappa Sigmas will present "Kappa Sigma Sweetheart Song," Kappa Sigma March Song and the "Whiffenpoof Song" under the direction of Walter Knysli, Detroit freshman.

Phi Deltas to Feature 'Shadows'

Lee Funk, Niles sophomore, will lead Phi Delta Theta in singing "Phi Delta Theta We Love You," "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," and "MSC Shadows," while the Sigma Alpha Epsilons will have as their director Russ Wentworth, Dearborn freshman. They will sing "When We Came From Dixie," "If I Had a Dream, Dear" and "Friends."

Fifth group will be Sigma Nu who will sing an original college song composed by Bud Hall, Flint freshman. The other two songs are to be "Sunny Southern Sweetheart" and "In the Evening by the Moonlight."

Three Have Owned Kedzie Cane, Given To Oldest-Living Alumnus

A round-headed, fancy-carved cane might well be considered the most coveted award offered by the college, for it is given to the oldest living alumnus.

Dean Griswold of Northville, Michigan, who graduated in 1875 is the present owner and he will retain possession as long as he lives.

The Kedzie cane as it is called is so called because its original owner was Frank Kedzie, one-time head of the chemistry department and president of the college from 1915 to 1921. Upon retirement he became college historian.

In the late 1920's Kedzie gave the cane to Alumni Director Glenn Stewart and on alumni day in 1932 the first award was made to Daniel Strange, a Grand Ledge graduate of the class of '67.

When he died in 1940 it was passed on to Warren Reynolds, class of 1870, from Casopolis and upon his death it was awarded to the present owner.

Engraved on a gold band about the cane are the names of those alumni who have managed to outlive all their fellow graduates.

Bus Company Adds Extra Coaches To Detroit Run

The nation-wide paralyzing railroad strike has not yet fully hit East Lansing. Because the city is served by a bus line and private transportation, the pinch has not been felt so much as in other localities.

The manager of the East Lansing bus depot stated that extra buses had been put into use on the Detroit run, and that there were seats for all passengers.

Postmaster Mervin A. Terrill of East Lansing said that incoming mail dropped off about one-third yesterday. The post office is still accepting all first class mail up to one pound. Airplanes, buses, and trucks are carrying the mail.

To nearby towns that are not served by a railroad, trucks will continue to carry parcel post packages up to 70 pounds, Terrill said.

The post office sub station in Byrnes' drug store will remain open to take packages up to one pound, and to sell stamps and money orders.

TO THE EDITOR:

For the reporter who slipped up on this week's band concert, I propose an onion. The paper really goofed off on that detail. The whole program was fine and as anyone who was there would tell you, it was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Of special mention of course, were Falcone's selections on the baritone.

My main reason for writing this, however, is not to criticize but to offer a suggestion to the powers that be. That suggestion being: How about continuing these band concerts on through summer term?

From what I have been able to gather through conversation, this has not been planned. What the reasons for this are, I, of course, don't know. Consideration of the lighting expense might easily be one.

I do know, however, that there are going to be a lot of students here this summer. A great many of the GIs feel it is to their advantage to carry their schooling straight through. This I feel sure the authorities realize. It seems then that this is a worthwhile suggestion.

While I appreciate the fact that a number of good films have been arranged for, I feel sure that the band concerts would be very well received. I am going to be among those attending college this summer and the prospect of a weekly band concert would be most welcome.

What Next? Dairymen To Pick Spartan Woman For State Queen

June dairy month committee, composed of representatives of Michigan dairy organizations, Michigan State college and the State Department of Agriculture, will sponsor competition to select the Michigan Dairy Queen, the symbolic ruler of the state's $200,000,000 a year dairy industry.

Any MSC coed is eligible to compete for the honor which carries a $25 cash award with second and third prizes of $15 and $10 respectively. However, there is one qualification, she must be able to milk a cow.

Cows for the contest will be provided by the MSC dairy department, which is cooperating with the dairy month committee. Judges will be Charles Figy, state director of agriculture; Dean Ernest L. Anthony, MSC School of Agriculture, and Prof. Earl Weaver, head of the dairy department.

Contestants are invited to register by telephoning extension 557, or leaving their names at room 200, Dairy building. The milking competition will take place in the college judging pavilion.

Lack Of Lumber Affects College

According to Prof. Paul A. Herbert of the forestry department, Michigan State college is in the market for any lumber that has the bark removed.

Clive A. Rosenbrock, purchasing agent for MSC, has a big problem on his hands when it comes to furnishing the college with enough lumber for maintaining work.

Like every other large concern the college has trouble getting lumber. Fortunately, however, State can draw upon its own forest for a limited supply which can be cut in its own mills when labor is available.

Some lumber is provided by the mill about a quarter of a mile up the Red Cedar and the mill at the Dunbar forest in the Upper Peninsula sends an occasional car load to help relieve the shortage. The rest must come from commercial concerns whenever it can be shipped.

RR Strike Hits Auto Plants

DETROIT, May 24 (AP) — The nation's automobile industry, handicapped for months by parts and materials shortages, faces virtually complete suspension of car assemblies early next week as a result of the rail strike.

A halt to all car and truck production would make approximately 750,000 hourly-rated workers idle.

Students Win Speech Prizes

Radio Awards Acclaim Two

Instruments Measure Bomb Force

Awards for achievement in the fields of speaking and radio were presented to 16 outstanding students at the annual speech banquet last night.

In each of four divisions first and second place awards were made to two men and two women. The awards were presented by Kenneth Hemmeyer, East Lansing senior.

First place award winners in the division of poetry were Pauline Mochlinman, Muskegon senior, and Ted Brinks, Grand Rapids sophomore. In second place was Joyce Chapman, Lawton senior.

Prose Awards Made

James Fausold, Washington senior, and Kenneth Hemmeyer, East Lansing senior, won first place awards in prose work. Phyllis Smith, Bellaire senior, in second place.

First place awards in extemporaneous speech were earned by Bill Hallard, Jackson senior, and June Szosz, Elgin, Ill., junior. Second place was given to John Hestey, Muskegon senior, and Wilma Helfrich, Traverse City senior.

Winners in Oratory

Oratory first place went to John Guter, Ovid senior, and John Faffee, Lansing senior. Margaret Cline, Bay City senior, and Phil Hestey, Muskegon senior, were in second place.

Student awards were given to students in radio by Joe Callahan, of the speech and drama department. Charles Anthony, Bay City senior, and Miss Mochlinman, earned these achievement awards.

Museum Director Gains New Ideas

Joseph Stack, director of the state museum, recently returned from Washington, D. C., after attending the 41st annual meeting of the American Association of Museums, May 17 and 18. The 400 members met to discuss the problems and work of the natural history and art museums.

While there Stack talked with a taxidermist of the National Museum to see what label method he uses in the preparation of "prehistoric" mammals. The remains of the mastodons, a prehistoric elephant, in Plainwell, Michigan, are in the collection, waiting for further preparation before being displayed to the public.

Stack also discussed the plans for the construction of a new group with the taxidermist, before proceeding with work on two other groups at the MSC museum.

At the conference Stack was appointed as one of the committee members to nominate the officers for next year.

Out of Nowhere—

By DEE DEARING

SEEING as how the end of the term is sneaking up on the graduating seniors especially, I thought I'd meander over toward the library and see what was up. Saw a long line so Sarcophagus I stood in it because I was lonely.

A few hours later I found that I was in a line for assigned reading books and after carefully picking one from a possibility list which takes up two pages of my notebook, I tried to find a place to sit. Maybe it would be a good idea to move some quonset huts over by the library and make auxiliary reading rooms.

But that is the least of a senior's worries. There are other little things like deficient credits, term papers, projects, and tests before the finals. When I finally get that diploma I'll hang it around my neck with neon light attachments.

The women are really making a nice stab at playing baseball. It doesn't get based around much that the block playoffs are now underway, but almost every night the clubs are wearing off the grass in front of Women's Gym and disfigure skin off their faces.

For example, last night a slow grounder rolled merrily out to the shortstop who let it go through her legs so the shortstop stumbled over and sighted about 50 degrees off and the right fielder came galloping over and almost touched the ball when she fell flat on her face. By that time the base runner was rounding third for the second in the East Lansing area.

It's always a good idea around this time of year to be especially nice to the profs but that isn't what I have in mind. Everyone has been naming the kings and queens of the campus, so I'll take it upon myself to name the pin up boy of the professional staff. That would be Tom McGuire.

Although he isn't exactly a Van Johnson in looks, he gets the vote. I have been trying for three years to live down the impression he got of me when I sat in the back row of his Spanish class and tried to decipher my handwriting which was awfully cramped since it was crowded above the printed words.

At least I kept a balance in the class and we have been on speaking terms since. Although I am not in any class of his now, he can give that A to some other student who is struggling like I did. And if it's any kind of compensation, he can know that he is one of the chosen few.

Truman To Hash Over Strike Before Congress

Trains Stalled Throughout Nation As Strike Negotiations Bog Down

WASHINGTON, May 24 (P) — President Truman, wrestling with the gravest strike crisis in the nation's history, will speak to Congress at a joint session tomorrow, after making an extraordinary address to the people tonight.

TRUMAN

Two Men Balk Settlement

He declared that Whitney and Johnston had refused his request that they meet with the operator and the other 18 brotherhoods "in a joint conference in the office of the President of the United States," and required the holding of three separate conferences.

The president deplored the strike's potential effect on shipments of grain abroad, where it might mean a difference "between life and death to hundreds of thousands of persons."

President Truman speaks to nation on railroad crisis

tween life and death to hundreds of thousands of persons."

To Address Congress

The emergency is "so acute" and the issue "so vital," he said, that he will appear before a joint session of Congress at 4 p.m. tomorrow to deliver a personal message on the subject.

If sufficient workers have not returned to operate the trains by that time, he declared, "I have no alternative but to operate the trains by using every means within my power."

"I shall call upon the army to assist the Office of Defense Transportation in operating the trains and I shall ask our armed forces to furnish protection to every man who heeds the call of his country in this hour of need."

Whitney and Johnston declined to comment on the president's speech.

As the emergency caused by the coast-to-coast railroad tieup deepened, these events came tumbling thick and fast.

1. Dr. John R. Steelman, key government conciliator trying to end the strike of engineers and trainmen, emerged from long hours of conferences to announce that "the situation is dark."

Vets May Be Called

2. Secretary of War Patterson told reporters it is "possible" that some discharged veterans who ran army trains abroad during the war may be called back to service.

3. A war department spokesman announced that troops are being moved to "strategic locations" in anticipation of requis for protection of the railroads and any workers willing to man the trains.

4. The White House disclosed that Mr. Truman was drafting a broadcast for tonight. All networks were cleared for it.

5. Speaker Rayburn disclosed that the president would speak to a joint session of Congress at 4 p.m., Eastern Standard time tomorrow.

U. S. Attorneys to be Alert

6. Attorney General Clark abruptly ended a three-day crime prevention conference here which 93 United States attorneys were attending and ordered them to speed back to their districts immediately by whatever means they could find. The purpose, an official said, is to prosecute "any violations of federal laws during the emergency."

7. The president cancelled plans to fly to Oklahoma City Monday to address the governors' conference, although Frank Bane, organization secretary, said the meeting will be held.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, May 25 (P)—Senator Bankhead, (D., Ala.), collapsed at the capitol tonight after attending a meeting of the senate banking committee.

Bankhead's office said the senator was suffering from a "light stroke on the left side."

Women Veterinary Students Organize, Elect Browne Head

Gamma Phi, newly organized women's veterinary fraternity, has begun its active duties, announced Irene Rachwalsky, New York sophomore and one of its founders.

This fraternity, formed under the guidance of Dr. Lois Calhoun of the anatomy department, is the second of its kind in the United States. The original chapter was founded at Cornell university, in New York.

The fraternity has 16 members, all students, but plans to include as many graduate women veterinarians as possible are being formulated.

Purpose of the Group

The purpose of this fraternity is to obtain cooperation among women veterinarians, and to strive to wipe out prejudices and obstacles confronting women in this field. The women believe they will be stronger as a group.

Formulating Plans

Future plans for this group are being formulated by the group under the supervision of their president, Josephine Browne, and their secretary-treasurer, Nancy Kadlec, Illinois sophomore.

SING

They will be directed by Buzz Hart, Jackson freshman.

Theta Chis to Sing Last

Last fraternity to compete is to be Theta Chi. Under the leadership of Jimmy Shafer, Cleveland, O., junior, this chorus will present "Ezekiel Saw the Wheel," "Bells of St. Mary's" and "Theta Chi Toast."

Judges for the sing will be R. J. Coleman, director of WKAR; Fred Patton, former MSC music department professor and now private voice instructor, and William McIntyre, music director of Eastern high school.

The cup is on display in the upper deck of the Union.

OPA Places Limit On Potato Costs During RR Strike

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—OPA today slapped price controls back on potatoes for the rail strike emergency.

The action is effective immediately.

"Since potatoes rank with wheat, flour and bread in importance as a staple food commodity," OPA said, "it is important not to allow prices to shoot up if scarcities begin to develop in areas awaiting shipments tied up by the present emergency."

The agency said ceilings being restored are those which were in effect at this time last year when potatoes were under price control.

In another emergency action, OPA authorized fresh fruit and vegetable dealers to include in their ceiling prices the cost of whatever means of transportation is available to them during the rail strike.

Trip May Result In Chinese Peace

NANKING, May 24 — Generalissimo and Madame Chiang Kai-Shek flew to Mukden today in General Marshall's personal plane amid hints that peace for warring China might depend on the outcome of their trip.

Government and Communist spokesmen could not agree on whether the government's recapture of Changchun yesterday had improved or weakened prospects for a peace settlement, but there was a new flurry of negotiations looking toward compromise between the rival factions.

"Now we can begin to talk with the Communists," said one high official of the Kuomintang (government party) who declined to permit use of his name. The Communists had just notified General Marshall, special mediator, that they were willing to accept in principle a peace plan proposed by the third-party democratic league on April 29.

This proposal, however, was predicted on both sides slaying out of Changchun, and a Communist spokesman said the government's seizure of the Manchurian capital was "regrettable" and had "complicated" the situation.

Term Parties Head List Of Night's Engagements

Closed Dances, Picnics and Radio Affairs Will Provide Spartans' Entertainment

Formal facts about tonight's social activities whipped up for Spartan couples can now be told. More or less a conglomeration of term parties and radio parties, numbering in all, the list is a closed one.

In addition one afternoon affair has been scheduled for the Delta Gammas who will entertain the Kappa Alpha Thetas at a picnic at Ingham this afternoon beginning at 12:30.

Alpha Gams Entertain

Headline the term party events will be the Alpha Gamma Delta's which has been planned for the main ballroom tonight from 9 to 12. Dick Charles' band will provide music melodies, and flowers and a covered lattice fence will carry out a May theme.

Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Mencher, Prof. and Mrs. Walter Greenwood, and the Karl T. Smiths will be the patrons honored.

May Theme

Sigma Chi's term party will be an informal affair held at the house from 9 to 12, Russ Abbott, Bedford, Mass., junior, stated. A May theme will prevail and society acts under the supervision of Ted Brink, Grand Rapids sophomore, will make up entertainment plans.

Patrons in attendance will be Prof. and Mrs. Russell Reynolds, A. Knickerbocker and his family, while guests include Dean and Mrs. Henry Dirk and Dr. and Mrs. Donald Mosher.

Gamma Phi Hold Dance

More Greek women entertaining their dates tonight will be Gamma Phi Betas. Their term party dance is also "on" from 9 to 12 tonight and patrons invited are Mr. and Mrs. J. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irwin. Beta Phi women have also selected tonight as the date of their formal term party and have been revealed as Prof. and Mrs. Stuart Gallacher and Prof. and Mrs. V. E. Leitchy.

Chi O's Schedule Party

Down the road away Chi Omega and their dates will enjoy a party tonight from 9 to 12 according to Sue Littlefield, Grand Rapids sophomore.

Kappa Epsilon Pi brothers will have their dates to the Lansing Y.M.C.A. club house for their term party tonight from 8:30 to 12. Dick Kasten, New York City freshman, said. The event will be held at their house father, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Blum.

Foresters to Dance

The Forestry club's term dance will be staged in the Forestry building tonight from 9 to 12. An informal affair, patrons have been named as Mr. and Mrs. T. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. J. Bessel.

Union and Concord houses will jointly sponsor their term party tonight, co-chairmen Anne Green, Greenville freshman, and Clemons, Detroit sophomore declared.

SAE to Highlight Party

This closed party will be in the form of a picnic held at the Lansing park beginning at 10 p.m. At 10 p.m. the group will return to Benson house for dancing. Guests of the picnic will be Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. H. Samsen.

The SAE radio party tonight has been planned by the pledges for the actives, according to Pierre Gonon, East Lansing freshman. Dancing and refreshments are included in the plans, and patrons for the event will be Major and Mrs. Earl T. Houk and Edward Pogor.

Alpha Phi's radio party tonight will be from 9 to 12. Margot Jacques, Grand Rapids junior, said. The T. H. Osgood and Mrs. Gertrude Snow will be chaperons.

Final radio event tonight will be in the Mason hall smoker from 9 to 12. Women and their dates will dance to "juke" music.

Unemployed Figure Soars

By the Associated Press

The number of workers unemployed in the nation was well over the million mark today (Saturday) with every indication of the figure soaring to far vaster proportions as industrial plants closed because of the rail strike.

The railroad walkout had idled the 250,000 striking engineers and trainmen and unestimated number of the 1,200,000 members of other non-striking brotherhoods.

About 165,000 soft coal miners, members of John L. Lewis' United Mine workers, also had quit work after federal seizure of the mines. A "truce" involving all 400,000 UMW members expires today.

Ford Suffers

An estimated 125,000 Ford Motor company workers have been laid off because of rail and coal conditions.

West Virginia's coal industry, employing 104,000, was reported almost entirely shut down because of a shortage of cars in which to move the coal.

In Pennsylvania mining experts said 70,000 hard coal miners would be thrown out of work, also for lack of cars.

GM May Close

Auto industry observers predicted General Motors and Chrysler would be forced to close in several days.

Thousands of sailors on Great Lakes ore and coal ships were expected to be affected as orders were issued by ship owners to tie up the vessels.

Release Employees

The Pennsylvania railroad said all employees "not needed to support present service and volume of traffic are temporarily released." The road employs 168,958 and in the New York division the company said the order would affect 25 per cent of its employees.

A spokesman for U. S. Steel said 275,000 of its employees would be affected.

INFORMATION

YWCA

Each member of the YWCA cabinet is required to attend the final cabinet meeting today at 1:30 p.m. at Peoples church. The plans for next fall will be made at the meeting. If unable to attend, members are requested to send a written excuse to Davy Blake, YWCA president.

MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board members will meet in front of Women's gym at 11 a.m. today with their bikes. THETA SIGMA PHI

The senior dinner planned for Monday evening for members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, will be held on Tuesday instead, Pres. Jean Jarvis, Detroit senior, announced.

The group will meet in the State News office at 5 p.m. on Tuesday and will dine at the New Hut.

Affairs of State

By LIZ CORRY and THAIS LUCAS

WITH the IFC sing, exchange dinners, picnics, term parties, baseball games, the term play, and the Senior Commencement dance activities, State will be buzzing along right up to June 10. And then come the days of judgement, finals. Don't feel too bad about it.

After those two-hour exams comes vacation, four days for those who are going to summer school and a few more for those who are planning to spend a summer of leisure. But things have happened recently that must be reported so here they are—

Joyce Harris, St. Louis sophomore, is now exhibiting a sparkling diamond which she recently received from Duane Beard of Ithaca, who was recently discharged from the navy.

Thursday night Connie Conklin, Flushing senior, surprised her Zeta Tau Alpha sisters with an engagement ring which Ensign Gerald Brooke had just given her. Jerry is from Sunfield and is a member of FarmHouse fraternity.

Along with the other Greek women the Chi O's also had initiation. The new women now wearing the X and horseshoe are Shirley Knowlton, Villa Park, Ill., sophomore; Claire Neitz, Hillcrest freshman; Pat Hagerty, Royal Oak freshman; Carol Seabury, Detroit junior; Kathy Glidden, Wheaton, Ill., freshman; Jackie Jeszer, Hillsdale freshman, and Nancy Mocomber, Wyandotte freshman. Barbara Blakely, Rockwood freshman, is a new Chi O pledge.

New pins are now being sported by a group of Sigma Kappa's who were recently initiated. The coeds are Shirley Vining, Greenville sophomore; Mary Ellen Evans, Armada sophomore; Pat Hollinger, Dearborn sophomore; Doris Owens, Ionia freshman; Phyllis Smith, Belleville freshman, and Beverly Watson, Flint freshman.

The remainder of the group is comprised of Martha Brown, Niagara Falls, N. Y., freshman; Shirley Dodd, Sault Ste. Marie freshman; Virginia McCree, Velm Jones, South Lyon freshman; Marion Dougless, Detroit freshman; Joyce Carr, Flint freshman,

Michigan Normal Blows Ball Game With 9 Errors

By JIM CARR

Michigan State Spartans went on a hitting spree yesterday afternoon when they bunched 12 hits along with nine Michigan Normal errors to score their 16th win of the season, 11-0, before 1,500 fans on Old College field.

Bill Page posted his fourth victory of the season by handing out only five scattered hits and issuing two bases on balls. He was not once in serious trouble.

The Spartans' big seventh inning produced seven runs on seven hits. Floyd Guest opened the inning by drawing a base on balls. Marty Hansen then followed with a sharp single to center field. Jack Breslin smacked a triple against the right field fence which scored both Guest and Hansen.

Sobczak Gets Single

Ed Sobczak singled, scoring Breslin, and then moved to second on Bob Groves' sacrifice. A pair of singles by Dick Mineweaser and Ben Hudenko brought Sobczak home with another Spartan run.

Page was safe on an error and with the bases loaded Pat Peppier came through with a timely blow which scored Mineweaser and Hudenko.

Guest came to bat for the second time in this inning and promptly delivered a single which drove Page home with the seventh State run of the big frame.

Guest Paces Attack

Guest was the big gun of Spartan attack, getting three hits in four official times at bat. He had a single, double, and triple, to pace the State spree.

Pitcher Page collected two hits, a triple and single in four trips to the plate, while outfielder Peppier knocked out a double and a single in five times at bat.

Tom Stevens, Huron hurler, was charged with the defeat. He gave up all the State runs and hits in the seven innings he pitched.

Grid Star In Days Of Old

Custodian At Dorm Once Spartan Football Great

By CHUCK STATTARD

The custodian over at Sarah L. Williams dormitory is a short, rather stout, balding gentleman known to all the students as "Ex".

Few of the people who see "Ex" every day know that likeable Leon C. Exelby was one of the greatest football players produced at Michigan State college.

"Ex" was a standout tackle and fullback from 1907 to 1910 in the days when MSC was known as Michigan Agricultural College.

Glorious Grid Era

The glorious era of Jim Thorpe and his Carlyle Indians was coming to an end at that time, and new gridiron names like Germany Schultz of Michigan, Gus Dorais and Knute Rockne of Notre Dame loomed on the football horizon.

"In those days we had one coach for everything, and a team was 11 to 15 men and no more," Ex smiled. "Substitutes were few and far between, and when you played you stayed in the game until you had to almost be carried from the field," he continued.

Shifted to Fullback

In 1907, his first year at school, he played tackle and then was shifted to fullback the following season, the position he held down for the remainder of his career, and the one at which he gained his fame as one of the best backs in the land from '08 to '10.

His greatest thrill was playing on the "Aggie" team that beat Notre Dame in 1909.

The Irish came to East Lansing that year with one of their greatest teams, loaded with such stars as Dorais, Rockne, Philbrook, and Danick, the latter two being the best tackles in the country at that time.

The "Aggies" completely outplayed Notre Dame that day and sent them back to South Bend on the short end of a 17-0 score.

Elected Captain

In 1910 he was elected captain of the team, and at the end of that sea on his outstanding play earned him fullback position on the All-Western team.

Following graduation "Ex" went to the University of Wyoming and was appointed head coach at that school. After coaching he took a government position and for many years worked for Uncle Sam.

About 1930 he was awarded a plaque symbolic of being one of the outstanding athletes in Michigan State history. Exelby is particularly proud of this trophy as only three other such awards have ever been made to Spartan athletes.

Bill Dickey Appointed To Manage New York Team

Veteran Catcher Steps In As A 'Red Bit The Dust' To Score

Joe McCarthy Resigns

STON, May 24 (AP) — The appointment of Bill Dickey, New York Yankees' catching star since 1928, as that team's new manager was announced here tonight by President General Manager Larry MacPhail.

"After several telephone conversations with Joe McCarthy in Buffalo, I have accepted his resignation," MacPhail said. "Dickey was my first choice as our new manager and he had McCarthy's recommendation."

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 24 (AP) — Joe McCarthy confirmed tonight that he had resigned as manager of the New York Yankees, and gave as his reason that his health would not allow him to continue in the position.

He released the following statement to the Buffalo Courier-Express which he said he had sent to Larry S. McPhail, Yankee president:

"It is with extreme regret that I must request that you accept my resignation as manager of the New York Yankees baseball club, effective immediately.

Physician Advised Resignation
"My physician advises that my health would be seriously jeopardized if I continued and this is the sole reason for my decision, which as you know is entirely voluntary on my part."

"I have enjoyed our pleasant relationship and was hoping it would continue until we won the championship. I am going to miss the team very much, and am sure they are going to continue on and win the pennant and world series."

Wisner Calls Shot
An indication of his decision came earlier today, when Harry Wisner, sports director of the American Broadcasting company, said in a broadcast that McCarthy had decided to quit the Yankees, and predicted that Bill Dickey, veteran catcher, would succeed him.

Joe would make no additions to the letter at present, saying it told exactly his feelings and gave his entire reasons for the decision.

McCarthy has been resting at his farm home near Buffalo, following a recurrence of a severe cold and gall-bladder condition which compelled him to leave the team for a lengthy period last year. At that time there was considerable talk of his resignation.

"I have been extremely reluctant to accept your resignation, even though I understand the reason why you feel your retirement is best," McPhail wired McCarthy.

"I am glad to know that your services are available to me and to the club in an advisory capacity and I hope you will feel free to act in that capacity in a very short time."

"I speak for every member of the club as well as myself when I tell you how much we regret you are not going to continue and how much we will miss you."

Reds third baseman Grady Hatton slides safely into home for a score as Dodgers' catcher Ferrell Anderson makes late tag in recent contest.

Jim Ferrier Has 64th Western Open

ST. LOUIS, May 24 (AP) — Big Ben Hogan, winner of the Fort Worth Colonial invitational, got in before dark with the 65's.

Spartan Golf Team To Meet Indiana, Purdue On the Road
After absorbing a muddy 25-2 defeat at the hands of Ohio State last week, the Spartan golf squad is now rounding out its week's practice sessions in preparation for the road trip coming up this weekend.

The squad will leave Sunday for Purdue university, at Lafayette, Ind., where they will play on Monday. After this match, the linksmen will trek to Bloomington to meet the Indiana U. squad the following day.

Titans Lose to Rockets
TOLEDO, May 24 (AP) — The University of Toledo baseball team spotted the University of Detroit two runs and then came from behind to win 5-2 here today. The Detroiters won 11 to 4 earlier this year.

Long ball hitter Chick Harbert of Pontiac, Mich., and veteran Ky. Laffoon of Orlando, Fla., came in with the 67's, while Bob Hamilton of Chicago, and favorite Ben Hogan, winner of the Fort Worth Colonial invitational, got in before dark with the 65's.

The determined Ferrier came within a fraction of an inch of lowering the record another notch when, after a 50-yard pitch to the first green, he lipped the cup on a short putt.

Topped by Ferrier's spectacular times of one-under-par 33 and a seven-under 31, the first day of Western Open leading since 1942 saw two candidates for the $10,000 prize melon hang up 67's, four 68's and an even dozen 69's.

Two 'S' Trackmen In Favorite Roles At Annapolis

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 24 (AP) — Two Michigan State college athletes were cast in the role of favorites tonight as entrants from 33 school poured into town for the IC4A track meet tomorrow.

Walter Mack was listed as pre-meet favorite in the 880 while Ted Wonch was named as the man to beat in the pole vault.

Weather forecasts of "light showers" held forth prospects of a heavy track for the meet, finale of the eastern season. Three teams, Cornell, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard had withdrawn because of travel difficulties attendant to the railroad strike.

On June 1, Coach Don Van Alstyne's crew will meet Notre Dame and Wayne in a triangular singles meet closing the local links competition. The squad's record is now five wins against three defeats.

Congress To Cooperate With President's Plans

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP) — Congressional leaders announced their readiness to push through any legislation President Truman might recommend tomorrow while the Senate drove ahead with its own labor measure in a night session.

House leaders declared they would hold that chamber after the joint session at 4 p.m., EST, tomorrow to act immediately on any presidential recommendations meeting fairly general approval.

May Draft Men Over 30

Chairman May (D-Ky) of the house military committee mentioned the possibility that Mr. Truman might request emergency revision of the selective service act to draft men over 30, although he said he had no idea what the president would say.

Senator Ball (R-Minn) and others have been demanding a showdown on legislation to impose a 60-day cooling off period against strikes and lockouts where a federal mediation board intervenes.

Amendment Proposed

Meanwhile, Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) drafted an amendment which he felt might help in the rail strike.

Johnson proposed that strikes be outlawed for 100 days whenever the president proclaims that the national interests are imperiled. Employees who left their jobs would lose their seniority rights, a valuable possession of railroad workers.

Chemical Fraternity To Fete Initiates

Dr. H. H. Willard of the University of Michigan will speak tonight at Alpha Chi Sigma's formal initiation banquet. The organization, which is the professional chemical fraternity, will sponsor the gathering in conjunction with Alpha Beta chapter of U. of M. and the professional chapter.

Toastmaster will be Carl Sears, Benton Harbor junior, and the dinner will be held in Sandy's hall.

ORCHESIS

Including the Dance of the Toy Soldiers, an Arabian Dance, a Chinese Dance, including an imitation of a cock fight, and a Dance of the Candy Fairies, which is a performance of two figurines on top of a music box, which Marie wound up for her own enjoyment.

A lively Russian dance, the Dance of the Reed Flutes, and the well known Waltz of the Flowers concludes the "Nutteracker Suite".

Faculty Help

Faculty directors in charge of stage decorations, and lighting are Cecil Nickel, of the speech and dramatics department, and Robert Wall of the written and spoken English department.

Combined Efforts

Besides the composing of the dances, Orchesis members and other MSC women have designed and made 75 costumes, and built the stage sets.

Alexander Schuster, of the music department, will direct the College symphony orchestra, which will accompany the dances as well as playing the "Clock Symphony" by Haydn, and the "Dream Pantomime" from Handel and Gretel.

Thera Stovall to Give 'Friendly Persuasion'

Final Reading hour of the term will feature Thera Stovall, instructor in written and spoken English, at 4:10 Tuesday in 49 Auditorium, according to Mrs. Moire Compere, director of the series.

"The Friendly Persuasion" by Jessamyn West will be read by Miss Stovall, who came to Michigan State after being graduated from and instructing at Northwestern State college in Louisiana.

Miss Stovall has served as president of the speech division of the Louisiana Teachers' association.

Men Refuse Plea

KANSAS CITY, May 24 (AP)—After listening to the President Truman's speech tonight urging them to return to work, 300 engineers and trainmen voted here to continue their strike.

The men took the position that "this is not a strike against the government, but a strike against management," said S. J. Brooks, chairman of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers local.
