KAR Airs Verbal Fireworks

"Answering the Editor" was originated several years ago by WKAR studio lounge just before the program goes on the air. He would probably think that he had walked in on a meeting of the UN committee.

Many Topics Discussed

So far this term, "Answering the Editor" presented discussions on the following questions: What can we do about inflation? Do we need tax relief? Do we need the Marshall Plan? Is organized labor justified in asking for a third round of wage increases?

Prior to the program one of the participants was asked if the group had time to rehearse.

"No," he said. "We just dig up all the arguments we can find and at 2:30 we begin."

Commodity Price Drop 'Healthful'

No Slump Forecast By Top Economists

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—Most government economists tonight called the commodity price break "healthful." They held small fear of a collapse which would lead to a business slump.

The Commerce department reported it was too early to interpret, "we're willing to wait and see."

Meanwhile grain prices skidded downward despite some signs of strength, and the stock market regained its balance.

Confident economists in other agencies—the Federal Reserve board, Agriculture department and the President's Council of Economic Advisors—gave views which may be summarized as follows:

First Views

1. This week's plunge of grain prices after two weeks of gradual decline is probably a "shallow" adjustment rather than a token of collapse.

2. The markets will come to a stop-and-listen point fairly soon. They may move considerably lower before pausing.

3. The leveling period will last several weeks at least, until spring weather signs are reliable.

4. Prices will rebound to the dizzy peak of late 1947.

5. Three-dollar wheat will not return.

6. Retail prices of bread, dairy products and other foods won't match the current sag on the exchanges. But the upward trend of grocery prices may be checked.

7. Grain prices could go lower without hurting farmers.

8. The effect on family budgets and economic stability.

9. The market will strengthen consumer resistance to high prices. People will switch to paying more for bread, butter and flour when they know grain prices have dropped. In its effect on popular psychology, the market adjustment is shallow.

This is not a collapse. We have hit a bump but we're going over the "hump."

The underlying demand situation remains strong.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Train For Gandhi

NEW DELHI, Feb. 6 (AP)—The Indian Railway board announced tonight that a special train will carry Mohandas Gandhi's ashes for immersion in the waters of three sacred rivers next Thursday.

Students, faculty and townspeople will be able to bear Sen. Homer Ferguson, of Michigan, to the college auditorium Monday at 2 p.m.

Ferguson is one of 12 senators and representatives speaking throughout Michigan during the Lincoln Day season.

He will appear in Detroit, Kalamazoo, Saginaw and Monroe.

Sen. Ferguson Talks Monday

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (AP)—

The Civil Aeronautics Administration announced today that four American pilots returning from Nicaragua will be suspended as the result of an alleged plot to bomb the capital of Venezuela.

All college events, such as the coming J-Hop, will have buses furnished, Fisher emphasized.

OK Wallace Forms

LANSING, Feb. 6 (AP)—Attorney General Eugene F. Black today approved the form of petitions to place Henry A. Wallace's third party on the Michigan presidential election ballot.

Grain Prices Fall

CHICAGO, Feb. 6 (AP)—The collapse in grain prices continued today on the Board of Trade. Wheat, corn and soybeans were off their daily limits for the third consecutive session, but oats ended with gains in distant contracts and lard was fairly steady.

The group does not limit discussions to a radio audience. They also carry out a program "in person" before audiences upon invitation.

Kind Spartans Share The Wealth

The Red Cedar ducks are living up to their Spartan heritage again this winter. Flocking around the three Dearborn men above, they get one of the many handouts that keep them alive during hard Michigan cold spells. Feeding the birds are, left to right: Robert Tessner, visitor from the U of M; David Price, sophomore, and Carl Bach, also a sophomore.

Campus Bus Operation To Commence Monday

Five cent campus bus service will start Monday morning at 7:35. Robert Fisher, Student council member, announced last night.

Buses will leave the Home Economics building at 10 minutes after the hour and 25 minutes before the hour. They will arrive at five minutes before the hour and 30 minutes after the hour.

Fisher said that route maps will be distributed to all campus buildings by the Student council. The route originally considered is to be used, he added.

This will send buses around Circle drive to Kalamazoo, Birch road, Birch road through Barracks apartments to Shaw lane, Shaw lane to Farm lane, Farm lane back to Home Economics building via the Circle drive.

Service will stop at 6:30 p.m. If demand warrants, a second bus running in the opposite direction may be added, Fisher revealed.

"The college can have nothing to do with such matters off the campus," said President John Hannah, "and so will not become involved in the dispute."

Hannah pointed out that in the matter of racial tolerance, the college is recognized as having one of the best records in the country.

Men's Senator Tom King questioned all students involved. Dean of Students S. E. Croze said, "Legally forcing the issue is starting at the wrong end of the problem."

"It is regrettable," added Registrar Robert S. Linton, "if we have to force democratic practices."

Seven students half asked the Ingham county prosecutor Tuesday to institute legal action against three East Lansing bartenders for refusing to cut the hair of Negro students.

A boot of high value to frost sensitive plant growers, the machine is the outcome of two and one-half years of research. The department worked in conjunction with the Detroit Agricultural and Industrial Foundation in its development.

HAPPY NEW YEAR Recovered Yet? Chinese Group Just Beginning

For most of us, last year and New Year's resolutions have long been forgotten—but for nearly 60 Chinese students on campus, the new year is just around the corner.

Monday will see the dawn of the twenty-fifth year of the re-ent-ty-seventh cycle of the old calendar.

Young women particularly interested will no doubt be happy to find out that in China, a girl gives every two or three years. Furthermore, a whole month is added, not just one day.

College officials said they would maintain a "hands-off" policy regarding alleged discrimination in East Lansing.

"The college can have nothing to do with such matters off the campus," said President John Hannah, "and so will not become involved in the dispute."

Hannah pointed out that in the matter of racial tolerance, the college is recognized as having one of the best records in the country.

"It is regrettable," added Registrar Robert S. Linton, "if we have to force democratic practices."

Seven students half asked the Ingham county prosecutor Tuesday to institute legal action against three East Lansing bartenders for refusing to cut the hair of Negro students.

Prosecutor MacLean notified the shops involved that discrimination against Negroes was a violation of the Duggs Civil Rights act.

The Walkers now have nine children. The oldest is 16. Where today.

TRIPLE THREAT Parents Make History With Birth Of Triplets

they all will sleep in their four-bedroom home is a question.

Boy Came First

First to arrive today was a six-pound boy, at 12:06 p.m. (EST).

A five-pound, four and one-half ounce girl followed. The third, another girl, weighed in at five pounds, thirteen and one-half ounces, eight minutes after her brother.

Mrs. Walker normally weighs about 135 pounds. She had wanted all girls.

In addition to the first set of triplets—Peter, Paul and Patricia—born April 21, 1943, the Walkers have John, 16, Michael Joseph, 14, and James Patrick, who will be seven a week from today.

Arab Group Warns Of Palestine Battles If UN Uses Force

Political Blackmail Charge Hurled Against U.S. For Part In Partition

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 6 (UPI) — Palestine Arabs told the United Nations today that they would battle any international military units sent to enforce partition.

The Arabs charged also in a formal note that "The pressure put by the United States delegation and government on certain nations is nothing short of political blackmail." This was in reference to the U.S. support of the UN assembly November 29 partition decision.

The Arabs, through their higher committee representatives, further advised Secretary General Trygve Lie that UN efforts to divide Palestine would be considered as an act of aggression.

The Arab statement came in the midst of other developments in the situation.

In an interview, the Soviet Ukraine accused the British government of obstructing the partition plan.

Replying to the charge made thus by Delegate Vassily A. Tarasevitch, a British spokesman said UN members are waking up belatedly to the dangers of splitting the Holy Land. He said Britain had been contented in her stand and had tried to warn the UN of the dangers it would face while armed only with a peace plan devoid of enforcement measures.

The Security council put the Palestine situation on its provisional agenda for discussion at the next meeting on Monday.

Flower Group Holds Second Meeting Here

Needs of commercial gladiolus growers, the home gardeners and the gladiolus fanciers are being considered at the 12th annual Gladiolus Growers' conference, which began yesterday and will continue today at MSC.

Bulbs of numerous new and standard varieties will be auctioned off at the meeting which is sponsored by the Michigan Gladiolus Society in cooperation with the college extension service. The bulb auction will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday with Zack Holmes and William Poole as auctioneers.

A repeat on the 1947 gladiolus fertilizer plate will be given by Dr. James E. Molton of the horticulture department tomorrow. The afternoon session will feature a panel discussion on "Let's Study Production Costs." LaVerne Curry, Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant, will explain the new methods of propagating gladioli Saturday.

Williams Women Plan Term Party On Novel Theme

Sadie Hawkins day and Leap Year will be celebrated simultaneously tonight when South and North Williams girls join together to present their annual term party.

Dancing to records will begin at nine and continue until 12. Both recreation rooms will be open for refreshments.

Barbara Horton, Cassopolis junior, mistress of ceremonies, will introduce a trio made up of Ceci Richards, Ferndale freshman; Dolores Wesołowicz, Wyandotte junior, and Donald Casson, Dearborn sophomore. A Sadie Hawkins day skit will also be on the program.

Chairmen of committees are Ruth Sonnenberg, Munkegon junior, checkerboard; Barbara Balentine, Dearborn senior, entertainment; Charlotte Sutcliffe, Birmingham junior, poster; Jo Neel, Niagara Falls, N.Y., sophomore; Shirley Salt, Detroit junior, recordings; and Barbara Shook, Grand Rapids senior, patrons.

Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Duce, Miss Phoebe Strube and her father, Gordon Putnam, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Loberger will be patrons for the dance.

PRO Representative Speaks To Foresters

William Finlay, public relations man for a wood manufacturing association, gave a talk to the forestry club Tuesday night on the methods used in regenerating land not stands in the United States.

The speaker used films and a system of charts to explain his views.

Brotherhood Topic Of Talk

"Religion and Brotherhood" will be the subject of a talk by Hoyt C. Reed, associate professor of social science, Sunday afternoon at 4 in the Union Tower room.

The meeting is sponsored by the Spartan YMCA and will be open to all students and faculty members. It will be the second in a series of Sunday afternoon religious discussions. An open discussion period will follow the lecture.

Reed is a member of the Education committee of Greater Lansing. He has made inter-faith understanding and cooperation a personal project.

WSSE Story Told In Report

With new machines and by knocking down the rear wall of the shelter, production can be quadrupled, they said.

WSSE plans to use part of State's money for this purpose, the letter reported.

Vietnamese students face a different problem.

Twenty Per Cent Ill

Of 11,536 students examined there last year, 20 per cent were found to be suffering serious ailments of the lungs, heart, stomach, or intestines. Tuberculosis was high on the list.

The letter said that medical supplies were being purchased in Switzerland, for those who needed them most.

Only students who have lost over 30 pounds in weight are considered as being qualified for medical attention, the letter continues. "We should like to use part of your contribution for this project."

Asia To Report Later

Information on the use of money assigned to the relief of Asiatic students will be sent later from that area, the report concluded.

Trailer Section Elects Officers

Members of section F of the trailer camps met on Jan. 22 and elected their new officers for the winter term.

Results show that Bert O'Keefe, Civic freshman, was selected as their new president; Jan Tufford, trailer camp graduate student, will serve as secretary. As the section representative, members chose George Higginson, Lewiston, Idaho, graduate student.

Also elected were Donna Lee Bellon and George Klingel, Westfield, Wis., junior; Mary Alice Barnes will act as utility house chairman.

Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Duce, Miss Phoebe Strube and her father, Gordon Putnam, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Loberger will be patrons for the dance.

Sigler Calls For U.S. Aid To Get Fuel

LANSING, Feb. 6 (UPI) — President Truman was called on for assistance in the Michigan natural gas shortage today when Governor Sigler telephoned him "an emergency exists."

Putting into operation a strong program to get both immediate and long range relief from the tightening gas supply, Michigan's unemployment compensation load has increased by 50,000 cases as a direct result. The situation is critical and fast becoming intolerable. Every effort is being made by all state agencies to alleviate the situation but we cannot solve the problem without federal help."

"An emergency exists. The people of Michigan are looking to you and every federal agency concerned with this problem to come to their assistance in procuring more natural gas and a greater supply of petroleum from which to make artificial gas."

Members of the Michigan Public Service commission, on Sigler's orders, were preparing to attend a hearing into the matter in Washington Monday before the Federal Power commission.

Ex-Cadet Gets Regular Army Commission

Andrew Jackson Roach, Berryville, Ark., is the first MSC ROTC graduate to be commissioned in the regular army since the end of the war, Col. John Whitelaw, ROTC commanding officer, disclosed yesterday.

Roach was graduated in 1947 with honors in ROTC. The action was due to a recently announced army policy of taking into active service the cream of the college ROTC corps each year.

"We expect that Roach will be the first in a long line of MSC men commissioned after completing their four-year ROTC programs," Whitelaw said.

The army is counting on the ROTC and the organized reserves as major sources of future officer material."
