All-American Honors Given State News

Student Daily Receives Highest Press Award Of ACP For 1946-47

The State News received recognition as one of the top collegiate newspapers in America yesterday when the Associated Collegiate Press of the National Scholastic Press Association announced that the MSC daily publication has been awarded an All-American Superior honor rating for the first semester, 1946-47.

The All-American — Superior rating, highest honor rating given by the ACP for college and university newspapers, is the second won since the war. Last year's honor rating was First-Class-Excellent. The State News this year qualified with a total critical score of 925 out of a possible 1,065 points given for excellence.

The State News was considered along with other daily publications of universities and four-year colleges with 5,000 students or more. No attempt is made by the ACP to compare one publication with another.

The honor ratings are based solely upon the individual newspaper's news values and sources, news writing and editing, headlines, typography, makeup, department pages, and special features.

The ACP scorebook for the State News commended the good use of features on page one, praised the "Today's Campus" column as one of high reader interest which "might well inspire other papers," and stated there is a "lively coverage" of spot events.

Dionysian Selections Announced

Twelve Appointed To Fill Vacancies; Others Eligible

Appointments to the Dionysians for next year were announced during intermission at the final performance of this year's production, "Studio on the Square," last evening at Fairchild theater. The presentation of scrolls was made by Alex Dillingham, charter member.

Selected to guide the dramatic part of next year's musical were Robert Huber, Cincinnati junior; Chester Bear, Dearborn junior; and Dana Skolfield, Los Angeles sophomore.

Script supervisors appointed were Howard Kitzman, Marquette sophomore and Ivy Parrott, Lansing junior. Script will be supervised by Dave Lucas and Pat McCarthy, East Lansing juniors.

Construction and staging appointments were Louise Mallory, Detroit junior, and Bob Von Sternberg, Chicago sophomore while Ann Van Sickle, East Lansing junior, Arnold Brandorfer, Lansing junior, and Robert Hamer, Detroit junior were named to supervise general production.

Three Remain

As is the policy of the organization, the present members named the incoming president along with the appointments. Robert Huber will act in that capacity. Three charter members of the group will remain. They are Theda Adolf and Madge Walters, Lansing sophomores, and Henry Nelson, East Lansing senior.

New Members

The entire cast, crew, staff, and orchestra of "Studio on the Square" were made honorary members of the Dionysians, and the above named selections will act mainly as a steering committee. Membership in the Dionysians may be obtained by "material contribution to one of the organization's productions."

Hanna Appears Before Senate Sub-Committee

WASHINGTON, D. C. — (Special to State News) May 9. "Operations Subsistence," a concerted move by student veterans throughout the nation to gain an increase in subsistence allowance, was again presented to the senate veterans affairs sub-committee today. Gordon Hanna, MSC delegate, reported.

Senator Wayne Morse (R Ore.) sub-committee head, stated during the hearing that "once resources run out there is nothing left for student veterans but to drop out of school, unless Congress provides additional funds." Hanna was among the group that appeared before Senator Taft, who said that "even though we are committed to economy, I will give this due consideration."

By JEAN BOWERS

This week, recognized as family week, has raised many questions about the families at MSC. According to a text book on campus, a family does not exist until there is at least one child. In this case, there are approximately 1,200 "families" at State.

About 350 of these are living in MSC trailers, prefabs, and brick apartments, according to Jean Crowe. Most of the families in surrounding areas live in Lansing.

For the benefit of the coeds, there are 2000 married men at MSC, according to Miss Esther Amos, adult education dept. "Very few of the wives are enrolled in college," she says, "usually 200." The wives of married students either have

Writer Conference Sponsors Fiction, Poetry Contest

Opportunities for students interested in writing are being offered by the Midwestern Writers' Conference, being held July 14 to 20 in Chicago.

The conference will accept and consider novels, short stories, juvenile fiction, non-fiction, plays, poetry, and radio scripts.

The contest closes June 15, except the non-fiction contest, which closes June 1. Outlines for novels must be submitted by Sept. 15, out writers must register for the novel contest as soon as possible.

Attendance at the conference is not necessary in order to compete in the contests. National magazines and publishing houses are sponsoring these contests. The officers of the conference receive without pay, offering recognition, new opportunities, and practical help to promising writers. Winning manuscripts will remain the property of the writer.

Plaques Awarded To Three Schools By Phi Kappa Phi

MSC's chapter of Phi Kappa Phi national scholarship honor society has awarded plaques to three Michigan high schools in recognition of the scholarship records their graduates attained here.

Awards are based on the highest credit point averages for freshmen in the 1945-46 school year. The Class A plaque went to Midland high school as a result of Phyllis M. Lowry's average while Marilyn B. Pierson's grades gave East Lansing high school the Class B award. David L. Heath, a Vulcan high graduate, brought his alma mater top Class C and D honors.

One wife, 17 year old, is attending a local high school. One married student is sending his 10-year-old sister, who lives with him, to college.

The largest family of those in MSC trailers, prefabs, and brick apartments, has three children. There are others, however, living away from campus, that have as many as three. There is no student family at MSC with four or more. Many have two, but the majority fall in the "one class" home have twins.

Chemistry Majors Will Meet Profs At Unique Picnic

The second annual chemistry department picnic, unique in its kind on campus, will be held Saturday, May 17th, at Grand Lodge Park.

Started last year at the suggestion of Dr. Laurence L. Quill, head of the chemistry department, the picnic is an attempt to promote friendly relations between student majors and the faculty.

The picnic is sponsored jointly by Sigma Chi Gamma, the women's professional chemistry fraternity, and the staff and graduate students of the chemistry department.

Invited to the picnic are junior and senior chem majors and chem engineers, chem faculty and grad students, office and stockroom workers and their families and guests.

Chairman Betty Faust is being assisted by Ruth Koshi, Mary Jane Phillips, Mary Foss, and Nancy Wilson of Sigma Chi Gamma. Dr. Leiminger, Dr. Bateman, and Dr. Gule of the faculty, and Bob Brault, graduate student.

Tickets are being sold by Sigma Chi Gamma and Alpha Chi Sigma members and the chemistry department office.

Military Provisions Survive House Fight For Amendments

WASHINGTON, May 9 (AP) — A precedent-shattering $400,000,000 measure to bolster Greece and Turkey against communist domination was passed by the House tonight, 287 to 107.

Congressmen of both parties guarded it successfully from all attempts to deny the administration the right to use troops and military materiel in the effort. Other attempts to limit the program also were defeated.

Final approval followed four days of turbulent House debate dominated by angry legislative reaction to Russia's postwar activities, opposition cries that President Truman's program might mean war, counter claims that it would stabilize peace.

The strength of those supporting the measure was apparent from the ease with which they voted back the amendments. And

CANDIDATES

All candidates for both class and student council positions who did not have their pictures taken by the State News yesterday are requested to report to the State News office at 12 noon today to have them taken. All candidates are requested to bring a statement of their platform or their aims in running for office for publication. The statement must be in 25 words or less.

At the end, a motion by Rep. Holtz (D-Calif.) to send it back to the foreign affairs committee for change were shouted down. Holtz could not even obtain a roll-call vote on his motion. He needed one fifth of those present to support his request for a roll call, and could muster only 47 votes of more than 300 present.

Twelve Numbers Sung Twelve compositions will be sung by the massed festival choir, three each to be sung by the Class A, B, and C choruses. The last three selections will be sung by the combined choruses. Among the numbers will be: "Ave Maria" by Rossini, "The Battle of Jericho" arranged by Robertson, "The Break Forth, O Heavens, Heavenly Night" and "Psalm 137" by Frank.

In either case, there appeared no reason for any further material delay. But already the bill is a month and a half past the deadline the administration was reported originally to have set for its passage.

Crowd Hears Balkan Debate By Professors

An over-capacity crowd packed the music auditorium Thursday night to hear Dr. Marshall Knappen and Dr. Hans Leonhardt of the history department debate the question, Resolved: That military and financial aid should be granted to the governments of Greece and Turkey by the United States.

Dr. Knappen upheld the affirmative, saying that aid to the two countries should be rendered by the United States directly. On the negative side, Dr. Leonhardt advocated use of the United Nations to give assistance.

Following the formal debate members of the audience were given the opportunity to question both sides. Al Chabe, Gary, Ind. junior, president of the International Relations Club, cosponsor of the debate, acted as moderator.

National Society Elects Officers

Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education, elected and installed new officers at a meeting Thursday evening, according to the retiring president, Mary Te-Pooten, Pontiac senior.

Heading the organization for the coming year will be Ruth Janet Fuerstenau, Richmond junior. She will be assisted by junior, Al Chabe, Gary, Indiana. The secretary will be Dorothy Bowen, Tecumseh junior; treasurer, Laurene James, Clawson junior, and historian-reporter, Sue Coleman, East Lansing junior. Dr. V. H. Noll, professor of education, will continue as advisor.

Two concert Sunday May 18, at 2 and 4 p.m., will conclude the festival. The first will be a program of chamber music, to be held in the Music auditorium by the Women's Glee club. The second and final concert will be a program for combined choruses and soloists.

Spartan Athletes In Action On Three Fronts Today

Harris, Rossi Set For Mound In This Afternoon's Contest

Expect Capacity Crowd To Watch Season's Second Meeting Of Rivals

By HERKIE DOWERS

At three o'clock this afternoon on Old College field, the Spartan nine will seek to even the season series with the Broncos from Western Michigan. Ten days ago, at Kalamazoo, the same Broncos handed the Kobsmen their most decisive defeat of the current season—a 9-1 count.

With a capacity crowd of over 5,000 expected to fill the gently added bleachers, the Kobsmen will be after victory credit in the five games in which he has seen action.

Harris' Record Good

In a relief role in the previous Western game, Harris gave up a double to the first Bronco to face him, then set down the next twelve batters without a ball being driven out of the infield. To date he has worked 36 innings, allowed 19 hits, struck out 29, and given up but three earned runs.

Bronco coach Charley Maher expects to counter with his ace hurler, Ed Rossi, the chubby southpaw who held the Spartans to six hits in the previous encounter, with Walt Young again doing the backstopping.

The remainder of the Spartan lineup is slated to be the same as in the Michigan game except for Ed Sobczak replacing Frank Bauman in right field and Jack Dillon again in at second base in place of the hard-hitting Eddie Barabant.

Kobs Has Problem

In the Dillon-Barabant situation, Kobs has one of baseball's typical coaching problems: whether to rely on the tight defensive infield work of the veteran, or the run-producing hits of the slugging freshman. He would be no problem if one could appear at the plate and the other take the field, but there are rules.

Western expects to use the same lineup as in their earlier triumph over the Spartans with the possible exception of Owen Davis at short stop instead of Nick Milevich.

Milevich was one of the two players who failed to hit a safety against the Spartans in the previous tilt. If Davis plays, it may also mean a switch in the sixth and seventh hitting spots.

For the Spartans it probably will be Pat Peppery in center, Sobczak in right, team captain Marty Hansen at short, Dick Mas such on first, Dillon covering second, Steve Sieradzki in the left pasture, Harry Hughes on third, and North Williams.

Walsh, behind the plate, and Harris doing the chucking.

Broncos Pitch Rossi

Tentative Bronco lineup has Bob Paulard in center, Joe Cooper in right, Wayne Terwilliger on second, Walt Young doing the receiving, Bernie Compton on left, Ted Plaza in field, Davis or Milevich at short, Carl Cox on the initial sack, and Rossi on the mound.

Michigan State has not dropped a home contest to the Broncos since 1940 when Western shellacked the Spartans in a 19-6 walk-away. That year the Spartans trounced the Broncos 7-3 at Kalamazoo but have failed to repeat that trick since.

Since the series was inaugurated in 1916, the Broncos have won 24 contests with 19 wins for State. Since 1925, when Kobs took up the Spartan coaching reins, Michigan State has taken 13 of the 32 games played.

RAIN, snow or shine, the tennis tournament has been going as usual, with players braving the unpredictable weather to get matches in on schedule.

Each player is awarded two points for her residence if she wins the match and one point if she loses. These points are totaled and the team with the highest number will be declared champion of the intramural tennis tournament.

Number one players undefeated to date are Valerie Wilder, Kappa Alpha Theta, Beverly Johnston, Kappa Delta, Bonnie Easert, Alpha Gamma Delta, Joan Dodge, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phyllis Harkema, North Campbell, Margaret Wells, South Campbell, and Steve Russek, North Williams.

UNDEFEATED number two players are Phyllis Carl, Kappa Delta, Ginny Collins, Alpha Phi, Ann Ford, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Judy Longnecker, Sigma Kappa, Barbara Piccuto, Alpha Chi Omega, and Joan Neeson, North Williams.

North Campbell became the black horse winner in one of the closest softball games of this season as they downed the Alpha Xi Delta nine, 13-12.

Trailing at the end of the second inning 4-2, North Campbell went on a batting spree and scored 11 runs to win, 13-1.

Concord House had the upper hand throughout their tilt with North Williams, trouncing them 22-1. Zeta Tau Alpha scored a close 4-3 victory over Benson-Potter house.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., May 9 (AP)—The Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic association will hold its first night events in history at the track finals of the association's 55th annual field day here next Friday.

Linksmen In Three Way Morning Go

By JACK O'HARA

Walnut Hills Country club will be the scene of a triangular golf match between Purdue, Detroit, and Michigan State today, as the Spartans play host to rival linksmen for the first time this season, in a morning match starting at 8:30.

Bulldozer coach Loomis Heston brought his eight-man squad to East Lansing early yesterday afternoon for a thorough workout on the course. The U. of D. team will arrive early this morning and head for the links immediately upon arrival.

Coach Ben Van Alstyne has made several changes in the line-up. Van will use a six man team, consisting of Bob Tansey in the number one position, followed by the rapidly improving Duncan Fisher at the second slot. Tansey still tops the team with a 76.2 average.

Vantone In Third Slot

Don Vantone will tee off third, followed by Brian Charter, Vantone and Fisher both retain averages of less than 80, and Charter is next with an 80.2.

Jack Mounier has been assigned to fifth spot and the sixth position has turned into a five-way scramble with Bob Hilling probably getting the nod.

Coach Heston brings a squad of eight men to MSC. Fred Wampler, one-time Indiana state finalist has the number one spot. Other Bulldozer linksmen who made the trip are, Jack Kesler, John Cleary, Bill Dahl, Gene Nemeth, Dwight Marsee, Arnold Kachler, and Charles Lamb.

Purdue & Young Team

Wampler, Kesler, Marsee, and Kachler are freshmen at the Indiana school and the other four members of the team are sophomores. Heston is a semi-finalist in an Indiana amateur tourney. Nemeth's long drives looked good at Walnut Hills during the practice session.

The strength of the Triad is unknown, and Van had little information to offer on them. The meet will consist of 36 holes of singles, doubles, and best-ball competition, with six men teeing off together. Two men from each school will form these sixes.

Fisher, 52 against the Irish at South Bend is the lowest medal play shot by anyone on the team this year. Vantone and Tansey both follow with 74. Both were fired against Northwestern. Vantone was good for three points, but Tansey's was lost when Wilbur de la Torres shot a one-under-par 70.

Service Nine Wins Game

Only one contest was decided on Old College field last night. The Dorm and Food Service squad outplayed the Businessmen Bunch to win by a final score of 9-3.

Bill Crumpton was on the line for the victors, and allowed only five scattered hits for the Bunch. He sparked his team at bat, tallying three hits off the pitching of Bart Dickerson.

Walt Siegert was behind the plate for the Food Service men, and Bob Dvorsky did the backstopping for the Bunch.

A scheduled game between the Biological Science department and a team composed of men from the Military department did not come off, since neither team put in an appearance.

The use of hot-caps, hat-shield, especially treated, paper plant covers, to protect plants from wind, cold, and direct sun while they are getting started, is advised by Jack Rose, MSC gardening specialist.

MSC Trackmen Are Favorites To Edge Nittany Lion Runners

Seeking Third Win Of Series At Penn State

By WALLY SCHRAMM

Possessing a .500 average for the first two meets of the season, Michigan State college's track team is favored to add a second victory to their record as they meet Penn State in State College, Pa., this afternoon.

Paced by miler Jack Dianetti, sprint star Bob Scheppers and all-around ace Fred Johnson, Coach Karl Schladerman's 20-man squad will also be trying to even the MSC-Penn State series which now stands at three victories for the Lions against two for State.

Dianetti will get his biggest test thus far this year as he battles IC-4A indoor champion Jerry Karver in the featured one mile run. Both men rank high among the best in college mile circles.

Scheppers Takes Four

Scheppers has taken four straight victories in the last two meets, grabbing top honors in both the 100 and the 220-yard dash against Ohio State and Notre Dame.

His best time in the 100 was a blistering .99.7 against the Buckeyes, while his top 220 clocking of 2:14 came against Notre Dame last Saturday.

Johnson, who last Saturday won the broad jump, tied for first in the high jump and finished third in the 100 yard dash, will again be given an opportunity to display his versatility as he appears in the same events.

Carl Jim Fraser, leading Spartan miler, lost by an even margin last week as Notre Dame's Ray Sobota slipped ahead at the pace to win in 30.2. On the same day Mitch Williams of Penn State was winning in 30.6 against Pitt.

Sene Holds Mark

Two miler Bob Sewell, like Dianetti, also is slated to run against one of the best in the East in the person of Curt Stone. Stone is present holder of the IC-4A indoor two mile crown. Sewell won against Notre Dame in 9:11 while Stone came in first in the Penn State Pitt meet with a 9:16 time.

Foxs Quits Game

MIAMI, Fla., May 4 (AP)—Jimmy Fox, who hit 527 home runs in 24 years of organized baseball, gave up active playing today with the thought that he was born 19 years too soon, for baseball was mighty good to him.

Fox was vacationing in Florida when he was asked to take over the reins of the new St. Petersburg club in the class C Florida International league.

Spartan's captain and consistent quarter-miler, Jim Fraser, who lost a heartbreaker in the 400 against Notre Dame a week ago, rates a slight favorite to breast the tape ahead of Penn State's Mitch Williams today at State College, Pa.

Cards Lose Musial: Star Infielder Ill With Appendicitis

NEW YORK, May 9 (AP)—The World Champion St. Louis Cardinals, already beset with multiple troubles, suffered a further serious blow today when their great first-baseman, Stan Musial, was found to have acute appendicitis and was scheduled to undergo an immediate operation.

Musial, 35, behind whom the rest of the Cards clamored to Pittsburgh this morning, looked poised on a plane leaving here late today for St. Louis, hopeful that an additional examination by the club's physician, Dr. Bob Hyland, would grant him permission to postpone the surgery.

"I'd hate to leave the lineup right now," Musial lamented. "I just hurtin' much today. There's just a dull pain all the time."

Dr. C. R. Palmer, house physician at the New Yorker hotel, where the Cardinals stop, recommended that Musial go on the table at once and yielded only reluctantly to the players' plea that he be permitted to fly to St. Louis.

Musial voted the most valuable player in the National League last year, became ill yesterday and did not participate in last night's game between the Cards and the Brooklyn Dodgers.

JV's To Tangle With Bronco's Second Squad

By ED BROWN

While the varsity meets the Western Michigan Broncos here this afternoon, the JV squad will be at Kalamazoo tangle with the Western "B" team. The game is due to start at 2:30.

Coach Hill is going to rely on the same men who whipped Percy Jones Wednesday, 9-2, to turn the trick against the Kalamazoo team.

The pitching chores will be a toss-up between left-hander Chuck Dietrich, and right-hander Dick Murphy, both of whom will probably see action during the game.

Hill should have plenty of power at the plate, with Ted Maupin, Carl Moss, and Joe Bechard, all swatting the pill at a very lusty 300 mark.
