Home Ec Awards Presented To Alumnae At Banquet

At the alumnae banquet held at the Union building last night, 12 outstanding alumnae of the Home Economics school were presented with honor awards. The presentations were made by Dean Marie Dye of the Home Economics school.

Among the 12 women honored was Mrs. Quindara Oliver Dodge, associate professor of the institutional management at Simmons college, Boston. She graduated from Michigan State in 1918.

Detroit Women Honored

Nellie Freden is now home economist for the People's Gas, Light and Coke company, Chicago, and supervisor of that firm's test kitchen. She was graduated in the class of 1917. Julia Grant, also honored, attended MSC from 1902 to 1904. She is now supervisor of home education in the public schools of Detroit. She has twice been president of the Detroit home economic association.

Others honored include Florence Hall, field agent in home demonstration work in 14 northeastern states with offices in Washington, D. C. who graduated from Michigan State in 1909, and Mary Harrington, 1918 graduate who has been director of dietetics at Harper hospital, Detroit, since 1929.

Legislator Attends

Mrs. Calla Krentel Wolfe, who graduated from Michigan State in 1908, is at present chairwoman of the appropriations and finances committee of the New Mexico State legislature. Noble MacLachlan, 1919 graduate, is director of dietetics at the University of Michigan.

The awards consisted of a bronze disc paperweight with suitable inscription.

of dietetics at the University hospital, Ann Arbor. She has held this position since 1932.

Mrs. Pauline Raven Morse, graduate of 1905, received the honorary degree of Master of Home Economics from Michigan State in 1913. She has done much to further home economic extension work throughout the state of Michigan.

1900 Student Gets Award

Others honored at this banquet were: Dr. Thelma Porter, 1921 graduate, who has been chairman and professor nutrition in the department of home economics at the University of Chicago since 1944; and Mrs. Mary Ross Reynolds, a student at MSC from 1900 to 1902, who until recently was associate editor of the Farm Journal holding that position since 1938.

Dr. Elda Robb, 1916 graduate has been director of the School of Home Economics and professor of nutrition at Simmons college, Boston since 1941.

Last of the 12 women to be honored was Mrs. Edna Smith Tuller who received her award as homemaker. A 1903 graduate of Michigan she was the Michigan extension specialist in home management in 1925.

The awards consisted of a bronze disc paperweight with suitable inscription.

TRAILER TALK

By IRMA FEICHTINGER

Section C is taking advantage of the MSC Agriculture department by posting the latest bulletin on agriculture and livestock.

Little Dora Rose, of F-21, thinks that helping Sophie Rose of G-8 from the back is more fun than working for her mother.

National magazines are just waking up to a fact that the women in MSC trailers have known all along. These ladies figured out long ago that working while their husband finished school was going to benefit them and their children more than non-cooperation.

Florence and John Chilton of K-14 announce a daughter, Barbara Louise.

The Mothercraft class will listen to a lecture on the scientific value of nutrition during presentation.

nancy, on Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the recreation hall.

Ed Long of B-25 has just put the finishing touch on a bird bath in the rock garden in his back yard. He said to be sure to give Dick Bakus of B-22 some of the credit for construction too.

A group of talented residents of section N turned out Saturday afternoon to clean up the play area and improve it.

Three children of section N, Charles and Irene Chitt, also have a new addition, Marcella Lynn. The young lady arrived on April 23.

The section N party Friday in the recreation hall featured a badminton contest. The girls were out of power to connect tennis and badminton for their partners. First prize went to section president Paul Vining who created a champion for Margie Bishen.

State Soprano Will Present Varied Recital

Marjorie Silberblatt, soprano, accompanied by Patricia Hough, pianist, will give her senior recital tomorrow afternoon at 4, in the Music auditorium.

Three Italian selections will be sung by Miss Silberblatt in the first part of her program: "Ponte di San Marco" by Bassini; "Vergiliana Sembranza" by Donaudy; and "Piemonte's 'Venezia'." The second section of the concert will include works by Schubert and Wolf.

Part three is made up of three selections by the French composers: Lalo, Chabrier, and Fauré.

Part four will be devoted to compositions by American composers. Among these are "Sure on this shining night" by Samuel Barber; "White Nocturne" and "Three Shall Be More Joy" by Paul Nordoff, instructor in music and literature and fine arts at MSU. The last two numbers, both English folk songs, were arranged by Deems Taylor. The first is "Twenty, Eighteen," the second, "May-day Carol."

Employees' Offer Flatly Rejected By Michigan Bell

DETROIT, May 2 (AP) — The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. today rejected an offer of 6,000 striking plant employees to end a 26-day walkout on the basis of an overall wage increase of $11 per week.

Vice president Herbert F. Lange of Michigan Bell, termed "obviously fantastic" the union's response to a company offer of $2 to $4 weekly increases.

The proposals advanced by the executive board of Local 43, Federation of Telephone Employees of Michigan (Ind.), called for a $6 per week across the board wage boost plus a $5 weekly upward adjustment which the union said was needed to bring pay rates of its members in line with other employees within and without Michigan Bell.

The original union demand when the strike began April 7 called for a $12 weekly boost plus the $5 adjustment.

Golden Ball To Head Party List Tonight

Original Themes To Be Featured By Many Groups

Winding up the 80th anniversary of the Home Economics school, the Golden Ball will be held in the Union hall room tonight. Music will be by Dick Fizzel and his orchestra.

Models wearing clothing from different periods and a golden ball will decorate the stage. The number 1907 to 1947 signifying the anniversary will be placed on the backdrop.

Marie Matte will be the mistress of ceremonies for the intermission entertainment. The program will include musical numbers by Maxine Skelton and a dance number by Rhea Yerkey and Carmel Straw.

The Farewell dance given by Officer's club of ROTC will take place in the Women's gym tonight from 9 to 12. The dance is a farewell for second year advanced ROTC students and this year's Corps sponsors who graduate this term. During intermission the new officers will take over the reigns of the Officer's club.

Decorations Military. Decorations will be in the military theme and Bob Shimbarg and his orchestra will give out with the music.

Any war whoops heard tonight will probably be coming from the forestry cabin where the Sanford Co-op girls are having their term party based on an Indian theme. The party will be informal and the cabin will be decorated to look like the inside of a tepee.

The Bowery hall is the name of the Theta Chi party scheduled for tonight and gay ninety scenes will be the decorations.

A quartet, dance acts and general group singing, will entertain the couples.

Alpha Gamma Rho are going on a treasure hunt. College traditions will be the theme of the escapade and the search will go on all over campus.

A canoe party is the springish event being planned by the Delta Tau Deltas for tonight. The men and their dates will eat at the house at 6 p.m. and then spend a few hours on the Red Cedar.

Snyder hall will give their first radio party tonight from 9 to 12. "The Unfinished Dorm" will be the theme and the lower lounge will be decorated with the wheelbarrows and saw bucks found everywhere in the Snyder-Phillips vicinity. Precinct 14 is sponsoring the party with the cooperation of the other precincts. Records will furnish dance music.

Landon hall, the Alpha Epsilon PIs and the Delta Sigma PIs will also hold radio parties.

Sicily Demonstration Claims Eight

ROME, May 2 (AP) — Five demonstrators at Portella della Giustizia. The toll mounted to eight with the death of another woman, the record in the list of victims. A child was among the 33 wounded.

The Sicilian chamber of labor was contemplating a general strike, and authorities who feared that such action might set off labor disturbances, threatened Italy appealed to the workers to remain calm. In Rome workers quit their jobs for two days in a manifestation of sympathy for the ambush victims.

In Sicily heavy police forces scoured the bandit-infested mountains for the mounted men who poured 10 minutes of deadly machinegun fire into the unsuspecting ranks of 400 labor demonstrators.
