Shaughnessy Leads T-Minded Terrapins Against MSC Today

By CHUCK STRATTARD

It will be brewed for the fifth serving this season to Michigan State when Clark Shaughnessy, master of hipster, upper football, leads his Maryland university Terrapins into Mackin field at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

TODAY'S CAMPUS

Service

John Robinson, Grand Rapids, had his white shirt for a dance last night but it needed mending. His landlady, who was making use of all the laundry facilities, was appealed to the South Campbell switchboard operator, who contacted a counselor who appeared a road to help John out. He is happy to report that Gloria, a freshman from Grand Rapids, who finally took care of the shirt, will make someone a good friend.

International

The perplexed math student, who had his frustration on his mind, was told by a German, "The assignment is back with a red-penciled remark at the top, 'Je ne comprends.'" "Je ne comprends."

Nightmare

A North hall coed had a dream about a man in a blue uniform, in which she dreamed about a man who was to date that evening. In the dream, he asked her so severely that she awoke still angry with him. She still was angry when the date arrived at 7 that evening. At 10:30, the student walked away wondering what he had said. He had given him a parting glance and stalked wrathfully through the door.

Sammy's Coup

The Marquette game didn't need any living up, unless maybe it was on account of the weather. Sammy Vetter kept the alumnae section hepped-up with his antics in front of the west stands. A coup of the day, though, was running catch of an out-of-control punt, which he snatched out of the hands of the referee and raved up the audience — toward the Hilltoppers' goal line.

Kilroy Pickled

Kilroy was on the Michigan college campus yesterday, and an alert freshman almost caught the so far unseen character. James Morton of Muskegon, working on a book, dissected cat in Joe Lewis' Basic 111 class, picked up an opened cat liver and a formaldehyde smelling jar which said, "Kilroy was here."

No Class Today

Respected Prof. John Abbott, of the English department, was straggled at a loss for words when he arrived at his 10 o'clock class in Union annex yesterday to find the door to the classroom closed. A notice tacked on the door read: "This room out of order. The management." "Browied the management," growled Prof. Abbott. "Well, it doesn't look like I'm going to hold a class today, is it?" The class went home.

Number Attends Social Dance Classes

Over 250 students, in the beginning social dance classes, danced a small section of Bob Shinn's orchestra Wednesday evening in the Women's gymnasium. The classes will continue until 10. This party was sponsored by members of the dance department. Mrs. Margaret McKone and Mrs. Carol Goodale formed the revolving line which greeted the students as they entered the gym. Later in the evening, refreshments were served to the group.

U.S., British Upbraided By Molotov

Soviet Delegate
Asks Acceptance
Of Inventory Plan

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 22 (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov indirectly accused Great Britain today of attempts to settle a proposed United Nations troop inventory and rejected a British proposal to combine the troop census with discussion of Russia's four-point arms limitation plan.

He renewed his attack on the United States and Britain for maintaining troops in friendly countries, calling for an immediate troop inventory to clear the atmosphere and relieve world anxiety.

In climaxing an hour-long speech, Molotov asked to 54-nation Political and Security committee of the United Nations assembly to give unanimous approval to his own resolution which calls on all U.N. members to give figures on all their troops in both enemy and non-enemy states.

This prompted Senator Tom Connally (D-Tex.), American delegate to the committee, to declare to newsmen after the meeting that "the United States has no hesitancy in revealing complete information on its armed forces wherever they may be stationed, whether abroad or at home."

Both Connally and Philip Noel-Baker, British representative, will undoubtedly answer the Russian foreign minister at the next committee meeting sometime next week, spokesmen for the two delegations said. A meeting scheduled for tomorrow was cancelled at the request of the U.S. delegation to give the Americans and British a chance to talk things over.

MSC Facultyman To Make Survey In South America

Dr. Charles P. Loomis, head of the department of sociology and anthropology, is in charge of a mission to Bolivia, Peru, Ecuador and Paraguay to study the possibilities of relocation of European refugees in that continent.

The mission is under the direction of the Intergovernmental Committee of Refugees, sponsored by 36 countries.

Loomis has previously made extensive studies of the Latin American countries.

Dr. C. R. Hoffer, associate professor of sociology and anthropology, will act as head of the department during Loomis' absence.

Taber Seen Budget Cut

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP) — Reduction of federal expenditures in the next fiscal year by $12,000,000,000 — $3,000,000,000 more than his previous estimate — was declared to be feasible today by Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.).

Taber is to become chairman of the House appropriations committee in January.

Ag Men Crown Harvest Queen

Army Boosts Officer Quota

Commissioned strength of the Regular Army is being raised to 50,000, Colonel John L. Whitelaw, ROTC commandant, announced yesterday.

Under Public law 670-79 of Congress, application for a commission may be made before Dec. 31, 1946, by any male citizen who saw active service as a commissioned officer between Dec. 7, 1941 and Dec. 31, 1945.

Appointments will be made in grades from Second lieutenant to Major, with two choices of branch of service. Proper age for the grade must be attained before date of application and men who have credit for more than 23 years of service or have reached their 48th birthday are ineligible.

Application forms may be procured from the ROTC office in demonstration hall. They should be filled out in triplicate and forwarded to appropriate army commander. In this area the addressee is Commanding General Fifth Army, Chicago, Ill.

New Rules Announced For Posters In Union

Leslie W. Scott, manager of the Union, announced today that in the future the information posters which occupy the upper deck of the Union will be reduced to 12 by 14 inch size and enclosed in the glass case near the grill.

This will offer protection to the posters which in the past have been mutilated and lost due to the crowded conditions during rush hours.

Orchestra Dancers Stage Program For Initiates

For the benefit of active members of Orchestra, women's modern dance honorary, and the women in the try-out groups, and others just interested in dance, Orchestra members held a party in the Forester's cabin Thursday evening. Several faculty members of the Physical Education department were present.

Square dances were held during the evening with Rhea Yerkey, Goodrich sophomore, and Miss Kuehl calling the dances. Later in the evening the group gathered to compose words to an original tune written by a former accompanist to Orchestra, Miss Phyllis Lightfield.

Refreshments were served, and a short dance program was put on by several of the active members. Pat Kinney, Detroit student, danced a country girl number. Rhea Yerkey, and Carmen Strawn, Charlotte senior, danced a comic number, entitled "Ruh-Rah Sportan," and Carol Marshall, Grand Rapids, junior, and Nancy Rodd, Grand Rapids, sophomore, performed a boogie number.

Senior Ball Committees Announced

Name Band Sought
For Annual Dance
Slated In March

Plans for the 1947 Senior ball will get under way Tuesday when General Chairman Don MacPhail of Detroit meets with his committee heads on the Union sun porch at 8. Class President Glenn Dietert has announced.

Date for the graduating class dance is set at March 7. As yet no band has been contracted, but Gene Krupa, Elliot Lawrence, and other big name outfits are under consideration.

Ticket Committee Members

MacPhail stated Iggy Konrad, varsity wrestling star from Cleveland, and Herb Hoover of East Lansing, will head the ticket committee. They will be aided by Bob Curr, Almont; Ted Gordon, Monroe; Doris Pick, Grosse Pointe; and Polly Wells, East Lansing.

For decorations Bill Carlson of Ingleswood, N. J., and Pat Bolander, Lapeer, will be co-chairmen, with Bill Monroe, Lansing; Al Ludwig, Detroit; Nancy Wyngard, East Lansing; Sue Littlefield, Eaton Rapids; Lillian Radke, Grosse Pointe; Dick Weir, Birmingham, and Fran Knopp, aiding them.

Program Supervisors

Programs will be handled by Chairman Joe Nelson, Buffalo, N. Y.; Lou Closs, Painted Point, N. Y.; Jane Mathews, Pontiac; Bob Peterson, Manistee; Mary Eppelheimer, Charlotte; Phyllis Downer, Flint; and Tom Baird, Grand Ledge.

Detroit Marie Matte is in charge of patrons and invitations and her committee consists of Doris Dickie, Durand, and June Saxon, Egan, Ill.

Webster's Rain Incognito Ushers In Old Man Winter

What you saw yesterday morning when you leaped gingerly out of bed for that eight o'clock were not spots before your eyes. It was the year's first East Lansing snow fall.

For some foreign students it was a big day in their lives — the first time they'd ever seen the stuff. For old Michiganers it was a fond warning that we're in for a hard winter and now is the time to drag out the red flannels.

Frost Memories

Among veterans of the European theater, war stories were being bandied about concerning the snow they ran into in Italy, France and Germany.

The grounds division of Buildings and Utilities will swing into action when the slush begins to B & U Goes To Work.

Carl Zeigler, working for B&U, stated that two tractors with five-foot wide revolving brushes, will take off on clean sweeps of their respective routes which cover every major sidewalk on campus.

Hand shovellers take care of building entrances and dormitory sidewalks which are inaccessible to the motor driven cleaners.

Union Will Serve Spontaneous Dinner On Thanksgiving

For all of those students and faculty members (guests included) who will remain on campus and have been pondering the question as to where to eat their Thanksgiving Dinner, your pondering is over.

The Union cafeteria will open Thanksgiving day to serve a real special dinner between the hours of 12:30 and 1:30 p.m.

21 States Will Dimout Monday As Coal Strike Eats Into Production

WKAR Begins Talent Search For 'Varieties'

With plans for WKAR's newest show, "Spartan Varieties" still in the blueprint stage, Larry Frymire, program director of the station, is in the midst of a hunt for all manners of student talent to partake in the program.

Frymire stated that all styles of entertainers are needed; comedians, story readers, and all types of vocalists, including choral groups, quartets, trios and others.

Fraternity Groups Requested

He pointed out that social directors of fraternities, sororities, and other organizations would be doing themselves and their clubs a favor by unearthing any talent, and at the same time facilitate the planning of the program. He urged all persons interested in the show to contact him by calling either 488 or 489, and making an appointment for an audition.

"Spartan Varieties" will be a half hour show, originating from the Union ballroom every Saturday at 4 p.m., in conjunction with the Union Board's party-party, which isn't double talk at all, but merely a convenient way of describing the Saturday afternoon tea at the Union.

Congratulation of Entertainment

It can best be described as several parties rolled into one, with dancing, card games, checkers and other entertainment going on at the same time.

This year will mark the third consecutive season that the program has been presented. Present plans call for the first show to be presented the second Saturday of winter term.

In urging students to apply for auditions, Frymire pointed out that several fine vocal groups had been developed through this program during the past years, and that similar opportunities existed this season.

High School Leaders Will Meet Former Students Tomorrow

Principals of other representatives of at least 205 Michigan high schools will visit Michigan State college today, to confer with their former students now enrolled at MSC. Registrar Robert S. Linton announced.

Freshmen whose former principals have accepted the invitation will be notified starting at 9:30 a. m.

Norwegian To Address Christian Student Club

Andreas Schanke, from Norway, will speak on Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Student parlors of the Peoples church. Schanke is in America on a two-month's tour of college campuses. Following academic interests in history, English, and Norwegian, he graduated from the University of Oslo, is a former teacher, and during the war one of the leaders of the resistance movement.

A year ago he became a member of the staff of the World's Student Christian federation and his trip to Michigan State is being sponsored by the Inter-faith council of MSC.

International Relations Club Hears Discussion Of France's Politics

France and her role as mediator between eastern and western European powers was discussed by Georges Joyaux at a meeting of the International Relations club this week. He emphasized the importance of developing unity between France and the United States through education.

A Parisian himself, Joyaux is pursuing graduate work in literature and history at MSC. During the war, while teaching at Nice, France, he worked with the French underground.

Congressmen Ask Special Session; Lewis Appears Ready For Showdown

By The Associated Press

A drastic dimout for 21 states, effective Monday, was ordered by the Civilian Production administration Friday night as the soft coal strike began eating into the country's industrial production.

While the government pressed its legal fight to punish John L. Lewis for the walk-out of his 400,000 AFL United Mine workers, the CPA issued orders, effective at 6 p.m. Monday, curtailing the use of non-essential electrical power in localities deriving electricity from coal.

States affected included Michigan, Illinois, and Indiana.

The regulations prohibit the use of electricity for air conditioning refrigeration except to the extent essential for industrial processes or for health and safety, for outdoor advertising, for outdoor display and floodlighting except to the extent necessary for the conduct of outdoor business or services.

Reductions were ordered in street lighting and for unessential outdoor and indoor signs.

Propose Use of Gas

The House Surplus Property committee, meanwhile, in a move obviously prompted by the coal strike called for a hearing on the possible emergency use of the "big inch" and little pipe lines to carry natural gas to ease the coal shortage.

Chairman Slaughter (D-Mo.) set a hearing for Monday. He said he was informed the Tennessee Gas and Transmission company could begin pushing Texas gas to the East coast within 30 days after receiving a "go-ahead" signal.

Layoffs Begin

The first scattered layoffs were reported in industries dependent on coal for continued operations and industry spokesmen predicted the number of unemployed would swell into the millions if the dispute were prolonged.

However, ODT Director J. Monroe Johnson announced a planned embargo on rail freight traffic would be postponed "for several days." Existing coal stocks available to railroads, he said, made immediate action unnecessary.

Meanwhile, clamor for a special session of Congress to deal with the coal situation continued on Capitol hill and Rep. Hoffman (R-Mich.) proposed suspension of the Wagner act "until the miners go back to work."

Lewis gave every indication he was ready for a showdown legal tussle with the government when he accepted, without comment, a court summons to answer a contempt charge earlier, he will go on trial before a special federal court jury Wednesday.

Clinic Open To Campus Wives

Although Michigan stands well up on the list of states with the lowest infant death rates, there is room for improvement, according to a statement issued by Mrs. Robert S. Breakley of the Lansing Planned Parenthood committee, which seeks to assist the safe, healthy birth of every infant, through medical methods of child spacing.

The Planned Parenthood League of Michigan was organized in 1921 to provide married women with medical information; they need to plan their families in accordance with their health and economic circumstances.

The Lansing clinic is located at 510 N. Washington Ave. and has been open since Oct. 1934. It is one of 24 clinics now operating in Michigan which are open to all married women who do not have access to private medicine. No one is turned away because of inability to pay the nominal clinic fees.

Think For Yourself

Some persons seem willing to accept political platforms or donate to worthy causes merely on the word of an illustrious personage out of "Who's Who." They reason that if Mr. Prominent Citizen says something is good, it MUST be good. Advertisers use the same technique in publicizing products with endorsements and testimonials.

Too often too many people fall into this line of reasoning, sometimes with disastrous consequences. Quacks and peer-advocates capitalize on it. As P. T. Barnum once said: "There's a sucker born every minute."

This is not to say that there aren't good political platforms or worthy causes. But one should look into them and judge them on their own merits, rather than relying on someone else's word, even though that "Somebody" may be a high and mighty.

Wake up, you gullibles, and start thinking for yourselves.

TRAILER TALK

By IRMA FEICHTINGER

Mote men are needed for work on the Camp store if it is to be ready before winter sets in. There is a great saving by doing the work yourselves. Jensen and Fisher will be waiting at the building on Kalamazoo St. on Thursday from 1 to 6 p.m.

Watch for announcements of the Wives Club meetings on the attractive posters placed at various points on the campus and trailer service buildings. There is always something new going on in the club. The next general meeting will be on Tuesday, December 2.

The new Red Cross home nursing courses will start next week. Section X will meet on Wednesdays and Fridays, and Section J on Tuesdays and Thursdays for six sessions.

The Motor Corps provides transportation to and from classes, and is on hand for any emergencies. If necessary, a baby-sitter will be provided.

Please see Marian Fisher in D-21 if you haven't already signed up.

Harry Montayne had to renge on the promised venison dinner. It seems the deer he had stalked out, chewed through the rope and left a note saying "Thank you, see you next year for more oats and hay."

Hayrides, Dances, Informal Parties Brighten Tonight's Social Schedule

After last night's sophomore mixer in the Women's gym, the social lights may be dimmer tonight, but there are more of them. Spartans who couldn't crowd into the big dance will find a copious amount of parties, hayrides and dances scheduled for tonight's date life.

After the game Mason-Abbot will hold parties in their dorm lounges for residents and their guests. The Kappa Deltas have invited their fathers to come to the game this afternoon and to dinner at their house afterwards.

Campbell Holds Term Dance

North and South Campbell will hold their term party tonight in the dorm lounges. Theme of the dance decorations will be the "Village." Jimmy Shafer and his orchestra will provide music for dancing from 9 to 12.

Joe Davidson announced that the Lambda Chi Alphas will stage an informal dance in the Union hall room.

Sigma Chi Dances in Jackson

Sigma Chi held an intra-province dance, the first of its kind in the Hotel Hayes, in Jackson last night, social chairman, Bill Stewart, announced.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilons will hold a hard times party tonight according to social chairman, Ted Corson. Dates for the affair will be picked up in haywagons at their residents early in the evening.

The Christian Student Foundation will hold a Thanksgiving party in the student parlors of the Peoples church. Patrons will be Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reading and Rev. and Mrs. E. McCool.

Dancing in Forestry Cabin

Erwan Clark announced that Club 323 will hold a party and dance in the forestry cabin tonight for members and their guests.

The Sanford Cason will hold their term party in their home tonight. At the same time the second floor of West Mayo will hold a hayride and dance for their guests with Miss Sue Averill and Miss Shirley Caswell and guest as patrons.

Fraternities Stage Parties

Delta Sigma Phi staged their term party at the chapter house last night, stated Robert Ramsey, social chairman. Bill Jennings announced the Sigma Nu will hold a radio party tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Pez and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Ferguson will be patrons.

The Lutheran honorary Gamma Delta will sponsor a hayride at Mr. Geisenhoff's farm tonight.

Sunday dances will wind up with a skating party sponsored by the Newman Club at the Palomar Roller rink. The party will take place from 2:30 to 4:30 for all Newman club members and friends. Diana Berberian, Lansing junior, will give a 15 minute exhibition for entertainment.

Art Prof Enters Work In Exhibit

Louis B. Rayner, new ceramist in the art department, has entered two designs and sketches and a large free form bowl in the Annual National Ceramic exhibition at the Syracuse museum in New York. The bowl is executed in heavy brick clay with a coarse low fired glaze which is characteristic of otherwise modern trends in pottery.

A large collection of Rayner's pottery was featured at the October exhibition of faculty artists' work in the art gallery in the Music building. He did undergraduate work in ceramics at Alford university in New York, a school which includes the most artist pottery ceramic division in the country.
