By MARY LOU FOLGER

the poor gobbler! Christmas time, people don't start looking for bear grace their tables, nor does anyone feel that a absolutely necessary for a successful Easter dinner.

BYE NOW,
EAT HEARTY,
IT'S TURKEY TIME

But Thanksgiving without turkey? Unthinkable! Turkeys are synonymous with the holiday, and why? Simply because they were unlucky enough to be present at a big spread 329 years ago. That first Thanksgiving day was an unhappy one for the Melengris Gallopavos (turkey spelled right). History has it that there was plenty of venison and corn at that meal, too, but only the turkey became traditional. And now every Thanksgiving, millions of turkeys are consumed by hungry, tradition-minded Americans. Thanksgiving day not only robbed turkeys of a future, it robbed them of a personality as well. Now when people spy a turkey, they don't see a proud bird with green, copper and red feathers. All they see in their mind's eye is a brown, crisp something surrounded by dressing and cranberry sauce. And even though turkeys can brag that some of their ancestors came over on the Mayflower, it won't do them much good this Thursday. The axe is raised.

Turkeys Grown Faster, No Larger This Year

By BOB HANLEY

Your Thanksgiving turkey may have grown faster this year, but it won't be any larger than usual, an MSC poultry expert says.

Prof. A. C. Groschke, specialist in poultry nutrition in the Poultry department, says anti-biotics mixed with the turkey's feed makes the bird grow faster.

Bundle Up Hitchhikers Can Bank On Cold Hike

If you're figuring on doing some hitchhiking this afternoon, you'd better wrap up!

The East Lansing weather bureau claims you can expect a high of 25 degrees in the afternoon. "Partly cloudy and COLD" is the official word.

Anyone planning to stay in East Lansing for the holiday can look for a white Thanksgiving. Wednesday will bring increasing cloudiness and slightly warmer weather (about 35 in the afternoon). Thursday will go back to cold again with a "few more snowflakes."

There has been 2.7 inches of snow so far this month, the bureau reports. The norm for November is 4.4. Barring any heavy storms, it predicts about average snowfall for the rest of the month.

McElroy's Condition 'Critical'

John S. McElroy, Bolton, N.Y. sophomore, who was injured on the trampoline last week, was reported in critical condition at Olin hospital yesterday.

The extent of McElroy's injuries are not yet known but it is believed that he has a spine dislocation, and a partial fracture. Due to the fact that he cannot be moved, no further X-rays have been taken.

Wage Increase Granted

Telephone Strike Terminates

Greene States Terms Made In Agreement

Settlement of the Michigan Bell Telephone strike that began with a walkout on Nov. 9 was settled with granted wage increases yesterday noon.

The settlement, gained after 2 hours of bargaining, is still subject to ratification by 16,000 union employees. No time for a ratified vote has been set. If approved, however, the terms of the agreement will take effect Nov. 24.

Meanwhile in Detroit Associated Press reported opposition from union members.

One union leader predicted the 800 members of his local would reject the proposed agreement that ended 11 days of "hit and run."

The leader, Bernard L. Fisher, president of Local 504, CIO Communication Workers of America, in Grand Rapids said his members would probably reject the contract. Fisher also predicted "other Michigan locals also will refuse it."

In a formal statement John A. Greene, president of Michigan Bell Telephone, said the following agreement had been reached.

Agreement Terms
1. Employees will get $3 to $5 a week wage increase depending on their present pay rate.

2. In addition through wage progression those workers below top rates will receive further periodic increases averaging more than $4 a week during the life of the contract.

One and a half years were cut from the wage progression scale. The former scale ran for eight years and was cut to six under the terms of settlement.

Greene said the new wage increase grants add $8,400,000 to the company's wage bill over a 15 month period, the life of the contract.

However, Greene said, the rate See GREENE, Page 5

Student Council To De-activate Delinquents

Twenty-one campus organizations failed to report when the Organizations bureau membership records were closed yesterday. Sub-chairman Mary Koups said the drive file extracurricular activity records had been carried on for a month and a half.

A list of these organizations will be referred to the Student Council and the faculty. In most cases, the groups will be rendered inactive, Miss Koups said. To regain active status the officers must petition Chairman Bill Richardson of the Organizations bureau.

First Step
The long campaign was the first step in the organizations' filing system. Eventually an individual file of each student's extracurricular activities will be made up.

Information about campus organizations is also placed in Organization's bureau files. These may be found in the Student Council office, Union third floor. Data on deactivated groups will be kept in a "delinquent file."

Delinquents Are Facing
Those honoraries, clubs, and societies facing deactivation include American Legion Post 402, American Society for Metals, American Veterans' committee, Chicago club, Delta Phi Delta, Horticulture club, Kappa Alpha Sigma, Marine Corps club and Merchant Mariners.

Other delinquent groups are New Jersey club, Pi Tau, Pi Sigma, Sigma Chi Gamma, Sigma Delta, Psi, Weight-Lifters club, Speech Majors club, Young Democrats, Young Progressives, Pi Sigma Alpha, Studio Theater, and MSC Wildlife Conservation.

Ag Board Announces Dorm Rate Increase

Dormitory rates at Michigan State College will be increased slightly beginning with the winter term in January. The action was approved yesterday by the State Board of Agriculture, governing body of the college.

All dormitory residents will find their food fare boosted $8 per term, and men students will get an additional $5 increase in room prices per quarter. Winter term food rates will read $188 for men, compared to $175 last year, and $193 for women, compared to $185 last year.

College officials said that the increased rates were necessary because of rising costs for food and labor. Michigan State College during the past year has boosted wages of all college employees five cents per hour, in addition to reverting to a 40-hour week with no reduction in total pay. Basic pay for students has been raised 10 cents per hour, and food costs have continued to rise.

This is the third "cost of living" raise made in dormitory rates since the war, college officials added, representing a combined climb from a yearly average of $144 for both men and women in 1945, to the new average of $195 per quarter.

The Red Cross blood bank will be on campus from Nov. 27 to Dec. 1. They will set up their equipment in the basement of Olin Memorial hospital and receive donors from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 2-5 p.m.

President Discloses Trip Facts

Big Ten Approval Remains Doubtful

By BOB SCHULTZ

Michigan State has been contacted by the Cotton Bowl committee in regard to the New Year's day classic in Dallas, Texas. President John A. Hannah disclosed last night. He emphasized, however, that the Spartans have received no official bid from the committee.

Hannah stated that the Cotton Bowl officials visited the MSC campus "a few weeks ago" and inquired whether or not Michigan State would be interested in going to the Cotton Bowl if it won the rest of its games.

Need Approval
If State should receive a bid, continued Hannah, the team, students, and faculty would have to give their approval. The next step would be to get permission from Western Conference officials.

Big Ten Commissioner Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson, earlier stated that in his opinion Michigan State was not officially in the Big Ten as far as football was concerned. He said that State would probably be ineligible for a Rose Bowl bid. Wilson did not comment on other possible Bowl bids the Spartans might receive.

Assures Bid
Texas virtually assured themselves of one of the Cotton Bowl bids by clinching the Southwestern conference championship last Saturday when the only contender Texas A. and M. was upset by Rice.

Other teams mentioned as possible contenders for the New Year's day game in Dallas include Oklahoma, Army, Kentucky, Tennessee, Princeton and Nebraska.

No Comment
Athletic Director Ralph Young was noncommittal when asked about MSC's chance of getting the bid.

Previously, in an Associated Press release, Young said, "We'll decide on that when we come to it," when asked if State would be interested in setting Western conference permission to play at Dallas.

It will be a very profitable undertaking for the two teams participating in the game. Last year participants North Carolina and Rice, were paid between $125,000 and $126,000 each as their share of the take.

Thanksgiving

Thursday, Thanksgiving—and we should all be thankful for what?

Being alive? Having a roof over us? Clothes on us? Food in our stomachs?

These are basic things and we should be thankful for them. There are many things, material, intangible, personal, idealistic; things to be thankful for.

What is in your mind? Tests and studying, dates and clothes, money and entertainment. Our life is a good one.

Yet there is a hollow feeling in the pit of your stomach. Is your brother, fiancé, cousin, off to fight a war? Are you off again to fight the war to end all wars?

Can we be thankful for that?

Four days vacation; four days to think about what?

We had a good football season—an 8-1 record. The term is almost over. There were a few nice days of weather. There is a big turkey dinner waiting at home. We are thankful for all that.

Yes there are little things, many little things, and many major things for individuals to be thankful for.

But that general feeling of calmness is buried below the possibility of a third world war.

And all of us are thankful that it has not come yet and that the possibility of averting another armed conflict still remains.

This is the important thing. And though we may bury ourselves in pep rallies, worries about student government, snowballs, and general student apathy we are only unconsciously trying to escape from apprehension over the present world situation.

Facing reality we find it is hard to be really thankful this year.

Thanksgiving 1950 perhaps would be a better time for hope and faith in a drive towards a peaceful earth. But it takes more than hope and faith, so maybe Thanksgiving 1950 should in addition be a holiday for a renewed effort towards the world we want.

Be thankful this Thursday, but be hopeful also, and have faith. Above all, do something, no matter how little and insignificant, towards a settled world.

Living Units Once Again Sign Up To Give Blood

Once again students are showing their willingness to contribute to a worthy cause.

Every year the Lansing Red Cross regional office sends nurses, doctors and equipment out to the college for their national blood drive.

Last year, over 500 pints of blood flowed into their containers.

So far this fall, 384 students have signed up. The drive doesn't begin until Monday, Nov. 27. Your Thanksgiving turkey should just about be converted into nice red corpuscles by then.

If you are under 21, get your parents' permission over vacation—they'll be glad to say "yes." Contributions gladly accepted at Olin Health Center.

Before you leave or as soon as you get back, sign up in your living unit.

The faculty, town people and married students may sign up in the Union.

Pioneering

Copyright 1950, United Features Syndicate, Inc.

WASHINGTON.—In the midst of the last war four United States Senators toured the country making speeches to arouse the people to the need of an international organization after the war to preserve peace and justice.

It was a bi-partisan enterprise, with two Republicans and two Democrats. Only one of the four is still in the Senate—Lister Hill (D., Ala.). One is now on the Supreme Court, Justice Harold H. Burton, then a Republican Senator from Ohio. Another, former Senator Carl A. Hatch (D., N. Mex.) is now a Federal Judge in New Mexico. The other was former Senator Joseph H. Ball (R., Minn.).

Their pioneering activity helped to prepare the way for later declarations by Congress for an international organization. These led to the creation of the United Nations at San Francisco in 1945. Their operation got the name, through the newspapers, of H-2, H-2, because of their initials.

Pioneering is a good old American custom. We now have another example of it in a similar enterprise, bi-partisan in nature, to carry the U.N. idea further by strengthening the international organization and giving it a body of world law.

Figures in this mission are two House members, Representatives Brooks Hays (D., Ark.) and Walter Judd (R., Minn.). They are beginning a tour together late this month from coast to coast, opening at Seattle, November 28. It will take them to several other cities. Already scheduled are San Francisco, Dallas, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, St. Louis, Chicago, and Suffolk County, Long Island.

They will urge public support for House Concurrent Resolution 64 which they introduced June 7, 1949. This resolution subsequently called as co-sponsors 109 other House members and 22 Senators representing both parties. The largest support thus far received for various proposals to revise and strengthen the U.N.

Like the earlier Fulbright and Connally resolutions, which put Congress on record for an international peace organization, the Hays-Judd resolution would put Congress on record for the next step as follows:

"It is the sense of the Congress that it should be a fundamental objective of the foreign policy of the United States to support and strengthen the United Nations and to seek its development into a world federation open to all nations with defined and limited powers adequate to preserve peace and to prevent aggression through the enactment, interpretation and enforcement of world law."

These are rather grim times, but nevertheless hope lies now more than ever in the United Nations. This particular pioneering is most timely.

The U.N. now is meeting its severest test in the Korean War and the new problems posed at the war's present stage. The U.N. gained world-wide prestige and support when, at its initiation, it threw itself boldly against the North Korean Communist aggression only to confront greater issues when with apparent victory in the grasp of its forces, the Red Chinese moved across the Manchurian border.

The need for strengthening the U.N. is now clearly recognized by our government. In fact, it took the first step with the proposal of Secretary of State Dean Acheson to give the U.N. Assembly, itself, authority to meet aggression after the U.N. Security Council got bogged down by Russian obstruction. The Assembly move promptly to adopt this proposal to reveal general recognition of the need for revising its procedures.

Still further changes are necessary. They can be realized if our people bring to bear such public pressure as resulted in creation of the U.N. originally and continue the support given to the U.N. through its ordeal in Korea. A declaration by Congress representing public opinion as proposed by the two House members would have its influence on the President and his Administration, and would, as well, carry hope all around the world.

It is good that there are such men who are ready to pioneer in our best tradition.

THANKSGIVING IS PROBABLY A poor time to gripe about President Truman's farm subsidy plan when all he's trying to do is protect the public from too many starchy foods and keep a Cadillac in every farmer's barn. But I'd hate to think what the Pilgrims, who established the day to thank God for sustaining them through a hard year, would think if they saw a mile square of dyed potatoes rotting. Or if they were led through the cave in Leavenworth, Kansas where the government spends $2,000,000 a year to keep all their unwanted powdered eggs cool.

Speaking of powdered eggs, Dave Rood, of Hillsdale correspondent, tells an interesting story about the hen fruit situation in that Southern Michigan town.

SEEMS THAT A COUPLE OF GERMAN newspapermen were in town and Rood was detailed to show them around. One of their stops was a grain mill and during the course of their visit they noticed some sacks stamped with a big red star and labeled "Product of China."

"What's in those bags?" Rood asked.

"Oh, those are powdered eggs," the plant manager answered.

"Why in the devil do you have to buy powdered eggs from Red China? I thought the government had more powdered eggs than they know what to do with," Rood questioned.

"Well," the manager answered, "the Chinese eggs are cheaper. You see, the government buys powdered eggs from the farmer for $.90 a pound. They then offer them for sale at $1.23 a pound. We found that we can get powdered eggs from China, tariff and transportation costs included, for only $.80 a pound. It's just good business."

One of the Germans, thoroughly confused by the economic aspects of the situation, questioned it on a moral ground. "BUT I THOUGHT YOU WERE MORE or LESS on the opposite side of the political fence from Red China. Why should you buy their products?"

"What the hell," the manager answered, "We have to feed the whole world anyway."

Later, the disillusioned Rood, by now just as confused as the Germans, called the county agricultural agent for an explanation.

The agent, true to the principles of enlightened bureaucracy, refused to be pinned down. He replied: probably first consulting Form 10743AC entitled "Stock Answers for Disgruntled Consumers: 'The program for farm price support is a complicated and sometimes misunderstood attempt to

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Chairman Tells Committee Purpose

TO THE EDITOR:

This is in response to your criticism of the dry cleaning committee's report.

First of all, I want to make sure that you understand that this was an investigating committee and we did not intend to mediate with the dry cleaners and interpose council or change the system. The dry cleaning business is very involved and each cleaner is out to cut the other's throat. With this in mind let's go over the rest of your criticisms.

When the cleaners sent in their bids, they did so with the thought that if their bid was accepted they would get the entire business and therefore volume would make up for the loss in price. However, three cleaners were allowed to operate in the dorms, so the bids had to be thrown out.

There are various reasons why three cleaners were allowed to operate, namely: It was felt that only one cleaner to operate would be too discriminatory, that one cleaner might not be able to handle the entire volume and also it would be too monopolistic.

Since the bid prices were no longer valid a price had to be reached, this was $1.10 per suit. I can definitely say, and any one of the cleaners involved will agree, that the inter-dorm system was not responsible for the raise in any way and most of the cleaners will say that it is not even responsible for the extent of the raise.

I agree that all circumstantial evidence points to collusion among the cleaners but no concrete evidence can be found to show that definite oligopoly is present. Furthermore, what plan do you suggest to organize 15,000 student consumers and East Lansing residents to combat these "free enterprise tactics?"

Any cleaner can enter the present system and any cleaner can change his price, therefore you cannot say that the monopolistic or oligopoly system is responsible for the raise.

Surprised Sophomore Wins Honor

An MSC coed was chosen Pin-up Queen of the world-famous Good Humor Squadron of the Air Force Saturday night at the Engineer's Ball.

Virginia Sutton, Morenci sophomore, was selected unanimously for the title by the squadron members. The selection came as a complete surprise to her.

James Wilson, commander of the group, decided to enter her in the contest when he saw her picture in the memory after returning to the base.

The Good Humor Squadron originated during the Berlin airlift. Its purpose is to raise the morale of the men engaged in the arduous task of loading and unloading tons of cargo. The members of the group are sworn to spread international good will through good cheer and humor.

Miss Sutton was the 255th member admitted to the elite group which includes such well known people as Dean Acheson, President Truman and Donald Douglas, of Douglas Aircraft.

Miss Sutton was chosen in preference to movie star Gloria DeHaven.

GALLAP'S GOSSIP

What a day this has been!

Some days are just so many hours ticked off by the clock—quickly lived and quickly forgotten. Others are spiced by little things that keep us remembering for a long, long time.

Like the last couple of weeks for instance. Everybody's talking about the awakening of the student body to a sudden high level of school spirit. It's been great, a fine thing to see. Sure hope it lasts and lasts.

Other things will linger in our memories of the winning football season: Tacklers bounding off Leroy Crane's chest which seems to expand to about three feet in diameter as he roars down the field; Granddaddy going after that extra yard as if it belonged to him and he intended to have it; Jesse Thomas seeming to float through the air in breaking up a pass; Dorne Dibble refusing to be blocked out and again nabbing a would-be passer from behind, much to his bewilderment. And you just can't get away from the feeling that here's a team that above all else is a TEAM: a beautifully functioning machine.

It all adds up to a season that's something special. Just the way the little points of memorabilia add up to a "PORTRAIT THAT SPEAKS" instead of just an ordinary photograph. The kind of portrait that will make you remembered in the right way by the right people. Yes sir, being remembered can be terribly important sometimes.

Photographically Yours,

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE—OTHER THAN BASIC COURSES:

In the following plan, final examinations are determined by the days and hours the class is scheduled to meet during the term. To determine when your examination is to be given, find the block in column 2, 3, or 4 which lists the days and hours of your class.

Example: A class meeting MWF 1-2; the examination will be 8-10, Tues., Dec. 12.

A class meeting T, Th 4-5; the examination will be 7-9 PM, Thurs., Dec. 14.

Examination will be given in the same classroom as assigned for class meetings at the end of the term. All students, instructors, and room schedules will automatically clear if all courses follow this schedule.

NOTE: At least two of the days and hours must follow the regular pattern. In a few courses, at the request of the department concerned, the final examination has been scheduled by the single hour lecture section and in some instances students may encounter conflicts. In that event the examination scheduled by the class meeting two hours a week would take preference over the examination scheduled by the single hour lecture. The examination would have to be arranged between the student and the department requesting the special scheduling of its examination.

If there are any questions, call Mrs. Schue in the Registrar's Office (Ext. 501).

Spartan Gridders Blank Pitt, 19-0

New Yardage Mark Set By Everett Grandelius

By DEAN WAKEFIELD

Two new firsts were written in the Spartan records last Saturday as the Green and White wrote "finis" to their 1950 season with a 19-0 clubbing of Pitt's Panthers. One of these firsts must be qualified by a time element, but the second has no precedent.

The Spartans accomplished what was termed "the impossible" in pre-season forecasts by rolling through their nine-game card with only one blemish, something which had not been done since 1934.

Sonny Wins Record

All-American candidate Everett "Sonny" Grandelius set a new all-time State record with a total of 1,023 yards as he galloped 73 yards in 19 tries.

The Muskegon Heights senior thus became the first Big Ten runner in history to accomplish the feat, and the 17th major college back to break into the charmed 1000-yard circle.

In decisioning the Steel City squad, in an offensively unimpressive game on the part of both squads, the Spartans rose to the heights on defense.

Defense Stars

Spearheaded by tackle Deane Thomas, the Green and White defensive line threw Pitt passers Bob Osterhout for huge yardage losses. Bestwick alone lost 90 yards in 14 tries.

Pitt's negative 63 yards on the ground put the yardage of State opponents via the ground route at 874 yards for the season.

Spartan Power

Contrast this with Grandelius' 1,023 yards and you have some idea of the overwhelming superiority of this year's edition of the Spartan gridders and Grandelius in particular.

The Panthers thwarted Grandelius' bid for a new MSC scoring record, but it was a tribute to his running ability that he was able to gain 73 yards in his marked - man role.

Safety man Jesse Thomas played like a champion as he ran back three Pitt punts for 64 yards, a 21-yard punt average. Thomas also got off booming punts for an average of 47 yards.

Fumbles Hurt

The Spartans had numerous scoring chances, but seven fumbles prevented them from capitalizing on all but three.

Pitt took the opening kickoff, and bogged down immediately. After Chris Warner had punted out to the MSC 34, the Spartans rolled to the Pitt 14 in six plays, only to have their scoring chance erased when Grandelius fumbled.

Three fumbles and two intercepted passes later, the Green and White found themselves on the Pitt 23 with second down as the quarter ended. On the first play of the second period, Al Dorow rifled a pass to Hank Minarik in the end zone. Bob Carey's attempted conversion failed.

Four minutes later, Ray Vogt took Warner's punt on the State 43 and the Spartans marched 57 yards to pay dirt in five plays. Dick Panin, a terror all day, took the ball over from the 12. Carey converted the extra point.

The next time the Munn men got their hands on the ball, it was on the Pitt 21, where Warner had been tackled attempting to punt. On three plays, Grandelius hit to the three-yard line, but Dorow fumbled on the next play and Pitt's Bob Brennan recovered. The half ended with the Spartans out in front, 13-0.

Midway in the third quarter, the Spartans capitalized on another break. Jesse Thomas intercepted on Osterhout pass on the Pitt 35, and returned to the 23. Four plays later, with fourth and twelve, Dorow uncorked a 25-yard scoring pass to Bob Carey. Carey's conversion again was wide of the mark.

The rest of the contest was a see-saw battle, with State continually holding the edge, but not the scoring punch.

Basketball Tickets Still Available

Season tickets are still available for home basketball games and the Spartan Basketball Classic, it was announced this week by Lyman L. Fridmold, Michigan State ticket manager.

This season's schedule lists non-conference games with Detroit, Marquette and Notre Dame and Big 10 championship encounters with Wisconsin, Indiana, Northwestern, Michigan, Iowa and Illinois.

In addition, the Spartan Basketball Classic will be held again this year during Christmas vacation. Teams participating in the two night doubleheader will be Ohio State, last year's Big 10 champion; Princeton, Eastern Intercollegiate champ; Penn State, and Michigan State.

Friday night, December 29, Ohio State meets Princeton and Michigan State faces Penn State. The next night, December 30, Ohio State and Penn State square off and Michigan State meets Princeton.

Reserved season tickets for the season are $12.50, including tax.

State Harriers Host For NCAA Meet

By ALEX LAGGIS

Michigan State College will play host to more than 200 of the top distance runners of the nation representing more than 30 teams in the annual NCAA cross country championship Monday, Nov. 27 over the Michigan State course.

The defending champion Spartans will try for their third straight title and fourth in the 12-year running of the annual classic.

Tough Opposition

Coch Karl Schlademan's men, however, will meet plenty of opposition from favorites Penn State, Army and Wisconsin for the championship.

Besides the Big Ten champion Wisconsin team, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio State, Purdue, and the Spartans will represent the Western Conference.

Other top teams entered in the meet include Notre Dame, Marquette, Pittsburgh, Kansas, Michigan State Normal, Missouri, Syracuse, Tennessee, and Gil Dadds' Wheaton College entry.

The race will get under way at 11:30 a.m. in the MSC baseball field. Spectators can view both the start and finish from the stands.

Final Meet

The meet will close the curtain on the Spartans' 1950 cross country schedule.

Running their last cross country competition under Green and White colors are Captain Warren Druetzler, Don Makielski and Herb Cook.

The rest of Schlademan's nine-man crew will include juniors Al

MSC Tenth In Football Poll

By Associated Press
Michigan State's high riding grid squad remained among the top teams in the nation today as the weekly Associated Press football poll placed the Spartans in tenth place after a 19-0 victory over Pittsburgh last Saturday.

There was no change in the top ten membership as the State squad held on to last week's position in its last game of the year with 532 points and four first place votes.

Oklahoma First

Oklahoma zoomed into first place with 173 of 333 first place votes. Ohio State, last week's leader, tumbled to eighth after its loss to Illinois.

Powerful Oklahoma, unbeaten in 29 straight games, ran away from the other contenders with a total of 2,964 points, 526 better than runner-up Army.

More than half of the football writers and sportscasters ranked Oklahoma in the No. 1 spot after its 41-7 romp over Missouri. The Sooners were second last week.

Army Gains

Army lost first place support as it shaded Stanford, 7-0, in a mud battle but the Cadets picked up enough points to advance a notch from last week's position. Only 36 put Army first compared to 72 a week ago.

Kentucky drew attention with its 83-0 rout of North Dakota, moving from fifth to a strong third place with 55 firsts.

Ohio Drops

Four teams held the same positions. The biggest shuffle was Ohio State's drop from first to eighth.

After the first three came California, Texas, Illinois and Princeton. Ohio State was followed by Tennessee and Michigan State in that order. Only Michigan State has completed its schedule.

Oklahoma (8-0) has two more games to play. After its test with 16th ranked Nebraska Saturday, the Sooners wind up with Oklahoma A. and M.

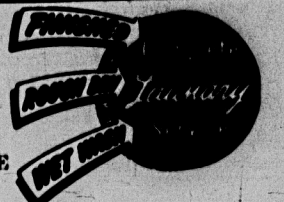

Kentucky (10-0) tangles with ninth-ranked Tennessee (8-1) in Saturday's most important game. It will be Kentucky's finale but Tennessee also must play Vanderbilt, Dec. 2. Tennessee polished off Mississippi 35-0, last Saturday to hold ninth ranking.

Standings of all teams in the poll at least 10 points with place votes in parentheses (Points figured on 19-0-0 basis).

1. Oklahoma (173)
2. Army (36)
3. Kentucky (55)

AT 27 FORD WAS REACHING FOR SOMETHING BIGGER AND BETTER. HE BECAME A STOREKEEPER. MERCHANTS WERE VILLAGE BOSS AND CONTROLLED THE CREDIT OF THE COMMUNITY. THEY WERE AWARDED GREATER SOCIAL ESTEEM.

HE VENTURED INTO DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES. BUT HE COULD NOT CONTINUE AS A COUNTRY MERCHANT FOR LONG BECAUSE DRIVING SPIRIT CALLED FOR GREATER AVENUES OF EFFORT.

IN NEW YORK, HUSKY AND DARING AT 69, AN ADEPT OF FORD'S WON A FORTUNE FROM PETER COOPER, A FAMOUS INVENTOR FOR A ENTERPRISE WHILE SEEKING A SUITABLE INDUSTRIAL SITE, HE EARNED $20,000 COMMISSIONS. SELLING GENERAL IN C. FREMONT CALIFORNIA LAND AND HAD NEVER EN

WITH $17,000 CAPITAL FORD ESTABLISHED CREECHTON, PA. IN 1880, THE FORERUNNER OF THE PITTSBURGH PLATE GLASS CO.

WITH CHARACTERISTIC PROGRESSIVENESS HE WAS THE FIRST TO USE NATURAL GAS IN THE PRODUCTION OF GLASS.

APPRENTICED AS A BOY TO A HARNESS MAKER, MISTREATMENT AND DENIAL OF A PROMISED EDUCATION LED HIM TO RUN AWAY.

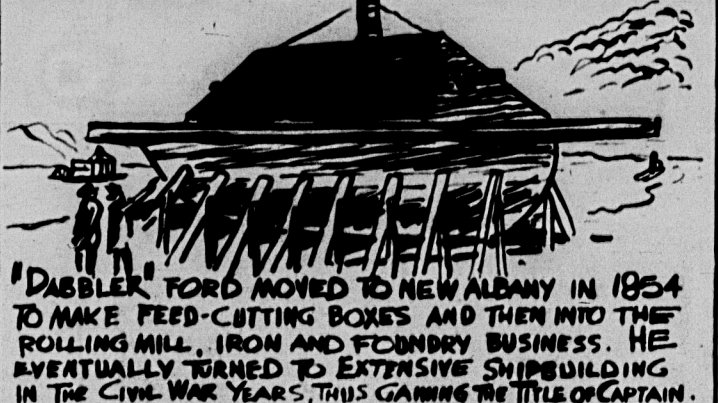

A RUGGED INDIVIDUALIST FROM BIRTH—HE WALKED ALL THE WAY TO LOUISVILLE

IN 1831, WELL-ESTABLISHED IN BUSINESS FORD MARRIED MARY BOWER A DEVOUT METHODIST OF GREENVILLE

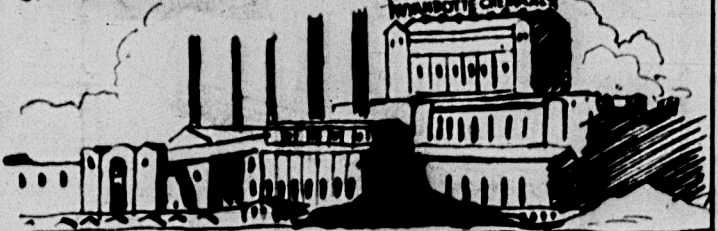

FOR 66 YEARS SHE WAS HIS INSPIRATION AND COUNSELLOR IN MANY BENEFACCTIONS, UNTIL HER DEATH AT 91.

MERCHANT FORD BOUGHT AND SOLD FLOUR. BUT MILLING FLOUR WAS A BIGGER IDEA AND HAD MORE MONEY IN IT. SO HE SOLD HIS STORE AND BECAME A MILLER. OUT OF FLOUR INTO METAL MANUFACTURING. MAKING KITCHEN CABINETS.

'DABBLER' FORD MOVED TO NEW ALBANY IN 1854 TO MAKE FEED-CUTTING BOXES AND THEN INTO THE ROLLING MILL, IRON AND FOUNDRY BUSINESS. HE EVENTUALLY TURNED TO EXTENSIVE SHIPBUILDING IN THE CIVIL WAR YEARS, THUS GAINING THE TITLE OF CAPTAIN.

IN TIME CAME THE MICHIGAN ALKALI COMPANY, NOW WYANDOTTE CHEMICALS CORPORATION OF WYANDOTTE, THE WORLD'S LARGEST MANUFACTURER OF SPECIALIZED CLEANING COMPOUNDS FOR BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY, AND A MAJOR PRODUCER OF INDUSTRIAL CHEMICALS. GREAT LAKES STEAMERS AND A RAILROAD LINK PLANTS WITH SOURCES OF RAW MATERIAL

TO THE TIME OF HIS DEATH, IN 1903, CAPT. FORD KEPT A FIRM BUT KINDLY HAND ON THE PULSE OF THE INDUSTRIAL EMPIRE HE HAD BUILT.

COPYRIGHT 1927 BY E. AND J. GELLER

FEARING FORCIBLE RETURN IF HE STAYED IN KENTUCKY HE CROSSED THE OHIO RIVER TO NEW ALBANY, IND.

IN LIEU OF MONEY HE TRADED A DECK OF WORN PLAYING CARDS FOR FERRY PASSAGE

THE MEXICAN WAR SAW FORD'S ESTABLISHMENT QUITE LARGE. THE ARMY NEEDED MILITARY HARNESS AND SADDLES, AND FORD PROCEEDED TO SUPPLY THEM.

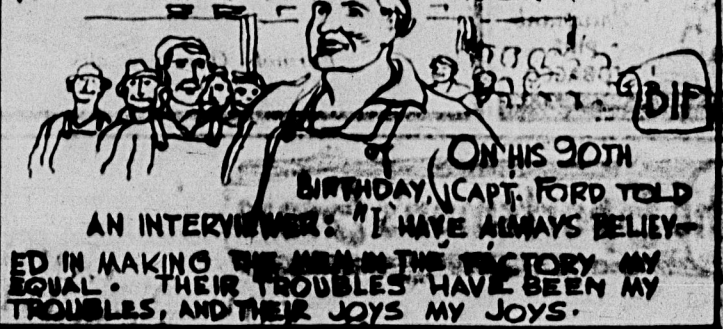

AFTER THE WAR HE HAD 30 TEAMS ON THE ROAD DELIVERING AND SELLING FORD'S MERCHANDISE. AT 35 HE WAS A VERY SUCCESSFUL SMALL MANUFACTURER.

ESTABLISHING THE FIRST PLATE GLASS FACTORY IN AMERICA. AT NEW ALBANY, HE IMPORTED MACHINERY AND MEN FROM ENGLAND.

LATER BUSINESS REVERSES WITH EVERY OBLIGATION MET MADE HIM GLAD TO ACCEPT A LOAN OF $100. FROM ONE OF HIS FORMER TEAMSTERS AS RAILROAD FARE.

THUS, STARTING FROM SCRATCH, OFTEN IN THE FACE OF SEEMINGLY INSURMOUNTABLE OBSTACLES, JOHN BAPTISTE FORD, ACQUIRED FAME AND FORTUNE. BEST OF ALL, TO THE END, HE HELD THE SAME AFFECTION OF HIS EMPLOYEES AS PROMPTED THAT LOAN OF THE $100. SEPARATELY NEEDED

ON HIS 90TH BIRTHDAY, CAPT. FORD TOLD AN INTERVIEWER: 'I HAVE ALWAYS BELIEVED IN MAKING THE MEN IN THE FACTORY MY EQUAL. THEIR TROUBLES HAVE BEEN MY TROUBLES, AND THEIR JOYS MY JOYS.'

BEFORE COMMENCEMENT SPEECH

'Teddy' Planted Gilchrist Elm

Commencement Ceremonies Held In Open Field

By PAT YAROCK
The elm in front of Gilchrist hall is growing with a president's blessing!
"Teddy" Roosevelt planted the elm in June, 1907, while he was here to deliver the commencement speech at the fiftieth anniversary of the college.
According to Dr. Madison Kuhn, college historian, "you wouldn't recognize the scene in 1907 as being on MSC's campus."
Commencement exercises were held on what is now the woman's athletic field. The field was crowded with a number of tents which had been set up in case of rain.
Secret Service men arrived several days before the president to inspect the campus and make sure he would be safe during his stay.
Enact Procession
Arriving at the station by special train the president was escorted to the college president's house by a procession of ten Reo automobiles.
After dinner he planted the elm which was moved a little to the southwest when Gilchrist was built. An estimated crowd of 10,000 listened to the president's commencement speech after the tree planting ceremony.

Indian Bureau Subject Of MSC Research Work

The newest research of the MSC Sociology and Anthropology department is finding out whether Indians are discriminated against in their own government office, the Indian Bureau in Washington.
The study was requested and paid for by the Indian Bureau to discover if the thirty-five thousand people working there are really Indians. Students from George Washington university are checking the Bureau's employment files to determine the amount of Indian blood the workers have.
MSC instructor Ray Scheele is directing the research. He is checking to see whether promotions are equal for Indians and white men who have similar abilities or if non-Indians have been given the higher position.
The second part of the research will study discrimination against Indians throughout the entire country. Possible universities which will work on this phase with Michigan State are Cornell, California, and Oklahoma.
