British Seek To Terminate Food Strikes

Troops Replace Truck Drivers

LONDON, Jan. 13 (AP)—Britain's labor government and employer and union representatives hurriedly set up new negotiating machinery to-night in an effort to end a mushrooming series of strikes threatening vital food distribution.

In a series of night meetings called by the Ministry of Labor both employers and union representatives agreed to confer early tomorrow to draft a charter for immediate reconsideration of workers' demands.

Labor Gets Mad

This development came as the government's use of troops to replace 21,000 striking truck drivers brought an angry reaction from labor union members throughout the country. There was some fear that sympathy walkouts in London and other British cities would grow to general strike proportions.

The labor dispute began a week ago when the truck drivers walked out. They demanded a 44-hour week, overtime pay after eight hours daily and other concessions. Their present pay is approximately $20 a week.

Sends Troops

In an effort to break a meat famine resulting from the truck drivers' strike, the government sent in troops today to get the trucks rolling.

Within a few minutes seven thousand workers in London's wholesale food markets, porters, shopmen and laborers walked out in sympathy with the truck drivers and other sympathy strikes began in London and other parts of Britain.

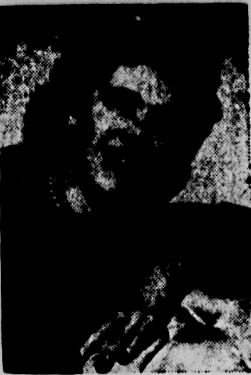

Employers were summoned for the first talks with R. M. Goud, Chief Industrial Commissioner of the Labor Ministry. Union representatives were on hand at the ministry for the second phase of the consultations.

Still in Dark

After the talks had been in progress for two hours there still was no hint of what proposals the government was making to halt the strikes. Labor Minister George Isaacs joined in the talks.

Soprano Star Sings Tonight In Finale

The singing voice that made "Porgy and Bess" a musical success will present a second concert tonight in College Auditorium when soprano Anne Brown will make her final MSC appearance. Tickets are still available on the lower deck of the Union.

Last night's performance included "Mam' Zelle Zizi," "City Called Heaven" (Luna-companion), and "Rucuerdo." Lawrence Stevens, pianist, played two preludes by Gerwin, "Allegro ben ritmato e deciso" and "Andante con moto e poco rubato."

For tonight's performance, Miss Brown will sing "L'abbezzato" (Brahms), "Air de Lia (L'Enfant prodigue)" (Debussy), "Mam' Zelle Zizi" (Creole folk song), "I'm Goin' To Tell God All My Troubles" (Negro spirituals), "The Drooping Corn" (Rachmaninoff), and "War Ich Nicht Ein Halm" (Tschakovsky).

Stewart, Kerbury Attend Meeting

Glen O. Stewart, Director of alumni relations and Nick Kerbury, Sports Publicity director, will leave Lansing Thursday for Minneapolis, Minnesota where they will attend the annual meeting of the Michigan State Alumni Club of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

On Saturday afternoon both Stewart and Kerbury will speak to the club at its meeting in the Continuation Study building on the University of Minnesota campus.

Harry K. Wrench, 18, president of the Minneapolis Gas Co., is president of the club and will be in charge of the meeting.

The group will attend the Minnesota-MSU basketball game on Saturday night.

Group Seeks Student View On Concerts

APO'S To Run Poll For Information

A survey of student opinion on the college lecture-concert series will be conducted this week by Alpha Phi Omega, men's national service fraternity, president Elliot Fritz has announced.

Ask Suggestions

The poll will give students an opportunity to express their views on the concerts and lectures presented. Students will also be able to make suggestions for improving or changing the series.

A questionnaire will be printed in the State News on Wednesday. Among the specific questions to be included are, concerts desired, lecturers desired, and the number of times the student has been unable to obtain tickets for performances. Students will also be asked to make any comments or criticisms of the lecture-concert series.

Crowd Will Use

Dean S. E. Crowe, director of the series, will use the information obtained from the questionnaires in planning the program for 1947-1948.

Boxes will be placed on campus for the collection of the questionnaires, or they may be sent to the Alpha Phi Omega office where the results will be tabulated.

Take Your Pick

Spartans Will Get Chance To Pick Favorite Band

A contest to determine State's favorite big name bands will be conducted this week by the MSC Jazz club. Students will vote Thursday, Friday and Saturday on ballots printed in the State News.

Besides naming two bands, the most popular swing and sweet, music enthusiasts will elect ballads for male and female vocalists, small instrumental combinations, and jazz soloists. Ballots will be collected in designated boxes in campus buildings and results will be published in Tuesday's paper.

Two APO's Attend Missouri Meeting

Two MSC student members of Alpha Phi Omega were delegates to the service fraternity's ninth national convention in Kansas City, Mo. recently.

Charles Davis, Rockville Center, N. Y., sophomore, and Brewster Broder, Detroit sophomore, were accompanied by H. C. Barnett of the Foreign Language department and Tom Weber, formerly with WKAR.

Waber, a life member of MSC's Beta Beta chapter, was elected to a four year term on the executive council of the national APO.

Gets Big Job

Ollie White, Cleveland senior, will have his hands full tonight. White, guard on the Spartan cage team, will share the responsibility of holding down Notre Dame's high-scoring forwards with Don Waldron, Milwaukee freshman.

Spartan Wins Speech Contest

With his speech "U. S. - Russian Relations," Howard Clark, Niles senior, won the State Extemporaneous Speaker's contest at Kalamazoo college Friday night.

Clark's victory marked the second consecutive year a Spartan has taken first place honors in the annual contest which is sponsored by the Michigan Inter-collegiate Speech League.

Rose Mary Phillips, Red Axe junior, also placed high in the contest. Speaking on "Lacerte Delinquency," she advanced to the finals before being eliminated.

By virtue of his triumph, Clark is now eligible for the national convention sponsored by Pi Kappa Delta which will be held at Bowling Green, Ohio, in April.

Fashion School Offers Three Fellowships To Collegiate Women

Three $850 fellowships, covering a full year's tuition, are now being offered to senior women by the Tobe-Coburn School for Fashion Careers. Tobe-Coburn has been for years, one of New York's leading schools for those desiring training in fields of fashion coordination, merchandising, advertising and personnel.

In addition each of the fellowship winners will select a suit and hat from the fall collections of such well known designers as Hattie Carnegie, Lilly D. che, and Nettie Rosenstein.

All senior women are eligible. Application blanks, which must be mailed in by January 31, and any other pertinent information may be obtained from Tomiko Inouye at 4-2088.

Record Attendance Expected For Tilt; Irish Favored

By RED LAWSON

Michigan State's basketball fans will be treated to one of the top games of the year tonight as the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame invade Jenison fieldhouse for their traditional tilt with the Spartans. Tip-off for the contest, considered a natural, is set for eight o'clock with a record crowd expected.

Blue Key Ball, Tapping Set For Jan. 24

Final plans are being made for the annual Blue Key Sweetheart ball to be held Friday, January 24 in the Union ballroom. As yet, however, no band has been selected.

Sponsored by Blue Key, national junior and senior men's service honorary, the Sweetheart ball has always been a highlight of the year's social activities. Because of the war, it has not been held since 1944.

Presentation of the new sweetheart and tapping of the new members into Blue Key will take place during the evening of dancing.

At the present time there are 13 members in the group and no indication has been made as to how many will be tapped at the ball. More than 450 applications have been sent out to those men who are eligible.

In addition to a junior or senior standing, a candidate must have above the all-college average in grades. Further qualifications are determined by the men's participation in all-college activities, organizations, and athletics.

Posies Friday

The question of whether flowers will be permitted at the IFC-Pan Hel dance Friday night will be discussed at the Student council meeting tomorrow. Tom Loring, council president has announced. First it will have to be decided whether the dance will be considered an open affair or closed by the number of tickets that have been sold by that time. No flowers are permitted at open dances.

Unit Discloses Term Program

Registration opens today at the Red Cross desk in the Union lobby for courses in home nursing, first aid, staff assistance and accident prevention. Irma Dennis Miskimovich, chairman of the college unit, announced yesterday.

An extensive program has been set up for this term. The course will last for five weeks. Each will meet one day a week, the day to be designated at the time of registration.

A speaker from St. Louis will be presented by the chapter later in the term. His topic, Junior Red Cross, will be of special interest and benefit to elementary education majors and other future teachers.

The college unit is also carrying on its work for the men in Percy Jones hospital. It is arranging with every house on campus to entertain a group of vets one night of the term.

Language Staff Adds Two New Members; Departmental Heal

Hermann H. Thornton, former professor of Romance languages at Oberlin College in Ohio is now assuming his position as head of the department of foreign languages at MSC. He was appointed in the fall of 1946 and took a leave of absence to do research at Columbia U.

Mrs. Jacob Hielbe and Mrs. Werner Bohnstedt have been appointed to teach German and conversational German respectively.

Mrs. Hielbe is a graduate of Manchester College and University of Wisconsin.

Sororities List Fall Averages; Chi O's Win

Chi Omega topped the list of sorority scholarship with a 1.76 average for fall term, equalling a record made by Alpha Gamma Delta sorority spring term. According to the list of sorority averages for fall term released by the Council of Women's office, Alpha Gamma Delta received second place with an average of 1.69 and Pi Beta Phi placed third with a 1.64 average.

The all-sorority average, including pledges and natives of the Greek groups is 1.59. This is slightly lower than that of spring term, which was 1.6.

Other sororities placed as follows: Delta Zeta, 1.69, Alpha Phi, 1.68, Kappa Kappa Gamma, 1.68, Zeta Tau Alpha, 1.6.

Included are Delta Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega, 1.57, Alpha Omicron Pi, 1.53, Kappa Alpha Theta, 1.52, and Kappa Delta, 1.5.

Sigma Kappa, 1.46, Gamma Phi Beta, 1.36, and Alpha Xi Delta, 1.35, rounded the list.

The pledge averages were consistently below those of the active members of each sorority with the exception of Delta Zeta.

TODAY'S CAMPUS

His New High

The spirit of cooperation has hit new high at Michigan State. Answering a desperate call for a textbook, "Modern Business English," Jerry Smith, Lansing senior, showed up with one at the Journalism office. He was offered cash on the line for the book, but Smith declined the greenbacks. Instead, he offered to lend the book for the term.

Girls Will Eat

Someone has finally taken bread in his hands and conceived a scheme to alleviate the hunger pangs of dorm hungry girls after 10 p.m. A sandwich service is in the embryo stage, but it promises a temporary nutritious sandwich for every customer around 10:30 Thursday through Saturday nights. So far the list of subscribers is short, but after 30 a rush is expected.

Time In Time

Monday night a collegiate couple sat on the College-Fisher bus being driven by one of the professors. The couple had class with one of the professors and they exchanged greetings while the boyfriend was paying the driver. Suddenly they were interrupted by the flustered court. "Do you have four pennies or a nickel? I have only six and a twenty dollar bill," he asked the girl. The professor overheard and said, "I know your girlfriend, Fred had her name." The red-headed youngster blushed. As he went to the window to get turned to the girl.

The meeting was addressed by Senator Nowalk, of Detroit, Richard Leonard, international vice-president of the UAW-CIO, and E. Cyril Reven, Democratic national committeeman.

Students Lead Normal College Life

Helping Hands Point Way For Blind

By SYLVIA STANIK

In the basement of the southeast corner of the library is a room symbolizing the valiant efforts of a small group of students to carve a position for themselves in the world. The sign on the door of that room says, "Reading Room for the Blind."

Carrying such courses as anatomy and LFA, the adjustment of the eight blind students on campus to college life is remarkable.

Three Graduate

Three will be graduated this year: Rose Alice Terry of Flint, Gertrude Letson of Lansing and Harry C. Haight of Grand Rapids. Rose is a sociology major. She hopes to teach but is thinking first of taking her master's at Oberlin College for the Blind iversity of Pennsylvania. She lives in South Campbell.

Take Bus

Because Grace can see a little, she takes the bus alone to and from her home in Lansing. She wants to work at rehabilitation of the blind after graduation in social service.

Harry's interest is in speech correction. He lives at the Hedrick Co-op house putting in six hours of work a week like all members. When asked what his job usually is, Harry laughs and displays dishwasher hands.

The undergraduate students are studying a variety of majors. Jim Shaker, Flint junior, is interested in law. Eva June Cullen, Rochester sophomore, is a social science major, while Paul Deane, Rochester junior, is in the Anna Belle Lawson, Dowagiac sophomore, is under the school of business and public service, and Leonard Ecker, Lawwood sophomore is a journalism major.

All are graduates of the School for the Blind in Lansing.

Their highly developed memory and sense of hearing aids them to lead a normal life. They are often assisted to classes by students who happen to be going in the same direction, but can find the room unaided after being taken there once.

Not leaving everything to their memories they take notes in class by using a Braille punchboard. All tests are taken orally from students appointed to give the test by the instructor.

lege point averages ranging between one and two, most nearer two.

Weekends find the blind students attending movies, concerts, and dances.

As it is impossible to have a complete Braille library on campus, text book assignments are read to them in the reading room by volunteer readers. The room is especially adapted to this use, said Jackson E. Towne, head librarian, as it is the only one in the building that does not carry an echo.

Ruth Sonnegge, Muskegon, Tower Guard chairman of reading to the blind, reports 33 Tower Guards put in an average of three hours a week reading. There is, however, need for more volunteers from the general student that which he may deem fatal to the best interests of the organization which he is charged with leading and protecting. If any type of compulsion is more obnoxious to all that is held dear in a democratic society, we do not know what it is."

The court will hear arguments tomorrow from counsel for Lewis sued by Federal Judge T. Alan and the government over the legality of the restraining order, is Goldsborough, and the temporary injunction which followed it and is now in force. ## HERMIE SAYS—

It's Going To Be Rough

By TOM RIORDAN

SECURE EQUIPMENT. GET YOUR PERSONAL stuff in order. This is it. It's "Operations Irish." Thousands of sturdy Spartans will be pouring across the Red Cedar tonight in an invasion that will top all invasions ever seen around East Lansing.

There will be early chow and troops will start forming around 11-Hour minus two. Infiltrating will start then with a number of hand-picked dined-in-the-wool hardwood fans scattering about Jenison fieldhouse in strategic locations.

These first few hardies will be loaded down with special equipment, not usually seen at collegiate basketball affairs. There will be a regular complement of cribbage boards and decks of cards. Some of the invaders will man text books. The latter are of the more optimistic set.

More will pour over the narrow, but strategic Cedar for the next hour until the main objective is loaded. Just before 11-Hour, which will be 2000, the "brass" with comfortable reserved seats will make their appearance on the scene.

LAST WINTER WHEN the power-hungry Irishmen from Notre Dame met State here an all-time attendance record was set at 9,760. That night students started filling the fieldhouse two hours before game time, playing cards, cribbage and a few studying.

This winter with increased seating facilities, Lyman L. Frimodig, the man who worries about tickets for athletic events, states that 11,000 spectators can be handled. It had been hoped more new bleachers would be ready for Notre Dame, but they're not here yet.

However, a new attendance mark is a family going to be set this evening. So make a last check of equipment and be sure that you have your first and packet. "Operations Irish" is going to be rough.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR
Repressive labor legislation has had its ominous effect in history. By using injunctions, lockouts, open shop, seals, yellow dog contracts, company police and terrorism of the black and brown shirts of fascism, the anti-labor crusade spread the iron heel upon millions of working people.

Without the right to strike, labor is a slave to a master. As a consequence, he is forced to work at lower wages, longer hours, in hazardous working conditions and at the mercy of an unsatisfied employer. This is what is being proposed in the form of amendments to the NLRB and the Case Bill by Senator Ball.

To those who have succumbed to the hypnotic exorcism of the NAM and the anti-labor press, let us heed Abraham Lincoln's speech at New Haven Conn. March 1860. He said, "I am glad to see a system of labor prevails in New England under which laborers can strike when they want to. One of the reasons why I am opposed to slavery is just here."

To those feeling that labor is unjustified without considering monopoly capital's restraining hand, Lincoln in his annual message to congress, Dec. 3, 1861, emphasized that "labor is prior to and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor, and could never have existed if labor had not first existed. Labor is the superior of capital and deserves much the higher consideration."

Oscar Kwassnick

TO THE EDITOR

The recent legislation by the faculty of MSC with the approval and aid of the Student Council has resulted in a nearly chaotic condition in the system of cutting classes. This understanding was not the result desired by either group.

However, since it appears that individual faculty members are so widely diversified in their opinions as to what constitutes proper attention to the attending of classes, might it not be better to have a set policy by each department?

A general minimum attendance requirement of a more liberal nature should be the basis for the governing policies of these individual departments.

This in our opinion would not defeat the program of a more liberal cut system as is desired by MSC students.

Democratic Senators Seek Aid To Block Committees

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Democratic organization in the Senate opened a drive today for sufficient insurgent Republican votes to block continuation of two special committees of the old Congress.

The object is to defeat resolutions for extension of the special war investigating committee and the Senate small business committee, when the vote comes Wednesday.

Some Democrats think they can beat the resolutions.

This view was bolstered by Republican Senator Morse of Oregon, who said on the senate floor today that he "suspects" the votes are not available to continue both committees. He said he looks for some sort of a compromise.

The vote already is shaping up along general party lines, although the Democrats are prepared for two or three defections which they hope they can more than counterbalance by raids on the Republican ranks. The Republicans outnumber the Democrats, 51 to 44.

Republican advocates of extending the committees argue that the groups are familiar with the problems involved, have a lot of unfinished business, and can complete the work more efficiently.

More than one of the 15 standing committees which would lack experience.

The Democratic organization contends that continuation of the special committees would violate the spirit of the congressional reorganization law, which reduced the number of standing Senate committees from 33 to 15.

The Democrats picked up open support from Republican Senator Tobey (NH). In a Senate speech Tobey declared that continuation of the special committees would "promote confusion, waste and inefficiency."

Senator Brewster (R. Me.) heads the war investigating committee. Senator Wadsworth (R. Neb.) is slated for the small business post.

The continuation resolutions are on the Senate calendar awaiting action. The Republican policy committee, in a morning meeting, voted to support a one-year extension for the war investigating committee and eight months for the small business group.

However, in view of today's objections, the Republican membership as a whole delayed its decision until after a meeting tomorrow afternoon.

U.S., British Will Insist On 'A' Talk

UN Delegates Look For U.S.-Red Tiff

NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (AP)—

Authoritative sources said today that Great Britain will support the United States in insisting that atomic energy control be given priority over general disarmament if there is a showdown with Russia in the United Nations Security Council.

Russia is insisting that "all phases" of world disarmament be taken up immediately by the 11-nation security body. She is opposed to giving priority to atomic energy control.

Top Consideration

The United States argues that atomic energy control should be given top consideration on the grounds that if there is an international system of protection from atomic weapons, the problem of lesser weapons should not prove insurmountable.

Delegates believed the basic argument between Russia and the U.S. over priority for atomic energy control or general disarmament may be resolved when the security council meets Wednesday at 11 a.m. (EST).

Albanian Dispute

Meanwhile, council members examined a voluminous file submitted by Great Britain in her dispute with Albania over the Corfu channel blasts which killed 44 British sailors. The case is not expected to be taken up by the council before Friday.

Official British sources explained they did not want to disrupt the disarmament discussions to hear the case but believed it could be handled concurrently without any confusion.

These sources said they were just as anxious as the Americans that immediate action be taken on the arms limitation program.

British Support

One high British source said Britain would support the U.S. in demanding that atomic energy control be given top priority if there should be a showdown on the issue with Russia.

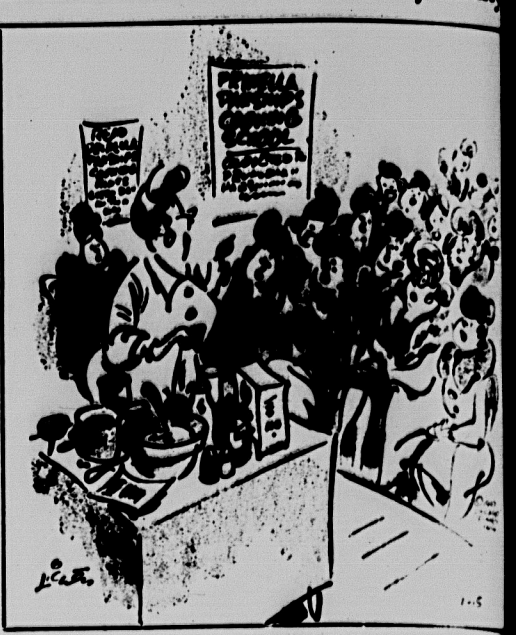

He added, however, that the British delegation felt that disarmament program could be acted upon simultaneously with the atomic energy control question.

Months of Work

"We certainly don't want to sidetrack the atomic energy control problem," this source said, "and we don't believe that Russia is trying to sidetrack it by insisting that all phases of disarmament should be taken up immediately. We think there are months and months of work ahead in both fields."

MSC Relays To Feature Top Runners

Nation's Finest Thineads Here For Feb. 8 Meet

Followers of track will get chance to see some of the finest performers of the winter paths next month when Michigan State plays host to the annual 1 Michigan State relay.

Spartan coach Karl Schladehann stated yesterday that six Big Ten teams, Notre Dame, University of Texas, Kansas and Louisiana State will send crews to the relay on Feb. 8.

From the Western conference will come the University of Michigan, Northwestern, Purdue, Ohio State, Wisconsin, and Illinois. The relay was first held last spring when the Nine, Central College, and National Collegiate.

And Young Will Be Here

Running with them will be Rudy Young, sensational Illinois football as well as track star. Herb McKinley, holder of the world championships, McQuay set marks in the quarter mile and 300 yard dash.

Schladehann also stated there is possibility that the Naval Academy might fly its relay quartet to the Spartan invitational. Last year the Navy thineads won the 1943 championship.

Last Sunday Schladehann and his assistants held stop watches on Spartan candidates in the relay time trials. The event was a three-quarters distance.

At a World Reater

Although there is a wealth of talent on hand, the veteran Spartan coach feels this winter relay team will be well-matched, but not a world-beater. Schladehann as MSC opponent to find themselves with ample time to rest.

First meet on the Spartan state relay was against Ohio State in evening of Saturday, January 11. This team will find the Buckeyes with a pair of outstanding runners in Bob Wright, national mile holder of 1942 in both the mile and the hurdles and Jimmy Jones, who holds the Jensen distance record mark of 24:30.

FAST PACE SET

Greek Keglers Off In Winter Pin Race

With two months of activity in prospect, interfraternity bowl competition opened last Saturday at the Spartan Alloys with a Greek teams vying for honors. In block one, both the Psi Upsilon and the Sigma Nus opened the bowl by shutting out their opponents Delta Chi and Pi Kappa Alpha, respectively, with 4-0 scores. The Delta Chi split with the Phi Kappa and the SAE-Phi Kappa. The match ended a 3-1 win for AE.

The ATOs and the Delta Sigma shut out their adversaries in block two competition. The ATOs beat the Lambda Chis and the Alpha Sigs bowed to the Delta Chi by 4-0 scores. The Phi Deltis and Omega Alpha rolled neck and neck all the way winding up a 2-2 tie. Sigma Chi topped Phi Kappa.

Top individual honors for the bowl went to Jack Keller, Delta Chi, who rolled a 606 series, with 120 and a 211 game. Dean Hadlock, Sigma Chi had the second best game with a 227.

Spartans take to the hickory these cold months. Here Merrill Barber, of Vermont takes a second in the annual Torger Tolt jump with a 143-foot jump. Bands of Spartan students head northward each weekend to try their skill at similar feats.

Badgers Key To Big Nine Cage Race

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 13 (AP)—The eyes have it at Wisconsin this year and the "B" of the Western conference—Illinois, Iowa and Indiana. Know it? Coach Harold "Red" Foster's Badgers, current leaders in the conference basketball race with victories over the three non-conference "teams to beat" have done it with their amazingly accurate shooting eyes.

One-Third Good

In their victories over Illinois and Iowa last Saturday's 70-49 trouncing of Indiana, the Badgers as a unit completed the almost phenomenal shooting average of 33.6 percent, making 12 field goals in 34 attempts. Put generally, it is recognized as about 26 percent.

The Badgers have been outstanding in all three games, 275 to 214, but they've been hitting with almost pinpoint precision.

The Badgers' shooting eyes have flickered only twice this season, and lost both games, to Oklahoma and Marquette.

Cook Is Leader

Pacing the Badger marksmen is Bobby Cook, a little forward who has scored 136 points, 66 in conference games. The Harvard junior has a shooting average of 45.7 percent, built on 27 field goals in 59 tries. He missed only one free throw in 13 attempts.

Exner Menzel, a junior forward from Stevens point and Cook, running mate last year, has only 28 points in conference play, but he's only taken 28 shots from the floor and hit on 10 for a 35.7 percentage.

Sello Back Home

The guards, Glen Sello, a senior from La Crosse, and Walt Lauterbach, a junior from Plymouth, have 29 and 17 points, respectively, and shooting averages of 29.2 and 25 per cent in the same order.

Sello, a Wisconsin letterman in 1943-44, won basketball, football and baseball emblems as a navy trainee at Western Michigan college, Kalamazoo, the following year, and a basketball letter at the University of Michigan last season.

Ed Mills, six foot six inch sophomore center, has used his height on rebounds and compiled a 26.6 per cent average on 12 baskets in 45 tries and added eight free throws for 32 points.

State plays the Badgers, here Monday night.

State basketball teams have enjoyed perfect seasons three times in a row—1901-03.

Spartan cage outfits have played 131 different institutions in the 47 year history of the sport here.

Puck Chasers Please Notice!

In 1943 the State News led a campaign which resulted in the formation of an intramural hockey league. Once more male students are asking about the possibility of an ice loop being formed.

All men who desire to play intramural hockey should write to the State News sports department. These letters will be turned over to the athletic department.

Arrangements were made in 1943 so that hockey games could be played at certain hours and men skating would take place the rest of each day.

Clean-Up Bill Planned For All Sports

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said today that promoters and athletes have a "sacred duty" to keep sports clean and Rep. Herbert (D-La.) introduced a measure to make bribery of players or officials a federal offense.

Hoover expressed the view it is up to the promoters and performers to "clean house and keep it clean" themselves. He told an interviewer that legislation "should be a matter of last resort and should be enacted only if absolutely necessary."

To Protect Public

Herbert said in a statement that "sports is big business and the public must be protected from the fixers, the chiselers and the grafters." His measure would provide a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and $10,000 fine for bribery or attempted bribery.

Hoover asserted that "keeping sports clean and above the ugly rumors of fixes and control by gamblers is an absolute necessity" and added:

"Clean sports is one of the fine and effective means of developing good citizenship, particularly up on the part of our youth."

Fans Stunned

The recent exposure of attempted dishonesty in the field of professional football and the sight of the sum of gamblers that have frequented all professional sports contests, even pricing their activities in the very arenas where the contests are in progress, has stunned the fair play conscience of the great body of the American public.

"The average American, particularly the youth, takes his sports seriously and wants them clean and uncontaminated."

Intramural Meet Results Late

Because of the late finish of the final games, intramural cage results will not be published on the morning following the games.

At least until the tourney reaches its final stages, the game stories will be in the State News a day later. In other words, Monday's game results will appear in Wednesday morning's paper.

More Trouble From The Fighting Irish

Two Notre Dame hardwood stars that Michigan State will see a lot of this evening are George Ratterman and John Brennan. Last fall Ratterman was understudy for Johnny Lujack, Irish all-American quarterback of the undefeated ND eleven. He will start at one of the forward posts against the Spartans. Brennan handles the center duties for the Irish quintet which has won eight of its 10 games this season.

Drew To Replace Frank Thomas As Alabama Coach

OXFORD, Miss., Jan. 13 (AP)—Harold "Red" Drew says he is resigning after one season as head football coach at Mississippi to take over Alabama's grid machine from the ailing Frank Thomas.

The 53-year-old Drew, who was an assistant to Thomas at Alabama for 12 campaigns, announced today he had been "approached" by Alabama officials, but added that nothing definite had been agreed. He said, however, that he would ask the University of Mississippi athletic committee to release him from his contract which has two more years to run.

Chairman Martin Miller of the State Board of College and University trustees said at Meridian that a meeting would be held Monday to act on Drew's resignation.

At Tuscaloosa, Ala., Thomas said he had "talked informally" with Drew about the possibility of taking over the job there. Thomas, head coach of the Crimson Tide for 15 seasons, has been in bad health for several months.
