A general clarification of Student council election procedure was made yesterday by Dick Mosher, council vice-president.

Mosher stated that the newly adopted constitution will be followed closely in the formation of districts and that very few changes are contemplated. He pointed out the section of the new constitution which directly applies to the election of new council members and new class officers.

Under the new system each of the fourteen districts will be allowed to elect one representative to the Student Council for every 300 persons living in the district. However, no single district will be allowed more than four representatives.

Any time a district has more than two hundred persons that are not already represented by a member it shall be entitled to another representative, the number not to exceed four. For example, if a district has five hundred persons.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 22 (AP) — Spokesmen for American Youth for Democracy today assailed President Alexander G. Ruthven's action banning the Michigan Youth for Democracy Action organization from the University of Michigan as "un-American, undemocratic and unlawful."

Dr. Ruthven announced that he had ordered University recognition withdrawn from the group because of its affiliation with the Michigan Youth for Democracy Action organization from the University of Michigan as "un-American, undemocratic and unlawful."

Officers defend group.

Erma Henderson, president, and Robert Cummings, executive secretary of the Michigan AYD, said the U. of M. group has been a legal, democratic, respected organization and never at any time has been criticized of its conduct by the university.

They threatened to "challenge the legality" of Dr. Ruthven's action, accusing him of "driving AYD off the Michigan campus."

Not "Witch Hunting"

Dr. Ruthven said the University was not "witch-hunting" but that he had taken action because of information from "people in whom I have the highest confidence."

Sen. Matthew F. Callahan, referred to in the AYD statement, headed a state senate committee investigating subversive activities.

J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has accused AYD of being a communist youth recruiting center.

Bell Offers Informants Big Reward

16 Strikers Held For Trial After Picket Line Brawl

DETROIT, April 22 (AP) — The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. today offered rewards of $1,000 for information leading to conviction of persons "guilty of assault on non-striking employees."

Sixteen strikers, meanwhile, were ordered to appear for trial next Tuesday on a misdemeanor charge growing out of a picket line melee Monday at the company's main office here.

J. Bernard Hawkins, state strike director, and his wife were among the 16 released on $100 personal bond on charges of disturbing the peace. Six other strikers, including Walter Schaar, president of the Michigan Telephone Employees Federation, were released after policemen failed to identify them as participants in the fight.

No further violence was reported in the strike as extra police were assigned to picketing scenes Monday's battle, in which three were injured, resulted after strikers mixed it up with police trying to maintain lanes of entry for non-strikers.

At Flint, three pickets were arrested following a picket line incident and were charged with breaching the peace.

Flood Debris Brings Dime To Workers

The destruction caused and the debris left by the receding flood waters may be a topic of fascinating discussion among the students, but to Arthur G. Clark, MSU grounds foreman, this miserable condition means work.

Unable to get good male labor for several years during the war, Clark, however, the added inducement of 10 an hour over the usual 60¢ would solve the help problem. It did. A help wanted sign appeared on a Wednesday, and Clark had 25 new employees by Saturday. 26 men and a girl.

Sitting out the girl for his secretary, Clark put the men at work clearing debris, replacing trees and shrubs, and seeding lawns and areas.

Funds, Military Aid Voted To Strengthen Against Communism

Vandenberg Leads Proposal Through Hot Senate Debate

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP) — The Senate stamped approval, 67 to 23, today on a momentous new departure in U.S. foreign policy by voting a $400,000,000 fund to stiffen Greece and Turkey against communism.

The bill, which provides financial and limited military assistance to these two strategic nations, now goes to the House, where the foreign affairs committee has approved a similar measure.

Before the Senate vote, Senator Edwin C. Johnson sought in vain to strike out a provision that President Truman may send military missions to Greece and Turkey to instruct her armies in the use of military equipment to be furnished. The vote against him was 68 to 22.

Vandenberg Speaks

Led by Senator Vandenberg, the GOP-controlled Senate bowed over could but numerically weak opposition to the new policy laid down by President Truman in a March 12 address to Congress.

On final passage, 35 Republicans and 32 Democrats voted for the measure. Sixteen Republicans and seven Democrats opposed it.

Through five hours of torrid debate before voting began on amendments late in the afternoon, opponents assailed the Truman plan as one which would "destroy" the United Nations, invite retaliation by Russia, and roll up tremendous expenditures which might bankrupt this nation.

Step Light Policy

Replying, Vandenberg told his colleagues that if Congress fails to act, aggression gets the green light and the rest of the world, including America, gets the red light.

Vandenberg called "inflammatory" statements by Senator Johnson that the program can lead only to war with Russia.

Johnson, author of several opposition amendments, argued that Congress is underwriting a "military alliance" with Turkey that invites Russian retaliation.

Democrats Oppose

The day's debate developed fresh democratic opposition to the program.

Senator McKellar, 79-year-old dean of the Senate, said it is likely to cost more than the United States can afford.

If Russia offers a contest, "what right would we have?" he said. Senator Byrd said he was voting against a foreign policy proposal of the President for the first time because the projected aid represents only "a tiny rivulet in the mighty stream of American dollars that will flow to foreign countries."

UN Not By-Passed

Denying that the proposal bypasses the United Nations, Senator Hatch said it offers the best hope for peace.

Senator Lucas declared the President's program will "lead us to freedom and peace," but Senator Pepper said it will involve a "breach of the solemn covenant of the United Nations."

Block And Bridle Elects Pettit, Baker As Heads

Spartans Sharpen Hitting For Irish In Squad Contest

By HERKIE BOWERS

Saturday's one-sided baseball victory over the U. of D. has the Spartan squad eager for the encounter next weekend with the Fighting Irish from Notre Dame. The team shows plenty of snap in daily workouts, in spite of the football season weather.

Team injuries are not being aided by the chill breezes that sweep the field. Jack Dillon and Bud Erickson, both with pulled leg muscles, are having difficulty trying to iron out the kinks. Dillon's leg, injured on the southern trip, is just now loosening up enough to permit him to run.

Coach John Kohn and Al Kierker feel the squad is still a mile week on hitting against left-handed hurlers and are planning on concentrating on this phase of the game in preparation for the Notre Dame tilt Saturday afternoon.

Highlight of last night's workout was an eight inning practice game between the regulars and the B team with the second stringers taking the regulars by a 7-4 count. Neil Ricketts was on the mound for the A squad and his shaky start allowed a five run lead that was never overcome.

Top men of the plate were George Eubank, Jack Dillon, Bud Erickson, Dick Minewasser and Harry Hughes with two hits each. Erickson is becoming one of the strongest hitters on the club and is promising Dick Mawhood for his spot at first base.

If Bud's leg trouble straightens out, he may start against Notre Dame Saturday, especially if the Irish use a southpaw hurler.

With 11 games under their belts this season, the Spartans have two men with batting averages over the .400 mark. See-

No-Hit Game Begins Season For All-College Softball

By BOB MORSE

A no-hit game by Hank Kuczech of Mason 7 featured the opening round of the All-College softball tournament last night on Amnis field. Kuczech's masterpiece enabled his team to score a 3-0 victory over Mason 5.

Two walks and an error filled the bases for the losers in the final inning, but Kuczech pitched out two batters to force the next two batters to pop out and fanning the last man.

About 10 outscored Amis 18 in a slugfest contest. Bob Heintz pitched a long home run to pace the winner's attack. Dick White also added a round tripper for Amis 18.

In the third game, Wells 11 bested a 9-4 victory over Wells 2. Behind the strong hurling of St. Storms, Bruce De Francisco slammed out a four bagger with one on for the victors. John R. 44 pitched for Wells 11, with John Wawzke behind the plate. Snyder 3 won the only other game by forfeit from Snyder 14. All fraternity games have been postponed until sometime next week because of the IFC exchange dinner this week. Chas. Vilgus, coach of the varsity, will be in charge of the team in the final game of the season, which is scheduled for May 10. Tribe Wins 5-0; Feller Gives Single CLEVELAND, April 22 (AP)—Al Zarilla's single to center in the seventh inning spoiled what might have been Bob Feller's third no-hitter today, the fast fireballer collecting his record ninth one-hitter against the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 0.

Cracks Own Mark

Joe Gordon's three-run homer in the sixth provided the artillery for the Indians' victory as Feller was striking out ten men and walking only one Jack Moss, first batter in the ninth. Only 29 men faced him.

Blazing Bob broke his own major league record for one-hitters, set last year. Today's start was his second of the season. He took a 2 to 0 loss on opening day here, from Chicago.

Sine Tribe Hits

Gordon's homer reached Cleveland stadium's left field stands, setting Les Fleming and Pat Seery. Lou Boudreau had opened the stanza with a single, but was forced by Fleming. Seery's single then put Fleming on second.

Cleveland gathered its first two runs on Hal Peck's single, scoring Ken Keltner, who had walked, and George Metkovich's single. The Tribe combated Munerich for nine hits before he was relieved by Cliff Fehman in the eighth.

Munn Drills Gridders In 'T' Tactics

By BILL FRANKSON

With the squad at last firmly situated on its own practice fields, scrimmage is now the rule in the spring football camp.

Yesterday proved no exception as the varsity group put on a forty-five minute knock 'em down and drag 'em out exhibition. Both the single wing and T-formations were employed with variations of each system.

Considerable emphasis was placed on passing. Gene Glick, quarterback, rifting from the T. George Guertel received fine blocking on a play through the center and dived by the secondary into the clear.

This play is similar to the maneuver on which Guertel went for touchdowns against Penn State and Washington State last season.

Coach Eugene Munn said that the team is showing promise in executing T-formation plays, after only about a week's work on that system of play.

Another backfield to-line transformation is in the making. Munn has decided to shift Carl Cappert, a husky quarterback, to a tackle post. Cappert is a line blocker and will be a strengthening factor in the Spartan forward wall.

Warren Hurry, line backer, is compensating rapidly from the position he underwent a week ago for a "locked knee." In the Chicago game, Hurry was in line center and will probably leave the "healthy center" by the end of this week.

Despite the cold weather which makes it difficult for the players to get thoroughly warmed up before contact work, Dr. Holland said that injuries have been fairly few so far this spring.

A man of 22 can expect to live 49.51 more years, according to the U. S. bureau of census.

State's Victorious Netters Prove Early Prediction

By JACK WORTH

With six victories already chalked up by the Spartan tennis team, Coach Jake Dahlgren can point to his early season prediction that his team would "do better than State's 1946 squad."

Purdue, a 5-4 victim of last year's mediocre squad, comes to East Lansing Friday to meet Coach Dahlgren's red-hot netters. Saturday the Spartans will travel to South Bend, seeking revenge for a 16-setback from the Irish of Notre Dame.

Last year the Spartan netters staggered through a schedule of 14 matches, including six with Big Nine teams, and finished a dismal season with a 4-10 record. The only victories were over Indiana 9-0, Kentucky 6-3, Purdue 5-4, and Western Michigan 5-4.

So far this season Dahlgren's team has met only one school, Cincinnati, which was on the 16 schedule State tournament in Kentucky, 7-2, almost the reverse of last year's losing 7-5, give ample indication of the Spartan strength.

Reynolds Adds Strength

At Reynolds, has been one of the main reasons for the team's fine record this spring. Reynolds was the fifth ranking player in the East while losing to East Oregon N. J., and last fall won the varsity elimination tournament, beat one Jack Shingleton in the final.

Playing first singles, Reynolds got off to a slow start, losing to southern trip and even only one match against Georgetown. In the first home match, Cincinnati, he lost his stride and turned over Marshall Chambers, second ranking singles player in Ohio, with a 6-4 defeat.

Continuing his strong play, Reynolds topped Earl Tamm, a 6-4 Cincinnati court star, and is undefeated at 10-0 after a three set loss over Louis Graves, a junior at Wayne University. Chamberlain has the advantage power factor of the state player, but lost two matches to double fault.

Important Factors

Two other factors in the Spartan's early success are Bob Chuck and Bob Malaga. Chuck has lost only one match, to the potential rival of Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, April 22 (AP)—Shortstop Eddy Miller smashed out a home run in the second inning and then singled across the plate to give the Cincinnati Reds a 7-6 victory over the Chicago Cubs today before 5,481.

Miller's homer was his fifth of the season. He has only two other hits, both singles, in the nine games played to date. He is the potential rival of Cincinnati.
