

Government Denies Rumors of Chinese Peace Feelers

By The Associated Press

Government authorities said yesterday there have been no peace feelers from the Chinese communists, thereby squelching rumors spreading among lawmakers that a settlement was near.

Sen. Omar N. Bradley took the floor yesterday to carry on the administration's statements by replying to statements by Sen. MacArthur. Bradley said the joint chiefs of staff are not in a position to make a statement.

Sen. Bradley said the feeling is growing among the Chinese that the U.S. is showing early signs of weakness.

Gen. Bradley Refuses to Tell of Mac's Firing

Possible Contempt Action Discussed

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Gen. Omar N. Bradley yesterday refused to tell senators what was said at the White House meeting April 6 when President Truman and his advisers first discussed the possibility of firing Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

The refusal immediately brought talk of possible contempt action to test Bradley's right to refuse, but there was no real indication such action would be taken.

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff declared: "If I have to publish my recommendations and my discomfusions, my value as a (presidential) adviser has been ruined."

He said he could not reveal what was said at the meeting without the permission of President Truman himself. Others present were Secretary of Defense Marshall, Secretary of State Acheson, and Presidential Adviser W. Averell Harriman.

Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) sought to get the information from Bradley during yesterday's session of the senate-armed services and foreign relations committees, which are inquiring into Asian policy and MacArthur's ouster.

Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the inquiry group upheld Bradley's position but he said the committee members have "a very effective and thorough way" of deciding the matter if they desire.

"They can overrule the chair," Russell said, "and decide General Bradley in contempt and let the courts pass on the issue once and for all."

Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) said: "I do think we might as well face the fact that what we face is the question of citation of contempt." But he said the question should not be pushed at this time because he is convinced the procedure never results in getting the desired information.

This issue exploded after Bradley told senators that MacArthur's Korean war plans "would involve us in the wrong war, at the wrong place, at the wrong time and with the wrong enemy."

With this sweeping declaration, the central rejected the MacArthur program for strong measures against Red China.

He said such a move would "increase the risk of global war" at a time when the United States is not ready for a showdown with Russia.

Faculty members serving the college athletic program will be among those named to honorary membership. Honorary members will be guests at the fry.

Tickets may be obtained for $1 at Johnson fieldhouse and from club members, according to Dick Roberts, chairman.

Spartans Trample Western, 12-2

Danny Simpson and Lee Hamon fight over the possession of a wheel in the comedy, "The Skin of our Teeth." Mary Anne Langhans moves Hamon's coat as Marilyn Marshall goes after his scarf. Dinosaur, Mammoth Add to Comedy of Term Play

A dinosaur and a mammoth add to the adventures of the Antobus family and their maid, Sabina, who go through one catastrophe after another in the course of the spring term play, "The Skin of our Teeth."

Twenty-two actors will be playing 27 different roles in this Pulitzer prize comedy by Thornton Wilder, which opens tomorrow night for three performances May 17, 18 and 19, at 8:15 in Fairchild theater.

The first act of the play, which seems to take place during the present time in Excelsior, introduces the audience to the leading members of the cast. These include such newcomers to Fairchild theater as Lee Hamon, Birmingham sophomore, Mary Anne Langhans, East Lansing sophomore, and Carol Sharp, New Lisheard, Ont., sophomore. They play the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Antobus and their daughter, Gladys.

Their son, Henry, will be played by Danny Simpson, Pontiac graduate, who has been seen recently in the term plays and with the Dionysians. Completing the family, as the comic maid Sabina, is Marilyn Marshall, Dearborn sophomore, a music major who appeared last year in "The Old Maid and the Thief."

Ant animals of the family include a dinosaur, played by Charles Parmelee, Bound Brook, N.J. senior, and a mammoth, played by Bob McClenahan, Wauwatosa sophomore.

The scene of the second act takes place on the gaudy boardwalk of Atlantic City, N.J., during the celebration of a convention of the Ancient and Honorable Order of Mammals. Mr. and Mrs. Antobus address the convention, tipsy convener chase Turkish dancing girls, and a fortune teller predicts the end of the world.

Sabina, the Antobus' former maid, is now a hostess in a bingo parlor and has just won the Atlantic City beauty contest. She talks Mr. Antobus into leaving his wife, and a series of accidents plus the coming of Noah's flood bring the play to a climax.

The third act returns to the Antobus home in New Jersey, which has just undergone the ravages of war. The play takes a serious turn with a new series of complications caused by the Antobus' son Henry. But Thornton Wilder brings forth some hilarious comic tricks.

Quayle Posts First Win in Relief Role

By STAN KURZMAN

A rejuvenated Michigan State baseball team rebounded yesterday from Saturday's loss to Michigan to wallop the Broncos of Western Michigan, 12-2. The game was played at Kalamazoo.

Coach John Kobs' sluggers pounded three Western Michigan pitchers for a total of 18 hits to avenge an earlier season defeat at the hands of the Broncos.

Outfielder Darrell Lindley and shortstop Joe Rivich paced the State attack with four safeties each.

Once again pitcher Don Quayle sparked in a relief role. Quayle came into the game in the fourth and went the rest of the way, giving up but one run and four hits.

Quayle entered the game in the fourth, replacing Chuck Gorman, with the bases loaded and nobody out. He fanned Bill Hayes, Al Horn and Bob Urdia in order to retire the side without further difficulty.

The Spartan batters pounded out seven extra base blows in the spacious Western Michigan park. These included two doubles, four triples and Dick Blanchard's inside-the-park homer.

Dick Moser had two of the triples and was robbed of another when Bronco centerfielder Francis Green pulled down his 400 foot smash after a long run.

Western Michigan's ace pitcher Jerry Hogan started for the Broncos and couldn't get past the first inning, when State pushed across four runs.

With one out and three walks, a single by Joe Rivich pushed across one runner. Lindley then poked out a base-clearing triple to right-center which chased Hogan from the mound.

Bob Urdia came into the fray to hurl until the sixth. He gave up a run in the fourth on one of Moser's triples and a single by "Corky" Ghuse.

Three singles and an error scored two more Spartan runs in the fifth and when Rivich opened the sixth with a single, Urdia left the mound in favor of Chuck Akonius, who finished the game.

He was tagged for a double by Lindley and Blanchard's home run in the sixth, good for two runs.

Moser got his second triple in the seventh and then stole home, while a double by Ghuse and three-bagger by Rivich gave State its final run.

Gorman hurled the first two innings for the Spartans in perfect style, retiring the first six men in order, but an error and a booming triple by Horn scored a run for Western in the third.

When he loaded the bases on another error and two walks in the fourth Coach Kobs took no chances and made the perfect choice of Quayle who then pulled his masterful feat.

State captain Vince Magi kept alive a spectacular streak of hitting safely in the last 13 games.

THE STORY OF AN ... WHO MADE JOBS FOR THOUSANDS THROUGH FREE ENTERPRISE

MAKING THINGS FLY ON EARTH AND IN THE SKIES NECESSITATES COVERING A LOT OF TERRITORY IN WIDELY SEPARATED FIELDS.

ROBERT GILMOUR LETOURNEAU, OF PEORIA, ILL., AND ELSEWHERE, HAS SUCCEEDED IN BOTH REALMS TO A POINT WHERE HE RATES AS AN OUTSTANDING AMERICAN INDUSTRIALIST AND A CHRISTIAN LAYMAN WITH THE AFFECTIONATE AND WELL-EARNED TITLE OF "FLYING" PREACHER.

THIS DID NOT COME ABOUT BY ACCIDENT, IT RESULTED FROM A COMBINATION OF RESEARCH AND LABOR UNDER THE AMERICAN SYSTEM OF FREE ENTERPRISE THAT ENCOURAGES INDIVIDUAL ENDEAVOR.
BORN NOVEMBER 30 1883 ON A FARM AT PICHFORDVT., ROBERT WAS ONE OF EIGHT CHILDREN IN THE HOME OF CALEB AND ELIZABETH LETOURNEAU.

...HIS EARLY YEARS WERE MARKED WITH VARIED ACTIVITIES, ALWAYS WITH A THIRST FOR KNOWLEDGE.
...A CORRESPONDENCE COURSE IN MATHEMATICS AND ENGINEERING ACQUAINTED HIM WITH THE WELDING PROCESS THAT WAS TO PLAY SUCH AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN HIS LATER LIFE.

...LEAVING SCHOOL WHEN HE WAS 14, ROBERT ACCOMPANIED HIS PARENTS ON A CROSS-CONTINENT TRIP THAT WITH SEVERAL PAUSES FINALLY LANDED THEM IN PORTLAND ORE. HERE, A ROBUST YOUNG MAN HE WORKED IN FOUNDRIES UNTIL HE WON UNION MEMBERSHIP AS AN IRON MOLDER.

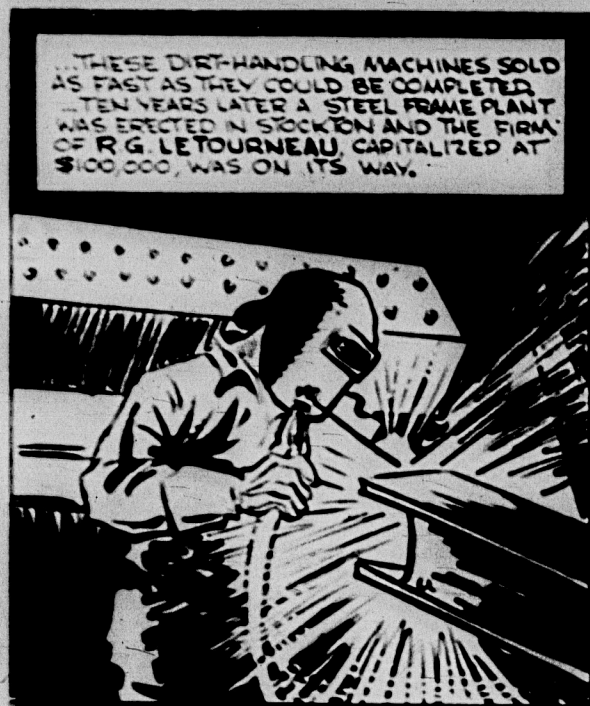

AT 19 POOLING HIS SMALL CAPITAL WITH A PARTNER, HE OPENED A GARAGE IN STOCKTON, CALIF. HERE HE LEARNED THE ADVANTAGES BOTH IN STRENGTH AND LIGHTNESS OF ACETYLENE WELDING TOGETHER WITH SPEED AND REDUCED COST.

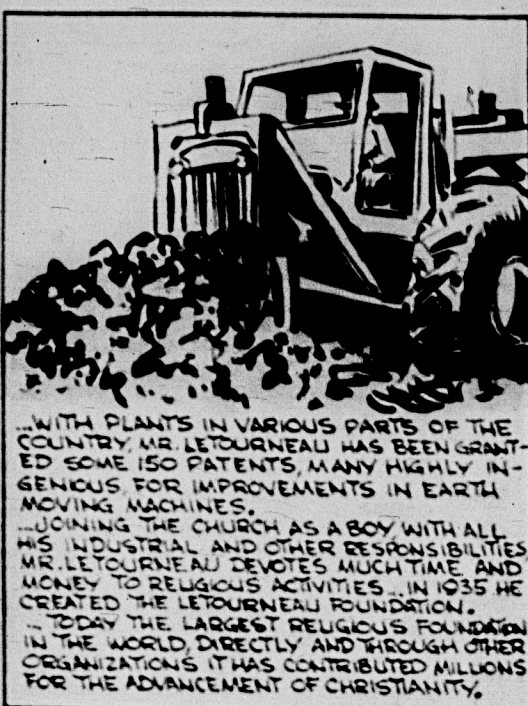

AT THE OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR I LETOURNEAU LEFT HIS GARAGE AND DID HIS BIT FOR UNCLE SAM AS A MACHINIST IN THE NAVY YARD AT MARINE ISLAND CALIF.

WITH THE WAR ENDED HE FOUND HIS GARAGE $5,000 IN DEBT. TO REIMBURSE HIS CREDITORS HE OPERATED A FARM LEVELLER AROUND STOCKTON. THE MACHINE WAS UNSATISFACTORY SO HE BUILT AN ALL-WELDED ONE OF REVOLUTIONARY DESIGN.

THESE DIRT-HANDLING MACHINES SOLD AS FAST AS THEY COULD BE COMPLETED.
TEN YEARS LATER A STEEL FRAME PLANT WAS ERECTED IN STOCKTON AND THE FIRM OF R. G. LETOURNEAU, CAPITALIZED AT $100,000, WAS ON ITS WAY.

WITH PLANTS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE COUNTRY, MR. LETOURNEAU HAS BEEN GRANTED SOME 150 PATENTS, MANY HIGHLY INGENUOUS FOR IMPROVEMENTS IN EARTH MOVING MACHINES.
JOINING THE CHURCH AS A BOY WITH ALL HIS INDUSTRIAL AND OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES, MR. LETOURNEAU DEVOTES MUCH TIME AND MONEY TO RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES. IN 1935 HE CREATED THE LETOURNEAU FOUNDATION.
TODAY THE LARGEST RELIGIOUS FOUNDATION IN THE WORLD, DIRECTLY AND THROUGH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS IT HAS CONTRIBUTED MILLIONS FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF CHRISTIANITY.

USING HIS PRIVATE AIRPLANE, HE FLIES SOME 200,000 MILES A YEAR CARRYING SPIRITUAL MESSAGES TO ALL CREEDS AND DENOMINATIONS. FREQUENTLY THESE BOOKINGS ARE MADE A YEAR IN ADVANCE. HE HAS BEEN THE INSPIRATION FOR TWO BOOKS - "GOD RUNS MY BUSINESS" AND "MOVING HEAVEN AND EARTH," ALSO MANY LEADING MAGAZINE ARTICLES.

IT WAS NOT ALWAYS SMOOTH SAILING FOR THE VERMONT FARM BOY ON HIS WAY UP, BUT HE NEVER LOST FAITH.

"TWO THINGS I LIKE MOST TO DO," HE CONFESSES, MODESTLY.

"ONE IS TO DESIGN MACHINES, TURN ON THE POWER, AND SEE THEM WORK. THE OTHER IS TO HELP TURN ON THE POWER OF THE GOSPEL AND SEE IT WORK IN PEOPLE'S LIVES."

Dr. Ernest B. Harper, head of the social service department, will participate in the annual meeting of the National Conference of Social Work at Atlantic City, N. J., this week.

Dr. Harper will deliver a paper on the significance and implications of a recent research study of the U. S. office of education. He will also take part in a panel discussion.

Reds Hurdle River Barriers

Garden Hose Gets Frisky: Takes a Dive

ANN ARBOR—(AP)—Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Beck have been engaged in a tug-of-war with their back yard for possession of their garden hose. So far, the back yard is winning.

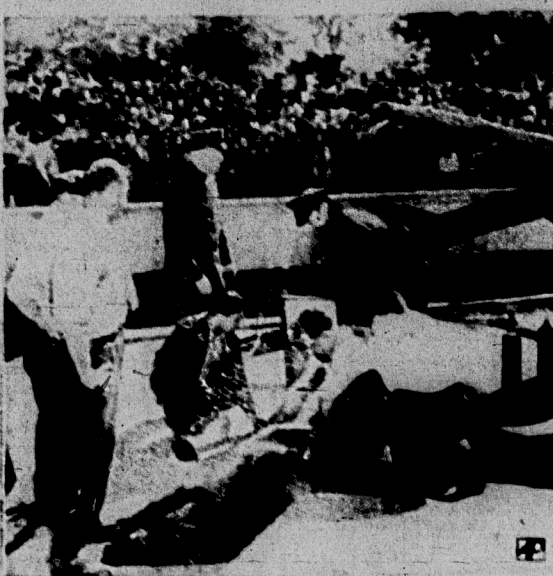

It's one of those pesky rarities which happen when a hose starts squirting water into sandy loam. A suction develops and pulls the hose into the ground like a frightened worm.

In the Beck's case, the hose was being used to water a young willow tree in the back yard of their suburban home. Mrs. Beck poked the nozzle into the soil and turned on the water.

At that point the hose took off for the underground, snaking wildly into the loam. Mrs. Beck screamed and turned off the water. Then she, her husband, and neighbors took turns pulling. The hose wouldn't budge.

They could dig around the hose to free it—but would kill the young willow. Or they could cut the hose off and let the backyard remain in possession of its share.

End of a Romance

A tense crowd watches as Bronx zoo attendants try to revive Makoko, a 14-year-old gorilla, which slipped into a water-filled moat outside its cage Sunday in New York and drowned. Efforts to revive the ape failed. The mishap ended a promising romance with a 12-year-old female gorilla, Oka, which zoo officials hoped to mate to Makoko.

U. S. Braces Strongholds

TOKYO—(AP)—Chinese communist forces hurled two river defense barriers in central Korea yesterday in front of stout U. S. defense positions braced for the next big Red blow.

A front line officer considered the moves preliminary to the next offensive, which may be the greatest yet launched by the communists in Korea.

"The expected Chinese offensive has not begun," he emphasized. "There is no Chinese offensive under way now."

Small probing attacks flared during the night along the Chunchon sector. That air and artillery-bashed town, 45 miles north-east of Seoul, is the key to road networks leading southward in the mountainous center of the peninsula.

Neither side now controls the town although allied patrols have entered it almost daily for the past 10 days.

The Reds crossed the Pukhan river southwest of Chunchon during the night in undisclosed numbers. They moved under cover of rain showers and low-hanging clouds that shielded them from allied night fighters and bombers. They occupied high ground just south of the river.

The second Red movement was across the Chovang river where the communists planted a bridgehead several days ago in spite of heavy allied artillery fire.

MSC Alum Honored

LeRoy T. Oehler, MSC alumnus living in Austin, Tex., has been awarded a Fulbright scholarship for study of civil engineering at the University of London during the 1951-52 school year. The announcement was made yesterday by Dr. A. T. Conrath, counselor for foreign students.

FBI Opens Red Investigation— at Naval Yard

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.—(AP)—Navy intelligence and the FBI are investigating American Legion assertions that a communist cell capable of sabotage is operating at the Portsmouth naval submarine shipyard.

The Navy made this announcement at Boston yesterday. At the same time Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) said he has asked the house un-American activities committee to inquire into the charges.

The charge of communist activity was voiced by Frank Sawyer, assistant of the New Hampshire American Legion, who said "we are convinced that a sufficient amount of evidence exists to warrant a thorough investigation." He added that the Legion had passed on its findings to Senator Bridges after investigating since October.

The Maine American Legion joined its New Hampshire brothers in recommending an inquiry. The yard is on the border between New Hampshire and Maine. It builds and reconditions submarines and was a beehive during the last war.

From the yard itself there was only a single terse comment, from Comdr. John B. Dudley, USN, operations officer.

JEBB ADDRESSES N. Y. BAR

England with US against Red-Backed Aggression

NEW YORK—(AP)—Sir Gladwyn Jebb defended British far east policy last night against American criticism. He pledged that, despite differences, "Great Britain is wholeheartedly with the United States in the general struggle against communist-inspired aggression."

Without mentioning either President Truman or General MacArthur by name, he also lauded Truman's policy of a "limited war" in Korea as taking "more guts" than the policy of "expanding the conflict to China."

Jebb's speech to the New York City bar association and billed as a major policy address, was one of the most forthright expositions of British views since the "great debate" began following the ouster of General MacArthur.

The British delegate to the UN said his government would not support a total embargo on trade with Red China because it would be "cutting off your nose to spite your face."

He said British recognition of the Chinese Reds was not a moral judgment, but recognition that they control the mainland. He said, however, that Britain would not support Peking's bid for admission into the UN until Peking ends its aggression in Korea.

He deplored describing British troops in Korea as a "human force," as General MacArthur did, and said such an attitude was "the reverse of generosity."

He denounced what he called "grossly exaggerated accounts of our trade with China," which he said were spread in this country by "their ill-wishers."

Sabina returns to her role as the maid, and the play ends in a burst of music.

Jim Mohler, Jackson senior, edited the two color motion picture sequences which are used in the "Skin of Our Teeth" in the form of "News Events of the World." These film episodes introduce the first and second acts of the play.

Interior shots of the film were taken under the bright lights of Fairchild stage, with specially designed scenery. Exterior shots were made on location at the home of Mrs. Lee Worthington in East Lansing.

Announcer for the film sequences will be Jim Adams, E. Lansing junior, who is on the announcing staff at WKAR. Members of the cast play all the roles in the film, and generally agree that motion picture acting is a lot harder than acting on the stage because of the constant interruptions for technical accuracy.
