

AL'S HALF ACRE

Menace to Medicine

THE National Physicians' committee is offering newspaper cartoonists prizes up to $1,000 for appraisals of the "political distribution of medical care" in the United States.

We received several pages of glossy propaganda from the committee this week, including sample editorials about the dangers of state medicine.

The reason for this sudden outburst is embodied in measures now pending in Congress to amend the Social security act which will, according to the committee, "place the distribution of medical care in the United States under a government bureaucrat."

The bill referred to is the Murray-Wagner-Dingell bill, which authorizes the surgeon general to take all necessary and practical steps to arrange for personal health service benefits for all social security beneficiaries and their dependents." This covers 110,000,000 people. The bill provides for medical, dental, home nursing, laboratory and hospitalization benefits. The bill calls for national health insurance, but the committee says that in reality it is state medicine.

The committee's press releases read something like this:

"The source of the unremitting and relentless drive for compulsory sickness insurance—socialized medicine—the potential distribution of medical care in this country is the Moscow dominated Communist party in the United States."

The National Physicians' committee may be right about all these charges. It is their privilege to fight the passage of this legislation.

My only experience with anything approaching socialized medicine was in the army, and I didn't like it. State medicine is a distasteful prospect. The physicians' committee, however, is a little hasty to whitewash the medical profession without offering a cure-for-all which will erase the clamor for socialized medicine.

It's about time the National Physicians' committee did something about providing medical training to ALL those who are qualified and desirous of getting it. The nation is short of doctors, yet thousands of applicants are turned away because there is no room in the medical schools. Some Americans are turned away from medical schools for a more insidious reason: they are Negroes. Jews. This is as much a problem for doctors as it is for medical schools.

There is no doubt that many Americans are too poor to get proper medical and dental care. If socialized medicine is not the answer the physicians' committee should come forward with a satisfactory solution instead of prating about the evils of bureaucracy.

How many operators will we need NEXT YEAR?

This is but one of the many questions telephone men are called upon to answer.

Part of their work has always been to anticipate demands for personnel . . . to determine what additional equipment must be provided, what new construction will be necessary to handle the constantly increasing demands for service.

Careful planning in every phase of telephone work requires the services of many qualified men. For them, this growing business offers the opportunity for active, interesting careers.

There's a future in telephony.

Code of the Week —

After studying ballet and modern dancing, dancing professionally, owning part of a troupe of dancers and living in New York's midtown as a "career girl" for several years — Theda Assiff returned to Michigan to attend MSC.

Shortly after she arrived on campus Theda was one of the originators of the Dionysian organization, which was staffed last year. The group was for the benefit of students who felt they had talent in some form of theater art, "but hadn't had a chance to show their talents."

At the time of one of the recent President's balls in connection with the March of Dimes, Theda was dancing in a troupe at the Washington theater; when Hollywood stars, invited to the event, came backstage to congratulate them on the performance. Among the stars were George Raft, Eleanor Parker, and Brian Aherne.

The people you meet in show business are grand," Theda says seriously, "and not at all as pictured by the average theater-goer. They're serious about their work, and trying to get ahead."

"I feel that I gained valuable experience just associating with the professional people."

In her work with the MSC Dionysians, Theda is in charge of creating and directing dance routines, and also is designing costumes for the current period production.

When she graduates from school the coed hopes to go into radio work, along lines which will include work with television. She definitely "expects to have a career," and dancing will feature in it somewhere.

Theda is a first term junior, living at home in Lansing. Her major is in radio.

New Tri-Delta Sorority To Fete Pledges At Tea

Members and pledges of the sorority will entertain pledges of all campus sororities at an informal tea in the women's parlors of Peoples' church Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m. Also invited are sorority housemothers and the house presidents.

District Officers Invited Coming for Saturday's event will be several district officers of the sorority. District president, Mrs. R. C. Kittredge of Detroit, and Mrs. Gale Wessinger of the Detroit alliance, will be honored guests.

The tea will be installed as an annual affair, to be held following formal rush each winter term, with its primary purpose being to acquaint pledges, Carolyn King, Carsonville, junior, is

Condon Called Innocent

FBI Reports No Evidence Of Disloyalty

WASHINGTON, March 3 (UPI)—Atomic scientists refused to the defense of Dr. Edward U. Condon today, and it was disclosed that an FBI report said there was no evidence Condon was disloyal in his alleged associations with a Russian spy network.

The effect of the statement of Stangard was outlined by the Federation of American Scientists as the action of a "deliberate smug" Is sealed a report of a house on American activities subcommittee which later said he混了 with alleged Russian agents.

The house committee chairman, Rep. J. Purcell Thomas (D-N.J.), conceded today that the report had omitted the favorable reference to Condon in quoting from a letter by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Thomas explained that an investigator had copied only parts of the Hoover letter and said the subcommittee used all that it had in making its report.

A further check disclosed he said, "that while Hoover did say there was evidence that Condon had been disloyal in associating with this one individual, the tenor of the rest of the three and a half pages is entirely different. It tone is certainly critical of Condon and his activities."

Thomas called for full disclosure of the letter by the Department of Commerce under which Condon works. The subcommittee said the Hoover letter was addressed to the department in confidence last May.

Thomas has said previously that his group has no evidence that Condon is disloyal, but he added, Condon has at least been indiscreet.
