K's Approach h Parallel

Two Allied military raid columns, ranging up to four miles, rammed into the Chinese line near Seoul today, pushing the battle line south of the city. The Chinese, who were reported to have been pouring a stream of fire all the way to the battle area, where troops were swarming.

Thirty miles east of Seoul, Korean infantry drove to 33 air miles of the 38th. Then they were forced to hold a position in this desolate area of the territory since the Chinese had been attacking them.

Republican troops were 1300 miles in the mountainous region of the South. The South had driven six air miles of the Chinese under cover of artillery and Fifth air strikes.

National Script Contest Offers Student Award

Dramatic or non-dramatic scripts, written by students, may win $100 in the fourth annual National script contest sponsored by the Association for Education by Radio.

Entrants, who may be students from any accepted college, have until March 31 to turn in their scripts, according to Dr. Sherman P. Lawton, University of Oklahoma radio professor and contest chairman.

The scripts may be written for radio or television. Entries judged "excellent" will be awarded $100 and $25 will go to the authors of those receiving the award of merit.

Special additional awards have been set up for scripts that are (1) of educational value, (2) suitable for home or school recording, (3) based on American history, or (4) about religion, the contest chairman explained.

Entries are being received now. Dr. Lawton pointed out. Winners will be announced about May 1. All scripts should be mailed to Dr. Lawton at the University of Oklahoma, Norman, Okla.

Off-Street Facilities Still Under Construction Council Restores Grand River Parking

By BOB HANLEY
City councilmen restored parking on a portion of Grand River avenue Monday night in response to pleas of East Lansing merchants.

But the move was only a temporary one to enable off-street parking facilities to be completed. Parking restrictions were revoked from Charles to Haskell street until July 1.

Acts On Report
The council acted on a report of the traffic commission in connection with a recent highway department request for no parking on Grand River from M.A.C. avenue to the eastern city limits.

According to the commission's report, the highway department would not insist on the no parking request until July 1. This was to give the city time to complete lots off Grand River and an alley behind the new theater building.

Remove Parking
However, John Patridge, city manager, told the council that if they didn't remove parking en-

BULLETIN

LAKE SUCCESS—AP—Russia charged the United States with 238 air attacks on Red China in November and December and called on the U.N. to condemn "these illegal acts by the government of the United States."

Semyon K. Tsaraphin, Soviet delegate, told the 60-nation political committee of the U.N. assembly that United States war planes violated Chinese territory 328 times between Aug. 28 and Dec. 31.

This total included 90 violations previously charged by Russia. He said 16 persons had been killed and 115 wounded in the raids.

The U.S. has answered that the attacks were made along the Yalu river against supply lines for the Red Chinese troops in Korea. The United States has disclaimed any intention to bomb deliberately any Chinese territory.

Laugh A Day

Longer Lives Hurt Business

Not everyone is happy about the prospect of living longer.

A basic Social Science class was discussing the theory of longer life in the future. Everyone agreed it would be a wonderful thing. Everyone except one student, that is.

"I don't especially care for the idea," declared the dissenter. "You see I plan to be a funeral director."

False Alarms Prompt Chief To Warning

MSC students should think twice before turning in false alarms "just for a joke," Fire Chief Muriel Crox said yesterday.

Crox said a serious fire could break out somewhere else on the campus while firemen answered a false alarm turned in as a prank.

An alarm was recently made from a third floor room of Snyder-Phillips dormitory. Firemen found only a room full of laughing students. No one seemed to know about the alarm, Crox said.

The alarm was answered by firemen from the station at Kalamazoo and Harrison. The station was located there mainly because of trailers and quonset huts which line the highway.

On a cold night a fire could have started there while a false alarm was answered, Crox said.

Ninety percent of all fire department accidents occur while answering false alarms, he declared. He pointed out that streets were crowded and slippery on the night of the run to Snyder-Phillips.

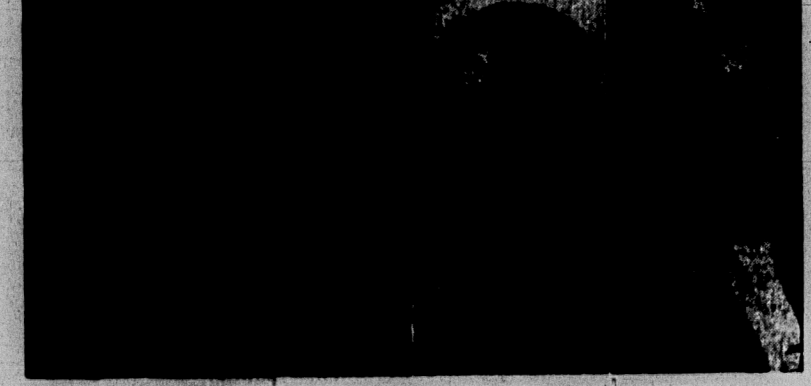

Editor To Talk At Ag Banquet

Bill Knox, editor of Hoard's Dairyman, will speak at the annual Ag Achievement banquet on Feb. 22 according to Dean E. I. Anthony.

Knox, a graduate of Michigan State College, is widely recognized in the agricultural publication field for his guidance of Hoard's Dairyman, a national farm magazine.

Tickets for the banquet are now available from all Ag council members and at the dean's office, announced Dean Allen, publicity chairman for the event. Ticket sales are being limited to 300 this year.

In Person

Presented In Person At Aud Quartet Of Stars Scheduled To Appear In Shaw Charade

Charles Boyer, Charles Laughton, Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Agnes Moorehead will appear in person at the MSC auditorium March 1.

They will appear in George Bernard Shaw's "Don Juan in Hell." The play, subtitled a philosophical charge, is presented by Paul Gregory. He first got his idea of presenting top-flight stars in quartet fashion as a result of Laughton's highly successful tour of the U.S. in 1949.

Through his tour, Laughton found the American public hungry for this type of entertainment—and it was only a matter of time before Gregory launched the first drama quartet.

The stars of the Shaw play are all well established performers of the theatre and screen. Sir Cedric Hardwicke made his first hit in Shaw's famous "Heartbreak House," and again scored as King Magnus in Shaw's "The Apple Cart."

Charles Boyer, long-time romantic film star, was one of France's top actors before coming to America. His role in "Algiers" brought him among the top stars of the film capital.

Equally known on Broadway and in Hollywood, Agnes Moorehead won the New York Film critics Award for her work in "Magnificent Ambersons," and became known in radio for her starring performance in "Sorry, Wrong Number."

Charles Laughton is star and director of "Don Juan in Hell." In 1949 he capped a career of more than 29 years of stage, screen and radio acting by "hitting the road" to read his excerpts from great literature to audiences in some 50 American cities.

Never Performed
"Don Juan in Hell" has never before been performed professionally in this country. Laughton, in addition to staging the production, plays the Devil. Boyer plays the romantic Don Juan, Agnes Moorehead—his lady love, and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Miss Moorehead's father.

The production is an "extra," not included on the regular MSC lecture concert series, according to Dean Stanley E. Crowe, series director.

Mail orders are now being accepted by the MSC Union ticket office, he said, and ticket sales will begin Monday, Feb. 12 at the Union ticket office and the Paramount News shop in Lansing.

General Motors Offers Summer Jobs To Juniors

Juniors majoring in metallurgical engineering and accounting will have an opportunity to obtain summer jobs with a division of General Motors, according to T. A. Dutch, student employment director.

Students in these fields will be interviewed by a representative from GM Feb. 22. Interested students should contact the placement bureau in Morrill hall for application blanks and the interviewing schedule.

Jobs as life guards, swimming instructors, playground leaders and public service attendants are available to students living in the Detroit area.

These jobs pay from $10 to $15 a day and applications may be made through the placement bureau.

Murder Trial Set For Hillsdale Man

HILLSDALE—AP—The first degree murder trial of Blair Thompson, 47, was set yesterday for April 3. Thompson is accused of shooting his neighbor.

Thompson stood mute at his arraignment and Circuit Judge Charles O. Arch entered a plea of innocent for him.

Thompson is charged with the murder of Fern L. Kintigh, last Nov. 26 in a garage at Kintigh's home at Sand Lake. The shooting followed an argument between the men over Kintigh's wife, Freda.

Draft Chief Asks Basic For 4-F's

Training To Test Basis For Delay

WASHINGTON—AP—The idea of basic training for many men now classified 4-F, to see if they really are disqualified for military service, gained ground yesterday in the house armed services committee. The talk centered on draft-referred athletes but was not limited to them.

The proposition came up in testimony by Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director on the defense department's bill to draft 18-year-olds, extend service to 27 months and set up a system of universal military service and training.

Tap Other Sources
Many lawmakers want all other available sources tapped before the draft takes youths below the present 19-year age limit. The trial-training plan, to which Hershey readily agreed, was one of the suggestions aimed that way.

Simultaneously there were these other developments bearing on armed manpower.

1. The air force started sending out calls to the first of nearly 80,000 volunteer reservists it plans to bring into active service.

2. The house committee itself showed signs of leaning toward a compromise on 18-year-olds, under which they might be drafted but would have to get six months training before they could go to a combat zone.

3. The committee also gave thought to a requirement that the armed forces reject no more than 22 per cent of the men selective service sends them, finding some spot for the rest. The "reject" rate has dropped recently to 34 per cent, Hershey said, but is still too high.

Things are always "buzzin'" in the Union.

So what could be a more appropriate Union Board mascot than a bee?

This U. B. is the creature, complete with jacket and pointed shoes, that appears on all Union Board publications and announcements of Union activities.

The U. B. originated last year. It was designed by Bob Daskin, then head of Union Board publicity as a Board trademark.

Job Requests Reach Record

Over 2,600 seniors and graduate students have registered with the placement office in Morrill hall, according to office assistant director John F. Schlueter.

This number represents a record high for students registered since the placement office was established on this campus in 1943, Schlueter said.

More and more students looking for jobs and employers are realizing the value of the placement office," Schlueter stated.

KAM To Shoot J-Hop Pictures

Pictures of the J-Hop will be taken this year by members of Kappa Alpha Mu, national photography honor society, according to Willard Larson, vice-president.

Honorary members have received permission from the administration and the journalism department to take pictures at all college dances.

Phi Mu Alpha Plans Program

An annual program of American music will be presented by members of Phi Mu Alpha-Sigma, men's music honorary fraternity, at the MSC music auditorium Sunday.

The concert, starting at 4 p.m., will feature two selections by Michigan State College students. They are "Chorus and Fugue for Four Trombones," by James Redding, Decatur, Ill., junior, and "From the Blues," by Roger Spear, East Lansing senior. Spear will sing his own song.

Famous modern American composers included in the program are Alec Templeton, Roy Harris, and Randall Thompson.

The program, commemorating the fraternity's founding day, is one of a series sponsored by the MSC music department.

Selling of cars and their equipment and fuel has become a $25-billion-a-year business in the United States, about 20 per cent of all U.S. retail trade.

Fifth A-Blast Ends Experiment

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—(AP)—The fifth and biggest atomic blast at the new government range near here shook Las Vegas yesterday, and shattered show windows in two auto agencies.

Later, the atomic energy commission announced that it has concluded its experiments for the present and is "completely satisfied" with the conduct of the test operation.

Said Carroll L. Tyler, manager of the tests for the AEC, in a statement:

"Use of the Las Vegas site has saved manpower, materials, money and, above all, invaluable time in the national atomic energy development program."

No one was injured, either among AEC personnel or residents of the southern Nevada resort city, Tyler said.

The blast, as previously just before dawn, hit Las Vegas with two stiff jolts.

"Bigger than Bikini," was the description of Los Angeles newspaper writer Robert, who also witnessed the Pacific island tests.

"The worst yet," said Las Vegas police Capt. George Thompson.

The blast was No. 14 in a world-wide series of atom blasts, starting in New Mexico in mid-summer, 1945, and including those at Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and one set off by the Russians.

Splinters Window

Friday's fourth test here splintered a window in a furniture store. Yesterday's concussion knocked out two in auto agencies within a block of each other. In a nearby garage, a window across which an advertising banner had been stretched cracked from the first concussion. The rush of air apparently sucked the banner into the open crack, and when the sound waves subsided, the cloth was neatly caught in the glass.

On Television

Two Los Angeles television stations, KLA and KTTV, photographed the sight from atop 5,710-foot Mt. Wilson, near Pasadena, and thousands of early-risers saw the glare light up their screens.

"It was splendid," said one watcher.

Despite a fog, the glare came through the mist in Los Angeles. One woman said she dropped to her knees and "prayed there will never be another one."

Given at 10-12 a.m.

Examinations will be given in the same classroom as assigned for class meetings at the end of the term. All students, instructors, and room schedules will automatically clear if all courses follow this schedule.

NOTE: At least two of the days and hours must follow the regular pattern. In a few courses, at the request of the department concerned, the final examination has been scheduled by the single hour lecture section and in some instances, students may encounter conflicts in that event the examination schedule by the class meeting two hours a week would take precedence over the examination scheduled by the single hour lecture. The examination would have to be arranged between the student and the department requesting the special scheduling of its examination.

If there are any questions, call Mrs. Schue in the Registrar's Record Office (Ext. 501).

forward toward world peace. I cannot emphasize my gratitude for the chance to meet people with such fine characters and also the many enjoyments I had in last summer's vacation.)

4. Do not attempt to educate people in their own countries because it is more difficult, and because many foreign people resent foreign emissaries.

5. A final point would be to have curriculum of subjects which would help the student help the people in his own country.

In conclusion, I believe if many students were educated this way, when they returned to their own countries, in a short while the world would profit. These students would teach their people about advance methods in all things. Purchases would be made of these articles and methods and eventually understanding would exist throughout the world and, perhaps we would have eternal peace.

Governor Unable To Sell Economy In Civil Service

LANSING—(AP)—Governor Williams had no success yesterday in selling an "economy" plan to the republican-controlled state administrative board.

The board refused to approve his plan to set up a schedule of state agencies specifying which would be entitled to add jobs due to the National Defense program and which would be refused job replacements—in effect, a paring down of the state payroll.

Board members said that Williams was usurping the powers of the state civil service commission and the legislature, in addition to creating red-tape. They said the plan would give too much power to the department of administration, headed by a Democrat.

Spartan-Superior State Mitt Match Cancelled

Ineligibility, Draft Hits Foe; Boxers Get Unexpected Rest

Friday's boxing match between the Spartans and Superior State college has been cancelled because of a recent ineligibility and draft wave that hit the Superior State college ranks.

Five men were lost to the service and two others declared scholastically ineligible, explained Coach Leo DeMarco in asking for a cancellation.

Coach DeMarco added that the situation will be stabilized by next year and the two schools will be able to meet in athletics.

Meanwhile, the Spartan mitt-men welcomed the unexpected vacation, in order to sharpen up for the meeting with Gonzaga university, Feb. 19, in the Spartan's home ring.

Gonzaga Coach Joey August said that his squad, which lost only one veteran from last year's NCAA co-champions, is in better form than ever.

Ready For Gonzaga
The Spartan boxers will work daily between now and the visit of the Gonzaga mitt delegation in order to reach their top form for the match.

Coach George Makris ordered workouts both Saturday and Sunday of this week. The squad has not sparred since the match with Minnesota last Friday, but starting tonight the rings in the boxing room in Jensen gym will be filled with flying leather as preparation begins in earnest.

Branch Rickey's superiors pay $75,000 to San Francisco. The Dodgers have many young pitching hopefuls but their best prospect appears to be Ray Moore who comes from Fort Worth with a 15-9 and 3.10 earned run record.

Other National league mound prospects include Ed Yuhus, Kurt Krieger and Bob Habenicht of the Cardinals, John Britton, Paul Stuffer, Steve Riddick and Charley Bowers with the Phillies.

Southpaw
In the American league the St. Louis Browns believe they have in southpaw Lou Sleater, 23, a coming star. Sleater, a married Navy veteran, had a 12-5 record at San Antonio where he earned run average was 2.82. He formerly had a trial with the Giants.

The Athletics have a 6-2 right-handed prospect in John Kucab who beat the Senators the final week of the season after making a 17-11 mark at Lincoln in the Class A Western league. He is 28 and comes from Campbell, Ohio. In 1949 he pitched 25 complete games and won 21 for Youngstown in the Class C Mid-Atlantic league.

Indians Loaded
The Cleveland Indians are high on George Zvernick, 24, and Bob Chakales, 23, most valuable player in the Eastern league. Zvernick, of Dutch ancestry and from Holland, Mich., had a 20-14 record at San Diego while Chakales made a 16-5 record at Wilkes-Barre. He is 6-1 and comes from Asheville, N.C.

Detroit is coming up with Wayne McLeland, a Stockport, Iowa, boy with a 21-8 record at Dallas. Rogers Hornsby liked him so much in the Texas league that he bought him from Seattle only to have the Tigers buy him off in return for George Vico and Marv Grissom.

Pitching Outlook Bright

NEW YORK —(AP)— The major leagues have lost a number of crack pitchers to the armed forces but both leagues appear to be bringing up fine replacements.

Of course it will be difficult to fill the shoes of such 1950 aces as Art Houtteman, Curt Simmons and Eddie Ford. More hurlers will go before spring training officially opens March 1. Already tabbed for duty are Charley Stobbs of the Red Sox and Erv Palica of the Dodgers.

Gain Ground
If only the teams that lost pitchers to the services could come up with replacements. In the National League the Giants, Cardinals and Braves appear to have the edge in rookie hurlers. This alone might help them gain ground on the Phillies and Dodgers.

Manager Marty Marion of the Cards already is counting on Tom Poholsky as a regular starter. The record of the 21-year-old right hander from Detroit indicates that he'll make the grade.

Top Prospect
Poholsky, most valuable player in the International League, finished 21 of 25 starts for Rochester where he had an 18-6 and 2.17 earned run record. In one game against Jersey City he pitched 22 innings and won, 2-1. Apparently he has the stamina of a bull. He is 6-3 and weighs 193 pounds. In 1949 he had a 14-10 record at Rochester.

Poholsky carried the label "fine prospect" last spring in St. Petersburg but was sent back to Rochester only because of his youth. He pitched a whale of a game the last day of the season against the Cubs, leaving after eight innings with the score tied at 2-all.

Giants Strong
The Giants figure to be exceptionally strong on the mound as it is but in George Spencer and Roger Bowman they have two aces up from Jersey City.

Spencer beat the Braves the final day with three hits after an 11-5 mark at Jersey City. A sore shoulder held him back for he didn't start his first game until June 4. Then he won seven straight, going the route each time.

Brave Prospect
Bowman, a southpaw, topped the International League in strikeouts with 181 and pitched the most innings, 233. He completed 19 of 30 starts in compiling a 16-11 record.

The Braves have high hopes for George Estock, 26, a six-footer who must be kept because his options have run out. He won 16 and lost eight at Milwaukee after jumping from Austin, Tex., in the Class B Big State League where he won 20 games in 1949. He originally belonged to the Phillies.

Reds Have Blackburn
The Reds appear to have a prize freshman in Jim Blackburn, 26, from Warsaw, Ky. Cincinnati signed him when he was 16 but the last war impeded his progress. He lost his toenails to the Nazis when captured in Germany. A sore arm forced him out of baseball in 1949 but he came back stronger than ever last season, compiling a 21-7 record for Tulsa, including four straight shutouts.

The Chicago Cubs have another late arrival in Bob Schultz, 27, a service veteran and a 200-pounder who won 25 and lost six at Nashville where his earned run average was 2.68.

Many Hopesful
The Pittsburgh Pirates are taking a 30-day look at Con Dempsy, 27. He is better than his 9-9 record indicates. If he sticks,

Cage Captain Talks At Coffee Hour Tonight
Jim Snodgrass, State basketball captain, will discuss the team's defensive tactics during the senior coffee hour in Old College hall in the grill tonight from 8:30 to 9.

State is ranked as one of the top ten defensive teams in the nation. Snodgrass will explain various plays and illustrate them on the blackboard. His talk will emphasize what spectators should watch for during a game.

Any student interested in hearing Snodgrass speak is welcome to attend according to Bob Klein, senior class president. Free coffee will be served beginning at 8 tonight.

PITTSBURGH—(AP)— It's getting so basketball officials calling the shots at Pittsburgh's Gardens feel like Christians in a Roman arena full of lions.

Abuse from fans is getting so bad that arbiters balk at handling the assignments. Duquesne and Carnegie Tech play at the gardens for lack of adequate gyms of their own.

Commissioner Appeals
Commissioner Dave Fawcett, who assigns officials for Pittsburgh district games, said from his hospital sick bed that the gardens situation is serious. He coupled the statement with an appeal to fans for better sportsmanship.

Fawcett said several men assigned to the Gardens have asked to be relieved, adding:

"I'm having trouble putting the men I want into the Gardens. They don't care for the reception there. Only recently one of my best men was the target for a pop bottle. On another occasion someone tried to trip him."

Tremendous Boiling
Fawcett, who listens to game broadcasts, also said:

"I was disheartened by the tremendous booing when Villanova players were awarded free throws in the Duquesne game."

Coaches came in for some criticism from the commissioner, who declared:

"There's entirely too much attention directed toward the officials, who are the scapegoats for everything that goes on. Several coaches have been in moderate in their statements and, in some cases, news and radio announcers have joined fans in adding fuel to the fire."

Jack Gray was head basketball coach at the University of Texas when he was 25 years old.

State Rated Underdog In Two Weekend Games

By STAN KURZMAN

The Minnesota hockey team invades the Michigan State campus this weekend for a two-game series with the Spartans.

The first game commences at 8 o'clock Friday at the MSC campus ice arena, while the second game follows on Saturday at the same time.

The Spartans met Minnesota at Minneapolis two weeks ago. The Gophers whipped State in the two contests played then by 9 to 2 and 6 to 2 counts.

Top Hockey Center

The games this weekend will offer Spartans fans an opportunity to see center Gordie Walters, of Minnesota in action. Walters is rated as one of the top collegiate hockey players in the nation.

He was instrumental in handing MSC the first of their two defeats at Minneapolis. He performed the "hat trick," scoring three goals as well as assisting on a fourth.

Watched Closely

In the second game Michigan State Mentor Harold Paulson instructed his players to pay close attention to Walters. The State squad succeeded but the remainder of the Minnesota team took advantage of their comparative freedom to outscore State.

Walters just transferred to Minnesota this season. Before he played for the University of Minnesota, where he was also outstanding.

Top Line

Walters is the center on the Gophers' first line. His linemates, left wing Rube Borkman and right wing Cal Engelstad are also highly rated hockey players. Borkman, a senior, is the major scoring threat of the Gophers' attack. Last season he ranked fourth among Minnesota scorers.

Engelstad is also a goal-getter. Last year he paced the Minnesota squad in goals with ten. Currently the three linemates, Walters, Borkman and Engelstad hold the top three runs in the scoring column for the Gophers.

In 15 games Borkman and Engelstad are tied for first place with 27 points. Borkman has 14 goals and 13 assists while Engelstad has nine goals and 18 assists.

Another Top Line

Another veteran line that the Gophers back to throw at the Spartans is the "Duluth Line" of Don Bodin, left wing, Russ Strom, center, and Bob Nyhus, right wing.

Although this line does not have the scoring power of the Gophers' first line they are constantly a threat when on the ice.

At defense Minnesota has two veteran combinations. The first is made up of Captain Jim Sedin and Frank Larson.

Sedin's defensive play against the Spartans was one of the highlights of the past series.

Defensive Combination

The other defensive combination is Mel Peterson and Chuck Masie. Peterson and Masie have both been outstanding in Minnesota to date.

The Michigan State squad retains high hopes of turning the tables on the Gophers this weekend. The advantage of playing on home ice coupled with added confidence and experience gained last weekend against Michigan Tech may enable the State sextet to upset Minnesota.

Not In Poll

DePaul lost to Kentucky 63-55 and to Oklahoma A & M 66-53 and 73-57 this season. Kentucky is top-ranked and Oklahoma A & M is No. 2 in the current Associated Press national poll. Beloit, a big frog in a small basketball pond, hasn't got a call in the poll. Its 14-3 record lists only DePaul as a major opponent.

But Beloit astounded some 12,000 Chicago stadium fans with its blazing speed, "volley-ball" passing and 47 per cent shooting against DePaul for a new stadium high of 94 points. That shattered the old scoring record of 86 points set by Illinois' whiz kids in 1943 and tied by Kentucky last season.

High Praise

At the Chicago basketball writers' meeting yesterday, Meyer said Beloit is one of the better teams in the nation and deserved high ranking. But Meyer tossed a little change of pace in his comment, too.

Joe Louis Meets Agramonte Tonight

Joe Louis meets Omelio Agramonte tonight at Miami stadium in a 10-round fight. Agramonte is expected to be the next-to-last before the return of Ezzard Charles for the heavyweight title.

Joe Louis, 34, is in excellent condition. The center weighed 207 pounds on Feb. 6, but he is expected to be in better shape.

Agramonte, 27, is a Cuban-born fighter who has been in the ring since 1945. He is expected to be a tough opponent for Louis.

The fight is expected to be a close one. Louis is a powerful fighter, but Agramonte is a skilled boxer.

'Gabby' Street, Ex-Brown, Card Manager Dies

JOPLIN, MO. — (AP) — Charles E. (Gabby) Street's colorful 50-year career in baseball ended yesterday.

The "Old Sarge," who served as player, manager and radio commentator during his years in the sport, died in a Joplin hospital at the age of 68.

He entered the hospital Jan. 24 and died of a malignancy of which he had never been advised. Twice before he had fought off the same trouble, undergoing operations in 1945 and 1949.

Managed Cards, Browns

Gabby's career included terms as manager of the two St. Louis major league teams, the Cardinals in 1930-33 and the Browns in 1938. He won pennants with the Cards in 1930 and 1931 and led them to a world series victory over the Philadelphia Athletics the latter year.

He considered those two years and his association with pitcher Walter Johnson, on Washington Senator teams as the highlights of his career. The Johnson-Street combination was one of baseball's great batteries.

Popular Figure

One of baseball's old guard, Gabby was a popular figure in baseball circles from coast to coast. Early in life he chose the nickname Gabby for himself and it suited him well. He had a seemingly endless supply of baseball yarns. He was the first man to catch a ball dropped from the Washington monument, a stunt which gained him much publicity.

Gabby broke in professional baseball with Hopkinsville, Ky. In the Kitty league in 1902. After a term with Terre Haute, Ind., in 1904 he went to the majors and played with the Senators, Cincinnati Reds, Boston Braves and New York Yankees.

Weak Hitter

A weak hitter—his lifetime major league average was .208—Gabby dropped into the minors in 1913. After his St. Louis Cardinal job, he managed San Francisco for two years and in 1936 handled St. Paul in the American association before being signed as Browns manager in 1938. In recent years he had been broadcasting Cardinal games over a midwestern network.

Kentucky Still In Lead, Aggies Second In Poll

NEW YORK — (AP) — If it takes another defeat to knock Kentucky off the top of the national college basketball rankings, then the Wildcats probably can relax and make themselves at home.

Adolph Rupp's proteges, whose only setback in 20 games was an overtime 43-42 loss to St. Louis in the Sugar Bowl, have only six regular season games left, and none of them look too tough.

78 First Places

Kentucky took a tighter hold on the No. 1 spot in the weekly Associated Press poll today by grabbing 78 first place votes from among the 168 sports writers and broadcasters who participated.

Oklahoma A. and M., although keeping numerical pace with a 19-1 record, dropped back a bit, getting only 15 first place nods. The Aggies trailed Kentucky in the point total—based on 10 for a first place vote, nine for second, etc.—1,239 to 1,100.

The Aggies have 11 tough games left, including a Thursday date with Oklahoma, the only team to beat them this year.

Russia Sets Topic For Meeting

Discussion Of Germany Demanded

PARIS — (AP) — Russia demanded in a note released by the French foreign office yesterday that German demilitarization hold the top spot in the proposed four-power foreign ministers' meeting.

Despite strong wording, the Russians left the door open for the introduction of other subjects, as desired by the western powers, if and when a conference is held.

Similar notes were sent to the United States and Britain.

Exchanging Views
The four powers have been exchanging views since Nov. 3, when Russia first proposed that the four powers discuss the disarmament of Germany.

Russia's reply, delivered to the western envoys in Moscow Monday, appeared to move slightly in the direction of breaking down differences over the scope and procedure of the projected meeting. But it was evident some fine legal points remained to be threshed out.

For instance, the wording of the Russian reply indicated Russia insists on holding a "council of foreign ministers"—the council that was set up in the four-power meeting at Potsdam in 1945. The western powers have spoken only of a meeting of the four foreign ministers, thus indicating they want to steer clear of the old Potsdam framework and start afresh.

Dangerous Purpose
Russia declared the three western powers were carrying on far-reaching negotiations with west Germany which had the "dangerous purpose" of reviving regular German armed forces and restoring a German war industry.

Russia said the negotiations to include such an army in the "integrated armed forces" to be commanded by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower did not "fully at all with the official statements about striving for peace."

Diplomats Predict No New War

FRANKFURT, Germany — (AP) — The best guess of key American diplomats in Europe is that Russia will not start a world war in 1951.

They feel, however, another struggle is almost inevitable in the years to come if the Kremlin's pressure against the west goes on unabated.

They are pessimistic that anything but propaganda wrangling would result from a new four-power conference, but they expect one will be held.

Viewpoints Shared
These are viewpoints widely shared among American diplomats from iron curtain countries who met in Paris last week and those from western European capitals who are now conferring in Frankfurt.

Ambassador Alan G. Kirk took part in both meetings before departing today by plane to return to his post in Moscow.

Americans reluctantly credit the Soviet government with some success to date in a campaign to sow disunity among the western allies and their peoples.

Germany The Issue
Rebuilding German military strength for a European defense force was an issue, until a few weeks ago, that had western leaders arguing at cross-purposes.

This apparently has been straightened out, at least as regards timing. A western force will be created first. Then the Germans, if conditions are right, will volunteer their contribution.

Some Americans say they believe that, even if west Germany recruited three times as many troops as the Soviet zone's 50,000 militarized police, the Kremlin might grudgingly accept the development.

Contribution Poll Listed By Davidson

Nearly 4,000 alumni and former students answered MSC's first roll call, contributing a total of $22,846.00 to the MSC fund, William Davidson, fund director announced today.

The class of 1902 was first with 31.8 percent representation and the patriarchy and class of 1901 were next in order.

Next high in representation were the classes of 1949, 1948 and 1947.

New Project

Collecting money in this manner is a new project for MSC but has been successfully done in various other colleges, Davidson said.

The fund is used to grant research fellowships, scholarships, professorships, and to provide special equipment for the college.

Basketball Research

Money from the fund already has been turned over to the department of physical education for men for use in a research project to determine whether high school basketball is injurious to teenage boys.

A "bone bank" was begun in the department of surgery and medicine of the School of Veterinary Medicine.

The department of zoology received a grant to be used to continue research on the effect of heredity upon tooth decay.

Camera Given

A special stroboscopic camera which makes possible the recording of machine operations in slow motion for records or analysis was purchased by the fund.

This high-speed equipment can photograph a bullet in flight, water dripping, or a golfer's swing.

Seven scholarships, and an Emeritus Professor's Research award were made earlier this year. The fund also provides for seven fellowships, one to each of the various schools of the college.

Historical Data

Other funds have been used for a history project to maintain complete historical data concerning MSC and a library project to provide for the compilation of old books used in the MSC history project.

Carload To Burn

Students Light Ciggies Free At Union Desk

Ever wonder why there are free matches at the Union desk? Well, the college has more than a carload to burn.

Th matches were bought up as war surplus at transportation cost. The matches were bought up as over a year now and the supply is expected to last for another year or more.

E. G. Foster, manager of dormitories and food services, pointed out that this is a fine opportunity for those students who are looking for something for nothing. The matches are now going at the rate of 5,000 packs per week.

The original plan was that the matches would pay for themselves by boosting cigarette sales.

Many returning strikers in the east attributed their action to their own patriotism and, last night's appeal of the defense mobilization director Charles E. Wilson. More than 5,000 were reported to have called off their strike.

Wilson, speaking with President Truman's approval, told a nationwide radio audience that the strikers could hurt the United States "more than all the communist armies in Korea put together."

Crowd Forms
A huge crowd of curious or worried spectators hampered rescue efforts.

Fire department trucks and ambulances converged on the scene within minutes after the smashed cars came to rest, some of them bent almost double as they plunged into the street.

Priests Give Rites

Priests were on hand to give the last rites to the dying.

Some of the bodies, beneath the terrible weight of the sharp, twisted metal, were ground to unrecognizable forms. No attempt was made to identify them as they were cut free.

Oakley Dietz, a passenger from Red Bank, N.J., said the bouncing, swaying car in which he was riding suddenly was split apart by a section of concrete abutment that pierced the coach.

Not Strike-Bound
The wrecked train had been running regularly despite the switchmen's "sick call" strike that curtailed service on a number of Pennsylvania lines. The strike ended yesterday.

Many of the confused, terrified passengers scrambled from the cars ready to dive. They were misled by the sheen of the pavement below—caused by melting snow—into believing the wreck occurred on a bridge over water. There are several rivers in the area.

"All I wanted to do was get out," said William M. Hall of Red Bank. "But I thought I was over water and wanted to dive out."

Previous tragic wrecks in the greater New York area within the last year claimed 110 lives on the Long Island railroad running east out of New York city. Thirty-two died at Rockville Centre last Feb. 17 and 78 were killed at Kew Gardens Thanksgiving eve.

Leonhardt To Talk To Pre-Law Club

Dr. Hans Leonhardt will speak on "The Difficulties of a Lawyer" Thursday night at a meeting of the Pre-Law Club, according to Bill Richardson, president.

The meeting is at 8:30 p.m. in room 34 of the Union. A proposed talk of the University of Michigan this month will also be discussed.
