Associated Press wire service also will be continued next year.

Music Library Offers Large Variety In Collection Of Phonograph Records

By PHIL SPELMAN

Six hundred and thirty-one albums of everything from Bach to Basin Street blues are available to music-minded students in the record library on the second floor of the music building. Four high fidelity victrolas are provided in large, sound-proof rooms which are decorated to help out examination blues.

Discs Include 'Oklahoma'

The records, which include symphonies, concertos and musical comedies like "Oklahoma," may be checked out weekdays between eight in the morning and ten at night; Saturdays from eight to five; and Sundays from two until five.

Of special interest, to students owning phonographs, is a shelf of 60 albums designated "circulation" which may be checked out for one week at a time. These pieces include the more popular of the contemporary compositions as well as many of the old masterworks.

Library for All Students

Prof. Roy L. Underwood, head of the music department, emphasizes that the facilities are for the use of the whole student body on a "first come first serve" basis. The library is headed by Mrs. Frieda Moran who is assisted by student librarians Doris Schestag, Grand Rapids sophomore; Marjorie Sunnen, Chatham, Opt., senior; Norma Lou Gregg, Lansing senior, and Norma Lou Reedy, Grand Rapids sophomore.

Among the more unusual dedications of recorded music is Richard Strauss' "Till Eulenspiegel" which bears the following dedication within its cover: "Presented to the MSC music library, October 18, 1945, by the Student Union so that it may go on record as having the shortest existence of any organization at MSC." The Student union was a short-lived organization which banded together last fall to protest the MSC car ban.

Plan Expansion

Further expansion of the library and listening facilities depends on the amount of student interest. Professor Underwood explained. Plans are now underway for about a dozen new sound-proof listening rooms and many additional recordings as soon as they are available.

In additions to the 631 albums, the library contains over 400 separate discs of classical and modern music. Sometime in the near future, the entire library of music is to be put into circulation on a one week basis.

LETTERS . . . To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE — All letters to the editor submitted with the intention of being published, must be signed by the writer. If he does not want his name to appear with the letter, it must be indicated. No letters will be considered for publication unless the writer is known. The opinions expressed are those of the writers and not necessarily those of the editors.

TO the Editor:
I am very pleased with the increased seriousness in the tone of your letter column. As a returned veteran, I have been noticing a number of changes on campus. Spartans do consider themselves citizens of our country and are concerned with the problems facing our future.

But I am alarmed by the one sided understanding of strike news. Miss Hopps in last Friday's column indicated that the strikers were to blame and that legislation against them should be pushed.

What is the other side?

For a while, people thought there was a tremendous rise in wartime wage rates. Now it is clear that the increased money in the workers' pockets came from increased hours, upgrading from less skilled to more skilled jobs, and to several members of the same family working.

Things returned to normal after the war and immediately it became clear that the workers had gained nothing and in many respects were worse off than before the war.

For General Motors, steel, railroad, and coal workers, price rises kept pace with wage increases.

They tell us that the cost of living has gone up 32 per cent since 1939, but actually, government figures show a rise of 51.2 per cent in food prices; clothing 49 per cent, and house furnishings 47 per cent. In reality, prices are still higher than these figures indicate because all but the shoddiest goods have been withdrawn in the lower-price brackets.

In the meantime, the rich took advantage of the war to shift a large part of taxes from themselves onto the workingman. After deducting tax increases, and then determining real wages on a 1939 basis, it can easily be shown that real wages today are below 1939.

Finally, WLB figures show that the productivity of labor in many large factories has risen by 25 per cent, and all this increased production has gone to the corporation. Since relative wages express labor's share in the value newly created, in relation to the share which falls to capital, it is obvious that relative wages have fallen sharply since 1939.

Profits after taxes in 1936-39 averaged 3.9 billion dollars. Last year, 1945, they had risen to 9.1 billion — an increase of 140 per cent.

Yet through their control of congress, the radio, and the daily press, these capitalists, whose own profits have gone up 140 per cent, have been able to convince the public that strike leaders asking for an 18 per cent raise are unreasonable monsters.

James Zarichny

P.S. All of my figures can be checked by the government bulletins in the library.

TO the Editor:

In the past weeks a rumor (we hope it is a rumor) has been circulating campus to the effect that the room and board bill in the dormitories is to be raised at some near date in the future.

We feel that the only fair position the administration can take is to inform the student

Court Decides Against Vets On Seniority

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—The Supreme court ruled today that the selective service act does not give returning veterans preferential or "super" seniority in their pre-war jobs.

A returning serviceman, said the court, steps back on the "seniority escalator" at just the point "he would have occupied had he kept his position continuously during the war."

6-1 Decision

"We would distort the language of this provision (Selective Service Act) if we read it as granting the veteran an increase in seniority over what he would have had if he had never entered the armed service," said the court's 6 to 1 opinion written by Justice Douglas.

The court also took these actions:

1. Ruled in two opinions that federal courts have authority to prevent eviction of tenants pending appeal taken under OPA regulations.

Other Action

2. Agreed to review the treason conviction of Hans Max Haupt, Chicago, father of one of the German saboteurs executed during the war. The elder Haupt was sentenced to life in prison.

3. Granted a request that it rule on constitutionality of the Hatch "clean politics" act in litigation arising from a U.S. Civil Service commission finding that Francis Davis violated the act by serving simultaneously as chairman of the Oklahoma State Democrat Central committee and State Highway commissioner.

War Contracts

4. Agreed to rule on constitutionality of the War Contracts Re-negotiating Act giving the government authority to recover "excessive profits" from contractors. A ruling was asked by the Aircraft and Diesel Equipment corporation, Chicago.

5. Permitted California to file a new, abbreviated answer to the justice department's suit seeking to establish federal rights to oil under off-shore land.

Report Of 'Some Progress' Comes Out From Coal Parley

Lawyers Believed to be Forming Contract

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug reported tonight that "some progress" had been made today toward an agreement with John L. Lewis and there was every sign that lawyers were preparing a draft of an actual agreement to end the stoppage.

Closing out six and a half hours of conferences during the day with the United Mine Workers leader, Krug as federal administrator of the seized mines sent word to reporters that attorneys for all parties would be "busy tonight working on the progress made."

To Draw Up Contract?

The lawyers seldom are called into such disputes before there has been a general meeting of minds bringing the issue down to details of putting the agreement into contract form.

A spokesman for Krug, however, declined to say definitely that a contract was being prepared.

Another meeting will be held in Krug's office tomorrow at 11 a.m.

Meantime, the stoppage in the mines, interrupted by a working truce that ended Saturday night, was again virtually complete.

Lewis Says Nothing

Lewis himself had nothing to say when tonight's four-hour session broke up at 7 p.m. He referred all questions to Krug, and would not even say whether he would be back tomorrow.

The government's tentative proposals for a contract to end the dispute which began March 12, were made to Lewis on Saturday.

Amount Not Disclosed

The amount of the wage increase outward indication that the UMW chief was doing anything except to resist stoutly all efforts to get him to send his 400,000 soft coal diggers back to the job.

Until that time there had been working truce which expired Saturday night, was in full effect.

Michigan Women Show Demand For Clothing Training Since War

The demand for clothing training by Michigan women is higher now than during the war years, according to Marjorie Eastman, clothing specialist in the home economics department.

Many women have turned to the sewing machine because of the problem of providing adequate and satisfactory clothing for the family, made difficult by high price and a scarcity of many items.

Last year 20 per cent more women took part in clothing lessons and demonstrations in home economics extension groups in Michigan than participated the year before. The trend shows an even greater demand this year.

Molotov Sees Anti-USSR Bloc By Britain, America

MOSCOW, May 27 (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov charged today that a British-American bloc was waging an offensive against Russia at the Paris conference of foreign ministers in a "desire to impose their will upon the Soviet Union."

In an exhaustive review of the four-power conference, published by the Communist newspaper Pravda, Molotov accused British-American attempts to bend all nations to its will, charged the existence of a desire in some circles to "dislodge the Soviet Union" from its place in international affairs, and asserted that advocates of imperialism in the west "are instigating new aggressive wars."

Molotov's article made these points: 1. The Soviet Union cannot accept U.S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes' proposal for a European peace conference unless British, Soviet, French and American foreign ministers complete preliminary drafts for European peace treaties.

2. Byrnes, by proposing ultimate reference to the United Nations of the Italian colonies question, should no solution be forthcoming from the foreign ministers, made an attempt "to utilize methods of pressure, threats and intimidation." Molotov said these methods were alien to normal relations between states.

3. The British and Americans formed a bloc "in their desire to impose their will upon the Soviet Union" because they did not want to reckon with the Soviet Union's demands, and thus frustrated the possibility of an agreed decision on reparations "well."

4. In proposing a 25-year pact of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union to insure the demilitarization of Germany, Byrnes made a "somewhat inaccurate statement" saying he had obtained Prime Minister Stalin's "consent in principle last December." Molotov said in December Byrnes had not as yet have the draft of such a treaty, and therefore Prime Minister Stalin's "consent" of a non-existent treaty could not have been given."

5. Byrnes' proposal for a separate peace conference on Germany next November was "all the more unexpected because previously neither Mr. Byrnes nor anyone else had made any proposals concerning a peace treaty."

Molotov said the big three declined to discuss the German question at Potsdam last July, after Stalin proposed some sort of central German administration.

"Naturally in such a situation Mr. Byrnes' proposal to convoke a conference to consider a peace treaty with Germany could not have been accepted at the Paris conference," Molotov said.

Board Clears Ship Doctors In Deaths

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—Deaths of eight GI babies who arrived here aboard the transport Zebulon B. Vance May 19 were not caused by "negligence or misconduct on the part of the vessel's medical staff" or by "unsanitary conditions aboard," an army inquiry board said tonight.

Meanwhile, the number of GI babies who have died in the past week rose to 10 as the port of embarkation disclosed a radiogram had been received from the transport John Ericsson advising that an infant on that vessel had died, evidently of suffocation.

The Ericsson reported three other babies were seriously ill. The ship is due here Thursday.

Forty-Six in Hospital

One baby which arrived on the S.S. Brazil died in Pittsburgh, Pa., last week. Forty-six infants from various brideships now are being treated at Fort Hamilton hospital in Brooklyn.

Col. Howard J. Hutter, port of embarkation surgeon, in a statement accompanying the inquiry board's preliminary report, said several of the mothers told them their children's diarrhea began before they boarded the Vance at Le Havre.

Hutter said the army had transported 24,413 war brides and 8,010 babies from Europe so far, with only 14 deaths among the infants.

Board Clears Doctors

The inquiry board, appointed by Maj. Gen. Frank Ross, commander of the port of embarkation, said its investigation indicated the Vance's medical staff "performed their duties in a conscientious and entirely satisfactory manner."

The vessel's hospital area, diet kitchen and formula kitchen were "scrupulously clean and well policed," the report said, adding that food and formula for the babies were prepared "according to modern sanitary technique."

Criticizes Mothers

"That the mothers were unfamiliar with modern techniques as applied to the feeding of infants was apparent since numerous unauthorized dispensers and pacifiers were removed from them and their use forbidden," the report continued.

"They did not always accept the advice and a break in the technique occurred which in all likelihood contributed to the spread of the infection."

Hutter said "the background of the infants reflects years of starvation and deprivation in war-torn Europe. A great many of the infants are badly fed, under-nourished and a ready prey along with the onset of summer to any type of symptoms."

Would that the race of women had never existed — except for me alone.

CHENEY, Wash., (ACP) — In a recent study of enrollment cards of Eastern Washington College of Education, the following statistics regarding student support were gathered: 100 per cent self supporting, 54 per cent; 75 per cent self supporting, nine per cent; 50 per cent self supporting, six per cent; 25 per cent self support, 13 per cent; 0 per cent self supporting 18 per cent.

Both men and women students hold a wide variety of jobs, ranging from baby-sitting to service station work. The college provides employment in clerical work in administrative offices and library. Students wait table and wash dishes in the dining hall. One of the most prominent girls on the campus is continuing the janitor work she undertook as a war service.

Many of the commuters hold proportion of honor students are full time jobs in Spokane. A high self supporting.

GI students at Kent State university (Kent, O.) who last year were standing sentry duty in the Ruhr and the Philippines, today are hiring out as "baby sitters" in their spare time.

Said one brawny ex-sergeant: "It's easy work unless you happen to get an ornery kid, and even that experience may come in handy some day. 'Course there's the money angle, too. A fellow can make up to 50 cents an hour and do his studying at the same time."

What do the mothers think of GI sitters?

"I'd rather have one than a girl," declared one Kent mother. "Girl sitters are too young and not always dependable. A veteran is very responsible, and in case something happened, I'd feel that he would know what to do."

"I like to have veterans watch my children at night because my little boy needs someone to 'talk tough' with him," said a mother of three children. "My kiddies like the vets and my husband and I want to help the boys earn a little extra money for their college expenses."

Tuesdays and Friday will be wheatless days on the Mount Holyoke campus as students tighten belts to help in the current food shortage. The wheatless days will be thoroughly wheatless, with breakfast cereals being substituted for toast at breakfast, and picnic bread allowances will be limited to two sandwiches per girl.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 27 (P) — Four more drivers qualified today for the 500-mile Memorial day race, leaving six places in the 33-car starting field to be filled tomorrow, the last day of qualifying runs.

Hal Robson of Huntington Park, Calif., made the day's best time, averaging 121.47 miles an hour for the 0 mile in his Phillips-Miller special. It is an 8-cylinder rear drive car.

A World War II hero, Zenon Budy Erdowski of Gary, Ind., who had sunk his savings in a semi-stock part racer and planned to drive it, today hired a driver who qualified.

The driver is Budgy Rush of Ruskin, Fla., a veteran of dirt tracks, who will drive for the first time on the big oval. He rode as a mechanic in the 1933 race.

Rush's qualifying speed averaged 116.26 miles an hour.

Bill Shettler of Los Angeles qualified his Offenhauser Special, averaging 120.61 miles an hour.

The twenty-seventh place was won by George Barringer of Indianapolis, a veteran driver. He averaged 120.62 miles an hour. His mount is the only rear-engine drive car in the race. It is powered by a 6-cylinder Miller motor.

Al Miller of Glandish, Mich., another of the veteran drivers, signed today with Jow Lencki, of Chicago, and will drive Lencki's six-cylinder car in the race, if he qualifies.

Roberts Hurls No-Hitter Kobsmen Beat Sailors

By JIM CARR

Robin Roberts stepped into the Spartan Hall of Fame Sunday afternoon when he pitched his Michigan teammates to an 8-0 no-hit victory over Great Lakes training station.

Setting the Sailors down without allowing them a hit, Roberts became the second Spartan in the history of Michigan State baseball to accomplish this feat. Jim

Zeke Vogt Named As Jayvee Hurler In Selfridge Tilt

Hopes of the Spartan Jayvees will be to duplicate Thursday's triumph over Selfridge field when the junior varsity squad meets the airmen on their home field this afternoon.

By trouncing the Selfridge field squad 10-4 at East Lansing last week, the Jayvees marked up their sixth triumph of the season. Coach Doc Manion is optimistic regarding today's contest and hopes to bring back State's seventh victory by making it two straight against Selfridge.

Seeking his fifth victory in six starts will be Cecil "Zeke" Vogt, Fowlerville freshman, who already holds one decision over the Mt. Clemens aggregation. Behind the plate for State will be Eddie Zbiack, Flint freshman, who has shown considerable promise in recent weeks, Coach Manion said.

Rain Delays Yankees' Arclight Game Plans

NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—A steady all-day rain today washed out the New York Yankees' first attempt to stage a night game.

The Yanks, who installed an expensive arclight system at the Yankee stadium during the winter and spring, were scheduled to meet the Washington Senators tonight and a crowd of over 60,000 was anticipated for the ceremonial inaugural. It was reported that more than 30,000 seats had been sold in advance for the contest.

Cindermen Take Fourth Place In Seventieth IC-4A Classic

Michigan State's air-borne cindermen piled up a total of 21 1/2 points, placing fourth among 33 squads participating in Saturday's IC-4A track and field competition at Annapolis.

The comforts of home proved to be of worth when the Midshipmen took first place in honors with their 36 5 28 points, and Navy was followed by Army and Dartmouth in that order.

Clearing 13 feet, Spartan Ted Wench led the field of vaulters and his teammate, Bob Vosburg, shared second place honors with Temple's contestant, at a height of 12 1/2 feet.

Naab Places Second

Four more points in the field events went to State when Leonard Naab placed second in the javelin with a throw of 187 1/2 feet.

State's Jim Fraser ran the fastest quarter mile of his career but was nose-cut by Navy's Bill Kash, the national collegiate 880 champion. Just two feet in front of Fraser at the tape, Kash's winning time of 1:48.6 was a tenth of a second ahead of Fraser's.

Mayhew in Hurdles

Harold Mayhew ran six races under the blistering sun to reach the finals which netted State two and one points in the high and low hurdles, respectively, for a sixth and fourth place in those events. Close finishes highlighted both hurdle races in the finals.

Lloyd Whetter, a freshman record holder, got the nod at the last minute from Coach Karl A. Schlademan to make the trip and ran the mile relay with Jim Gibbard, Al LaGrou and Frazer.

Mile Relay Third

The Spartan combination was clocked at 3:20.9 in this event, within three tenths of a second of the Michigan State record, to place behind Navy and Fordham. Ed Walsh from Manhattan, 1947.

Lyons Takes Over

Ted Lyons (above), veteran Chicago White Sox pitcher, succeeds Jimmy Dykes as manager of the Chicago club. Dykes resigned after serving 14 years with the club, 13 years as manager. Lyons joined the White Sox in 1923, coming directly from Baylor university.
