Deficiencies
In CollegesHamilton Attacks
Building Projects
Of State Schools

Michigan State college and the University of Michigan were accused of starting building programs which they knew they could not complete by Senator Robert J. Hamilton, Battle Creek, in debate on the deficiency appropriations bill for state agencies yesterday.

In his protest against passage of the bill, Hamilton said that the deficiency was the result of bad management on the part of the colleges.

Asks Control

"These colleges have had a holier-than-thou attitude in past years, and I think it is time they be made to operate under the legislature," Hamilton said.

He argued that the colleges could have used part of the building funds to meet the deficits if they had delayed construction on some of the projects.

Senator Harry F. Little, East Lansing, told the Senate that State's enrollment had grown from 3,600 in 1945 to 13,427 now.

Suggests Limitation

The previous legislature was not able to anticipate the larger enrollments when appropriating for the colleges, Senator Otto W. Bishop, Alpena, said in reply to protests against the passage of the deficit bill.

President John Hannah had no comment to make.

Senators James C. Quinlan, Grand Rapids, John A. Wright, Flint, and Hamilton, voted against the bill, which has been sent to the house for action.

Newcomer's Club
Make Party Plans
For Faculty Group

Although faculty dances and parties have been limited this year because of the great demand for college facilities, the Newcomer's club is making plans for an evening of dancing and bridge for faculty members for Friday evening, March 7, in the Reo club rooms.

Last December, this organization, made up of wives of new faculty members, sponsored a dance-bridge at the Reo club rooms. Because of a demand for more such entertainments, the group has planned a spring party for the March date. There will be dancing and bridge from 9 p.m. until 12:30 a.m.

Ed Berry's orchestra will play for the dance and arrangements are being made to provide bridge for as many faculty members as prefer that pastime to dancing. Prizes are being provided for the bridge.

Mrs. Edward Miller, president of Newcomer's club, has named Mrs. Earl C. Richardson as general chairman. Committee members include bridge, Mrs. E. P. Lustetter, decorations, Mrs. E. S. Reineke, transportation, Mrs. Richard H. Jordan, ticket, Mrs. John S. Walling for Newcomer's club and Mrs. King J. McCristal for Faculty folk.

The reserve grand champion showmanship prize was awarded to Al Martin, Swartz Creek sophomore, who entered a Hereford heifer.

Runners up in the livestock showing were a draft horse entered by Max F. Benzon, a junior, and the swine entry of Jack Burnett, Adrian.

In the dairy cattle division a Lansing Junior, Bob Rich, won the grand championship prize with his Jersey cow entry.

The judges were Harold Mitchell '43 of Holly, sheep, dairy cattle Herb Miller, Williamston, beef cattle, Robert Rodney, Brighton; horses, Chester Weston, Concord; and George Ellison, Mason, swine.

Tests That Help
ADVISORS OFFER STUDENT AID

By LOU ANN WOELKE
Twelve trained counselors in Demonstration Hall are able and willing to discuss the problems of all Michigan State students, veterans or non-veterans. They constitute one of the outstanding counseling services in the middle west.

These counselors are trained to understand and cope with scholastic, vocational and personal problems. Many students have found that a low scholastic average was due to enrollment in the wrong course.

Use Aptitude Tests
By using the aptitude and interest tests available which indicate the general vocational field into which the counselors will fit, they can change their schedules accordingly. Many such changes have resulted in higher grades because of increasing interest.

The tests do not point directly to the specific job for which a person is suited, but indicate the general field. Disabilities, geographical preferences, a desire for inside or outside work are some of the factors which must be considered.

The basic purpose of any counseling project is to help in the adjustment of individuals they're serving. With this in mind the counselors have been trained in psychology and related subjects so they can offer constructive criticism on personal problems.

The counseling officers are along one side of the veterans' hall. Each counselor has an office equipped for private interviews. Students are assigned alphabetically to their counselors but may be overridden upon request.

Office hours vary, so an appointment in advance, although unnecessary, may save a long wait. Call Ext. 285 or 238.

Home Ecs Pick
Eight Eligibles
For Election

With elections slated for Thursday, the Home Economics club accepted a slate of nominations listing eight candidates at its meeting this week.

The nominations were accepted with the provision that additional nominees might be added today.

Club members will vote from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday in the lower halls of the Home Ec building. Membership cards are required for all voters.

Those desiring membership cards or activity books may purchase them in the main office of the Home Ec building or at the voting tables.

At 2 p.m. the group will move to the Music auditorium for a panel discussion on "How Can Radio Be Used More Effectively in the Schools of Michigan?"

Kathleen Lardie, national president, Association for Education by Radio, will act as chairman. Participants will be O. B. Miller, Pontiac public schools, Forest Owens, public relations director, Battle Creek, and J. Coleman, director WKAR and Miss Waller.

Truman Asks
House's Vote
For ReliefEaton Demands
Reports On Use
Of U.S. Funds

By The Associated Press
President Truman asked Congress today to vote $350,000,000 for direct relief to "liberated" countries in 1947, now that UNRRA is going out of business.

Chairman Eaton (R-N.J.) of the House Foreign Affairs committee immediately introduced authorizing legislation with a provision that the nations receiving the aid must permit American newsmen to report on its use. He said his committee will take it up next week.

Another bill would be necessary later to make the actual appropriation. Chairman Taber (R-N.Y.) of the House Appropriations committee told newsmen he is withholding judgment until more details are available.

The appropriation would be in addition to $300,000,000 budgeted to the War department for relief in the occupied countries—Germany, Austria, Japan and Korea.

On this request Taber already has served notice that "they will have to show us that they need this extra money before they get it."

The President's message did not list the liberated countries to be aided but State department officials previously had said Italy, Greece and China, and perhaps Hungary and Poland, would need help beyond what UNRRA provides.

The $350,000,000 is far below previous relief appropriations made through UNRRA.

Wives Club Pick
Spartan Wives

Students' Wives club has a new name. "Spartan Wives" has been selected from approximately 30 entries in the name contest which closed this week, the contest committee announced yesterday.

The prize for the winning entry, a $5 basket of groceries, went to Mrs. Florence Reagh.

Contest committee members were Mrs. Isabelle Gannon, counselor of women, Roy Lamphart, in charge of married housing, and Don Phillips, adult education.

Yes, the February Spartan will be out in February.

Contrary to malicious rumors that the MSC humor magazine will not hit the stands until sometime late spring term, Editor Dave Lucas has announced that the February edition will be available Monday morning.

The MAC Astorship, yearly lampoon of the State News, will be out in February.

Orders for senior announcements and invitations will be taken Monday through Friday next week on the Union lower deck. Seniors are requested to order their invitations at the earliest possible date.

be the big attraction of the issue. In conjunction with the Astorship is a four-page take-off on the Collegiate Digest, slyly altered to read Collegiate Indigestion.

Filling out the bill of the issue will be a report of a veterans' convention to end all veterans' conventions and a revealing insight into high pressure cigarette campaigning by Bill Lord.

Features on Mary Mayo dormitory, grand-mummy of women's dorms, and a report on Michigan State's never-packed wrestling team will also be presented.

Hitting all angles, the agenda also presents a human interest work of art, "The Most Unforgettable Annual I Have Ever Known." The all-important Touch-and-Go and Passing Trade columns will be present as usual.

By JERRY KENNEY

Proving the worth of Basic College after all, Howard C. Rather, dean of Basic college, won the dean's milking contest hands down last night at the Farmer's Frolic, held at the Livestock pavilion.

Prof. Lorin G. Miller, head of the mechanical engineering department and standing in for Dean Henry Dirks of engineering, took second place. Prof. C. S. Bryan, acting head of Veterinary medicine took third.

Spartans Take
Three Firsts
In Contest

Michigan State entries won three out of four possible victories in the Michigan Intercollegiate Peace Speech contest held at Michigan Normal college in Ypsilanti this week.

Bernice Cleland, Deerperville junior, June Szasz, Elgin, Ill., junior, and Robert Carson, Lansing freshman, all won in their respective divisions.

Miss Cleland's triumph came in the women's oratory section and her efforts brought her a $25 cash prize. Miss Szasz, who annexed women's extemporé honors, and Carson, who was victorious in the men's extemporé contest, were awarded medals.

State also had another entry, Samuel McGuire, Lansing freshman, who competed in the men's oratory classification.

Ten Michigan colleges brought 34 entries to the contest which was sponsored by the National Intercollegiate Peace Speech foundation.

Spartan orators were coached by Charles Hampton, instructor in the Written and Spoken English department, while Asst. Prof. Joseph Menchhofer directed the extemporé entries.

Baby bottles went to the victorious team in the wild cow milking contest. Booby-prize winners walked off with a pair of funnels. Tackling the horned, reverberating-cows in pairs, the contestants were required to halter their charges and then fill a pint bottle with milk.

Arnold Reibold and Les Check, tackling their cow in true western rodeo style and then lashing her to the wall, came out victorious in the tussle.

Square dancing followed the contests and wound up the first post-war "Little International."

The interfraternity council approved the constitution of a new local society, Delta Rho, at their regular meeting last Tuesday night.

There are 14 charter members of the new group intending to petition a national fraternity for membership.

The organization is headed by Pres. Jim Pastoret, Lampasas, Tex., sophomore.

Heavy Weather
Takes 33 Lives
On East Coast

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP) — Farmers dug paths back to town tonight through the heaviest snowfall of recent years to look at least 33 lives, closed schools, clogged transportation and slowed industry.

Freezing winds nipped the northeast on the heels of the storm which swept from Alabama to Maine and gradually abated as Dickinson county, Va., recorded the record snowfall of 27 inches.

Chief causes of death were exhaustion from shoveling and accidents. The toll by the time the storm had passed was 33.

New York, 11; Pennsylvania, New York 3; Connecticut, 5; Massachusetts, 1; District of Columbia, 1; Delaware, 1. In New York City, nerve center of eastern seaboard transportation, an army of 10,000 men and naval equipment struggled to clear the wind-whipped streets of 12 inches of snow.

For the first time in its history, the United Nations Security Council was postponed at the Success, N. Y. The reason—much snow.

Trains crawled slowly in the metropolitan area of 7,000,000 persons with resultant absenteeism slowing industry. At least 10 schools were closed in the New York area.

The picture was similar from New York to Virginia. In Virginia, one of the hardest hit states, 20 schools were closed in 28 of 100 counties.

The nation's capital wallowed in inches of unaccustomed snow, slowing activities in federal offices and forcing President Truman to forego his usual early morning walk.

MSC Meets Ohio State As Swim Titans Clash

'S' Natators Seek Upset Over OSU

By JACK WORTH

The two top swimming teams in the nation will tangle this afternoon when the Spartans face mighty Ohio State in Jenison pool at 3.

The Buckeyes, national champions last year, are undefeated in two years of dual meet competition. Michigan State is riding a six meet winning streak.

Today's battle may well preview the outcome of the NCAA championships at Seattle, March 26. Coach Charles McCaffree's Spartans and the University of Michigan Wolverines are the only

OSU Crushes Michigan

(Special To State News)

ANN ARBOR, Feb. 21.—Powerful Ohio State prepared for its swimming meet with Michigan State by whipping the University of Michigan, 55-25, here tonight.

teams given an outside chance of upsetting Ohio State in the championships.

World Record Holder

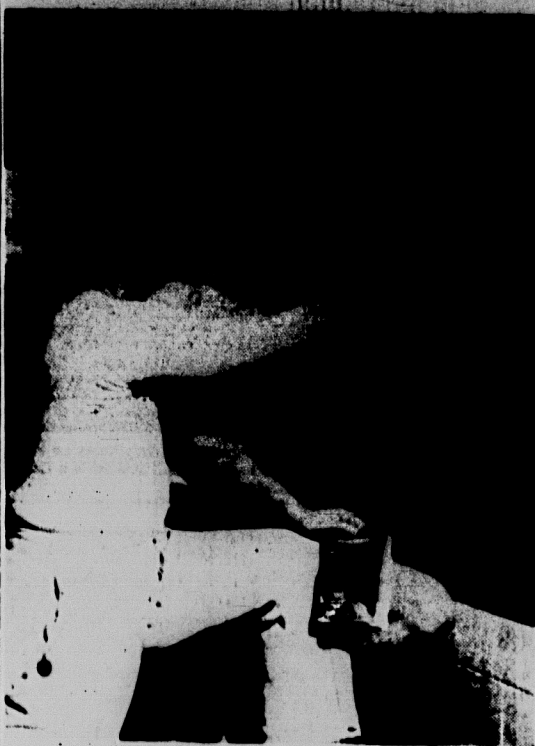

The Buckeye coach, Mike Peppe, will have a line-up this afternoon that is even stronger than the 1946 squad that walked off with the Big Ten, NCAA, and AAU crowns.

Bill Smith, who before the war was never seen in collegiate competition, is back from service to further strengthen the Buckeye powerhouse.

Smith holds the world and American records for the 220 and 440 yard free style in the 25 yard pool, with times of 2:07.1 and 4:38.5. He also holds the long course American records for the same events.

Coach Charles McCaffree will use the same freshman studied lineup that has led to a season record of seven victories against a single defeat.

George Hoogerhyde, undefeated

Swim mentor Charles McCaffree and George Hoogerhyde, Spartan 220 and 440 wizard, discuss last-minute strategy they will apply to Ohio State when they invade Jenison pool this afternoon.

in the 440 yard free style, Ray Williams, diver, James Duke and Don Paton, sprinters, and breast-stroke Dave and Jack Seibold will head the Spartans in the individual events.

Hoogerhyde and Roger Miller will try to match Ohio's Jack Hill, NCAA champ in both the 220 and 440, and Smith, the great Hawaiian star.

1946's Time Fastest

Hill has turned in the fastest times in the nation this year with clockings only a few tenths of a second over 2:11 for the 220, and 4:45 for the 440.

Cager's Win Will Assure Even Season

By BUD LAWSON

Michigan State's basketball team will have the opportunity to assure themselves of a better than .500 season as they clash with the Eagles of Boston College tonight at Jenison fieldhouse.

The Spartans have just one more game after the contest with U.S. Boston team tonight, and a win from the Eagles would give them an 11 won to nine lost record going into their final start with Michigan, one week from tonight.

Al McClellan's Beantowners will have goals of their own to accomplish in the way of season's records since they were currently attempting to pull out of their season with more wins than losses, to climax an up and down year.

Loss of Elmore Morgenthaler, seven foot, one inch center, to the professional circuit has required alterations in the tactics employed by the eastern team, but Tuesday night the Eagles pushed to within four points of Bradley Tech 68-64 in their most creditable showing of the season.

Boston College has won ten and lost seven including a rout of Wayne last night in Detroit. Georgia Tech edged Boston 54-50 in late December just four days before the Spartans trounced the Ramblers 76-62, 62-52.

Jim O'Brien, a 17-year old freshman from Brooklyn, N. Y., has shown well in recent games and will be in the starting lineup which will feature a small, extremely fast moving guard, a typical of the Eastern sector.

Leading playmaker of the Boston quintet is six-foot, four-inch Johnny Letvinchuk, who will probably see center duty tonight while the Eagles' scoring department is headed by Phil Kenney, a sophomore forward.

In early season Boston College was edged by Bowling Green 55-54 in the Boston Arena, and in their next start spanked Fordham 72-50 in two of their outstanding contests.

After making his lineup for the Detroit encounter, Ben Van Alstyne, Spartan coach, will probably start his regular lineup tonight of Otis White and Don Waldron at guards, Jack Caswell at center and Robin Roberts and Bob Gahan at forwards.

Waldron, the man who held Sam Fortino to two field goals, Wednesday night will probably be called upon to stop Kenney, the B. C. ace.

Lynn Chaudhry, Bob Stevens, and Robert Robbins, forwards will be depended upon to lend their speed for the Spartan cause, as will guards Clay Koswalk and Al Pepler.

CASH FOR KEGLERS

Big Prizes Await Top College Bowlers

Entries for the second annual State News All-College Bowling Classic will be taken in the Union upper deck and other campus buildings next Wednesday. This year 16 cash prizes totaling $175 will be shot at by the 192 men who compete.

Entrance fee will be $2, which will cover the cost of bowling and build up the jack pot, all of which will be turned back to the competitors.

Stars To Share Limelight In Monday's Dual Meet

By WALLY SCHRAMM

Although a team victory is virtually assured for Michigan State's track and field squad, individual events are expected to provide plenty of thrills as the Spartans meet Wayne and Marquette in Jenison fieldhouse Monday night.

State's brilliant Fred Johnson will be out to repeat his triple victory achievements of the Ohio State and Michigan AAU meets as he enters the broad jump, 75 yard dash and 75 yards low hurdles.

Wright Leads Wayne

Lorenzo Wright, Tartar star, will be matched against Johnson in all three events. Wright placed second behind the Spartan star at the Michigan State relays. In a Michigan State-Wayne dual meet in 1945 Wright took first in the three events.

Jack Dianth, top State miler, is favored to take his event. The Each man will throw three games and the largest series total will pay $45. Other winners down the scale include $30, $20, $15, and $10. Then there will be a flock of awards in the five, four and three dollar class.

The affair will take place on the Spartan alleys with all 16 lanes being used by Michigan

State bowlers. Last winter 100 men took part in the tournament and split $100 winnings, with the prize being $25.

Only requirement of the classic is that competitors be college students or faculty of Michigan State college. It is believed this tournament is the only one of its kind sponsored solely by a college newspaper.

'47 Pact Gives 'Hal' 60 Grand

DETROIT, Feb. 21 (AP)—Newhouse, whose strong arm has won him the Detroit Tigers American League flag home, settled his contract troubles today by accepting a 1947 salary of more than $50,000 and possibly as much as $60,000.

Newhouse, 25-year-old, reached an agreement with the club's vice president, Bill Killebrew, in a telephone conversation from Lakeland, Fla., where Hal has been resting for a week prior to the opening of the Tiger training camp Feb. 24.

Killebrew said only that Newhouse "had accepted the club's terms" but although no salary figure was mentioned it was considered certain that Newhouse was given a substantial salary increase.

MSC Musketeers Sweep Four Meets While Losing One

MSC rifle teams defeated Indiana and Lehigh Universities in telegraphic meets last week, lost to Wyoming and won by forfeit from Drexel Institute and Duquesne University.

ROTC and Varsity teams fire in competition for MSC under the present setup. In some cases where schools do not have ROTC units, competition is between varsity teams, bringing entirely different men onto the range.

Spartans To Inaugurate Boxing At Minnesota

Michigan State will help the University of Minnesota inaugurate the first home boxing match in its history Monday night before an anticipated crowd of 15,000 spectators.

The Golden Gophers journeyed to the west coast last week to open their season against Washington State. Results of the contest are not known.

Nine boxers will make the trip to Minneapolis, gunning to even the Spartan ring record. State has two losses against one victory to date.

Ernie Charbonneau, with two victories and one loss to his credit, will face the Gopher 125 pounder, Doug Heath will make the trip as an alternate at 125 or 130 pounds.

Jack Tierney, who scored a one minute and 30 second knockout against his opponent in the Georgetown match will wear the Spartan colors in the 130 pound class.

Chuck Davey will get the duty in the 135 pound class and Dan Hickey will face the competition in the 145 pound tilt.

Pat Dougherty will carry the honors in the 155 pound bout while John Boda will face the Gopher 165 pounder. Bill Richey will go in the ring in the light heavyweight class and Art Hughlett will be the heavy-competer.

Coach Lou Zarza said that assistant manager Howie Johnson will also make the trip. The team will leave Sunday morning, returning Tuesday afternoon.

Cornell Of Iowa Throws Spartan Wrestlers, 21-6

Mt. Vernon, Ia., Feb. 21, 1947. Cornell college, a national wrestling power, scored its 23rd consecutive victory here last night, trouncing Michigan State's matmen, 24-6.

The Iowans scored three falls in the eight matches and swept decisions in three others to completely dominate the meet.

Many Parties Honor Washington Birthday

Mason-Abbot Hold Hatchet Swing; Burgess Plays For Chem Group

By JUDY GRAHAM

George Washington will celebrate his 215th birthday in a series of parties tonight.

With cherry trees and axes much in evidence, George will be first in the hearts of Mason and Abbot hall men at their "Hatchet Swing" in Mason's lower lounge tonight. This record dance sponsored by President 4, will be held from 9 to 11.

George Washington MC's

At their formal dinner dance which the Alpha Chi Sigmas are holding at the Indian Hill Country club, George will again act as master of ceremonies. Decorations for this party will include silhouettes, cherry trees, and the well-known "Hatchet Swing" in Mason's lower lounge tonight. This record dance sponsored by President 4, will be held from 9 to 11.

Alpha Gamma Rho will enter their dates at the Porter hotel with a dinner and dance. Jimmy

Shaver and his orchestra will provide the music. The fraternity plans of green and gold will serve as decorations on the dinner tables.

While a large silhouette backdrop of Washington will complete the decorations.

Flamingo

Flamingo is the name of the semi-formal term party given by the women in South Campbell in the dining room tonight. Dick Charles orchestra will furnish the music for this Latin American party. Decorations will be tropical flowers placed in a trellis and flamingo silhouettes.

Flamingo program revolving around the popular song "Flamingo" sung by Joyce Rockwell.

Flamingo junior, is scheduled for the party. Also included in the entertainment are demonstrations of the tango by Jacqueline

Ellison, Mackinaw City freshman, and Cesar Martinez of Chile, and a samba danced by Miss Elliot.

and Cesar Yezzi, Brazilian student.

Radio parties

Radio parties, and more radio parties are always in vogue at MSC. Sigma Chi's will hold an informal record dance, featuring a special intermission program of the Sigma Chi quartette. The SAE's are also holding an informal radio dance tonight.

"Calico Capers" and an old fashioned box social is the Sanford

House definition of a good radio party. Square dances, called by Duane Gibson of the anthropology and sociology department, and record dances are other features of the evening.

"Grin and Bear It" is the slogan of the Christian Students Foundation party which they are holding after the game tonight. Mixers, games, and refreshments and a prize for the biggest smile will be features of this party at the People's church. Everyone is invited to attend.
