Wives To Revive Play

"As the presentation date, April 5, approaches, 'Stork Flies Low Over Fertile Valley,' the play written, directed and acted by the Spartan Wives' drama group, is taking shape," said Mrs. Aldie Terrell, drama group chairman.

The cast practices every Thursday night. Every member of the group is a wife with a husband, in some cases. "Husbands assume the role of baby-sitters for the night," Mrs. Terrell said.

Following the play, a party is planned for the cast, workers, and their husbands. It will be held in the Spartan Wives' clubhouse, according to Mrs. Terrell.

"Stork Flies Low Over Fertile Valley" was presented before a full house last year. The drama group chairman said.

She added that college students, as well as Spartan Wives and their husbands attended.

Income Taxes Plus Coeds Equals Chaos

Income tax troubles have hit State coeds.

Women students who worked last summer have dragged out their slide rules, abacuses, adding machines and old algebra books.

"If I bought my kid sister's winter suit, does that make her a dependent?" one harried coed asked her roommate.

Sitting in the grill, another coed wailed, "I filled out a trillion items then I see in small print that if I made under $5,000, I'm filling out the wrong form."

The major anxiety is that the money won't be returned in time for the Easter shopping spree.

"It's only 19 bucks to the government, but it's an Easter hat for me!" said a Detroit junior.

"Maybe he can forward it to Albert Einstein," she explained, "he's the only one who can figure it all out. I think this business of income tax is wrapped up in the theory of relativity or something."

The whole situation was summed up by Victoria Conway, Grosse Pointe sophomore, who said, "I had from January to March to make this thing out. Why did I ignore the former and wait until the latter?"

"How eager can they get?"

For once in his life, our fervent friend admits that eagerness can be over-done! When the chips are down, he realizes cigarette mildness can't be judged in a hurry. That's why he made... Foreign Grads Plan Futures In Homelands

Future plans of three graduating foreign students sound much like those of the American graduates.

Renan Fontus, Haiti, is returning home but not because he doesn't want to stay. He says he likes it here and would enjoy working on his master's degree, but his scholarship has run out.

Fontus majored in agricultural mechanics and plans on getting a job in that field in Haiti.

Harley Holchis, Stratfordville, Ont., Canada, has a job lined up with the Superior Oil company in the province of Alberta. He will be able to put his degree in geology to good use there.

The most American statement, though, came from Ivan Faroh, Barquisimeto, Venezuela. He is going home to run the family business.

His father died two years ago and his mother has been running the construction company since then, waiting for Faroh to get his degree in landscape architecture.

It is the same all over the world, work!

Measure OK'd By Committees

(Continued From Page 1) announced plans to send four more divisions to serve with two U.S. divisions already in Europe. They will be assigned to the international army being formed under command of Eisenhower.

Mr. Truman claims the power to deploy troops as he deems necessary without direct congressional approval. The decision was made by the foreign relations and armed services committees on a resolution by the two chairmen, Connally (D-Tex.) and Russell (D-Ga.).

Carnival Heads Meet Tonight

Living group Water carnival chairman will meet tonight at 7:30 p.m. in room 420F in the Union, according to Ted Popowitz, publicity chairman.

Bill Frank, theme chairman, will preside over the drawing of individual float choices. Each group will have four choices. They must select one by next Monday afternoon.

Only thirty floats will be allocated this year. Popowitz urges groups to merge for the building of the floats for financial, social and judging reasons.

The judging will be on a basis of total points and will be given in consecutive order. Grace Teed, trophy and judging chairman, explained.

On 70-Mile Front Allies Gain Ground In General Attack

TOKYO—(AP)—United Nations troops in a general attack smashed five miles deep into Communist lines Wednesday on the west central sector of a flaming 70-mile front.

At the east end of the front an estimated 13,500 North Koreans struck hard at Republic of Korea troops and drove them back at least three miles.

These furious attacks and counterattacks may be a prelude to the expected Chinese spring offensive, with the Allies trying to keep the Reds off balance while the North Koreans probe for a soft spot in South Korean lines.

The U.S. 25th division with tanks stormed across the twisting Han river 15 miles east of Seoul to open the allied onslaught. Within six hours it reported an estimated 1,300 enemy killed and 100 captured.

Other Allied units all down the line to Pangnim kicked off with general attacks. Thundering artillery barrages plowed enemy positions along the front.

A field dispatch said the major gain of the day was a five-mile advance on the west central front west of pivotal Hoengsong.

Infantrymen of the Ninth corps pushed their way up rocky crags and cut the road between Yongdu and the major enemy base at Hongchon.

The dispatch did not say how close the Ninth corps elements were to Hongchon. But U.S. marines farther east last were reported about nine miles south of that enemy mainstay point.

Air reports of heavy unidentified reinforcements moving down into the area northeast of Pangnim, where the North Koreans launched their attack, led some front line commanders to believe that this might be the scene of the next Chinese counter offensive.

Spartans Fight Spartans As State, San Jose Clash

By DALE ARNOLD
 Saturday night's fistic battle at Jenison fieldhouse with San Jose, will pit Spartan against Spartan. The team name of the San Jose squad is the same as Michigan State's.

The San Jose delegation is one of the strongest that the school has produced. They have constantly had top ranking ring teams during the past few years, winning three consecutive California Collegiate Athletic association tournament championships. National title-holder of the 125 pound weight division is Mac Martinez. He is a devout religious student and will enter the ministry following graduation. He has won all but one of his 25 college bouts. Five other Golden Raiders are also undefeated this year. They are Al Tafora, 130 pounds, has won three straight; Johnny Johnson, 145 pounds with three wins and two draws; Bill Mendoza, 155 pounds, two wins; Nick Diez, 165 pounds, four wins; and Jack Scheberies heavyweight, who has won three.

Michigan State's record this season has been less impressive with two wins, two losses and a tie. Among the San Jose list of vic- tims is last year's national cham- pions, Idaho university. The San Jose record is: San Francisco State, 11-0; Washing- ton State, 6-1; Compton college, 6-1; Idaho, 4-1; Cal- ifornia Poly, 3-0.

Joe Schertzal, high scoring de- fenseman of Hershey in the American Hockey league, comes from Almamellek, Hungary.

IM Basketball Crown Copped By Snyder 14

Snyder 14 came from behind in the final three minutes to triumph 21-19 over East Shaw 9, copping the 1951 all-college intramural basketball crown last night. For the first time in intramural history a dorm team came out on top of the all-college play-offs. This was also the first time that both finalists represented dorms. Snyder grabbed an early lead, in cautious play. Shaw, paced by Tom Yewic's 7 points, rallied to recover the lead at the end of the first period.

The second half opened with Snyder trying for set up plays, while Shaw relied on fast breaks. With six minutes remaining, Tom Baer sank a field goal to put Snyder ahead 13-11. Fast, rugged play followed with Winnie Peter- son of Shaw connecting with a lay up, tying the game at 19-19 with three minutes to go. In the final seconds, Paul Dekker hook- ed in a two-pointer, giving Snyder the game.

Yewic of Shaw netted the in- dividual honors with 8 markers. John Douglas and Paul Dekker were high for the winners with 7 and 6 points respectively. The game was hard fought and aggressive all the way but few personal fouls were called as both teams showed agile guarding.

Queuille May Head Cabinet

PARIS — (AP) — Henri Queuille, who set a postwar record in longevity as premier, appeared last night on the way to forming his second French government.

Premier for one year and 25 days in 1948-49, Queuille spent the evening in conferences with leaders of other middle road parties in an effort to form a coalition and end the week-old cabinet crisis.

This was Queuille's second try at solving the political riddle which forced the Rene Pleven government to quit Feb. 28 when parliament deadlocked on proposals to revise the national election law.
