

Royal Welcome Awaiting Spartans In Honolulu Game

By EDWARD OWENS

Michigan State Day in the Territory of Hawaii has been declared by Ingram M. Stainback, governor of the islands. A special five-day celebration arranged for the Spartan team, coaching staff, administrative officials, and alumni.

Activities center around the University of Hawaii. The Spartans will arrive in Honolulu on November 28.

The Chief Executive will send a message of appreciation to the islands for the courtesy shown to the college and the state.

The proclamation reads as follows: WHEREAS, the football teams of Michigan State College and the University of Hawaii will meet on the gridiron at the Honolulu stadium on Saturday, November 28, 1947;

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that a warm welcome be extended to the visitors from Michigan; and

WHEREAS, the Territory of Hawaii is indebted and grateful to the State of Michigan for the prominent role her sons have assumed in the development of Hawaii;

NOW, therefore, I, Ingram M. Stainback, Governor of Hawaii, do hereby proclaim Saturday, Nov. 29, 1947, a MICHIGAN STATE DAY, and do call upon the people of Hawaii to participate in the numerous activities arranged for the Michigan State college football team and its supporters in order that their stay here may be both pleasant and memorable.

Ingram M. Stainback, Governor of Hawaii.

Glen O. Stewart, director of alumni relations, disclosed that upwards of 35 MSC alumni are in the islands, including Kerby Gillette, Major George Branch, and Jack Dunn.

A special portion of the stadium has been set aside for a dining cheering section composed of all persons from Michigan attending the game.

Among the festivities planned by the alumni include a Thanksgiving Day dinner for the team at the Royal Hawaiian hotel, and a reception and dance following the game.

During their five-day stay in the islands, the MSC party will take a luncheon tour of the Island of Oahu.

Get Those Books
All persons who have not picked up their Wolverines are requested to do so immediately. The yearbooks may be obtained in the Wolverine office, Union building, it was announced yesterday.

Three Faculty Men Auction Services At WSSF Dance
The Union grill will add inexperienced help this morning when three members of the faculty will serve coffee and coffee from 11 to 12. At the service of the students will be P. S. Mills, business administration, J. A. Beagle, chemistry, and V. E. Britton, business administration.

They will be before the auctioneer's gavel at the WSSF dance tonight. The bids were turned over to the fund by the Green School sophomore men's honor society.

M. K. Farmer, history department, will be working in front of the Union from 10 to 11, and it is reported that the Sigma Chi fire engine will be involved in his department.

Patriarche Takes Over January 1

New City Manager Succeeds H. W. Lott

John M. Patriarche, MSC graduate and East Lansing city engineer, will take office as the college city's new manager January 1, following the resignation of Harry W. Lott, who has held the position for 20 years.

Patriarche, only 30 years old, graduated from State in 1928 with a B.A. degree in engineering. He has been associated with East Lansing city government since 1939 when he became operator of the sewage disposal plant.

In 1942 he was appointed superintendent of public works and assistant city engineer. He became city assessor in 1944 and full-time engineer at the beginning of this year when he also took over the assistant city manager's job.

Patriarche's appointment came Monday as the result of a unanimous vote of the city council in closed session.

A native of East Lansing, the new city manager was graduated from high school here in 1934 and after four years at MSC was employed briefly by Abrams Aerial Survey corporation, Lansing, and Great Lakes Steel corporation, Ecorse.

The city official's father, Herbert K. Patriarche, is a 1902 grad of MSC, and his brother, Mercer, finished at State in 1937. Another brother, Philip, is city fire inspector.

Patriarche is married and has two children.

Monday Vote Ends Bitter NSA Fight, Freshman Election

By ED OWENS

Decks cleared for action, eight confident candidates today trained their guns on Monday's final contest for freshman class office. A ninth ran ahead of the election rules in an attempt to stage a write-in comeback in the Monday balloting.

Meanwhile, the NSA affair—election proposal made headway slowly. An official breakdown of the 1944 votes cast Thursday on the question was not available.

The question remains open Monday when those who did not vote during the primaries get a final chance to express their opinions.

Dual Battle Here.
Robert Klein, Detroit, and Donald Boyd, Bronxville, N.Y., will battle Monday for the dual office of class president and Student Council representative.

Klein led in the primaries, but past experience indicates that vote shifts from the camp of defeated candidates render predictions dangerous.

The same may be said of the remaining contests, which will see Walter Parson, Brockton, Mass., and Lillian Constand, Detroit, chasing the brass ring on the vice-presidential merry-go-round.

Ballot Gets Support.
Jean McCowan, Lansing, and Barbara Storkel, Grosse Pointe, will vie for the post of secretary; and Kaye Kernkamp, Grosse Pointe, and Thomas Root, Dunbar, N.Y., jockeying for the treasurer's job.

Robert Bailey, who placed third in the presidential primaries, authored some support yesterday for his write-in try in the final election.

Students urged to vote. Write-in candidates are permitted a chance in the primaries, said Marshall Bennett, rules chairman. Failure to get past that hurdle bars further consideration unless one of the finalists is forced to drop out of the running, he said.

One last call to all students to vote.

Campus Scenery Calendars On Sale In The Book Store

Appointment calendars for 1948 have been placed on sale by Union Board at the Union desk and book store, Elmer Longnecker, Union Board president announced yesterday.

The ring-bound calendars contain a page for every week in the year. Each page is faced by a full picture of a campus scene or student activity. Also included are dates of college functions.

The books will sell for a dollar, Longnecker said.

'Goose Chase' Heads List Of 'S' Dances

Three Dances, Parties In Tonight's Socials

By ALMA EVA

An evening of fun is predicted for students attending the "Goose Chase" all-college stag-drag dance sponsored by SAE in the Women's gym tonight.

A Thanksgiving goose will be awarded to the person who discovers the wearer of a man's garter, the mate of which will be displayed on the bandstand.

Shaver Band To Play.
Jimmy Shaver's orchestra will play for this informal party. Following the theme, the band members will wear plaid shirts. Tickets are on sale at the Union ticket office.

Students may play cards and dance to records at the ISA "Turtle Hop," all-college stag-drag dance in the Union ballroom tonight.

Small paper turtles will be provided for girls with dates to prevent confusion among the stags.

Square Dancing.
An all-college square dance will be held at the Stock pavilion tonight, sponsored by the campus 4-H club.

A regular square dance caller and orchestra will be on hand. Tonight's term parties include Delta Tau Delta, Rockdale co-op, East and West London, Delta Sigma Phi, and West Mayo.

Slowdowns Hit Detroit Papers For Third Day

DETROIT, Nov. 21 (AP) — For the third successive day, Detroit's afternoon newspapers, Times and News, were late with edition deadlines, while the typographical and mailers unions continued denying publisher's charges of "slowdown tactics."

For a fourth straight time the first edition of the morning Free Press was delayed tonight.

In a front page box addressed to readers and advertisers, the Times said:

"We deeply regret that, due to a series of slowdowns and chapel meetings by printers and mailers, it has been necessary for this newspaper to omit many columns of scheduled editorial matter and advertising today."

"This lack of normal operation prevents our providing complete and regular service to our readers and advertisers."

The Detroit Newspaper Publishers' association, representing the Morning Free Press, demanded that both the Detroit Typographical Union Local 18 and the Detroit Mailers Union Local 40 put an end to "deliberately planned chapel meetings" in composing and mailing rooms.

Bradley Named New Army Chief Of Staff

Will Take Over When Eisenhower Assumes Presidency Of Columbia

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP) — Four-star Gen. Omar Bradley was chosen today to succeed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as Army Chief of Staff, and Carl R. Gray, Jr., a railroad executive, was named to follow Bradley as veterans' administrator.

Bradley's appointment as chief of staff had been anticipated ever since Eisenhower announced his forthcoming retirement from military life to accept the presidency of Columbia university. But the selection of Gray to supervise veterans' affairs was a surprise to official Washington.

Three other shifts in the high executive posts were announced by President Truman at his news conference:

1. Robert Littlejohn is resigning as war assets administrator effective Nov. 22. His deputy, Jesse Larson, will take over his job, pointing toward liquidation of WAA, except its real estate, by next June.

2. Maj. Gen. Clifton B. Cates was appointed commandant of the Marine Corps, succeeding Gen. Alexander A. Vandegrift, who is retiring.

3. Dillon S. Myer resigned as commissioner of the U.S. Housing Authority, in the expectation of taking another government position. Mr. Truman said Myer has not said what job he wants.

Not Retired.
The President said that he does not know when Eisenhower plans to step out as chief of staff. Maj. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, Army public relations chief, said reports that Eisenhower's plans are "very indefinite" but that he probably will begin his terminal leave "around the latter part of February." He made the announcement after talking by telephone with the five-star general, who is in Walter Reed hospital for a routine checkup.

To Make Moves.
Bradley, who commanded the 12th Army Group in Europe during the war, will go back to the army Dec. 1. He is expected to make a survey of army posts before assuming the duties of chief of staff.

Gray, a St. Paul, Minn., Republican, is slated to go in as Veterans' administrator. J. V. Over Clark, executive assistant administrator, will be in charge of veterans' affairs during December.

The crowning of Dorothy DeLoys, Detroit sophomore, as Pom-pom Queen opened the 24-act carnival, which ranged from prize and skill to tomfoolery on the living board and included swimming heats, colorful precision swimming and novelty acts. Gordon Elliot, Inkster senior, was ring master.

The queen had as her court, Mary Ellen Bohlen, Goodrich freshman, Thelma Doud, East Lansing sophomore, Delores Weinburg, Flint freshman, and Marion Lovel, Canton, Ill. sophomore.

The show will be presented twice today at 2 and 8 p.m.

Award Tugboats.
Qualifying for the semi-finals in the surety regatta this afternoon were Alpha Omicron, Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Phi, Sigma Kappa and Gamma Phi Beta.

The queen and her court awarded trophies to the Kappa Alpha Theta team for being the best costumed, and to the Alpha Phi team for showing the most personality.

Four programs are scheduled on the lecture-concert series for the remainder of the term. Ruth Chatterton, famous star of stage, screen, and radio, will speak in the College auditorium Monday evening. She will give readings from her favorite parts and talk about the highlights of her career.

Albert Spalding, world-famous violinist, will present two concerts in the auditorium, December 1 and 2.

As an extra number on the series, Phil Spitalny and his all girl orchestra are to come to State December 2.

The fall series will close with a lecture by Dorothy Thompson, December 4.

Tickets for the Spitalny show, priced from 50 cents to three dollars, are now on sale in the Union ticket office. Students may obtain tickets for other Spalding concert by presenting their activity books at the auditorium at the time of the program.

Certain time is 8:15 for all the programs mentioned except the Phil Spitalny show, which begins at 8:30.

Shelton Bell To Aid Jewish DP Drive

A United Jewish Appeal Committee will hold a benefit concert from 8:30 to 12 at the Regency ballroom on South Washington avenue.

The dance is a part of the current project to raise funds for the aid of European displaced persons, and of the Jewish Appeal drive.

The concert will be conducted by a local orchestra.

On WJIM Disc Jockey Show

Music For Students 'Wee Willie's' Aim

Every evening Monday through Friday, "Wee Willie, The Night Music Man" is busy spinning a lot of listenable records about the time most of us are hitting the books or hitting the hay.

At 11:30 p.m. "Wee Willie" is at his turntables on the fifth floor of the Book of Lovers building, the day's mail of show, a stack of records of other, and proceeds to spin the music with a few other tunes. The result is a disc jockey show on air at any on the airwaves.

New Music.
"Wee Willie" is better known around WJIM as "Wee Willie" and he's the man behind "something new in music" in this area.

Dougherty has been featured in the local radio program which began two weeks ago. He has a few other shows. He will be a regular on WJIM's 11:30 p.m. show.

He will be a regular on WJIM's 11:30 p.m. show.

Departmental Work Calls Two Teachers Away During Week

Two associate professors of the History and Political Science department, Dr. Carroll Hawkins, and Mrs. Ladore Irwin will be away from the college over Thanksgiving in connection with departmental work.

Dr. Carroll Hawkins left yesterday for Minneapolis, Minn., to consult with publishers of his manuscript on Harold J. Lasker, Socialist party leader in England.

Mrs. Irwin will attend the annual meeting of the National Council of Social Studies in St. Louis, Mo., arriving during the Thanksgiving period. In relation to her course, special methods in the social studies.

On each broadcast a money melody is played for the listener who has submitted the name of a town which brings back memories of a special nature, along with a brief outline of the program.

The jockeys are chosen by the "Wee Willie" committee, and the first week's broadcast was a success.

The second week's broadcast was a success.

The third week's broadcast was a success.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR:

In voicing his opinion concerning the National Student Association, Jerry Warren, Student Council president, expressed a majority of students' attitudes also. N.S.A. student voters are being pushed for a hasty decision by a very small minority of N.S.A. supporters.

There is not enough general interest around campus to promote intelligent discussion or criticism of such a proposed constitution. If N.S.A. has a constitution why not have some intelligent critics available for student consideration?

If approved, N.S.A. will dedicate itself to solving students' problems. A centralized committee-solicited officials financed through students' taxation—located hundreds of miles from N.S.A. function is administration. How much power over campus will these leaders exercise? Local campus politics are covered by a somewhat significant thing on the part of our own student body—except during election campaigns perhaps.

When strong local student government advocates, N.S.A. will have absolute representation with N.S.A.

Participating in local affairs will now give students the political experience necessary for national citizenship subsequent to graduation.

Let's save the nation! Developments until such a time when experience and practice merit entrance into them.

ation's Top Harriers Entered For NCAA Run

'46 Champions Face Stiff Test Here Monday

By MIKE LE PERE
A record number of 253 runners and 34 schools will compete Monday morning at 11:30 for the E. C. "Billy" Hayes trophy in the ninth annual NCAA cross country championships over the Michigan State four-mile course.

Leading a list of the ranking harrier runners in the nation will be Quentin Brelsford of Ohio Wesleyan, last year's champion. Brelsford, who is undefeated in two years of cross country running, annexed last year's NCAA individual title by running the four miles in 20:22.9.

Competing for Brelsford's title will be Jerry Thompson, of Texas, the NCAA defending two-mile champion, and John Pattee of UCLA, the Pacific coast champion.

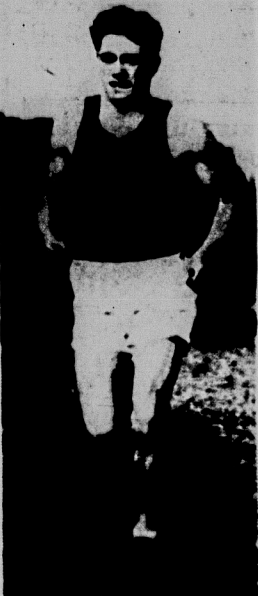

Thompson is rated the outstanding distance runner to come out of Texas since the Rideout twins.

Seven Runners For State
Michigan State, entering a team of seven runners, has high anticipation of taking its first team championship since 1939.

Led by Jack Dianetti, the Spartan team will also include Captain Ed Kiezenski, Bob Sewell, Tom Irwin, Clark Atcheson, Kevin Higgins, and Don Trull.

Other big name runners who will make their appearance are Robert Black of Rhode Island State, winner of the IC-4A five-mile championship last Monday, Horace Ashenfelter and Gerry Karver, both of Penn State, who jointly hold the Michigan State course record, and Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin, the Big Nine individual champion.

Drake Defending
Drake University, champion for the last three years, will find heavy competition from both Texas and Notre Dame, two of the strongest teams in the country.

College Grabs Should-Stop, Says Kobs

Much hope is placed on how much action will be taken in the pro league raiding of college talent during the Major League Baseball meeting at Miami, Fla., in December, Michigan State baseball coach, John Kobs said yesterday.

Kobs, secretary-treasurer of the American Association of college baseball coaches said that on behalf of other collegiate coaches an L-toucher agreement should be applied to baseball players in college similar to professional and college football.

"We don't think our demands are unreasonable," Kobs said. "We just want organized baseball to refrain from signing college players until either the athlete or his class has graduated or until college officials rule the athlete available for professional negotiating."

Kobs was recently highly irritated over the Major League grab of Robin Roberts, Spartan pitcher, and Marty Hansen, veteran shortstop.

Snyder 12 Cops Title By Narrow Margin

Russ Frye led the Snyder 12 team to an 18 to 14 victory over Snyder 11 Thursday night, making them the 1947 touch football champions of Snyder hall.

Frye figured in all of the scoring. He ran around left end for 20 yards for his squad's first tally, then threw passes to Tom Broucek and Bob McLouth for the other markers.

Another of the evening's individual standouts was Hank Mier whose Quonset 1 six roud shed over a Quonset Killer out in 23-0. Hank connected with Bob Wishart and Dick Lloyd for tallies. He then hit Buck Zvoda twice for scores.

Harold Turnbull led Abbot 17 to a 12 to 0 triumph over Abbot 12, making them champions of Abbot Hall. Turnbull passed to Guy Bogart for his team's first touchdown while Bob Smith took a pass from Turnbull for the second counter.

The victor in the Phillips hall title race was left undecided as Phillips 6 and Phillips 4 battled to a 7-7 standstill.

Mason 6 annexed the Mason hall crown with a stunning 27 to 6 victory over Mason 5. Ed Kosun led 6 with a 30-yard touchdown run. He then threw two touchdowns to Don Morrow and Harry Birney. Morrow took a pass from Lloyd Hoxie for the other score.

Death Toll Reaches 22 In Italian Strife

ROME, Nov. 21 (AP) — Armed mobs ranged the streets of Biadene in southeastern Italy today, and the toll of deaths rose to 22 in the ten-day reign of terror and disorder that has swept the nation.

Five dead and nearly a score of wounded were added to the casualties by two government ammunition dump explosions, which Minister of Defense Marion Cingolani declared to the constituent assembly were planned "acts of terrorism" intended to deprive army garrisons of ammunition. One of the dumps at Casano D'Adda, 18 miles northeast of Milan, went off November 15, the day after the leftist-inspired outbreak in Milan which started the series of riots, strikes, assassinations and street fights reaching from the top to the bottom of Italy.

The other dump at Vigevano, also near Milan, let go November 17. Four died at Casano and one at Vigevano.

A serious situation prevailed in areas of southeastern Italy where many towns, including Bitonto, Materano and Irsina were virtually isolated by armed mobs who had followed their usual strategy of setting up road blocks and cutting communications before going to work on their political enemies. All these towns are in Apulia near Bari.

Meagre dispatches from Bitonto said mobs carrying firearms roamed the town.

The navy malaria rate per thousand men in World War II was 15 in 1942, 27 in 1943, since in 1944, and three in 1945.
