Building Problems Are Country Wide Says E. E. Kinney

The maintenance problems facing Michigan State College are similar to those of other large schools throughout the country, according to E. E. Kinney, superintendent of the building and utilities department. Kinney attended a convention of college and university building and ground supervisors in Minneapolis last week.

He stated that at present his attention is centered around the installing of equipment for the new power plant.

An estimate can not be given as yet of the amount of damage caused by the recent flood on the campus. Kinney said the damage was minor but there was much "inconvenience and hard work."

English Comps

Students who have special permission to take the written and spoken English comprehensive examination may pick up their assignment cards beginning Monday, May 24, in room 306, administration building.

Vets Must Claim Dependency July 1

The Lansing Veterans Administration has announced that veterans with two or more dependents must submit evidence of their dependency before July 1 if they wish to receive retroactive payments at the new rates back to April 1. Claims received after July 1 will be effective the day of receipt.

Proof of additional dependency for the new increases in subsistence consist of photostats or certified copies of birth certificates in the case of dependent children and evidence of actual dependency in the case of dependent parents.

Home Ec, Engineer Schools Offer Social Opportunities

By ANDY ANDERSON

Are you a third term no preference senior? Are you a sixth term freshman?

Well, think not of your troubles but direct a little sympathy to outnumbered 375 to 1. Just remember the poor men taking a Medical member before enrolling.

Two lone females, one male, constitute a class.

Recent surveys show that about any single male desiring to help 100 of the married students on campus are women.

Of course, this fact is not so amazing when you consider that

3351 girls can choose from the 10,620 boys that now attend MSC.

remedy this situation can enroll

Summer term.

Home Ec Paradise

But this is not the only case that exists. Consider the 13 hapless men who fight off 582 members of the opposite sex daily in the Home Economics department. The department most conducive to marriage for girls is Engineering, where five females are to one male.

Naturally, Wayne county is the home of more students than any other, although Ingham runs a close second.

Graduating seniors from Agricultural Education club will be honored Monday at the club's annual spring banquet, to be held in Union Health room at 6:30 p.m.

An address by Prof. S. T. Doster of MSC will highlight the program.

Supreme Court To Get Appeal From Zarichny

Attorneys for James Zarichny, Flint, senior, yesterday moved to appeal the Senate contempt conviction against Zarichny to the state Supreme court.

The 24-year-old Flint math student was convicted of contempt of the Senate and the Senate un-American activities committee Wednesday. His conviction followed a public trial lasting nearly three hours, after which the Senate deliberated for nearly an hour before returning the verdict.

Court To Decide

Supreme court attaches said the decision on whether or not the appeal would be allowed would probably not be made until next week or later. The appeal was made shortly after 11 a.m. yesterday since Zarichny's suspended sentence was up at noon.

We intend to carry the case to the United States Supreme court if necessary, Barnard Pierce, East Lansing attorney, told a reporter late Wednesday night.

Made Own Rules

Reliable sources said the Senate vote for Zarichny's conviction of contempt was 21-7, with one of the senators present not voting.

The Senate made up its own rules of procedure Wednesday as the trial proceeded. A motion made by Zarichny's attorneys to have the three members of the un-American committee removed by the Senate body acting as the jury was denied. The Senate also ruled that conviction would require only a simple majority and not the two-thirds majority necessary in an impeachment trial.

The last dance of Spring term will be held in the evening on Alumni Day June 5, the closing night of the water spectacle.

Intermission time at the dance will be timed so that students may return to the Red Cedar for the presentation of trophies to the winning boats.

Earlier in the evening, Green Height will conduct their annual taping of sophomore girls.

The decorations committee, with Carolyn Tracy in charge, is planning to gild the auditorium in a graduation motif.

Paper tapestries pictorializing phases of "Life at State" will be hung from the balconies. Eddie Mac's band will play and each couple will be initiated into the dance with a miniature paddle.

Jane McClintock, Lansing senior, has arranged to have a burned eterne on one side of the paddle of a senior riding a float.

Students are requested to attend the first two performances of the Water Carnival so there will be sufficient space for Alumni on their day.

Dormitory room and board rates are expected to remain at their present levels next year.

Edgar G. Foster, head of dormitory committee, reported yesterday.

Foster said, if there is not an appreciable rise in food prices, we will hold rates down to the current year's fee of $350 a year.

A recently announced raise of $45 a year in board costs at the University of Michigan will force Michiganians to pay $350 yearly for dormitory privileges.

Robert Ruggs, vice-president of that institution, said, "The only way to prevent a deficit is to pass on the costs to the users."

Dormitories at Ann Arbor are comparable to those at State with two exceptions. Food is served in all units there, and the student fee includes linen service.

Chaos, Time Trouble Solved For AWS With Super Clock

TO the Editor:

It sure is thoughtful and generous of the good old AWS people to synchronize the faces of the auditorium clock so that the half hour permission for coeds from both sides of the auditorium will end at the same time.

There remains one difficulty, however. Since not everyone passes through the lobby at precisely the same instant, and would therefore not see the same time registered on the clock, some uniform method for establishing the exact beginning of this 30 minute period is needed.

Install Special Clock.

Clearly, chaos would result if, at the end of the last encore of a performance, every coed had to dash frantically out to the lobby to determine the correct time (AWS time) and to establish the exact beginning of the 30 minute period.

I was of the opinion that the ruling of the check room in the Union that golf clubs cannot be checked is a discrimination against the students who remain in school on weekends.

I was of the opinion that the check room was for the convenience of the student and yet when one tries to use it he is told that he cannot check golf clubs and as a result has to carry them to his car.

Most of us are too busy to play golf during the week. When on weekends we wish to save time by checking our clubs so we can get out as soon as classes are finished we are told that we should leave golf clubs at home.

A disgruntled Golfer

I feel certain that this innovation would alleviate the present difficulty considerably, and should be adopted real soon. One further suggestion while the clock synchronizers are at work, why don't they also synchronize all four faces of the Beaumont Tower clock with the one in the lobby?

This would complete the solution of the whole knotty problem and everyone, even AWS, would be intensely happy.

41 Americans Seized By Lebanese Officials; U.S. Demands Release

WASHINGTON, May 21 (UPI) — The United States today demanded the release of 41 American citizens taken off the American steamship Marine Corp by Lebanese authorities under threat of force.

At the same time the state department served notice, in effect, on the Arab world, that this country will "view seriously" any discrimination against U.S. citizens "on grounds of race, creed or color."

The 41 Americans, all Jews, were removed from the Marine Corp at Beirut on Wednesday along with 28 passengers of other nationalities.

OF MILITARY AGE

All 41 were of military age and were bound for Haifa in the new Jewish state of Israel. Lebanese officials took the position that they might join Jewish fighting forces there.

Today's sharp American protest was disclosed in the form of instructions to Lowell Puskerton, U.S. minister at Beirut.

Reported Interned

State department press officer Michael J. McDermott said the "whole purpose" of these instructions was to get the Americans released. They were last reported

Deer Exhibit New Feature Of Museum

An exhibit of Michigan deer in their natural surroundings will be featured at the open house being given in College museum tomorrow from 1 to 5 p.m.

The new deer group shown in a late fall setting has been under construction for two years. Chief collaborators were Prof. J. W. Stach, museum director, technicians J. W. Hope and Mary E. Ellsworth and the Michigan Conservation department.

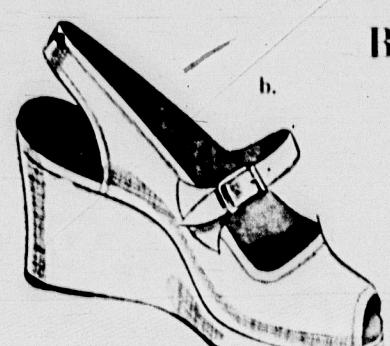

One of the program highlights will be "Te Deum," written by Jones. This selection for choir and organ is intended for liturgical use and was first heard as part of a marriage ceremony celebrated in People's church in 1941.

Other contemporary works which the choir will perform either a cappella or with organ are "Alleluia" by Thompson and "Benedicta," by Williams. The choir will also sing the "Missa Pange Lingua" by the 18th century Flemish artist, Josquin des Prez.

Miss Bethany Beardlee, graduate student in the MSC music department, will be soprano soloist with the group and John R. Ferris, also a music student, will be the organ accompanist.

The concert, sponsored by the Christian Student Foundation and the MSC department of music, is free to the public.
