Today's Tilt Marks Fifth Victory Try

Sportans Can Show Only Scorelem Tie In Previous Games

Michigan State's football cam will be shooting for its tram will be shouting for its initial win over an old re-spected foe when it meets the University of Santa Clara Broncus on Macklin field at 2 p.m. today. The game is the last at home for the Spartans and will also be the final game in the present statium.

Sime for next and a slight favorite state is rated a slight favorite. State is rated a slight favorite on its season record of four victories and two defeats against tough opposition, Senta Clara has an even three and three count on the hooks.

However, the Spartans must fight off an old jinx which has limited Green and White elevens to a total of six points in four to a total of six points in four previous strangles with the
