"Europe's Economy Shaky"—Brandt

PARIS—The economic tangle in which Europe finds itself today produces some rather weird phenomena.

For example, one of the few things you will find in liberal quantities in any French "epicure" is tomato catsup. But it isn't French catsup; it's

Smith Honored By First Co-op Service Award

For the first time in the history of co-ops at MSC, an award will be made in recognition of the most valuable services by a member to the co-operative movement.

The award will be presented to Jerry Smith, East Lansing graduate student, at a dinner Sunday at Ellsworth house. Dr. George N. Motz, professor of economics, will award the plaque.

Motz will also present Ellsworth membership pins to 30 new men. This number represents the largest group of men ever to enter co-ops at MSC.

Ideas for the most valuable member award originated with Dr. Olin O. Urey, professor of economics. Urey, with other faculty members of the co-ops, devised a plan whereby an award would be made to one member selected from among all the houses.

The dinner at Ellsworth is one of many in their program of education for co-ops. In his past speeches invited to give after-dinner speeches have included Dean Ernest I. Anthony, of the school of agriculture; Paul Eugene McDaniels, one of the few women economists in the country; and Carl Kevins, of Ford N. C., who organized an entire Negro co-operative community.

Council Agenda

On the agenda of the 24th council meeting, Wednesday, Oct. 22, at 7 p.m. in room 1, H. E. will be:

Introduction of new members: Fred Wells, Mayo, and Phillips Hall.

Report on reorganization of Student Council constitution.

Report on volume machines by election committee chairman.

Discussion of student parking problems.

Question of student conduct at restaurants.

Report on action to be taken on investigation of East Lansing businesses.

Home Ec Presents Annual Dessert

"Junior Night" annual dessert for all juniors entering the School of Home Economics was given last night in the Union hall.

It is sponsored by the faculty in Home Economics to introduce the beauty of departmental staff to the new juniors. Mrs. Beatrice Grant was in charge of the affair.

The Home Ec staff with Mrs. Jeanette Lee, advisor, introduced the chairman of each major group. The club is set up in such a way that all upper classroom members are divided into special groups depending on their major.

Magnetic Milk Shake

Cary Middleberg, in celebrating his fifth birthday, shows a milkshake (the one doctors removed from his stomach). Dr. Middleberg induced the boy to take a big swallow of milkshake containing a magnet on a thread, according to a story in the Journal of the American Medical Association. The magnet removed the nail, making an operation unnecessary.

Spartan City Government Enters Primary Stages

Constitutional provisions for civic organization of Spartan City, Michigan State college barracks community of 1,100 veterans and their families, will be considered again by neighborhood representatives next Monday night.

Almost 70 representative met with the steering committee and the constitutional sub-committee for the reading of the first draft of the projected constitution Monday night.

Named Spartan City. The community has tentatively been named Spartan City for ease in writing the constitution. Neighborhood leaders, each representing from eight to 12 families, will ratify the final document at a future date.

Robert Fisher, Flint senior, and chairman of the steering committee, and Edward Marantette, Kalamazoo junior, and chairman of the constitutional committee, announced that the second meeting will be conducted at 7:30 p.m. next Monday, in the trailer camp recreation hall.

Jack de Kruij, Grand Rapids sophomore, was elected representative of the barracks area and was chosen to sit temporarily on the Student-Faculty social committee.

Read Constitution. Chairman Fisher relinquished the meeting to Marantette and his constitutional committee. The entire first draft of the constitution was read.

Each of the 14 articles was discussed from the floor. Many of the minor points raised will be clarified in the amendments and the by-laws. Marantette explained. Others of major importance will be inserted in the second draft to be presented Monday.

Terror To Spice 'Final Joke' In Thursday Workshop Play

Suspense! Liges as Morton Leeds feels the gnawing of doubt and the icy fingers of fear stalk him until...

But to learn what happens to Lankster Leeds, listen to the Radio Workshop play, "The Final Joke," aired over the college station Thursday afternoon at 6.

If you listen then, you'll hear WKAR broadcast a tale of alternating fear, apprehension, relief and terror that culminates in one of the most exciting scenes a radio mystery play could have.

Author Arthur V. Briskin, now an MSC graduate student, saw his play produced by the Columbia Workshop players of CBS and broadcasted by the Avenue Players.

Briskin has had considerable experience in radio writing, writing for the NBC series, "Grand Marquis," and CBS's "That Man May Live," as well as writing for several Jim Ammons shows. He is also a member of the Radio Writers Guild.

Students spot in the dramatic roles next week will be: Ted Brink, Grand Rapids senior, as Morton Leeds; Mary Ellen Christensen, Flint senior, as Leeds' wife Cora; Euny Jensen, Detroit junior, as Myra, the other woman; Clark Reid, Ypsilanti senior, as Stanley, the joking friend.

The cast also includes Jerry Fallon, Tupper Lake, N. Y. senior; Janice Lee Hoffman, Grosse Pointe senior; Irving Haggart, Detroit junior; and David Froh, Lansing senior.

Floriculture Club Elects Chairman

Gail Beck, Owen, Wis. junior, was elected chairman of the recently reorganized Floriculture club at its Thursday night meeting.

Other officers selected were: Ray Hunter, Wyandotte sophomore, vice chairman; Norma Butterfield, secretary; Patricia Hicks, Lansing junior, treasurer; Clyde Bryant, Pinconning graduate student, executive committee; and Jesse Rawson, Hillsdale graduate student, also to the executive committee.

Guest speaker at the meeting was Clifton Heller, class of 1932, now a florist in Howell. Heller related his experiences in the field since graduation.

West Wins Three UN

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (P)—An overwhelming majority of the United Nations assembly backed the United States and Britain against Russia today and created an 11-member U. N. commission to watch over the Balkans. The vote was 40 to 6. The Western powers scored two other smashing victories.

1—The assembly rejected a Russian demand for immediate recall of all foreign personnel and troops from Greece.

2—The Assembly rejected a Russian demand for a withdrawal of foreign troops from Greece.

ARE FOOTBALL PROS "SOFTIES"?

The boys who play for pay, says Stanley Frank, are often thrown for a loss by the tiniest personal crises. They develop more complexes than any psych major ever heard of. But Red Smith, the New York Giants' line coach, knows how to baby the bruisers... and make 'em outdo even Frank Merriwell himself when it comes to the old college try. Don't miss the amusing article in this week's Post about the fellow who is pro football's one-man court of human relations.

Continent's Bad Credit Examined

Robert Schumann, the French financial chief, estimates that the country has enough dollar credits to continue bringing in vital imports until the middle of the month but no longer.

When the dollar is exchanged for francs, it is used to pay for imports of what the French government will be required to pay for imports. The French government will be required to pay for imports of what the French government will be required to pay for imports.

It is true that the dollar reserves of the Banque de France could be used to help tide the country over this rough spot, but Premier Paul Ramadier, an astute and often eloquent tactician, realizes that such a move would kick the last prop out from under the steadily-decreasing value of the French franc.

If this were to happen, the rising waters of inflation would reach the government, continuing with its policy of government expenditure control, and plunge the land into chaos.

CHILE

SANTIAGO, Chile, Oct. 21 (AP)—The Chilean government announced tonight that it had broken diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia. An official said Chile's action was automatic, related with the Communist infiltration in the nation's southern coal zone recently the scene of labor unrest when Chilean authorities have attributed to Communist action.

O'Brien, Author Of Text, Visits Class In Religion

Not often does the author of the textbook used in a classroom appear before students. That is what happened in Religious Education, 307, yesterday. Father John O'Brien, author of "Truths, My Live By," was introduced to the class by Father Jerome Mar-

Enchin who teaches the course. Father O'Brien, on campus this week to conduct a student retreat sponsored by Newman Club, received his Ph.D. from the University of Illinois where he spent 26 years as chaplain and professor. He now teaches the Philosophy of Religion at the University of Notre Dame. Following the question-answer technique, Fr. O'Brien conducted the student conference being held at St. Thomas Aquinas.

Students submit questions on evolution, predestination, the Bible and marriage problems were treated Monday and Tuesday. Tonight's subjects will cover "Religion and Life". The conferences are held at 4:15 and 7:30 at the church.
